Rotary Clubs To Meet Here This Evening

Three Groups Join In Banquet Honoring Rotary Ann

The Board of City Commissioners Wednesday passed three ordinances providing regulation and licensing of itinerant dealers or "peddlers" of merchandise engaged in both wholesale and retail trade within the city. All those producing food or other products or merchandise themselves and selling it themselves do not come under provisions of any of the ordinances.

Inspection of merchandise offered by dealers classed as "peddlers" under terms of the ordinance is provided, along with fixed fees for the right to do business in the city.

The license fee for retail peddlers will be for a foot peddler, $2.50; for a peddler transporting goods in a horse-drawn vehicle, $3.50; for a peddler transporting his goods in a motor-driven vehicle, $10. Such license, when issued, shall be valid for one year.

The license fee for a wholesale peddler will be $100 per year.

Facts About Your Chamber Of Commerce

KEEPING IT CIRCULATING

The school for Relief and Reconstruction Officers which closed its 2-day session Wednesday in Big Spring was a direct accomplishment of the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce and was so declared by the director, Mr. Braun.

This gathering brought to Big Spring approximately 100 representative citizens from that number of West Texas counties, many of whom had never seen the city before. The actual expense of this group was in excess of $1200, not allowing anything for incidentals or extra money spent for things other than rooms and meals. Figuring this convention or school on the basis used by the National Convention Bureau the profit to the town was more than $3,000.00. Expenses and man power can make more and greater accomplishments. Why not take a membership with the organization?

JONES OF TEXAS.
Handling the government's gigantic gold-buying plan is Jesse H. Jones of Texas, chairman of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. The RFC is ready to spend up to one billion dollars, which it now has available, in this huge enterprise. If more is needed congress will be asked for it.

Jesse Jones has been gradually rising in the councils of his government in recent weeks. He is now regarded as one of the mainstays of the administration.

Should William H. Woodin resign as secretary of the treasury, Jesse Jones would make a good successor. Rumors of Woodin's resignation have been thick almost from the first day he took over the treasury. In recent weeks he has spent but little time in his office. He has been absent repeatedly when momentous decisions were made. The impression is that President Roosevelt runs the treasury, and that Jesse Jones is his right-hand man in the work.

Texas would not be surprised if Jones gets the secretaryship. It would be pleased but not surprised.

Colorado Wolves Mix With Bobcats Saturday

ANSWERS CHARGE OF PERJURY

Robert Barbour (left), wealthy manufacturer and brother of Senator Warren Barbour of New Jersey, is shown when he appeared in a New York court to answer an indictment charging perjury. The case grew out of a previous proceeding in which Nita Martin, 25, charged Barbour with having whipped her repeatedly in a New York apartment in September, 1932. At right is a detective. Wolf Mentor Very Hopeful

Colorado Gridders Ready To Give Big Concho Foe Battle

Harry Taylor's San Angelo Bobcats are having the pressure applied in a convincing fashion this year. To open the title race, the determined Steer under-dog squad put up a stubborn defense to hold the Cats scoreless. Now, it appears that the Colorado Wolves are just as determined to get the Concho scalp as were the local boys.

Several of Cantrill's star gridders were spectators to the battle here last Saturday and feel that they can do as well with any kind of a break, maybe better.

The big jovial Wolf mentor here expressed satisfaction with the five record his team has made this season.

The Wolves were held to a 13 to 13 tie by the Winters Blizzards early in the season, but were beaten out of three certain counters by a green kid inexperienced quarter-back, who has apparently found himself, and now seems to have the knack of calling the right play at the right time. Both of the Blizzards touchdowns were made on fluke plays that 99 times out of 100 fail to pay off.

Methodist Stewards

Jones Again Heads Methodist Stewards

S. P. Jones was re-elected chairman of the board of stewards of the First Methodist church at a meeting of the stewards held in the church parlors Wednesday evening following regular weekly prayer meeting services. C. E. Talbot was elected vice-chairman, E. G. Towler, treasurer.

Mrs. H. G. Keaton, chairman of the finance committee for 1933-34, read a report of her committee, which is composed of L. E. Coleman, A. Schnitzer and Mrs. J. L. Hudson.

C. T. Watson spoke in behalf of the board and the membership of the church in appreciation of the untiring devoted leadership of the pastor, Rev. J. Richard Spann, who is leaving next week for Baton Rouge, La., to assume pastorate of the First Methodist church of that city, on transfer from this conference.

Following compose the membership of the board of stewards for 1933-34: D. F. Bigony, L. E. Coleman, W. F. Cook, Joe Galbraith, R. E. Gay, Mrs. G. T. Hall, Dr. W. B. Hardy, Miss Nell Hatch, Mrs. P. Jones, Mrs. J. L. Hudson, S. P. Jones, Mrs. H. G. Keaton, Mrs. W. D. McDonald, R. A. McDaniel, Mrs. J. B. Pickle, C. E. Shive, J. E. Sloan, Mrs. Fox Stripling, C. E. Talbot, E. G. Towler, Clyde Waits, Jr., C. T. Watson, Mrs. J. B. Delbridge, Hugh Duncan, H. M. Neal, A. Schnitzer.

