

GOP Wants Joe To Step Down In Issue

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP)—Sentiment appeared to be building up among Senate Republican leaders today that Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) should step all the way off his investigations subcommittee while it looks into his roaring quarrel with the Army.

From McCarthy came announcement of a tentative decision not to do so, and a suggestion that the committee employ lie detectors to get at the truth of his controversy with Secretary of the Army Robert T. Stevens.

The subcommittee plans to meet tomorrow to discuss procedure for its hearings, no date for which has been fixed.

McCarthy, voicing "complete confidence in this scientific instrument when it is operated properly," said he will suggest then the use of lie detectors if all the witnesses agree. He plans to testify himself.

"The American public is entitled to the truth in the matters we are about to investigate in Washington," the senator said in a statement. "... I plan to recommend to the subcommittee that it ask all witnesses who may have knowledge of this case, including myself, whether they would be willing to submit to a scientific lie detector test."

"It is up to the full subcommittee to determine whether this is proper procedure."

Sen. Knowland of California, the GOP floor leader, said in an interview he doesn't want to interfere in the committee's functions, but he thinks McCarthy should volunteer not to question witnesses nor to vote on issues before the group.

McCarthy has said he plans not to vote "on any final decisions or conclusions" of the subcommittee.

Knowland said in an interview: "Since the senator has agreed to be sworn and to testify as a witness, I would think the procedure would be for him to voluntarily step aside and not attempt to participate in the questioning of other witnesses."

On the other hand, Sen. Potter (R-Mich), a member of McCarthy's subcommittee, said he for one isn't going to insist that McCarthy give up his place as a committee member, even temporarily.

If the Wisconsin senator chooses another course, besides McCarthy, the group includes three Republicans and three Democrats.

AUSTIN (AP)—Gov. Allan Shivers today said he would invite President Eisenhower to attend the dedication of Big Bend National Park in Southwest Texas next fall.

Prisoners Make Another Try On County's Jail

Unruly prisoners damaged the Howard County jail again Saturday night, tore a light fixture out of the city jail after they were transferred there, and were still rattling bars and doors of the city jail this morning.

Acting Police Chief M. L. Kirby said the prisoners are well watched and securely imprisoned today. He said the seven county prisoners will be transferred back to the county jail Tuesday when the Grand Jury meets.

Sheriff Jess Slaughter said he moved the prisoners to the city jail Sunday for "safe-keeping and to keep them from fighting among themselves."

The sheriff said some of the prisoners seemed about ready to get into a fight because of "snitching" or informing on the part of some.

As the prisoners shook and rattled the doors at the city jail this morning, county commissioners moved to secure the advice of prison authorities on the condition of the new county jail.

R. H. Weaver contacted Homer Garrison Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, to locate an independent jail expert who would conduct an inspection of the local jail.

Garrison said he will locate such an authority and commissioners said the man will be asked to make an inspection and recommend means of correcting any defects he might find.

There has been some criticism of the new jail as a result of the escape of five prisoners a week ago when a section of bars were pried loose.

The commissioners court relied on the judgment of jail experts in construction of the new $56,000 jail. Judge R. H. Weaver said, "If there is anything wrong, we want to find out what it is and get it corrected."

Three officials of Southern Steel Company, firm which designed and constructed the jail, were due in Big Spring either today or in the morning for an inspection of facilities.

The group will be headed up by Lloyd J. White, vice president. Commissioners also conferred with Slaughter and with Olen Puckett and W. A. French, architect and engineer for the new courthouse, this morning.

The officials declined to consider two letters which had been sent to the court by a group of prisoners. Judge Weaver and Commissioner Ralph Proctor said they wouldn't be able to place much confidence in recommendations made by prisoners for improving the jail.

Slaughter denied that the prisoners' letters were written at his request, as one of the letters claimed. The sheriff said some of the prisoners had approached him wanting to write a letter and that he told him to "write what you want to."

The sheriff also opposed a suggestion that a jailer be employed to check all prisoners in and out of the jail. He said he thinks he should live in the jailer's quarters adjacent to the jail.

"I watch them like a hawk," he said of the prisoners and added that he needs to be around the jail at night to attend to affairs of the sheriff's department.

Slaughter told commissioners he thought the jail "was really up to snuff" prior to the jail break last week. He said he had never complained of any weakness in the jail prior to the break, but he recommended that steel tops be put on two of the cell blocks.

The sheriff said he probably will furnish prisoners with plastic spoons in the future, instead of the steel trays with which they apparently started the jail break last week. He said jail inmates are permitted to

Kremlin Sends Note To Greece Attacking U.S.

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet government has protested formally for the third time within a week against defense plans of a North Atlantic Pact nation.

The latest Kremlin note went yesterday to Greece, charging that U. S. military bases on Greek territory threaten peace in the Balkans.

Russia protested to The Netherlands last Thursday against establishment of a U. S. military air base on Dutch territory and also to Turkey against the mutual security pact she is negotiating with Pakistan.

The note to Greece was the second the Soviets have written on the subject. A similar communication Oct. 26 charged that use of Greek territory for American bases showed "the Greek government has started to carry out measures for direct preparation of a new war."

The latest note, handed yesterday by Deputy Foreign Minister V. A. Zorin to Greek Ambassador A. Koutoumas, said: "It is clear that the conclusion of the military agreement between Greece and the U. S. A. creates obstacles to strengthening peace in the Balkans, with which the Soviet Union cannot but reckon."

"It is known from published data that on the territory of Greece big military maneuvers with the participation of foreign forces, inspection tours by representatives of the U. S. military command in Greece, frequent visits of large U. S. naval units to Greek ports, growing scale of American arms deliveries to Greece and the intensified construction of American military bases on the territory of Greece are taking place."

It concluded: "Responsibility for the consequences of implementing the above mentioned military measures rests fully with the government of Greece."

Bond Vote Set For April 24

County commissioners this morning ordered that an election be held April 24 to determine whether $325,000 in bonds shall be issued to finance highway improvements.

Voters will ballot at all 16 voting boxes in the county.

The proposed bond issue is for securing right-of-way for widening Highway 90 to freeway status completely across the county.

Commissioners have estimated that $325,000 will be required to purchase right-of-way and move houses and other structures.

The election was called after commissioners received two petitions for the issue. There were 69 names signed to the documents.

Clarendon Blaze Damage $125,000

CLARENDON, Tex. (AP)—A pre-dawn fire which blazed out of control four hours did $125,000 damage to the Clarendon business district yesterday.

It was the biggest fire in the history of this Panhandle town.

A big department store and the American Legion hall were destroyed. Two firemen were slightly hurt.

The Memphis fire department was called in from 27 miles away to help Clarendon's 20 volunteer firemen. The blaze was subdued by 5 a. m.

Firemen Paul Schull and Bill Gerner were slightly hurt in falls. S. B. Saled, co-owner of the Leader Department Store, where the blaze was discovered, collapsed on hearing of the fire.

In addition, commissioners say approximately 45 houses will have to be moved in Coahoma and Sand Springs. Some wells and stock tanks also will be destroyed by widening the road.

Passage Gives Shivers Drive Major Victory

By DAVE CHEAVENS
AUSTIN (AP)—The Senate today passed the teachers pay raise bill by an overwhelming 27-1 vote.

The measure is designed to increase the base pay of teachers $402 a year.

Senate action sent the bill, which includes radical revision of the state-local financing ratio for public schools, to the House.

Senate passage of the teachers pay measure gave Gov. Allan Shivers' program a major victory on its first floor test of the session.

The bill, by Sen. A. M. Alkin Jr., Paris, provides for an 80-20 ratio between state and local financing of the public schools, and also puts up $100 per teacher unit for local spending at the discretion of school boards.

Both House and Senate adjourned until 10:30 a. m. tomorrow, leaving the afternoon clear for important committee hearings on tax and Communist control bills.

The House passed the first bill to be approved by either House or Senate, a local measure creating county court at law No. 2 for Nueces County. The vote was 118-5, and the bill now goes to the Senate.

A bill to give public junior colleges a supplemental appropriation of $644,000 for the current biennium was introduced by Rep. William J. Ehlert, Brenham.

Rep. W. R. (Bill) Chambers of May submitted a bill to levy a 10 per cent occupation tax on the gross receipts of business involving the selling, issuing or delivering of trading stamps.

