PEANUT REFERENDUM TO DETERMINE FUTURE

According to D. B. Warren, a referendum vitally important to peanut producers will be conducted by a mail ballot from the County ASCS office during the period January 25-29. The following message in respect to the referendum has been endorsed by the National Peanut Growers Group and by all peanut grower organizations in the state.

"Peanut growers will have an opportunity to vote in a very crucial belt-wide referendum during the week of January 25 to determine if we will have a peanut price support program this year. If growers approve quotas by a two-thirds majority of those voting, quotas and price supports will be in effect throughout the four years, 1982-1985. If growers fail to approve quotas, there would be no quotas or price support in effect for 1982 and another referendum would be conducted next December to determine marketing procedure in 1983.

There is a big difference in the result of this referendum and those held in the past for peanut growers. In past referenda, if growers had failed to approve quotas, there still would have been a program with support prices at 50 percent of parity for those growers planting within their allotments. This year, however, if growers fail to approve quotas, the new Farm Bill specifically provides that there will be no price support. In other words should growers fail to approve quotas, there would be no program whatever, neither quotas nor support price, in 1982.

However, if two-thirds of the growers participating in the referendum vote to approve, we will maintain our program framework with a quota support rate of $550 per ton in 1982 - a 21 percent increase over 1981 - and with mandatory increases in subsequent years to help offset production cost increases. We will have a national poundage quota of 1.2 million tons in 1982, along with substantially strengthened undermarketing carry forward provisions beginning with unused undermarketings in 1980.

We know that many peanut producers are unhappy with the program and its future outlook. Such feelings are understandable, but they are not good reasons for voting out the peanut program altogether or for not voting. With all of its problems, the peanut program is one of two remaining commodity programs that contain the basic essentials for success - supply management and support prices. These features must be preserved. Don't risk losing those fundamental concepts - VOTE FOR QUOTAS AND PRICE SUPPORTS.

We urge that you not only vote in the referendum, but that you join with other growers in your community in setting up a telephone call campaign just prior to and during the referendum period to remind growers to vote.

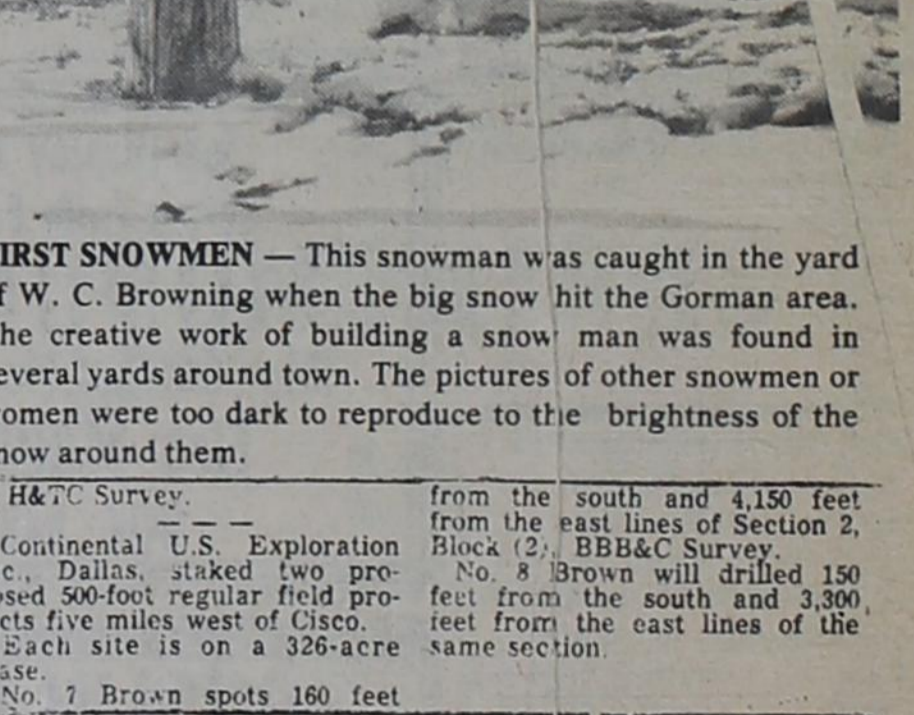

A vote not cast can be used by program adversaries almost as effectively as a vote against quotas."

ROSS WILSON HONORED AT MEETING

Ross Wilson, President of Southwestern Peanut Growers Association was honored at the Annual Peanut Growers meeting on January 7 in Ardmore, Oklahoma with a plaque in appreciation of his many years of service to peanut producers. The plaque read in part: Presented to Ross on January 7, 1982 in appreciation of his outstanding leadership, untiring efforts, and dedicated service over the years in national legislative programs and all other industry functions on behalf of the peanut producers of the South west.

Wilson has served as President of Southwestern Peanut Growers Association since 1954. A approximately 160 peanut growers from Texas and Oklahoma attended the meeting in Ardmore. Jack Coppedge of Oklahoma, past President of the Peanut Growers Association made the presentation.