Wooden Anniversary Surprise Party Given To Tom Jordans, Jr.

Mrs. Harvy Shachelford entertained with a surprise shower honoring Mrs. Tommy Jordan, Jr., on the occasion of her first, or wooden, anniversary. Many clever gifts were presented to the honoree by the guests.

The Halloween colors were used throughout the party. The tables were covered with orange, and the china was orange-colored, and the prizes were wrapped in orange and black.

Mrs. Guilkey received a double deck of cards for making high score and Miss Robinson, a set of black elephants for lucky put. The guests were: Schwanz, Jordan, Fletcher Sneed, A. Schwarz, Glen D. Guilkey, Henry Covert, Jack Hodges, Jr., Jim Zack, Ainsworth Moore, Charley Frost and Arthur Middleton; Misses Veda Robinson, Lennar Rose Black, Maxine Thomas, Margaret Bettle, Emma Louise Preman and Lucille Rix.

CHEAPER DOLLARS.

Stripped of everything but its essentials, the new gold policy of the government means a cheapening of the dollar. That is achieved by using more dollars to buy a specified amount of gold than we have heretofore done. Last week the government offered to spend $31.36 to buy each ounce of gold offered to it. That is approximately $10 an ounce more than the old price of gold.

There you have the crude outline of the "managed currency" we have been hearing so much about. We manage the dollar simply by revaluing its purchasing power in terms of gold. If the dollar shows signs of growing too strong, we cheapen it by offering a higher price for gold; if it gets too weak, we strengthen it by offering fewer dollars for an ounce of gold.

Commodity prices rise simply because the dollar has thus been cheapened. In other words, it takes fewer strong dollars to buy the same bulk of goods.

Simply by altering at will, the relation of the dollar to gold the government hopes to control the currency and thereby cause a gradual rise in commodity prices.

This is the new policy, boiled down. A number of factors enter into consideration, to be sure, but all lead to the same desired end: A lowering of the purchasing power of the dollar to the end that the farmer and other producers may receive more for their products.

The high-flying dollar was weakened somewhat when we withdrew our support from it in Europe, but prices did not react satisfactorily.

GOVERNMENT INTERFERENCE.

Possibly in his Chicago speech this week Al Smith meant no criticism of the administration when he said that "private initiative may sometimes need the curb and bit of government control, but the government is at its best when it supplements and cooperates with private industry."

Without doing violence to his theory of government or repudiating any of his acts of administration, President Roosevelt could agree with that statement.

It remains to be seen whether even government supervision can save business from itself. A good beginning has been made and there is reason to hope that success is not far off; but business deserves little of the credit. It belongs to "government interference."

TODAY and TOMORROW

Federal Liquor Taxation After Repeal

There are, I suspect, few of us who have as yet really made up our minds as to how we should like to see liquor dealt with after repeal. The anti-prohibitionists have hesitated to commit themselves to any particular plan, fearing to divide their forces; among the people at large there has been little discussion because there have been so many other things to worry about. Yet there is a landslide for repeal. In a few weeks the Federal government and those states that are not dry by their own constitution or their own statutes have to take in hand the regulation and the taxation of the liquor traffic. How are they to go about it? They can make no better bet than to study the book this issue called "Toward Liquor Control." This is the report, that Mr. Rockefeller asked Messrs. Fostick and Scott to prepare.

There is no comparable guide book to the problem as Americans must deal with it. A whole library of books exists on the general subject of liquor control, but there is no other book, or, if there is, I have not seen it, which analyzes so clearly and comprehensively our peculiar problem—the problem not merely of the liquor traffic but of the liquor traffic after the failure of the Eighteenth Amendment. The book is short, simple, shrewd, and the authors state their own conclusions definitely; they have made it their principal business to explain and to clarify the main issues.

Win Opener

In their only conference game of the season the Wolves were held to a 7 to 6 score by the McCarney Badgers, who are always dangerous on their home field as Bobcat fans may remember from the 1932 game at McCarney. It is probable that a muddy field kept the Wolf score down on this date. The Badgers also had Reid, in a declared ineligible by the district committee, who was their entire offensive threat.

The Wolves seemed to have hit their stride in only one game this year, that game being the Midland game in which they defeated the Midland Bulldogs 54 to 6. After receiving the opening kick-off, the Wolves scored in three plays and were never stopped after that.

Friday afternoon of last week the Wolves met and suffered their only defeat of this year at the hands of the Gaels of St. Joseph's Academy of Abilene, an outlaw team, composed chief of ex-college stars and other intelligents. The Gaels' starting line-up consisted of eight ex-college stars, Jack Black, ineligible tackle of Abilene high, who played against the Bobcats and two other players. This group of outlaws, gathered together by Mose Simms, has been giving the freshmen elements of the Abilene colleges some tough tussles and with the addition of Sam Coats, Dalton Hill and Mickey Pool, played the McMurry Indians to a standstill early in the season.

Impressive Record

In six games played to date the Wolves have won four, tied one, and lost one. They have scored 119 points to their opponents 59. The scores have been divided as follows:

Midland 54 to 6; Abilene 6 to 7; McMurry 0 to 0; Winters 13 to 13; San Angelo 13 to 13; Abilene 13 to 13.

