

Beat-Truman Drive Gains

Southern Democrats Get Help From Gov. Byrnes

GATLINBURG, Tenn., Oct. 3. (AP) — A Beat-Truman movement among some Southern Democrats got new impetus today from James F. Byrnes, South Carolina's Democratic governor.

Byrnes, who served as President Truman's Secretary of State, was the first of Southern Democratic leaders to put on a flat basis his opposition to the President's renomination.

The former "assistant president" under President Roosevelt, Supreme Court Justice and Senator left no doubt that if Mr. Truman is his party's nominee next July he will face a Dixie revolt handled by experts intent on axing the administration politically South of the Mason and Dixon Line.

A similar move in 1948 failed despite a four-state defection. But Byrnes and others are just as confident now that Mr. Truman will not be the next President as they are confident about the man who may be his successor.

Meanwhile, Gov. Earl Warren of California, a Republican, continued to play close to his vest any ambitions he may have to be a compromise candidate — as between Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio — for the 1952 Republican presidential nominee.

Warren, who heads a round-table discussion today on law enforcement problems at the 43rd annual Governors' Conference here, kept mum about his future political plans.

The only concrete sign that came out of the Warren camp was a certain amount of skepticism toward Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York, the 1944 and 1948 GOP presidential nominee as a leader of the movement to draft Gen. Eisenhower for the nomination.

Warren's friends made it clear they think Dewey could be prevailed upon — under certain conditions — to accept a third nomination despite assertions by the New Yorker's confidantes that this will never happen. Dewey himself has said he would not make a third White House bid.

Warren could be counted on to deny California's heavy vote to the Eisenhower backers in the pre-convention maneuvering, and this might have a direct effect on what the Southern Democrats do.

The Dixie contingent, headed here by Byrnes, has made no special secret of the fact it believes Eisenhower could carry some vital Southern states if he were the Republican nominee.

For that reason, they are waiting before deciding whether they are going to go beyond opposition to the Civil Rights program at next year's Democratic convention and organize an independent movement under a Democratic label of some kind to defeat Mr. Truman or a personally-picked choice as a nominee.

Byrnes gave little indication at a news conference here Tuesday that the Southern contingent he represents will be satisfied if the President picks Chief Justice Fred M. Vinson of Kentucky for his successor.

A former Supreme Court member, Byrnes said he doesn't think any member of that body is a candidate for the presidential nomination.

This and other signs seemed to add up to a determination of the Southerners to wait and see who the Republican, as well as a Democratic nominee, might be. If the Republicans pick Eisenhower, the prospect was that there would be no "independent" movement in the South such as Byrnes said might develop otherwise.

Little attention was paid here to Byrnes' proposal that the Democrats nominate Senators Richard Russell of Georgia or Harry F. Byrd of Virginia.

Russell still was waiting to see what Eisenhower might do. Byrd is expected to be busy running for re-election to the Senate in Virginia on the regular Democratic ticket.

In its official business the governors' conference was scheduled to discuss law enforcement problems today under the tutelage of Governor Warren.

The commissioners court was scheduled to open bids at 2 p. m. today on Howard county's courthouse bonds.

Although the million-dollar bond issue was voted last May 12, sale of the bonds was not arranged until recently, following approval by a volunteer credit restraint committee.

Originally, commissioners had hoped to start actual construction work on a new courthouse sometime this fall. However, material shortages have ruled out construction contracts for the present. The commissioners court now hopes to award contracts around the first of the year.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3. (AP) — Ambassador Philip C. Jessup swore today that a charge by Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.) that he was affiliated with six Communist fronts is false.

Jessup made the statement to a Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee considering his nomination by President Truman to be a United Nations delegate. His testimony was in reply to charges by McCarthy that Jessup has followed all the twists and turns of the Communist line.

Tuesday night the subcommittee made public a finding by the Civil Service Loyalty Review Board that there is "no reasonable doubt" as to Jessup's loyalty.

McCarthy raised some question about the finding but was promptly contradicted by Hiram Bingham, chairman of the Loyalty Board.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 3. (AP) — Harold E. Stassen flatly challenged Secretary of State Dean Acheson today to deny that in 1949 he recommended cutting off all military supplies for China.

Stassen's challenge followed a State Department reply to his testimony before a Senate hearing on Monday. He said then that the late Sen. Arthur H. Vandenberg (R-Mich) had told him of a White House meeting at which Acheson and Philip Jessup had proposed halting aid to the Nationalists.

The State Department reply was issued Tuesday by Press Officer Michael J. McDermott who said "I fear Mr. Stassen's memory is playing him tricks."

McDermott said a thorough check of the records failed to indicate that a meeting of which Stassen said Vandenberg had told him ever took place.

Stassen said in a statement today (full text): "My attention has been called to the State Department's release of Oct. 3.

"I will make a more complete statement later.

"But I immediately ask this direct, specific question of Secretary Acheson:

"Do you deny that you were at a conference with President Truman and Senator Vandenberg in 1949 at which you recommended cutting off all military supplies for the China Nationalists, and at which Senator Vandenberg opposed such action?"

Censorship Tighter As War's Tempo Increases

Bradley Leaves For Washington After Meetings

JCS Chief Talks With Commanders; War Clouds Darker

TOKYO, Oct. 3. (AP) — Gen. Omar Bradley left Tokyo today after a fore-shortened visit that included a two-day tour of the Korean battle front.

Shortly before his departure for Washington the Chairman of the U. S. Joint Chiefs of Staff held a secret conference with top American military leaders here amid fading hopes of a negotiated truce in Korea.

The meeting with Army, Air and Navy commanders was presumed to be the most significant session Bradley held in his six-day visit.

Bradley commented only: "It was a very interesting trip—very helpful to us."

His plane left at 7:30 p. m. (4:20 a. m., CST). Bradley was accompanied by his wife and Charles Bohlen, U. S. State Department expert on Russia.

War clouds grew darker over Korea.

For the seventh day Red leaders ignored a United Nations proposal to reopen armistice talks at a new site in no-man's-land.

Tokyo sources said the Reds have waited too long to make a favorable reply to Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway's suggestion to hold sessions near Songhyn, about six miles from Red-controlled Kaesong, the former site.

These sources said they believe truce talks actually are broken off. There has been no meeting since Aug. 22.

Shortly before Bradley's departure, and after his high level conference, Ridgway's headquarters announced a "partial blackout" of news from Korea. This usually is an indication of major military developments.

Ever since it first was announced that Bradley would "survey the entire situation" in this command speculation has been rife that the U. S. top military boss was bringing plans for new and bigger operations. Observers suggested these would be designed to impress the Reds with a realization that they were certain to lose the Korean War.

