S. Africa Troubles Drawing To Climax

By ARTHUR GAVSHON
JOHANNESBURG, South Africa, March 28 (AP)—The battle cries of white supremacy which today dominate the South African general election campaign have widened the gulf between races.

Fear and passion stalk the troubled land over this issue as the tempo of campaigning nears its April 15 climax.

Law-abiding supporters and opponents of the government alike seemed distressed as musclemen continued to break up opposition meetings with eggs, tomatoes and stones.

The race-proud government of Prime Minister Daniel F. Malan meantime sent shivers down the nation's spine by charging non-white leaders have threatened to "kill all Europeans . . . train armies in the night . . . shed blood . . ."

Non-white leaders themselves deny the charges, asserting they have foregone the use of violence as a method of political struggle. Up to now they have used passive resistance and occasionally strikes to register political protest.

The fateful struggle centers around the problem: how can the divided, outnumbered Whites preserve a bridgehead against the rising tide of black men?

Basically all Whites in this strategic chunk of the British Commonwealth want the same thing—maintenance of the present master-servant relationship.

Their prosperity and comfort depend on it. It is the Negro who works in the white man's kitchen, minds his cattle and children, cleans his streets, mines his gold and digs his grave.

And just about all the Whites agree with Malan's theory of apartheid—an Afrikaans catchword with no special meaning which seems to have helped woo the nation into voting the Nationalists into power in 1948. Simply stated, the theory is that South Africa's main racial groups must either mix or separate.

For the Whites to mix would, it is held, be to drown themselves in a sea of non-Whites four times more numerous than themselves.

So, without qualification, almost all reject the idea.

About half the country's Whites differ from Malan over the way the Nationalists have set out to stay bosses.

The Nationalists frankly favor a stern rule to sort and separate the races, to keep non-Whites "in their places" and so "save white South Africa."

Their solution, for example, to mounting native crime: hire more cops, build more jails.

The United party opposition, led by J. G. N. Strauss, has promised to try to take race relations out of party politics if it is elected.

Amateurs To Fight Bulls In The Juarez Ring For Church

EL PASO, Tex., March 28 (AP)—Four U. S. amateurs—a magician, a cashier, a sailor and a machine operator—face vicious Mexican bulls tomorrow for the sake of a little church.

They fight in the colorful ceremony for free. Whatever is taken in at the gate will go toward buying windows for what has become an international chapel.

The church, Santuario de Jesuista, the Chapel of the Little Jesus, stands on a barren hill in the Colonia Duranguense section of Juarez, just across the Rio Grande from this Texas city.

Its construction—bit by bit—started in 1945, painstakingly, residents of both the Mexican and American sides of the border have donated time, materials and efforts toward completing it.

The job is almost done. The chapel still needs new benches, a permanent altar—and the windows. It probably will get windows after Sunday.

The four El Paso men hope to net 15,000 pesos—about $2,000—for their efforts with the cape and blade in Juarez' Plaza de Toros.

It won't be quite as dangerous as it might first appear. All but one of the four have fought bulls before.

Panchito Reyes, dry goods store cashier, has 12 kills to his credit; Al Johnson, magician, and Enriquez Arriola, clothing factory machine operator, have fought before.

Richard Evans, recently discharged after a hitch in the Navy, will make his first appearance in the legend-draped plaza. But he has been practicing carefully. He is one of the few Negroes to chance the Latin sport.

But even with some experience, it's still no small feat for a man to face a thousand or so pounds of bellowing, raging black Mexican fighting bull.

The four offer their courage for the church.

It's just a little adobe place—a place to go on Sunday to worship. But, as Reyes puts it: "It's our church."

Pleasanton Man Is Suspect In Bank Robbery

JOHANNESBURG, March 28 (AP)—Sheriff Ray Strickland of Pleasanton today named a 25-year-old Pleasanton man as the No. 1 suspect in the holdup of the Charlotte State Bank.

A search for him was under way in the Tilden-Callahan area.

It was near Tilden Wednesday that a huge man hunt for the bandit began. But the search was discontinued when Winston Lemons, 35-year-old robber and rapist who escaped from Ramsey Prison Farm March 13, turned up in Oklahoma. Lemons was believed to have been the bank robber.

Strickland's suspicion of the man is based on these points:

1. The truck abandoned following a chase by sheriff's deputies near Tilden Wednesday is owned by a friend of the suspect.
2. The man disappeared from Pleasanton around the time of the holdup.

Search for the suspect centered around the Callahan area late yesterday when a truck was stolen from a farm here. The truck contained a rifle, Strickland said, adding that there is reason to believe the new suspect stole the vehicle.

The man who held up the Charlotte bank was described by bank officials as wearing a black patch over one eye. Strickland said the suspect has a scar on his cheek near the eye and that he sometimes wears a patch over it.

Choate, Slaughter To Appear At Trial In Borden County

District Clerk George Choate and Sheriff Jess Slaughter have been subpoenaed to appear at a trial in Borden County Monday.

The trial is that of Fred Moore and Leslie Gaskin, and it will be held in 132nd District Court at 9 a.m.

Choate stated that Moore was convicted here in 1940 on charges of forgery and passing a forged instrument. He was given two sentences of two years each, running concurrently.

The two men believe they are to appear in connection with Moore's trial. They do not know anything about Gaskin, except that the man is charged with a felony.

Moore was indicted by the Borden County Grand Jury on charges of being a habitual criminal.

School Consolidation Election Is Saturday

The Elbow-Castle consolidation election will be held next Saturday along with regular school trustee elections.

County Judge R. H. Weaver announced today that polling places would be at the Cauble and Elbow schools. However, different ballot boxes will be used than in the trustee election, he said.

Election judges are Ernest Box, Elbow, and Mable Dunagan, Cauble.

Weaver said that voters in both school districts must approve merger before the consolidation move can be made.

Woman Is Fined $25

Showdown Vote On Teacher Pay Due This Week

AUSTIN, March 28 (U)—Every body expects the $600 annual pay raise for teachers to be the big issue in the Legislature this coming week.

It could be the show-down week. Could be that Sen. A. M. Aikin, Paris, author of the measure in the Senate, can bring it up for floor debate in the higher chamber. He says he's ready, but there's a technicality that may delay him until after the Legislature gets through with the big money bill for state services.

Could be that backers in the House will try every day to get some kind of test vote, see where the representatives stand now after 75 days of the session.

In the Senate, the raise has committee approval and is ready for debate. In the House, it's still in a committee with no date set for public hearing.

The teacher pay raise proposition is the pivot point in the Legislature at this time. It would cost the state an additional 30 to 35 million dollars a year. That means more taxes, the conservatives say. Okay, pay for it with a natural gas tax, the liberals reply.

The situation on the other problems:

Taxes—A court test of the present tax on the gathering of natural gas Friday moved to the State Supreme Court. The million dollars a month it would add to state revenue is tied up during the suit. More pressure built up for another kind of natural gas pipe line tax. The first hearing on a major tax bill will be before a House committee Wednesday on a measure increasing taxes on natural resources. It would raise an estimated 84 million dollars a year.

Spending—The state budget for the next two years went to a joint Senate-House conference committee Thursday. Conferees expected to take two weeks to work it out.

Auto Inspection—The measure amending and relaxing the present law will be given a public hearing before the Senate Highways Committee Tuesday afternoon. The House already has passed the relaxed bill and voted against repealing the law entirely.

Jury service for women—Approved by the House and by a Senate committee, still awaiting Senate floor action.

Water—Five of the governor's bills on stop gap legislation to give the Water Board more power have House committee approval. The most controversial, one to cancel water permits issued in the past 10 years, will be heard before the House Conservation Committee Tuesday.

Election laws—Proposed revisions to be heard before a House committee Monday night. The presidential primary bill approved by the Senate still awaits action of a House committee.

Congressional redistricting—Nothing new. A committee is working on the problem of re-aligning Texas' 21 congressional districts to get in a 22nd, but has no progress to report.

Warning Given On PO Boxes

Persons holding boxes in the Big Spring Postoffice who do not pay the rent for the quarter ending June 30 by the time the office closes Tuesday evening will find themselves locked out Wednesday morning and their mail in general delivery, Postmaster Nat Shick warned yesterday.

"Notices were placed in every one of the boxes several days ago," Shick said. "Some people will claim they didn't get a notice. The trouble is that somebody takes the notice out of the box with the mail and either overlooks it or forgets it."

Shick said that because of the large number of applications for boxes (there never seems to be enough to meet the demand) he has been instructed by the Postoffice Department to lock every box upon which the rent has not been paid in advance by postal regulations, and to immediately rent it to some other person.

"And we intend to do it, too," he added.

Stanton To Note Industrial Week

STANTON (SC)—Texas Industrial Week which starts April 1 will be appropriately observed here according to Mrs. Hilda Weather, manager of the Martin County Chamber of Commerce.

Wednesday the Chamber's Merchants Committee, of which Glenn Brown is chairman, will conduct a tour of the business places in Stanton. The public is invited to participate. Brown will be assisted by Bob Deavenport and Coats Bentley. The group will leave the Chamber of Commerce office at 9:30 a.m.

Later in the week the Industrial Committee, of which Bob Whitaker is chairman, will tour the industries throughout the city and county. Members of this committee scheduled to assist with the program are R. F. White, Cecil Bridges, John Rousche and F. O. Rhodes. The day and hour for this second tour are to be announced.

House Group Pays Visit To State Hospital

Paying the Big Spring State Hospital a surprise visit Saturday, members of the House committee on hospitals and special schools tossed the management a bouquet.

"We were highly pleased with conditions at this hospital," said Virginia Duff, Ferris, chairman of the House committee.

Miss Duff and Doug Crouch, Denton, and W. W. Perry, Stephenville, other committee members on the trip, linked money with the only suggestion they could make.

Dr. Roy Sloan, superintendent, needs more staff, something that can result only from additional appropriations, they pointed out.

The committee appeared announced at Dr. Sloan's office Saturday and conducted the members on a tour of the entire facilities. With them were T. B. Wright, Bonham, another member of the House.

While in Big Spring the committee paid a call on Rep. Obie Bristow, representative from the 101st legislative district, who is home for the week end. The committee had made a pop call Friday at the Wichita Falls state hospital.

Some plans are in the making for capital improvements at the Big Spring State Hospital, but there was no definite word on this from members of the committee.

Mrs. McDowell Is Picked For Cancer Crusade Position

Selection of Mrs. Lorin S. McDowell of Garden City as Glasscock County Cancer Crusade chairman and educational chairman for the American Cancer Society was announced today by Dick Simpson of Big Spring, layman director of the ACS in District 2.

"Although 5,405 Texans died of cancer in 1951, we are participating in an increasingly successful work. Many people are being cured of cancer with the knowledge we now have. More lives can be saved through early diagnosis and prompt treatment," Simpson said.

Mrs. McDowell will serve as a member of the county cancer committee and will be responsible for the Glasscock County Cancer Crusade, the American Cancer Society's educational and fund-raising campaign, during April.

Mrs. McDowell is the wife of a prominent Garden City rancher and is now serving her second term as president of the P-T-A in that city. The other American Cancer leader for Glasscock County is Dr. Floyd R. Mays Jr., of Big Spring, serving as the county medical advisor.

Luke AFB Thunderjets Dust-Off Webb Runways

MaJ. C. H. Gipson, (left), group operations officer from Luke Air Force Base, prepares to blast his F-84G Thunderjet from Webb's parking area to the takeoff runway. The major led his three wingmen at 500 miles per hour on several low-altitude fighter-bomber sweeps like the one barely caught by the cameraman (above). All four of the pilots had seen Korean duty in the Thunderjets. The simulated combat runs were made only a few feet above the jet runway at Webb. Cadets and instructors were assembled up and down the flight ramp Saturday afternoon to observe the spectacular mock-combat sweeps. (Official U. S. Air Force Photo).

Thunderjets Visit At Webb

Webb Air Force Base was treated to a four plane flyover Saturday afternoon when a quartet of F-84G's, jet fighter craft, visited the field. The group, led by Major C. H. Gipson, was from the group operations section at Luke Air Force Base in Arizona. The major, a Korean air combat veteran of some 87 missions in F-84s, was in command of the unit that included first lieutenants Matthews, Creech and Kingston all of whom are pilot-instructors at Luke. The lieutenants all have over 100 combat missions each. Following combat paired take-offs, the foursome circled the base area before making full-throttle passes at the runway. A low-level swoop across the landing strip in a tight diamond formation was accomplished at approximately 550 to 575 mph. Pull-ups, combined with aerobatics, topped off the miniature aerial exhibition. The group had visited Webb in conjunction with an indoctrination program aimed at sharing Korean returnees' combat experience with local students and instructors.

Socorro's Going To Start Over And Texas, U. S. Better Be Good

SOCORRO, N. M., March 28 (UP)—It all started with a traffic fine and now Socorro County is planning to secede from the Union, taking sizeable chunks of Arizona and Texas with it. This southern New Mexico town of 4,300 has no choice. It not only doesn't know where it is, it isn't even sure if it is. What started the movement for a Socorro Free State was a motorist fined for drunken driving. He appealed the case to the district judge. The judge asked to see the city ordinance. But when city fathers finally dug it up, the judge commented it looked like it had been blowing around the street. There was no signature and no city seal. Several other ordinances, including ones on speeding and drunk driving, were thrown out. That prompted a check of Court-house records to determine what other laws might be invalid. It turned out that Socorro County, which at the time covered a sizeable portion of New Mexico and Arizona, had never been officially ceded to the Republic of Texas by Mexico. There's no record of any later transfer of the county's land to Arizona. When Texas ceded to the U. S. territory which now includes about half of New Mexico, Socorro County wasn't officially included in the deal. The more Socorro people thought about it, the better idea it seemed just to secede from the United States and start all over again. "We all expect to be millionaires as soon as we can get loose," one resident explains. "There'll be no income tax and no draft. "Some folks down in El Paso, Tex., have said they'd be interested in joining us. They don't feel like Texas is giving them a square shake. "And if those Texans get too ornery, why we'll just secede from them and start again." Clara Waggoner, district attorney, thinks it's a good idea, but comments: "Those Yankees will find something wrong with it." Some of the schemes which secession-minded residents have advanced include a legal gambling establishment along the lines of Monte Carlo. Drinking likker at $2.50 a gallon...cigarettes at 5 cents a pack. Socorro, incidentally, freely translated from the original Spanish means: "Help!"

Actual gathering of refuse will begin April 20. However, the Chamber of Commerce civic and beautification committee has been convoked for a planning meeting. Sam McComb, chairman, said that the session would be held in room No. 2 at the Settles on Wednesday. The committee may set an earlier date for the kick-off of the campaign. This would help to have trash gathered and ready for city trucks when they start the rounds. The pick-up date was fixed Saturday morning at a conference between City Manager H. W. Whitney, Superintendent of Streets, R. V. Foresyth, and J. H. Greene, Chamber manager.

MEANEST MAN WILL SUFFER

ALBANY, N. Y., March 28 (UP)—Gov. Dewey today signed legislation aimed at "the meanest man in the world." Dewey said the meanest man was "one who would take away from war veterans who have lost arms or legs their only sport." The measure prohibits night fishing in a stretch of creek where patients of veterans hospitals in Buffalo and Batavia cast their lines. Most sportsmen voluntarily refrain from fishing there, Dewey noted, but a few continue to fish at night.

640 Children Invade Texas State Capitol

AUSTIN, March 28 (UP)—A rumble started through the Capitol at noon today, and the House doorkeeper on the second floor called out: "It's the kids!" It was—640 of them, on a special one-day train trip from North Texas to see their Capitol. The special train left Denton this morning and picked up children en route. They all got box lunches—two sandwiches, an apple, a candy bar and a soft drink—on the train before they got to Austin. In Austin they piled into 15 city buses and went straight to the Capitol. Up the tall stairs to the third floor they pounded, their mothers and chaperones puffing beside them, to the gallery of the House first. Somebody blew a whistle, and the rumble stopped while Rep. G. F. Pearson, Navasota, explained what went on in the House. Only a few representatives were sitting around at their desks because the Legislature was in week-end adjournment. After their Capitol tour their schedule had: a drive by the Governor's Mansion, a drive through the University of Texas campus and a walk through the Texas Memorial Museum. Then out to Barton Springs, a city park, for a romp and relaxation before piling back on the train. On the train their supper—fried chicken in boxes—was waiting. The tour is the fourth trainload of children to visit the Capitol this spring. It was the second from North Texas, sponsored by a private travel agency in Dallas. The children were from 10 to 14 years old. They came from Fort Worth, Denton, Dallas, Arlington, Grand Prairie, Roanoke, Pleasant Grove and numerous other towns in the North Texas area.

E. M. Cave Rites Today

Funeral will be held at the Ackery Baptist Church at 2:30 p.m. today for Everett M. Cave, 67, long time resident of Flower Grove in northeastern Martin County. Mr. Cave died Thursday in Winnboro, where he had gone about a month ago, to operate a dairy farm temporarily. He has had farm holdings in the Flower Grove area for years. Recently he went to Winnboro to look after his farm, and while there he became ill. Services are to be in charge of the Rev. J. Roy Hayes, pastor, who will be assisted by the Rev. E. L. Tyler, Brownfield. Interment will be in the Trinity Memorial Park at Big Spring under direction of Eberley-River Funeral Home. Mr. Cave leaves his wife; three sons, J. P. Cave, Fred Cave, and G. E. Cave, all of Ackery; four daughters, Mrs. Delman Harrell, Abilene, Mrs. Mae Nell Carmickle, Rogers, N. M., Mrs. Merleen Williams, Ackery, Mrs. Frances Jones, Stanton.

Harry Lee Plumbley Is Hard At Work On Lions Minstrel Show

If there is anything that Harry Lee Plumbley likes to do better than sing—it's teach.

And when you combine the two, Plumbley is in musical heaven. This is to say, then, that he is having a right good time in his present role as director of the chorus and musical numbers for the sixth annual Lions Minstrel April 10-11.

Helping develop the show is incidental to his regular position as director of vocal music for the Big Spring Senior High School. He had just won regional honors with his school soloists and chorus.

Last year Plumbley drew a big hand for his work in directing the minstrel chorus. When the club decided to put its annual show on without professional direction, officials naturally turned to Plumbley to handle the music.

He helped shape the book for the impending production, contending successfully for a dominant theme or thread. Thus the initial part will be the prosaic life on deck and at dock while hands get ready for the real show. The second act naturally is the "show" itself.

Stephen Foster melodies abound. Airman Gustavson as soloist; "Beautiful Dreamer," with Jackie

HARRY LEE PLUMBLEY

Shirley; and "Carry me 'Long," featuring Tolford Durham.

For variety there will be a uke medley with the band. Zest will come from "Johnson Rag," "Tiger Rag," and "Washington & Lee Swing."

