Commissioner of Agriculture, estimated flood damage in the lower Rio Grande Valley at 5 million dollars. He has estimates on loss to cotton and vegetable growers and said that the vegetable loss would be the higher.

Thunderstorms lashed the Valley again Wednesday. In McAllen the water rose axle-high to automobiles before water drained from the streets, and the business district had to close up for a few hours.

Some 400 persons, perhaps 500, were evacuated from their homes in the flood-stricken valley towns Wednesday and Wednesday night.

There was little danger apparently. The flood waters were not deep in most places. Cars traveled over highways axle-deep in water. Some exuberant souls joy-ridered in motor boats over the deeper sections.

Valley authorities said most of Wednesday's rains—up to 11 inches in some areas—should drain into the Rio Grande by mid-morning Thursday.

Showers and local thunderstorms were expected to continue ahead of the cold front Thursday and Thursday night.

Drought Aid Plea Is Given To Governor

AUSTIN (AP)—Easier credit terms for small business men and farmers in West Texas is urgently needed despite recent rains in the area, officials of 28 counties told Gov. Allan Shivers today.

Spokesmen for the counties told Shivers unemployment is rising in their area because many businesses have gone broke. They wanted a public works program to furnish jobs.

Shivers outlined the flood relief and highway work projects already under way in the drought area, and suggested the West Texans also make quick contact with their congressmen.

Counties represented today were Motley, Midland, Hansford, Gaines, Andrews, Yoakum, Cochran, Martin, Cottle, Childress, Wheeler, Dickens, Kent, Seurry, Stonewall, Fisher, Hall, Lipscomb, Lubbock, Dawson, Ochiltree, Terry, Garza, Mitchell, Roberts, Glasscock, Collingsworth, Howard.

McMorries told the governor, as more than 50 West Texans crowded around, that the rains have helped but far from broken the drought. Even if it is broken, he said, severe damage has been done. Crops are ruined, credit is severely strained, land is wind eroded.

"If there is any way to get more liberal loans to small businesses and to farmers, that's what we need," McMorries said. He said in many areas the drought has extended over a three to four-year period.

Lands In U.S. Saying Unity Can Stem Tide

By OWEN CRUMB SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles returned to the United States today and said he was "well satisfied" with the results of his talks in London and Paris on Indochina.

Dulles discussed the matter this week in London with British Foreign Secretary Eden and with French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault in Paris.

He pointed out that Thailand already had agreed to participate in the proposed 10-nation alliance and added "now President Magsaysay of The Philippines has indicated acceptance in principle."

In Paris, American sources conceded formal negotiations for the proposed alliance probably could get under way before the Geneva conference on the Far East, scheduled to open April 28.

State Department aides in Washington said "working parties" would be set up within a few days to chart specific steps toward forming the united front in the shortest possible time.

Dulles was reported anxious to get talks on the Pacific pact started as soon as possible to help counter any expansionist ambitions the Russians and Communist Chinese might bring to Geneva.

Secret Quizzing Set In Schine Case Probe

By G. MILTON KELLY
WASHINGTON (AP)—Secret questioning of witnesses was ordered today in the row between Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) and top Army officials who have filed a new "bill of particulars" accusing the senator of improper pressure tactics.

An informed source said the Army's detailed statement of its case, handed to the Senate investigation subcommittee yesterday, was "stronger against McCarthy" than the original report which touched off the inquiry.

Trouble developed in the Army camp when Frederick G. Fisher, who in Boston has been dropped as one of the special lawyers for the Army in the controversy.

J. N. Welch, chief of the special counsel for the Army, confirmed in Washington that Fisher was out, on Welch's motion, because of former membership in the National Lawyers Guild.

"I didn't want a diversionary affair," Welch said.

When he took the Army case, Welch said, he picked William St. Clair, a member of his Boston law firm, as his chief assistant, and asked St. Clair to name another man to help. The choice was Fisher, also in the Boston law office.

Discussing the assignment with Fisher a few hours after he came to Washington, Welch said he asked if Fisher had ever "belonged to any group now looked on with disfavor."

Fisher, he related, said he once was in the Lawyers Guild. And Welch told him, "I don't think that would be better to get another man."

The Guild is currently fighting a move by Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell to have the subversive activities control board cite the group as subversive.

By mutual consent, Welch said, Fisher stepped out.

He said Fisher resigned from the Lawyers Guild some three years ago.

HARVEY HOOSER

Harvey Hooser Announces For County Attorney

Harvey C. Hooser Jr. today became a candidate for the office of County Attorney. He filed for the office subject to action of the Democratic primaries.

His announcement follows: "I am taking this opportunity to announce my candidacy for my first elective term for the office of County Attorney for Howard County, Texas. I do so after giving much thought to the matter, and after much encouragement from many, my friends. This is the first time that I have sought public office and I want very much to have the opportunity of serving the people of Howard County."

"As most of you know, I have lived in Big Spring and Howard County for over twenty-five years, having attended the elementary schools and high school in Big Spring. I am proud to say that I was in the first graduating class of Howard County Junior College. Thereafter, I attended Baylor University where I received my law degree and received my license to practice law in the spring of 1950."