There was no announcement of what was said at Bradley's final and largest conference in Tokyo.

Ridgway, supreme U. N. commander, headed the group of generals and admirals meeting with him. They met in an office lined with battle maps.

The abundance of stars accentuated the importance of the session. Presumably future Allied political and military moves were outlined.

The U. N. command saw chances of a mutually satisfactory military armistice slip further in this Wednesday broadcast from the Red Koreans' Pyongyang radio: "We will not listen to any conspiracy that is wilfully aimed at the breakdown of the talks."

The broadcast again challenged "the sincerity of the Americans."

DELBERT DOWNING

Chest Kick-Off Set Thursday; Downing To Talk

Delbert Downing, manager of the Midland chamber of commerce, will be guest speaker at the Howard County Community Chest "kick-off" dinner Thursday evening in the Settles hotel.

The meeting is set for 7 p. m. At that time leaders and workers in the residential and business and industry employ groups will receive supplies and instructions for their part of the Community Chest canvass.

Actual contact work in those divisions of the Chest campaign will begin immediately.

Downing, a native Texan, is well known in Big Spring, and has made speaking appearances here before. He is regarded throughout the Southwest as an excellent master of ceremonies and after dinner speaker.

All Community Chest general canvass workers are being urged to attend the "kick-off" event. Details of campaign procedure will be explained, and campaign supplies will be distributed.

Campaign divisions to be represented at the meeting include all, except special gifts. The special gifts division launched its part of the campaign two weeks ago.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3. (AP) — Construction of the Colorado River Municipal Water District and its contractors will be able to proceed on schedule with pipeline construction, since steel will be available.

This resulted from an allocation made in Washington Tuesday by the National Production Authority (NPA), which is controlling the tight steel supply.

A special delegation of CRMWD officials and representatives of the member towns of Odessa, Big Spring and Snyder, held the request for the steel allocation to Washington.

These men found sympathetic help from Senators Tom Connally and Lyndon Johnson, and Congressmen George Mahon and Ken Keegan, all of whom helped establish contacts with NPA officials. Upshot of the matter that the CRMWD contractors were assured of steel required to proceed with construction of pipe during the fourth quarter of this year.

NPA officials also gave strong evidence that the district could expect to get its steel needs during the first and second quarters of 1952.

Actually, the fourth quarter allotment was a reinstatement, since CRMWD had its certificate, and then had it recalled. The importance of the water project to the West Texas area, however, was recognized by NPA.

With the steel allotted, materials are now available to run the pipeline from the Martin county well fields into Odessa (No. 1 on the construction list) and another line from Martin county to Big Spring (No. 2). A line from the Colorado river reservoir to Snyder is next on the list.

Certification of the steel means that Odessa and Big Spring may expect water connections next year on schedule. In the opinion of Marvin Nichols of the Fort Worth engineering firm of Fresse and Nichols.

Nichols was in Washington with the West Texas delegation, which was headed by Charles Perry, Odessa.

Seek To Break Up Red Supply Effort

U. S. EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Korea, Oct. 3. (AP) — A thunderous United Nations artillery barrage roared along the Western Front today while war planes tried to break up the biggest Red supply effort since the last Communist offensive.

Red troops who held Allied infantrymen to no gains Tuesday pressed two battalion-sized probing attacks of their own today.

A "partial blackout," frequently a sign of an impending offensive by either the Reds or Allies, was clamped on news from the war fronts Wednesday.

The tightened censorship was announced by Tokyo headquarters of Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, supreme U. N. commander. There was no explanation.

(The partial blackout of news was imposed until further notice. (While there were indications of a possible impending Red offensive, a broad United Nations drive could not be ruled out. The news blackout recalled a Red Chinese broadcast Saturday asserting the Allies were preparing to make simultaneous amphibious landings on both coasts of North Korea. The Allied command has not commented on this broadcast.)

The Far East Air Forces (FEAF) noted significantly that pilots spotted 4,355 Red trucks on the highways Tuesday night — "the greatest number in a single night since... the Communists' last abortive offensive" in mid-May.

Warships and night-raiding planes concentrated on breaking up this near record volume of supplies being rushed toward the front. An FEAF communique said Red trucks "suffered very heavy losses."

The Allied artillery barrage on the Western Front was one of the heaviest of the Korean War. Gunfire reached to within 13 miles of Kaesong, site of disrupted truce talks which the Reds broke off 42 days ago.

Shells hit the Reds in ridges running northeast from Korangpo. The town is 12 miles east of Kaesong.

On the fringe of the barrage troops British Commonwealth forces fought a series of sharp hand-to-hand actions with Chinese.

McCarthy Charges Denied By Jessup

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3. (AP) — Ambassador Philip C. Jessup swore today that a charge by Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.) that he was affiliated with six Communist fronts is false.

Jessup made the statement to a Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee considering his nomination by President Truman to be a United Nations delegate. His testimony was in reply to charges by McCarthy that Jessup has followed all the twists and turns of the Communist line.

McCarthy raised some question about the finding but was promptly contradicted by Hiram Bingham, chairman of the Loyalty Board.

Testifying under oath, Jessup de-ned — as he did last year — McCarthy's accusation that he had "an unusual affinity for Communist causes." The ambassador-at-large, a top advisor to Secretary of State Acheson, also declared: "I will submit evidence which will demonstrate xxx that I have not been a follower of the Communist Party line."

The Senate subcommittee headed by Senator Sparkman (D-Ala) put the Loyalty Board's findings regarding Jessup into the record Tuesday night. McCarthy had just concluded a total of about 10 hours in the witness chair in opposition to Senate confirmation of the appointment of Jessup to be a delegate to the United Nations.

When McCarthy had left the hearing room he told reporters Bingham had advised him that if

British Pull Out Of Abadan Area

ABADAN, Iran, Oct. 3. (AP) — The British pulled out of Abadan today to give Iran full possession of the world's greatest refinery.

The British Cruiser Mauritius with some 275 Anglo-Iranian Oil Company employees, sailed at the Shatt-el-Arab River to Basra, Iraq, early this afternoon.

From Basra, the evacuees are to be flown back to Britain.

The Mauritius was accompanied by five AIOC sea-going tugs, one ahead and four behind.

Forty other AIOC employees left by plane this morning.

The British departure came after a month of Iranian pressure.

It was a sad and solemn affair.

The evacuees privately said this was one of Britain's most humiliating moments. It was, indeed, in contrast to the proud days when the roar of the British Lion made the world take notice.

That was the way it was when the British came to Iran in the early years of this century.