Fran Jones is down for a solo part in "Lazy Bones." Ed Johnson, baritone, will be soloist in a black light sequence for Negro spirituals. Jack Y. Smith is to have the lead on a take-off. "In the Weather Report." The second portion of the show includes a sprinkling of Irvin Berlin tunes such as "Marie," "Say It with Music," and "Blue Skies."

Others in the minstrel will include the "Blue Notes," HCJC girl's sextet directed by Elizabeth Cope; the high school Triple Trio; two quartets from the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barbershop Quartet Singing in America, Inc.; and one from the senior high school.

Working with all this comes naturally for Plumbley, who has something like 180 pupils in four chorus classes during the day. From this plumber he has selected 60 voices to make up the concert choir. The A Cappella choir meets before school in the morning, and after school and during part of the lunch hour, Plumbley works with the ensembles and soloists.

He's been singing almost since he can remember. In high school at El Paso he was in the chorus, the quartet and was a soloist. Then he tied seriously into music at Texas Western and earned his BA degree. Graduate work in theory and composition followed at the University of Michigan, then at Texas Tech where a favorite instructor, Dr. Gene Hemmle, had gone from Texas Western.

He taught public school music at Kilgore before coming here two years ago. When he called for chorus practice, 26 girls and eight boys showed up. In his animated way, he went to work and now he has multiplied the number interested by more than five times. About 40 per cent of his singers are boys now.

Plumbley goes in for developing the natural voice rather than to make it conform to chorus demands. This doesn't always produce those deep organ-like tones, but then Plumbley figures a choir should be a choir and not an organ. He also thinks singing should be fun, and no one is having more fun than the man in the pit at the Lions Minstrel rehearsals.

Prowlers Reported By Westside Couple

An elderly westside couple have complained of persons prowling and throwing rocks at their home each night for the past week.

They informed police prowlers have been noticed around their home about midnight each night. Someone has been throwing rocks at the house at about the same time.

The couple said they think someone is hiding in a nearby ditch from which the stones are thrown.

Local Tax Provides Most School Funds

While the Big Spring Independent School district receives most of its money from the state, common school districts in Howard County get most of their money from local sources.

A breakdown of school finances for the year 1951-52 shows that only 45.1 per cent of the receipts for Big Spring schools came from local sources.

County schools—seven districts—got about 69.4 per cent of receipts from local sources during the same year.

A breakdown of several years was made for both the common school districts and the independent district. Although the city figures were more or less stable, county figures differed widely over several years.

Schools receive money from three sources. Some money comes from the state, some from the federal government, and some from local taxes.

In 1951-52, Big Spring Independent School District got 54.5 per cent of its money from the state, 45.1 per cent from local sources, and 4 per cent from the federal government.

The seven common school districts got 29.4 per cent from the state, 69.4 per cent from local sources and 1.2 per cent from federal funds.

County Superintendent of Schools Walker Bailey stated that the figures listed do not include the cost of text books, which come from the state.

Bailey made the county figures available to The Herald to determine just what percentage of money received by the schools comes directly from local sources.

He stated there has been quite a lot of talk recently about local control of schools being lost.

He cited an article in "Texas Industry," official magazine of the Texas Manufacturers Association, which quoted Penrose Metcalf, of San Angelo, member of the state school board, as saying 79 per cent of funds used in operating the public school system come from the state.

Bailey stated that local schools do not receive near the amount Metcalf is reported as claiming the state furnishes.

In fact, he said, the greatest percentage of help rendered area common schools by the state in recent years was in 1950-51. During that year, about 41 per cent of the receipts came from the state. Some 57.2 per cent came from local sources, and about 1.8 was federal.

It wasn't that so much money

Local Students Get Leadership Posts In H-SU Training Unit

Two Big Spring students have been named to positions of leadership in the Hardin-Simmons University Reserve Officers Training Corps.

Thomas A. Thigpen is assistant platoon leader of Company "C" and William H. Myers has been selected assistant squad leader of Company "B" in the ROTC unit.

The ROTC was organized at Hardin-Simmons in the fall of 1952. It is a four-year course of training for future officers in the United States Army. The student receives general Army training and when he graduates as a second lieutenant will be given a choice of Army branches for service, depending upon the needs of the service and the student's qualifications.

The program calls for two years of basic schooling and two years of advanced training with pay. Students may take any course leading to a degree of their choice and may be exempt from the draft while enrolled in the program.

The ROTC students attend military classes twice weekly and drill two hours each week.

Theft Is Reported

H. W. Copeland, San Angelo, reported theft of $90 from his room at the Douglas Hotel Friday night. Copeland said the money was taken from his wallet while he slept.

came from the state funds in 1950-51, he said. It was that so much less was taken in locally for school support, making the state funds a larger part of the whole.

Only $6,781.55 was received in school taxes at Gay Hill in 1950-51. Some $30,488.85 was received there in 1951-52, making quite a bit more money collected locally.

Bailey pointed out that only $38,978.93 was furnished common schools by the state in 1950-51, while $45,729.05 was received in 1951-52. Total receipts in 1950-51 amounted to $95,044.43, while the total in 51-52 was $155,450.88.

Federal funds furnished the common schools in 1950-51 were $1,661.98, and in 1951-52 they totaled $1,899.53. Federal funds are used for "hot lunches" at the schools.

Income during the 1950-51 year at Big Spring Independent School District was much the same as 1951-1952. Some 53.5 per cent of the money came from the state, 45.2 from local, and 1.3 from federal.

Common school districts are at Gay Hill, Center Point, Midway, Elbow, Cauble, Lomax, Vealmoor,

Servicemen Center Schedule Revealed

The Big Spring Servicemen's Center goes into its second full week of activity today. A schedule of sponsorship on various days is as follows:

- Sunday—The Gideons
- Monday—1950 Hyperton Club
- Tuesday—Ada Belle Dement Club
- Wednesday—Modern Woman's Forum
- Thursday—North Side American Legion Auxiliary
- Friday—The Women's Forum
- Saturday—Beta Sigma Phi

The Center, at 112 Runnels is operating from Monday through Friday from 5 to 10:30 p.m.; on Saturdays from 2 p.m. to midnight, and on Sundays from 2 to 7 p.m.

Executive Director Edith Gay said the Center is badly in need of a large magazine rack, an electric hot plate, and a water cooler. If any one knows where these items might be obtained, a phone call to Miss Gay will be appreciated.

The billiard table and ping pong table are proving the most popular spots at the center. Military men also are dropping in for checkers, canasta, and darts.

Hostesses during the past week were: Monday—Mrs. Clyde Thomas Jr., Mrs. T. J. Williamson, Mrs. Floyd Mays and Mrs. Dan Krausse from the 1946 Hyperion Club, and Dot Cauble and Norma Jones. Tuesday—Mrs. Charlie Mer-

Measles Stays Atop Weekly Disease List

Measles stayed on top of the list of communicable diseases reported Saturday by the Big Spring-Howard County Health Unit.

Ninety-eight cases of measles were diagnosed during the week by local physicians. That was a half dozen cases fewer than the number reported for the previous week.

Chicken pox and mumps continued to infect a few. Seventeen cases of each of the diseases were reported.

The contagious infections round-up also showed diagnosis of 12 cases of pneumonia, 12 of flu, 10 of tonsillitis, one of scarlet fever, six of whooping cough, two of zoonorrhoea, and two cases of diarrhea.

Seguin Woman To Attend Meet For Morrow

SEGUIN, March 28 (AP)—The National Democratic Committeewoman from Texas today said she would attend a party meeting in Washington next week as the alternate for Wright Morrow.

She is Mrs. H. H. Weinert, Seguin, who publicly announced her support of Democratic presidential nominee Adlai Stevenson last summer when the Texas Democratic Party Convention endorsed President Eisenhower.

Morrow, disputed Democratic national committeeman from Texas, resigned his post to support Eisenhower but the State Executive Committee refused to accept the resignation.

National Democratic Chairman Stephen Mitchell accepted it, maintaining Morrow's post was vacant. Morrow also was the South's representative on the party's Executive Committee, which will meet in Washington next Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mrs. Weinert told The Associated Press that the National Executive Committee had appointed her as an alternate to that post.

"Yes, I'm going," she said. She said she received the notification by telephone about a week ago and then verification by letter "a few days ago."

At Houston, Morrow said he has not been invited to attend the Tuesday meeting in Washington and will not attend.

Morrow said he was named to the 11-member Executive Committee during a caucus of committeemen from Southern states at the National Convention last summer in Chicago.

"Each section is represented by a man and a woman," he said. "I was selected along with the national committeewoman from Georgia."

Mother Dies In Dallas

Other survivors include the husband, two other sons, four daughters and one brother.

43 Of 53 West Texas Counties Pay Smaller School Tax Rate

AUSTIN — Newest move by Gov. Allan Shivers in his effort to revamp school finance so that local districts bear more of the load is his release of a tabulation showing that 190 of the state's counties are contributing less of their tax dollar to the Minimum Foundation program than they did when it started.

The tabulations were laid on legislators' desks last week.

The Governor's only comment on them was: "Without attempting to draw any deductions from these figures, I am simply passing them along for your information."

But he obviously was presenting them in support of his contention that school laws should be rewritten so that local districts bear 25 per cent of the Minimum Foundation cost. (The Minimum Foundation is used to bring sub-standard schools up to standard). Local school's pay $45,000,000 into the program—which was 25 per cent when it started but figures much smaller now.

The figures, quoted from the Texas Education Agency, showed that 190 counties (including 43 of 53 West Texas Counties) pay less of their school tax rate than they did in 1949-50. Sixty-one counties pay more now than in 1949-50. Three are unchanged.

In the meantime, local valuations over the state have increased from $9,873,694,823 to $12,814,286,936.

With these hikes in valuations, and changes in the economic index, 29 of the West Texas counties pay more in dollars now to the Foundation than they did when the program began, even though percentage-wise they are paying less.

Howard County (which shows a drop in valuations from $36.7 million to $30 million) paid $183,443 into the foundation in 1949 and is paying $173,700 now. Its tax rate for the Foundation has gone up from .50 cents to 53 cents.

Sabery, with valuations up from $10 to $134 million, has increased its Foundation contributions from $38,776 to $277,200 while its tax rate has gone from .58 cents down to 21 cents.

Taylor County, with a tax valuation climb from $66 million to $109 million, has cut its Foundation portion from $216,489 to $179,350 and its rate from 33 cents to 17 cents.

Tom Green, with valuation climb from $55 million to $77 million, has its Foundation assessment cut from $168,717 to $159,422 and its tax rate from 31 to 21 cents.

The "decrease" in valuations in Howard County do not represent actual fact, because this county's valuation was "estimated" at something like $10-million dollars more than actual figures when the Foundation Program went into effect, County Superintendent Walker Bailey explained Saturday.

"When the program started, valuation figures were set arbitrarily as a basis for figuring an economic index," Bailey said. "At that time Howard County's valuations totalled approximately $27-million, although the Foundation set up a figure of $36.7-million."

This county's actual valuations now total approximately $32-million.

After the Foundation Program got into operation the valuation figures used in the beginning were adjusted to actual figures, Bailey explained. Consequently, Howard County's figures are now below those estimated at the beginning of the program.

Dialing Along

Crews of skilled installers are dialing along on the new dial telephone system for Big Spring. Currently there are 55 Western Electric men working in the dial plant, at 8th and Runnels, and at the present exchange at Fourth and Runnels. At top left is one of several frames of selectors which actually will find your number when you dial. Upper right is a portion of the panels in the complex power plant of the dial exchange. Below, D. R. McQuarty, installer, solders some of the multiplied thousands of tiny pairs of wires which have to be in precisely the right connections. At the present building, a new type pulsing toll board is being installed where the city exchange is operated manually by some 33 operators now. Other equipment is being installed there, too, so that long distance calls can be handled by dial. (Photos by Olin Chancellor).

JUST A MISTAKE

SEATTLE, March 28 (AP)—Flames shooting from the radiator of their rear-engine French automobile startled Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dixon of Tacoma, Wash., last night, but the explanation was simple.

A service station operator, confused by the unfamiliar model, put gasoline in the radiator instead of the gas tank.

Webb Asks Bids On Overhaul Of Lathes

Bids have been asked on the overhaul and reconditioning of three engine lathes at Webb Air Force Base.

Proposals will be received at the office of Capt. Donald R. Reinhardt, contracting officer, until 2 p.m. on April 8.

They cover a pair of Sheldon engine lathes with 10-inch swing and 20-inches between centers, and one Sheldon engine lathe with 38 inches between centers.

School Aid Approved

WASHINGTON, March 28 (AP)—President Eisenhower today signed a bill carrying $20,500,000 federal aid for school districts in which government activities have overburdened facilities.

Infant's Rites Set

Services for Dolores Lou Houston, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Houston, will be held at the graveside in the city cemetery today. The Rev. Nolan McCarter, pastor of the Mt. Bethel Baptist Church, will officiate. The baby died Friday of pneumonia. Arrangements are in charge of the Eberley-River-Funeral Home.

Worth more... and why

There's an old saying that a thing is worth what someone is willing to pay for it. Well, if you could tour the wholesale and retail used car auctions around the country, if you could survey hundreds of used car lots you would discover that used Fords bring higher prices than any competitive make—and by substantial amounts. Think of it—in an open market with complete freedom of choice—people are not only willing but do pay higher prices for Fords.

THAT'S WHY we feel our '53 cars, the finest Ford has ever built, should not be compared with cars in the same price range. Not because our competitors don't do a good job—obviously they do—but because we feel Ford Cars have more in common with the highest priced automobiles. The similarities are far greater than the differences.

For example: Today, the most expensive cars in this country have V-type, 8-cylinder engines. Ford Cars have had this exact same type of engine for over 20 years. Ford has made more V-type, 8-cylinder engines than all other manufacturers combined and no other low-priced car has a V-8 yet!

What's more astounding, the current Strato-Star V-8, a full 110-horsepower, high-compression V-8, delivers all its high-test performance on "regular" gas and sells for hundreds of dollars less than several other makers charge for a six-cylinder car. Now there's nothing wrong with a Six but they do cost less to make. Ford makes a Six—the most modern overhead valve Six in the industry. And if it's a six-cylinder car you want, Ford has it and for less money than the V-8, which is as it should be.

What about ride? Here's another Ford similarity with high-priced cars . . . Riding Comfort. One of the misconceptions of automobile buyers for many years has been that weight—sheer weight—is what it takes to make a car ride well. But the railroads have disproved that, as any one who has ever ridden a modern, lightweight streamlined Pullman knows. It's how you use weight—how you spring and balance it that counts. Ford has found, for example, that you can make a 3000-pound car ride softer and hold the road better by far than many cars that weigh a full 1000 pounds more. In our '53 car, for example, front end road shock has been reduced up to 80%. We say it compares most favorably with the heaviest cars sold today. Chances are you could not tell the difference.

What about automatic transmissions? It would take the fingers of both hands to count the various kinds of automatic and semi-automatic transmissions on the market today. The one we offer is called Fordomatic. It is the most versatile on the market, it represents the most profound consideration of engine-to-wheel power transfer—and that it does the best job for our engines isn't even open to question. It "shifts" better than you could shift by hand and it does it in such a way you hardly know it—automatically.

An interesting safety feature of Fordomatic is that forward and reverse positions are separated by a neutral position on the drive selector. It is "second nature" to handle, and what's more, with Fordomatic there is no time in the shifting when the car is not in perfect control. If you want to "rock" your car to get out of a snowdrift, you can. If you want an extra burst of speed you just step down on the gas and keep your hands on the wheel. In short, Fordomatic gives you the power you want, when you want it—automatically. We know for a fact that Fordomatic is one reason why Fords bring more money on the used car market.

What you can see is also important. Here again Ford Cars lead not only in their price field but in the medium and upper brackets as well. Ford visibility is Full-Circle Visibility. This means huge, curved unobstructed glass area, front and rear, plus side windows that allow all passengers what the hotels call "room with a view." And, it might interest you to know that, inch for inch, very few cars costing thousands of dollars more can beat Ford for window area.

Appearance? A higher price, of course, does not make a car more beautiful. Conversely, beauty in a Ford comes "for free." Ford has found that it costs no more to develop a beautiful car than one that is less pleasing in appearance. You can drive up to the most exclusive doorways in the world and feel perfectly at home in your Ford. It's done every day and if you don't believe it just stand in front of the Waldorf, for example, the next time you are in New York. Or the Mark Hopkins in San Francisco. Fords "belong" . . . in exactly the same social category as the finest, one-of-a-kind creations. After all, a Ford is a custom creation multiplied.

What about running costs? Here's one place that Ford's advantages are obvious. For oil and gas economy Ford has the big cars whipped. Ford parts cost less. Ford service charges are less. Ford tire mileage is thousands of miles greater. And, as any C. P. A. who looks into it will tell you, Ford depreciation is the lowest of any car on the market—bar none.

What are Fords made of? Some people have the idea that the costliest cars are made of "better stuff." It's perfectly true that some high-priced cars have costlier upholstery and fittings. What Ford has is so good, both in durability and appearance, that you probably could not tell the difference. You might even prefer it, because of its better design and more pleasing appearance.

Then there's the question of sheet metal. If you were to measure and analyze the sheet metal structure in the most expensive car, you most likely would find it identical in thickness to the corresponding panels in Ford. For the most part this applies to castings and forgings also. And here you have another reason why you can pay more but you can't buy better than Ford.

But what do you pay for a Ford? This is an interesting point. When designing and tooling up for a new model, Ford spends a great deal more money than the makers of the costliest cars. For example, the first dozen or so '53 cars cost just about $62,000 a copy, apart from tooling! These cars are never sold—they're experimental models. Then when they are perfected and go into production Ford actually turns out a vastly superior car in every way for the low price you are asked to pay. This is the miracle of Ford production.

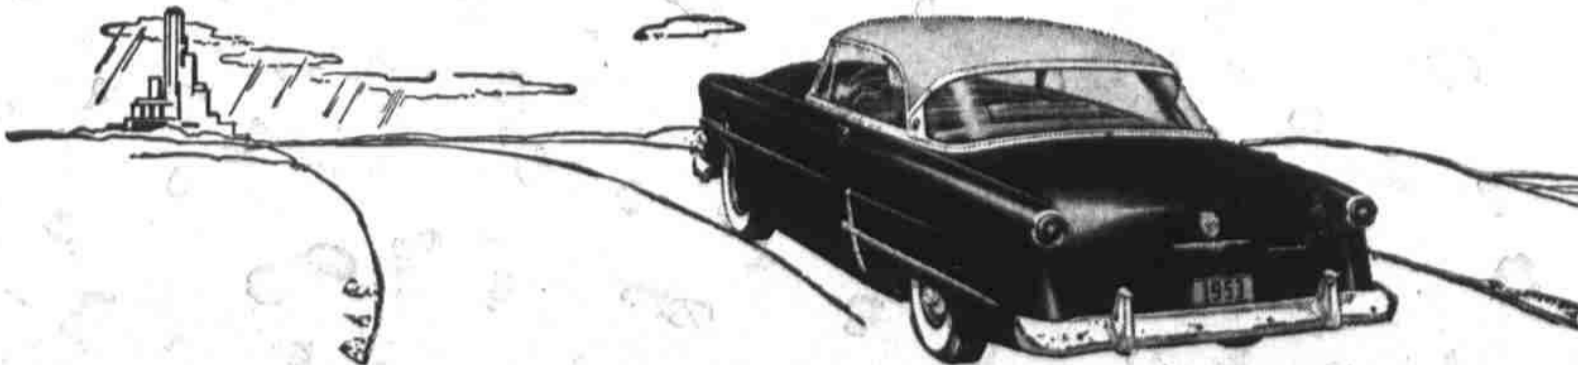

After all, then, what is the difference between a Ford and the costliest cars?