"I have been associated with my father in the practice of law until my appointment to fill the unexpired term as County Attorney of my brother, Hartman Hooser, who resigned to enter the private practice of law. I feel that since I have been a resident here so long, I know the conditions that exist in Howard County which will give me a better understanding of problems arising within the realm of the County Attorney's office. My education and experience as an attorney, I believe, will enable me to carry out the duties of County Attorney orderly and efficiently."

"At the present time, I am engaged in clearing the criminal docket and will not be able to see all of the voters of Howard County. I shall see many of you, but if I fail to contact you, please remember that I am endeavoring to operate the office on a current basis which necessitates considerable time. If you are not acquainted with any phase of my qualifications or integrity, please ask someone who knows me, and I shall be content with their comments."

"I am asking for the office upon my own merits, and the only promise that I make, have made or will make, is that I shall carry out the duties of County Attorney in a fair, impartial and efficient manner and I earnestly ask that you give me the opportunity to make good on this promise."

Patrol Lists 56 Accidents During March

Fifty-six accidents — four of them fatal — were investigated by Texas Highway Patrolmen of the Sixth (Lubbock) District during March, a report from the district office shows.

Four persons were killed in the four fatal accidents. There were 30 accidents resulting in personal injuries and a total of 36 persons were hurt in the wrecks.

Property damage resulting from 32 mishaps amounted to $41,940 during the month, according to the report.

Most of the wrecks occurred on state and federal highways. There were 44 mishaps on the highways, eight on farm to market roads, two on county dirt roads, and two accidents in small towns.

Excessive speed was blamed for 42 per cent of the 56 accidents. The practice of following too closely contributed to 13 per cent of the wrecks and drunken driving was the cause of seven per cent of the crashes. The Highway Patrol said. Failure to yield right-of-way and driving on the wrong side of the road caused the remainder of the accidents.

In the enforcement of traffic regulations, Highway Patrol officers made 305 arrests — 192 for speeding, 22 for drunk driving, 28 for stop sign or signal violations, and 23 for the use of defective equipment.

In addition, 1,183 drivers were warned for hazardous violations. Patrolmen assisted 350 motorists who had encountered trouble on the highway. The officers travelled a total of 59,705 miles during the month.

A total of $7,310 in fines was collected in the 21-county Sixth District as a result of tickets issued by the Highway Patrol.

Housing Here Now Adequate

It is the consensus among members of the housing committee of the Chamber of Commerce that the supply of homes here takes care of the demand.

In a meeting yesterday, members voiced the opinion that the greatest need in Big Spring at present is for two and three-bedroom unfurnished rental houses.

Members of the committee, among whom are some building contractors, pointed out that few of the larger houses are now being constructed. Reason is that the high rent necessary for a return on the investment is hard to obtain.

It was pointed out by those present that two bedroom houses can be purchased for a down payment of $250 or $350 and about $50 per month. This is much cheaper than they can be rented.

Champ Rainwater, manager of the Empire Southern Gas Company, reported that there has been a net increase of around 150 families in Big Spring since Jan. 1.

Contractors said there were about that many houses constructed in the same length of time, leaving the opinion that supply takes care of demand. M. A. Cook is chairman of the committee.

Police said his real name is Christopher Columbus Howard Blair.

His attorney, Robert Zanville, said he would seek to have the waiver dropped.

Ousted Navy Worker Asks Reason Why

WASHINGTON (AP)—A long-time employe of the Navy's hydrographic office said today he had been fired without explanation after being cleared by a security hearing board. He questioned whether anti-semitism was involved.

Abraham Chasanow, who started in the office 23 years ago at $1,440 a year and became a $8,360 distribution control officer, protested that he has always been "a firm believer in our Constitution and our democratic and capitalist system."

Through Atty. Joseph A. Fanelli, Chasanow asked reconsideration of a decision dated April 7 by J. H. Smith Jr., assistant secretary of the Navy for air, which held Chasanow to be a security risk. Smith said he acted after a second review board reversed the first panel's findings.

Chasanow lives in nearby Greenbelt, Md., originally a big government-owned housing project, but sold in 1953 to the Veterans Housing Corp. under a plan which enabled tenants to buy their homes or apartments.

In asking the Navy that the reasons for Smith's decision be set forth and that it be reconsidered and reversed, Fanelli wrote: "There are but five members of the Jewish faith who are both residents of Greenbelt and employes of the hydrographic office. "All five of the Jews have had security difficulties with the hydrographic office. All the Gentiles remain undisturbed. In the absence of a statement of reasons for the adverse decision of the assistant secretary, it may well be believed that the proceedings which led to that decision were tainted with anti-semitism."

else than in the armed services."

In Dallas, Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) said he has considered Oppenheimer a security risk for years, and he added: "One man is a key spot can do more damage than a thousand in little ones."

The senator also told newsmen he is "deeply concerned about security on new developments of the H-bomb" and said, "We've got our eyes on some other fellow besides Oppenheimer."

Oppenheimer has successfully undergone various security clearances in the past. But under 1953 rules laid down by the Eisenhower administration, all persons against whom there had been "substantial" derogatory information were ordered re-investigated.