The license fee—for beer is now $1.00 and then put an excise tax—for beer it is $5 a barrel—on the quantity he produces. Messrs. Fostick and Scott point out that the excise tax is a sales tax which is passed on to the consumer. The higher you make it the higher will be the price of the consumer. They argue, therefore, that if we wish low prices to break up bootlegging, we must not lay high excise taxes. They would, therefore, reduce the excise tax on beer from $5 to $3; they would put the tax on wine at 40 cents a gallon and on spirits at $3 a proof gallon.

Divided Attention

Divided attention such as that is not new. Most every coach has to contend with. We have even heard tell that some of our local boys have a hard time keeping the next date out of mind while they are supposed to be listening to signals on the football field.

If the high school girls want to be really useful they ought to organize and enforce certain rules for their dates. If they'd send the young men home at ten bells, turn them in to the coach when they catch him smoking or otherwise following habits injurious for a football player and help them with their Spanish or Latin or algebra or whatever else they find difficult to master, then they'd be making themselves useful as well as ornamental, which they are at that.

West Texas Sport Hash

The New Deal has not been confined to politics and statesmanship. A New Deal is quite evident in West Texas high school football.

To begin with, the old King Pin of the Abilene team, no longer pre- serves unbroken domination. The days when the other teams figured when they met Abilene they just naturally were facing odds of about ten to one have passed. Those brilliant teams that won state championships over there strike real obstacles a lot more often now.

The Abilene teams of old, however, performed a real service for West Texas school football. Abilene was the first West Texas team to take a state championship, the originator of the "big game" in this region. The other schools were inspired, year after year, to greater efforts and the old Oil Belt came to be known as the toughest district of the state.

New stars have risen in the gridiron skies out here. The Panhandle has Pampa and Amarillo and Lubbock. The Harvesters and Westerners attained prominence only in the past few years. San Angelo has been a leader for the past six or eight years. Sweetwater in the past four years has turned out some of the finest eleven the region has seen. Austin high (El Paso) has stepped out under the coaching of Pat Murphy. Oble Stritow and George Brown have

This was "GOOD" a few years ago

... So was a lot of store lighting

LIGHTING is like style. If it is not "good," it is not good enough. Any store that wants to impress its customers favorably should be sure that its lighting is as modern as its merchandise.

Lighting has made great forward strides in the past five years. New uses have been discovered that make it of even greater help in speeding up sales— attracting new business—cutting overhead—building store prestige.

How does your store lighting measure up to modern standards? We can give you the answer quickly.

By means of new, delicately balanced, scientific instruments, as sensitive as a doctor's thermometer, our lighting engineers can show you where your lighting is a help or a handicap in building sales and profits for you.

This demonstration will cost you nothing. It may pay you immeasurably. Phone at once for an interview.

Metcalfe Author Of Important Legislation Passed In Special Session Of State Legislature

Representative Of This District Joined In Framing Relief Bill Made Basis Of Conference Report. Led In Successful Conclusion Of Bollworm Fight

SAN ANGELO—The recent special session of the legislature did all that it was called to do and turned thumbs down on some measures that might have cost the taxpayers considerable money, Rep. Lawrence Metcalfe said here Monday on his belated return from Austin. He had remained there temporarily on private business, coming home by way of Brownwood, where he addressed the 17th district convention of the American Legion on the "Opportunity and Responsibility of the American Legion as to Unemployment Relief."

Rep. Metcalfe's name is signed to many of the measures that got the approval of the special session, most of them of special import to the state. The relief bond act was of primary importance. The local man and Mrs. Hughes of Dallas wrote a complete substitute measure which was the basis adopted by the conference committee in founding the bill that was finally passed. The amount of bonds was held to a minimum, the legislators feeling it would be cheaper to recall the legislature if need be than to issue more bonds and spend more than is needed. Furthermore the amount issued is considered ample to last through the winter, possibly to next May or June, when it is hoped the general business recovery shall be such that the necessity of further material relief may be obviated. Rep. Metcalfe says the prime idea in drafting the measure in the form adopted was to place more authority in the local relief bonds, provide for heavy

Justice To Pink Boll Area

The successful conclusion of the fight that Representative Metcalfe has waged for five years, to reimburse the farmers who were used as a protection to the rest of the state, by reason of having been put to the expense of fumigating their cotton and sterilizing their cotton seed in the area quarantined for pink boll worm infestation, gave him much pleasure. He said: "This was nothing more than a matter of simple justice, as the state had guaranteed to these farmers, that if they stood as a barrier to the protection of the rest of the state and prevented the spread of this destructive pest, that the state would repay them for their cost. I commend the governor for approving this bill, as it is just and right and will give relief to the farmers at a time when such relief is badly needed."

Main Points Of Retail Code

WASHINGTON—Main points of the retail code's provisions effective Oct. 30 follow:

In the wage differentiations, the term "South" means Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi, Arkansas, Louisiana, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Texas and the District of Columbia.

"Population" is determined by reference to the 1930 census.