In our opinion, the difference is largely a matter of dimensions, weight (and the power required to move it) plus the distinction of owning a car that not so many other people own. The desire for these things is understandable . . . and probably justified for people who are willing to pay the price to satisfy it.

As to comparing Ford with other cars in its price range, by all means do so if you wish. But, as we said before, you'll get a better picture of Ford value by comparing with cars that are most like Ford—those that are priced up to twice as much. As a matter of fact, we think you'll quickly begin comparing the other cars with Ford—because the 1953 Ford has really established the New Standard of the American Road.

Diplomats See Peace Hopes Go Up As Russians Grant Amnesty

By EDDY GILMORE
MOSCOW, March 28 (AP)—Some Western diplomats who have been skeptical said today they may yet decide that a new conciliatory atmosphere prevails in Moscow.

The Soviet government's new amnesty decree for short-term, non-political prisoners could not have been issued, they said, if the Russian leaders believed a third world war lay ahead.

Linking the amnesty move to other recent developments, the skeptical diplomats said maybe a new atmosphere does exist and it may lead to significant international developments.

The Korean War, they admit, is still the greatest roadblock to world peace. But when something happens anywhere to bring about a halt in the shooting, they say, the East and West will really be getting somewhere on the road to world peace.

(This dispatch was written before Communist China offered to accept a United Nations proposal for an early exchange of sick and wounded prisoners—a move that looked to American officials as something more than a propaganda maneuver.)

Optimistic diplomats here cite these developments as tending to create a new atmosphere:

Prime Minister Malenkov's statement that all controversial issues with all countries, including the United States, could be solved by peaceful means.

A Soviet promise to do all possible to bring about the release of nine British civilians being held in North Korea and an indication of a similar promise in the case of French Nationals.

Marked absence in official speeches of derogatory references to Western leaders.

Granting of entry visas to a group of American newspaper and radio officials coming here next week, the first such group to be admitted since the Council of Foreign Ministers met here in 1947.

Widespread approval by the Russian public was reported to have greeted the newly announced amnesty decree and the government's plans to soften the punishment for some crimes.

Pravda, the Communist party newspaper, said the "edict was received by the Soviet people with profound patriotic pride in our mighty socialist state."

The government newspaper Izvestia said the decree—freeing

Soviet prisoners serving five-year terms or less, providing their crimes represent "no great danger to the state," and certain others—answers the interests of the people.

It pointed out at the same time that the state "severely punishes the enemies of the people—counter-revolutionary ruffians, bandits and murderers."

The decree said the amnesty does not apply to persons sentenced to terms of more than five years for counter-revolutionary crimes, large-scale pilfering of socialist property, banditry and premeditated murder.

Many accused persons who have not been tried will be freed. But it would seem absurd to suggest, for instance, that the case against nine Moscow doctors accused of plotting to assassinate Soviet leaders will be dropped. On the contrary, it seems likely that case will be prosecuted with severity.

THE FALL IS A COSTLY ONE

A drunk got a $3 ride to the hospital, free transportation to the city jail, and a fine of $15 as a result of falling off a stool in a downtown drugstore Friday afternoon.

An ambulance was summoned when the man toppled off the stool, apparently unconscious. Examination at the hospital disclosed he was suffering from an overdose of liquor.

So police carted him off to jail. They said he owes $3 for the ambulance service and probably a fee for the doctor's services.

3 Days Left To Get Car Plates Without Paying Any Penalty

Only three more days remain for the purchase of 1953 license plates without paying a penalty.

Wednesday is the deadline, according to Mrs. Viola Robinson, tax assessor-collector. After Wednesday, license purchasers must pay a 20 per cent penalty or sign an affidavit that their cars have not been used after the deadline.

Through Saturday evening at 5 p.m. some 7,149 passenger plates were issued. The last number was CB 7,049. Sales in Howard County began with CA 1900.

Sub-stations for the sale of licenses will be operated at Big Spring Motor Company and the Main Street Fire Station through Wednesday.

Frames Going Up For Fourth Floor At Permian Building

Framing is going up for the fourth floor of the Permian Building at Second and Scurry.

Henry Wyninger, construction superintendent, said supporting columns and the fourth floor probably will be poured in about a week.

Virtually all of the structural work in the basement has been completed. Floor has been poured and a small amount of brick work is all that remains to be done before the basement is turned over to plumbers and electricians.

About half of the first floor also has been poured. Cross members for other floors are expected in a few days and will be installed on arrival, Wyninger reported.

Exterior brick work will be started the week of April 6.

Wyninger said construction dropped nine days behind schedule while awaiting delivery of steel for the structure. However, four of the last days were made up in erection of the third floor which was accomplished in only nine days.

The six-story office building is being constructed by Cooley Associates, Fort Worth, who will own and operate the building.

Killed In Accident

HOUSTON, March 28 (AP)—Walter Roy Sterling, 29, service station operator, was killed today when his pickup truck struck a concrete support to a railroad viaduct.

74 Cases Disposed Of In Week At Corporation Court

Traffic was heavy in Corporation Court during the week with fines and forfeits amounting to $1,129.50.

Seventy-four cases, 41 involving drunkenness, were disposed of during the week. Intoxication accounted for 57.6 of the total.

One drunkenness fine for $100 and a $100 levy for use of profane language were remitted and the defendant was transferred from city jail to the state hospital.

Judge William E. Greenlees also issued 21 additional warrants for arrest of persons who have refused to settle up their traffic tickets. About 75 warrants now have been issued for delinquent ticket holders, but police aren't having much luck locating persons named on the warrants. Most of the group apparently have moved from Big Spring since the tickets were issued, some as long ago as last March.

Fines assessed during the past week included $25 for reckless driving, $55 for speeding, $85 for driving without license, $12.50 for passing on a viaduct, $4 for running red lights; $9 for prohibited turns, $10 for running stop signs, $5 for excessive noise; $5 for driving through a service station driveway without stopping, $5 for improper parking, $6 for failure to grant right-of-way to another vehicle, $25 for leaving scene of an accident.

Also, $10 for vagrancy, and $26 for affray. Two persons were transferred from city court to oth-

Combat Pay Changes Suggested By Group

By ELTON C. FAY
WASHINGTON, March 28 (AP)—A commission recommended to the Defense Department today changes in pay for combat, flight and other extra hazardous duty which it estimated would save "upwards of 200 million dollars" a year.

ing. In the case of wounded or captured or missing, the extra pay continues for three months.

The overall savings apparently would be made primarily in paring down flight pay.

Here are some of the recommendations:

While combat pay for soldiers, airmen and sailors actually under hostile fire would go up slightly (five dollars higher than the present $45 per month extra pay) some other extra pay would be clipped, including certain flight pay.

The five-man commission of citizens, headed by Lewis L. Strauss, New York financier, made its recommendations to Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson. The latter has forwarded it to the Senate Armed Services Committee which requested such a study. The commission analyzed 18 types of special pay and allowances for the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Air Force, Coast Guard, Public Health Service and Coast and Geodetic Survey.

In addition to recommendations on extra pay, the commission also proposed that the base pay of servicemen be placed on a sliding scale "related to a cost of living index and be adjusted at intervals of one to two years." It commented that servicemen are unable to bargain with their employer or to quit their job.

Combat duty pay, in general, is for men who are under hostile fire for not less than six days in any one month while serving in a unit of regimental size or smaller or in a plane or ship. It also covers men killed or wounded in action or who become captured or miss-

1. Flight pay: remove from eligibility officers and men (unless they are in a training program for crew-member assignments) who do not possess technical skills such as couriers and stewards. Remove those "who cannot reasonably be expected to provide air leadership or to serve in operational capacity" in a war because they are specialized in jobs other than aviation. Require that all the services give to the defense secretary, within six months, a flight status selection system providing for a periodic review of the status of officers and men.

2. Submarine and diving duty: continue the present $100 for officers and $50 for enlisted men per month extra.

3. Sea and foreign duty pay: extra pay should be stopped in this category for personnel leaving the U. S. for assignment after next June 30.

In connection with the combat pay increase, the commission proposed it be granted to personnel on ships which are damaged and on which casualties occur during the month in which those damages or casualties occur.

Extra pay for doctors and dentists would be limited to those who volunteer, excluding those who are drafted.

The commission would increase insurance coverage for men killed, increasing the normal indemnity from the present $10,000 to $20,000.

Two Girls Jailed On Check Charges

Two girls who arrived in Big Spring last Sunday were in county jail this week on charges of passing worthless checks.

They are Freida Landers and Aline Landrum, who came here from Clovis, New Mexico. The girls were picked up by sheriff's officials after allegedly passing six checks.

Miss Landers was charged with forgery and passing in Justice Court and her bond was set at $2,000. She allegedly signed a $17.68 check with the name Mrs. H. C. Dill. The check was passed at J. C. Penny Co.

Miss Landrum pleaded guilty in County Court Saturday to passing a $10 worthless check at Newsom's and a $13.87 worthless check at the Barron Dress Shop. She was given 15 days in jail and fined $20.

They were staying in a local tourist court.

PLYMOUTH ANNOUNCES NEW LOWER PRICES!

Now! Greater Value Than Ever! Substantial Reductions On All '53 Models

Effective immediately, the retail prices of all 1953 Plymouth cars are substantially reduced, bringing you the greatest Plymouth value in history!

When the 1953 Plymouths were introduced last Fall, even though completely new and advanced in design, they were priced on a "hold-the-line" basis. We emphasized then our constant aim of quality, performance, safety and comfort, at decreased rather than increased prices. And we pinned our faith on volume to achieve this objective.

The removal of production controls has made it possible to produce Plymouth cars at the highest rate in many months. Now that higher volume is being achieved and we may reasonably expect it to continue, we are lowering prices accordingly.

Price reductions apply to the entire Plymouth line—all nine body types. Your nearby Plymouth dealer will be glad to give you complete details about the new prices.

Plymouth, long famous for greater value, continues to bring you the quality features of high-price cars—now at even lower cost to you!

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Without making very much of it, the Big Spring Bronco management will take a 'look' at Harry Dooley, a Negro first baseman-pitcher, who managed a Negro team here in 1952.

A similar session was to start at 12 noon today and will continue until past 3 p.m.

Fifteen players, including Manager Hack Miller, went through their paces.

Among the group were three class-men, exclusive of Miller.

They are Outfielder Jake McClain, Infielder Jess Jacinto and Pitcher Ray Machado.

McClain was with San Angelo and Abilene last year. Jacinto and Machado were at Lubbock.

Others, and their classification, who reported were:

Bill Heister, Billy Joe Kiser, Gerald Petrow and Gib Phillips, All limited-service players; and Dick Dodd, Tom Ainger, Harry Dooley, Tommy Phillips, Phil Lemon, Jim Tunnell and H. C. Treadaway, all rookies.

Dooley and Tommy Phillips compose a Negro battery and bid fair to stick. Phillips caught several games for Bakersfield in the California League in 1952.

Heister is stationed at the local air base. He won six and lost seven games as a pitcher for Youngstown, Ohio, back in 1948. He later was with Carbondale before returning to the service. He won six games and lost one for Scott Field, Ill., in 1951, and had a 3-1 record there last year before being sent to Texas. He's well known here as a basketball player.

Miller had all his hands taking it easy the first day but could hardly restrain Dooley who, in throwing batting practice, was flinging aspirin tablets at the dish.

The batting of McClain and the all-around play of Jacinto brought smiles to Miller's face. Jake was getting all his 210 pounds (he's about five pounds overweight) behind his drives. Jacinto, who hits from the left, looked brilliant both at bat and in the field.

Machado snagged outfield flies and will spend the next several days getting his legs in shape. Hack won't worry too much over Ray, because he knows what he can do.

Dodd has had lots of sand-lot experience and once played with the Alpine Cowboys. He's now an assistant coach at Garden City High School. He's a pitcher.

Treadaway is the elder brother of Odessa's Marion and the son of an ex-Big Spring sand-lotter, Claude Treadaway.

Kiser had to sit out last season due to a broken ankle. He hit .309 for Paul Valley two years ago. Tunnell attended Texas A & M but did not play college baseball.

Phil Lemon, one of two lads Miller signed out of the recent school at Prosper, put in an appearance and Miller had him throwing batting practice. The other rookie signed at Prosper, Gene Peizer, will not be here for several days.

The Broncs play their first exhibition game a week from today. Roswell, managed by the ex-Big Spring, Pat Stasey, will put in an appearance and will probably remain over for a Monday night game.

Stasey is bringing with him seven or eight players who will get an opportunity to make the local club. Included are Patcho Perez, pitcher; Al Costa, shortstop; Oscar Reguera, pitcher; and Al Valdes, catcher, familiar names locally.

Cleveland Sends Nine To Minors

TUCSON, Ariz., March 28 (AP)—The Cleveland Indians today announced they were sending nine players to their farm club training camp at Dayton, Ohio, Fla., for further spring training.

The players are Herbie Adams, Bill Abernathie, Joe Macko, Harry Malmberg, Mike Lutz, Jim Fridley, Sam Jones, Wilber Striker and Al Smith.

Sam Snead Leads Greensboro Open

By KEN ALYTA

GREENSBORO, N. C., March 28 (AP)—Sam Snead put together a pair of two under par 33s today to increase his Greensboro Open Golf Tournament lead to two strokes at the halfway mark.

The White Sulphur Springs, Va., slammer tacked a four under par 65 onto yesterday's 87 for 132 and a two-stroke lead over Ed (Porky) Oliver of Palm Springs, Calif., going into tomorrow's 36-hole windup. Oliver had 67 today to retain second place, although dropping another stroke back.

In third place with 136 was Doug Ford, Harrison, N. Y., who matched Snead's 96 today. Three players had 137 to tie for fourth place, four strokes back of Snead. They were Fred Wampler, former national intercollegiate champion from Indianapolis; Art Wall Jr., the hole-in-one artist from Pocono Manor, Pa.; and Skee Riegel, Tulsa, Okla., a former national amateur champion.

Lesbia Lobo Wins State Golf Crown

SAN ANTONIO, March 28 (AP)—San Antonio's Lesbia Lobo added the Texas State Women's Golf Association crown to the 1952 Texas public links title today with a sweeping 9 and 8 win over Mrs. W. K. Stripling, Fort Worth, at the San Antonio Country Club.

The Fort Worth mother of two sons managed to take only two holes as the Alamo City miss gathered in 11 while 15 were being halved.

Last year's champion, Mrs. Harlan Riedel, Dallas, salvaged the championship consolation honors with a 3 and 2 victory over Mrs. M. W. Morgan, Baytown. First flight titleholder is Miss Hilda Urbanke, Austin, who downed Mrs. Charles Armstrong, of the host club, 1-up in 19 holes. Other minor fights had been decided Friday.

To reach the finals, Miss Lobo defeated Miss Urbank of Austin, 6 and 4; Mrs. Charles Duenkel, Pampa, 8 and 7; Mrs. Phillip Kirschner, San Antonio, 4 and 3; and Mrs. Leonard Keating, Houston, 3 and 2. The latter was the 1951 and '47 champion.

AS CARDS TRUMPH Jablons Shines

CEARWATER, Fla., March 28 (AP)—Ray Jablonski, a 23-year-old infielder who got out of the Army in time to become the rookie of the year in the International League last season, was practically the whole team today as the St. Louis Cardinals defeated the Philadelphia Phillies, 6-3.

Jablonski, playing third base, made seven outs, had four assists, started a double play, made three hits in four times at bat, knocked in one Cardinal run in the first inning, scored the run that tied the score 3-3 in the sixth and belted a homer in the eighth that would have been enough for the Cards to win.

Jablons Shines As Cards Triumph

WARREN, Hoggard and Jones all fouled out of the Saturday night tilt. Stevens had four fouls and Williams had been penalized three times when the game ended.

IN TEXAS RELAYS Santee Strides To Grand Slam

AUSTIN, March 28 (AP)—Slender, cheep-striding Wes Santee, the runniest machine ever to step on a Southwestern track, carried Kansas to domination of the twenty-sixth Texas Relays today as he anchored two more teams to victory.

The great Kansas distance ace, acclaimed the outstanding athlete of the big cinder path carnival.

Bobby Jack Gross of Big Spring and Texas A&M won third place in the shot put and fifth in the discus throw at the Texas Relays Saturday.

Gross heaved the shot 50 feet, two and a quarter inches to finish behind Teammate Darrow Hooper and Dick Spillies of Houston University. He hurled the discus 143 feet seven and a half inches for fifth place in that event, which Hooper also won.

thus had a hand in four winning teams, two of which set records—one a world's mark and the other an American standard—and tied a third.

And all the boy from the wheat country did was:

- 1. Run a mile in 4:06.7.
- 2. Run an 880 in 1:49.4.
- 3. Run another 880 in 1:51.9.
- 4. Run another mile in 4:19.2.

His individual efforts contributed most to one of the record-smashing longest of relay events, during the 22 days of the meet, five records fell and two were tied.

Kansas entered four relay teams with Santee anchoring each and won four first places. And Bill Biberstein, Kansas sophomore, took the 120-yard high hurdles in the individual events.

Texas A&M scored the most points with 112½ but won only three first places and they were in the individual events where Darrow Hooper, giant Olympic weightman, copped both the shot put and discus throw, setting a new relay mark of 56 feet 2¼ inches in the former. Hooper was high point man of the meet with 20.

Texas got 82½ points for second place and Kansas was third with 81 but the Jayhawks made the greatest showing—one of the mightiest in the history of this track and field carnival.

Hooper's shot put record, set yesterday in the preliminaries, beat his own mark of 54 feet 7½ inches which he made in 1952. In today's finals, the big Aggie never could get the 16-pound ball up to six feet. He made 55-5.

Abilene Christian College won three relay events to take the championship of the college class with 61 points. North Texas State, the favorite, was second with 36 and Howard Payne was third with 22. ACC romped to victory in the 440-yard relay, 880-yard relay and the mile relay while North Texas State could muster a first only in the sprint medley.