Notified of his suspension, Oppenheimer in March requested a hearing. Under AEC rules the hearing board had to be made up of private persons who had not "prejudged" the case and whose trustworthiness was so great they could bear evidence bearing on inner secrets of the AEC.

The assignment fell to former Secretary of the Army Gordon Gray, now University of North Carolina president, who is chairman. Thomas A. Morgan, former president of the Sperry Corp., and Dr. Ward V. Evans, chemistry professor at Loyola University, Chicago.

Benson Voted Funds He Hadn't Requested

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST
 WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department held the distinction today of being the first big federal agency in recent years to win House approval of more money than it asked.

House action in making addition after addition to the bill recommended by its Appropriations Committee brought an angry declaration from Rep. H. Carl Anderson (R-Minn.) that Secretary of Agriculture Benson ought to circumvent the committee through a secret White House meeting.

"It's not the Congress of the United States writing this bill," said Anderson, head of the subcommittee which wrote it. "Here we are turning over to Mr. Eisenhower and the secretary of agriculture... the right to write the agriculture bill."

The measure, carrying $1,040,602,654 in cash and loan authority for the year starting July 1, was passed by the House yesterday and sent to the Senate. The amount includes $720,102,654 in cash and $320,500,000 in lending authority—$21,300,841 more cash and 45 million more loan authority than the department requested through the Budget Bureau.

Never before in the memory of Appropriations Committee veterans had a big government department been voted more cash than it had requested. The customary procedure is for Congress to cut budget requests.

The House action was a stinging setback for the Appropriations Committee, which had recommended that the department get the exact amount of cash and 45 million more lending authority than it asked.

Anderson said he wasn't invited to a secret White House meeting last Saturday, but he intimated some other House members were. Finally he said that "if the lid has been blown off this bill, and I have no fiscal responsibility," he too would support amendments for additional funds.

The fact that the House approved 10 separate amendments boosting committee recommendations—none of them by close votes—indicated that proponents of bigger allotments, led by Rep. Hunter (R-Calif.), had organized well in advance.

Biggest increase added by the House was $6,452,584 to the school lunch program, which Anderson's committee already had hiked by $9,011,418, and which was allotted $83,464,000 instead of the $8 million requested originally by Benson.

Lesser increases were voted for research, experiment stations, extension service, forest roads and trails, free soil conservation maps, marketing research and state marketing activities. In most cases, the House restored cuts recommended by the Appropriations Committee, which had trimmed some individual items and increased others.

Ruled Not Vital

MUSKOGEE, Okla. (AP)—City officials, seeking to enforce ordinances against Sunday automobile sales, dug into old statutes and found more than they bargained for.

They dusted off an ancient blue law—still in effect—that permits sale of "vital necessities" only after 9 a.m. Sunday. Specifically banned are groceries, cigarettes, fish bait and automobiles.

Insanity Acquittal Returned In Deaths

BUTTE, Mont. (AP)—Acquittal by reason of insanity was the jury's verdict last night for Donald Sutton, 26, charged with murder after his two children were shot to death at the family home last Jan. 25.

The Butte miner was charged with the slaying of his 2-year-old son Ronald. His 4-year-old daughter Donna also was killed in the shooting. Sutton's estranged wife Anita was wounded.

The shooting climaxed an argument that started in a Butte bar. Sutton was found lying on the floor with a bullet wound in the chest.

Cleveland Strike Brings Road Blocks

CLEVELAND (AP)—Police set up three road blocks on streets leading to the Park Drop Forge Co. today, and non-striking workers began the day shift in relative calm.

There was fighting at the plant gates yesterday as CIO pickets were shoved back by mounted police.

Today, with nearly 200 police in the area, barriers were set up a block from the plant. Only persons with proper identification cards were allowed through. Despite a light drizzle, several thousand others milled around near the barriers.

Company officials said the number of workers on duty was "better than yesterday," and estimated the day shift had between 135 to 150 on duty, including supervisors.

Beaumont Union Okays Wage Plan

BEAUMONT (AP)—AFL Ironworkers Union, Local 125, of Beaumont have ended a two-weeks strike after accepting a 10-cent hourly wage increase.

Acceptance of the wage boost agreement was announced last night.

A new contract was to be signed today with the local chapter of the Associated General Contractors and the Sabine Area Construction Committee.

H. H. Mathews, business representative of the ironworkers, said the contract would call for reopening of wage negotiations Sept. 1. Originally, the ironworkers asked a 25-cent boost.

Wife Charged With Poisoning Of Husband

WHITESBURG, Ky. (AP)—The Leitch County grand jury yesterday returned an indictment charging a wife with feeding her husband rat poison in a bottle of soda pop.

The true bill against Mrs. Martha Conner, about 35, charged her with "malicious poisoning."

Her husband, Willie Conner, a coal miner about 40, became violently ill last October and was in a critical condition for several weeks. He is fully recovered.

Investigating officers said the Conners had been arguing shortly before Conner became ill.

Proves Point In Court

BOSTON (AP)—Chipper, 71-year-old Herbert Page told the Municipal Court judge he was innocent of a charge of stealing $2,000 and proved it—with a blowtorch.

Herbert Monahan, 51, of Lexington, said Page induced him to part with the money to help in experiments to produce a "non-inflammable" paint.