Nelda and Terri Keith of Gorman, Mattie Newton of De Leon and Vonnie Guthery attended the funeral of their aunt Middle Eoff in Dublin last Friday morning. Her parents the late, Berry Moore and Sarah Jane (Blair) Keith were the first couple married in Eastland County in July 1863. They were married at Fort Blair, which was built by Sarah Jane's parents, C.C. and Meekie (Reeves) Blair, which was near the present townsite of Desdemona. There were several families living at the Fort then — to fight off Indians. This pioneer family has lots of history connected to it.

PLAN NOW FOR RETIREMENT

People planning to retire in early 1982 should start making serious plans right now if they have not done so. A part of the planning should be applying for Social Security retirement benefits, Glyn Hammons, Social Security district manager in Abilene, said recently.

Apply for benefits at the proper time is very important Hammons said. This is because benefit payments are geared to the month of application.

For example, a person applying after reaching 65 generally can receive benefits for up to 6 months before the month of application, but not before the month he or she reaches 65. A person applying between 62 and 65 cannot generally get any benefits for months before the month of application.

In addition, a person can receive benefits only for months he or she meets eligibility requirements for the entire month. Generally, this means that unless a person was born on the first day of a month, he or she cannot get a benefit for the month of his or her 62nd birthday. The first benefit payable is for the following month.

Before applying, a person should gather together the required evidence. This includes his or her Social Security card or a record of the number, birth or baptismal certificate, and Forms W-2 or self-employment tax returns for the past 2 years. If this evidence is not available, the people at the Social Security office may be able to suggest substitutes. phone number is 698-1360 or if you don't live in Abilene, call toll free by dialing 1-800-392-1603.

Thursday, everyone is invited to attend. Our residents need you.

SENIOR CITIZENS NEWS

Hil To all of you. I want to say my sight has improved lately. It is such a "Glorious Feeling". I am so thankful for that, too. Tho at time it is dim. I have to stop as my eyes water an awful lot. We bough wreaths when one of the gang or a loved one died. Jack was Treasurer. Hickey was always among the first to pay. I would go by Florist and order wreath and take receipt to Jack for payment. There were two men that could buy us all out. Tho they would not pay unless dunned. So Jack and Hickey told me to hit them up.

gang. Hick doubled his first and stuck out thumb. "Gig Em George". So I asked for their dollar. They would get bill out and squeeze it and put a squeezing in their pocket. This happened several times.

Frank, Buds brother-in-law would come and play with me. He was sure lucky, too.

Big Foot Wallace Baze enjoyed the games. He had been a concrete packer. Then he became the P.M. Stoker called Lonnie "Doc" one time. So he became known as "Doc".

Oh Yes! We had Merrit

Dunn, Carbon Editor a few times. The boys carried him out Snipe hunting. He stood and held his sack while the boys were to drive Snipes. In a few minutes he heard their car start. A long walk back to Carbon.

The best is yet to come. Just after War II, agent Cooper had a meeting about atomic Bomb shelter. Cooper explained about supplies for 30 days, would supply everything needed. He said a man from U.S. would be there that evening. So Dunn raised up and said he was going home. He said that all that would do is to give someone a fat job. I know and you know that if you came out of that shelter everything would be contaminated and you would soon perish. I would rather die early with my friends. So he left then.

I told Cooper that Dunn was right and I was going home at noon. Just a waste of money.

Uncle Sam was on a ladder and fell breaking bones. In a very short time he went to meet the King of Kings.

We had an 84 bunch that played at least 2 - 3 times per week. Mae Quinn, a fair bidder, Florence Kent, a wonderful person. The only way you could get along with her was to fuss at her. She worked at Hospital and she knew if you fussed at her, you like her. Now Poor Kent is here in the home. If feel so sorry for her the way she is now. As eveyrone that knew and loved her joyous outlook on life. Check (A wreckless bidder) and Vera Henderson and Lola and I. Tho I was a conservative bidder.

One morning I started to work and a pickup passed me. It was pulling a trailer with a Ford Tractor and a shredder in it. I looked and said "My Gosh the old Scratch". His cap looked like born on his head. I almost decided to go back home. Tho I had a column for paper. So went on. I saw it stopped next door to P.O.

Our deepest sympathy goes out to the Speck Clark family.

Go Big Red. You really bagged it in placing men on State Team.

We hope Jimmy Johnson can go high at RJC. Be Good.

GORDON SPOT By DeMarquis Gordon

There is a new St. Augustine grass available to homeowners this year. If you are putting in a lawn this year or if you are replacing grass in an old lawn I would suggest you consider "Raleigh" St. Augustine grass. It is a vigorous, St. Augustine Decline (S.A.D.) resistant variety released by North Carolina State University. It is more cold and shade tolerant than "Floratum" St. Augustine. Raleigh, unlike Floratum, is not resistant to chinch bugs. Both are resistant to S.A.D. As for appearance, an established lawn of Raleigh St. Augustine looks similar to a lawn of common St. Augustine grass although Raleigh is slightly coarser and faster growing than common.