The Texas freshmen won the freshman-junior college division title with 48 points, the little Longhorns were sparked by Joe Childress Peugh, who made 16 points with first in the 100-yard dash, anchor man on the winning sprint relay team and a spot on the third plus a sprint medley relay. Southern Methodist was second with 32 points and Victoria Junior College finished third with 26. Favored Rice wound up fourth with 25.

The high school division championship went to Thomas Jefferson of San Antonio, which scored 29 points to 28 and 2-3 for Ray of Corpus Christi and Baytown Brackensridge of San Antonio was fourth with 24 and 2-3 points. Ray had the top individual—Dick Bowen — who sparked the winning sprint relay team and won the 100

SMU Officials Took Matter In Hands

The alumni are taking a beating for it but a prominent SMU official, who visited here recently, said the school administration itself concluded Rusty Russell had outlived his usefulness as the Mustang coach after a number of the players came forward to insist they would never again suit out. If Russell were returned this fall...

Chalmers Woodard, the new mentor, may never qualify as a "wonder coach," he added, but the change in the boys' attitude materialized almost overnight, once he arrived on the scene...

During the recent spring drills, little groups were busy all over the field learning Woodard's style...

Interest in the SMU party stated, was at its highest. Rice Institute, which hosted the recent Southwest Conference swimming meet, doesn't even have a swimming team...

A young Junior High boy, Bennie Compton, has been beating the high school sprinters in practice here... No less than 50 of the Oakland Oaks' 88 home games this season will be played in the afternoon...

Look for Emmett Ashford, the Negro umpire, to be calling them in the Pacific Coast League in two or three years...

Hack Miller, manager of the Big Spring Broncs, said he wasn't allowed to approach two of the top prospects in his recent try-out camp at Prosper because they're still in high school (baseball law forbids it)...

Jimmy Demarest, who has played them all, says the five best golf courses he's ever seen are on the Club De Golf, Mexico City; Augusta National, Augusta, Ga.; the North Course of the Los Angeles Country Club; Oakland Hills, Birmingham, Mich.; and Pebble Beach, Calif., with the first named perhaps having an edge over the others.

handy man, couldn't be blamed if he's not so strong for spring training...

He broke his ankle while training with San Angelo in Florida last year, after clouting .309 for Paul Valley in the Sooner State League in 1951...

Billy Joe may play third here but he prefers the outfield...

About Ready To Cut Loose

The processing units of Reef Fields Gasoline plant in the East-Vealmoor oil pool is about ready to cut loose on full time operation. When that happens, the smoke clouds, occasioned by flaring, will disappear. Wet gas from the pipeline running parallel to the base of the big cooling tower above, will enter the processing units at the right. Then, below, they pass through a series of towers, including the absorber at left, the still (note size of man on tower indicated by arrow), the deacidizer, depropanizer, and finally in a tower not shown, the butane fractionator.

Reef Fields Gasoline Plant May Be In Full Sway By May 1

By CLIFTON LAWHORNE
The new Reef Fields Gasoline Corporation's East Vealmoor Plant, located seven miles west of Vincent, should be operating full blast by May 1. Plant installation is due for completion toward the end of this week. All equipment is now in place, but a lot of pipe connections must yet be made. Testing and blowing out of machinery will begin next week, according to Charles Sweeney, plant superintendent. He believes it will take about a month to round out the kinks and get the plant in normal operating order. Upon completion, the plant, which has a 150-mile gathering system, will have a capacity of 35 million cubic feet of gas per day. Products will be fed to the East Vealmoor plant from booster stations at Good Field, Vealmoor, Reinecke and Hobo. A breakdown into dry and wet products will be accomplished at the East Vealmoor station. Dry natural gas will be piped to the reception plant of El Paso Natural Gas Company, just north of the Reef Field plant. Wet products—gasoline, propane and butane—will be delivered to a loading terminal at Sand Springs. The compressor station at the East Vealmoor plant is now in operation, and approximately 28,000,000 cubic feet of gas is now converted into dry gas daily. As El Paso Natural is taking only about 18,000,000 cubic feet per day, the rest is being flared. The East Vealmoor Plant is located on a 750 by 510-foot plot. It consists of a compressor building, an electrical building, a huge two-fan cooling tower, a combination office and warehouse building, and a processing section. The processing section has 17 vertical towers and 10 storage tanks. These units are used to take the liquid residue from the compressing unit and crack it into propane, butane and gasoline. It is the processing unit that has been under construction for the past two months. Actually the compressing station has been operating since about Jan. 1, when gas was first flared. The compressor building has four machines, one 880 horsepower and three 660 horsepower. All are powered by gas. The 42-foot-cooling tower cools water, which in turn cools lube oil and gas after compression and before processing. A compressor-generator is located in the electrical building to chill propane. There are also four grided gas coolers to keep temperatures down while compressing is underway. After leaving the compressing unit, dry gas is piped to El Paso Natural. Liquid residue is processed through a huge absorber tower, a still, and then through three final break-down towers. One of the three latter is called the deacidizer, another a depropanizer, and the final a debutanizer. After leaving the processing unit, liquid products are sent in lines to the Sand Springs depot. At Sand Springs, there are 13 netai storage tanks. These tanks are located near the Texas and Pacific Railway, where a loading rack accommodating 30 railroad cars has been established. Also four underground gasoline storage tanks are under construction at the Sand Springs location, and each is slated to hold 50,000 barrels. Four wells are scheduled to be drilled to the salt formation about 2,000 feet deep. After drilling, the salt will be flushed out by water pressure. The space left will be used to store refined gasoline until shipment. Two huge pits are to be dug on the surface to hold the salt water after it is flushed out of the wells. One pit is already in place and it measures 380 by 90 by 16 feet. The main office and reception room for the Reef Fields East Vealmoor Plant will be at the Sand Springs loading terminal. El Paso Natural has been taking dry gas from the East Vealmoor plant for about two weeks. Donald Murphy, superintendent of the El Paso installation, stated his firm will be ready for complete consumption of Reef Fields' gas at any time. Murphy stated that the gas would be piped from his compressor station to Goldsmith, and then go to Jal and points west. Most of the gas will be used for commercial purposes in the West Coast states, he said. The El Paso installation consists of four compressor machines of 440 horsepower, a single cell cooling tower, and two generators.

"Engineer Of Year"

The Permian Basin chapter of the Texas Society of Professional Engineers will recognize H. E. (Eddie) Chiles Jr., as "Engineer of the year" at a banquet Monday evening in Midland. W. H. Oswalt, Midland, president of the chapter, congratulates Chiles, president of Western Company and El Capitan Oil, on the honor. Chiles is a community as well as industry leader.

Rotary Drilling Is Up Slightly From Early Tally

The March 25 survey of rotary drilling activity in the Permian Basin area of Southeast New Mexico and West Texas conducted by Reed Roller Bit Company showed 503 rigs in operation, an increase of 13 over the previous count, made March 10.

Lea County, New Mexico showed 139 rotaries in operation, a new high for that area, as the county continued to pace Permian Basin activity.

In West Texas, Andrews County remained at the top with 29 units going; one more than was shown on the March 10 count.

The Basin as a whole showed 490 rotaries turning on March 10 as compared to the 503 March 25. One year ago there were 748 units drilling.

The Spraberry Trend areas showed 25 rigs going on the last count—three less than the previous tally.

Counties included in the Reed survey with the number of rotaries in operation on March 25 (and those on March 10 shown in parenthesis) are:

- Andrews 29 (28), Borden 6 (2), Cochran 13 (15), Coke 25 (27), Crockett 8 (7), Crane 7 (7), Dawson 6 (9), Ector 26 (25), Gaines 23 (24), Glasscock 4 (3), Kent 6 (7), HOWARD 13 (12), Midland 17 (18), Mitchell 4 (4), Martin 4 (3), Pecos 20 (14), Reagan 11 (14), Schleicher 18 (18), Scurry 15 (14), Terry 8 (8), Tom Green 4 (7), Upton 23 (23), Ward 9 (8), Yoakum 12 (14), Lea N. M. 139 (125).

Venture Near Strawn Sand

Observers were watching the Robert I Wood No. 1 Dixon, southeastern Mitchell County wildcat, closely at the end of the week.

Last reports it was at 6,135 in Pennsylvanian shale. Some estimated that the test should pick up the Strawn sand within the next 15 to 20 feet.

This test is located 467 from the south and west lines of section 2-12, H&TC, four miles northwest of Silver in Coke County. It also is about two miles north of Sun (No. 1 McCabe, a recent Strawn completion).

In that part of the county, Magnolia No. 1 Walker was bottomed at 5,975 in shale and was trying to free a stuck packer. When this operation succeeds, contractor plans to attempt a drillstem test. Location is 660 from the north and west lines of section 22-14, H&TC, two miles northeast of Silver.

Humble No. 1 Cooper, 1,980 from the north and west lines of section 25-19, LaVaca, in southwestern Mitchell, progressed to 4,979. This exploration is projected to 8,500 to test the Pennsylvanian.

Unofficial reports had Weiner and Hayward No. 1 Solomon, five miles east of the Coronet field and in northwest Mitchell, plugged and abandoned at 3,235 in dry lime. It is 740 from the south and 330 from the west lines of the northwest quarter of section 73-97, H&TC.

Wildcat Announced For So. Tom Green

A wildcat oil test has been announced for southern Tom Green County.

It will be the Sinclair Oil & Gas No. 1 R. L. Stansberry. Exact location is 660 from the south and 1,980 from the east lines of section 61-25, H&TC. This puts it 12 miles southeast of Christoval and a mile and a half north of the south Tom Green County line. It is about the center of the south county line.

Projected depth is 5,800 and operations will start at once. The contract should take it into the Ellenburger.

Royalty Owners Put Oar Into Import Fight

AUSTIN.—Several routes designed to bring about a 300,000 barrel per day decrease in oil imports will be placed before the membership of the Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association at its seventh annual meeting in San Antonio Tuesday.

O. Scott Hammonds of Dallas, chairman of the TIPRO imports committee, announced Saturday that his group had agreed on a plan to attack the problem on both the state and national levels. It will be up to the membership at the Tuesday morning business session to accept or reject each suggestion.

"On the state level," said Hammonds, "consideration will be given amendments to the market demand statute which independent increasingly feel has come to serve only to make Texas the balance wheel for world oil surpluses. It is our plan now to present a strongly worded resolution pointing out that importers are using our market demand statute as presently constructed to provide an umbrella for any oil they may wish to dump on the domestic market. That resolution, in all likelihood, will call for an amendment excluding imports as well as unreasonably high production from other states in any interpretation placed upon market demand in fixing Texas allowances."

"On the national level, the membership will be asked to decide upon a resolution calling for a quota limitation or restrictive tariff designed to reduce the flow of imports by some 300,000 barrels per day. In addition, a resolution will be presented which would cause foreign oil imports to contribute no less to the United States economy through taxes than does oil produced here."

The final meeting of the Imports Committee takes place at San Antonio Monday at 10 a.m., March 30. At that time the committee report will be finalized for presentation the following morning to the membership for acceptance or rejection.

Among the speakers at the TIPRO gathering will be Roy J. Turner, former governor of Oklahoma (1947-51), Turner, who is an independent oil and gas producer, will address the membership luncheon.

Canada was united under one government in 1867 although there previously were governments in separate parts of the country.

IPAA Continues Blast At Growing Imports

By TEX EASLEY
WASHINGTON, March 28 (UP)—Spokesmen for the domestic oil and coal industries this week stepped up the tempo of their attack on foreign oil imports.

Most vocal was Russell Brown, general counsel for the Independent Petroleum Assn. of America (IPAA), who called for quotas restricting imports to 10 per cent of domestic demand.

Brown said that if imports continue at approximately the present average of 1,300,000 barrels daily, the total for 1953 will exceed the suggested 10 per cent quota by more than enough to result in the drilling of 1,650 fewer wells in this country during the year.

Figuring the average well produces 90,000 barrels, the domestic petroleum reserves thus would be deprived of approximately 150 million barrels of oil, the IPAA figures.

A dissenting voice was raised at the Western Petroleum Refiners Association convention in San Antonio, R. B. Tollett, Big Spring, president of Couden Petroleum Corporation and for two years head of the W.P.R.A., said imports were not of a volume sufficient to hurt domestic production.

He said that 40 per cent of oil imports are in residual fuel oil suitable for Diesel units. Statistics would seem to support his contention as to the percentage of crude and processed oil. The last quarter crude imports from the Near East averaged 160,000 barrels per day, those from the Western Hemisphere 42,000 barrels. At the same time, refined imports from both sides, but virtually all from the Western Hemisphere, averaged 376,000 barrels per day against a total crude import of 583,000.

IPAA says the year's excess of imports over the proposed 10 per cent limitation would be more than the combined petroleum production in 1952 of nine states: Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Ohio, Nebraska, Michigan, New York, Pennsylvania and West Virginia.

Viewing the import situation from a different angle, Sen. Cooper (R-Ky.) in an impassioned speech on the Senate floor, said shipments of duty-free residual oils into this country are causing heavy losses in the domestic coal industry.

He estimated that 129 million barrels of residual waste from refining of better grades of oil imported in 1952 displaced 31 million tons of coal.

Declaring this to be a violation of the basic concept of the Trades Agreement Act, he added: "Production in some of the great coal fields in my home state of Kentucky has dropped off by as much as 25 per cent under the corresponding period of last year. "In the first 31 days of this year the shipping mines of our neighboring state of Illinois experienced a drop of 18 per cent. These are by no means isolated cases. The coal areas of West Virginia, Ohio, Pennsylvania and other producing states also report increasing losses."

Magnolia Announces Plans For Big Reforming Unit

Officials of the Magnolia Petroleum Company's refinery at Beaumont Saturday announced awarding of the contract to build a multi-million-dollar Thermofor Catalytic Reforming unit there. Construction will get under way with completion of final engineering, which is expected to require about three months.

Initial operation of the unit likely will take place during the first half of 1954. Lummus Co. of New York is the contractor.

Cost of the project was not announced. Socony-Vacuum Oil Company, with which Magnolia is affiliated, originally announced a total cost of $27,000,000 for three such units plus a catalyst manufacturing plant at Paulsboro, N. J.

Unlike catalytic-cracking units, the TCR process does not break down heavy molecules to form lighter, more desirable ones. Rather, through a combination of heat, pressure and catalyst influence, it rearranges the atoms in the naphtha molecules to make high octane aromatic products.

The unit will be 250 feet high and will charge 19,000 barrels of naphtha per day. A pressuring sphere for catalyst will operate with automatically timed valves.

for such oil in the corresponding calendar quarter of the preceding year. Some of the arguments on the other side of the import picture were offered, along with sympathy for domestic petroleum producers, by John G. Pew, vice president in charge of production for the Sun Oil Co., and vice president of the American Petroleum Institute's production division, at a meeting in Tulsa.

Driver Loses Limb; Saved Youth's Life

DALLAS, March 28 (AP)—A milkman's safe-driving record is spoiled, his truck wrecked, his right leg amputated and his left leg broken.

But William Giddens is happy. He saved a boy's life.

"I just couldn't run over him—I just couldn't do it," Giddens reflected from his hospital bed. "I'd rather have it like this."

Giddens, 40, winner of several awards for accident-free driving in his 12 years as a milkman, was guiding his stubby truck along his route March 10. He was headed down a street slick from an afternoon rain.

So was 12-year-old Roland D. Martin, returning from the grocery on his bicycle.

The boy suddenly swerved from the shoulder onto the pavement. The milkman was too close to stop. He took the only other course, throwing his truck into a sharp turn. The open-doored vehicle rocked over on its side and slid 60 feet, grinding the driver's legs beneath it.

"It's all right," Giddens was heard to say as they wheeled him into the operating room. "Thank God I missed the boy."

They amputated Giddens' right leg three inches above the knee. Giddens and his family received dozens of letters praising him. They came from businessmen, parents and children. Many sent money. Contributions total $2,925.

Fellow dairy employes pitched in. So did the milkman's customers.

Children at an elementary school sent a get-well letter, promising they'd be careful on their bikes.

"It's all so wonderful," said his wife. "We always thought he was wonderful and now we know." The Giddens have two teenage daughters.

Materials For Youth Center On N. Side Sought

An appeal for materials which could be used for a youth center in northwest Big Spring was voted Saturday.

Under the general sponsorship of the Junior GI Forum, a start toward a recreational center for Latin-American youth has been made. The former Sacred Heart Catholic Church building has been provided as a meeting place.

A ping-pong table and billiard table are available, but ping-pong balls, perhaps more ping-pong tables, paddles, card tables, books and magazines for a library, and other types of games are needed.

Mrs. Chon Marquez, who has taken a lead in providing leadership, said that the center would be open from about 7 p.m. to 10:30 p.m. daily for youths from 14 to 20 years of age.

"Later we hope that enough people will support us and that enough of the young people will use the center that we can expand it to include an afternoon program," she said. "That would mean that we could serve the younger children."

Mrs. Marquez was hopeful that the GI Forum Auxiliary would volunteer to serve as volunteer workers. This would help solve the problem of supervision, she pointed out.

Anyone who can give anything toward helping get the center established and operating as it should should call Mrs. Marquez at 3819-M or the Rev. Bernard Wagner (1064). All contributions of materials will be deeply appreciated, said Mrs. Marquez.

Yard Work In City Seen From Water Consumption Figure

Spring yard work has been reflected in water consumption for the past few days, but this far in March water usage hasn't greatly exceeded the total for February.

Total for the first 27 days of the month was about 64 1/2 million gallons. The aggregate for the 28 days of February was 65 1/2 million.

But for the past week, Big Springers have been using approximately three million gallons of water daily, compared to an average of a little over two million gallons daily during the first part of the month.

The city's two biggest water days of the year occurred last Saturday, when 3,769,000 gallons were withdrawn from the distribution system, and last Wednesday when the production total reached 3,819,000 gallons.

Wednesday's total was not an accurate reflection of consumption, however. Pumps worked overtime that day refilling a reservoir which had been drained after automatic switching equipment failed.

Stanton Livestock Permits Required By April 1st Deadline

STANTON (SC) — A city ordinance requires that all persons living in town who keep livestock have a permit to do so. The deadline for obtaining the permits is April 1, Mrs. Leo Turner, city-county sanitarian, said yesterday.

There is no charge for these permits, she explains, and they may be obtained at her office. Keeping livestock within the city limits without such a permit is punishable by a fine, according to the ordinance.

Mrs. Turner said about a dozen of the permits had been issued, but that she believes there are other stock owners who have not applied for their permits.

Red Cross Hoping To End Drive

The community's contributions to a limited Red Cross fund appeal totaled $3,825 Saturday—with several reports yet to be received.

