PLANS BEING FINALIZED FOR JULY FOURTH CELEBRATION

The Frank A. Gray Park Association members are finalizing plans for the big all-day July 4th celebration at the Frank A. Gray Memorial Park on Monday, July 4th.

A very important meeting will be held at the Senior Citizens Center on Thursday, June 23rd at 7:30 p. m. All park association officers, board members, and committee members need to be present. All others interested in the success of the celebration are urged to attend.

All committees have been busy planning a full day of activities for young and old.

The usual turtle races and frog jumping contests will be held, so boys and girls plan now to locate your frogs and turtles. The ever popular balloon and bubble gum, sack race, three legged race, water melon and tobacco spitting contests will be held, also broad jump, egg toss, tug of war and a dunking pond for all ages will be an interesting attraction.

There will be volleyball games and games of dominoes and 42 tournament - for the old youth and adults.

A booth will be open for face painting for the younger group.

A beef barbecue dinner will be catered by John Miears of De Leon. Lemonade, soft drinks, iced tea, snow cones, cobbler and baked goods will be for sale throughout the day.

A grand musical program is

PRESS POINTS . . . Joe Bennett, Publisher

We regret having to leave out some news this week because of lack of space. But with less advertising we simply don't have enough space. We will print what was left out in next weeks paper.

Be sure and read the Sav-On-Food ad in this weeks issue. They have some good specials. Check it over and then tell Randall and the others that you saw their ad in the Progress. We'll appreciate it.

Received a couple of letters and will pass them on:
Dear Joe;

I pray you can read this but I have a diabetic problem with my hands which makes it very difficult. Anyway, Cody and I are showing our ages, but with the kids help still live planned with many different groups performing beginning at 2 p. m. Activities will begin at 10 a. m. with the raising of the flag and the National Anthem. Mayor Graydon Baze will be the guest speaker. A large fireworks display will be at dark, climaxing the fun-filled day. It promises to be a great day for the entire family, so come and join in the celebration.

NEW PARSONAGE FAMILY FOR FIRST UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

The Reverend Norman W. Bruner and wife, Nell, are the new parsonage family for the First United Methodist Church of Gorman. They moved into the parsonage on Wednesday.

SENIOR CITIZENS NEWS

Mozelle Rhymes

Ima Lee Burleson accompanied her granddaughter, Julia and Toby Morris, to Six Flags. They met another granddaughter, Kathy Thompson of Texarkana, Bonnie Burleson and Connie Phillips and children of Mexia.

Jessie Lee Jones and Purnia Faye Smith visited last week in Houston with Jessie Lee's son, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Eison and her granddaughter, Lea Ann. They also visited with their nephew, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Sellers, while there.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Browning and Lottie Morris spent Saturday afternoon with Joe Bob and Ruth Brown-

The Rev. Bruner will be pastor for the Gorman and Laurel Street United Methodist Church of Dublin.

Born in Evansville, Indiana, he entered the ministry in 1946 at Bisbee, Arizona. He served in the Central Texas Conference from 1965 to 1968. He also served in the North Texas Conference from 1968 to 1975, before returning to the Central Texas Conference in 1975 until the present. He served in the U. S. Army from 1945 to 1948 and served in the U. S. Air Force from 1955 to 1963.

Rev. Bruner received his BA degree from Franklin College of Indiana in 1954. He also did graduate study in Psychology and Education at the University of Arizona in Tucson. He received his Master of Theology at Perkins School of Theology at SMU in 1968. He taught elementary school and special education in Tucson. He was married to Nell Wilson Reed McLean on September 15, 1956 in Wichita Falls. The couple have two daughters: Patricia Nell McLean Daves of Cedar Hill and Mary Jane McLean Jackson of Johnson City, Tenn.; and four grandchildren, Mark Jackson of Austin, Paul Daves of Cedar Hill, Michelle Daves Pena of Cedar Hill, and Scott Jackson of Johnson City, Tenn.; and also one greatgrandson, Joseph Lee Pena of Cedar Hill.

The Bruners come to Gorman from Bangs.

Bro. Bruner replaces Bro. Rawlyn Richter and family who have moved to Stephenville.

We welcome this new family to Gorman.

Ozella Pulley and Bill Barr Honored By Methodists

Ozella Pulley and Bill Barr were recognized at the Sunday, June 12 worship service at the First United Methodist Church as members of longest standing in the church.

Both joined the church on the third Sunday, June 16, 1916. They have been continuous members for 72 years.

They were presented certificates of recognition by Rev. Rawlyn Richter. The recently printed church history book was dedicated to Ozella and Bill.

