

Oil Strikers Reported Ready To Call Halt

Coal, Telephone Trouble Persists In Labor Picture

By HAROLD W. WARD
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3 (AP)—CIO oil workers reportedly were ready today to accept a government plan that would end their cross-country refinery strikes. Coal and telephone troubles persisted.

The oil plan calls for arbitration of the union's wage demands and a temporary 15 per cent pay hike. The union wants 30 per cent.

Decisions of the union's executive board, and of the ten companies whose plants are struck in 15 states, were to be given to Secretary of Labor Schwellenbach at 3 p. m. (CST).

Rejection of the peace plan almost inevitably would lead to government seizure of the refineries. Schwellenbach has said army and navy supplies soon will be critically short and that civilian stocks already are in danger in such key areas as Detroit.

Meanwhile, Detroit's Mayor Edward J. Jeffries, Jr., today appealed to President Truman and Schwellenbach for quick action to settle the strike because Detroit "needs gasoline badly."

Fast spreading soft coal strikes served meanwhile to intensify the labor department's efforts to settle the oil dispute, now in its 17th day.

And a scheduled four-hour "demonstration" shut-down Friday by 200,000 members of the National Federation of Telephone Workers, also has the government worried.

Pipeline Strikes Raise Texas Idle

By The Associated Press
Strikes in Texas reached a new peak today as the huge Consolidated-Vultee aircraft plant at Fort Worth shut down, flow of crude oil halted through the Texas Pipeline Company's network, and Ingleside refinery workers began plans for a shutdown at Corpus Christi.

Oil flow ceased at dawn today through the pipelines of the Texas Pipeline Company, Houston. The shutdown affects lines from Corpus Christi to Houston and through Southeast Texas. The lines normally carry more than 100,000 barrels of oil daily. About 350 workers are idle. Members of the Oil Workers International Union (CIO) are involved.

Also at Houston, District 4 of the OWIU rejected the arbitration proposal of Secretary of Labor Schwellenbach.

The 330 OWIU employes at the Humble Ingleside Refinery, Corpus Christi agreed to remain on the job another 48 hours to prepare the plant for a shutdown.

The International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers (AFL) said today it would continue indefinitely to picket the hydroelectric power production plants of the Lower Colorado River Authority. Picket lines are being maintained at Lake Awstin Dam, Mansfield Dam, Roy Inks and Buchanan Dams.

The LCRA, with the aid of employees who remained on the job and with new employees, including war veterans, sought today to restore full electric service to subscribers. One of the four struck plants was back in operation, and power was being obtained from private utilities.

A dismissal of an application for an injunction to prevent the holding of a strike vote, sought by Local 745 of the Teamsters Union (AFL) will be asked today in Dallas. The action will affect six companies.

Strikes also threatened three Texas textile mills. The mills through their attorney, John M. Scott, refused to comply with orders issued by the Regional War Labor Board. Strike votes have been held at the Hillsboro cotton mills, and a strike vote has been set for two others Oct. 15.

Convair Closed By Machinists On Picket Line

Union Members In Midst Of Negotiations Bar Others From Jobs

FORT WORTH, Oct. 3 (AP)—Consolidated-Vultee's giant aircraft production plant was shut down today as an estimated 700 members of the AFL Machinists Union here went on strike and established a picket line.

The picket line was established by union members in the midst of negotiations for a new contract with the aircraft company which during the war produced B-24 and B-29 bombers, and is currently engaged in three development projects for the army air forces.

Roland G. Mayer, manager of the Fort Worth Convair plant, was barred by the picket line when he arrived at the plant at 8 a. m., but later found other means of entrance and was in his office. An estimated 8,000 workers were left idle by the cessation of operations, and only a few maintenance workers and switchboard operators were permitted to enter the plant.

The union had proposed a contract calling for a 30 per cent wage increase, a seniority clause, closed shop, vacations and improved grievance procedure.

Union spokesmen, who declined to be quoted, said that contract negotiations with the company had been halted, but Mayer said that as far as he knew the negotiations were scheduled to be continued.

Conference Breaks Up In Disagreement

Taxes Slashed By Congressmen

By FRANCIS M. LEMAY
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3 (AP)—Congress appeared today to be going considerably beyond the administration's $5,000,000,000 tax cut recommendation.

In an expansive mood, the house ways and means committee yesterday voted individuals a reduction next year of almost a half billion dollars more than Secretary of the Treasury Fred M. Vinson proposed.

And there were indications, as the committee turned to corporate taxes today, that it might go beyond repeal of the 95 per cent excess profits levy as Vinson suggested.

The administration won one major point as the ways and means group voted yesterday to relieve 12,000,000 low income persons from income taxes after this year. But the committee brushed aside Vinson's proposal for outright repeal of the three per cent normal tax.

Instead, it adopted a republican-sponsored compromise keeping the normal tax but on a more liberal basis of exemptions for dependents. This plan also reduces individual surtax rates by four percentage points in each of the graduated brackets.

This would grant individual taxpayers—estimated to number 50,000,000 when the war ended—relief of about $2,500,000,000, against the $2,085,000,000 Vinson sought through simple repeal of the normal tax.

Rep. Carlson (R-Kas), author of the 1943 pay-as-you-go legislation, offered the compromise program.

The adopted Carlson plan stipulates that the surtax exemptions—$500 for the taxpayer and $500 for each dependent—be applied to the normal tax. Then, the surtax schedule would be reduced four points. This would mean that it would start at a 16 instead of a 20 per cent assessment on the first $2,000 of taxable income after exemptions. Similarly, the next surtax bracket would be cut from 22 to 18 per cent, and so on up the scale.

Chief reason for the compromise plan is to permit holders of the old government securities to continue to gain some tax exemptions. Interest on these bonds is exempt from the present normal tax but not from the surtaxes.

RED DEMAND OF FOUR-POWER CONTROL OF JAPAN PENDING

LONDON, Oct. 3 (AP)—A Moscow broadcast disclosed today that a Russian demand for a four-power control government for Japan had been presented to U.S. Secretary of State James F. Byrnes at the final day of the meetings of the foreign ministers of five leading Allied powers.

Shouldering of common responsibility by "the four Allied powers which played a decisive role in the defeat of Japan"—a reference to the United States, Russia, Britain and China—was suggested. The implication was that the proposed agency should succeed the arrangement under which Gen. MacArthur has served as Allied commander in chief.

The conference adjourned last night after multiple disagreements on procedure, particularly on Balkan peace treaties, but deputies of the foreign ministers continued work.

Russian Foreign Commissar V. M. Molotov, Byrnes and French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault, in a series of press conferences, gave individual assurances of ultimate agreement on peace treaties for Europe. Each asserted that all difficulties could be solved.

Molotov, outlining to a press conference the Soviet stand on the 22-day conference which broke down last night in a debate over procedure, disclaimed any knowledge of an agreement for blanket participation of all five powers.

Earlier Byrnes had said President Truman and Prime Minister Attlee left the Potsdam conference with the understanding that France and China would be permitted a full share in discussions of treaties, but that Marshal Stalin apparently understood the two nations would be barred from such discussions.

Byrnes announced that deputies of the council would continue work here on some aspects of the conference which ended without agreement on any major issue.

Molotov admitted the existence of disputes within the council, but expressed hope for future collaboration to insure world peace.

With the breakdown of the conference, diplomatic sources here predicted that a new meeting of Premier Stalin, President Truman and Prime Minister Attlee would be necessary, but French Foreign Minister Bidault asserted that any meeting of the Big Three powers alone would be "disagreeable to France."

Molotov was asked about the reported agreement early in the council conference which would have permitted all the foreign ministers to take part in the peace discussion.

"You show it to me," he retorted. "Could there be such an agreement without signatures?"