The Red Cross chapter, agreeing to participation in a United Fund Drive this Fall, has sought only $5,000 for interim financing of chapter activities. Much of the money received has been in response to a mail solicitation, but now volunteers are making special contacts to raise the rest of the needed funds. Campaign Chairman R. E. McEwen Jr., said he hoped workers could make reports by the middle of the week, and that the drive will be "over the top."

The Red Cross has had a strong assist from Webb Air Force Base, too. Money actually turned into the chapter from that source has amounted to $1,489.80, but about $300 more has been subscribed by the WAFF personnel. The base went over its goal of $1,750, according to final reports.

Red Cross Chapter Chairman Doug Orme voiced particular appreciation to the men at Webb for their help. "This is another expression of the splendid spirit of community cooperation always displayed by our friends at Webb Air Force Base," said Orme.

1,700 Visits Made To TEC Office In The Past Month

A total of 1,700 office visits were recorded during the fiscal month ending March 25, at the Big Spring office of the Texas Employment Commission, according to Leon M. Kinney, manager.

Kinney said that during the month three persons were referred to agricultural jobs and that of these two were placed in employment. During the same period 147 applicants were referred to non-agricultural employers and of these 129 were hired.

Thirty-eight persons filed new claims for unemployment compensation during the month.

Kinney says his office has several openings for Latin-American families to move to farms to live. The men must have had general farm experience, he explains.

It's Minstrel Time Again.....

Minstrel days will be here again on April 10-11 when the Lions Club presents its sixth annual show.

This year the club is putting on the entire production without professional help. Members felt that the club had sufficient experience after five minstrels, said Robert McEwen, president, to put on a first rate affair. Moreover, the amount of net would be increased. This is important to the club because all of the net proceeds go to local welfare or civic projects.

All characters will be gaily costumed for the occasion. Additional show flavor will be added by the traditional candy sales during the intermission.

As actual minstrel time draws near, the Lions Club is shifting all rehearsals from the Settles Hotel to the Municipal Auditorium effective Monday. Practice is held Monday, Tuesday and Thursday evenings.

BIG SPRING HERALD

Sec. II Big Spring, Texas, Sunday, March 29, 1953 Society

MR. BONES and his clan of traditional End Men, upper left, will have featured spots in the show, bantering with Dr. R. Gage Lloyd, Mr. Interlocutor. Kneeling is Dr. Dwight Jones. Others in this troupe are, left to right, Roy Holley, Jack Y. Smith, Sgt. John Engle and Roy Worley.

EASY DOES IT when it comes to applying the black for black-face comedians. At upper right, Mrs. L. D. Carothers puts blacking material on Sgt. John Engle, one of the end men. With a large cast, a regular committee is required to make up the performers.

GERALD BASHAM, baritone, center, goes through the routine, sans make-up, in-practicing for his part in the Lions Minstrel. The show includes a sequence of solos, quartets and ensembles backed by the chorus. The show boat theme is maintained in both parts of the sixth annual production.

CLOSE HARMONY is produced by Edward Johnson and Mrs. Fran Jones, lower left, as they dress up at one of the rehearsals for the Lions Minstrel. There will be around three score people in the cast, and half that many will be helping with make-up, ticket and candy selling.

HARRY LEE PLUMBLY, lower right, director of the chorus and who is shaping up all the music for the minstrel, ponders the score during a break at rehearsal. Part of the chorus listens at a suggestion Plumbly has for adding a little more punch to their Stephen Foster and Irving Berlin numbers.

Children To Hunt Easter Eggs At Webb

Children of Air Force personnel at Webb Air Force Base will hunt 12,500 candy Easter eggs Easter Sunday afternoon on the base at 3 p.m.

Between 300 and 350 children from age 2 to 9 are expected to participate, Chaplain (Lt.) John Little, project officer, says.

The hunt site will be roped off and policed for the safety of the children.

Less successful egg hunters will be able to draw on a special "egg bank" which has been arranged in addition to the hidden eggs, so no one will go home with an empty basket.

Members of the Officers Wives Club are wrapping eggs in cellophane wrappers.

Plastic Easter Egg

A sheet of plastic contains a set of six halves of small eggs formed on one sheet. These are partially die cut and ready to be pushed or clipped out. Two halves tied together by threading ribbon or cord through eyelets on the flanged edge will hold a handful of smaller Easter candles.

Tall Girl Talks About Beauty

Although Alexis Smith is tall, she feels that to be pre-occupied with height is an error, Alexis, star of RKO's "Split Second," also tells Lydia Lane that we are what we eat.

HOLLYWOOD BEAUTY

By Lydia Lane

HOLLYWOOD — Though Alexis Smith was born in Canada, she came to southern California when she was so young that she seems like a typical American when you meet her. But this carefree girl-next-door impression which she gives when you meet her has never been completely captured on the screen.

"I was always characterizing and being someone else that I had gotten away from being myself," Alexis confided as we lunched at R. K. O. where she was the leading lady in "Split Second," the first picture Dick Powell has directed.

"What is the most valuable lesson Hollywood has taught you?" Alexis sipped a glass of tomato juice pensively. "It's so easy to get your life cluttered with people — to fall in a pattern which shuts out everything but shop talk. Living here has taught me the necessity of having avid interests in other fields and to have enough time to develop these interests. So many people are lost when they are alone. I don't want this ever to happen to me.

"Most actresses, when asked how they felt about their first screen test, reply that they wanted to run away somewhere and hide," Alexis continued. "But I felt terribly pleased. I had come into the projection room direct from a physics class and I was impressed with my long eyelashes and glamour make-up. I never dreamed I could look like that."

"It seems ever since I started to school was so busy taking dancing lessons or practicing the piano that I never had time to become 'one of the gang.' My personality was affected by this and I placed more importance on being popular than on developing talent."

"Did you feel your height was a handicap?" "I am so bored talking about that. I learned not to let it bother me — that if I didn't make an issue of it other people would not. You know," Alexis said thoughtfully, "you can change your life by changing your attitude. It is such a mistake for a tall person to try to slump or to wear flat heels. I am not pre-occupied with height but I am always pleased when people tell me they had no idea I was as tall as I am."

The waitress put a triple deck sandwich in front of Alexis and she grinned. "I don't always eat like this, in fact I am a great one for health diets. It's no ideal phrase that we are what we eat. How can we expect our bodies to hold up if we don't give it the stuff that it can use?"

"But when I have a craving for something I give into it, and in this way forget about it. I don't care much for bread but about eleven o'clock in the morning I got hungry for a nice, fat club sandwich."

"Do you ever have a weight problem?" "It is very easy to keep your weight when you have a balanced diet."

Mrs. Bettie Gives Devotional At Meet

The Lydia Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church met Friday in the home of Mrs. Birt Stevens with Mrs. F. W. Bettie giving the opening prayer.

Mrs. Bettie, using as her text Matthew 28 and Isaiah 35, also gave the devotional, "Jesus Arose."

Mrs. Ernest Hull presided.

Following the short business meeting, word and name games were played during the social hour. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Stevens, assisted by Mrs. T. A. Roger and Mrs. O. B. Hull, to nine.

The waitress put a triple deck sandwich in front of Alexis and she grinned. "I don't always eat like this, in fact I am a great one for health diets. It's no ideal phrase that we are what we eat. How can we expect our bodies to hold up if we don't give it the stuff that it can use?"

"But when I have a craving for something I give into it, and in this way forget about it. I don't care much for bread but about eleven o'clock in the morning I got hungry for a nice, fat club sandwich."

"Do you ever have a weight problem?" "It is very easy to keep your weight when you have a balanced diet."

I asked Alexis to tell me more about this.

"There is no rigid plan to follow — no set menus. I just eliminate the stuff that has no nutritional value."

"What is the compliment you've been given the most often?"

"When I was playing in 'Private Lives' this summer it seems that people liked the way I moved. I recommend ballet training even though you don't dance professionally. It will help you to look better in your clothes and to move with more coordination."

"How much importance do you attach to appearance?"

"I take the middle of the road attitude," she answered. "I think it's a great mistake not to feel an obligation to accent your best with make-up and becoming clothes. But so often with great beauty everything is made easy. Then the beauty doesn't have the stimulus to develop. I think appearance means more when it is accompanied by intelligence and a warm personality."

An assistant director came to call Alexis back to the set as I asked: "What is your formula for success?"

"What helped me the most was learning not to split my concentration and not to live too far in the future," Alexis said.

STABLE WEIGHT IDEA
If you want menus to follow a reducing diet, or if you want to know what foods make for maintaining an even weight, you'll want a copy of leaflet No. 2, "Hollywood's Favorite Menus to Follow Reducing Diet and Maintain Stable Weight." This leaflet also has information about the psychology of reducing. Your copy will be on the way back to you when you send 5 cents AND a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Lydia Lane, Hollywood Beauty, in care of The Herald. Remember to ask for M-3.

Rehearsals are now underway on "Night Must Fall," a murder drama which will be presented by the Senior class of Big Spring High School April 23-24. Having the principal parts in the play are John Lawrence, Margie McDougale and Jody Miller. Other members of the cast include Pat Crossland, Janice Boardman, Della Reynolds, Susie Blankenship, Junior Suter and Don Anderson. The story of the play centers around Dan, portrayed by John Lawrence, a heli-boy in a resort hotel in Essex, England. Dan is summoned to the cottage of Mrs. Bramson, played by Margie McDougale, where he finds himself powerless in the grip of his homicidal instincts. Frances Walker is the student director and Dell McComb, high school speech teacher, is in charge of the production.

GOOD FOR ANY AGE

Simplicity Is Stressed In This Dress For Spring

When we were very young—we had dresses like this one designed by Alan Graham. The lines have a charming "little girl simplicity" that are exceptionally good for any age. The buttoned-on dickey and the cuffs are removable for washing, and the gores of the skirt are cut on the straight of the material thereby eliminating the possibility of a sagging skirt. The sleeves don't have to be set in—and the waist is so molded that it gives great emphasis to the bustline. Pattern No. 1089 is available in Standard Pattern Sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20. (Cut to U. S. Gov. Stan. Pat. Meas.) Cotton, wool, gabardine, silk or linen are equally good for this full skirted delight, but we do advise white linen for dickey and cuffs. Size 12 requires 2 1/2 yards of 54-inch fabric and 1/4 yards of 35" linen for necessary contrast. To order Pattern No. 1089, address Spadea Syndicate, Inc., P. O. Box 535, Dept. 154, G. P. O., New York 1, N. Y. State size.

HI-TALK
By Margie McDougale

This past week has been a very eventful week of students taking trips. Thursday at noon the student council left for the convention at Lubbock. This year the BSIS student council is running for the office of vice president of the Texas association of student councils. Thursday night at 8 p.m. there was a get-acquainted party and a talent show. Friday morning at 9:15, the first general session was held in the Lubbock Senior High auditorium. The discussion groups were over at 2:45 and the second discussion group began at 3:15 and lasted through 4:45. A barbeque banquet was enjoyed by everyone and a dance and other recreational activities were provided Friday night. The final general session and business meeting at 9:15 closed the convention. Those making the trip were Joyce Gound, Bobby Hayworth, Monohn Holley, Shirley Wheat, Joyce Anderson, Roger Brown, Doyle Maynard, Nannette Farquhar, Betty Earley, C. G. Evans, Lefty Reynolds and the sponsors, Mrs. Betty Ratliff, and Roy Balrd. Saturday the BSIS choir went to a contest at Midland, to compete in the regional meet. The sixty voices, under the direction of Harry Lee Plumley, sang three numbers. They were "Jesus Priceless Treasure," "Heavenly Light," and "O Hear These Our Words." Friday and Saturday several of our tennis players made a trip to Odessa to enter the tournament there. Those attending this tournament were Nancy Smith, Mary Lou Lepard, Barbara Hill, Peggy Hogan, Robert Angel, Jim Lane, Steve Kornfeld, Donald Mac Richardson. This six weeks honor roll has been announced and five of the students on it have been named for the fourth consecutive time this year. They are Joyce Boardman, Myrna Talley, seniors Nina Fryar and Alice Ann Martin, juniors and Virginia Hatch, sophomore. Others on the honor roll are Betty Bradford, Nancy Conway, Barbara Davidson, Rita Sale, Ariene Hartin, Claudia Reen, Frances Walker, Mary Ella Bigony, Charlene Boyd, Doris Jean Brown, Glenna Coffey, Patsy Dunn, Beverly Edwards, C. G. Evans, Dick Kincaid, Don McCarty, Jo Ann Miller, Ellen Morton, Patsy Ann Reeves, Marie Wallace and Shirley Wheat. On April 4, the annual basketball and volleyball banquet will be held in the BSIS cafeteria. The highlight of this banquet will be speaker, Jackie Robinson, of Baylor. Wednesday at 11 a.m. the senior girls and boys had separate assemblies. Sgt. Mary Cottingham, recruiter from Abilene, spoke to the senior girls. Sgt. A. M. Burt, a local recruiter, spoke to the senior boys. The main purpose of this meeting was to interest the graduating seniors in an army career. The junior class of BSIS is working extra hard to earn money for the annual Junior-Senior Prom. They have ordered the decorations and are now planning the program. Kesner, Mrs. F. L. Moore, Mrs. Walter Harter and Mrs. M. V. Wright.

A party was given in home of Doris Jean Brown Tuesday night. Those attending were Joan McKinney, Claudia Reed, Kenneth Brynart, Larry Stephens, Jean Morgan, Ella Mae Newton, James P. Atty, Patricia Albert and J. M. Hilling.

MR. AND MRS. GENE BURROW

Burrows Are On Trip To New Orleans, La.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Burrow are on a wedding trip to New Orleans, La. following their marriage, here March 24.

The bride is the former Dorothy Burns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Burns, Rt. 1, Ackerly. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Burrow, Rt. 1, Ackerly.

The Rev. Clyde Nichols, pastor, performed the double ring, semi-formal ceremony at the First Christian Church at 6 p. m. The couple repeated their vows before an altar centered with branched candelabra and palms and flanked by two baskets of white and picardy gladiol.

Kay Jamison, pianist, played a medley of pre-nuptial music including "I Love You Truly," "Always" and "Because." During the ceremony she played the "Lord's Prayer." She also played the traditional wedding marches.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white hand-embroidered organdy over taffeta. It was designed with a scalloped neckline and scalloped sleeves and a three-tiered ballerina length skirt. Her shoulder-length veil of illusion was caught to an embroidered organdy cap.

She carried a white Bible topped with gardenias and showered with pink rosebuds and streamers.

Ada Davis of Ackerly was maid of honor. She was attired in a ballerina-length gown of blue net over taffeta. She carried a colonial bouquet of white and picardy gladiol.

Elvie Dean Holcomb served as best man. Ushers were Wayne Burns of Austin, brother of the bride, and Sam Burns of Lubbock, cousin of the bride.

Flower girls were Martha Lane Burrow, sister of the bridegroom, and Nancy Norman. The little girls wore pink organdy dresses.

Shirley Burns, the bride's sister, and Kay Eudy, the bride's cousin, lighted the candles. They were attired in blue organdy gowns.

When the couple left on their wedding trip, Mrs. Burrow chose a turquoise silk shantung dress with navy accessories. Upon their return, they will make their home at 102 E. 15th in Big Spring.

Both young people are graduates of Flower Grove High School. Mrs. Burrow is now attending Howard County Junior College. Her husband attended the same school and is now employed by Truman Jones Motor Co.

Mothers of the couple assisted them in receiving at the reception held in the church parlor.

The refreshment table, laid with a white linen cutwork cloth, was centered with an arrangement of white and pink snapdragons. The three-tiered wedding cake, topped by a miniature bride and groom, was decorated with pink roses of the confection.

Mrs. A. J. Beckmeyer and Mrs. Olton Jamison served, and Thelma

Beckhams Return From Wedding Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Louis C. Beckham are living at 805 Main after a wedding trip to New Mexico and Northern Texas.

They were married March 15 in the 14th and Main Street Church of Christ.

Lyle Price read the double ring ceremony. The bride is the former Neva Ellsworth of Springfield, Mo. The bridegroom, stationed at Webb Air Force Base, is from Alexander, La.

Betty Elledge, cousin of the bride, of Fort Worth and Sgt. Bill Hood of Nashville, Tenn., attended the couple. The bride was given in marriage by Howard Elledge, her cousin, also of Fort Worth.

Eager Beaver Club Has Quilting Party

The Eager Beaver Club had a covered dish luncheon and all-day quilting party in the home of Mrs. Leroy Findley, Rt. 2, Friday.

Mrs. J. C. Stevens was a visitor. Thirteen were present. Next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Bluford Burton, Rt. 2, next Friday.

Bible Class Makes Quilt At Meeting

FORSAN, (Spl) — Members of the Ladies Bible Class of the Church of Christ met recently in the home of Mrs. James Eubanks for an all-day quilting.

A covered dish luncheon was served at noon. The fourth Wednesday in each month has been set aside for quilting. The quilts will be sent to the home for the aged in Gunter and also to needy families. Recently the group sent a box of miscellaneous household goods to the storm-stricken people in the Knox City area.

Allen Clifton, a student at Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene, is home for the week end to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Clifton. Other guests in the Clifton home are Capt. and Mrs. Lee Crox Clifton of Phoenix, Ariz.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Fairchild and Mike were recent guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Fairchild, and Mary Ann. Week-end guests in the Fairchild home are Mr. and Mrs. Leo Parker and Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Armstrong of Jal, N. M.

Billie Lou Gandy, student at McMurry College, Abilene, is home for a week-end visit with her mother, Mrs. Mamie Gandy.

Annual Art Tea To Be Held Tuesday

Mrs. Mary Raley's art students will have their annual art tea Tuesday in the Howard County Junior College library from 6 p. m. to 9 p. m. The public is invited, according to Mrs. Raley.

Forty pupils will exhibit work in the following media: pencil drawing, charcoal, india ink, pastels, watercolors and oils.

Bride-Elect

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Reed of Galesburg, Kan., are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Lois Naureen, to Charles D. Biddison, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Dick Biddison, 1311 Sycamore. The wedding will be April 5 in the Church of the Brethren, Parsons, Kan. The prospective bridegroom was discharged from the armed forces this month after serving a year in Germany. The couple will live in Bentonville, Ark. The bride-elect is the sister of Mrs. M. G. Pellush and Mrs. R. O. Clark, both of Big Spring.

Easter Seal Contributions Now Total More Than $400

The American public today has undergone an almost complete reversal of attitude toward crippled children and adults as a result of the work of voluntary agencies offering care and treatment to the handicapped. It has been stated by Easter Seal officials.

Mrs. Trudy Caldwell, sale chairman for the B&PW Club, has announced that $429.30 has been raised thus far in the annual sale. More has been received but the amount has not been tallied. The $429.30 represents money that has been deposited.

The contributions came from the sale of seals mailed to more than 3,000 individuals over the county. The drive is conducted annually by the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults Inc. and a part of the proceeds are retained by the Howard County chapter to aid crippled children and adults in this area.