A Senate-approved resolution protesting the proposed removal of the Veterans Administration's district office from Dallas to Denver was endorsed by the House after a brief debate.

Sen. William H. Shireman, Corpus Christi, cast the only dissenting vote and raised the only opposition to the teachers pay bill in debate.

He protested against passing the bill until money was raised by a new tax measure to pay for the salary increase.

"If we issue another hot check to the teachers today, we'll go home in exactly the same shape we were in after the regular session of the Legislature," he said.

Alkin countered that the revenue measure pending action of a House committee will pay for the teachers raise.

The Senate cannot originate such a measure, but in the interest of saving time, Alkin said, it could proceed on the teachers bill while the House works on the venue bill.

Gov. Shivers To Invite Ike To Big Bend

AUSTIN (AP)—Gov. Allan Shivers today said he would invite President Eisenhower to attend the dedication of Big Bend National Park in Southwest Texas next fall.

The governor told a delegation of businessmen from Alpine and Marathon that he would be in Washington April 26-28 and would issue a personal invitation to the President at that time.

Jim Francois of Alpine presented the governor a scroll naming him an honorary park ranger in Big Bend.

Francois said no date had been set for the dedication ceremony, that they would leave the date up to the time when Eisenhower could be there but hoped it would be in October.

"This dedication has been postponed by two wars," Francois said. "The park was created in the late 30s and since then the second World War and the Korean one have interfered."

The delegation said the President of Mexico would be invited to the dedication also.

In today's delegation were Mayor John Gillett, Hugh White, Dr. Bryan Wildenthal, Tom Stovell, Dick Rogers and Francois, all of Alpine; Tom Yarbro, Bill Hargus, Earl Hland and J. N. Allorebrand all of Marathon; Sen. Dorsey Hardeman, San Angelo; Rep. Frank Quinn, Austin, chairman of the State Parks Board.

Seventeen-Ounce Baby Born Alive

MORRISTOWN, N.J. (AP)—A 17½ ounce baby—the smallest to survive birth here and one of the smallest in medical history—was born at Morristown Memorial Hospital Saturday night.

The premature baby, a girl not yet named, was born to Mrs. James L. Newton of Madison, and was to be fed her first meal today through a tube.

A hospital spokesman said chances of the baby surviving are five per cent. Mrs. Newton was reported doing fine.

A check of medical sources showed that a baby weighing only 13 ounces—believed to be the record—was born and survived in Chicago in 1886.

Bite Of Rattler Kills Snakeman

WACO, Tex. (AP)—A 4½-foot rattler killed a veteran snake hunter who once called fear of snakes "nonsense."

J. Ed Johnson Jr., an authority on reptiles who long had watched the habits of the deadly rattler, died in a hospital here last night 6 hours and 15 minutes after the rattlesnake sank its fangs into his hand.

It happened as Johnson and two friends hunted snakes in the Brazos River bottomlands 30 miles south of here.

Snake hunting was Johnson's hobby. He was Waco's city controller but had gained note as an expert on reptiles. He had tracked snakes more than 30 of his 48 years.

He had shipped thousands of reptiles to museums.

He was a member of the American Society of Ichthyologists and Herpetologists, the Texas Herpetological League and other similar associations. Herpetology is the study of reptiles.

He once said, "Fear of snakes is nonsense."

Yesterday, he and his two companions spotted four rattlers—all more than four feet long—in a deep ravine. One rattler was behind a rock.

John Sparks pinned it down. As Johnson started to slip a loop over its head, the snake sprang free and bit Johnson on the back of his hand. He jerked his hand away with such force the fangs stuck in the flesh.

As Sparks killed the snake with a rock, Johnson pulled the fangs out. They cut the wound and put a suction cup on it to draw the venom out.

It was 2 hours and 15 minutes before Johnson reached the hospital.

He once said, "I like people, but snakes are more interesting."

Woman Is Named As Young Candidate

NEW YORK (AP)—Mrs. De Witt Wallace, co-editor and co-publisher of the Readers Digest magazine, has been named to a list of director candidates who hope to take over control of the New York Central Railroad.

Mrs. Wallace was the first woman named by Young, who earlier had said he would include a woman on his board list. There is no woman on the present board.

Selection Of Parr Case Jury Starts

ALICE (AP)—Questioning of prospective jurors got under way here today in the trial of police George B. Parr, accused of illegally carrying a pistol near a meeting of an opposing political group.

Less than an hour after proceedings began, four of the 18-man venire had been questioned.

Attorneys said they would go through the whole venire before announcing whom they accept for the six-man jury.

Parr, 32-year-old millionaire political kingpin of South Texas' Duval County, got a week's postponement last Monday because his attorney was tied up with another case.

Deputy Sheriff Juan (Canante) Barrera of Duval County has been charged along with Parr, and set next to the political boss. His trial was to come up later.

Before questioning of prospective jurors began, only one venireman asked to be excused. He is D. R. Knox, who explained he had pressing business matters on hand. He was dismissed.

Ed Lloyd of Alice was attorney for Parr. County Attorney Sam Burris represents the prosecution. Attorney Luther Jones of Corpus Christi, who has represented Parr at times in the past, was in the courtroom, but said he was there only as an "interested spectator."

Givens Parr, brother of George Parr and vice president of Parr's Texas State Bank, and five Texas Rangers also sat among the spectators.

An ex-tortilla maker, Manuel Marroquin, accused Parr of waving a gun and making threats near a meeting of the Freedom Party in Jim Wells County Jan. 16. The Freedom Party opposes Parr politically in adjoining Duval County.

Parr is charged specifically with illegally carrying a gun.

Parr has pleaded innocent, saying he made no threats and was carrying binoculars—not a pistol—while trying to see who was at the meeting.

Marroquin also charged Juan (Canante) Barrera with packing a gun near the meeting.

Barrera and Parr both are listed as Duval County deputy sheriffs. Barrera at a salary of $300 a month and Parr without pay.

He convicted, Parr could get as much as a $500 fine or a year in jail. The charge is a misdemeanor. The trial was set in county court.

Returns

Royal Reynolds of the Merchants Credit Bank of Clio, Ala., is shown in his home in Clio as he talked with newsmen after returning following a disappearance. His return during the week-end was the result of a search party led by his wife and his wife had been in Atlanta, Ga. and Roanoke, Va. (AP Wirephoto).

Town Awaits Bank Answer

CLIO, Ala. (AP)—With the deadline at hand, Clio waited tensely today for an answer to the $167,000 question they put to banker Royal Reynolds.

Reynolds could not be reached for comment. He promised last Friday after returning from a 12-day absence that every depositor in the Merchants Exchange would be paid in full "by the first of next week."

Disturbed townspeople took that to mean either today or tomorrow. The banker's 14-year-old son Tommy reported by telephone last night that his parents were not at home.

Again today Reynolds' home reported he "isn't in."

Reynolds, a Sunday school teacher and former mayor of this town, is free in $7,500 bond on three indictments charging embezzlement.

About 135 customers of the unchartered bank, which handled most of the cash for the entire town, have already jotted down claims amounting to more than $167,000 in a notebook. In Mayor Dan Esterling's office.

Exchange funds deposited in the First National Bank of Atlanta amount to only $81,800—less than half the amount depositors claim Reynolds owes them.

French Wait New Attacks

HANOI, Indochina (AP)—French UN troops braced themselves anew today for a still-expected new mass assault against their Dien Bien Phu fortress by the Communist-led Vietminh.

Tank and infantry reinforcements bolstered the besieged defenders in northwest Indochina.

From the skies poured a new stream of fresh troops, war equipment, ammunition and provisions, parachuted from French transports and American Flying Boxcars piloted by American civilians of the Hong Kong-based Civil Air Transport Service (CATS).

French, Vietnamese, Senegalese, Moroccan and Algerian troops and the hard-fighting German soldiers who dominate the French Foreign Legion were dug deep into trenches and dirt-bagged bunkers behind the mazes of barbed wire. The area more and more took on the appearance of a World War I battlefield, with the Vietminh also in hastily constructed trenches some of them only 200 to 400 yards from the French UN line.

In Washington U. S. officials reviewed French requests for more U. S. bombers and transports. The U. S. Joint Chiefs of Staff considered a proposal to send another group of about 25 B36 light bombers and an undetailed number of transports to Indochina.