Iran now lays claim to oil riches which the country had granted to Britain under a royalty agreement which was to have lasted until 1993.

There was no noticeable change over here today.

Since last June, when they first appeared on the scene, Iranian Oil Company officials have been gradually taking over the fields and refinery complexes step by step.

They moved into some British homes as more and more AIOC employees left.

Today's departure was orderly, with only a few Iranian police and soldiers on the streets.

Ex-Aggies Urged To Attend Meet Today

All ex-students of Texas A&M college are being urged to attend a meeting of Aggies at the Settles hotel tonight. Jack Cook, local alumni leader, reminded this morning.

Southwest Conference Highlights for 1950, including the last Cotton Bowl game, will be a colored movie to be projected at the meeting. Lockett Shelton, Abilene, will be here to assist with the program. There will be no speeches, Cook said.

The meeting is set for 7:30 p. m. in room No. 3 on the Settles mezzanine. There are approximately 80 ex-students of A&M here and all are invited to attend.

Yes, Big Spring Is a BETTER Town!

More A-Weapons Won't Avert War

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3. (AP)—The chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission has put a "flat no" to theories that an immediate big scale switch to atomic weapons might avert another war and halve 1952 military costs.

But AEC Chairman Gordon Dean did say the United States now has tactical atomic weapons, and made a cautious disclosure that new atomic weapons are being produced.

Dean testified last week behind the closed doors of a House Appropriations Subcommittee. The testimony was made available to a reporter today. Dean was asked by Rep. Thomas (D-Tex) about recent statements that an extra six or ten billion dollars given to the AEC now might avert a war and save up to half of the 1952 military budget. Thomas did not say whom he was quoting.

But the answer, Dean replied, is a "flat no."

He said the extra money could not be translated immediately into more atomic weapons because of the time factor involved in producing them.

Thomas then asked Dean if he knew of any new supplies of raw materials by which atomic bombs could be produced by the thousands.

"I hate to go into figures," Dean answered. "I would rather not talk of numbers."

Thomas then wanted to know about a prediction made in a Senate speech Sept. 18 by Senator McMahon (D-Conn) that if, as McMahon urged, the United States "misses produced" atomic weapons the cost of an atomic bomb would become less than the cost of a single tank.

While the cost of an atomic bomb probably can be and is being brought down, Dean replied to Thomas, it would eventually be closer to the cost of "a few tanks" instead of the cost of a single tank. He said he meant the big, expensive tanks.

Before the House Committee, AEC Chairman Dean cautioned against any feeling that the field of atomic energy and United States advances as of today are an assurance of security.

"I do not think that there is any quick and easy method of procuring total security," Dean said.

Dean predicted that within a decade the United States will have what he called the "beginning" of atomic Air Force.

Dean had this to say on new atomic weapons:

"There is already today some flexibility in the program which would permit other uses against military targets, and this will be increasingly so as the other members of the family of weapons enter the stockpile."

Atomic weapons now can be used for tactical warfare purposes and bombed areas can be occupied by troops in "a reasonably short time," he said.

Production of bombs, he said, "is going up at a very substantial rate" and the present stockpile of bombs would be "very effective" if war came immediately.

Night Session May Be Needed To Get Tax Bill

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3. (AP)—Tax bill conferees today face the probability of a night session in a drive to reach final agreement on the multi-million dollar measure by the middle of next week.

Rep. Doughton (D-N.C.), chairman of the joint Senate-House conference, said night meetings would be resorted to if needed to speed a decision on points of difference between the $7.2 billion tax increase voted by the House and the $5.4 billion Senate version.

"I certainly hope we can get together by the middle of next week," Doughton said. Other members were equally optimistic at least publicly.

No decisions were reached at the first exploratory session held by the conference group Tuesday, and a second was scheduled for today.

Rep. Doughton (D-N.C.), chairman of the joint Senate-House conference, said night meetings would be resorted to if needed to speed a decision on points of difference between the $7.2 billion tax increase voted by the House and the $5.4 billion Senate version.

"I certainly hope we can get together by the middle of next week," Doughton said. Other members were equally optimistic at least publicly.

Skill and Character

Two phases of Scouting, the development of skills and character, are illustrated by Cub Scouts of Pack No. 23, Den No. 3. The picture at top shows the Cubs engaged in one of their favorite pastimes—handicraft. In the lower picture they demonstrate the pack's "friendship rings," symbolic of the attitudes of cooperation and dependability being developed through the Scout program. Members of the pack, which has Mrs. Beth Lueddecke as den mother, are Jerry Brooks, Bob Dailley, Perry Lee Dailley, Ray Alexander, Ross Reagan, Jimmy Tucker, Lonnie Webb, August Joe Lueddecke, Benny McCrary, Danny McCrary, and Danella Williams.

Boy Scout Program Develops Skill And Character In Youth

(This is the third of a series of articles on agencies affiliated with the Howard County Community Chest—Ed. Note).

Development of two interlocking ideals—character and citizenship—is the primary objective of the Boy Scout program, one of the leading youth undertakings in Howard county.

Scout leaders seek to accomplish this goal through a regular training schedule which includes instruction in all phases of "outdoor" life as well as scores of vocational fields.

"Preparedness—how to act in emergencies," is the way Jimmie Hale, local Scout executive, sums up results of Boy Scout field training.

Through the merit badge system, youngsters are given an opportunity to sample more than 100 vocational fields. Merit badges are awarded for success in fields ranging from simple handicrafts to aerodynamics, said the Scout worker.

Hale estimated that more than 400 boys in Howard county are being given the advantage of Boy Scout training, either as Boy Scouts, Cubs, or Explorers.

There are three active cub packs in the county, all in Big Spring. They are composed of boys eight to 10 years of age. Twelve Scout troops are also active in the county, one at Foran and 11 in Big Spring, and Howard county has five Explorer posts for boys 14 years of age or older.

Each unit meets regularly, once a week. Most of the troops have their own Scout huts. They are sponsored by local civic organizations, churches, P-TA groups, and fraternal organizations.

Summer camping activities afford Scouts their best opportunity to learn about survival in the outdoors, first aid, animal and plant life, etc. Approximately 100 Howard county boys participated in activities at the Boy Scout ranch, in the Davis mountains, this past summer. A number of others had five days or more of camping during the summer months. Attendance at the Cub Day camp, held for three days, aggregated more than 100, said Hale.

Plans are now being prepared to promote additional camping through the initiation of monthly "camp-outs" to be held on week-ends. Monthly Courts of Honor are also held at which recognition is given individual Scouts for advancements made in the Scouting program.