Monahan told Judge Frank W. Tomasello he just didn't believe Page had such a paint.

In answer, Page trained a blowtorch on pieces of plaster smeared with his "special" paint. There was much smoke—but no flame.

"There you are, your honor," coughed Page as spectators headed for the exits, "just like I said, the paint doesn't burn."

The judge acquitted him.

Diamond Smuggler Is Given Sentence

NEW YORK (AP)—An Israeli woman, who pleaded guilty to smuggling more than $100,000 worth of uncut diamonds into the United States, yesterday was sentenced to a year and a day in prison.

But Federal Judge Matthew T. Abruzzo told Mrs. Ruth Hakohn, 28, of Tel Aviv, he would reduce her sentence to time already served in jail—if she left the country and paid her own passage to Israel.

Her attorney said he hoped to obtain a visa for her within 30 days. She was arrested last Feb. 10 at Idlewild airport.

New Concrete Plant

Clyde McMahon has moved his ready-mix concrete plant to a new and more convenient location at 605 N. Benton Street in Big Spring. The plant formerly was located in the east part of the city. Transfer of the equipment was accompanied by structural and other improvements and enlargement. Additional expansion is planned. Shown at the plant, above, is part of McMahon's fleet of mixer-trucks, dump trucks and other rolling stock. McMahon is equipped to deliver ready-mix concrete and other building materials to any point in the area, regardless of quantity.

Beard System For LP Gas Is Ideal For Users

Full information on the famous J. E. Beard Safety-Built LP-Gas System, ideal for urban and rural users alike, can be obtained by dialing 4-4661.

That is the number of the S. M. Smith Butane Company, which has its main offices on Highway 87 north at the edge of the city limits in Big Spring.

The Smith concern, a long-time Big Spring business institution, is equipped not only to furnish butane and propane fuel but install and service fuel units, as well.

Users of butane and propane have learned that type of fuel is not only more economical but safer and easier on equipment, too.

The Beard Safety-Built systems are manufactured by pioneers in the development of safe storage equipment for butane, propane and anhydrous ammonia.

The Smith establishment also can install fuel systems on trucks and tractors. An increasing number of farmers are converting tractors to the use of butane, which makes those systems last much longer and provides a greater savings over a period of time.

Butane and propane, combined with rural electrification, have combined to make any old farm homes as modern as any city dwelling.

Visit the S. M. Smith concern for demonstrations of such equipment.

New Frozen Food Unit Is Added At Glen Brown Store

A new frozen food unit has been added to the equipment at Glen Brown's Grocery, 504 West 3rd.

This will enable the store to carry a complete line of frozen foods for customers. Brown says with frozen foods that his store has "everything."

Though small, the store stocks food selections of every type. The shelves are full of cans, bottles, and boxed goods. Vegetables, dairy products, and staple grocery products are plentiful.

As an added attraction, the Glen Brown Grocery also handles drugs and sundries.

Brown and his wife and clerk Jimmy Krumnow specialize in friendly courtesy. The customer's problems are the store's problems, and every effort is made to iron them out. Whoever is on duty is always ready to make table suggestions.

One thing that housewives like about trading at the store is the parking space, Brown says. There is always room for cars around the building.

For those not having automobiles, Brown furnishes quick and free delivery service. His truck will go anywhere in town at any time. All that is necessary is for the customer to place the order by phone, which is 4-7811, and it will be filled and delivered.

Any type meat desired, including luncheon cuts, can be found in the store, Brown himself being the butcher. He will sell any cut the customer desires.

New Item Offered By R&M Iron Works

Another item has been added to the ever-expanding line of products for the home owner and home workshoper at R&M Iron Works, 606 E. 2nd Street in Big Spring.

Latest product being made available by L. L. Miller, owner and manager of the firm, is a line of hairpin table legs.

The wrought iron legs come in three sizes—for tables 12, 14 and 18 inches in height. The table legs are made of blackened iron of the type so popular in many items of modern furniture and household accessories.

The legs are made especially for hobbyists and others who wish to construct their own tables. They come in sets of four.

Each iron table leg is fitted with an L-shaped steel bracket for fastening to the under side of the table top.

Miller and his workmen fabricate the legs in special jigs which assure exact alignment and an identical length.

Television table bases, also made of the round iron, are another furniture item available at the R&M Iron Works. These TV tables are complete except for wood tops and include a rotating plate to which the top may be attached.

Lawn furniture, made of cast aluminum, is stocked at R&M and is expected to become an extremely popular line this spring and summer.

Another product for which the demand is due to increase as residents move outdoors for the summer evenings is the steel, portable barbecue pit manufactured by R&M Iron Works. The barbecue pit, designed for use with charcoal, is mounted on wheels and may be moved about the yard to take advantage of shade or sun.

The pit is equipped with grille for cooking, and has a cover which may be let down during the operation to conserve heat and fuel. Accessories include a grill-type sidebar for placing food and utensils.

R&M Iron Works furnishes residents of the area with other ornamental iron goods, including both cast and wrought iron porch and carport columns, porch and step railings, and similar items. They are available in many different styles.

Any of the R&M products may be inspected at Miller's shop, 606 E. 2nd Street.