Gen. Paul Ely, chief of staff of the French Army forces, who arrived in Washington Friday, planned to confer today with President Eisenhower and Adm. Arthur Radford, chairman of the U. S. Joint Chiefs.

Advice From Texas Beauty

Karen Sharpe finds the standard of beauty in Hollywood very high and tells Lydia Lane how she learned to meet it. The popular actress is soon to be seen in "The High and the Mighty" for Wayne-Fellows.

HOLLYWOOD BEAUTY

Alternating Shampoos Helpful To The Hair

By LYDIA LANE

HOLLYWOOD — "I can't remember when I didn't dream of being an actress and coming to Hollywood." Texas-born Karen Sharpe told me as we lunched recently in Beverly Hills. "As soon as they would let me I worked in the Little Theatre in San Antonio, and when I felt I wanted more professional training I persuaded my mother to let me come to California. "I went to school here but in order to pay for my dramatic lessons I worked after classes in a little bakery. I used to sell coffee cake every day to a pleasant man who turned out to be an agent. "The funny thing is that he didn't become interested in me until he heard me doing a scene one day with my dramatic coach who was a friend of his. I want to meet that girl," he said. "I like her voice." And when he came into the room he began to laugh, because he had seen me every day for months. "But a few days later," Karen confided, "he took me to meet John Wayne and I began work in 'The High and the Mighty.'" "That's a Cinderella story!" I remarked. "And a true one," Karen insisted.

We chatted about adjusting to a life in Hollywood.

"I find such a high standard on appearance here that it has made me more carefully groomed. I used to wash my hair once a week because I was told it was not good for the hair to do it more often. But when I was on the picture they washed it every day and it stayed in lovely condition."

"Do you still wash it every day?" I asked. "No, but I do it every other day and it is very healthy. The girl at the studio advised that I use three different shampoos so that I don't use any more often than once a week. This has turned out very well for me. I alternate with a detergent, which gives wonderful high lights, an oil type shampoo and a creamy one. "It's not washing your hair that does harm," Karen insisted, "but failing to rinse all the soap out. You must rinse for one full minute but never with water which is too hot. "And once a week I use a conditioner on my hair, Karen added. "I rub this cream in, tie a wax paper cap over my head and sit close to an electric wall heater in my bath room. You can buy an electric cap but I don't happen to have one and my method has worked out very well for me."

If your hair does not have the softness and gleam you desire, try Karen Sharpe's routine.

The girls participated in a sing-song and held a cookout at noon. Afterward they hiked to the city park where they were met by some of local troop mothers and taken on a tour of Scenic Mountain.

Members of Troop 17 who acted as hostesses were Sue Boles, Betty Gene Brown, Sherry Gentry, Pat Johnson, Linda Lou Leonard, Carol Ann Phillips, Lou Phillips, Carolyn Sewell, Carolyn Washington and Judith Weber.

Reception is acting as leader of the troop. She was assisted by Mrs. Marvin Sewell, Mrs. Elmo Phillips and Mrs. W. O. Washington.

Judge Douglas, Dwindling Party Continue Long Walk

Along the C&O Canal in Western Maryland—Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas and a steadily dwindling party of hiking companions pushed forward today on their 184-mile walk to Washington, D. C.

At the end of their third day's journey lay Fort Frederick State Park and the only night of camping in the open party plans before its scheduled arrival in Washington Saturday.

The group spent last night at the Woodmont Rod and Gun Club near Hancock, Md., 37 miles southeast of Cumberland, Md., where they started out Saturday morning. Douglas is seeking to demonstrate to two Washington editorial writers, and others who joined the group, that the natural beauties of the government-owned Chesapeake and Ohio Canal would be marred by construction of a proposed federal highway.

His challenge to the editorial writers, who favored the parkway, resulted in the eight-day journey.

In the first day of sloggish over muddy trails, and in yesterday's blustery weather which included even a few snow flurries, the expedition shrank from 34 to about 25 who planned to continue today's leg of about 20 miles.

The walking pace also slowed from an average of a little over four miles an hour the first day to three miles an hour yesterday. Liniment was being liberally applied to sore muscles last night.

Most of the nine who quit the party, though, were newsmen, government officials and others who had to get back to other assignments or their regular Monday jobs.

The rugged justice, who relishes outdoor life, showed little sign of fatigue. Charles F. Thomas, the 78-year-old retired mailcarrier from Washington and oldest man in the group, also was going strong.

Cattle Raisers Set To Open Convention

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—The annual convention of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Assn. opens here tomorrow.

Some 2,000 members are expected to be on hand to discuss issues ranging from drought to beef prices. Top agriculture leaders will address the convention tomorrow and Wednesday.

Directors held a pre-convention session today.

Speakers are to include Ross Ritzley of Washington, assistant U.S. secretary of agriculture; Jay Taylor of Amarillo, president of the American National Cattle-men's Assn.; Allan Kline of Chicago, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation; and Dr. Lauro Ortega, Mexican director of the U.S.-Mexico Commission for the Eradication of Foot and Mouth Disease.

Jack Roach of Amarillo is president of the association.

Korea Declares Freedom Over Time Amid Fuss

SEOUL (AP)—South Korea finally declared her independence from the Japan time zone and you should see the confusion.

The National Assembly, fiercely patriotic, carved out a Korean time zone a half hour behind the Japan zone. It went into effect Saturday.

Now appointments are confirmed with the question: "Japan or Korean time?" The 4 o'clock plane for Japan leaves at 4:30. And the 3 o'clock plane arrives and telephoners are having the time of their lives making connections.

Fifty years ago Japan ordered Korea to set her clocks on Japan time. It was done to simplify commerce. And while the political course between the two nations often was rough, they operated smoothly in a single time zone.

Now South Korea is back on its own time.

The U.S. State Department was the first to fall in line. International etiquette, one diplomat explained. How can you keep appointments with Koreans when your clocks aren't in tune.

The Army was tougher. Army transportation officials, less disposed to diplomacy, asked, "How in heck can we run a railroad when everyone has his own time?" But it gave in.

The Air Force was last. For a while planes took off from Japan on time and arrived in South Korea a half hour ahead of schedule. Then they left South Korea on time and returned to Japan a half hour later. Finally the Air Force threw in its minute hand.

Trial Polio Vaccine Is Set For 370,000

NEW YORK (AP)—Enough commercially manufactured trial vaccine to inoculate more than 370,000 children will be available for the polio field tests about April 12, it was announced today.

Dr. Hart E. Van Riper, medical director of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, made the statement in a "status report" to all state health officers.

After April 12, he added, "vaccine will be coming forth at a continuous rate to enable us to move rapidly toward the completion of the field trials which will include between 500,000 and one million school children in the first three elementary grades."

The vaccine to be used will be that developed by Dr. Jonas E. Salk, of the University of Pittsburgh, under a grant from the National Foundation.

Van Riper said Salk would begin today inoculating 2,500 children in the Pittsburgh area with vaccine produced commercially in accordance with Salk's specifications. Salk already has used vaccine produced in his own laboratory on about 5,000 children.

Van Riper added that as soon as the necessary period of observation of these children has elapsed—or about April 12—"we will have on hand ready for use approximately 1,113,800 cubic centimeters of vaccine, or enough to inoculate 371,266 children." The National Foundation's field trials can get well under way with this backlog of vaccine on hand, Van Riper added.

The results of Salk's first 5,000 inoculations, Van Riper said, indicated clearly the ability of the vaccine to stimulate production of high levels of polio antibodies in humans. The results also showed, he added, that "the vaccine is free from any agent which could cause any unusual reaction."

Van Riper said 44 states already have indicated their desire to participate in the trials.

June Haver, Fred MacMurray Still Deny Wedding Talk

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Actress June Haver and actor Fred MacMurray are back from South America today both denying they have wedding plans.

They arrived in Los Angeles by plane from Panama last night with actor Walter Pidgeon on the last lap of a return trip from Sao Paulo, Brazil, and the International Film Festival.

"No, we do not," Miss Haver replied when asked if she and MacMurray contemplated marriage. His reply was "ask Joan Fontaine."

MacMurray, 45, and a widower, referred to reports that the actress had said in Miami, Fla., that he and Miss Haver, 27, were planning a wedding.

When first asked about the wedding reports last week, the actor told reporters, "It's too early to talk about marriage. We have no definite plans."