Local Scout leaders hope to expand their program through the formation of additional troops. At present, potential troops are in need of sponsoring organizations, Hale said.

Approximately 200 adult leaders, men and women, now assist with the district program.

"These volunteers are the key men and women of the Scout program," the district executive declared. "If we only had more leaders, we could have twice as many boys engaged in Scouting."

Needed the most are den mothers to direct the activities of Cub packs, according to Hale. Scout masters, Cub masters, and advisers for Explorer posts are also in demand.

Cornell President Talks To Bankers

By T. E. APPLIGATEE
CHICAGO, Oct. 3. (AP)—Cornell University's president, told the nation's bankers today the country urgently needs their leadership to avoid dangers ahead both at home and abroad.

Deane W. Malott warned some 7,000 members of the American Bankers Association that "these are not times for traditional sedateness."

He addressed the 77th annual ABA convention which closes today with election of officers.

C. Francis Cooke, Roanoke, Va., was slated to succeed James E. Shelton of Los Angeles as president. W. Harold Brenton, president of the State Bank of Des Moines, Iowa, was reported the unanimous choice of the nominating committee for the vice-presidential post vacated by Cooke.

"Storm signals are flying in the very financial structure of this nation, and the future of the world is literally on your doorstep," Malott told the bankers.

No banker, he said, "would allow any customer to get into the position of our federal government, living extravagantly and wastefully beyond its means, fostering inflation, borrowing increasingly, and wastefully consuming the nation's raw material resources."

The Cornell president said the government is adding new civilian employees at the rate of about one every 43 seconds, day and night, week in and week out, while nearly one in every four persons of the total population is regularly receiving a federal check for services, relief, pensions or participation in agricultural programs.

"Meanwhile," Malott said, "the administration calls for ever higher and higher taxes to meet the costs of this fast growing gargantuan."

He told the bankers the country needs "an intelligent and vocal electorate under the leadership of those who have the respect of the people, and the judgment to distinguish between immediate advantage and long term stability."

Texas Democrats Of FDR-HST Line Call War Council Oct. 13

By DAVE CHEAVENS
AUSTIN, Oct. 3. (AP)—Texas Democrats who have followed the Roosevelt-Truman line since 1944 have called a council of war here Oct. 13.

The action came as a challenge to the leadership of Gov. Allan Shivers who this week stepped up the tempo of his anti-Truman declarations.

It is also a challenge to Attorney General Price Daniel who Monday asked Texas Democrats to throw Truman overboard and center on a candidate who won't trample on Texas' rights.

Woolly J. Rogers of San Antonio, a leader in the group summoned to meet here next week, said it wasn't necessarily a "pro-Truman meeting."

"It's just a meeting of a bunch of Democrats who want to keep the party in Texas out of the hands of the Dixiecrats and the Texas Regulars. It's not just for one candidate," he said.

"Price Daniel and Allan Shivers are both making a play for the anti-Truman votes against Tom Connally."

Rogers was referring to the widely-accepted talk that both the governor and the attorney general are laying the groundwork for a race against Texas' senior Senator in 1952.

Rogers said the Austin meeting was called by Harry Seay of Dallas. Seay was State Democratic Executive Committee chairman when the Texas Democratic organization knocked down attempts of the rightwing States' Rights faction to swing Texas away from Roosevelt in 1944.

Others called to the session here were Robert L. Holliday of El Paso, Mrs. Jud Collier of Mumford; Walter G. Hall of Dallas. Rogers said invitations had gone out to about 250 persons. All of those named have long been identified with the liberal faction of the party in Texas.

Secretary of Agriculture Brannan has been scheduled as speaker for the session. The group also wants Speaker Sam Rayburn, who has been chief advisor to the administration faction of the party in Texas for many years.

Rogers said the group would plan a precinct-by-precinct organization to seek control of the May state convention which names delegates to the national convention, and which selects Presidential electors.

DESIGNING WOMAN

If Table Is Small, Make Shadow Box Centerpiece

By ELIZABETH HILLIER

If there's no room on the table for a centerpiece, put it on the wall. A shadow box above the postage stamp-size dining table ups floral arrangements to a more eye-catching show-off spot while it leaves space for uncrowded place settings, and at the same time, it's big decoration for the room.

Build the shadow box or have it built tall and wide enough to be important on the wall where it's to hang, and deep enough to hold the containers that make arranging easy for you. Flowers, leaves, interesting branches, reeds and grasses, small potted plants, fruits, colorful vegetables, driftwood, and decorative objects of all kind—all of these are material for picture-like compositions which are more handsome for their deep shadow box frame. The shadow box can be an open frame through which wall color shows, or may have a back in another room scheme color. Other good spots for shadow boxes—over the fireplace, in the hall, over the television set. The shadow box picture which can constantly be changed is a good trial ground for decorative ideas, color scheme combinations, experiment in working out good proportions.

The Deep Rock No. 1 McCrary, six miles north of Big Spring, made a heavy volume of gas and a small amount of oil and was removing rig.

A western Martin venture had no results on a drillstem test 4 1/2 deepened in the Spraberry. Two other Martin prospects were swabbing, load oil and salt water.

This is 24 feet high to the Lario No. 1 Griffin, discovery well two locations to the west and 88 feet high to the Fair and Woodward No. 1 Griffin, a dry hole one location to the east.

The hole was carried to 7,085 feet and a 90-minute drillstem test run from 7,072-7,085. Gas surfaced in four minutes but no fluid came to top. After seven stands of drillpipe had been pulled, the drillpipe started unloading, and unloading all the way out of the hole. Operator cut it to pits and recovery was estimated at 6,500 feet of clean oil and no water or mud. An electric survey is being run and the 5 1/2-inch string will be cemented on bottom and 15 feet more of hole reworked. Completion will be attempted from open hole.

Photographer On Stand In Colorado City Arson Case

COLORADO CITY, Oct. 3.—Harold Manis, Colorado City photographer, was called to the stand by the state today to testify that he took pictures of the Gosnell hotel fire.

Def Barber and Perry Barber, attorneys for the defense, objected to admission of photographs taken by Manis in the Wednesday following the blaze, which J. S. Rogers, owner of the hotel, is charged to have caused. District Attorney Elton Mahon had no search warrant which would permit entry to the property on Wednesday, the attorneys said.

Turning to Mahon, Def Barber asked "who gave you permission to enter the building and take pictures?"

"The state fire marshal," replied Mahon.

"What made you think he had authority to give permission?" Barber asked.

Tuesday witnesses testified to finding "jars filled with an amber fluid resembling gasoline" in the basement and empty rooms of the hotel following the June 16 fire.

