Gorman Changes Districts Under UIL Realignment

Gorman school has been reassigned to different districts in both football and basketball under the new realignment by the University Interscholastic League in their new setup in sports.

The Gorman Panthers will participate in District 14A under the new setup and will have an eight member district. The teams participating in District 14A will be Evant, Gorman, Lometa, May, Ranger, Rising Star, Santo and Tolar. New members in the district will be Ranger, which dropped down from Class 2A, May, who moved up to 11 man from 6 man football, Santo and Tolar. Moving from last year's district setup are: Baird, Cross Plains and Santa Anna. They will be in District 13A.

In the new alignment in the basketball district the UIL has placed Baird, Cross Plains, Gorman, Ranger and Santa Anna in District 28A. Ranger is the new member and Rising Star and Eula moved to other districts.

This new lineup in District 14A will mean that Gorman will still have some long trips to play football, but, overall, it should make for some real good games in the district.

First Baptist Church of Desdemona had good attendance last Sunday. Each Sunday School Class had more members to attend. Special music was presented by the church quartet, Wilma Faye (Davis) Iley, Helen Collum, Wayne Eaves, Elwood Ragland with Karen Eaves at the piano. Visitors for the morning service were Hershel and Wanda Brinson of Morgan Mill, Dale and Barbara Kay of Fritch, Gary Dean Kay of Brownwood. Bro. Jim Haggard of Strawn is serving as interim pastor. Bro. Jim and all the church members would like to invite you to attend Sunday School at 10:00 a.m. and church service at 11:00 a.m. each Sunday.

Our sincere sympathy goes out to the family of Corine (Aunt "Red" Brown) Seaton in Marshall. Burial was in Marshall. She was former resident of Desdemona. Survivors includes her husband, Dick Seaton, one brother, A.L. Brown, one sister, Lola Brown Jones all of Marshall. Preceded in death by her parents, Alva Lee and Pearl (Lingle) Brown, two brothers, Merlin Brown and "Dink" Brown, one sister, Claudia Brown Buckley.

Ron Godfrey of Arlington, brother of Jim Godfrey in the Jakehamon Community is in the process of making a decision to move to this area upon the purchase of land with house to move into. We always welcome new residents to help our community grow.

Dale and Barbara Kay of Fritch, Texas and their son, Gary Dean Kay of Brownwood visited over the weekend in Desdemona with their relatives, Ruth (Williams) Daffron, Leo and Eloise (Wisdom) Williams, U.T. and Eveyln (Williams) Yardley and they all attended church last Sunday at First Baptist.

"Ground Hog Day" for 98 has already come and gone, shadow or no shadow from that pesky furry creature we will have to accept the weather each day as it comes. This reporter's husband says that the "Texas weather is like the Texas women." I said yeah that is only one man's opinion.

Eveyln Hare of DeLeon and Nell Ragland of Desdemona took Nell's father, Jim Grimshaw of DeLeon to Clovis, New Mexico to visit his brother, Fitzhugh Grimshaw who is in the hospital. Fitzhugh is almost 100 years old.

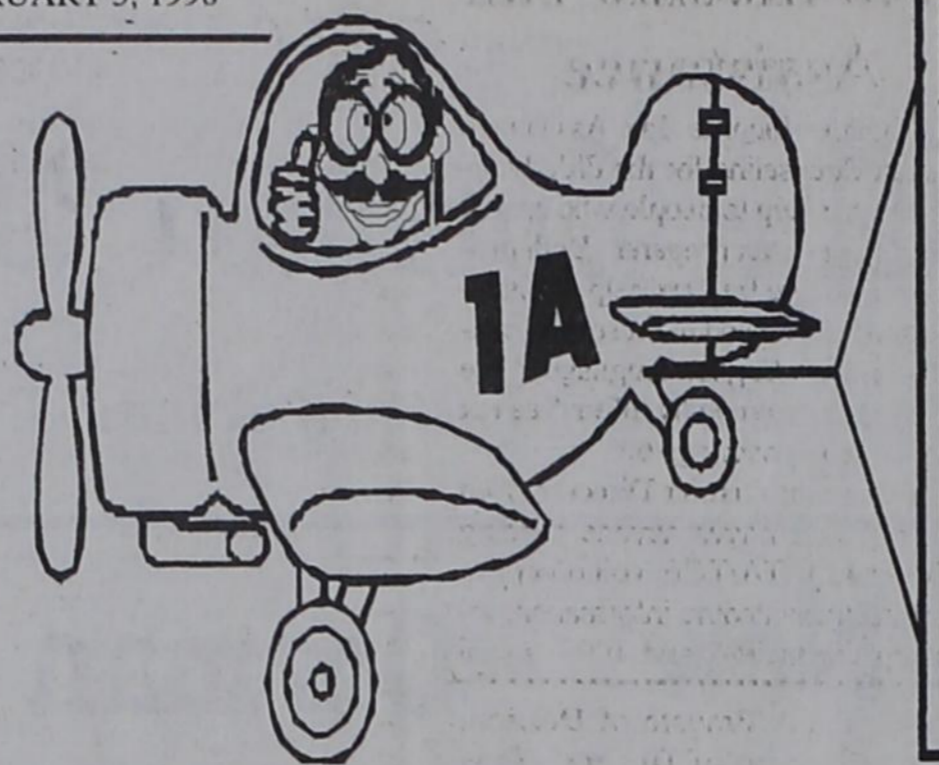

Hillbilly Humor-A hillbilly preacher phoned the Board of Health to have a dead mule removed from his front yard. The young clerk who answered at the desk thought he would be so smart. He said "I thought you preachers took care of the dead." "We do", the preacher answered kindly, "But first we always get in touch with the relatives."