Waco Girl Loses Hand In Propeller

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—"Why don't I faint? Oh, how I wish I could faint," sobbed a 16-year-old girl whose left hand had been cut off at the wrist by an airplane propeller.

Sylvia Norman of Waco had taken a ride here yesterday with her uncle in his light plane. As she climbed from the plane she lost balance and fell into the spinning propeller.

The girl did not lose consciousness as bystanders fashioned a tourniquet. She was described in satisfactory condition at a hospital.

TV Set Argument Leads To Shootings

NAPOLEON, Ohio (AP)—After an argument over whether the children should watch television, a 36-year-old man shot and killed his 15-year-old daughter and wounded himself in their home at nearby Deahler last night, Sheriff Fred H. Bartels reported.

Bartels said George Wolfe, a truck driver, killed his daughter Lucille; critically wounded his wife Lillian, 31; shot his son George Jr. in the thigh, and shot himself below the heart.

Wolfe was reported in critical condition at Heiler Memorial Hospital in Napoleon.

Bartels said Wolfe was able to talk when officers first arrived at the house, but answered "I don't know" to every question.

Missing Plane Found With Body Of Pilot

TAKEWELL, Va. (AP)—An F51 fighter plane, missing since Friday on a flight from Battle Creek, Mich., to Charlotte, N.C., was found crashed and burned on a mountain near here yesterday. The body of the pilot was still in the cockpit.

State police reported that papers in the plane carried the name of Robert Smith. The Air National Guard at Charlotte previously had identified the pilot of the missing plane as Lt. R. B. Smith of Lansing, Mich., a member of the Michigan Air National Guard.

Suicide Leads To Two Deaths

CORRICANA (AP)—A pistol that Thelma Cleo Shaunfield used to commit suicide caused an argument which resulted in her stepfather's death, authorities here reported.

Justice of the Peace J. W. Sheppard and Sheriff Rufus Pevehouse said the unusual case yesterday happened this way:

The Shaunfield woman, 22, had been despondent and had threatened to kill herself. She went to the home of her stepfather, Guy Bennett Matlock, 52, in Mildred, five miles southeast of here, and got his pistol.

Matlock, missing the gun, accused his wife of taking it. An argument resulted.

Mrs. Matlock and Charles Shaunfield, 13, told Pevehouse the man attacked his wife. The boy, trying to protect his mother, grabbed a .22 rifle and fired twice. Matlock was killed.

Five hours later, Thelma Cleo Shaunfield was found dead in the bathroom of a rooming house here. Sheppard returned a suicide verdict in her death.

The 13-year-old youth was not arrested. Pevehouse said he would be taken before Juvenile Court Judge A. P. Mays.

$110,000 Fire Hits Compress At Dallas

DALLAS (AP)—Fire raced through a 30,000 square-foot warehouse at the Farmers & Merchants Compress & Warehouse here yesterday.

Damage was estimated at $110,000. Two firemen were slightly injured.

Officials said a brisk south wind and quick work by firemen kept the blaze from sweeping into some 15,000 bales of cotton stored in adjoining warehouses.

Asst. Chief F. M. Colbert put total fire damage at $110,000—$10,000 to the building and $100,000 to cotton. Some 1,800 bales were destroyed or damaged. The warehouse was leveled.

Investigators were trying to find two small boys who turned in the first alarm, then disappeared.

Proposed New Tax Code Would Have Varied Effect On Citizens

By CHARLES F. BARRETT
WASHINGTON, March 22 (U)—How would those 875 pages of proposed new tax laws, passed by the House Thursday, affect you?

The question is difficult to answer because: The bill makes some 3,000 actual changes in tax provisions, experts estimate. Yet none of these are general, across-the-board rate changes affecting everybody. The big changes allow new or bigger tax deductions in some particular situation.

If you happen to fit under one or more of those situations, your tax bill could be reduced greatly, even wiped out. If you don't fit under any of them, your bill could remain unchanged.

Everybody would be given one more month to fill out their returns, with the deadline shifted from March 15 to April 15. And about one million of the six million persons now required to file advance estimates of income, would be relieved of that chore.

Here are some of the larger groups whose taxes might be cut the most, and the savings they might expect:

Retired persons over 65—About 1½ million elderly persons are expected to save about 125 million dollars a year. Their taxes would be cut by 20 per cent of their income from pensions, annuities, interest, rents or dividends up to $1,200 a year. That could save a single person $240, a married couple $480 if both have income. On top of all other deductions, it probably would relieve most old folks of any tax bill at all.

Stockholders—About 6½ million persons are expected to save 240 million the first year, $14 millions later, from a reduction in taxes on dividends. The first $50 of dividends could be deducted from taxable income for this year, the first $100 next year. Further, taxes could be cut by 5 per cent of the remaining dividend income this year, 10 per cent next year. A married couple with $5,000 in other income, and $100 from dividends, would save $10 the first year, $20 the second. Taxpayers with large amounts of other income, plus large amounts of dividends, eventually would save roughly 10 per cent of their dividends; that is, for $10,000 in dividends, the saving would be roughly $1,000, for $50,000 the saving would be about $5,000, etc. The saving cannot be more than 10 per cent of total taxable income—that is all income after regular deductions and personal exemptions.

Families with large medical expense—About 7½ million persons would save 85 million dollars a year. These are persons who itemize their medical deductions, rather than take the standard 10 per cent deduction. Taxpayers would be allowed to deduct medical costs above 3 per cent of their income, instead of 5 per cent as at present. Maximum deductions, applying only in exceptional cases, would be doubled, up to $10,000 for families.

Taxpayers with working children—Roughly close to one million persons would save a total of 85 million, from a provision letting taxpayers count their children as dependents even though the child earns more than $600 (forbidden now). This applies to children un-

A-Power Seen Too Deadly For Wars

DUESSELDORF, Germany (U)—Prof. Herman Oberth, a developer of the German V2 rocket in World War II, believes atomic weapons developed in the next year will be so dangerous no nation will dare start a war.

Oberth, honorary president of German Society for Space Research, told the group last night that 12 more months of research will make it possible for rockets loaded with atomic bombs to devastate any spot on earth within 45 minutes.

"This means," he said, "that in case of war all big cities of the enemy can be destroyed within two or three hours. Personally, I definitely believe that then no minister will decide himself for a war because he would sign his own death sentence at the same time."

Special Guard Named After English Threat

LONDON (U)—Scotland Yard assigned a special bodyguard to Mrs. Oliver Lyttelton, wife of Britain's colonial secretary, yesterday following receipt of a letter threatening her with death.

British political leaders and newspapers have received letters with similar threats against Queen Elizabeth II if she carries out her plans to visit Spanish-claimed Gibraltar May 10. Prime Minister Churchill's wife also received a threatening letter a week ago.

Episcopal Deans Attack McCarthy, Blame Supporters

NEW YORK (U)—The Episcopal deans of New York and Washington, D. C., preaching Sunday sermons in each other's cathedrals attacked "McCarthyism"—one calling it a "Devil's disguise" and the other "new tyranny."

One of the deans, the Very Rev. Dr. James A. Pike of New York's Cathedral of St. John the Divine, also criticized yesterday what he called the silence of the Roman Catholic hierarchy on this issue.

While Dean Pike spoke in Washington Cathedral, the Very Rev. Francis B. Sayre Jr. of Washington took the pulpit at St. John the Divine.

Both deans said the American people are to blame for failure to curb the activities of Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.).

"A considerable portion of the American people have been willing to pass by the boards the methods which have protected the freedom and dignity of the individual," said Dean Pike.

"This is basically a spiritual defect," he added.

Big Spring (Texas) Herald, Mon., March 22, 1954

Dean Sayre declared McCarthy "would be nothing without the active support of what has been estimated to be at least one-third of our people."

Differing Views Are Expressed On Needs Of American Economy

By EDMOND LE BRETON
WASHINGTON 48—The argument among businessmen, economists and lawmakers over the economic state of the nation ran along these lines today: Should the government do something drastic to stimulate business, now, perhaps later, or at all?

Now, said two Democratic senators, Hill of Alabama and Douglas of Illinois, in separate interviews yesterday.

Only when there is a "recession of some severity" actually in existence or "forecast with a high degree of certainty," said the Committee for Economic Development (CED). And members of CED, a private but influential organization of businessmen and economists, said at a news conference yesterday such a time has not yet arrived.