Howard Bynum, volunteer fireman and first man to enter the burning basement and to carry out a jug of the fluid, testified as to this find. J. E. Watkins, guest at the hotel, said that he, Rogers and other guests had sat around the lobby and talked until shortly before the fire was reported.

According to Watkins, he, Rogers and L. Northwood, another guest stepped into a room adjoining the lobby to take a drink. Someone called Rogers from the room four to 10 minutes before the fire was discovered.

Mrs. C. S. Bass, nurse residing in the hotel, said there were strong odors of gasoline around 8 p.m.

T. E. Neely, Midland, said he had sold Rogers 10 fire insurance policies in the amount of $105,000. This was not an excessive amount according to the building's appraised value, he testified. He added that he had been instrumental in securing a $60,000 loan for Rogers from E. S. Hitchcock, Midland, and that at the time of the fire $56,485 was unpaid. However, the "note was in good condition," he stated, and no previous payments had been missed.

Eddie Koehne, Breckenridge, highway patrolman then stationed at Colorado City, said he personally carried eight or nine "gallon jugs containing an amber colored fluid that smelled like gasoline" from the basement. Mrs. Bruce Hart, a clerk at the hotel, said that two or three rooms were not available for rent. Room No. 34 had a leaky roof. It was heavily damaged and the state contends that much of the second phase of the fire began there. Firemen put out two fires, the first in the basement and the second in the vicinity of No. 34 and the roof.

Police Motorcycle Collides With Car Both vehicles were damaged slightly about 6 p.m. Tuesday when a police department motorcycle was in collision with an automobile at 4th and Johnson streets. Patrolman D. C. Sanders was rider of the three-wheel motorcycle-1502 11th Place, was driver of the car, according to the police department.

Two other vehicles also received slight damage when they were in collision in the 300 block of E 3rd said. They were driven by Stanford W. McFarlin, Abilene, and Boyd Grady Sheppard, Coahoma.

Postal Receipts Up At Colorado City

COLORADO CITY, Oct. 2.—After a slow first half year with postal receipts dipping below those of last year, the trend has been slowed and the September quarter shows an eight per cent gain, according to S. A. Palmer, postmaster.

Postal receipts for September of 1931 were $4,233.06 as compared for $4,027.43 for the same month in 1931.

McCarthy said earlier he tried without success to reach Bingham in advance to inform him he intended to tell newsmen about the conversation he said they had regarding Jessup.

As for Bingham's denial, McCarthy told a reporter: "Well, if I had said that, I wouldn't have any comment on it at all. He's a good fellow."

In contrast to the matter of loyalty to the United States, the issue of whether a person is a security risk deals, for example, with whether he might unintentionally disclose vital information to questionable associates.

MAN WON'T WASTE TIME

C. D. Hardy, Jr. was serious, about his purchase. "When he bought two lots in the new Douglass addition, he asked Worth Peeler, who handled the transaction, when he could get started."

"Right now as far as we are concerned," Peeler replied. Hardy backed up a loaded truck to his lot, started unloading foundation fill material and some blocks.

Extensive plans for observance of Oil Progress Week were outlined to the chamber of commerce directors at the regular meeting Monday at the Settles.

Carl Smith, local Oil Industry Information committee chair, said nine programs had been booked for service and civic clubs; a meeting with chamber directors of oil men; programs and motion pictures at the high school. There also will be speech and essay contests at the high school during the week starting Oct. 15.

George White, reporting for the highway committee, said that a recent meeting in Austin, the state highway commission expressed considerable interest in the U. S. 87-U. S. 80 cutoff around the foot of Senie Mountain. Since then the county said it would finance the project, he reported. White had the impression that the commission was rather cool toward a proposal to open and pave Fourth street the length of the city.

J. H. Greene, manager, reported on an inspection of extensive boiler operations carried on around Smiley, Texas, and expressed the opinion that such a similar operation would be practical here.

The Railroad Commission of Texas has assigned official names to ten more new oil fields in West Texas.

In Andrews County, the pool opened by Neville G. Penrose, Inc., was named Littman-San Andres. In the same county, Sinclair Oil & Gas Company No. 1 Cox opened the Cox-Wichita-Albany field.

In Borden County, the new field opened by Superior Oil Company and Intex Oil Company was given the name of Fluvanna. Also in Borden County, Lario Oil & Gas Company opened the Hobo field with the completion of its No. 1 Griffin.

The pool opened by Standard of Texas No. 1-S-3 J. W. Brown in Scurry County was designated Brown-Cisco. Also in Scurry County, the Parks-Cisco pool has been changed to George Parks-Cisco. The field was opened by Standard No. 1-S-G. E. Parks.

In Martin County, the field opened by Tide Water Associated Oil Company was dubbed the Stanton field. The discovery well is the firm's No. 1 Dickinson.

Murry Petroleum Company No. 1 Davis was given discovery allowable and designated the opener of the Davis-Gardner field in Runnels County.

In Schleicher County, Wesley West No. 1 Christine Mittell was named; he opener of the Neva West pool. York & Harper, Inc., No. 1 J. E. Wright is the opener of the Prentiss field in Yoakum County.

Lack Of Pickers Slows Ginning

GARDEN CITY, Oct. 3.—The lack of cotton pickers in the St. Lawrence area has slowed down daily runs at the Paymaster Ginn, according to Robert Cook, manager of the gin.

M. A. Braden of Reagan County had the first bale of the season ginned there on September 8. Cook paid him 35 cents a pound for it.

Cook said Tuesday morning that the gin had turned out 49 bales in all this season. At present he is averaging three or four bales a day. If the cotton pickers were available their daily average would raise greatly.

Parliament Set For Formal Dissolution

LONDON, Oct. 3. (AP)—Parliament gathers Thursday for formal dissolution and Britain's intensive election campaign gets underway. The battle trends were clear today. But the British man-in-the-street was asking today: how deep is the patched-up rift in Labor ranks? Will the seams hold until after voting date Oct. 25?

Leftist Aneurin Bevan's unexpected show of power at the Labor Party's Scarborough conference puzzled the rank and file and some leaders, and it brought glee to Conservative ranks.

Conservative papers this morning charged that the Labor Party's moderate-leftist split was wide open again despite claims of the Labor Party leaders that all is harmony in the face of the Tory election attacks.

Liberal Party quarters indicated they thought Bevan's victory in forcing Defense Minister Emanuel Shinwell from the Labor Party executive committee and winning four of the seven contested seats for Bevanites on the committee, presaged bitter open warfare in the party after the election.

The Conservative press also hailed Winston Churchill's campaign-opening speech before 6,000 cheering supporters at Liverpool Tuesday night.