Molotov said he suggested that separate protocols be signed. Russia and Great Britain would sign for peace with Finland; the same states plus the United States would sign for the beaten Balkan states; and all five foreign ministers would sign the protocol for other decisions. He said repeatedly that the Potsdam agreement confined immediate discussions of peace treaties to countries signing armistices.

Three Sergeants To Serve Sentences For Killing Japs

TOKYO, Oct. 3 (AP)—Three American cavalry sergeants were convicted by a court martial today of manslaughter in connection with the fatal shooting Sept. 15 of a Japanese sake shop owner and his son.

Each was sentenced to ten years in prison at hard labor.

The three are S/Sgt. Sherman C. Huffman, 19, Pittsfield, Ill.; Sgt. Ray L. O'Roark, 25, Los Angeles, Calif.; and Sgt. John Nimits, 24, Wilmore, Pa.

Specifications allege that they shot Kazumi Tanaka and his son Osamu, 16, with rifles in the climax to a drinking bout in Tanaka's shop.

Division Judge Advocate L. A. Philip Matthews said that Huffman and O'Roark later commandeered a train at gunpoint, cleared its passengers out, and forced the motorman to take them back to their command post at Yokohama.

Public relations officers said Matthews and Maj. Gen. William C. Chase, staff judge advocate, would review the testimony and the verdicts, and that still another review would be conducted by the trial judge advocate of allied headquarters.

Each was sentenced to ten years in prison at hard labor.

Today's World Series Game

Cubs 9 13 0
Tigers 0 6 0

BRIGGS STADIUM, DETROIT, Oct. 3—Behind the sterling sixth pitch of Fordham Hank Borowy, the Chicago Cubs crushed the Detroit Tigers, 9-0, in the opening game of the 1945 World Series before an estimated crowd of more than 55,000 fans here today.

The Bruins broke the barrier in the initial round with four runs and went on to blast three Detroit hurriers for a total of 13 hits, including a long home run by Phil Cavarretta. Lefty Hal Newhouse, the Detroit starter, lasted less than three innings.

Neither Borowy nor Newhouse were mysteries to the opposing hitters in Round One, but the Tigers couldn't hit when hits meant runs.

Don Johnson, who was incapacitated for several days last week and remained a doubtful starter until today, provided the huge gathering with a thrill in the initial frame when he hit safely off the Detroit wronghander and promptly stole second as Peanut Lowry swung on a second strike. Lowry skied out to short center for the second out but Phil Cavarretta, the National league's leading hitter, kept Lefty Hal in hot water by beating out an infield hit, Johnson scrambling to third on the play.

Catcher Paul Richards failed to hold one of Newhouse's low benders after Andy Pafko came in to hit and Johnson came bounding home with the first run of the series. Bill Nicholson, a washout as a hitter all year, watched Pafko go down to first on a free ticket, then powered a hit against the wall that went for three bases and the Cubs received for two more runs when Cavarretta and Pafko anked in. Mickey Livingston appeared to single over second and Nicholson romped to the plate with the fourth and last tally of the canto.

Borowy was in hot water when the Tigers faced him for the first time but he buckled down to ease free by forcing Rudy York to pop out with the sacks jammed.

The Bruins seemed determined to rout Newhouse, for they went to work on him in earnest in the third heat and shoved across three more runs, Johnson, Cavarretta and Pafko counting as the senior loop invaders made the most of four hits. Big Al Benton had to go to Newhouse's rescue.

Court Reverses Conviction For Insufficiency

AUSTIN, Oct. 3 (AP)—Because of insufficiency of evidence the court of criminal appeals today reversed the conviction and death sentence of Jim Thomas, 51-year-old convict, in the slaying of Dr. Roy E. Hunt of Littlefield.

A prior conviction, obtained at Plainview, had been reversed by the high court because of a jury irregularity. In his second trial, at Lamesa, Thomas was again convicted and given the death sentence.

The appellate court said evidence in the second trial was not sufficient. It added, in an opinion by Judge Lloyd W. Davidson, that the state's case stood primarily upon proof identifying Thomas as the maker of tracks found at the Hunt home.

"This state has failed to do by legal and competent evidence measuring up to the requirements of the law," the opinion concluded.

Thomas, then on parole, was arrested Oct. 27, 1943, a day after the bodies of Dr. and Mrs. Hunt were found mutilated and bound in bed at their residence. Thomas was tried only in the death of Dr. Hunt.

Among exhibits introduced by the state were a pair of rubber-soled shoes. The state failed to link these shoes with Thomas, the appellate court declared, and in no other way was evidence sufficient to support the conviction.

Reversal of the conviction means that Thomas can be retried in district court, if the state chooses. The high court ruling did not dismiss the prosecution as it does in some reversal cases.

Judge Collins Talks To Lions

Sound fundamentals are requisites to successful living and operation, yet there must be a constant process of cleaning to them for maximum results. Judge Cecil Collins told the Lions club Wednesday.

Tracing the importance of correct fundamentals in all walks of life, he applied his talk to service clubs, stressing membership, attendance, fellowship, programs. Key to an extra measure of success, he said, was in service, or in making use of individual talents and enthusiasm.

Truman Suggests Fund Reduction For Fiscal Year

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3 (AP)—The White House said today President Truman has recommended reductions of nearly $40,000,000,000 in funds appropriated for the current fiscal year ending June 30.

A statement said the sum recommended for repeal was slightly in excess of $39,750,000,000 out of total available appropriations of approximately $105,000,000,000.

Funds recommended for repeal included $28,700,000,000 for the army, $8,300,000,000 for the navy and $2,800,000,000 for emergency and war-related activities.

"In addition," the statement added, "the president recommended reductions of slightly more than $4 billion in contract authorizations, $5.3 billion in unrequired balances in prior year appropriations and $9,318,307 in administrative expenses for government corporations. In addition $1,190,500 was recommended to be returned to the treasury from government corporations established by the Office of Inter-American Affairs."

"In transmitting his recommendations the president has in each case indicated to the congress that all war and war-related appropriations will be under continuous study. He has declared that he plans another full review of such appropriations and will make a report to congress on January 3, 1946, containing recommendations concerning further adjustments."

Bidault said France would consider a separate treaty with Italy. He disclosed also that he discussed preliminary stages of a new French-British treaty and said he was confident that satisfactory results could be obtained.

Molotov said the 33 meetings of the foreign ministers were not "held for nothing"; that in fact intense work was done.

John B. Evans Home On Terminal Leave

Lt. John B. Evans, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Evans, is home on terminal leave, after passing through the separation center.

His terminal leave continues to Oct. 19 and meantime he is making plans to enter the University of Texas. Lt. Evans entered service in April of 1943 and was overseas as a B-17 pilot for more than six months, during which time he earned the Air Medal with three clusters and the distinguished unit citation. Returning to the States in July, he was assigned to Sioux City, Ia., and to Boca Raton, Fla., before his separation.

Bible Fund Growing With More Donations

The high school Bible fund spurred upward Wednesday in the face of $100 in additional contributions from the Lions club membership.

Besides these, an anonymous giver added $15 to the cause, boosting the total to around $1,600.

Among new donors were Willard Sullivan $10, Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Curry $10, Otis Grafa $20, R. L. Cook $10, George Tillinghast $25, Rosie Dobbins $5, C. J. Staples $20 and anonymous $15.

Tracing the importance of correct fundamentals in all walks of life, he applied his talk to service clubs, stressing membership, attendance, fellowship, programs. Key to an extra measure of success, he said, was in service, or in making use of individual talents and enthusiasm.

Poor Digestion? Headachy? Sour or Upset? Tired-Listless?