ONE LITTLE ROSE

I would rather have one little rose
From the garden of a friend
Than to have the choicest flowers
When my stay on earth must end.
I would rather have one pleasant word
In kindness said to me
I would rather have a loving smile
From friends I know are true
Than tears shed round my casket
When this world I've bid adieu.
Bring me all your flowers today
Whether pink, or white, or red
I'd rather have one blossom now
Than a basketful when I'm dead.

The Spirit of Murder

by Rev. Dane Gressett
"Thou shalt not commit murder."
 (Exodus 20:13)

Of all the Ten Commandments this one is most widely known and readily accepted. Ask just about anyone to name some of the commandments and you will hear it. They may not recall any of the others but this one they know. Why is it?

It is largely because this is the commandment most people are confident they haven't broken! "Yeah, I've cursed, lied and stolen but at least I'm not a murderer." Jesus confronted this self-righteous attitude in His earth days. "You have heard that the ancients were told, 'You shall not commit murder'... But I tell you that everyone who is angry with his brother shall be guilty before the court; and whoever shall say to his brother 'good for nothing', shall be guilty before the Supreme court; and whoever shall say 'You fool', shall be guilty enough to go into the fire of hell." (Matthew 5:21-22)

Jesus reveals that people can have the spirit of murder in their hearts and be just as guilty in God's sight as those who shed blood. Anger, bitterness, resentment, jealousy, and criticism are the motives of murder. Jesus looks at our hearts not just our outward actions. Nothing is hidden from His sight. Do you live at peace with others or is there someone you speak harshly of and refuse to be reconciled to? Perhaps you are guilty of the spirit of murder.

This is a sin much greater than murder. That sin is rejecting the One that God sent into the world to save men from a certain judgment and eternal hell. Jesus can and will forgive murderers in heart and action if they will repent, confess their sin, and receive Him as the Lord of their life. He allowed Himself to be murdered at the cross so that a world full of murderers would have the opportunity to be made right with God. What is your response to-day?

BY ATTORNEY GENERAL DAN MORALES

HOME EQUITY LOANS COME TO TEXAS

IN NOVEMBER 1997, Texans voted to amend the state constitution, making home equity loans legal in Texas for the first time. We at the Office of the Attorney General want you to understand your rights if you are considering a home equity loan.

What the Law Says

Under the new law, the total amount of all liens against your property, including the mortgage, tax liens and home equity loan lien, may not exceed 80 percent of the fair market value of your home. For example, if you own a home worth $100,000, and you owe $50,000 on the mortgage, the most you can borrow through a home equity loan is $30,000. Only one lien securing a home equity loan may be in effect at any given time, and only one such lien may be approved per year.

There is a 3-day cooling off period after you close on the loan.

This means you have three days to change your mind and cancel the loan without paying any fee or penalty. In addition, you must wait 12 days between the time you submit your loan application and the day you close on the loan.

Other safeguards are:

- You can only lose your home by order of a court.
- You and your spouse cannot be held personally liable for the loan, unless you obtain it by fraud.
- You can repay the loan in advance without paying a penalty, and your lender cannot force you to repay the loan faster simply because the market value of your home goes down.
- Your lender cannot force you to use the home equity loan to pay off another debt.
- Lenders cannot use wage garnishment as security for a home equity loan.
- You are not required to sign any form or applications which has blank spaces to be filled in at a later date.

Home Equity Loan Scams

Home equity scams are a growing problem for consumers and law enforcement officials alike. In the most common schemes, a con artist will convince a home owner to take out a home equity loan and invest the cash in a bogus investment, mortgage refinancing offer, home improvement scam, debt consolidation plan, or similar scheme.

- Be leery of anyone who offers to help you get a home equity

Traffic woes continue in most major cities

COLLEGE STATION - Traffic in the nation's largest cities is continuing to stack up, experts say, and few of those cities have been able to make meaningful progress in resolving their congestion problems.

Findings from a 10-year study recently completed by the Texas Transportation Institute (TTI) show that only five major cities have actually improved their traffic congestion levels since 1988, while three have managed to maintain the same levels. Congestion in the remaining 42 cities has increased anywhere from one percent to 31 percent.