Churchill promised a "broadly based" government if his party wins and a five-year political truce to carry on "a tolerant, non-partisan, non-discriminatory system of policy."

Many here interpreted that as a guarded bid for a coalition cabinet with leaders of all parties joining under Conservative leadership.

The Daily Telegraph called the speech "a call to patriotism and unity in sober contrast to the raucous partisanship of the Socialist campaign," but there were no immediate appraisals of the coalition angle.

The comments were freer on the upsurge that gave Bevan's group about 558,000 of the available 1,147,000 votes involved in placing them in the four seats of the political division of the executive committee.

One moderate Socialist leader at the party meeting said Tuesday night: "We've had it. The floating vote will wonder if we really mean to rearm and will also wonder if we are reunited."

Lord Beaverbrook's Daily Express said editorially "the whole flimsy film-set of Socialist unity is reduced to a mess of laths and pasteboard."

The Labor Party's own newspaper, The Herald, avoided any editorial comment.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Nobody asked me, but I don't think much of the manner in which all-star teams are selected.

All-America football clubs ordinarily are chosen in October and, all too often, the players are picked off their performances the previous season.

Principals on spangled baseball clubs are chosen because sports writers like the curl of a man's hair or the manner in which he barks at an umpire.

Last season, the Longhorn league office asked that writers within the wheel named an all-star team before the season was over.

Not an Odessa player was named to the club. So what did the Oilers do? They proceeded to go out and cop the championship by knocking over San Angelo and Roswell in that order.

I did include Barney Batson, the Odessa first baseman, on the club. I have always regarded Barney as the best first sacker ever to play in the league.

If I had it all to do over again, I'd pick Bobby Martin over Johnny Tayoan of San Angelo as my third baseman. True, Tayoan hit a ton but, in the clutch, the Odessa manager was much the better player. At least he proved it this year.

MAGAZINE MADE TO LOOK BAD, TOO
The editors of Look magazine must have a red face, too. They recently named an All-America baseball team and failed to include a single player of the New York Yankees in the lineup.

True, the Yanks haven't many .300 hitters and nobody up there in the slugging departments. But where can you find better money players than the Yanks?

For winning ball games when they count, where can you best them? Football gates are off no where like they are in the Los Angeles area. The turnout for the University of Southern California games have been especially thin. And Loyola, which plays all its home games in the Rose Bowl, drew less than 10,000 for its recent game with the San Diego Navy.

Several high schools in Texas do much better financially. Bob Harrell, Lamesa high's coach, is drawing raves in South Texas for the job he is doing with the Miller high school gridders in Corpus Christi.

He's fielding a much better team than was expected. Miller lost 30 lettermen via graduation.

JIMMY LAYNEWILL BE HARD TO STOP
Jimmy Layne, the Vernon back who wasn't supposed to play because of illness, threw nine successful passes against Pampa last week, good for 77 yards.

Local fans will get a chance to see Layne in action here Nov. 15, in Big Spring's last home game.

Showdown Is Due Today in New York

By JOE REICHLER
NEW YORK, Oct. 3. (AP)—Today is Flag Day in the National League. The entire season is wrapped up in today's game for those old flaming baseball antagonists—Brooklyn's redoubtable Dodgers and New York's miracle Giants.

Deadlocked at one playoff victory apiece, the bitter interborough rivals clashed head-on in the rubber game this afternoon, with each manager shooting the works and no quarter given.

The games shaped up as a burning battle for the pennant between two of the game's finest righthanders, Sal Maglie of the Giants and Don Newcombe of the Dodgers.

With so much at stake, neither pilot, Charlie Dressen of the Dodgers nor Leo Durocher of the Giants, had much choice but to come in with his ace.

Maglie, winner of 23 games and loser of only six, has beaten the Dodgers five times in six decisions. He was 4-0 against them last year.

Newcombe (20-9) has been almost as efficient against the Giants whom he's whipped five times in seven starts this year.

Despite Brooklyn's stunning 10-0 victory Tuesday, the Giants were a 6 1/2-5 choice to turn the tables and earn the right to meet the Yankees in an all-New York World Series starting Thursday at 12 noon (CST).

The weatherman predicted "fair and warmer" with the temperature

Milwaukee Winner Over Montreal
MILWAUKEE, Oct. 3. (AP)—After tying the Little World Series at two games each with a 4-2 victory Tuesday night, the Milwaukee Brewers will take the field against Montreal tonight behind Ernie Johnson, best pitcher in the American Association.

Hamp Coleman is expected to work for the pennant winners and playoff champions of the International League.

In the low 80's and moderately fresh winds, contrary to the gloomy, rainy weather which marred Tuesday's game.

Experts conceded a slight edge to the Giants because Maglie was to pitch with his normal three-days rest. He last worked Saturday, shutting out the Braves in Boston on five hits.

On the other hand, Newcombe hurled a shutout in Philadelphia the same night and then, in an emergency, added five and two-thirds more innings of shutout ball in relief on Sunday. That meant three calls in five days for big Don and his fourth in an eight-day span.

Maglie, winner of 23 games and loser of only six, has beaten the Dodgers five times in six decisions. He was 4-0 against them last year.

16 Games This Week Feature Unbeaten 11's

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

Associated Press Sports Writer

Sixteen games matching undefeated teams headline the week's schedule in Texas schoolboy football.

There are 116 unbeaten, eleven left in the four divisions that play to state championships, 51 in Class A where the trimming is due to be heavy this week-end.

The battle of Lamar (Houston) and Brownsville is a major game. Lamar is one of the top-rated teams of Class AAAA; Brownsville is unbeaten and untied in Class AAA.

Another headliner sends Abilene of AAAA against Breckenridge-powerhouse of Class AAA.

Other tests will be the clash of Midland and Brownwood and Cleburne and Longview in Class AAA. These teams like Lamar, Brownsville, Abilene and Breckenridge are undefeated and untied.

In the entire state there are only 97 unbeaten, untied teams of the 469 that started the campaign in early September. Nineteen more teams are undefeated but have been tied.

Class AA has its big games too. The fight of Wharton, a championship favorite, and Cuero headlines. Both are unbeaten and untied.

Stamford, undefeated and untied, plays Seymour, unbeaten but tied, while Brownfield and Seminole, a couple of undefeated but tied eleven, get together.

In two instances Class A teams step up to whack at AA teams. Wilmer-Hutchins, Class A power, moves against Carrollton, Class AA, and Roscoe, Class A, plays Hamlin, Class AA. All four of these teams are undefeated and untied.