Collective bargaining: (A) Employees shall have the right to organize and bargain collectively through representatives of their own choosing and shall be free from the interference, restraint or coercion of employers of labor, or their agents, in the designation of such representatives or in self-organization or in other concerted activities for the purpose of collective bargaining or other mutual aid or protection.

(B) No employee and no one seeking employment shall be required as a condition of employment to join any company union or to refrain from joining, or assisting a labor organization of his own choosing.

(C) Employers shall comply with the maximum hours of labor, minimum rates of pay and other conditions of employment, approved or prescribed by the President.

Child Labor: No person under the age of 16 years shall be employed, except that persons 14 and 15 years of age may be employed either:

(a) For a period not to exceed three hours per day on six days per week, or

(b) For one day per week, such day not to exceed eight hours.

In either case, all such hours of work shall be between 7 a. m. and 7 p. m. and shall not conflict with the employer's hours of day school. It is provided, however, that no person under the age of 16 years shall be employed in delivering merchandise from motor vehicles.

Basic store and working hours. Group A. Any establishment may elect to remain open for business less than 56 hours but not less than 52 hours per week unless its store hours were less than 52 hours prior to June 1, 1933, in which case such establishment shall not reduce its store hours; no employee of these establishments shall work more than 40 hours per week, nor more than eight hours per day, nor more than six days per week.

Group B. Any establishment may elect to remain open for business 56 hours or more per week but less than 63 hours per week; no employee of such establishment shall work more than 44 hours per week, nor more than nine hours per day, nor more than six days per week.

Group C. Any establishment may elect to remain open for business 63 hours or more per week; no employee of such establishment shall work more than 48 hours per week, nor more than 10 hours per day, nor more than six days per week.

No employee not included in the foregoing paragraphs shall work more than 40 hours per week, nor more than eight hours per day, nor more than six days per week.

Any establishment may at any time increase its store hours, provided it maintains the basic employee work week of the group in which it originally elected to operate.

Any establishment may, for a period not to exceed three months during the summer, temporarily reduce its store hours, but the weekly wages of its employees shall not on that account be reduced.

The maximum periods of labor prescribed shall not apply to professional persons employed and working at their profession, or to outside salesmen, outside collectors, watchmen, guards and store detectives.

The maximum periods of labor prescribed shall not apply to maintenance and outside service employees; but such employees shall not work more than six hours per week above the maximum hours per week otherwise prescribed unless they are paid at the rate of time and one-third for overtime.

Executives receiving $25 or more per week in cities of over 500,000 population, or receiving $30 or more per week in cities of 100,000 to 500,000 population, or receiving $27.50 or more per week in cities of 25,000 to 100,000 population, or receiving $25 or more per week in cities, towns, villages and other places under 25,000 population, may work in excess of the maximum periods of labor prescribed.

In the South executives paid not less than 10 per cent below the wages just specified may work in excess of such maximum periods.

Peak periods: At Christmas, inventory and other peak times, for a period not to exceed two weeks in the first six months of the calendar year and not to exceed three weeks in the second six months, an employee whose basic work week is 40 hours may work not more than 48 hours per week and nine hours per day; an employee whose basic work week is 44 hours may work not more than 52 hours per week and not more than one-half hour per day; an employee whose basic work week is 48 hours may work not more than 56 hours per week and 20 hours per day. All such work may be without the payment of overtime. Consecutive hours: The hours worked by any employee during each day shall be consecutive, provided that an interval not longer than one hour may be allowed for each regular meal period and such interval not counted as part of the employer's working time. Any rest period which may be given employees shall not be deducted from such employee's working time.

On one day each week employees may work one extra hour, but such hour is to be included within the maximum hours permitted each week.

Within cities of over 500,000 no employee shall be paid less than at the rate of $14 per week for a 40-hour work week, or less than the rate of $14.50 per week for a 44-hour week or less than the rate of $15 per week for 48 hours.

Within cities of from 100,000 to 500,000 no employee shall be paid less than at the rate of $13 per week for a 40-hour work week, or less than the rate of $13.50 per week for 44 hours, or less than the rate of $14 per week for 48 hours.

Within cities of from 25,000 to 100,000 no employee shall be paid less than at the rate of $12 per week for a 40-hour work week, or less than the rate of $12.50 per week for 44 hours or less than the rate of $13 per week for 48 hours.

From 2,500 to 25,000: The wages of all employees shall be increased from the rates existing on June 1, 1933, by not less than 20 per cent, provided that this shall not require an increase in wages to more than the rate of $11 per week, and provided further that no employee shall be paid less than at the rate of $10 per week.

Less than 2,500: The wages of all employees shall be increased from the rates existing on June 1, 1933, by not less than 20 per cent, provided that this shall not require an increase to more than the rate of $10 per week.

Junior and apprentice employees may be paid at the rate of $1 less per week than the minimum wage otherwise applicable.

Southern wage differential: In the South, within cities of over 25,000 population the minimum wages prescribed in the foregoing sections may be at the rate of $1 less per week; within cities, towns and villages of from 2,500 to 25,000 population the wages of all classes of employees shall be increased from the rates existing on June 1, 1933, by not less than 20 per cent, provided that this shall not require an increase in wages to more than the rate of $10 per week and provided further that no employee shall be paid less than at the rate of $9 per week; within cities, towns, villages and other places under 2,500 population the wages of all classes of employees shall be increased from the rates existing on June 1, 1933, by not less than 20 per cent, provided that this shall not require an increase in wages to more than the rate of $9 per week.