Certificates of award for 25 years service in behalf of crippled children were given members at ceremonies at the new headquarters, including G. A. McCullough of Amarillo and Mrs. Hal Horton of Greenville.

British To Push Drive Against Kenya Group

NAIROBI, Kenya (AP)—The British say their two-month attempt to negotiate a peace with the Mau Mau has failed. They promise to push their campaign against the anti-white terrorist organization with new vigor.

Acting Gov. Sir Frederick Crawford, acknowledging that the try at arranging mass surrenders had fallen through, said RAF Vampire jets would aid troops and police in routing out the terrorists.

This Dog's Life Is The Life Of Riley

By ANNE LAFEVER Do you own a dog—or rather, does a dog own you? Don't answer that, because if there is a dog in your family, I know who owns whom. I am the owner (her vaccination certificate says so!) of a coal black bundle of fur—part cocker, part terrier and all affection.

She rules my life from about 5:15 p.m. until about 8:15 a.m. on week-days and all day on Sunday. I am house-keeper, grounds-keeper, cook and chauffeur for this creature that responds to about 30 different words and phrases.

"Punkin" can tell when I am expecting guests, and she always manages to be in the house to greet them at the door with her

Raley Pupils Show Work

Between 150 and 175 guests signed the register Tuesday evening when 45 students of Mrs. Ira C. Raley presented their annual art display in the HICIC library.

The library was arranged with easels scattered among the displays. The tea table held a tiered arrangement of yellow roses with a small model dressed in artist's smock, holding palette and brushes, and "painting" on a tony oil (in reality a miniature original of Grand Canyon) edge by Mrs. Raley. The guest register was in the shape of a palette with a water color "The Old Willow Road" on the front.

A predominance of original work was noticed and in many instances the original model was placed by the painting. Four little ceramic baseball boys inspired an oil, "A Boy's Dream" (glove, bat and ball). This was done by Mr. Raley's youngest pupil, age eight. A yucca and an old steer skull resulted in an original oil, "Desert Contrast," and an old gourd dipper was used in a pencil sketch, "Grandma's Dipper."

Why look older, wear out, fitter for 20? It does each month! Why let everybody know your "line" is here? Thousands of smart girls and women take a little Cardui each day to help hold new energy and resistance. They look, act, sleep better, feel less and lose weight without pain after a while. Stay lovely all month—ask your doctor for Cardui. (Buy "over-the-counter" or by mail.)

favorite toy in her mouth. Usually, it is a black live rubber ball, which the guest must throw again and again. If I wish to get any attention at all, I have to trick or cajole her into going to the backyard. That backyard is her private property. In it she keeps all the current bones, an old glove, a rubber mouse, a ball with a bell in it and an old piece of garden hose. It makes no difference that I wish to plant flowers. She promptly digs them up (she probably thinks that I have just buried a bone) or if they are fortunate enough to grow, she runs them down or lies down on them. I have always been a bird-watcher. That is, until she took charge of the place. Now, a bird just flying over the yard has such a stream of insects buried at it that it doesn't dare to stop long enough for a drink, much less to bathe in the bird-bath!

As for my vacation—I may as well take it either two or three days at a time (so my mother could "dog-it") or go somewhere that she would be welcome. She has me thinking that two weeks away from me would be the end of her. I really think that is just her way to be taken on trips!

Each morning when I leave, she appears most forlorn and when I get home, it is as if I have been gone ages. Really, the boost this gives my ego is worth all the time I spend on her—grooming, feeding, taking her on Sunday afternoon rides—and above all, that inescapable half-hour when I come home from work. I'd so much rather do other things, but a game of ball is expected—and so we have one!

Despite Some Hostility At First, London Listens To Billy Graham

That American phenomenon, Evangelist Billy Graham, reaches the halfway mark during Holy Week in his long siege of London. Good Friday he will speak to a crowd calculated to number 50,000, and at almost every service held at Harringway Arena thousands have been turned away, since the place seats only 11,000.

Korean War Critics Now Find They Face Ironical Situation

WASHINGTON — The Indochina crisis, whatever it may portend eventually, has served immediately to give perspective to our long-range foreign policy problem. This requires a bit of explanation and back-tracking.

Let us go back to the 1952 Presidential campaign. You may remember how the Republicans used the Korean War against the Democrats. It was, you may recall, called "Truman's War" by some and also a "useless war" by so prominent a G. O. P. leader as the late Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio.

To hear the Republican campaign speeches, you would have thought President Truman just went out recklessly and started himself a war. Lost sight of completely was the plain, hard fact that we could do nothing else with honor and for the sake of our national security but stand up and challenge communism when it struck in Korea.

Now, with Dien Bien Phu and the crisis for France, Indochina suddenly has loomed up as another threat similar to Korea. It was, in fact, President Eisenhower, himself, who analyzed the meaning of Indochina most fully—and most pessimistically—in his "falling dominoes" explanation at his news conference last week.

When the Indochina situation became acute, Secretary Dulles busied himself in trying to organize a united front—first, as a preparatory measure to strengthen the Free World allies in the Geneva conference coming up in a few days and, second, for the long Asian haul that may rival Korea. That explains what is regarded in some quarters as his perhaps over-anxious activity in flying off to Europe last weekend.