Do you feel headachy and upset due to poorly digested food? To feel cheerful and happy again your food must be digested properly.

Each day, Nature must produce about two pints of a vital digestive juice to help digest your food. If Nature fails, your food may remain undigested—leaving you headachy and irritable.

Therefore, you must increase the flow of this digestive juice. Carter's Little Liver Pills increase this flow quickly—often in as little as 30 minutes. And, you're on the road to feeling better.

Don't depend on artificial aids to counteract indigestion—when Carter's Little Liver Pills aid digestion after Nature's own order. Take Carter's Little Liver Pills as directed. Get them at any drugstore. Only 10¢ and 25¢.

Three Textile Mills Ignore WLB Orders

DALLAS, Oct. 3 (AP)—Three textile mills have refused to comply with orders issued by the regional War Labor Board, John M. Scott, attorney for the companies told the board here.

The mills are Hillsboro Cotton Mills, Itasca Cotton Manufacturing company and the Corsicana Cotton Mills.

Terminating the board's orders "never have had any legal effect," Scott said at a show-cause hearing here yesterday that "there was strictly a public duty during the war to accept the board's orders and follow them."

He said he does not think the public is "morally obligated to accept the board's directives now."

Scott's statement was denounced by Paul Schuler, international representative of the CIO union, who said, "there is no justification of that position in the light of present day civilization or in moral decency."

In the case of the Corsicana mill, vacation pay is the principal issue. The Hillsboro Cotton Mills and the Itasca Cotton Manufacturing company had been cited for alleged failure to comply with board orders concerning grievance procedure, arbitration, wages, maintenance of membership and other issues.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui, many women say, has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, thus help build resistance for the "time" to come. Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes. Try it!

"Dynamic Action" Program To Develop Texas Water Resources Urged At Meet

AUSTIN, Oct. 3 (AP)—Complete development of Texas water resources under a program of "dynamic action" was urged today by Wesley R. Nelson of Amarillo, regional director of the U. S. bureau of reclamation.

Addressing the opening session of the Texas Water Conservation association's annual meeting, Nelson said the bureau plans 18 irrigation projects in Texas which are calculated to add $60,000,000 annually to the cash value of crops. The developments will provide new or supplemental water for almost 1,000,000 acres of land, he said.

Nelson added: "In addition to irrigation, the Texas projects would develop more than 100,000 kilowatts of hydroelectric power, increase benefits to the game, fish and recreational features as well as provide flood control and municipal water supply.

"It is obvious that the benefits to flow from this vast program will accelerate the agricultural, economical and industrial development of all Texas. Also, jobs would be available at construction sites for thousands of returning veterans and demobilized war workers."

The proposed bureau of reclamation projects are in the basins of the Nueces, Rio Grande, Colorado, Guadalupe and Canadian rivers. Others are under study in the basins of the Brazos, Red, Pecos, Trinity and Sabine-Neches.

Business sessions of the association will be supplemented by discussion of a wide range of water conservation discussions, by representatives of the International Boundary Commission, U. S. Corps of Engineers, State Board of Water Engineers, U. S. Geological Survey, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Texas Forest Service, State Soil Conservation Board, State Game Department, State Health Department, and various river authorities.

DAILY STORY FROM THE BEST-SELLING BOOK
By BENNETT CERF

DURING the war, the engineering department of a war plant in an eastern state made some experiments with steel wire, drawing it out very fine.

They finally produced a piece of 120-gauge wire—practically invisible. The boys were proud—so proud, in fact, that they cut off a strand and sent it to a rival plant. "This is just to show you what we are doing here," they wrote.

Weeks went by. Then a package was returned to the boosters. The boys opened it with great care. Inside was a steel block; mounted on the block were two steel standards, and strung between the standards was the same piece of 120-gauge wire. At one end of the block was mounted a small microscope delicately focused on a certain spot on the wire. One by one the engineers placed an eye to the microscope and examined in silence the work of their rivals, who had bored, in the wire, a rather handsome little hole!

A pigeon came home late for dinner one evening, with his feathers bedraggled, and his eyes bloodshot. "I was out finding my own business," he explained, "when bingo! I get caught in a badminton game!"

Family At Loss For Words When Ex-Prisoner Earl Baldock Calls

It was one of those occasions in which none knew what to say. When Sgt. Earl Baldock, recently liberated from a Japanese prison camp, called his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joel L. Baldock, Tuesday evening from New York, everyone was so surprised that they scarcely knew what to say.

Mr. Baldock said "he was about as much at loss for words as we were. We just kept passing the receiver around and none of us really knew what we wanted to say."

Mayor, USES Manager Plan National Employ Physically Handicapped Week

Mayor R. L. Cook joined Manager Henry A. Clark of the U.S. Employment Service Wednesday in a joint announcement of plans for the observance here of National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week, October 7 to 13, 1945.

Mayor Cook said: "During the war, thousands of handicapped workers performed jobs vital to victory and many other men and women became disabled in the service of their country in the fighting forces. All of these Americans deserve not only our appreciation but an equal job opportunity. It is hoped that all Big Spring employers will cooperate fully with the U. S. Employment Service in its efforts to find satisfactory jobs for the disabled workers of this city."

CONSTIPATION Is the cause of MUCH SUFFERING

Constipation may cause no symptoms for a long time, but unless corrected will finally impair the health. Symptoms associated with advancing constipation are loss of appetite, heavily coated tongue, tired feeling and mental depression. Headache, dizziness, anemia, and skin disturbances such as acne, are commonly experienced. In severe cases, neuralgia and joint pains occur. Indigestion, with gas formation and colic, and piles and fissures frequently add to the discomforts of severe chronic cases. No matter how many other medicines you may have tried for constipation, we urge you to try B-L PREPARATION with the understanding that B-L PREPARATION must bring you satisfactory results or your money back. Caution: Use only as directed.

Familiar Face In "Twice Blessed" Star Jean Porter

HART DISCHARGED
S/Sgt. Thomas T. (Hank) Hart, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hart, 504 Bell, is a civilian again following his discharge at McClellan Field, Calif., army separation point after five and a half years of service with the Army Air Forces. He was overseas in the American (Puerto Rico) theater with the 24th Air Base Group as a chief clerk from September, 1941 to December, 1943. Previous to entering the armed forces, he was employed at the Big Spring Daily Herald for eight years.

HAVNER DISCHARGED
Sgt. Harry D. Havner received his discharge from McClellan Field, Calif., after two and a half years in the service. He was overseas in the Mediterranean theater with an air freight section from Dec., 1943 until July, 1945. He has been awarded two battle stars. Previous to entering the armed forces, he was employed at Hobbs, N. M. He is the son of Harrison H. Havner of New York.

AWARDED PURPLE HEART
At a formal retreat ceremony recently on the parade grounds of Borden General Hospital, Chickasha, Okla., Pvt. Robert C. Sosa was awarded the Purple Heart medal for wounds incurred during action against the enemy May 11, 1945 on Ouki, Okinawa. The award was presented by Col. E. R. Gentry, commanding officer, where Pvt. Sosa is now a patient. He is the husband of Mrs. Nellie Sosa, 311 North Lancaster.

Big Spring residents will see a familiar face on the screen at the Ritz theatre if they see the movie, "Twice Blessed," showing today for the last time. The reason? It's another picture Jean Porter, daughter of H. C. Porter of Big Spring, takes part in.

Miss Porter is an up and coming actress under contract to Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. She has just completed work in "What Next Cpl. Hargrove," co-starring with Bob Walker. Other pictures Jean has part in, which have not played here so far, include "Abbott and Costello in Hollywood" and "Early To Bed" with Van Johnson.