Battles between unbeaten, untied teams in Class A are Clarendon vs Panhandle, Seagraves vs Abernathy, Big Lake vs Iraan, Honey Grove vs Hawkins, Mathis vs George West and Boerne vs Hondo.

Kenedy and Palacios, a couple of undefeated teams but with ties on their records, also meet.

In Class A the Clarendon-Panhandle game is a conference affair in District 1, so is Big Lake and Iraan in District 5, Palacios and Kenedy in District 27, Boerne and Hondo in District 28 and Mathis and George West in District 30.

De-Emphasis Of Game Is Talked
NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 3. (AP)—A six-point program for de-emphasis of intercollegiate football was offered today by Chancellor Harvie Branscomb of Vanderbilt University, who said certain aspects of the sports were "educationally wrong."

In his annual "state of the university" message, Branscomb said over-emphasis has compelled Vanderbilt toward a new policy concerning football and "only by some such program can football be saved as an undergraduate activity."

The six points were: Reduction of time demanded of the college football player, specifically elimination of spring practice.

Elimination of bowl games xxx because they place such extraordinary premiums upon winning.

Reduction in the number of football scholarships to a point where the Athletic budget is no longer a major financial risk of the year.

Limitation of intercollegiate competition to bona fide college students and planning of physical education courses, when offered, from the standpoint of the student's future service to society rather than from the standpoint of getting and keeping athletes in school.

Elimination of unlimited substitutions which result in a boy's being trained for one play or one type of play xxx and in a specialization foreign to the amateur sport.

Elimination of special funds for current athletic support, whether contributed by race tracks, downtown quarterback clubs or alumni.

Big Spring 9th Graders, Wolf B Play To Tie

COLORADO CITY, Oct. 3. —Colorado City's B team scored in the final three minutes of play to tie the Big Spring Ninth Graders, 13-13, in a slam-bang football game played here Tuesday night.

The Wolfpups resorted to a pass play on fourth down to hit the Jackpot from five yards out after three scrimmage tries had lost four yards. Charley Salmon went across on an aerial from Bill Williams.

Big Spring led at the half, 7-6. A pass from Bobby Blum, to Don Reynolds ate up 18 yards for the first Big Spring TD and Brick Johnson ran across the point.

Colorado City banked a six-point lead in the first period when Bobby Richardson counted on a 15-yard jaunt.

Early in the fourth quarter, Buddy Cosby rammed across the double stripes from four yards out to put the Yearlings ahead again.

The scoring climax came a 50-yard drive.

Most of the contest was fought in the middle of the field. The Colorado City reserves outweighed the Big Springers, both in the line and the secondary.

Starting Lineups:
COLORADO CITY — Preston and Salmon, ends; Lockett and Coffey, tackles; Miller and Enels, guards; Shoemaker, center; Shindliff, Galtney, Richardson and Whitman, backs.

BIG SPRING — Reynolds and Isaacs, ends; Graves and Nance, tackles; Mifam and Lackey, guards; Robinson, center; Reid, Taylor, Johnson and Cosby, backs.

Ray Todd, Hurt In Game, Leaves Local Hospital
Ray Todd, Big Spring griddler injured in Saturday night's game with Snyder, was removed to his home from the hospital Tuesday.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Todd.

Ray suffered a head injury in a collision with a Snyder player and collapsed at his home after the game.

Big State League May Go Class A
FORT WORTH, Oct. 3. (AP)—Prospects were considered good today that the Big State league will advance from Class B to Class A for next season.

President Howard Green of the league said this question would be considered Oct. 14 when the league holds its annual fall meeting in Dallas.

Raising from Class B to Class A will mean hiking the salary limit from $4,000 per month per club to $5,700. It thus will mean having better ball players.

Many Area Lads On Miner Team, Enemy Of ACC

EL PASO, Oct. 3.—When the Texas Western College Miners travel to Midland to play Abilene Christian College on Oct. 6, they will be playing on a neutral field but it will be "homecoming" for a large number of Miners who hail from the West Texas area.

Odessa, long a contributor of a large number of top-flight football players to Texas Western, leads the Permian-Basin cities with five—and all are first-stringers.

Midland is home for four outstanding freshman members of the Texas Western squad. Other West Texas cities represented on the Miner team are Wink, Monahans, Crane, Andrews, Stanton, Brownfield, Merkel, Haskell, and Albany.

Former Odessa High School ace now starring for Texas Western are J. D. Partridge, 165-pound All-Border Conference end and team captain; Gerald Campbell, a senior and one of the most outstanding safety men in the Southwest; Paul Matejowski, senior quarterback and first-stringing linebacker; Roy Heard, 195-pound sophomore and first-stringing defensive tackle; and T. W. Harvey, a sophomore and first-stringing offensive halfback.

Coming from Midland are Jack Burris, a speedster who could break into the win column in its game with San Angelo.

Other West Texans performing for Texas Western are Pat Drummond, sophomore halfback, and Bobby Carman, outstanding freshman center, from Wink; Alvin Whaley, first-stringing senior tackle, and Henry Cook, freshman guard, from Crane; Howard Greenlee, first-stringing defensive guard, and Curtis Elam, freshman end, from Monahans; Don Floyd, freshman fullback from Andrews; LeRoy Gibson, freshman halfback from Stanton; Coy Jones, first-stringing senior letterman guard from Brownfield; Jim Walker, first-stringing offensive end from Merkel; Billy Davis, freshman scat-back, and Edward Ammons, first-stringing defensive end, from Haskell; and Clovis Riley, first string halfback from Albany and a transfer from Odessa Junior College.

Texas Western's last Permian Basin appearance was in 1948 when the Miners trimmed McMurry College in Odessa.

Stanton To Vie With Crosbyton
STANTON, Oct. 3.—The Stanton Buffaloes seek their first victory of the 1951 football season Friday night when they take on Crosbyton in Crosbyton.

Crosbyton is a member of District 3-A while Stanton was promoted to 4-A this season.

The Bison opened the season by losing to Big Spring B, 6-0, then tied Grandfalls, 6-0, before dropping a 26-0 decision to Coahoma.

Byron Townsend May Miss Game

By BO BYERS

AUSTIN, Oct. 3. (AP)—Memo to Coach Carl Snavely of North Carolina:

Unless a norther blows in, it may be almost as hot for Saturday's North Carolina-Texas game as in 1947, when the temperature helped Texas beat North Carolina, 34-0.

The temperature may be close to 90 Saturday.

Probable loss of Fullback Byron Townsend for this week's game was reported by Texas Coach Ed Price Tuesday.

The battering ram line plunger is suffering a bruised sacrum.