There was general agreement that tax cuts and public works programs offered ways in which government might attack a recession when the time was deemed ripe.

Hill said the economic indices meant to him that "the situation is definitely getting worse and the administration ought to move with a program of public works in which the states and local communities could participate."

Douglas renewed his advocacy of income tax cuts, came out last night for further excise slashes and said, "I certainly hope the administration does not wait too long to act."

But the CED in a policy statement involving such measures against "small, short and uncertainly forecast recessions" carried a danger of delayed effects. It said:

"The stimulating effect would probably not start until the need for it had passed and would continue even though it created a danger of inflation."

For mild business declines or those in the early stages, the CED report prescribed such devices as "increasing the supply of money, easing of credit and lowering of interest rates."

Some action along this line already has been taken through the government's fiscal agencies. CED said that if the time should come for stronger action, a temporary cut in federal taxes, ordinarily but not necessarily through an across-the-board cut in income taxes, would be the most immediately effective means.

Public works spending would be useful, perhaps to the tune of 1 1/2 billion dollars within a year, but would take effect more slowly, the committee report said. But it said it might be desirable to blueprint projects and an agency to administer them.

Frazar B. Wilde, president of the Connecticut General Life Insurance Co. and chairman of the group which prepared the report, said he does not consider tax cuts or other drastic action in order now. Other CED members at the same news conference expressed agreement. One, Meyer Kestbaum, president of Hart, Schaffner and Marx, said he expects an upturn in early fall.

Father Kills Wife, Self

WICHITA, Kan. 48—A 7-year-old girl telephoned police yesterday and said:

"Daddy has shot Mother and hurt himself."
Officers who responded to the call found John K. Leidy, 38, and his wife Rosemary, 35, dead and their two children wounded.

The two children—7-year-old Linda Sue and 2-year-old John Scott—were shot while they sat in the bathtub.

"Me and Scotty were in the bathtub and I was washing Scotty when I heard three loud noises in the kitchen," Linda Sue told officers. "A few minutes later, Daddy opened the door and pointed the gun at us and it went boom boom—then I went to sleep."
Police said the child apparently remained unconscious from the time she was wounded until she telephoned them.

Detective Charles Prosser said Leidy, an electrical engineer, shot his wife and children and then committed suicide, apparently after an argument with his wife over a dress alteration she was making. The children were reported recovering.

UNCLE RAY'S CORNER

In the South Pacific, about 2,000 miles west of the coast of Chile, is a small island which holds widespread interest. It is known as Easter Island, and has an area of 47 square miles.

This island received its name because Dutch seamen landed there on Easter Day, 233 years ago. The visitors from The Netherlands were under command of Admiral Roggeveen.

Natives with brown skins were found by the Dutch. The island's population at that time was estimated at 2,000, but hardly one sixth of that number live there today. Nevertheless Easter Island is known through the world because of the strange stone statues which were carved before the whites arrived.

The Dutch sailed away, but another visit was made 50 years later. This time the famous Capt. James Cook came to Easter Island.

Natives swarmed to the beach to greet Cook and his sailors, and to receive presents. The gifts included small mirrors and pieces of cloth. Several iron nails were handed to the half-savage folk, who knew nothing about working with metal.

In return, the white men were given bananas, sugar cane and yams.

Captain Cook sent several men to explore the island. Sheep, swine and goats were missing, but the people kept poultry. Their chickens were similar to those of southern Asia.

The natives showed special interest in the hats and caps of the visitors and would steal these when possible. The sailors had to take care to keep from losing their headgear.

Tomorrow: Gifts for Easter Island.

Think Twice Before You Start To Smoke

By BEVERLY BRANDOW

"Should I smoke?" On every side you hear this question echo. You're fighting to grow up. You want to be recognized as a young man or woman. Will smoking help you gain sophistication? Will it make you seem older?

Your smoking friends chant that you are a sissy and call you "baby". This burns you up. You're no sissy and you've a mind to show them by buying yourself a pack and lighting up, too. Then you think of your parents. You don't want to disobey, but you certainly aren't going to wind up a "mammy's baby" if you can help it.

"What's the answer? It won't come in a flood of angry emotion. Sensible decisions are made just one way—by thinking.

Why should you smoke? Because somebody else does it no reason. Do you like the taste? It makes most beginners sick. Certainly there's nothing any more babyish about not liking to smoke than not liking to eat cauliflower. It's purely a matter of taste and preference.

Actually nicotine is a poison. If cigarettes contained enough of it they would kill you. Since they don't, about all they do is race your heart, interfere with digestion, and unsteady your nerves. This, of course, is why athletes and people whose work requires exacting skill do not smoke.

Undoubtedly you've heard somewhere that smoking is soothing. This is true only for habitual smokers. Nicotine is highly habit forming. Doing without it after your system is addicted creates nervous tension that only more nicotine in the form of a cigarette will relieve.

Not only is smoking expensive but nicotine holds such power over the nervous system that during the war people were known to do without food in order to buy their cigarettes. Once the habit is started, few are able to quit.

If you should develop heart disease, tuberculosis, or some form of eye disease, nicotine could serve the knock-out punch. Many have been faced with the choice, "Give it up or give up period." Today the evidence points to nicotine as the cause of many cases of lung cancer.

Aside from everything else, look at smoking from the standpoint of etiquette. There are people who do not enjoy having their homes smoked up by guests (It takes 24 hours to rid completely a home of the evidence of one cigarette).

In buses, elevators, or theatres, smoke is particularly offensive as there is no escape to fresh, clean air. Even in restaurants many people resent having to eat smoke with their food.

Cigarettes will stain your teeth and your fingers, possibly harm your health, cost your plenty, make you nervous, interfere with your general efficiency, and offend some of your friends. Do you want to smoke? Be sure first, because: "for better or worse till death do you part."

Pole Admits Plane Story Was Phony

BOLANO, Italy (U) — The self-styled American sergeant who led more than 200 Italian troops around the Alps in a 24-hour search for a crashed American military plane admitted last night his story was a phony.

Italian police at Vipiteno, here in the Tyrol, identified the "sergeant" as a Polish refugee, Wazly Kowalenko, 32. He told them he fled his homeland and donned an American uniform to make his crossing into Italy easier.

He did not explain how he obtained the uniform or why he dreamed up the story of the wrecked plane.

Identifying himself as Sgt. Jim Smithy of Chicago, he walked into the village of Campo di Trens, at the southern end of the Brenner Pass, Saturday. He said he had parachuted from a U. S. plane and had seen it falling with the pilot, "Lt. Jim Knott," still aboard.

He said he was a radio operator assigned to the 36th Attachment Air Base in Germany.

While Italian Alpine troops followed the pole around the mountains, military authorities in Germany were contacted. They had never heard of a 36th Attachment Air Base, a missing plane, a Sgt. Smithy or a Lt. Knott. They sent Capt. William E. McKee of Sioux City, Iowa, and five other men of a rescue team from Fuerstenfeldbruck, Germany, to investigate.

The investigation didn't take long. McKee found "Smithy" spoke only a few words of English. He turned him over to police, who held him to investigate his presence in Italy.

Years ago, people thought of long distance calls only for emergencies. Today, long station-to-station and night and Sunday rates make long distance service practical for any kind of out-of-town message. Next time... whether it's an emergency, a family affair, social or business... talk it over by long distance.

Please remember, too, long distance calls go through twice as fast when you call by number. It pays to keep a list of out-of-town numbers. Ask for a free long distance numbers booklet at the telephone business office.

"To me, that one call was worth the price of a year's telephone service"

It wasn't the most important long distance call ever made. Just a youngster celebrating his 5th birthday calling his Dad who couldn't be home.

"But never have a few childish words done more to lift a man's spirits and chase away loneliness. Life just doesn't hold many richer moments. To me, that one call was worth the price of a year's telephone service."

- HERE'S HOW TO GET MOST BENEFIT FROM A LONG DISTANCE TELEPHONE CALL
1. Make notes of what you want to say.
  2. Call station-to-station as often as you can.
  3. Call after 6 p.m. or on Sunday for the lowest rates.
  4. Call by number.