Part-time employees: Part-time employees shall be paid not less than at the hourly rate proportionate to the hours prescribed.

The weekly wages of all classes of employees receiving more than the minimum wage prescribed in this article shall not be reduced from the rates existing upon July 15, 1933, notwithstanding any reduction in the number of working hours of such employees.

Limitations upon price increases: No retailer shall increase the price of any merchandise sold after the effective date of this code over the price existing June 1, 1933, by more than is made necessary by the amount of increases in production, operating, replacement, and/or invoice costs of merchandise, and/or by taxes or other costs resulting from action taken pursuant to the National Industrial Recovery Act and/or the Agricultural Adjustment Act since June 1, 1933, and in setting such price increases retailers shall give full weight to probable increases in sales volume.

Prior contracts: Where costs of executing contracts entered into before June 16, 1933, by any retailer for the purchase of goods at fixed prices for delivery during the duration of this code are increased by the application of the provisions of the National Industrial Recovery Act and/or the Agricultural Adjustment Act, it is deemed equitable that appropriate adjustments of such contracts to reflect such increased costs actually incurred be arrived at by mutual agreement or arbitration proceedings or otherwise, and the National Retail Trade Council is constituted as an agency to assist.

Loss limitation: To prevent unfair competition against local merchants, the use of the so-called "loss leader" is hereby declared to be an unfair trade practice. These "loss leaders" are articles of merchandise sold below cost to the merchant for the purpose of attracting trade. This practice results, of course, either in efforts by the merchant to make up the loss by charging more than a reasonable profit for other articles, or else in driving the small merchant with little capital out of legitimate business. It works back against the producer of raw materials on farms and in industry and against the labor so employed.

This declaration against the use of "loss leaders" by the store keeper does not prohibit him from selling an article without any profit to himself. But the selling price of articles to the consumer should include an allowance for actual wages of store labor, to be fixed and published from time to time by the trade authority hereinafter established.

Such an allowance for labor need not be included in the selling price of any article of food, or be applied by storekeepers doing business only in communities of less than 2,500 population which are not part of a larger trade area.

Provided, however, that any retailer may sell any article of merchandise at a price as low as the price set by any competitor in his trade area or essentially the same, if such competitor's price is set in conformity with the foregoing provision. A retailer who thus reduces a price to meet a competitor's price as above defined shall not be deemed to have violated the provisions of this section if such retailer immediately notifies the nearest representative retail trade organization of such action and all facts pertinent thereto.

All retailers shall comply with the following trade practices: (a) No retailer shall use advertising, whether printed, radio or display, or of any other nature, which is inaccurate in any material particular or misrepresents merchandise (including its use, trade-mark, grade, quality, quantity, size, origin, material, or content, preparation or curative or therapeutic effect or credit terms, values, policies or services; and no retailer shall use advertising and/or selling methods which tend to deceive or mislead the customer.

inaccurate in any material particular.

No retailer shall purchase, sell or exchange any merchandise manufactured under a code of fair competition, which requires such merchandise to bear an NRA label, unless said merchandise bears such label. Any retailers rightfully possessing the insignia of the NRA who has in stock or purchases similar merchandise which has been manufactured before the effective date of this code of fair competition requiring such merchandise to bear an NRA label may attach thereto the NRA insignia.

Prison made goods: Pending the formulation of a compact or code between the several states of the United States to insure the manufacture and sale of prison-made goods on a fair competitive basis with goods not so produced, the following provisions of this section will be stayed for 90 days, or further at the discretion of the administrator:

(a) Where any penal, reformatory or correctional institution, either by subscribing to the code of fair competition or by a binding agreement of any other nature, satisfies the administrator that merchandise produced in such institution or by the inmates thereof will not be sold except upon a fair competitive basis with similar merchandise not so produced, the provisions of Paragraph (B) hereof shall not apply to such merchandise produced in such manner in the institutions covered by such agreement.

(B) Except as provided in the foregoing paragraph, no retailer shall knowingly buy or contract to buy any merchandise produced in whole or in part in a penal reformatory or correctional institution after May 31, 1934, no retailer shall knowingly sell or offer for sale such merchandise. Nothing in this section, however, shall affect contracts, which the retailer does not have the option to cancel, made with respect to such merchandise before the approval of this code by the president of the United States.

Diamonds—

Administration officials are beginning to wonder whether the American public is taking to hoarding diamonds since the lid was clamped on owning more than $100 in gold. During the first nine months of this year diamond shipments from Amsterdam went up 40 per cent in excess of the same period in 1932. This year's monthly shipments have averaged around 4,000 carats. But in 1929 when diamonds were mounted on dinner palls they ran about 15,000 carats.