But at least, he's overlooking nothing. situation for the Republican party. That party, which made such a political shambles of Korea, now in effect has its own Korea, and only so short a time since the Korean peace for which it claims so much credit.

Not even the most partisan Democrats are taking comfort from the Republican discomfort. They've been through the experience of Asiatic aggression and the problems it raises and learned long ago what many Republicans are learning now for the first time in a position of responsibility. So Democrats are not trying to make any political capital out of the Republican dilemma.

HERITAGE DAYS

San Houston sought to enlist support of Texas Indians. President Burnet and his cabinet narrowly averted capture, and the Texan army was organized into regiments on April 15, 1836. "I am determined to fight at the first chance," Houston announced.

EDWARD BURLESON, above, aided Sam Houston in organizing the Texan army and was regimental commander at the battle of San Jacinto. He later was to become vice president of the republic.

This Day In Texas

By CURTIS BISHOP

The empresario contract granted by the Mexican government on this day in 1825 to Robert Leftwich, a Kentuckian, eventually inaugurated one of the stormiest chapters in Lone Star annals. Leftwich had first sought the grant as agent for the Nashville Company, a colonizing organization formed in Tennessee. But after using his own money to the tune of several thousand dollars in his efforts, Leftwich decided instead to secure the grant in his own name.

In 1827 the Mexican government extended the boundaries of the grant making it second in size only to Stephen F. Austin's. Control of the original contract eventually passed into the hands of Sterling C. Robertson, and soon Robertson and Austin became embroiled in a sharp controversy over land titles and their respective rights. Long, acrimonious lawsuits followed. Not until five years after Robertson's death did the Texas courts finally decide that he had held valid title to the lands where he had settled some 600 colonists before the Revolution.

Milk Dates Return

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—Dated milk bottle caps are coming back to Connecticut. Last year, the legislature abolished a law requiring caps to show the date the milk was pasteurized. Housewives protested that without the date they couldn't keep track of which milk should be used up first. Officials decided to restore the date on caps, but it will be the delivery rather than the pasteurization date. Housewives say they don't care which it is providing it's a date.

City Slickers Staying Hitched, Despite H-Bomb Scare Stories

For a nation whose government regards it as too lightly and emotionally unstable to know any of the real truths about the hydrogen bomb, its inhabitants—in the opinion of one woman—are acting cool, real cool, in the face of the destructive horrors they cannot help but glimpse.

Despite the fact that one after another of the nation's highly placed officials has said that the hydrogen bomb can destroy any city in the world, there has been no mass exodus of city slickers from any metropolitan center in the U. S. A. I have not heard of any person fleeing New York, although the daily prints have been filled with predictions, charts and graphs showing that we shall all be incinerated from Bowling Green to the Bronx.

Washington Calling—Marquis Childs

EDC Pact Is Confronted With Prolonged Delays By Italians

ROME — Of the six countries that signed the European Defense Community treaty four—Germany, Holland, Belgium and Luxembourg—have now ratified it. France and Italy have still to act, and the chances are that the Italian Parliament will delay even longer than the Assembly in Paris.

The bill for ratification has just been introduced by Premier Scelba but it has not been put in the urgent category. The timetable is expected to be approximately as follows: One committee of the chamber will take two months to hold hearings and report the bill out. That would bring it to the floor about the middle of June. The question then is whether the Parliament would take a summer vacation or begin immediate consideration of the measure. In any event, the Communists and allied groups with nearly 40 per cent of the seats will be able to prolong the debate for six months, which would mean passage sometime late in the year or, if there is a summer recess, in January.

This is on the assumption that Scelba's center coalition government will remain in power and that it will not, therefore, be necessary to hold new elections. Since the common army, on which so much of the Eisenhower foreign policy depends, cannot come into being until six countries have ratified, this means a prolonged period of uncertainty, with mounting Franco-German tension and the possibility that the whole thing may come unstuck.

responded with a similar move and for a time it looked as though the two countries might go to war over a bit of geography that has changed hands many times. In any event, the State Department in Washington decided no chances could be taken and the pledge to Italy was withdrawn at least temporarily. The Italians are told that they should not connect EDC and Trieste, but they persist nevertheless. For Italy Trieste represents one more recovery in a foreign policy that had frustrated of part of the territory as the principal of three objectives. The other two were admission to the United Nations and conclusion of a peace treaty with the Western allies. The U. N. door has been barred, and covenants formally concluding the war have been worked out with Germany before consideration of similar agreements with Italy. No one seems to know when another attempt will be made to settle the Trieste issue. So it remains a constant source of friction exploited at every turn by the Communists who use any and all weapons against America and the coalition government, which they charge with being completely subservient to American demands. As to the relative strength of Italy and Yugoslavia, the strength of the Yugoslav army on active duty is believed to be from two to three times that of the Italian army. No one disputes, however, the importance of Italian geography. France and Italy are vital to the defense of Western Europe, which is one reason the delaying tactics of its politicians are so frustrating to those who have staked so much on the European army with the incorporation of 12 German divisions. Yet from some quarters—not really responsible officials but among those trying to cope with the problem—the suggestion is being thrown out that a new alignment may be necessary. Great Britain would join with Belgium, Holland, Luxembourg and Germany to form a northern defense axis. In the South reliance would be put on America's retaliatory striking power delivered from peripheral bases in Africa and Spain.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Sports transcript: JIM RIVERA, outfielder for the Chicago White Sox: "They kid me about sliding into a base head first. But you notice I don't break ankles. Besides, I can get into a base faster."