Saturday, members of the Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority will conduct a street sale of miniature Easter lilies with proceeds going to the fund.

Members of the B&PW Club volunteer their services each year to conduct the sale. Mrs. Lula Ashley is county Seal Sale chairman.

Bryants Announce Birth Of First Son

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Bryant of Midland have announced the birth of a son, Arthur Wayne, born Wednesday at 9:30 p. m. in a Midland Hospital.

The baby, who weighed five pounds, 14 ounces, is the grandson of Mrs. Etta Straughn and Mrs. Beulah Bryant, both of Big Spring.

The Bryants have one other child, Nancy, 11.

"I'VE BEEN COOKING ELECTRICALLY FOR..."

17 YEARS"

Says Mrs. J. E. Middleton, Grandfalls Highway, Monahans

"After seventeen years of cooking electrically, I'm more than ever convinced it's the only way for me. My electric oven bakes so evenly, and electric control is so accurate and dependable. I'd never cook any other way. In fact, I don't know anyone who cooks electrically who would ever change."

Time has proved to Mrs. Middleton that electric cooking is easy... accurate... and dependable! More and more housewives are discovering for themselves the advantages of cooking electrically! Clean... cool... automatic cooking... the modern, electric way will be your way too!

See your favorite electrical appliance dealer and let him show you the modern way to better, easier cooking.

Where to shop for what HELLEN'S HINTS

HERE COMES PETER COTTONTAIL... the familiar notes of this gay little melody will accompany your sentiments on Easter in original music box greeting card from HESTER'S. Priced at $1.00, it's a happy blending of the charm of the old fashioned music box with appropriate verse and illustration about a funny little bunny, to strike a new note in children's Easter greetings. You'll also find a wide choice of conventional Easter cards, making it possible to select one to carry your individual message in the way you yourself would like to say it... so very important for such a special season. With Easter just a week away, you'll want to see them and send them soon.

START WITH A SKIRT... and add a stole; combine it with the wonderful new Tweed Poodle material and you have the ingredients of the latest spring creation that's stealing the show at M-LADY'S ACCESSORIES. Designed with a trim, tailored skirt with peg pockets, and topped with a matching, deep-fringed stole and solid linen weave blouse, it gives you an outfit that's styled with a flair and finished with finesse. The very character of the fabulous, fashion-right texture that's completely crease-releasing and snap resistant disciplines the design with simplicity and freedom, and the fresh colors of canary yellow and black and rose and black are expressive of spring with all its talent for bringing fashion sharply into focus.

HE WILL HAVE EYES ONLY FOR YOU... If you remember one thing... that men are partial to prettiness... especially to pretty hair. It's the look of your hair that suddenly makes your new clothes look right — your old clothes look new. At the YOUTH BEAUTY SHOP they'll tell you that especially at Easter, fashion turns the spotlight on hair, and to fashion-right your hair-style must accent your costume. With this in mind, they will cut, wave, and style your hair with the skill that only a professional beautician can give you. So to keep that look of approval in his eyes, and show off your Easter bonnet to its best advantage, why not make an appointment soon?

BAVARIAN—THE ARISTOCRAT OF CHINAS... is the perfect setting for the loveliest Easter tables. Found at the BIG SPRING HARDWARE, here is china for you to admire, to love, to own. Gem-like in quality... each piece is a masterpiece of beauty that you'll cherish today, tomorrow, forever. Made by Royal Heidelberg in Winterling, Germany, the patterns of Wild Rose, Rose Briar, and Gold Band are set on a damask white background. The delicacy of design and well balanced proportion of each piece will attest to your taste in choosing lovely things for your home. For all its beauty, it's still a moderately priced china that will mean true elegance for this year's Easter table as well as for many years to come.

SWEET SCENTS MAKE WONDERFUL GIFT SENSE... and with Easter coming, there's probably several people you would like to remember with a small gift. At the CUNNINGHAM & PHIPPS DRUGS you'll find a complete new line of lovely Chanel perfumes and colognes, and everyone, from tiny tot to adoring pop, knows that perfume is a woman's favorite. You can choose from five famous scents — the well known and exclusive No. 5, No. 22, Gardenia, Bois des Indes, and Russia Leather. You'll find each selection in both perfume and cologne — ranging from lovely, lasting, flower-laden fragrances, sweet with sentiment, to exotic scents, spicy with charm.

THE SHORTEST DISTANCE TO A MAN'S HEART... is by way of ELMO WASSON'S MEN'S STORE. A man likes Easter gifts just as much as you, and if his gifts carry Elmo's label of good quality, he likes them all the more. Here are a few suggestions that are sure-fire moneysavers... stand by for his nod of warm approval when he sees your gift of the handsome spring-thrower shirts, in both dress and sport style... there's sox appeal aplenty in the wide variety of bright-argyles or solid color trim-fitted ribbed socks... and you're sure to tie up a real treat for him with one or several of the beautiful ties styled in the spirit of spring. Of course, there's many, many other gifts to choose from—all planned to make it easy to remember the man you don't want to forget.

A NEW SEASON... A NEW SKIRT... and from ZACK'S Of Margo comes the crispest spring-thrower selection of skirts you've seen in many a moon... some full, some slim; some with the gentle ripple of softly flowing lines, some with all the crisp confidence of precision tailoring... all emphasizing a freedom of line and fabrics totally new — definitely charming. You'll find cottons and more cottons, linens and denims... a wonderful selection of solids or prints big and bold—small, and dainty... in sun-filled colors to rival the rainbow. For desk-to-date serviceability, a variety of skirts is your perfect partner to meet the ever changing demand of your wardrobe.

SPRUCE UP FOR SPRING... and give your home eye-appeal, charm, beauty — give it color, freshness, elegance with carpeting from the GOOD HOUSEKEEPING SHOP. You'll find such famous names as Alexander-Smith, Broadloom, Magee and Aidon cotton carpeting. You'll choose from a selection of soft decorator shades in plain carpeting, sculptured tone-on-tone, or fascinating new textures and patterns... any one lending warmth and charm to your home. Making a small room seem larger, integrating rooms and halls. These fine carpets are designed to give long wear and to form an attractive background in your decorating scheme... and of course, convenient payments can be arranged.

I COULD WRITE A SONNET... about the season inspired flowers at FAYE'S FLOWERS, and what could be more fitting for Easter Sunday than one of her beautiful corsages. Easter and flowers complement each other, and there's almost an unlimited selection at Faye's. She has a variety of orchids in browns, greens, lavenders and whites; assorted camellias, gardenias, violets and iris. You'll also find beautifully hued roses and ranunculus, as well as spicy carnations in all colors. You'll want to order early so Faye can fashion your floral needs in the trend of the season from her selection of sweetly scented, fresh-as-dew-drops flowers.

HERE'S SOMETHING NEW... in the field of music, and THE RECORD SHOP brings it to you. Now on 45 rpm records you can get the new Extended Play records—comparable to LP's on 33-1/2 records. On EP, each record contains four complete selections (two on each side) to bring you much more musical enjoyment with fewer recordings. The Record Shop has just received a new shipment of these new EP records that includes many of your favorites. You'll find selections by Bing Crosby, Gordon Jenkins, Victor Young, The Mills Brothers and many, many others... each record a richly rewarding collection of beautiful music. Why not see these one record albums soon... they'll mean a more complete record library for you.

CAMPUS CHATTER

By Darlene Sneed

Classes were held only on Monday and Tuesday of the past week because of the teacher's convention in Dallas. Dr. W. A. Hunt and Dean B. M. Keese left earlier in the week to attend administrative meetings. Other instructors who attended the meeting were Marvin Baker, Charlotte Sullivan, Gerald Brenholtz and George McAllister. We are certainly proud of the Jayhawks they have surely put HJJC and Big Spring on the map because of their magnificent playing in the National Basketball tournament.

A number of fellow students, teachers and parents went down to the train station to see the Hawks off. Some of them were Lynn Mitchell, Sue Love, Nan McGahey, Marie Petty, Shirley Riddle, Mary Sue White, Beverly Jones, Darlene Sneed, Mrs. Charlotte Sullivan, Regina Sullivan, Mrs. Harold Davis, Mrs. Louise Brown and Tommy Gilmore.

Students met Tuesday morning and formed a Rodeo Club. The club made plans to attend the San Angelo College Rodeo next month. Officers were elected: Billy Mac Sheppard was elected president; Bud Nichols, vice president; Darlene Sneed, secretary; Marie Petty, treasurer; Sue White, reporter; Elvon DeVaney, historian; Junior Thejme, parliamentarian; and Joe Jabara, sheriff. Don Edwards and John Dameron were the only members not present. The club will call itself the Jayhawk Rodeo Club.

At the first sign of spring, many students have taken to tennis. Some of the kids seen playing recently have been Joe Mize, Billy Mac Sheppard, Jonell West, Venita Allison, Diana Farquhar, Lou Ann Nall, Bobby Adams, Darlene Sneed, Beverly Jones and Sue White.

Frances King, Jack Lee and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. King visited in Dallas over the week end.

The Dramatics Class selected three plays written by students in the class to be presented by the class before the student body. Plays selected were "He Walks in Beauty" by Richard Gilmore and Dallas Williams, "I, The Head Janitor," by Barbara Blair and Sue Love and "The Whittler's Secret," by Darlene Sneed. "He Walks in Beauty" is a play concerning an ace basketball player who thinks he is the only player on the team.

"I, The Head Janitor" is a play satirizing Mickey Spillane's mystery book, "I, The Jury." "The Whittler's Secret" concerns the rugged days of Alaska during the gold rush.

Watkinses Win High At Bridge Meeting

GARDEN CITY (Sp) — Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Watkins won high score at the Night Bridge Club meeting Thursday at Mr. and Mrs. David Glass' ranch east of Garden City. Arrangements of spring flowers decorated the house. Mr. and Mrs. Ross Foster had second high score, and consolation prize went to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dodd. The club will have the next meeting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Parker.

Talent Show To Be Given

Music, variety acts, magic and many other features will highlight Webb Air Force Base's first home talent show to be held Monday at 8 p.m. in the auditorium of the Academic Building. The show will be open to all military personnel, their families and guests. No admission will be charged.

Members of Webb's newly-organized base band will provide music for the three hour program. ASC Harvey Strauss, a veteran of radio and TV shows, will serve as master of ceremonies for the 15 acts. The program is being arranged by the base special services section. Warrant Officer Doug Williamson will direct the band.

MR. AND MRS. E. M. RAINBOLT AND CHILDREN

Music Is Important In Life Of Newcomer

Music has always played an important role in the life of Mrs. E. M. Rainbolt.

As a music teacher in Pecos, she was introduced to a border patrolman who later became her husband. Earlier, she studied voice in New York with the same coach as Mary Martin and the Andrews Sisters.

When she wasn't being coached herself, Mrs. Rainbolt served as accompanist for Miss Martin and the trio during their own lessons. The Rainbolts with their four children, Richard, 8, Billy, 6, and twins, Lucinda and Lucette, 4, moved here recently from Cleveland, Ohio. They are living at 1104 Marijo.

Mrs. Rainbolt, a slender blonde, attended the Juillard School of Music in New York before her marriage. Rainbolt, who has been a border patrolman for almost 12 years, was in the immigration service in Cleveland.

"I used to worry about him a lot," his wife said. "But then I decided that he was a grown man who would look after himself as best he could and now I try not to worry at all."

A native of Norman, Okla., the patrolman claims to be an adopted West Texan. "In fact, when we were in Cleveland, he wouldn't fish in Lake Erie but instead pined for the dear old Rio Grande," Mrs. Rainbolt laughed.

Before moving to Ohio, the family lived in Pecos off and on for 10 years. Mrs. Rainbolt, a native of Eastland, has always been very active in music circles. During her college days, she majored in piano, minored in violin and did some voice and organ work.

At the moment, she is eagerly awaiting the time when she can begin playing the organ again. In Pecos, she directed the choir of the First Christian Church.

Sunday Opens Holy Week At Churches

Palm Sunday opens Holy Week at local churches. Revivals and other special observances will be held during the week.

Lester Roloff of Corpus Christi, evangelist, will lead revival services at the Baptist Temple. Beginning Sunday at 10 a.m. and 7:45 p.m., they will continue every day through Easter.

At St. Thomas Catholic Church confessions will be heard Wednesday, 4 p.m. to 6 p.m. and 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. in preparation for Mass and communion at 7 a.m. on Holy Thursday. Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament will continue all day, with blessing of children at 4 p.m. and Holy Hour at 7:30 p.m.

On Good Friday Mass Presan-ctified will be at 7 a.m., stations and veneration of the cross at 1:45 p.m. and stations of the cross and sermon at 7:30 p.m. Confessions will be heard from 3 p.m. to 6 p.m. and 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. on Holy Saturday. The Vigil of Easter will begin at 11 p.m. of the same evening. Solemn High Mass will be at midnight.

At Sacred Heart Catholic Church confessions will be heard Wednesday from 10 a.m. to 11:30 a.m., 3 to 6 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m. On Holy Thursday there will be communion at 6:30 a.m., High Mass and procession at 8 a.m., adoration of the Blessed Sacrament all day and Holy Hour and sermon at 7 p.m.

Mass of the Presanctified will be at 8 a.m. on Good Friday. Stations of the cross and the Seven Last Words at 2 p.m. and services of La Soledad at 7 p.m. On Holy Saturday there will be blessing of the paschal candle, the New Fire, and baptismal water at 7 a.m., High Mass at 8 a.m., and confession from 3 to 6 p.m. and from 7 to 9:30 p.m.

The Rev. Clyde Nichols will lead revival services each evening at 7:30 p.m. during the week at the First Christian Church. The theme, "Take Up Thy Cross," will be concerned with the relationship of the Cross to everyday life.

Sermon schedule is as follows: Monday, "The Four Crosses"; Tuesday, "Lord Is It I?"; Wednesday, "Were You There?" Thursday there will be the annual Upper Room candlelight communion service. Rev. Nichols will speak on "The World's Blackest Night" on Friday. The Men's Choir will be in charge of music during the revival.

The Rev. John E. Kolar will officiate at a special ordination service Thursday at 7:30 p.m. at the First Church of God. Friday there will be a public service of meditation and prayer.

There will be daily celebration of holy communion at St. Mary's Episcopal Church Monday through Thursday at 10 a.m. On Monday Thursday there will be holy communion at 7:30 p.m. Good Friday Litany will be at 10 a.m. and three-hour devotion from 12 noon to 3 p.m.

The Rev. A. H. Hoyer will speak on "The Cross of Christ—Our Salvation" at a special Good Friday service at St. Paul's Lutheran Church at 7:30 p.m. The Lord's Supper will be celebrated.

Holy Week services will be every evening at 7:30 at the First Methodist Church.

GSO Holds Initial Meet Friday Night

An organizational session for the Girls Service Organization to assist in recreational programs in connection with the new Servicemen's Center—was held Friday evening at the Center. The group attending will serve as a nucleus for a girls' organization to serve as junior hostesses at the Center, and for dances, picnics, swimming parties and similar social affairs.

Attending the meeting were Ipha Bush, Evelyn Martin, Joan Gay, Dot Cuyler, Billie Gaugh, Ayan Wilcke, Virginia Ann Gay, Lynn Porter, Norma Jones and Mrs. Ann Gibson Houser, sponsor.

Other girls are invited to join the organization, Mrs. Houser said, and it is open to those between the ages of 17 and 25. Those interested may call Mrs. Houser at Phone 351 for complete information.

Another meeting will be held Wednesday, April 1, and full attendance is urged at that time. Preliminary plans are in the making for a dance for the servicemen to be held April 25.

Choir To Open Holy Week With Cantata

Sunday at 7:30 p.m., the choir of the First Methodist Church will open Holy Week with an Easter cantata, "The Seven Last Words of Christ."

Written by Theodore DuBois, the cantata will be directed by Mrs. G. H. Wood. Soloists will be Mrs. J. W. King Jr., Mrs. Don Newsom, Mary Beth Keaton, L. Milford Fargo, W. B. Higgins of Austin and Arnold Marshall.

Mrs. Champ Rainwater, organist, and Mrs. Ann Gibson Houser, pianist, will be accompanists. The public is invited to attend.

In Their Easter Finery

Retreat Ceremonies Resumed

Warm Weather Brings Retreat Back To Webb

With the coming of the Summer, one of the most colorful of military ceremonies re-appears at Webb Air Force Base. The formal retreat, with the fanfare of military music and the massing of troops is seen every afternoon at the flag pole by Wing Headquarters.

The retreat formation is rotated among the squadrons, a different outfit performing each day. The lowering of the Colors however, is always by the 3560th Air Police Squadron with the 509th Air Force Band playing for the ceremony.

One of the snappiest groups at the base, is of course, the Cadet detachments. These men drill constantly and march in formation every where they go. Everything is snap and precision when it's their turn to stand retreat.

Thirty minutes before time for the lowering of the Colors, the duty squadron leaves the squadron area in formation behind the band. At full dress and with band playing, they march to Wing Headquarters.

At wing the troops are formed for retreat. When a Cadet squadron is on hand, you will see Dutch, French and Danish uniforms sprinkled throughout the ranks, making it a United Nations salute to our Colors.

With the calling of the troops to attention the band swings into the National Anthem. Hand salutes are rendered as the flag is lowered slowly by the precise Air Police detail.

As the flag is folded, the columns turn and the band breaks into quick step. The flights form and fall in behind. The shouted commands of the flight commanders ring through the blare of the band.

The column disappears across the fields back towards the squadron area. The music fades and silence again envelopes the new empty Wing Headquarters area.

The CQ goes back to his lonely chair in Headquarters building. It's all over now until tomorrow afternoon.

North Texas Exes To Meet Tuesday

North Texas State College's former students residing in this area will meet Tuesday, "North Texas Day," for the election of officers for another year.

The group will listen to a recorded program from the North Texas campus. The program will be aired over Station KBST at 5 p.m.

The meeting is set for 4:45 p.m. at the high school cafeteria. Refreshments will be served, and all ex-students of NTSC are invited, said Dean Bennett, chairman of the local NTSC ex-students chapter.

Mrs. Ruth Burnam is recording secretary for the chapter.

BAD NEWS FOR FLIES

City Planning War On Summer Insects

Big Spring insects this spring will begin to feel the effects of a health department fly-control school conducted here last fall.

Lige Fox, sanitarian for the city-county health unit, says he expects a more effective insect-control program this summer as a result of the school.

"We'll know more about spreading insecticides and how to get at the source of fly infestations," the sanitarian believes.

Insecticide spraying and fogging operations probably will be started during April, when first flies are expected to start hatching.

The city fogging machine will cover the city regularly, as in the past, and personnel of the city street department will hand spray alleys and garbage and trash disposal areas throughout the business district.

Hand spraying of manholes, which last year proved extremely effective against cockroaches, also will be performed again.