All-Time Record Crowd Expected At '45 Series

By SID FEDER
 DETROIT, Oct. 3 (AP)—If the weather man only cooperates, the Detroit Tigers and the Chicago Cubs collide in newly-painted Briggs stadium today in the first game of the 1945 world series, before what is likely to be an all-time record Detroit baseball crowd.

With 5,000 standing room tickets to be added daily to the completely snapped-up 44,000 reserved seats and 10,000 bleacher benches in a pennant-wacky city that takes its baseball as seriously as its automobile building, the chances are all in favor of a jam-packed turnout within shouting distance of the 60,000-mark.

They gave Mr. Briggs' ball yard a special face-lifting for this party with a $30,000 coat of paint, dressing everything up in its go-to-meetin' best for the first sub-Tiger taffy pull in ten years. So if the weather man now only sticks by his promise of "cloudy and warmer with fresh northwest winds" the last war-time ball clubs tangle at 12:30 p. m. Central Standard Time in the first peace-time series which already reflects sports' expected golden post-war comeback so brightly there's even talk of new financial marks in the books.

For instance, if this fall frolic should go the full derby distance of seven games, no one would be flabbergasted to see the customers kick in more than the $1,322,332.21 which made the Tigers-Reds 1940 "traverse" the richest of them all.

There were no last minute changes in the lineup and batting order of either of the teams as they worked their way through overloaded Detroit and headed for the ball orchard at Michigan and Trumbull avenues to pry the lid off the series that has its first three games here—today, tomorrow and Friday—then goes to Wrigley Field, Chicago, to complete its run.

World Series Facts And Figures

(By The Associated Press)
Teams—Chicago Cubs, National League, vs. Detroit Tigers, American League.
Managers—Charley Grimm, Cubs; Steve O'Neill, Tigers.
Playing Schedule—Oct. 3, 4, 5 in Briggs Stadium, Detroit; Oct. 6, 7, 8, 10 in Wrigley Field, Chicago.
Starting Time of Games—1:30 p. m. (Eastern Standard Time).
Probable Attendance—Briggs Stadium 55,000 (capacity); Wrigley Field 44,000 (capacity).
Weather—Fair and cool Wednesday; temperature 60 degrees.
First Game Batteries—For Chicago Hank Borowy and Hickey Livingston; for Detroit Hal Newhouse and Paul Richards.
Umpires (opening day assignments)—Plate, Bill Summers (AL); 1b Lou Jorda (NL); 2b Art Passarella (AL); 3b Jocko Conlan (NL).
Series Betting Odds—Tigers favored 5-to-7; Cubs 6-to-5.
First Game Odds—Tigers favored 5-to-7; Cubs 6-to-5.

Lefty Hal Newhouse, the 25-game winner and most-feared flinger in the American league, goes to the post for the Tigers in the opener, a 5 to 7 favorite to come home a-galloping. Opposing him, the Cubs called on Hank Borowy, the mild, likeable right-hander they bought from the Yanks as "pennant insurance" in mid-season. Hank paid off his $100,000 "premium" by winning 11 games for Chicago, including the National league pennant-clincher in Pittsburgh Saturday.

With his ten triumphs as a Yank, before he was mysteriously given up, Hank is the only two-league 20-game winner since Iron Man Joe McGinnity turned the trick 43 years ago. Despite Newhouse's flashy look and load of "stuff," the Cubs figure Borowy can hang it on him, simply because he knows what the Detroit batters do not like, having won 11 and lost only three against the Bengals while in their league. And, as a social note he wouldn't be surprised if Mrs. Hank presents him with a new heir even while he's hurling the opener.

Back of Newhouse is probably the most ancient ball club ever to work its way into the series, an all-over-30 lineup with right fielder Roy Cullenbine the baby, at 30, and Doc Cramer, in center, the "grandpappy" at 39.

However, on the strength of Newhouse's swift salary wing plus a five-barreled batting "cannon" that can knock the roof in on enemy elbows at any given moment, the Tigers are the betting choice to win their first world championship since they took these same Cubs just ten years ago.

From second-sacker Eddie Mayo, hitting second, down to Rudy York, who's up sixth, only one fliker finished the campaign with a .300 batting mark—Hank Greenberg did .310 for 80 games since getting out of his soldier suit. Yet, as a group these five hammered 67 homers this year and knocked 360 runs home.

On the other hand, the Cubs present a fast, more youthful outfield, headed by Handy Andy

Fatalist—Believes Humanity Is Doomed

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 3 (AP)—Maurice Dekobra, French novelist who has been in Hollywood three years, has prepared a will leaving his library of 17,000 books and works of art to the town of Paapeete, Tahiti, because he says he believes humanity is doomed by atomic energy.

He said that he believes remote spots will escape atomic destruction.

Information Wanted On TU Service Exes

AUSTIN, Oct. 3 (AP)—Secretary John A. McCurdy of the Ex-Students Association of the University of Texas estimates 12,000 former students served in World War II. To test his estimate McCurdy invites information on all former students who served in the armed forces.

Pafko, probably the fanciest fly-chaser to come down the pike during the war, along with pitching strength in depth and a balanced hitting power that sports three .300 hitters for 1945.

Looking for their first world title in 37 years, the Cubs boast an outer garden trio which can run off and hide from the slowed-down Detroiters.

First-baseman Phil Cavarretta came roaring back this summer to win the National league batting crown with .355. Veteran third-sacker Stan Hack hit .322 and Don Johnson, a sure zippy second-baseman, wound up with .302.

CC's Conducting Survey Of Sites For Businesses

A survey of industrial housing and of vacant lots suitable for business building sites is being undertaken by the chamber of commerce, directors of the organization were told at their regular meeting Monday.

The action is being taken on advice from the industrial committee as an aid to prospective businesses.

Directors appropriated up to $520 for a county agricultural exhibit and turned over to the agricultural committee the matter of working out details with County Agent Durward Lewter and County Home Demonstration Agent Margaret Christie. Tentative dates were set for Nov. 1, 2, 3. Also approved was $50 prize money for a county 4-H club pig show Oct. 22 and 23 at the county warehouse. Lewter said there would be 35 pigs exhibited, nine of them competing in a separate division for Sears pigs.

Cliff Wiley and Otis Graf reported on junior college matters, disclosing that technical details are being worked out and that another petition with two per cent of the qualified voters would be circulated to nominate trustees for the proposed county-wide college district.

Oct. 23 has been fixed as the tentative date for a dinner honoring W. G. Vollmer, president of the Texas and Pacific railroad. Other reports at the meeting were given by J. H. Greene, manager, who has returned from a vacation.

Thomas Re-elected District Supervisor

L. H. Thomas was re-elected supervisor of zone No. 2 of the Howard-Martin county soil conservation district Tuesday evening at Knott.

Attendance at the meeting was relatively small but considerable interest in conservation was shown. C. R. Donaldson, in charge of the Soil Conservation Service work unit here, and County Agent Durward Lewter assisted in the election.

At Sterling City, Lee Read was returned by a larger, enthusiastic meeting. J. H. Taylor, district conservationist, attended the session, which was presided over by Foster Sims Price, supervisor of zone No. 3 of the Sterling county district. The meeting was prolonged as ranchers and farmers got into discussions of conservation measures.

The board of supervisors meeting for the Martin-Howard district, scheduled for Tuesday afternoon at Stanton, was passed due to lack of a quorum.

Slightly more than seven per cent of all fire losses in homes during the past year were caused by overloading of heating plants.

Even Odessa Can't See Bronchos As Underdogs

To quote the Caliph of the Conchos, the right Hon. Blondy Cross, "apparently John Dibrell's lightweights are in for some turbulent sledding Friday night."

This is one time that Mr. Cross, the somewhat unpredictable scribe at San Angelo, may have something on the ball, for all signs point to a big assignment for the Big Spring Steers when they hub the Odessa Bronchos at Odessa Friday.