Other members of long standing in the church were Ruth Higginbottom, 67 years; Wilbur Shell, 66 years; Pauline Dennis, 65 years; Dean Kirk, 64 years; R. C. Mehaffey, 57 years; Harold Mehaffey, 56 years; James Jobe, 54 years; Velma Bennett, 53 years; and Billy Fred Jeffs, 50 years.

ing in Brownwood.

Visiting in the home of Anna Rush last week were her brother, Ralph Neves, wife, Betty and granddaughter, Tracy of Davenport, Iowa.

Anna Rush and Estelle Erwin were in Roby on Saturday to attend the funeral of Anna's sister-in-law, Ethel Neves.

We welcomed Norman and Nell Bruner on Tuesday. He is the new pastor for the United Methodist Church of Gorman. It was a pleasure to have them and Ron Carroll of the First Baptist, Curtis and Nita Maness of the Church of Christ, Marion and Anne Dennis, Joyce Dennis of the Congregational Methodist, Richard, Connie, Rachel and Leah of New Hope Baptist. All ministers and their families are always welcome at the Center.

It was good to have Nona Bond (and her fresh greens) back. We miss each one when they are absent.

We are planning a house warming for Anna Rush on Monday, June 27th at 7 p. m. Everyone is invited. A money tree is being "Grown" at the Senior Center.

Father Day Celebration Enjoyed At Park

On Sunday, June 19, Fathers Day was celebrated at Frank A. Gray Memorial Park by the Cecil Robertson family.

All the fathers sat under the shade and relaxed (the ladies did the cooking). It is nice out there and everyone had a great time.

The crowd was down for the day.

Those in attendance were Cecil and Neva Robertson, Donnie and Nelda Mauney, Billy Fred and Mary Jeffs, Howard and Pat Hagood, Gary Sammie, Don, Shannon and Christina Mauney, Kelly Johnson, Bill and Kathy Hagood, Brandon Powell, Tona Warren Brenda Morris, all of Dale Warner of Baltimore, Md. visited in the Center Tuesday afternoon. He was trying to find a post card about Texas.

KEEPING UP WITH FRIENDS

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Lasater, Lori and Whitney of Eastland, visited Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Lasater and Mrs. Alvin Lasater.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwayne Clement of Dallas visited Friday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Porter and Mrs. J. A. Clement.

Bro. Melvin Fields of Proctor preached at the Kokomo Baptist Church on Sunday for Bro. Clarence Wilson, who was on vacation. Mrs. Fields and their grandson, Scott Dalina of Oklahoma accompanied Bro. Fields to Kokomo for both services. Cody Falls of Arlington was also a visitor.

Mrs. Mamie Little was able to be back in church on Sunday after being out for awhile following eye surgery.

Bro. Fields read a poem dedicated to all fathers in the congregation to honor them on Father's Day.

Rosa Aguilar of Eastland was visiting with Nancy Hendricks on Saturday afternoon.

Nancy Hendricks visited in Clyde on Sunday afternoon with Roy, Sylvia, Kelly and Yancey Buchanan.

Our sincere sympathy to the family of Dale Gilmore of Gorman, who passed away last week. He was the uncle of Durwood Burgess of our community.

Joe Miles and his grandmother, Mrs. Mary Miles, shared honors on Friday night when his parents, Glenda and Roddy Miles, honored them with a birthday supper in their home on Rt. 4, Abilene. Joe's birthday was Saturday, June 18 and Mrs. Miles' birthday was on Wednesday, June 15.

Grilled steaks and all the trimmings were served along with the birthday cake and home made ice cream. The birthday cake was baked and beautifully decorated by Joe's sister, Sheri Miles, and had the inscription "Happy Birthday" Ah-Ma and Joe. The cake was decorated with blue flowers and blue candles.

Those helping Joe and Mrs. Miles celebrate were Robert and Diane Miles, Brent Carter, Joyce and Glenn Carter, and Debbie Carter and a friend, Angie of Hodges, J. J. Taylor of Tye, Glenn and Zelda Jordan of Kokomo and Roddy, Glenda and Sheri Miles.

Joe celebrated his 19th birthday further on Saturday night by winning first place in his heat and the trophy dash and second in the feature race at the Abilene Speedway in the street stock car races.

Robert Miles had tough luck on Saturday night, getting his car sandwiched between other cars and it had to be taken from the track.

On Saturday, Glenda and Sheri Miles and Zelda Jordan attended the birthday celebration honoring Mrs. Mary Miles at the University Inn retirement home. Matt Marsh, music director at the Southside Baptist Church in Abilene, entertained the group with old time favorite songs. Anna Danley, pianist of the church, accompanied him on the piano. The birthday cake, decorated in pink and white, was served with punch to the residents of the University Inn and guests attending the party.