Raleigh can be grown wherever common St. Augustine grass can be grown.

In new lawns, Raleigh can be sodded to improve an "instant" lawn or plugged on about 1-foot spacings to provide a cover in two or three months. To restore a St. Augustine lawn weakened with S.A.D. I suggest plugging 4-inch blocks of Raleigh directly into the lawn on about 1-foot spacings. After one complete growing season, Raleigh will cover the lawn.

Maintenance requirements for Raleigh will be similar to those for common St. Augustine grass. Weekly mowing at a height of about 2 inches, spring and fall fertilization, and watering as needed to prevent severe wilting should produce an attractive lawn of Raleigh St. Augustine.

A robust weed population in dormant bermudagrass or St. Augustine lawns is not only unsightly but can delay

Qualified Royalty Owner's Exemption Certificates Available

The I.R.S. has published Form No. 6783, called "Qualified Royalty Owner's Exemption Certificate" as recovery of turfgrasses for several months.

Clover, chickweed, henbit, and dandelions are common weed problems in Eastland County in lawns during winter and early spring months.

Homeowners can take several steps to control winter weeds in lawns.

Application of a preemergence herbicide such as Dacthal or Balan in October will prevent many winter weed problems. However, if you missed that opportunity, there are other methods to keep winter weeds in check.

Close mowing following periods of milk temperatures in February and March will greatly improve the appearance of a weedy lawn and will promote early recovery of turfgrasses.

However, mowing will not eliminate the weeds. Systemic herbicides (chemical weed killers) such as Wipeout (Greenlight), Weed-B-Gon (Ortho) and Systemic Weed Control (Ferti-lome) will successfully control most broadleaf weed problems if used according to label instructions. Two applications of these material about 14 days apart may be required for complete control of broadleaf weeds.

These chemicals will not control grassy weeds such as annual bluegrass and rescuegrass. preemerge herbicide treatments in the fall are required to control those grasses.

Systemic herbicides can be applied with an air pressure sprayer or a hose-end sprayer. Use care to apply materials uniformly at the recommended dosage when temperatures are above 60 degrees F.

If herbicides are applied properly, broadleaf weeds will begin to shrivel a few days after the first treatment and will turn brown after the second treatment. Close mowing several weeks after the second treatment should remove all traces of the broadleaf weeds and should promote recovery of desirable grasses.

the first step for small Royalty Owners to secure exemptions under the 2 Barrel per Day Rule for 1982. Individuals, farm corporations and estates must use this form in order to receive any exemption. This form must be sent to purchasers (or other withholding agents) so they can adjust the withholding. Properties which provide a qualified Royalty Owner more than 2 royalty barrels per day cannot be adjusted. But an owner can apply for a refund at the end of the year if an inability to certify such properties causes him to over-pay the tax.

Individuals may also apply for a 1981 exemption up to $2500 on the Windfall Profit Tax. In this situation, a form must be secured from the purchasing agent, stating how much tax was withheld during 1981. This is applied to the Income Tax, and any portion of it not owed for taxes is returned.

All this relaxation of taxes was due to legislation passed by the recent (91st) Congress in Washington. Oil Companies and Royalty owners were strongly in favor of the measure, with their only complaint being that the matter did not go far enough - that the whole tax measure should have been done away with. But even the 2 barrel per day lifting of the Windfall Tax after Jan.

We know what to do with nuclear wastes...

let's get started.

We Americans have always been among the world's foremost inventors and innovators. Scientists in America discovered and proved the principles of nuclear energy, pioneered its commercial use, and developed safe and practical ways to permanently store nuclear wastes. But while other nations are using these methods of storage, we aren't. In the United States, spent fuel assemblies are stored at reactor sites. This practice is safe, but unnecessary and expensive for permanent storage.

Nuclear fuel is held in 14-foot stainless-steel fuel rod assemblies. About 60 of these assemblies must be removed each year from a 1000-megawatt nuclear reactor and stored in racks under water. Reprocessing would separate waste from reusable fuel and significantly reduce required permanent storage space.

We know how to recycle spent nuclear fuel. The 3% or less that is waste can be mixed with insoluble glass or ceramic for storage. This process is being used commercially in France, but not in the U.S.

At your electric company, we see the use of nuclear fuel as essential - if you are to continue to have the electricity you need at a reasonable cost. And we need permanent storage facilities for wastes from nuclear power plants.

The Federal Government is responsible for selecting the sites and building these facilities. Users will pay for them. But their construction will take time, while spent fuel accumulates. We have the know-how and the need. So let's get started... now.

If you were to generate all the electricity one person would use in a lifetime using nuclear fuel, the solidified high-level wastes would only half-fill a soft-drink can!