Odessa is still regarded as the favorite to take the district 3-AA diadem. The team will have about 13 pounds to the man weight advantage and an equal edge in experience when they entertain the Steers. Moreover, Odessa's record thus far is substantially more impressive than Big Spring's. The Hoses trounced Lubbock and got by El Paso in the mud, whereas Big Spring drubbed Tahoka, bowed to Cisco and then battled hard in losing to Lubbock 27-0.

However, the Steers aren't covering in the corral corner on the strength of this advance dope which is more than a little unfavorable. Dibrell and Assistant Coach Con Isaacs followed up an indoor session Monday with a long drill that almost called for the stadium lights before it was over Tuesday. Another long, hard session was on tap for today before respite Thursday.

Roy Lee Reaves (center) is still missing and A. J. Cain, tackle, turned up with typhus.

When it comes to stopping or putting a governor on the Odessa offensive, the Steers have a pretty fair assignment. Their chief concern is J. W. Thompson, a 180-pound artist who is boosted as perhaps the outstanding back of the district. Not only is he big and powerful, but he is a good runner. What most people overlook is that Thompson is also probably the fastest man on the Odessa squad, including Santone, Townsend, who is billed as the scat man of the backfield.

Townsend, incidentally, is considered a threat everytime he lays his hooks on the ball. He and Thompson have ample help in Sonny Holderman and Pug Gabriel, halfbacks. Among other stalwarts who are getting notices from Odessa are Glenn Taylor, a good defensive end and a rather handy pass snatcher, Herman Foster is keeping up the tradition of potent centers in the Ector county capital.

Dibrell likely will have his first string on the field for the game Friday—and for the first time in two weeks—in pretty fair shape. While some of them still show the effects of their bout with typhus when drills are prolonged, they are gaining strength and looking better.

In the face of all this, even the Odessa boys admit they are favorites. Jada Davis, scribe for the Odessa American, combed the Steer background carefully and ruefully announced that "I guess we can't figure any way to be underdogs for this game."

This should help set the stage for the Steers to rise to the heights Friday. They may not win, but if they dish it out to the Bronchos, their stock will rise.

Thyme, bay leaf and caraway seeds are musts in clam chowder.

Series Fair Weather

DETROIT, Oct. 3 (AP)—The temperature dropped to 35 degrees early today, but the weatherman promised fair weather and a 55-degree figure for the 12:30 p. m. (CWT) start of the first world series game between the Tigers and Chicago Cubs.

Tuants Seek Place Of Higher Learning

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 3 (AP)—Some youths aren't too fond of school but they don't usually go to the lengths reported by Police Detectives E. J. Steinfeldt and Stanley D. Butcher.

The two, accepting a truant officer assignment, went in search of two boys who refused to attend school. They located them atop a church steeple. Coaxing failed to bring the culprits down and it was only when a fire engine ladder truck was summoned that the boys saw the futility of it all and descended.

Just To Show

INGLEWOOD, Calif., Oct. 3 (AP)—While he needs the money like Einstein needs a mathematics course, Louis B. Mayer may start Busher in the $25,000 Vanity handicap Saturday at Hollywood Park to solidify his place as the year's leading horseowner. Mayer's stable has grossed $450,605 thus far in 1945.

BIG CATCH

ROCKFORD, Ill., Oct. 3 (AP)—Harold Thorne, 13-year-old newsboy, got a mild surprise when he went to inspect the rat trap he had baited and set. It had caught five rats, all of them apparently nibbling on the bait when the trap was sprung.

Jimmy Loses His Lure: So He Throws Rocks At Fish, Hauls Big Catch

By JACK RUTLEDGE Associated Press Staff

Don't throw rocks if you live in a glass house, says the adage, but Jimmy Long of Plainview says that's the simplest way to catch fish.

Long was with the combat engineers in the war, is now home. First thing he wanted to do was go fishing. He did. But he promptly lost his lure.

While friends were looking for it, he tossed a rock at a fish, stunned it, and casually pulled it in. Friends were astounded.

"Shucks," said Long, "that's the easiest way to catch fish. The shock stuns 'em if you hit close enough.

"You know, we once lived in the Blackland creek bottoms where there weren't many rocks. One time pa brought me home fourteen rocks from where they were erecting a building in town.

"I went after squirrels. I threw them on the porch when I got home, and pa counted them as they hit the floor. 'There ain't but eleven,' pa said. 'You little rascal, you threw three rocks at 'em.'"

"It's dead easy to get fish with rocks. Squirrels are harder."

J. H. Tucker of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company of Harlingen asks hunters to be a little more careful where they throw their shots around.

Telephone men get a lot of extra headaches each hunting season. Guns are carelessly fired near telephone lines. Some hunters even shoot doves sitting on the wires, Tucker says.

Lens are often damaged and service interrupted. Another sort of hunting season is here again. Unhappy hay fever victims are hunting some sort of cure—or at least relief.

Sneezing is general over Texas, and will be for a short period. In Houston, the city health department is being swamped with calls for cures.

There was at least one pleasant result of the hay fever season—unsightly weeds were removed from vacant lots as hay fever victims, believing the weed pollen may be responsible for their unhappy condition, had them cut.

General Is Very Gay Dancer, the Lady Says

CHICAGO, Oct. 3 (AP)—"The general's a very gay dancer," said Miss Virginia Barrett, comedienne of "Laffing Room-Only" after she had danced in the aisles with Lt. Gen. James H. Doolittle.

In one number of the musical show, feminine member of the cast dance with patrons and when Miss Barrett asked Gen. Doolittle for a dance he demurred. But he acquiesced after urgings from Mrs. Doolittle and a party of friends.

Baseball Fans Take To River For Little Rest

DETROIT, Oct. 3 (AP)—Some 1,000 red-hot baseball fans, sports writers and just plain tired businessmen took to the Detroit River today as this automotive center bulged at the seams while more and more world series enthusiasts poured into town.

The 1,000—representing a fraction of the overflow from the city's overburdened hotels and rooming houses—were lodged on a large Detroit & Cleveland Navigation company steamship, which was tied up at the foot of Wayne street, near the downtown area. Today they're bringing in a smaller ship and that is sold out too.

And do these 1,000 like it? Well, take the case of one man who came all the way from El Paso, Tex. "I don't like it at all. But it's better than sleeping on a park bench. But don't tell the boat people I said that. They might kick me out."

Investigation disclosed that the "voyagers" aren't doing so badly, even though the quarters and facilities on the boat are not as spacious or luxurious as those provided by hotels.

Taxis are usually available since people arrive at the boat constantly. The boat has not yet been established as a good place for cab drivers to pick up fares, however. As one driver said, suspiciously when a passenger asked to go to the foot of Wayne street, "What's there besides the river?"

There are disadvantages, though. One hatted and coated man, carrying a suitcase, marched with a determined air toward the door leading to the river. Caught just in time, he turned with great dignity and went out the opposite door and down the gang-plank.

For those who can't stand the gaff, there's always the river.

Dallas Editor Dies Of Pneumonia Today

DALLAS, Oct. 3 (AP)—L. B. Barham, managing editor of the Dallas Times Herald, died today of pneumonia.

He was 52 and a native of Stephenville. He had been with the Times Herald since 1925. Look Out For Two People

The National Safety Council raises the question of whether 1946 will bring the biggest accident toll in the nation's history. It gloomily predicts that it will unless every person in the United States who doesn't want to get banged up in an accident goes to a little extra trouble to avoid one.

To offset the possibility of an unprecedented toll, the council has designed a program to reduce accidents of all kinds in the post-war months ahead. It was wise enough to point out that "no plan, no matter how strong, can possibly succeed unless the person most concerned gets in there and pitches. That person is you!"