Press—

Students of current history who have been amazed at the uniformly favorable press President Roosevelt has received should come to Washington and watch one little group of Federal employees at work. They go unsung personally but they are carving out a masterful job. These are the government press agents, one or more of whom is functioning in each of the departments and emergency agencies. These men were marshaled carefully by Steve Early, Roosevelt Secretary. Like Steve most of them were capable newspaper men formerly. The others are veteran holdovers who have proved their mettle through several administrations.

Under this new deal in press relations the Federal departments have become open books to the reporters. Where their way was barred at every turn in Republican administrations they now can get any legitimate information they want. The President himself threw the old custom of written questions out of the window and permits a lengthy cross-examination twice a week. Such cordial and open relations naturally reflect favorably in your newspapers.

Trade—

Experts of the Commerce Department are a little worried over the trend of our foreign trade in recent months. During the last ninety days the dollar value of exports increased 25 per cent for the like period in 1932 but—import values were up

Keep linoleum new with Fox Goo varnish. Thorp Paint Store—adv.

65 per cent. This tends decidedly toward an unfavorable trade balance.

One explanation is that American buyers, fearful of tariff increases and wondering how the President's gold manipulations will affect them, have been stocking up heavily in foreign goods. If this is true the situation will soon work itself out.

Notes—

Considerable confusion has resulted from use of the expression "sign a code". NRA officials explain you don't actually sign your name to a code; you merely comply with its provisions. Even the President does not sign the codes. He signs an executive order putting them into effect. The Case National Bank has to struggle along with only 68 vice-presidents. It must be where Remy got his idea for the ushers. President Roosevelt doesn't allow even illness to disrupt his schedule of press conferences. The other day when confined to his room with a heavy cold he received a delegation of eight reporters who had been chosen by their colleagues. He answered all their questions and they reported back to the large group waiting in the press room.

NEW YORK By James McMillan

Arch— The Stock Exchange community is trying to get used to the idea that its going to be thrown to the Congressional lions regardless.

Richard Whitney's latest White House visit was intended to sell the President the idea of permitting the Exchange to keep on doing its own regulating. It was neatly timed to coincide with the published suspension of a member for violating specialist regulations—supposed to prove iron control or something. Word has seeped out that the interview was less than a shining success.

The material Pecora dug out on last summer's bull market is said to have rubbed pepper in ancient wounds. Also the impression prevails in high quarters that Wall Street is doomed to the arena before January. If Congress can feast on Wall Street's gore it may divert attention from the demands of local constituencies which might prove embarrassing to the national program.

Miss Stringer And Mr Hugh Dubberly Wed

Tulia Ceremony United Tulia Girl And Local District Clerk Miss Frances Stringer became the bride of Hugh Dubberly, district clerk of Howard county, in a beautiful ceremony performed at 9:30 a. m. Wednesday in the home of the bride's parents at Tulia. Rev. Bowles, Presbyterian pastor, officiated in the rites. Members of the bride's family, the groom's sister, Miss Gene Dubberly, of Texas Technological college, and Miss Nell Davis and Ward Hall of Big Spring, witnessed the ceremony. For the wedding the bride was attractively attired in a brown tulle suit with fur trimmings and accessories of brown. Rooms of the home were made colorful with chrysanthemums, forming an altar of rare beauty. Mr. and Mrs. Dubberly left immediately after the ceremony for a wedding trip that will take them to Dallas, Houston and other points. They will return here in about two weeks. Mr. Dubberly is the only son of the late Mr. and Mrs. O. Dubberly, who were killed two years ago in an automobile accident near Sweetwater. Hugh Dubberly was appointed to fill the unexpired term of his father as district clerk and was elected last year without opposition for a full term. E. Bell, 78-year-old physician and B. E. Bell, 21-year-old senior student in the University of Texas and Mr. Dubberly attended Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College three years.

Agents Believed To Have Broken East Texas Dope Ring

TYLER, (UP)—Federal agents believe they have broken up the extensive operations of an East Texas narcotics ring. Seizure of $15,000 worth of morphine here and the arrests of Dr. E. Bell, 78-year-old physician and Jesse Cole, 41-year-old tinsmith, a two-day search and an investigation started several months ago, officers revealed. It was disclosed that Dr. Bell and Cole were arrested last week-end after a raid at the doctor's farm near Palestine. Bell, now at liberty under $5,000 bond after arraignment before a U. S. commissioner, denied ownership of the narcotics. Cole did not make bond immediately and was held in jail. Others facing federal charges as a result of the investigation, officers said, include a Jacksonville negro doctor, P. A. Simms and Carl Thurmond, Q. Mitchell and Witt Jenkins, all of Athens. Authorities said the ring's activities extended to Palestine, Jacksonville, Waco, Waco, Waco, Sulphur Springs, Big Sandy, Willie Point, Waxahachie and Corsicana.