Townsend was the mainstay of the Longhorns last year, setting a new NCAA record by carrying the ball 228 times in the regular season. He scored the Southwest Conference scoring title with 14 touchdowns.

Price figures North Carolina will be tougher than Kentucky or Purdue, which Texas defeated 7-6 and 14-0, respectively, to gain No. 6 ranking in the Associated Press poll.

North Carolina has a better balanced team than Kentucky. Kentucky is an unbalanced team. Stop Babe Parilli and you stop Kentucky. North Carolina has good running, good passing and a tough defense.

SWEETWATER FOE

Yearlings Play Thursday Night

Originally scheduled for Saturday night, the Big Spring-Sweetwater C team football game has been moved up to 7:30 p.m. Thursday. Athletic Director Carl Coleman announced Tuesday.

The contest affords local football followers another look at what appears to be the strongest Yearling team here in history.

The Big Springers are unbeaten in three games played to date. In those three starts, against the strongest kind of opposition, the Yearlings have 72 points while holding the opposition scoreless.

Thursday's contest will be the first home game for Big Spring since they vanquished Crockett of Odessa here Sept. 15.

The Big Spring B team will go to Sweetwater for an afternoon game Saturday. The fireworks begin at 2 p.m. That engagement originally was booked to begin at 8 p.m.

It's now Midland against the field in District 1-AAA.

After three weeks of play, the Bulldogs are the only club without a defeat to mar its record.

Vernon shared the top rung with Midland until last week, when powerful Pampa of 1-AAAA ran through, over and around the Lions to ring up a 26-0 victory.

The conference's record against outside shows eight victories against ten losses. Of the district's six teams, Big Spring and Sweetwater are still without a victories. The Mustangs, of course, have been meeting much the tougher opposition.

Followers can get a better look on the Midland club this week, when the Bulldogs play host to the dangerous Brownwood Lions. The Lions feature an attack-built Leonardus Frye, perhaps the best all-round back in the state of Texas.

Sweetwater will be favored to break into the win column in its game with San Angelo.

Yanks Seeking Repeat In '51
By ORLO ROBERTSON
NEW YORK, Oct. 3. (AP)—Baseball's 48th world series opens Thursday—a fact that may have been overlooked in the furor of the Brooklyn Dodgers and the New York Giants trying to decide the winner of the National League pennant.

A few things are certain. The New York Yankees will represent the American League in quest of their third straight world championship.

Allie Reynolds, winner of 17 games, including two no-hitters, will pitch the opener for the Yankees.

The games will start at 12 noon (CST). The first two will be played at the Yankee Stadium, the third, fourth and fifth, if necessary, in the National League winners' park and the next two, also if necessary, on the Yankees' grounds.

The other facts are in the laps of the gods and the pitching arms of Sal Maglie of the Giants and big Don Newcombe of the Dodgers. In their mound performances today lies the answer to the question of whether it'll be Leo Durocher's miracle men of New York or Charlie Dressen's power-packed Dodgers of Brooklyn that'll bid for baseball's highest honors against the favored Yankees.

Money Shortage Blamed For Ills At Sanatorium

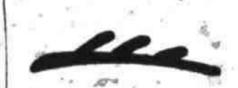

SANATORIUM, Tex., Oct. 3. (AP)—Money shortages were blamed for McNight Sanatorium's food and medical problems Tuesday and state lawmakers investigating the situation urged officials to go over their budget to feed the hungry patients.

Reps. Jack Weisener and Jack Fisk indicated they would ask Gov. Shivers to put the hospital's problems before a special session of the legislature. They flew to Sanatorium after letters from constituents complained about food and medical care.

Sanatorium and state hospital spokesmen blamed most of the ill on money shortages, which they said the hospital created when the House Finance Committee cut the hospital appropriations in the face of rising food costs and an increasing number of patients.

The probers quoted officials as saying patients were fed on a budget of 72 cents per person a day. The representatives said practically all patients interviewed told them the food could be improved and several said food was poorly prepared and from poor quality stock. Fisk said they would talk with the State Hospital Board to find out more about the hospital's problems.

TEXAS BRANDS

By JOHN M. HENDRIX
The Buckhorn was registered in 1895 in Menard County by Jo T. Callan. It was selected because it was easy to make with a running iron and hard to disguise.

The Buckhorn was never one of the larger ranches of the section, usually running from 400 to 600 cattle on a ranch of approximately 5,000 acres. In 1936 the brand was still being run by its original owners.

Mild Weather Over The U.S.

By The Associated Press
It looked like another day of mild weather for most of the nation today. The early October warm spell by-passed the Northern New England region.

Summer-time temperatures were reported Tuesday over wide areas, with readings in the 80's as far north as southern parts of Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan. The 99 at Fort Worth was a record high for the date. Top mark was 102 at Presidio, Tex.

The warmest area extended from the Southern Great Lakes region southward and eastward to the Atlantic and Gulf Coasts and southward to the Far Southwest.

Showers and thunderstorms were reported early today in the Northern Great Lakes region southward into Iowa and Northern Illinois. Showers also hit parts of Montana and the Pacific Northwest.

Bears No Hatred For Man Who Killed Her Daughter

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3. (AP)—Mrs. Dorothea Willard Hooker descendant of two Presidents—said today she bears no hatred for Thomas Cahill, unemployed bellhop who told police he slashed her daughter to death.

"I bear him no ill-will. I cannot find it in my heart to hate him," Mrs. Hooker said. She flew from New York to claim the body of her daughter, Dorothea, 28, Cahill's common-law wife.

Mrs. Hooker, of Newport, R. I., is a descendant of Presidents John Adams and John Quincy Adams. "Out of this tragedy," she said, "I know will come some good. It will teach people there is no happiness in alcohol."

Cahill said heavy drinking preceded the knifing in his dingy flat. He told police he slashed Dorothea repeatedly with a butcher knife Thursday after she arose from bed and threatened to leave him. Then, drunk and hysterical, he sat beside the nude body in a macabre wake that lasted three days and nights.

Finally, he realized his crime... notified police and surrendered.

their common-law status a secret; that they couldn't marry because he has a wife in the East.

Mrs. Hooker said she is determined to find the couple's son, Michael, born in 1948. Cahill said the child is in a foster home.

"I'll take him back to Newport with me — to bring him up as a Hooker, proud of his name," she said.

Police said Cahill's sister, Lt. Mary Cahill, a Navy nurse stationed at Bremerton, Wash., told them: Her brother, "never mentally well," was given a psychiatric discharge from the Navy. She also conformed Cahill's story that he was estranged from his family and that his father, now dead, was a wealthy Philadelphia tavern owner. Psychiatrists are examining Cahill.