The principal objective will be to coordinate all safety activities in the field of traffic, industry, home, farm, and school.

Safety, unfortunately, is one of those things about which it is difficult to get the people around until the lack of it produces some calamity or a series of misfortunes. Then, of course, the damage is done.

In a measure, that is what has been happening to us within the past week in and near Big Spring. Witness the fact that we had two traffic deaths Friday night and at least one critical injury and a series of less serious ones. Only by sheer luck was the death toll as light as it was.

To a considerable extent, excessively fast driving and unsafe driving is rampant in Big Spring. We ought to thank God every day that we get by without some child being run down by an irresponsible or thoughtless person in an automobile.

And the situation doesn't stop there, for frequently we have injuries which occur in commonplace accidents on the farm and there is an incessant call upon doctors for treatment of injuries received out of carelessness in the home.

There is nothing that a little care won't cure in any of these situations. We need to be in less of a hurry and more concerned about the welfare of our own families. When we work and when we drive, we need to look out for two people--us and the other fellow.

Good Way To Look At It

Few persons want the chore of serving in the occupation forces, and understandably so. Thus, it is interesting to note the reaction of those who draw the assignment. Here's what a Big Spring youth wrote home:

"The morale of the soldiers in the unit is very high considering the circumstances. Most of the men have been in more than three years, not doing overseas shipments, but never being called. They did their part on this side and were told that it was very important. Now, they have the very undesirable job of occupation troops. That should make most of them bitter, but not so.

I think they realize that the army is not interested or concerned with the individual, which would

General Two-Gun Patton's transfer from command of his famous Third army, in occupation of Bavaria, is being received by the public at large with mixed feelings--relief mingled with regret that misfortune should befall a gallant soldier.

While no official reason has been given for placing the Bavarian administration in new hands, General Eisenhower's move follows Patton's recent statement to the press that some Nazis should remain in office for the sake of better administration this winter. This was contrary to Eisenhower's stand for elimination of all Nazis from office in accordance with the big three declaration of Potsdam.

Patton made a big mistake there, but in assaying his difficulties we shouldn't overlook another error by the outspoken general. When he compared "this Nazi thing" to the "democratic and republican fight back home" he uttered what he himself later admitted was an "unfortunate analogy."

Now of course there are few who won't praise Patton's aim, "to insure ourselves that women, children and old men will not perish from hunger or cold this winter." That surely represents the consensus of American military men in Germany, from Eisenhower down to the ranks, and it represents the sentiment of the folk back home. And we are mighty proud that this is so.

However, the Patton who thinks so fast and accurately on the battle-field erred in assuming that it was necessary or wise to keep Nazis in power to achieve this humanitarian goal. That is playing into the hands of Hitler's ghost--or, mayhap the fuhrer himself.

It would be disastrous if we overlooked that the Nazi underground and the Prussian militarists are busy trying to restore the Hitlerite structure. The easiest way to assist them in re-establishing their barbaric and militaristic Germany is to leave Nazis in positions of power to act as "fronts" for the underground.

Impossible. Then, too, most of us are looking at the situation in an educational, interesting vein. It will be a great experience for most of us--the opportunity to see a lot of the world, out of the reach of the common working man. It will give us a view of the "other side of the world," and the "other side of the war." Maybe we will be educated to the great destruction of this conflict, and will be more prepared to keep our country free from such catastrophe again.

The Unseen Audience

With The AEF: Guerrillas Dramatically Rescue Two Women

MANILA (AP)—Two American women have reached Manila after dramatic rescues by guerrilla troops under command of Col. Russell R. Volkman of Clinton, Iowa.

Mrs. Herman Kluge of Schenectady, N. Y., was hidden by Ifugao tribesmen in the mountains of northern Luzon for 41 months while the Japanese searched for her with a price of 35,000 pesos ($18,500) on her head.

Mrs. Helen J. McQuaid spent three years in Japanese prisons before being "kidnaped" by Filipino soldiers just before she was about to be beheaded.

The Japanese chased Mrs. Kluge from village to village in a 200-mile circuit. They wanted her and they wanted her husband, an American lumberman who had become a guerrilla captain. He made life miserable for Japanese truck drivers and convoy guards with frequent ambushes along the trails.

Kluge surrendered when the Nipponese threatened to kill every inhabitant of a village near his headquarters. Then he underwent months of torture and finally disappeared behind the grim walls of Fort Santiago.

Mrs. Kluge said she sought refuge with Ifugao tribesmen in a mountain village.

Mrs. McQuaid was captured when the Japanese invaded the Cagayan valley port of Aparri in the first week of the war.

She was suspected of being a spy, and was subjected to unspeakable indignities which left her with trembling hands and haunted eyes.

Finally she was confined in a hospital in the town of Bayombong.

"They told me I was sentenced to death by beheading," she said quietly. "The guerrillas contacted me and said they would rescue me but I told them no--too many people would suffer from reprisals. They told me they would fix that."

On the night of October 30, 1944, the 14th Philippine infantry regiment took the entire hospital--doctors, nurses and patients--to safety in the hills. Mrs. McQuaid went along in a basket hammock. "I didn't know it, but our hide-out was only seven miles away from that of General Yamashita, commander of all Nipponese troops in the Philippines, Mrs. Kluge recalled.

Hollywood-- Miss Miranda Explains -- Non-Stop

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD -- Carmen Miranda is quitting 20th Century-Fox. She has just one more picture to do after "Doll Face" and then she is through with Zanuckville.

She elaborated for me on her reasons for dropping her contract. You'll have to imagine these remarks being made at breakfast speed while Carmen is waving her famous hands and occasionally fanning up and down the room.

"For a long time now I have wanted to free lance. I want to go back to Brazil. I have wanted to go back to Brazil since the war started. But I can't do it. What ready to leave and -- boom! The studio says you cannot go. We need you here for a picture. "So I free lance. Then I can make a picture here for three months. Then I go to Brazil for two months. Then I make another picture here for three months. Then I go to Mexico--Argentina -- Chile -- for three months. When I free lance I can do what I want.

"People in my country think I don't like Brazil any more. They say: Bah! Carmen Miranda! She is an American now! She no longer cares about Brazil! But I do. I have a home here. I have a home in Brazil. I would like to spend my time in both places.

"All the time here they make me speak bad English. Heaven knows my English is bad enough. But it is not as bad as what I have to say on the screen. After I had finished a couple of pictures, they said to me, 'Carmen, you must be careful not to learn English too well or it will be bad for you.' Well, I would like to show them. I can be just as good speaking good English.

"All the time I am fixing up other people's romances. I fix it so Don Ameche can be happy with Alice Faye. So Betty Grable will be happy with John Payne. And at the end of the picture there is Miranda. All alone. And everybody says: She is a good kid. She fix up everybody's love affairs.

"Why can't I have a man of my own? Why can't I have some love scenes like anyone else? I don't mean the passionate kind where the girl says 'I love you, my darling.' I couldn't do that. It just isn't like me. And besides, anyone could look at the face and laugh. But I think I could do some cute love scenes. You know, funny ones.

"Really, that's the way I am. I am always happy with the man I love. I could never cry in a love scene. I would never cry in real life. If a man hurts me bad, I would not let him see me cry. But I wait until he has gone and then I cry where no one can see me."

Enemy On Okinawa: Habu Snake

By FRANK CAREY
(Jack Stinnett is III)
WASHINGTON -- The Army Medical Department has been attempting to produce an antivenin for possible use against the rare habu snake, which has bitten about a dozen soldiers on Okinawa.

The habu's bite is considered quite dangerous. The snake is found only on Okinawa, but has cousins in other parts of the Orient.