Concoction Of Deadly Milkshakes Studied After Death Of Woman

RENO, Nev., (UP)—Concoction of milkshakes containing luminal, sleep-producing drug, and potassium cyanide, deadly poison, was studied by investigators in the series of "heart attack" deaths among relatives and friends of Albert Le Cline, former Colorado convict held in San Bernardino, Cal., on a grand theft charge. Vincent Higgins, Los Angeles investigator, mentioned the deadly milkshakes while he was investigating the strange death here of Mrs. Carrie May Porter, wealthy and eccentric California widow, who died at the Golden Hotel on Oct. 16, 1931. Cline, who accompanied the woman here, also was questioned at San Bernardino about the heart attack deaths of his wife, his brother-in-law and a ministerial friend. All died officially from "heart disease" but police believe, Higgins said, that they may have died from over stimulation of the heart. The milkshakes described by Higgins were served to Mrs. Porter, the investigator claimed. Their wife, Higgins said, all made Cline the beneficiary.

Burglar Is Dumbfounded When Confronted With Old-Fashioned Saber

SAN ANTONIO, (UP)—A burglar who entered the home of Mrs. Delphina Hohenstein here with intent to steal was in jail here with saber wounds on his back and considerable respect for an old-fashioned weapon in his mind. The burglar made an unfortunate selection when he picked Mrs. Hohenstein's home to rob. For being entertained as guests there were Lieut. Ricardo Castanedo and Javier Gonzales of the Mexican Air Force, internationally recognized fencers. The intruder entered the kitchen first, then finding a servant girl and ordering her to make him some coffee. The girl screamed instead, where upon the two Mexican warriors leaped into battle. Using sabers presented to them at Chanute field, Ill., where they have been studying Castanedo and Gonzales fell upon the dumbfounded burglar, who might have known what to do had they attacked him with more up-to-date weapons. But do what he could, he could not escape the lashing steel. At a hospital attendants administered soothing lotions on the broad waist where the flat sides of the sabers had struck his back. Later he was

Several complaints have been forwarded to Washington by A. D. Ryan, department of interior agent. They covered chiefly refining code violations in East and West Texas and the Gulf Coast. It was said. Japan Has No Intentions Of War On Soviet TOKYO, (UP)—Aggressive little Sadao Araki, Japanese minister of war, informed the world his nation had no intention of "waging war" on Soviet Russia. "I hope all misunderstanding on this score will be removed completely," the leading militarist of the island empire said. "Preparedness, he intimated, compels Japan to build its army to parity with Russia and its navy to approximate the United States naval strength. It was recalled that in its annual navy maneuvers Japanese warships defended the island from an enemy supposedly attacking from the direction of the United States and in the army games from an enemy seeking to land from the side near Russia. "Because Japan, in common with other nations, believes in preparedness is no reason to jump to the conclusion that Japan will take any rash action," the heavily-mustached general said. "Although Japan withdrew from the League of Nations, in accordance with the policy determined at the time, she is lending her every effort to the establishment of peace," he reminded. Aaki said what Japan was accomplishing in the "pacification" of Manchoukuo is proof of that fact. The war minister admitted he may ask Japanese cabinet to call a conference of world powers to meet in Tokyo to consider far eastern problems and to effect an agreement relating to Japan's policy in Manchoukuo.

MILWAUKEE (AP)—A bomb Thursday demolished the Ebley cheese factory near Port Washington in a region where farm strikers control the countryside. A subsequent fire completed the destruction. October Temperature Sets New High Record For 32-Year Period

Warm, Dry And Clear Conditions Shown In Monthly Report Of Weather Bureau: Precipitation Totals .45 Inch

Highest October temperature on record was recorded here last month, the monthly report of John A. Cummings, officer in charge of the United States weather bureau here discloses. The month was not only warm but dry and clear. Mean temperature for the month was 68.8 degrees. Normal for October is 64.5 degrees. Highest temperature recorded last month was 96 degrees on October 24 and 25. It was 44 degrees on October 17. All-time high for October here was 100 degrees and all-time low 26 degrees. Greatest daily range during October occurred on the seventeenth. It was 40 degrees. The warmest October on the 32-year record of the U. S. government experiment farm and the weather bureau was that of 1931 until October of this year. Mean temperature in October 1931 was 68.4 degrees. Coolest October on record was that of 1906 when mean temperature was 59.4 degrees. With the uncommonly warm October weather there was little moisture—4.5 inch. It was the most arid October on record with exceptions of October of 1903, 1917 and 1921. October of 1917, the "big drought" year—has the dry record with only one one-hundredth of one inch. There were 23 clear, five partly cloudy and three cloudy days during the month.