HAROLD BENTLEY, Big Spring High School Track coach: "We don't have a pole vaulter but I'm starting out several kids in junior high who should help us in a few years."

CASEY STENGLER, manager of the New York Yankees, on his antics when he started his baseball career with Mayville, Ky., in the Blue Grass League, which are still talked about. When he'd catch a fly ball, he'd throw it into the infield, sail his glove ahead of him on the grass, then slide into the mitt.

BENNY LEONARD

EGZARD CHARLES, who fights Rocky Marciano in June: "I've fought a lot of strong boys who could hit—solidly, that is. Sure, Marciano is always in shape and it will be a tough fight. But anybody will go if he's hit right, and that works both ways."

ART DALZELL, captain of the Kansas University track team, after running against the great Wes Santee: "He gives me an inferiority complex. I'm out there running my legs off and he passes me like I was standing still."

JOHN BIRDWELL, local footballer, after putting the stop watch on a Steer sprinter in practice and then handing it to a teammate: "Here, you see what it says. I never could read one of those things."

GAYLE TALBOT, AP sports writer: "The Chicago Cubs and Pittsburgh Pirates each appears to be about three new managers away from the first division."

GEORGE TRAUTMAN, president of the minor leagues: "The reduction in the federal tax on baseball admissions doesn't seem like much but, in my judgment, the difference could mean the balance between survival and death of many a minor league team. We have 38 leagues starting the coming season. That's only two less than last year. But I can remember when there were only 14... I think the rule requiring players to carry their glove to the dugout every time they leave the field is all wrong. I see where one league president has stated the rule will be ignored. He can't do that. It's a rule and all leagues and clubs must abide by it."

BENNY LEONARD, the late boxing great, reminiscing about the time he was sternly lectured by his father against fighting, then produced the $35 he had earned: "You got all that dough for just one fight? My son, when do you fight again?"

ROGER HORNSBY: "I'm done with managing. The thrill is gone. I've had it. They said I couldn't handle ball players. My trouble was with club owners. They're the hardest to handle; if you speak out and don't agree with them, you're a bad manager. Anyway, I'm tired of managing second-division clubs."

ARAH PHILLIPS, coach of the Big Spring girls' volleyball team: "We weren't up to par for the first game of our recent series with Lamesa, because several of our girls had taken sun baths earlier in the day and didn't realize what effect it would have upon them."

JOHN CARMICHAEL, Chicago sports writer: "Brooklyn's second string infield of Belardi, Zimmer, Hoak and Morgan is better than any other National League team. The most over-rated team is the Phillies. (The following day the Brooks traded Morgan to the Phils and Zimmer was farmed out.)"

SATCH PAIGE, the old pitcher, now unemployed: "I'll have a baseball job up there again. When those clubs come out of training and all those whizzes have faded. Then there is somebody gonna need somebody."

DEL CRANDELL, Milwaukee catcher, who sprained an ankle in spring training: "I read where orthopedic surgeons say the average man puts a daily work load of 704 tons on each foot. It's hard to believe that until you injure your feet and have to get around on 'em."

BILL STEWART, the big league umpire, in the current Pageant: "We've got strict orders from the baseball commissioner's office to choose our friends, even our acquaintances with care and caution. As you know, we never make any good friends among the ball players. It's one of those impossible situations. I've known umpires who couldn't abide the monastic type existence. They'd hole up in their hotel rooms, begin drinking and their work naturally would suffer. You can't beat the hours, but you've got to stay in shape."

West Success Likely In Keeping Chinese Reds From Arms Talks

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The Soviet Union is trying to ram the Chinese Communists into private U.N.-sponsored big-power disarmament talks. The West wants to keep them out—and probably can.

That situation emerged from yesterday's meeting of the 12-nation U.N. Disarmament Commission, the second in six days on the question of setting up a subcommittee for such talks under the shadow of the H-bomb.

Sir Pierson Dixon of Britain introduced a resolution to name the United States, the Soviet Union, Britain, France and Canada to the subcommittee. He suggested it meet in London.

Andrei Y. Vishinsky of the Soviet Union called this "clearly one-sided." He said Communist China, India and Czechoslovakia also should be included.

Vishinsky held that Communist China belonged on the body as a strong military power and a "legal" member of the 11-nation

U.N. Security Council which with Canada makes up the Disarmament Commission.

Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. of the United States termed this "fallacious and unwise." He said the Na-

Rains Give Boost To Livestock Sale

Wednesday's sale at the Big Spring Livestock Auction Company showed one of the many ways a rain influences a community.

Following Big Spring's heavy showers by less than three days, the sale showed real strength in stocker cattle while butcher stock held the line.

Bulls sold from 14.00 to 15.00, fat cows up to 11.50, and butcher cows from 8.00 to 10.00 and butcher yearlings from 16.00 to 20.00.

