Maxfield Elementary Students Take Part in 9-1-1 Program

Maxfield Elementary students participated in the 9-1-1 program sponsored by the West Central Texas Council of Governments. This program is free to children in the 19 - county West Central Texas region. It teaches kids the basics about 9-1-1 when to call, how to call, and exactly what to say when they need the police, an ambulance, or the fire department. Equally important, the program also helps children understand when NOT to call 9-1-1. When kids know the consequences of 9-1-1 jokes and prank calls, they're far less likely to be involved in costly abuses of the 9-1-1 system.

Eastland County dispatcher, Glenda Courtney, was on hand to give special instruction to students on 9-1-1 calls.

The star of the 9-1-1 for Kids Program is Red. E. Fox - the "E" stands for Emergency. He's a friendly, heroic spokesperson created to make learning about 9-1-1 fun and memorable for young children. Red E. Fox makes hundreds of personal appearances each year. For more information about the 9-1-1 for Kids program or the West Central Texas Council of Governments, please call 915-672-8544.

Well I hope everyone enjoyed all the turkey and dressing and goodies during Thanksgiving. Ugh!! I ate so much I couldn't hardly move. It's a sin to eat that much, but when they put all that food in front of me, I just couldn't help myself. Hope everyone had a fantastic holiday.

The new Post Office should be opening very soon. Some changes had to be made to be building following inspections and the signs are now being erected. So the time is getting closer to the opening. It looks very nice.

Want to congratulate all the Panthers for their fine efforts toward being named to the All-District Team in 14A. The Panthers did not return to the playoffs this season but they had a very good year. Take away a few miscues and decisions and the Panthers could have been in the playoffs. Great job guys!!

The weatherman is still not cooperating as far as the rain is concerned. It's so dry many of the stock ponds are completely dry and some ranchers are hauling water daily for their livestock. The lakes and ponds worsen as the days pass without rain. Many of the ranchers have taken the opportunity of cleaning and deepening their stock ponds during the dry spell. If it ever does rain the ponds will be able to hold a lot more water.

There have been a large number of deer taken this season. The deer population seemed to expand a little heavier this year. A good number of deer have been killed by autos on the highway. So be alert for deer crossing the road or grazing on the right-of-ways.

The lights in downtown Gorman are being reworked and a good number of bulbs have to be replaced. The lights outline the tops of the buildings downtown and sure add to the festive holiday season. It will be Christmas soon and Santa Claus will be coming to town with a lot of goodies for the children, young and old. We will be announcing the date and time soon so be on the lookout for the announcement.

All the peanut harvest seems to be completed at this time and a lot of the peanut crops wasn't even harvested. A lot of the farmers have just baled the peanut crop and others have harvested a very short crop. It's been another bad year for the farmers and now the planting for winter is in danger due to the lack of moisture. Some are irrigating to keep crops alive. Let's all seek the help of the Good Lord in getting some good moisture very soon.

And remember to smile -- because God Loves You!!

KOKOMO NEWS

ZELDA JORDAN -- PHONE 254-639-2289

I hope that everyone had wonderful Thanksgiving holidays.

"Happy Anniversary" was extended to Bro. Clarence and Leona Wilson who celebrated their 44th anniversary on November 19.

Johnnie B. Griffith spent the Thanksgiving holidays in Midland with Ken, Janie and Scott Riley and Chad and Lara Jane Griffith. Johnnie B. accompanied Joe and Elizabeth Vaughn to Midland.

Thanks again. See you all in January 2000!

Clydell Lewis remains as a "shut-in" following a stroke, he is always cheerful when you visit with him by phone.

Doyle Johnson is improving slowly following a recent stroke. He is also a "shut-in."

Bethel Clark is feeling better since the doctor changed her medication.

Benton Echols would enjoy hearing from her friends, address is Canterbury Villa, Room 601, DeLeon, Texas 76444.

Remember these on the sick list and shut-ins with your cards and prayers. Just a note of cheer helps to make their day go better.

Have a nice day--Vonnice Rue

A Note from the Administrator

On Thursday, November 18, the Nursing Home held our annual holiday meal for residents, resident family members, and staff. It was amazing. Last year we were all able to crowd in the Dining/Living Room area. About 30-35 were in attendance. This year we filled the above mentioned space plus all the rooms on the South End of the building. In all, we served 114 people. This is just another reason I like being in Gorman's Nursing Home. Families really care about their loved ones. I hope next year even more folk show up. The Family at Heritage Manor hope that everyone had a Happy Thanksgiving and are looking forward to Christmas!