Under The Dome

AUSTIN (UP)—Lieut. Gov. Edgar E. Witt will not be handicapped about handshaking in his campaign for governor. His right hand, injured as the result of a fall, now offers him little difficulty. After treatment at Walter Reed hospital in Washington to which his war service made him eligible, the lieutenant-governor carried on a persistent and determined effort to use the injured member, and he has succeeded. He is just as determined about his aspiration to be governor of Texas. That he could be elected lieutenant-governor in the last turbulent state campaign without an opponent indicates he knows his way around in politics. How in his quiet way he managed to pile up such big votes as he has received—973,000 Texans picked him for lieutenant-governor—is one of the wonders in the history of the state's elections. The vote for him in the July 23, 1932, election broke all previous records both for total vote for an office and total vote for a candidate. Tax dodgers are due for a peek of trouble this winter. With its personnel 14 times greater than ever before, the state tax board has become a collecting as well as an assessing body. The collecting power was given the board by the regular session of the legislature. It extends to every kind but ad valorem property taxes, which are handled by local county tax collectors. Local officers still are required to collect other taxes, but if they fail to do so and the taxes become delinquent 30 days they are required to notify the state board so it can put its force to work. First drive is being made on corporations delinquent in payment of franchise taxes. Audits have been completed on 2,000 corporations delinquent prior to 1933. The 1933 audit is now under way. Failure to pay subjects the corporation to fines from $100 to $1,000, deprives it of the right to sue or defend in state courts and in some instances make stockholders liable for debts incurred after the franchise has been forfeited because of failure to pay taxes. Suits also are in preparation against oil concerns delinquent in payment of gross production taxes. Some of these suits, according to State Tax Commissioner H. P. Edwards, will be for hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Judge William Pierson of the state supreme court believes that it is as important for a judge to be on time as anyone else. "In the many years I served as a district judge," he said recently, "I never was late. Several times I ran blocks in order to open court promptly."

Ruskin McArdle, Washington, recently visited the state capitol and took another look at the historic paintings by his father which are hung in the state senate chamber. Ruskin McArdle went to Washington as secretary to A. S. Burleson, then congressman. He became an assistant postmaster general when Burleson entered the cabinet of President Woodrow Wilson as postmaster general.

There is no formality about the meetings of the board of directors of the state's new $25,000,000 corporation to guarantee bank deposits. At the initial gathering in Austin, several board members sat about the table in their shirt sleeves. The meeting was held in the reception room of the house of representatives.

It appeared Pat Dougherty, of Temple, former secretary to Governor Dan Moody and Ross Sterling, had obtained a sinecure when he was assigned to the bond division of the attorney general's department—for cities, counties and districts had ceased issuing bonds.

Then Dougherty was given the task of preparing the record and bond for the $5,500,000 state relief bonds. It's quite a job, with no precedents. The bonds must be drawn so they will be acceptable either to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation or to general bond buyers, for they may be sold in either market.

Men's Clubs Not Modern Idea

WASHINGTON (UP)—Club rooms, pool rooms and other like places where husbands can retire when they want to get away from their wives are not as modern as many people think they are, according to Dr. Frank H. Pride Blamed As Prother Killed In Fall From Over-Carrying Woman To Work

DALLAS (UP)—Grief looked out from the tearful eyes of Mrs. S. T. Patton as officers prepared charges of murder against her youngest son, 23-year-old Victor S. Patton, while at an undertaker's establishment another son, James E. Patton, 31, lay dead. The elderly, gray-haired woman stood helplessly by while the two brothers quarreled furiously over the use of James' automobile, torn between her love for each of them and for her pretty daughter-in-law, Victor's wife, one of the pawns in the tragic game. Even after the shooting, when he was told the police had taken Victor away and that James was in a hospital she sat dazed and rocked herself in her chair. Brief tears flooded her eyes when word was brought of James' death, but even then the emotional conflict which agonized her remained unresolved. The mother, seeking an explanation that would ease her mind, blamed the tragedy on pride.

The commission also changed its hearing day from Nov. 13 to Nov.

Settles Manager Ask San Angeloans To Pay Damages

SAN ANGELO—The Settles Hotel, 15-story hostelry in Big Spring, where the San Angelo High School football team and its followers made headquarters for the Bobcat-Steer game Saturday suffered greater loss and damage than during the visit of any athletic body and fans in its history. Manager Cantrell has so advised Chester H. Kenley, principal of San Angelo high school, characterizing the conduct of some San Angeloans the worst he ever saw, and "as a result repairs for damages and the return of or payment for room door knobs and plates, knobs off the railing on the stairways leading from the lobby to the mezzanine floor, and towels, blankets and other articles taken from the rooms. A complete list of the loss and damage had not been received here Tuesday morning. Mr. Kenley acted promptly, called leaders of the high school pep squad into conference and through them requested that students return at once anything taken from the Settles. Some articles had been returned Tuesday morning including half a dozen door number plates. "High school officials are greatly displeased and embarrassed and will do everything in their power to make restitution for any loss and damage for which students were responsible," said Mr. Kenley. "We have asked the hotel for a complete list of the damage done and of San Angeloans registered at the Settles."

BRYAN, (UP)—A legal assault on Texas A. and M. college, long a male stronghold, by ten Brown county young women seeking admission, drew to a close in district court here Wednesday and went into the hands of a jury. Arguments on a point of law as to whether the college board of directors can legally bar women from enrolling began before Judge W. C. Davis after the previous day was consumed presenting evidence. Five of the petitioners took the stand in their fight for a writ of mandamus forcing the directors to recognize their claims. They were Alia Sanford, Frances Locke Jane Sinitary, Lucille Vick and Mrs. O. A. Fox. Mrs. Fox is the mother of two children. Defense witnesses included President T. O. Walton; Francis M. Law, Houston, president of the board of directors; six other board members, and Rep. George B. Butler of Bryan. The defense contended that daughters of faculty members and college employes were admitted under a "hard times" measure because the legislature had reduced their parents' salaries so much. The plaintiffs argued that it was unfair to admit some females and exclude others, and that