Fox now has underway a survey of premises where livestock, chickens and rabbits are kept. He considers these spots among the most conducive to fly breeding and will require owners to meet sanitation requirements.

He expects to complete the survey and take necessary steps to remove all possible fly-breeding conditions prior to start of the fly season in the next two or three weeks.

"An early start is essential to any insect-control program," Fox asserts. "One fly killed in April is equivalent to 10,000 or more in August."

Information gained during the fly-control school here last fall will enable insect fighters to more effectively distribute their ammunition this year, according to the sanitarian. He said spraying and fogging will be concentrated in areas where the breeding potential is greatest.

Another aid this year will be a new insecticide machine, which the city is to purchase as replacement for the present fogging apparatus that is badly worn. City Manager H. W. Whitney has included in the 1953-54 budget an outlay for purchase of the new equipment.

Citywide clean-up week, to be conducted by the city and Chamber of Commerce during April, will be of tremendous value in the elimination of insect breeding conditions and in the control of diseases, as well as from the standpoint of the city's appearance, Fox points out.

Fox also will press for strict compliance with the city's covered garbage can ordinance as a fly-and disease-control measure. All waste cans must be covered with fly-proof lids, and no barrels or other containers of more than 30-gallon capacity will be allowed.

The sanitarian says he believes the city's covered garbage can record, which was gauged as high as 96 per cent of the total at one time, isn't as good as it once was.

Mosquitoes aren't expected to pose any great problem until rains create pools for them to breed in, but when that happens such places will be treated, the sanitarian says.

Another pest problem that isn't particularly troublesome in Big Spring is that of rodents, but the city-county health unit is equipped to deal with any rats or other rodents that may be around. A new shipment of warfarin has been secured, and residents can have the rodent killer at cost—25 cents per pound.

A pound of the substance should adequately treat the average home or small barn, Fox reports.

ABC Club Will Continue Its Sea Scout Unit Sponsorship

At their regular Friday luncheon at the Settles Hotel, members of the American Business Club took time to dispose of a number of pressing problems, as well as to dine.

The club voted to pay the registration fee of any member and his wife attending the district convention in Amarillo April 17-18-19.

It was decided to retain sponsorship of its local Sea Scout Troop, following comments made by Jim Hale, local Scout executive, a visitor.

Funds will be provided for publication of the ABC Bulletin, a periodical dealing with club business. Charley Staggs will serve as editor of the Bulletin and will have the assistance of two reporters assigned each week. The first two are Don Anderson and Grover Cunningham Jr.

A committee was named to consider ABC sponsorship of a team in the Pony Baseball League, which is now being organized. Members of the committee are J. D. Jones, L. D. Chrane, Arnold Marshall, Garner McAdams and Glenn Guthrie.

The club will henceforth purchase $2.50 worth of magazines monthly for the local USO.

Walker Bailey, the club's chairman for the ABC Relays upcoming next week end, asked for 25 volunteers to help run the track meet. He circulated a paper for signatures.

Dr. Howard Schwarzenbach announced that the club had been granted concession rights for the matched roping contest, which takes place here April 19.

The club has been asked to donate $200 toward a summer recreation program here. The board of directors will look into the matter.

George Zachariah informed the gathering that the club had also been requested to give $25 toward the city-wide First Aid program, which is conducted here annually by Otto Peters Sr.

Obie Brister, state legislator from Big Spring, was a visitor and described the procedure for sending a bill through the hopper in the State Legislature.

New song books, given the club by Cosden, were presented to the members.

Plans For Aggie Muster Here Are Now Being Planned

Arrangements are being made for local observance of the 50th annual muster of former students of Texas A&M College, April 21, the anniversary of the Battle of San Jacinto, according to Jack Cook, president of the Big Spring chapter of the Ex-Aggies and W. S. Goodlett, muster chairman.

The occasion, Goodlett said yesterday, will include a dinner to which the wives are invited, the hour and place of which will be determined later. As has been the custom in the past the program will be in the form of a memorial to those ex-students who have died during the past year as well as to the memory of the men and women who established the Republic of Texas.

The first of these musters was held in 1903, and this year more than 400 of them will be held throughout the world, Goodlett said.

A Bible Thought For Today

Offering For Public Service Is Deserving Of Big Voter Response

By this time next week, voters will have selected school trustees and will be only a couple of days away from naming city commissioners. It is to be hoped earnestly that there will be a good turnout of voters for both elections. Those who serve or offer to serve in public office are deserving of an interest from the citizenry that will at least manifest itself at the polls.

We do think, however, that due consideration ought to be given to the conclusion you reach as to the capabilities, the outlook, and the attitudes of each of the candidates. It seems to us that you will want to keep in mind those for whom you are casting your ballot as to how they will serve the community within which administrators will function.

Is Good Money Going After Bad In Kaiser Purchase Of Willys?

No other words describe the merger agreement between Kaiser-Frazer Corp., and Willys-Overland Motors, Inc. except extraordinary and daring. The merger will rank Henry J. Kaiser either as a desperate venture throwing good money after bad or a financial titan, who, with his back to the wall, rallied his resources and saved his business.

Willys earnings hold up. Willys earned $18,600,000 before federal taxes last year and $14,300,000 the year before that. The theory of the merger is that the companies complement each other. Kaiser-Frazer buys Henry J. engines from Willys. Willys buys parts from Kaiser. Integration will result in economies in the manufacture of automobiles and planes and munitions.

It Can Be In The FBI File, But It May Not Be True

Sunday Talk: On Conservation

A school pupil, Linda Parnella, writes: "My class is trying to get information on the conservation of forests, including keeping the soil from washing away."

Many experts in the field of conservation have pointed out the importance of forests in holding down floods. A forest hundreds of miles from flood danger points can do a good deal to save people from high waters.

One of these is the building of dams which can hold back flood waters at various places.

Sometimes the origin of a flood can be blamed on the reckless cutting of trees. In past times the trees were taken away from large areas, leaving the ground bare.

Bible Words to Live by

ROMANS 8:28 - "And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose."

Job was not the only man who discovered that words have a profound influence upon the human spirit. The purpose of God in revealing his truth to the souls of men has preserved to us an available library of divine wisdom which moves the hearts of men toward righteousness. "The pattern of sound words" to which Paul advised his young friend, Timothy, to cling, is a pattern for every Christian.

Royal Hobos

David Wayne and Charles Laughton are seen as tramps in the above scene from "O. Henry's Full House," scheduled for the State Theatre today and Monday. It combines five of O. Henry's short stories with the talents of 12 Hollywood stars. Those in the production include Fred Allen, Anne Baxter, Jeanne Crain, Farley Granger, Oscar Levant, Richard Widmark, Dale Robertson, Gregory Ratoff, Jean Peters and Marilyn Monroe.

Civil War Reunion

Phyllis Thaxter is reunited with Gary Cooper in the above scene from "Springfield Rifle," which will play at the Terrace tonight and Monday night. In Warner Color, the movie concerns the introduction of the famous rifle to Civil War battles. It also deals with traitorous officers in the Union forces who make money selling goods to the enemy. Miss Thaxter plays Cooper's wife.

Mountie's Bluff

Tyrone Power tries to rescue two captives from warring Indians in this scene from "Pony Soldier." The movie is scheduled at the Lyric today and Monday. Cameron Mitchell, Thomas Gomez and Penny Edwards have top roles. The Technicolor production concerns a Mountie who crosses the border and brings the Cree Indians back into Canada single-handedly.

O. Henry Stories Make For A Movie With Dozen Stars

"O. Henry's Full House," which will show today and Monday at the State Theatre, combines the most famous tales written by America's best known short story writer. And twelve outstanding Hollywood stars have lead parts in the production. O. Henry's stories which are screened in the movie include "The Gift of the Magi," "The Ransom of Red Chief," "The Last Leaf," "The Cop and the Anthem," and "The Clarion Call." Stars include Fred Allen, Anne Baxter, Jeanne Crain, Farley Granger, Charles Laughton, Oscar Levant, Marilyn Monroe, Jean Peters, Gregory Ratoff, Dale Robertson, David Wayne and Richard Widmark. In "The Gift," Miss Crain and Granger play a newlywed couple who give up their prized possessions to buy one another Christmas presents. "The Ransom" deals with a pair of slick New York confidence men who make the mistake of kidnapping a Southern farm boy. Allen and Levant head the cast in this tale. "The Last Leaf" stars Miss Baxter, Miss Peters and Ratoff, it concerns an aged artist who dies that a talented young girl may live. In "The Cop," a royal hobo hopes to winter in a warm jail but can't get arrested. Laughton, Miss Monroe and Wayne split honors in this episode. Robertson and Widmark play boyhood rivals who find themselves in a cop vs. killer situation in "The Clarion Call." "Strange Fascination," scheduled Thursday at the State, concerns a blonde two-timer and a man who cannot leave her alone. Hugo Haas is the man, and Cleo Moore is the blonde night club dancer. Haas also directed, produced and wrote the movie. Miss Moore marries Haas, a middle-aged pianist, to escape the brutality of her dancing partner—Rick Vallin. However, she romances Haas' jealousy by accepting other men's favors. His career is finally shattered. Mona Barrie has the role of a sympathetic and understanding widow who tries to protect Haas.

Sour Toast

Kirk Douglas and Lana Turner drink a toast in this scene from "The Bad and the Beautiful." He plays the head of a huge movie concern, and she has the part of an actress. Though she loves him, that love is not returned. Also starred in the production are Walter Pidgeon, Dick Powell, Barry Sullivan, Gloria Grahame and Gilbert Roland. The movie is set for the Ritz today and Monday.

Seven Top Stars In New Film At Ritz

Seven top stars have a part in the movie scheduled today and Monday at the Ritz Theatre. They are Lana Turner, Kirk Douglas, Walter Pidgeon, Dick Powell, Barry Sullivan, Gloria Grahame and Gilbert Roland. And the picture in which they appear is "The Bad and the Beautiful." The movie concerns the motion picture industry, and action is set in Hollywood. Central character—Douglas—is an ambitious man who fights his way to the top in the movie making industry. Douglas is seen in the beginning as a near bum. He starts on a shoeing and builds his studio into one of the greatest in Hollywood. His methods are ruthless. Other actors and actresses play individuals who are affected by Douglas' actions. Miss Turner is seen as the daughter of a once-famous movie star who has become a tramp and an alcoholic. Through Douglas she too becomes a famous star. She also falls in love with him. Pidgeon has the part of a business man who tags movies with a dollar sign. His rise and fall correspond with that of Douglas because both have money tied up in the same places. Powell is seen as a young college professor who writes a book that turns out to be good. He wins a Pulitzer prize and signs on as screen writer under Douglas. Sullivan is a director in the

'Hurricane Smith' Due

"A likeable trio of rogues" is the way John Ireland, Forrest Tucker and Richard Arlen are billed in the movie, "Hurricane Smith," which is set at the Ritz Theatre Tuesday and Wednesday. Also starred in the production are Yvonne De Carlo and James Craig. Ireland has the title role of Hurricane Smith.

HIGHLIGHTS ON KBST 'Greatest Story' Program Will Feature Easter Drama

The treachery of Judas Iscariot and the crucifixion of Christ will be dramatized in "The Betrayal and the Crucifixion," the first of two Easter season stories to be presented on the ABC-KBST feature The Greatest Story Ever Told this afternoon from 4:30 to 5:00 p.m.

TRICK ON BIG JON
It - Could - Only - Happen - on - the - Radio - Department: Two characters created by a man play an April Fools' Day prank on the man himself.

It'll happen on Big Jon and Sparkle on Wednesday, April 1, when the script will call for Sparkle and Mayor Plumpfont to trick Big Jon. "Big Jon" is Art Jorhan, who creates all the voices on the diverting children's program and has been the voice of 200 radio characters in the past three years—including his own mother and father and Mrs. O'Leary's cow.

NEWSHOUNDS
"Hello, sweetheart, I gotta scoop..." "Hey, chief, stop the presses!" Allegedly journalistic sentences such as these will bedeck the episode of The Adventures of Ozie and Harriet on Friday, April 3, when young David Nelson becomes a vest-pocket Hedy Johnson. The program is heard on KBST Fridays from 8:00 to 8:30 p.m.

Actually, David's excursion into newspaperdom consists merely of writing one article for his school paper. However, father Ozie—who graduated from the "Bijou Theater School of Journalism" after watching a performance of Lee Tracy in "The Front Page"—insists on giving David some advice that shouldn't happen to a cub re-movie. He becomes a success through a double-cross by Douglas. Gloria Grahame plays a girl who wants excitement and gets it, while Roland has the part of a matinee idol who becomes a pawn.

Riding THE GRUB LINE

With Franklin Reynolds

It used to be a long ways between old-fashioned country general stores. But now we know the "longness" was in time instead of miles.

Men traveling in saddles or on wagon seats, or even in a buggy behind a high-stepping, fast-trotting spanking team of bays could do a lot of thinking between one country store and the next one. But now fast-automobiles and paved roads have put these stores almost right jam up against one another. If one storekeeper doesn't have what you want, you can just get back in the car and roll on down the highway at 55 miles an hour (no patrolmen being in sight) and surely the other store, a mere 12 miles away, will have it.

In the early days the country stores, usually with but one living place (that of the store owner) in sight, were also the eating places for the happy, unburied traveler who journeyed safely with real honest-to-God horsepower—horsepower that would sweat the sweetest smell ever known to mankind.

The favorite meal was made up of a dime's worth of cheese and crackers, which was usually as much as a pretty fair-sized man could eat. If there was a sheriff coming along behind him, he could wash it down with water from the well out behind the store. If he was traveling more leisurely, he could take the smoke-blackened coffee pot loose from his saddle strings or pack and brew up some of those brown beans from a rainbow-striped paper sack of Arbuckle's best—but first he'd have to beat up those coffee beans on a rock with the butt of his sixshooter. Carrying a coffee grinder along in those days wasn't convenient. Nor by then had anybody ever thought of grinding coffee in advance and sealing it in a Mason jar. Only Arbuckle's as a matter of fact, and as memory serves, had even thought of roasting the coffee beans before packaging them.

Maybe this is because I knew no coffee but Arbuckle's or the green beans that came out of 100-pound burlap bags and that had to be roasted in the oven at home. And this is reminiscent of something else—it was a puzzle which smelled the best, the roasting beans when they were really roasted or the boiling coffee early on a frosty morn'.

And that cheese and those crackers! The cheese came in a 50-pound hoop that sat out on the counter, summer and winter. The fact that worms came to live in it didn't matter. Everybody expected them anyway. You just dug them out and brushed them off and went on eating. There were even men who wouldn't buy cheese that didn't have worms in it. It was too fresh to be good, they said. Nobody had heard of cheese or anything else in cellophane and untouched by dirty hands, there weren't all these curious modern diseases and Sears-Roebuck didn't feel impelled to catalogue vitamin pills to save the world from malnutrition. It wasn't such a bad arrangement, after all.

In those days the crackers came in barrels and once in a while the barrel of crackers was situated too near the barrel of coal oil, but that didn't matter either. You ate those crackers just the same or you went crackerless—it was all of 12 miles to the next cracker-barrel and a man would get mighty hungry in another four or five hours over rutted roads and lonesome trails. If too much of the coal oil smell and taste had gotten into the crackers there was a remedy for that, too. Dill pickles also came in barrels of brine, and if memory isn't given over to exaggeration, the ones you bought for a nickel were as big as most watermelons grow today in this world's depleted soil and drought.

And if that full half pound of cheese and hat crown full of crackers didn't satisfy the man's hunger, he could splurge with another dime and get a can sardines that could nearly always be calculated to complete the job. If his tooth was sweet, he could get more candy for five cents than he could eat with which to top off the meal, and if he didn't buy the candy that was all right—the same fly-specked pieces would be just as fresh and just as delicious the next time he rode that way even if it was a year later. People didn't used to be so damned particular, either.

The shelves in those old general country stores were adventures within themselves—castor oil to lubricate a cowboy's innards or a buggy axle; sunbonnets; bolts of gingham; lanterns and chimneys for lamps; Hochstetters Bitters for the malaria; powdered calomel to be taken out of a teaspoon for whatever ailed you; Sloan's Liniment for the women and children, and Dr. Daniels' Wonder Wound for men and beasts; Epsom salts to chase the colic; canned peaches and tomatoes and canned milk; black powder and lead in bulk; or ready-made cartridges for rifle, shotgun or sixshooter; bolts of iron, nails, saws, saddles, saddle blankets, team harness, harness oil, horse collars, bridge bits and trace chains; stick candy, wagon axle grease and White's Vermifuge for baby's worms; paregoric and even those little blue one-dram bottles of morphine that anybody could buy who had two bits, and that nearly everybody bought for the real old, feeble and suffering folks without anybody thinking anything about dope fiends; there was quinine, and spurs and vanilla flavoring and bars of soap both shaving and washing, with Grandpa's Tar being a high favorite; wash tubs; buckets; brooms; hose handles and axes; files; knives, guns, barrels of sugar and "coarse" salt; maple sugar in five-cent blocks, and once in a while wooden buckets of salt mackerel with one of the fish nailed to the upturned bucket top as an advertisement; shoes and socks and stockings and pants and coats; long-handled underwear and sometimes parts for the family organ—nothing on God's green earth ever smelled like an old-fashioned general country store, and it's to be doubted that the Smithsonian Institution will ever hold as many different items. Usually, too, and not too far away, a fellow could get a nip of corn juice to follow the sniff of snuff he'd gotten at the store.

In the earlier days merchandise was freighted in with green or mule teams. There wasn't any delivery from the wholesaler any nearer than the nearest railroad point. The storekeeper sent his wagon after the things. Going to the store then was really like going to town now, only better. A man got to know his fellowman better in those days sitting around the stove in the winter, or the store porch in the shade in the summer. Men sat there and soundly philosophized, because back there they lived closer to the bedrock of Christianity and the civilization that draws blood from one man's veins to keep another man, wounded in an uncivilized war, alive, hadn't been developed. Men had time to chew tobacco, to squint their eyes against the sun and live—without mechanization or motorization.

The country store was the center of the universe, the source of all wisdom, and the forum of the Americans and not internationalists in those days, and Washington was a hell of a "fair ways" off.

Recently I've visited some of today's country stores. No longer are there any general stores, no longer any knowledge, except in a few isolated areas of New Mexico, may be. Now they're pretty generally grocery stores, and just as modern and as up-to-date as any you'll find in the largest cities. The REA, refrigerated trucks and paved highways have brought about the transformation.

Two such stores that immediately come to mind are the store operated just over the Martin County line on the Andrews Highway by Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Lewis, and

Date Is Changed For Tech Choir Concert

GENE HEMMLE

Time for the appearance here of the Tech choir has been changed from Monday to Tuesday morning, Harry Lee Plumley, Big Spring High School choral director, has announced.