It's of a family entirely different from the rattlesnake, but Army doctors on Okinawa have been using a rattlesnake serum against the habu's bite. This is apparently effective, but the Army wants a specific habu antivenin.

To make an antivenin, poison is extracted from the snake and injected into a horse. Dosages increased gradually over a period of weeks make the horse so immune he can safely withstand amounts several hundred times as great as he could have withstood originally.

Eventually the horse is bled, and a snakebite serum extracted that contains antibodies built up by the chemistry of the horse's own blood.

In this way scientists in this country have developed a kind of all-purpose antivenin for use against the bites of all native poisonous snakes except the coral, which rarely bites. This all-around serum is made by using a mixture of venoms in immunizing horses.

Poplars are called the "whispering trees" because as one leaf hits against another it makes a whispering sound.

Labor Crisis -- Truman's Big Problem

By DREW PEARSON
WASHINGTON -- The fast-growing labor crisis presents Harry S. Truman with the first big problem he has faced on a hitherto well-charted Roosevelt sea. Up until now, most policies, especially those dealing with war and peace, had been pretty well established by Truman's predecessor. In settling the current labor turmoil, however, Harry is completely on his own.

For some time, labor advice from White House insiders has differed. Truman's labor department has argued that labor troubles after wars were inevitable, that both Wilson and Harding had to call out U. S. troops after the last war, that labor has been in a strait jacket since Pearl Harbor, is bound to feel its wild oats now; finally that big business was equally in a strait jacket and equally willing to row with labor especially if it could get labor in wrong with the public. . . . Advice to Truman: Don't stick your neck out; let both sides battle it out for a while.

Opposite advice came from another wing of the White House. . . . While admitting that all the above is true, other advisers urged that both labor and industry need guidance. For four years both labor and industry have had the Little-Steel formula as their guide. They were supposed not to go above this. . . . Now labor finds itself losing its overtime wages, with take-home pay dropping way below last war days, yet with the cost of living still high. Therefore, Truman was urged to step forward and set a national policy, suggest a wage increase which would partly offset the drop in take-home pay. . . . It is this group of advisers which Truman finally has decided to follow.

Farmers vs. Labor Unions.
Last week Florida citrus growers came to Washington, worried sick over the future market for grapefruit and oranges. They feared a return of the old days when their fruit was dumped into Florida rivers. . . . The army has just cancelled orders for several million cases of orange juice. Simultaneously it has turned back on the civilian market several million more surplus cases.

This backlog is bound to have a depressing effect on citrus fruit. . . . Citrus fruit growers know that with wages dropping, the civilian demand for oranges and grapefruit will also nose-dive. When workmen get paid less, first thing they buy is fruit. . . . Cattlemen also figure on a drop in prices. Not only will the army buy less, but workmen eat less, meat when wages are cut. . . . Same is true of many other farm commodities, including dairy products. . . . Never before has the average American eaten so well despite rationing--as during the war years, largely because wages were high. . . . Seldom before also have farmers been so prosperous. . . . Seldom before, however, have farmers been so sore at labor unions. They were looking forward to buying new autos, new farm machinery. Now all this is delayed by strikes. Also they were looking forward to the return of cheap labor from cities to farms. So far this hasn't materialized.

Unions Lose Money.
Big industrial unions naturally don't want any trek back to the farm. It means loss of dues. The United Auto Workers' 1,000,000 dues-paying membership has now dropped to about half of that. The drop was so severe that the cost of running the union went in the red. . . . UAW chiefs are going about their wage protests in an orderly, fair-minded manner, have done their best to stop the Kelsey-Hayes wildcat strike. . . . But some union leaders prefer strikes. It helps increase their power in the union. . . . In Schenectady, General Electric's Charles E. Wilson long has advocated higher wages. He says it helps him sell electric refrigerators, electric irons, etc. He has been ready to make upward wage adjustments voluntarily, just as wise Standard Oil of N. J. increased its pay immediately and automatically at the end of the war. . . . However, certain CIO electrical workers seem more interested in a strike than a voluntary or negotiated wage boost. . . . Some labor leaders, unfortunately, seem deliberately looking for strikes--among them John L. Lewis. They bring disfavor on the heads of the other labor leaders, have given the entire labor movement a bad setback with public opinion. . . . Public opinion in some areas is now so anti-labor that Truman would get thunderous applause if he called out U. S. troops as strikebreakers.

Profits Soar.
Auto workers averaged $58 weekly in 1944 under a 48-hour week. Elimination of overtime now brings this down to $40 a week. . . . In addition, now that government no longer foots the entire production bill, management is down-grading jobs, thus reducing higher-paid jobs. . . . Incentive payment plans also are being dropped.

Average weekly wage in the oil refining industry was $58.23 in 1944. Most oil workers were on a 52-hour week, so are taking a bigger cut than auto workers as they go back to a 40-hour week. . . . Many oil men got double pay for each hour after 48. . . . No one expects these lush wages to continue, but on the other hand, profits run up by certain war industries are on the books for everyone to see, and this irks labor. . . . General Motors, now threatened with a strike, earned $244,000,000 in 1940. . . . This shot up to $435,000,000 in 1944, before taxes. . . . While taxes were heavy, General Motors' net worth increased $235,092,444 during the war years. . . . Steel profits weren't meagre either. Between 1940 and 1944 they climbed 113 per cent as against profits earned between 1935 and 1939. . . . During the war the steel industry made $1,225,000,000 compared with only $376,000,000 during the previous five years--after paying taxes. . . . Phil Murray, CIO chief, also head of the steel workers union, has calculated these profits among his union members where a show-down is due soon.

Labor Chief.
Secretary of Labor Lew Schwelbach demanded that Truman reorganize the labor department last July, but Truman didn't budge until after the Ford Motor shutdown. . . . Schwelbach himself also has moved slowly. . . . In the oil strike, he let four days pass before labor and management held their first meeting. . . . Excuse is that both sides needed time to get to the meeting. . . . Present-day communications permit a secretary of state to fly to London in less than 24 hours, but it takes longer to get a union head and a company president to Chicago.

Truman's labor department reorganization is largely synthetic. . . . He transferred the U. S. Employment Service, the War Labor Board, the War Manpower Commission, and the retraining and employment operations of the Veterans Administration to Schwelbach. . . . Same day Truman abolished the War Manpower Commission, his friend, Senator Scott Lucas of Illinois, pushed a bill transferring the USES back to the states. (In Chicago, Truman's pal, Mayor Ed Kelly will be the main benefactor).

Truman and Schwelbach are pinning their hopes for labor peace on the forthcoming labor-management conference still four weeks away. . . . They hope both sides will agree on some formula for settling labor scraps without strikes. Others are dubious. (Copyright, 1945, by the Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Waiting In Line For Series Ticket Sales

DETROIT, Oct. 3 (AP)—An estimated 5,000 fans were in line at the Briggs stadium at 7 a. m. (Central Standard Time) today waiting to buy unreserved admission tickets for the opening game of the world series.

The thermometer read 36. They stood four abreast and were not discouraged by temperatures that stood in the mid-thirties most of the night. At 7 a. m., the thermometer read 36.

The bleacher line did not start to form until after midnight, because police broke it up several times.

At the head of the line were four boys from Brewton, Ala. They explained they came up to see Virgil Trucks, their pitcher, whose home is about 50 miles from Brewton.

Newspaper Week: What And When

AP Newsfeatures

Newspaper Week is being observed for the sixth time on a national basis from Oct. 1 to 8. Since the first national observation in 1940, American newspapers and the agencies which serve them have increasingly stressed the importance of a unified program.

The week is sponsored by the Newspaper Association Managers, Inc., an organization of managers of state and regional publishers' associations. It was established under a resolution passed by the managers at their Chicago convention in 1939 which prepared the way for the national program in 1940.