Where Greatest Man-Made Explosion Unleashed

This map locates the United States proving grounds in the Pacific where, with a shattering power hundreds of times greater than any previous man-made explosion, the United States set off its H-Bomb No. 2 two weeks ago. The explosion took place either on Eniwetok atoll or Bikini atoll, presumably on Bikini, and was felt as far away as Kwajalein. The crew members of a Japanese fishing vessel (cross) which was said to have been 80 miles northeast of the blast (center) were burned and blistered by ashes from the explosion. (AP Wirephoto).

Webb Cadet Lands A La Buzz Sawyer

A balky landing gear on a T33 jet training plane led to a series of events which caused anxiety at Webb AFB Sunday, but ensuing damage was held to a minimum and there were no injuries to personnel.

Aviation Cadet William C. DeVoe, who was on a solo flight, was forced to land on his left main landing gear, nose wheel and right tip tank when the right main landing gear did not function properly. He brought the plane in with a minimum of damage, but blocked the jet runway for a short period of time.

Meanwhile, three other jets were forced to land on a shorter runway and sustained blown-out tires in making quick stops, but there was no further damage.

Vote Expected Tomorrow On Ouster Of Sen. Chavez

By RICHARD P. POWERS — The Senate opens debate today on whether to ouster Sen. Chavez (D-NM). A vote, expected to follow closely party lines, is possible tomorrow. There were no advance signs of a break in the ranks of the Democrats, who hold a hairline margin in the Senate, and one Republican said some GOP senators might not vote to put Chavez out. The issue is a recommendation by the Senate Rules Committee that Chavez's seat be declared vacant. The five Republicans on the committee outvoted the four Democrats to adopt a subcommittee's finding that the 1952 senatorial election in New Mexico was marked by irregularities on such a scale it was impossible to tell who really won, Chavez or his Republican opponent, Patrick J. Hurley.

McCARTHY

Not vote in any question pertaining to the investigation. "I shall be a witness," he added, "and I do wish to cross examine other witnesses. In all fairness, I feel this right of cross examination should be extended to the Army officials involved."

That was his reaction to a Democratic suggestion that he step off the subcommittee. It was made Saturday night by a subcommittee member, Sen. Symington (D-Mo.), who said in a statement that if McCarthy wants to "appear in the triple role of accusing witness as well as prosecutor and judge" the Democrats will carry a fight against such an arrangement to the parent Government Operations Committee.

McCarthy also heads the full committee. Symington said that if McCarthy doesn't step aside as a voting and cross-examining member and is upheld in this role, he will attempt to shift the inquiry to the Senate Armed Services Committee. He is a member of this group; McCarthy is not.

The McCarthy-Army dispute focuses around Secretary Stevens' assertion that McCarthy and his subcommittee's chief counsel, Roy M. Cohn, sought favored Army treatment for Pvt. G. David Schine. Schine was an unpaid consultant to the committee before being drafted.

Cohn disputed that. He and McCarthy joined in accusing Stevens and his aides of trying to "black-mail" the subcommittee into dropping its inquiry into alleged communism in the Army by using Schine as a "hostage." Stevens termed this "fantastic."

Taking note of this in his statement about lie detectors, McCarthy said the issue is "certainly more important than any murder case which, as a (Wisconsin state) judge, I ever tried."

He added that use of a lie detector, which records the physical reaction of a person to questioning, would be possible only if all prospective witnesses were willing. "And I hope they will," he added.

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover has questioned the reliability of lie detectors, and tests made with them are not admissible as evidence in the courts of any state unless they were made voluntarily.

McCarthy has suggested the use of lie detectors in other cases, but no Senate committee has ever adopted such a suggestion.

McCarthy returned to Washington last night from a four-day speaking trip in the Midwest to his windup talk at Oklahoma City.

Ump Can Learn But Still Needs Heart

By FRANK ECK
 DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (U) — A little more than 10 years ago Augie Donatelli, an AAF tail gunner, took part in the first daylight raid over Berlin. He was shot down, captured and served 18 months in a German prison camp. Today he is one of the most respected umpires in the National League despite only four years in blue. He and Ed Rommel, who won 171 games for the Philadelphia Athletics, are helping senior umpire Bill McGowan in the latter's umpires' school here.

"We've sent up to the majors seven men. Augie Donatelli is my favorite subject," McGowan began.

"He came to camp one year without ever having put on a mask or ever having umpired. The first game he worked impressed me. I liked his actions and judgment. I said he'd be a big league umpire in five years. He made it four."

It is one wrong call that McGowan likes to admit.

Others who have made the climb from classroom to the majors are Larry Napp, Bill McKinley, Grover Foose and John Flaherty in the American League and Hal Dixon and Augie Guglielmo in the National.

The essentials of a good umpire? "He must have good eyesight," says McGowan. "We accept nobody who wears glasses on the field. Size matters, too. The day of the umpire under 5'7" or 147 pounds is over. Ball players do not respect little umpires. They don't command the respect. Umpires also must have good knowledge of the rules. If they don't we try to give it to them. They must also have good character. We can give them everything but the heart after a class of five weeks."

McGowan, who has placed 1,200 umpires in organized ball, has been teaching "safe" and "out" calls for 15 years. His top registration was at West Palm Beach in 1948 when 251 students showed up. This spring his two classes include 127. A course is $85, plus food and $7 a week for lodging.

McGowan is one umpire who believes games should be speeded up. What's wrong?

"Long games hurt baseball," says the 58-year-old umpire who worked his first organized ball game in the Tri-State League in 1913. "Too many fellows are talking to the pitcher."

"Here's an example: The first man up singles and the second baseman comes into the mound. Then a man walks and the third baseman comes in. Then the first

Love for The Purple Grape is supposed to have abbreviated the playing career of a one-time Big Spring baseball player.

The higher he went in the game, the more he began to see of the bottle. When he began to bend the elbow more often after hours than he did on the mound, the end hurried into sight.

Sports scribe Jim O'Brien of Lamesa says it isn't so, the story that Lamesa High School dropped baseball to spend more time on football.

The item, printed here originally, was not meant to be scandalous. Far from it.

The high school that doesn't concentrate on football in these days of high-pressure athletics finds it is falling to keep up with the Joneses, so to speak. It is frowned upon by the gunshoes of the Texas Interscholastic League but it is done, nevertheless.

Hull is an Iowa community you probably never heard of, unless you happen to hail from that section of the country.

Hull has a $120,000 gym that didn't cost the school there a dime. The material and labor, even the ground on which it stands, was donated.

Bob Clandaniel has completed his fourth season as basketball coach at Plainview High School.

During that time, his teams have won 58 games. Forty-five of those successes have come during the past two years.

The first season Bob was at the helm, the Bulldogs copped only two decisions. Athletic fortunes can change in a hurry.

Arnie Arendella, the former Big Spring hurler who tolled for the Roswell Rockets last season, is living here at the present time. His contract now belongs to the Fort Arthur Club of the Evangeline League.

One never gets rich managing a bush league baseball team, except in love, perhaps.

Pepper Martin, now foreman of the local baseball spread and boss of the Odessa Oilers last year, recalls, with a laugh, Roman Loyko's shrill call to pitchers who would head in the direction of the Oiler clubhouse after falling to go over two or three innings on the mound:

"Hey, don't use all that hot water!"

Emmet (Red) Ormsby, the ex-American League umpire who filled a speaking engagement here recently, makes no secret of his hostility toward such big league characters as Lippy Durocher and Jimmy Dykes.

He hasn't much use for Paul Richards, who now masterminds the Chicago White Sox, as a matter of fact.

All are notorious umpire baiters. Ormsby once turned down a chance to make a trip to Korea (where he would have spoken to the U.S. troops) because Durocher was going along.

"I used to look for excuses to throw Dykes out of the ball game," he recalled.

Ormsby and Richards never tried to stare each other down as umpire and manager because Red quit long before Richards got promoted to a big league managerial post but Red didn't like the crack (printed here) Richards made recently about all umpires being "hitters' umpires" in that they favored batters over pitchers.

"If he could manage half as well as any of the umpires now working up there can umpire, the Sox would have won the pennant a long time ago," said Ormsby.

Three-run homers by rookies Goster Castleman and Henry Thompson insured the New York Giants' 6-1 victory over Cleveland, the fifth time in seven games that the Giants have whipped the Indians this year.

The Athletics got five good innings of pitching from Bob Trice, the International League's Most Valuable Player last year, and the lead stood up despite homers by George Foose and Frank Thomas.