Originally the Tech choir was scheduled to present a formal concert at the High School auditorium Monday evening under sponsorship of the High School choral department. Instead, the choir will not be able to arrive here Monday evening as scheduled, but a concert will be presented in the High School auditorium at 11 a. m. Tuesday.

The director of the Tech choir, Dr. Gene Hemmle, who is well known for his work in choral clinics in schools and universities in the Southwest, has also been member of Broadway musical productions and appeared with Robert Shaw on a radio network and on television. He is now head of the music department at Texas Tech.

The performers in the group are singers and musicians carefully auditioned from the general student body of Texas Tech. Many of them are music majors, although personnel of the group comes from all divisions of Texas Tech.

The local appearance of the choir is one of a series being staged this year by Dr. Hemmle on a 1,500-mile tour through West Texas.

Lubbock And Midland Groups To Present Hospital Programs

Lubbock and Midland groups this week will present programs for entertainment of patients at the Big Spring Veterans Hospital.

The Disabled American Veterans Chapter of Lubbock will present a variety show at 7 p. m. Tuesday. Midland's American Legion Auxiliary is to stage a variety program at the same hour Thursday.

Eight-ball pool tournament, sponsored by the Big Spring Elks, will be conducted at 2 p. m. Thursday and a "checker swapout" is slated for 2 o'clock Tuesday.

Movies are to be shown Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

LOST 50 POUNDS WITH THIS HOME RECIPE

Here is a sensible way to help take off unwanted weight, that is not based on the rigid diet and "vitamin" plan. You eat all you want, but you eat LECIN. Sounds like double talk, but it isn't. It definitely stops you eating more than the body requires for the energy you spend. At the same time it dehydrates and eliminates.

Just eat a four-ounce bottle of Barcenstrate at your druggist. Four contents into a pint bottle or jar and add grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take two tablespoonful twice a day. In the improved Barcenstrate carton, in addition to the liquid, you will find a supply of appetite curb tablets which help lessen the taste buds which lie on the surface of the tongue. Dissolve tablets on tongue as per directions on label. If the very first bottle of Barcenstrate doesn't show you the simple, easy way to take off unwanted weight, return the empty bottle for your money back.

Lost 50 Pounds
"I think Barcenstrate is a wonderful product. I have lost about 50 pounds taking it." Signed, Mrs. G. T. Hicks, 419 Whiting Ave., San Antonio, Texas.

20 Pounds Lost
"I am happy about the easy Barcenstrate way to take off weight," writes Florence Schneider, 4102 Avenue O, Galveston, Texas. "I have taken off 20 pounds taking Barcenstrate."

State Theatre beginning next Friday to view the Natural Vision (or 3-Dimensional) you will be old lenses to wear, and you and the rest of the like this. natural Vision is about the building of the first railroad across British East Africa in the year 1898. A pair of man-eating lions, agitation in Parliament and a third-dimension romance between Robert Stack and Barbara Britton are its chief features. But if this is routine entertainment, the type of projection is not. Emphasis was put on the technique of 3-D rather than on the dramatic story. "Tis said that a lion leaps right out of the screen into your lap. It doesn't, and there's no point in getting upset. But the definition of the figures on the screen and the endless vistas of the stereopticon effects are a naturalism that should appeal to the imagination of the public.

The stereopticon effect is as old as photography, but has been realized by new means, polaroid lenses. These filter the two-camera projection and return the images to the eye and the brain through polaroid viewers. The "cross stratification" from these polaroid lenses gives the viewer the illusion of looking through and beyond the movie screen and seeing in roundness and depth all the scenes and people presented. It requires two synchronized projectors to send the film. The film strips are identical, except for the slight separation of camera viewpoints. But these are brought together through the illusion created by the polaroid glasses.

Call letters of television and radio stations usually begin with "K" west of the Mississippi and "W" east of the river, although there are a few cases which are reversed, representing stations set up before the system went into effect.

GRUB LINE

the Lenorah store operated by Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Standefer.

In these stores you can buy almost anything that you would expect to find in a city grocery—fresh fruit and fresh vegetables in the refrigerators; ice cream; bread baked this morning; ice-cold drinks and all the nationally known brands of canned, glassed-in and packaged foods.

Mrs. Lewis has a few lamp chimneys in stock. They're bought mainly by the Braceros who come in as cotton hands.

And the old days of the wandering Grub Line Rider jack-knifing sardines out of a can are over. Now you can buy fresh meat out of a modern refrigerated case if you want to cook it, and all sorts of cold cuts if you're dodging a radio-propelled sheriff and want to keep on the move.

The change has been great, and greatest perhaps in the fact that when people go to the store they don't stay as long, and think as deep, and talk as much as they used to. Now the country store is just mainly another place to buy things and rush away from again. Why, it isn't even a country store, any more—it's a city store living in the country.

For two months in 1933, between the death of Coolidge and the retirement of Hoover, the United States had no living ex-President.

WHY DIDN'T YOU WORK INSTEAD OF STEALIN', EDDIE? YOU COULD EARN MONEY...

QUIT YER PREACHIN' AN' SHUDDUP... YER LIKE MY MOTHER... THERE'S A REASON I BROKE OUT... I GOTTA GET SOMEBUDDY!

WHY, EDDIE?

BECAUSE HE'S MAKIN' TIME WITH MY GAL WHILE I'M IN THE REFORMATORY... I'M GONNA GET 'IM!!

NOW GET ME THAT COAT AN' HURRY UP!

UGH!

GRAB THAT GUN, MOM!

SET DOWN! GIMME TH' GUN, MOM!

DON'T HURT 'IM, BEN.

NOW CALL TH' P'LEECE, MOM, I'LL KEEP 'IM COVERED!

NOT YET, BEN DEAR... PLEASE...

"... Promising to work and slave for her, eh... I believe that young man actually THINKS he's giving daughter a 'line'..."

"Is no time for being contented, comrade cow!... is please trying to make your quota of milk... or I am being liquidated!..."

"This trip, instead of a lot of bags, we're going to travel sensibly. Raucool... One bag with just the bare essentials..."

"You're hopeless, Snoodly!... I've succeeded in evading you again!"

TARZAN

By Edgar Rice Burroughs

DEEP IN THE SLIMY GLOOM, A GROTESQUE SHAPE BROKE THROUGH THE MURKY WATER BESIDE TARZAN!

AS THE SINUOUS TENTACLES DREW HIM TOWARD RANGED JAWS, THE APE-MAN DREW HIS KNIFE AND STABBED DESPERATELY AT THE MONSTER'S PROTRUDING EYES!

SHOCKED BY SUDDEN BLINDNESS, THE CREATURE SCREAMED, DROPPING ITS VICTIM-- AND TARZAN, QUICK TO RECOVER, SWAM AWAY FROM THE THRASHING COILS!

SOON HE REACHED THE OPEN WATERS OF LAKE TOPAL, ONLY TO FEEL THE GRIP OF CLAMMY HANDS, AS YAGUE SHAPES TUGGED AND PULLED HIM UNDER THE SURFACE!
NEXT... "TEMPLE OF TERROR!"

OUT OUR WAY

OH, WILLIS!

YEAH--IN A MINUTE, DAD!

I GET FED UP WITH THIS 'IN A MINUTE' STUFF! SO DOES YOUR MOTHER! WHEN EITHER OF US CALL YOU, JUMP! DROP WHATEVER YOU'RE DOING AND FIND OUT WHAT WE WANT!

YES, SIR!

ALL YOU HAVE TO DO IS KEEP THE LADDER FROM SLIPPING!

WILLIS!

I SHOULD HAVE MOVED THE LADDER A BIT CLOSER!

WHOOOPS!

W-I-L-L-I-S!

WHY, I SENT HIM TO THE STORE! YOUR LECTURE SURE DID THE TRICK-- HE CAME A-RUNNING THE INSTANT I CALLED HIM!

FOR HEAVEN'S SAKE, WHAT HAPPENED TO YOU?

NEVER MIND ME! WHAT HAPPENED TO WILLIS? WHERE IS HE?

WHAT A REVOLVIN' DEVELOPMENT!

WAIT A MINUTE... I'M GETTIN' A VIBRATION FROM TH' SUPER BRAIN!

I'VE COAGULATED A SENSATIONAL IDEA... AS USUAL!

WHAT IS IT?

IF YA WANTA MAKE PETUNIA FERGET BERTRAM BICEPS, TH' MOVIE STAR, YA GOTTA BUILD YERSELF UP... BE A HERO!

YEAH, B-BUT HOW?

I FAKE A HOLD-UP! YOU SLUG ME, AND SAVE PETUNIA! I'LL BE HIDIN' IN THEM BUSHES ON ELM STREET!

SWELL! AN' D-DON'T WORRY... I WON'T HIT YOU TOO HARD!

LATER... WASN'T BERTRAM WONDERFUL WHERE HE BEAT UP TH' HOODLUMS AND SAVED THE GIRL?

I G-GUESS SO!

THIS IS A STICK-UP!

GIMME THAT POCKET BOOK... EE-YIPE!

SQUONK!

TRY TO SNATCH MY PURSE, WILL YOU?

LAY OFF, PETUNIA... IT'S ME... BUGSY!

YEAH, T-TAKE IT EASY!

YOU SEE... THAT IS... AIN'T BUGS THOUGHT... I MEAN... THIS IS ALL A SORT OF A J-JOKE!

NO SENSE O' HUMOR, PETUNIA?

I DON'T THINK IT'S FUNNY!

EW! URK!

WELL, IT SEEMED LIKE A GOOD IDEA!

I G-GUESS WE JUST D-DON'T UNDERSTAND WOMEN!

IN SPITE OF THE RAIN, A CURIOUS CROWD GATHERS OUTSIDE THE CHURCH.

BOY, I SURE HOPE I DON'T DRAW A DAY LIKE THIS WHEN I GET MARRIED!

YEAH, HAPPY IS THE BRIDE THE SUN SHINES ON!

HERE THEY COME!!

...AND HER WEDDING GOWN IS ALREADY SPLASHED WITH MUD!

THEY SAY HE WAS JUST A CAMERA MAN ON HER UNCLE'S PAPER.

...AND OVER NIGHT HE WAS MADE A BIG EXECUTIVE.

SOME LUCK, MARRYING ALL THAT DOUGH.

I'LL SAY, SMALL TIME OPERATOR HITS PAY DIRT.

THERE THEY GO, OFF ON A THREE MONTHS HONEYMOON.

MY GLASSES: WHERE ARE MY GLASSES?

SORRY! HERE'S YOUR...IT?

CAN'T SEE A THING WITHOUT MY GLASSES!

MAYBE YOU BETTER QUIT FOR THE DAY IF YOU CAN'T SEE!

NEVER! I GO ON WITH MY WORK... GLASSES OR NOT?

THAT WAS A MEAN TRICK ...TO HIDE HIS GLASSES?

BUT YOU SHOULD HAVE SEEN THE CUTE LITTLE POOCH HE WAS TRYING TO GET!

LATER! WONDER HOW THE DOGCATCHER MADE OUT TODAY WITHOUT HIS SPECS? OH, THERE HE IS NOW!

KIND OF TOUGH WORKING WITHOUT YOUR GLASSES, ISN'T IT?

ON THE CONTRARY ...I HAD ONE OF THE BEST DAYS OF MY CAREER!

WALK BEHIND!

THE BOSS WON'T BE AT THE OFFICE TODAY! HE SAID HE'S TIRED.

SOPHIE SAYS I HAVEN'T THE NERVE TO ASK THE BOSS FOR A RAISE, AND THIS IS MY CHANCE TO MAKE HER CHANGE HER OPINION!

CASPER, YOU'RE GOOD AT IMITATING THE BOSS'S VOICE! YOU CAN MIMIC HIM TO PERFECTION, AND THAT'S WHY I NEED YOUR HELP TO CARRY OUT MY PLAN!

I'M GOING HOME NOW, AND AT 3 PM SHARP I'LL CALL UP AND ASK TO TALK TO THE BOSS--- YOU TAKE THE CALL AND PRETEND YOU'RE HIM--- OF COURSE SOPHIE WILL BE LISTENING IN ON THE EXTENSION PHONE!

IT'S 20 SECONDS TO THREE--- COL. HOOPER WILL PHONE ON THE DOT.

CASPER, I CHANGED MY MIND ABOUT NOT WORKING TODAY.

THERE'S MY PHONE RINGING! I'LL TAKE IT!

THAT'S COL. HOOPER CALLING! IF I COULD ONLY WARN HIM!

YES, THIS IS MR. PLUNKER! OH, HELLO, COL. HOOPER, WHAT IS IT?

LISTEN, BOSS, YOU MISERABLY TIGHTWAD, I WANT A RAISE, AND NO MORE STALLING! IS THAT CLEAR, YOU STINGY CHEAP SKATE?

WHY, THAT INSULTING SCOUNDREL! @T!#! I'LL FIRE COL. HOOPER!

THIS IS TOO SAD!

CASPER, YOUR IMITATION OF THE BOSS WAS PERFECT, ESPECIALLY WHEN YOU BLEW YOUR TOP!

IT SHOULD'VE BEEN PERFECT-- IT WAS THE BOSS HIMSELF YOU WERE TALKING TO!

I WAS FURIOUS AT FIRST, COLONEL, BUT I ADMIRE YOUR INDEPENDENCE AND SPUNK! OF COURSE YOU'LL GET A RAISE! I WISH I HAD MORE MEN LIKE YOU!

GOSH, IT SEEMS COL. HOOPER'S BLUNDERS ALWAYS TURN OUT FOR THE BEST.

YOU'VE GOT LOTS OF EXPLAININ' TO DO. FIRST WE'LL TAKE YOUR MASK!

SHERIFF, I WANT TO EXPLAIN, BUT I DON'T WANT TO BE UNMASKED!

THAT, I'LL--

RESIST!

YOW-W-W, MY FINGERS!

I'LL TAKE CHARGE!

HE'S GREASED LIGHTNING!

NEVER SAW ANYTHING LIKE IT!

LISTEN TO ME AND I'LL TELL YOU ALL YOU WANT TO KNOW!

SOMEONE TRIED TO KILL HAWKS-- AND FAILED! HE WILL TRY AGAIN!

THIS TIME I'LL NOT FAIL! I'LL GET HAWKS FOR KEEPS!

MEANWHILE, LARSON APPROACHES THE TOWN.

SHE'S GOTTA LEARN ONCE AN' FOR ALL SHE CAN'T DO THIS T' US!

GRANDMA, OUR SUPER SECRET SERVICE DEPARTMENT REPORTS LAST MONTH YOU BAKED ICED COOKIES SIX TIMES -

YOU MADE AT LEAST 12 CAKES FOR YOUR CLUB AN' FRIENDS, BESIDES SEVERAL PANS O' FROSTED GINGERBREAD -

COME ON, KIDS!! IT'S TIME SHE FOUND OUT WE WON'T PUT UP WITH SUCH STUFF!!

NOT T' MENTION A FEW PANS O' CUPCAKES, ICED TURN-OVERS AN' CINNAMON ROLLS -

AND - WE WERE CALLED IN T' LICK TH' SPOONS AN' PANS ONLY NINE TIMES! HOW COME?

HONEST, WELLERS, I'M VERY SORRY!! I DIDN'T SUPPOSE YOU'D CARE!!

BUT T' BE REAL TRUTHFUL, EVERY ONCE IN A WHILE I GET A HANKERIN' -

T' LICK A FEW FROSTIN' SPOONS AN' PANS, MYSELF!!

YEAH, I KNOW - I AIN'T SICK, BUT EVERYTHING IS SO PUZZLY - WE JUST FINISHED MAKIN' THE OLD CURIOSITY SHOP - A TERRIBLE BIG SMASH HIT THAT'S GONNA MAKE MILLIONS AN' MILLIONS OF DOLLARS -

LAST WEEK EVERYONE WAS HOLLERIN' 'HURRAY, HURRAY' - NOW EVERYONE DON'T SAY NOthin' - THEY ALL HAVE SCARED FACES LIKE THEY WAS LVIN' IN A HAUNTED HOUSE -

THAT'S BECAUSE IT'S OPTION TIME IN MOVIELAND -

YOU MEAN A MAN WITH A WOODEN HAMMER IS GONNA HOLLER 'GOIN', GOIN', GONE'??

WHAT'S THE MATTER, HONEY? YOU LOOK AS UNHAPPY AS A YOUNG LADY WITH A JUMPING TOOTHACHE AND TIGHT SHOES -

BE AT EASE, FAIR LADY - I WILL EXPLAIN ABOUT OPTION TIME IN A BRIEF TWO OR THREE THOUSAND WELL-CHOSEN WORDS -

FOR INSTANCE - THE STUDIO HAS DECIDED NOT TO RENEW ITS OPTION AND IS CANCELING DOLLY DAWN'S CONTRACT - DOLLY IS OKAY, BUT HER TROUBLE-MAKING STEPMOTHER IS MORE THAN THEY CAN TOLERATE -

A NEW STAR IS BORN - THE STUDIO IS GOING TO SIGN MISS ANNIE ROONEY TO TAKE DOLLY DAWN'S PLACE -

DON'T BE FOOLISH, ANNIE - IT'S THE CHANCE OF A LIFETIME - YOU'RE NOT TO BLAME FOR WHAT'S HAPPENED -

I GUESS I'M DUMB, BUT I WOULDN'T TAKE DOLLY'S PLACE IF I COULD - HONEST, I'D RATHER DIE FIRST -

New FAB WASHES WHITER

BLEACH IF YOU LIKE! BUT WHETHER YOU DO OR DON'T... FAB WASHES CLOTHES WHITER THAN ANY OTHER PRODUCT WITH A BLEACH!

WHITER WITHOUT A BLEACH THAN ANY OTHER PRODUCT WITH A BLEACH!

AND FAB WASHES CLOTHES CLEANER THAN ANY SOAP ON EARTH!

Nothing whitens like Fab! You'll actually find that Fab washes most of your clothes whiter without a bleach—whiter than any soap, whiter than any washing product known with a bleach in the wash water.

If you add a bleach to Fab for your few stained, extra-soiled clothes, they'll come whiter, too—far whiter than with any other product and a bleach. For new Fab's exclusive whitening action is not affected by bleach.

What's more—Fab outcleans any soap! Washes out dirt; leaves no dulling soap scum. And Fab gives you the sweetest-smelling wash in the world!

SAVE WORK! SAVE HANDS! Fab immediately loosens dirt and keeps it floating in the wash water. No soaking is needed! No dulling soap scum to rinse out—even in hardest water. And Fab is wonderfully mild to hands!

CUT DISHWASHING TIME IN HALF!

Fab washes dishes, glasses, pots and pans shiny clean! If a bit of food clings, the dishcloth whisks it off. Just a quick rinse and dishes drain sparkling clean. No hard scouring, no wiping—with Fab!

WASHABLE COLORS LOOK BRIGHTER, TOO!