"Urban Roadway Congestion - 1982 to 1994" quantified traffic congestion in Texas' largest seven cities along with 43 other urban areas across the nation. TTI researchers Tim Lomax and David Schrank calculate an area's daily volume of travel per lane of freeways and major streets to arrive at a roadway congestion index.

Since 1988, Salt Lake City and Columbus, Ohio, experienced the greatest congestion growth, while Boston, Houston, Philadelphia, New Orleans and Norfolk, Va., actually saw their congestion levels decrease.

Most of those that either improved or stayed the same did so for one of two reasons - either the city built more freeway lanes and streets to handle the demand, or demand was reduced as a result of an economic downturn.

Archaeologists search for Civil War supply ship

COLLEGE STATION - Researchers from the Institute of Nautical Archaeology at Texas A&M University are wading into history in search of one of the most successful blockade runners of the Civil War.

A team of nautical archaeologists from the Texas A&M-based INA is trying to locate the wreck of the blockade runner Denbigh, destroyed by Union naval vessels off Bolivar Point in 1865.

The scouting trip is the first of what INA officials hope will be a series of shipwreck investigations in Texas rivers and in Texas waters in the Gulf of Mexico. As many as 2,200 shipwrecks can be found in Texas rivers and coastal waters, says J. Barto Arnold, INA director of Texas operations.

"There are Texas Navy ships from the Republic period, river steamboats and three big Civil War blockade runners," Arnold says. "One of the ships from the 1554 Spanish treasure fleet is near Point Mansfield Pass."

"Very little work has been done on any of these wrecks," he notes.

The Denbigh, a 182-foot-long converted merchant vessel, was one of the most successful blockade runners of the war. It made 33 successful runs from Havana, Cuba, to Mobile, Ala., and Galveston before it ran aground near Bolivar Point the night of May 23, 1865, while trying to enter Galveston Bay. Union naval vessels blockading Galveston shelled and destroyed the Denbigh the next day, Arnold says.

"The odds of finding it are pretty good," Arnold says. "The map references are relatively recent and they were made by engineers who should have known what they were doing."

The Romans had the first known pharmacies and wrote the first prescriptions calling for definite amounts of drug ingredients.

loan so that you can take advantage of a special one-time-only investment offer.

- Have all of the paperwork relating to the loan reviewed by a lawyer or financial advisor of your choice. Do not rely solely on the advice of a lawyer or accountant brought in by the lender.

Be wary of unfamiliar lenders or investment counselors who offer to process all of the paperwork related to consolidating your debts or investing the proceeds of your loan. They may pocket your cash instead, leaving you with no equity in your home, no cash, and bills still waiting to be paid.

Borrow Wisely

Thoroughly investigate potential lenders and investment offers. Get independent financial or legal advice before you act. Be honest in assessing how much debt you can afford, and shop around to make sure you are getting the best return for your money. Above all, do not let others rush you into making decisions.

Whether your goal is debt consolidation, making home repairs, investing for college tuition, or financing a dream vacation, the basic rules for smart investing are just as valid when considering a home equity loan as they are for any other financial decision.

the topic I picked for my Wednesday visit with my friends at Heritage Manor. What was the best birthday you can remember?

Velma B. started with a story of getting money for one of her presents. She went shopping and got to buy some beautiful beads and a Chinese folding fan. Her favorite birthday cake is coconut.

S.D. Gilmore remembered one time, before his parents passed on, that his whole family showed up for one of his birthdays. His favorite cake is banana.

Ollie H. remembered a party for which she got a brand new dress. A lot of her friends came and they played games. her favorite cake is chocolate.

A.V. Seay didn't get to have many parties but she loves strawberry cake.

Ora Mae remembers the family getting together for ice cream and cake when anyone had a birthday.

Cynthia E. said her best one was last year. That's when Velma B. played the mouth harp and lots of friends showed up. Her favorite cake is angel food with strawberries.

Inez R.'s favorite cake is coconut.

Everyone remembers singing Happy Birthday in class at school when someone had a birthday. Spanking (with "one to grow on") during recess was also real popular.

Till next time, Brother Bob

MAMMOGRAPHY CAN SAVE YOUR LIFE!!!

If you are a healthy woman over 40 who never has had a mammogram, the American Cancer Society recommends that you have this simple life-saving procedure now. Since one woman in 10 develops breast cancer at some point in her lifetime, the urgency is real.

A screening mammogram is an x-ray of the breast using extremely low dosages of radiation (usually compared to dental x-rays) and is designed to find very early cancers.

A female technologist who is highly trained in mammography will perform the examination. These images are then interpreted by a Board Certified Radiologist, and a report is sent to your own doctor. It takes only a few minutes, and can detect incipient breast cancer as small as the period at the end of this sentence.

Early detection (18 months sooner than a lump can be felt) not only permits treatment before the problem becomes serious, but the cure rate is over 90 percent. Mammography cannot only save your life, but help you avoid the need for disfiguring surgery, too.

You don't need to have been a previous patient of our to receive this screening, but you do need to make an appointment at a time convenient to you.