The springtime shenanigans didn't entirely hide some good old-fashioned baseball, however.

Frankie Baumholtz, one of the National League's better hitters (lifetime average, .291), slammed two doubles and three singles in five times up in pacing an 8-2 victory for the Cubs over the Baltimore Orioles.

Warren Spahn, the senior member of Milwaukee's pitching corps, retired 14 men in succession in the course of pitching seven scoreless innings against Philadelphia as the Braves walloped the Phillies, 10-0. The left-hander gave up four hits and was followed by Jim Wilson, who allowed none in the last two innings.

The New York Yankees, who had absorbed two straight defeats at the hands of the Brooklyn Dodgers, finally whipped them, 8-2. The Yanks got good pitching from Harry Byrd and Tom Morgan, plus home runs by Yogi Berra and Bob Cerv.

Walker Elected Prexy Of C-C Sportsman Club

COLORADO CITY — Jack Walker, Colorado City auto dealer, was re-elected as president of the Sportsman's Club at a recent meeting.

The Club voted to meet on the last Monday of each month in a regular meeting and to allow the Boy and Girl Scouts to use the Sportsman's Club on request.

The organization, which has 228 members, also elected A. W. Hubbard as vice president; Chuck Diegel as secretary-treasurer and Sam Thompson as sergeant at arms.

The Colorado City Country Club has announced that its Annual Invitational Golf Tournament will be held this year on April 29 and 30th, May 1st and 2nd. This was a change from a date announced earlier in the year, which conflicted with tournaments in nearby towns.

Sam Cobb, Tournament Committee chairman, said that qualifying would begin Thursday morning, April 28. Hezelle Carson of San Angelo is defending champion. Cobb said that he hoped that Carson would be able to compete and defend his title.

The tournament committee has also set up a four man club team match. Big Spring is defending champion in this event.

Louis Cooper, president of the Country Club, said that entertainment had been planned "for the ladies," including bridge and a barbecue.

Top Track Teams Gather At Odessa On Saturday

All except one of the Texas college track teams that were conspicuous by their absence at the Southwest Recreation meet at Fort Worth last weekend will be at Odessa Friday and Saturday for the West Texas Relays.

Texas, which along with Texas A&M and Rice, has stayed away from Fort Worth five years, held a meet with Abilene Christian, Southwest Texas State and Howard Payne at Austin while the Recreation meet was going on. ACC, Southwest Texas and Howard Payne and the Recreation meet in protest over the condition of the track and because, they said, the field was too large.

All the enjoining possible has failed to get them back.

But Texas and Rice will be in the field at the West Texas Relays Saturday. Texas A&M isn't going out this time, staying home for a private meet.

Other university division teams at Odessa will be Baylor, Southern Methodist, Houston Christian, Texas Tech and Texas. The only team that competed at Fort Worth that'll be missed at Odessa is Oklahoma A&M, winner of 4th university and freshman class titles of the Recreation meet.

Eleven schools are entered in the college division of the West Texas Relays—North Texas State, East Texas State, West Texas State, McMurry, University of Corpus Christi, Hardin-Simmons, Abilene Christian, Howard Payne, Sul Ross, New Mexico Military Institute and Texas Western.

North Texas, East Texas, West Texas, McMurry and Corpus Christi compete at Fort Worth, with North Texas winning the college division championship.

Absence of the strong Texas and Texas A&M squads allowed Oklahoma A&M to win its title at Fort Worth. The Aggies took the meet with 39 points to 35 1/2 for Southern Methodist.

North Texas State triumphed in the college division with 56 points to 40 for runner-up East Texas State.

Victoria won the junior college division with 40 points to 34 1/2 for Tarrant State. Oklahoma A&M captured the freshman crown with 25 1/2 points to 24 for Kansas State Teachers.

The high school division was won again by Sunset of Dallas. But Sunset had great competition from North Side (Fort Worth) with its brilliant sprinter, Jimmy Weaver, and Andrews, with its excellent hurdler, Gene Ellis. Sunset made 20 points, North Side 18 and Andrews 15.

Amarillo, which didn't compete at Fort Worth, returns to Odessa to defend its championship of the high school division. More than 90 high schools are entered.

IN LAMESA TONIGHT Volley Ball Team To Seek 18th Win

The pivotal girls' volleyball game of the 1934 conference season will be played tonight, when Lamesa hosts Big Spring at 7:30 p.m.

Both teams are undefeated in district competition. Big Spring has the better record, having won 17 of 18 games, and has already beaten the Tornado Queens twice, but the Lamesas are always tough to beat on their home court.

A defeat will not eliminate either team from title competition because the teams will meet again in Big Spring April 2.

Some observers have rated this Big Spring club as the greatest in the history of the school. That is tall praise, since Coach Arrah Phillips has had one club to go through its season unbeaten in recent years.

Only team to topple the Steerettes is Sweetwater and that by a score of 27-24 in a game played at Sweetwater.

Lamesa's attack is built largely around Estelle Prather, one of the outstanding spikers in this area.

Miss Phillips will probably start a lineup composed of Bernice Rice, Louise Burchett, Jan Burns, Elouise Carroll, Nell Glover and Anna Mae Thorpe.

Teams of the two schools tangle in a 6:30 p.m. game. The Big Spring B team has enjoyed even better success in its own class than the A team. It has yet to experience defeat in B competition.

Hogan Records 61 At Palm Beach

PALM BEACH, Fla. (U)—Ben Hogan served notice today that he is the man to beat in the Seminole Club's Pro-Amateur golf tournament starting here tomorrow.

Hogan toured the 7,000-yard Seminole Golf Club course yesterday in 51-30-61, carding nine birdies, one eagle and eight pars. He needed only 24 putts for the 18 holes and eagled the 510-yard 14th when his second shot landed within two feet of the cup.

When the round was over, Hogan signed his card:

"The lowest round of golf I ever played."

Mayor-Bolt Duo Win At Miami

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (U)—Dick Mayer's 18-foot putt that won the $15,000 International Four Ball Golf Tournament for himself and his partner, Tommy Bolt, was no surprise to the slender, blond St. Petersburg, Fla., campaigner.

"I was absolutely confident when I stepped up to the ball," Mayer said happily. "I felt sure I would make it."

The shot, on the first hole of a "sudden death" playoff, finished Julius Boros and E. J. (Dutch) Harrison, who had climbed from third place into a tie with Mayer and Bolt in yesterday's final round of the 72-hole tournament.

Each team posted a best ball score of 258 over the regular route, 30 under par.

Beaumont Beaten By New Orleans

BEAUMONT (U)—New Orleans of the Southern Association beat Beaumont of the Texas League, 8-2, yesterday in an exhibition baseball game.

The Pelicans clinched the game with a four-run ninth inning. They scored four unearned runs.

Beaumont made its runs in the seventh inning.

The principal surprise in the trade was that Cavaretta had decided to depend upon Ernie Banks, a 22-year-old Negro rookie, to handle the Cubs' shortstop duties.

Banks' only major league experience was in the 10 games he played with the Cubs at the close of the 1933 season.

Jim Knotts is set to hurl for the Hawks while Doyle Scott will receive his offerings. Knotts hails from Duylne, La., Scott from Denver City.

Charley Rose, Tommy Randolph and Oakie Hagood will also be available for mound duty.

Coach Harold Davis plans to play either Paschell Wickard, Arlen White or P. D. Fletcher at first base and Jack Williams at shortstop. He's undecided about the other positions but has Gerry Hoover, Calvert Shortes and Rex Aulen available for infield duty and can use his pitchers in the outfield.

The Hawks also play Odessa 2C twice this week, meeting them here in two six-inning games on Saturday. First game is down for 2 p.m.

Southern Methodist split a double-header with Brooke Army Medical Center, winning the second game, 10-5, after losing the first, 11-5. Baylor split with Sul Ross, winning the second game, 9-1, after losing the first, 14-4.

Emmet (Red) Ormsby, the ex-American League umpire who filled a speaking engagement here recently, makes no secret of his hostility toward such big league characters as Lippy Durocher and Jimmy Dykes.

He hasn't much use for Paul Richards, who now masterminds the Chicago White Sox, as a matter of fact.

All are notorious umpire baiters. Ormsby once turned down a chance to make a trip to Korea (where he would have spoken to the U.S. troops) because Durocher was going along.