Before that, Newspaper Week had been established regionally through the efforts of the Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers Association, the Oklahoma Press Association and the California Newspaper Publishers Association.

The managers proposed the week to demonstrate to the public the importance of the newspaper in their community and the need for preserving the public's right to a free press. It was a counterattack on press restrictions increasing throughout the world.

The American Newspaper Publishers Association, in a formal bulletin on National Newspaper Week this year says: "As a result of improvements in plant management and operation there has been a growing tendency for some newspapers to become less personal and for publishers and editors to lose touch with the public."

To correct this situation individuals and newspapers cooperate during the week to assemble material designed to give the public a more intimate knowledge of the part a free press plays in the social and economic life of the community. The publishers' association says observance of Newspaper Week has branched out to school, club, governmental, churches and other organizations.

John B. Long, general manager of the California Newspaper Publishers Association, is chairman of the national program this year and has selected "The Free Press—Torch of World Peace" as the slogan.

Working with him are: Doyle Buckles, Alabama Press Association; Walter C. Johnson, Southern Newspaper Publishers Association; Vernon T. Sanford, Oklahoma Press Association, and Cranston Williams, American Newspaper Publishers Association.

An annual part of the week is Newspaper Boy Day. Many newspapers give awards for meritorious services at this time, and stress the services newspaper-delivery boys perform.

The week, publishers assert, has become an important factor in the development of good will and community spirit.

The Nation Today—Higher Cost Of Living, Lower Rate Of Pay Behind Labor Demand

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3 (AP)—Labor has three big arguments behind its restless demand for more pay: The cost of living, wage controls, and loss of high wartime pay.

Back in 1942 the government set out to keep wages and prices tied together, to keep either from rising.

The OPA was to keep prices under control. The War Labor Board (WLB) was to keep wages in line. The government was using a yardstick for this: Its own figures on the cost of living.

These figures, published monthly, are called the cost of living index.

By the summer of 1942 this index showed living costs had risen 17 per cent above January, 1941.

So the WLB then said wages—or rather the basic rate of pay for a specified job—should be increased no more than 15 per cent above January, 1941.

But living costs continued to rise. And the individual worker was able to take home more than 15 per cent above what he took home in January, 1941.

He did it this way: Through upgrading—promotion to better paying jobs because such jobs were more plentiful in wartime—and by working overtime.

In wartime—instead of his 40-hour pre-war week—he was working 48 and 52 hours. He got time-and-a-half pay for every hour he worked over 40.

Meanwhile living costs continued to rise but the WLB stuck to its rule: No basic increase of more than 15 per cent above January, 1941. Then the war ended.

At one stroke the workers lost their overtime pay. They went back to a 40-hour week. And a lot of the peacetime jobs won't pay as high as wartime jobs.

So—poorer-paying jobs and loss of overtime took a double bite out of the pay workers could take home.

Labor looked at that living cost index. In August, 1945, it showed living costs had risen about 28 per cent above January, 1941.

But labor says that living cost index is so inaccurate that it really should be double. In other words: It was 28 per cent in August, by government figures, over

Try and Stop Me

DAILY STORY FROM THE BEST-SELLING BOOK
By BENNETT CERF

TWO helplessly crippled men occupied a hospital room. One, an unquenchable optimist, could see out the only window and he amused his companion with accounts of the passing scene—automobiles, flower carts, and pretty girls.

The man in the second bed began to feel that he knew the persons outside well. It helped pass the dreary hours and he was grateful. Then, suddenly, a new thought entered his head. If something happened to the man next to him, he would get the bed by the window!

The thought became an obsession. Within his reach was a spoon and a bottle of medicine. His friend sometimes was seized with heart spasms when no nurse was near; he could barely reach the medicine in time...

The man in the second bed bided his time. One night the attack came. The stricken man reached for his medicine but the other, by a superhuman effort, dashed the bottle to the floor. The next morning they gave him the bed by the window. He gloated, "Now I can see all these things for myself." Trembling with excitement, he turned his head toward the window. A dozen feet from it, he discovered, stretching as far as his eye could follow, was a blank gray wall.

Major Mills Arrives In States Tuesday

Major Harold B. Mills, former veterinarian in Big Spring, arrived in the States Tuesday morning with units of the 90th General Hospital Staff, he telephoned his wife.

Overseas two years in England, he will be sent to Fort Sam Houston and furloughed home. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Mims.

Peace Is An Aspirin For The Ration Board

No more ration board headaches say employees of the local OPA board.

The chief activities are granting tires, issuing food books for returning veterans and keeping close check on all prices to see that they are within the ceiling.

Recently the district office, of the local board was moved to Fort Worth.

January, 1941. By Labor's figures, it should be 56 per cent.

No matter who's right—labor or the index—living costs have gone up at least 28 per cent while wages were held to a 15 per cent rise.

Body Of W. B. Cole Found In California

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif., Oct. 3 (AP)—A body identified as that of William Bryant Cole, 47, of Amarillo, Tex., has been found 12 miles east of Ludlow, Calif., on Highway 66.

Sheriff E. L. Shay said yesterday that Cole's skull was badly fractured and that apparently he had been slain.

A month ago, the sheriff said, the body of Cole's wife was found in a shallow grave near Kingman, Ariz.

The Coles, who left Amarillo Sept. 1, were both apparently killed near Ludlow, the sheriff stated and expressed the belief that the slayer fled eastward in the victims car with Mrs. Cole's body.

The couple left Amarillo a month ago with Ted Patterson, 29, Mrs. Cole's brother.

Camp Wolters Given New Lease On Life

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3 (AP)—Camp Wolters at Mineral Wells, Tex., got a new lease on life today when the war department agreed to return it to the active list of military establishments.

Rep. Russell (D-Tex.), who announced the action, said army officials told him the camp would remain active for at least six months.

It would be that long, he added, before the war department would again take up the question of whether Camp Wolters should be cleared surplus.

Texas And Nation To Observe "Navy" Day

AUSTIN, Oct. 3 (AP)—Texas and the rest of the nation observes Navy Day Oct. 27.

In a proclamation Gov. Coke R. Stevenson suggested that the day—birthday anniversary of Theodore Roosevelt, "father" of the modern navy—affords a welcome opportunity to express appreciation for the navy's part in victory.

"The observance of Navy Day should be an occasion of tribute to our glorious navy and an expression of our profound gratitude for its high achievements in the defense of our country and in the cause of freedom," he added.

Emergency Oil Group Probing Shortage Of Gasoline, Rationing

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 3 (AP)—An emergency oil committee investigating the Ohio gasoline situation reported today a "state-wide crisis impends" in the shortage of gasoline and said it believed "ways must be found without delay to obtain gasoline and oil for essential activities."

The committee informed Gov. Frank J. Lausche who last week named it that all refineries in Ohio except one were closed.

The committee expressed belief that rationing of gasoline by individual communities was not fair. If there is to be rationing, the members added, it should be on a state-wide basis.

Governor Lausche said he would wait until the end of the day before taking action on the committee's report.

Growers Association Elect New President

MONTERREY, Mex., Oct. 2 (AP) Leroy Crawford of San Benito, Tex., has been named president of the Texas Citrus and Vegetable Growers association.

Announcement of Crawford's election was made at the opening session of the association's third annual convention here yesterday. The election was by mail ballot.

Who Fattens Capitol Possum, You Reckon?

AUSTIN, Oct. 3 (AP)—A "possum seen frequently in capitol corridors during night and early morning hours was nabbed today by a newsboy."

"Whose payroll do you suppose it was on?" asked State Auditor C. H. Cavness when informed of the "possum's capture."