Stocker calves went for 20.00, heifer calves up to 18.00, cows beside calves from 125.00 to 140.00 while hogs sold for as high as 27.00.

An estimated 150 cattle and 50 hogs went through the ring.

Police Report 257 Arrests During March

Big Spring police made 257 arrests in March and issued 1,328 traffic tickets.

Total fines for offenders were $4,380.50. Cash collections, according to Acting Chief M. L. Kirby's report, were $2,383.50. Time laid out in jail accounted for another $1,934, leaving only $53 pending at month's end.

City Judge W. E. Greenlee assessed 117 people charged with drunkenness a total of $1,566.

Second offense so far as amount of fines was concerned was petty theft. Five people charged with the offense were fined $525. There were 24 people charged with vagrancy, and their fines were $325.

Traffic tickets for moving violations — 34 — resulted in fines of $341. And 11 people charged with having no drivers license were fined $257.50. There were 23 parking violations and three parking warrants which brought fines of $72. Eight found guilty of mechanical violations were fined $38.50.

Other fines assessed in city court were as follows: one man for assault, $10; one for displaying a deadly weapon, $1; two for abusive language, $20; seven for affray, $126; one for interfering with an officer, $50; five for disturbance, $25; one for destroying private property, $25; and 12 for gaming, $142.50.

Police also arrested individuals turned over to the county, border patrol and Webb who were charged with attempted murder, assault with intent to murder, breaking and entering, burglary, possession of whiskey, robbery, etc.

Four police vehicles traveled a total of 20,025 miles, and there were approximately 1,500 calls to and from the Big Spring police radio station during the month.

Arizona Convict Is Quizzed In Slayings

EL PASO (AP)—Sheriff Jimmy Hicks said yesterday he has questioned an Arizona convict in the 1938 slayings of Mrs. Weston G. Frome, 46, and her daughter, 23-year-old Nancy.

Bodies of the Frome women were found near Van Horn, Tex., 37 years ago, but the case has never been solved. The burned, tortured bodies were found four days after the two women left El Paso in their car.

Hicks said yesterday he developed nothing concrete in questioning the convict but that he was continuing the new investigation.

McCarthy Says San Jacinto Day Topic Unpicked

DALLAS (AP)—Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.) expressed "deep concern about security" on new H-Bomb developments today as he worked on a speech he will deliver in Texas next Wednesday.

But he denied knowing exactly what he would talk on at his Texas Independence Day appearance at San Jacinto battleground near Houston.

It was at San Jacinto that Texas forces under Gen. Sam Houston defeated the Mexican army of General Antonio Lopez de Santa Anna on April 21, 1836.

The controversial Wisconsin Republican said in an interview on his arrival yesterday that his Senate subcommittee on investigations had "our eyes on some other fellows" besides Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer.

Oppenheimer is the atom scientist suspended by the atomic energy commission pending a security check.

"I've considered Dr. Oppenheimer a security risk for years," McCarthy said. "One man in a key spot can do more damage than a thousand in little jobs."

The senator added, "We've got our eyes on some other fellows besides Oppenheimer."

McCarthy also said that "we are deeply concerned about security on new developments of the H-bomb."

"I'm talking about new developments," he explained. "After years of investigating this thing I'm sure we don't have any old secrets left."

The senator, accompanied by his wife Jean, said they would "visit around" and hoped to get in some fishing while awaiting the San Jacinto ceremonies. He also said he hoped to get started on his speech last night although he denied knowing exactly what he would talk about.

The senator said he doesn't think his continuing investigations are confusing U.S. citizens.

"Rather," he said, "the people are deeply disturbed about the security of the nation. And that is a healthy thing."

Whalebone once was worth $10,000 a ton.

This seemed to give the resolution 8 of the 12 votes on the commission, where only a majority is necessary for passage and the veto does not apply. But after several delegates said they wanted time to reply to Vishinsky, the debate was adjourned until Monday.

New Chevrolet Trucks... do more work per day... more work per dollar!

You save hours on the road. Thanks to new high-compression engine power, you can maintain faster schedules without driving at higher maximum road speeds. Increased acceleration and hill-climbing ability let you save time where it counts.

You save time on deliveries. With new truck Hydra-Matic transmission, you save valuable time at every delivery stop. And you can forget about clutching and shifting for good! It's optional at extra cost on 1/2-, 3/4- and 1-ton Chevrolet trucks.

You save extra trips. That's because of the extra load space you get in the new Advance-Design bodies. New pickup bodies are deeper... new stake and platform bodies are wider and longer. Also, they're set lower to make loading easier.

You save with lower upkeep, too. Extra chassis strength saves you money on maintenance. For example, there are heavier axle shafts in two-ton models... bigger clutches in light- and heavy-duty models... stronger frames in all models.

You save on operating costs. High-compression power saves you money every mile! The "Thriftmaster 235" engine, the "Loadmaster 235" and the "Jobmaster 261" (optional on 2-ton models at extra cost) deliver increased operating economy.

And your savings start the day you buy. In fact, they start with the low price you pay—and continue over the miles. Chevrolet is America's lowest-priced line of trucks. And it's also the truck that has a traditionally higher trade-in value.