"I used to look for excuses to throw Dykes out of the ball game," he recalled.

Ormsby and Richards never tried to stare each other down as umpire and manager because Red quit long before Richards got promoted to a big league managerial post but Red didn't like the crack (printed here) Richards made recently about all umpires being "hitters' umpires" in that they favored batters over pitchers.

"If he could manage half as well as any of the umpires now working up there can umpire, the Sox would have won the pennant a long time ago," said Ormsby.

Three-run homers by rookies Goster Castleman and Henry Thompson insured the New York Giants' 6-1 victory over Cleveland, the fifth time in seven games that the Giants have whipped the Indians this year.

The Athletics got five good innings of pitching from Bob Trice, the International League's Most Valuable Player last year, and the lead stood up despite homers by George Foose and Frank Thomas.

The springtime shenanigans didn't entirely hide some good old-fashioned baseball, however.

Frankie Baumholtz, one of the National League's better hitters (lifetime average, .291), slammed two doubles and three singles in five times up in pacing an 8-2 victory for the Cubs over the Baltimore Orioles.

Warren Spahn, the senior member of Milwaukee's pitching corps, retired 14 men in succession in the course of pitching seven scoreless innings against Philadelphia as the Braves walloped the Phillies, 10-0. The left-hander gave up four hits and was followed by Jim Wilson, who allowed none in the last two innings.

The New York Yankees, who had absorbed two straight defeats at the hands of the Brooklyn Dodgers, finally whipped them, 8-2. The Y

Roman doctors used electric fish of the Mediterranean to give shock treatments for gout and headaches.

Vaccinating Babies Upon Birth Is Found Effective

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
AP Science Reporter

CLEVELAND (AP)—Vaccinating babies minutes after they're born is safe, effective insurance against dangerous, whooping cough and diphtheria, a family doctor finds. The shots in the arm against these diseases usually aren't started until babies are three to six months old or more.

But Dr. Herbert D. Chamberlain, McArthur, Ohio, told today of good results from giving them as immediate birthday shots as part of the routine treatment of newborn babies.

Of 717 babies treated this way since 1948, not one has had whooping cough or diphtheria, even when other children in the family contracted these diseases, he says in an exhibit for the American Academy of General Practice.

Between 1943 and 1948 in his rural practice in Vinton County, Ohio, there had been 40 cases of whooping cough and 10 deaths among babies less than a year old, he said.

Since 1948, there has not been a single case of whooping cough, except in one baby not inoculated at birth, he said.

He cited government statistics which show whooping cough kills more babies from 1 to 12 months old than all other diseases combined.

It gives the babies a standard vaccine combining protection against whooping cough, diphtheria, and tetanus, a main cause of blood poisoning.

A full treatment consists of three shots. The second is given when the baby is 6 weeks old, when the mother receives a checkup for recovery from childbirth. The third is given when the baby is 3 months old. Three-fourths of all the babies have had the full series, he said.

Koreans Try U.S. Citizen

SEOUL (AP)—Fred Higgins, a Vinita, Okla., businessman, went on trial in a Korean court today on charges of importing 210 Swiss watches illegally to sell on the black market.

Higgins is the first American civilian to be tried by a Korean court since the start of the Korean war.

Higgins denied the charges.

Today's questioning centered about his motives in asking a Korean businessman to tell him the values of the watches.

"I should never have had these watches appraised; that was the one mistake," Higgins told the judge.

Higgins contended that he sought expert advice on the value of the watches to help him negotiate with the U.S. Post Exchange purchasing department for a sale.

The prosecution said that by receiving a quotation in what, the Korean currency, Higgins had anticipated selling the watches on the Korean market without having first paid customs fees.

Higgins, an employee of an American trading firm doing business with U.N. forces in Korea, said the watches in question had been brought to Korea by the U.S. Air Force. He said the Air Force had taken the watches on consignment from a company which later became bankrupt.

Higgins said his firm was the receiver of the bankrupt company and the Air Force turned the watches over to him.

Painter Has Own Ideas On Politics

HOUSTON (AP)—The names of Mayor Roy Hofheinz, eight city councilmen and Comptroller Roy Oakes were obliterated by black paint on two city project signs.

The signs were to tell the public who was getting the work done.

Apparently the brush wielder had his own idea of who was responsible. The blacked-out names on each billboard one word was substituted: "Taxpayers."

About 4 per cent of the land area of New York State is classified as urban.

Back-To-Work Movement Bogs On New York Docks

NEW YORK (AP)—A predicted back-to-work movement on the strike-bound New York waterfront bogged down today.

There was no perceptible move by dock workers despite Mayor Robert F. Wagner's early morning statement that the "strong-arm boys" had been cleared from the waterfront.

Vincent A. R. O'Connor, city commissioner of Marine and Aviation, said a survey at the usual hour men report for work showed no immediate break in the strike.

Sixty ships are tied up at piers throughout the city, O'Connor said, but work was being done at only 14 piers. No work was being done at Hudson and East River piers in Manhattan, O'Connor said, and the only work in progress on Staten Island was at the Army base. In Brooklyn seven ships at the Army base and four at other piers were being worked.

Picket lines of the old International Longshoremen's Union were kept small by police orders. Some rival AFL dock workers ignored pickets at a few piers, but the same men had gone through even larger numbers of pickets last week.

The AFL dock union reported that the wildest strikers of the International Longshoremen's

Assn. (ILA) might be supported by a sympathy stoppage today by tugboat captains and crews, also members of the ILA.

The report could not be confirmed from ILA sources. Such a stoppage would mean that ocean liners and other ships would have to dock and sail without the aid of tugs.

Leaders of the AFL-ILA yesterday predicted a snowballing back-to-work movement starting today, 18th day of the outlaw strike. The strikers pledged to stay off the job until the ILA is certified by the National Labor Relations Board as bargaining agent for the harbor's 24,000 longshoremen. Neither the ILA nor the AFL-ILA now is certified.

Forest Service Is Fearful Of Many Fires This Year

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Forest Service fears unusual difficulty in controlling forest fires in the South and Southwest during the next three months.

Burning conditions are critical due to the cumulative effect of a two-year drought.

The grim outlook was presented to Congress early this month in connection with a Forest Service request for an additional $4 million dollars to pay fire fighting expenses.

Edward P. Cliff, assistant chief of the Forest Service, told the House Appropriations Committee that its six million dollars for forest fire control for the 12 months ending June 30 was overspent by $3,133,840 by January 31.

The Forest Service official estimated that under average weather conditions 3,500 to 4,000 forest fires could be expected between Feb. 1 and June 30 in Mississippi, Florida, Alabama, Louisiana, Missouri, Illinois, South Carolina, Texas, Ohio, Indiana, Arkansas, North Carolina, Tennessee, New Mexico, Arizona, and Southern California.

Two Slav Volley Ball Players Seek Asylum

LISBON, Portugal (AP)—Two Yugoslav volleyball players who say they are tired of communism have deserted their country's championship ball team and asked for political asylum in Portugal.

Officials identified the pair as Budain Gavra and Julka. Just said they turned themselves over to Portuguese police last week.

Gavra was captain of the team, which won an international tournament here last week. Just was its youngest member.

The rest of the team sailed for Bordeaux, France, aboard a British ship.

Birmingham Hearings Set On Communism

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—The Senate internal security subcommittee will hold hearings in Birmingham, probably in June, as a part of what Sen. Eastland (D-Miss.) termed a general investigation of Communist activities in the South.

The subcommittee closed a turbulent 3-day inquiry into the Southern Conference Educational Fund (SCEF) here Saturday.

Displaced 'Prince' Show Rescheduled

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—"Prince Onaga of the Watusi of the Belgian Congo"—disclosed a few days ago as plain Fred Williams of East St. Louis, Ill.—will give his dance concert here after all.

For five years Williams and his Los Angeles-born wife gave "African song and dance concerts" in the United States and Canada, on national television shows, and even appeared in the movie—all as Prince Onaga and Princess Muana.

Williams freely admitted his big hoax when questioned by immigration officials at the request of the Belgian consul, who couldn't understand such a dignitary not making a formal call.

Williams' No. 1 worry was about his scheduled concert April 5. A few hours later it was canceled.

However, publicity-conscious minds prevailed. The concert will be held, but moved up to Saturday night—before the public has time to forget.
