German 'Spring Offensive' Dies Down

Chinese Drive Enemy Army Back Into Burma

CHUNGKING, China, May 12 (AP)—The Japanese have brought up reinforcements and are making a new attack on the Yunnan front in western China, Chinese communiques announced tonight.

Burma had been driven back to the frontier town of Wanting but that heavy fighting with Japanese rearwards continued in the Ching and Mangshih areas, 25 to 55 miles inside Yunnan.

had been by-passed in central Burma, continued their advance in which they captured Maymo and drove to the outskirts of ruined Mandalay, moving north-eastward in an effort to block the Japanese retreat.

On the Salween river front in the Shan states of eastern Burma, another force of Chinese which struck out from near Lollam were facing the Japanese across the river. All these central Burma forces are commanded by Lieut. Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell, U. S. A.

The government spokesman said he applauded Prime Minister Churchill's warning to Germany against the use of poison gas and said China might invoke a similar warning to Japan. China has previously charged that the Japanese have employed both poison gas and bacterial warfare against their armies.

The spokesman said the Japanese had reached Kalewa, 145 miles northwest of Mandalay, after a northwesterly advance from Mandalay. He said the Japanese were attempting to encircle Chinese troops in that section.

(The British in a communique issued at New Delhi said they had thrown back a force of Japanese at Shwegyin, just south of Kalewa, these Japanese troops were advancing up the Chindwin river.)

Merchants To Get Price Information

Wholesalers and retailers from an area between Colorado City and Pecos and Lamesa and Sterling City were to congregate here this evening for a vital clinic on price control.

The meeting, set for 8 p. m., was to be held in the city auditorium and was to be addressed by W. H. Irons, price control specialist, and William Daley, price attorney. William M. Ouzts, Dallas, OPA staff member, also is due to be here for the meeting.

Various details of controlling the general price structure—which is to be based for all practical purposes on March levels—will be discussed by speakers, together with explanations of records, or policy, or legal phases of the program.

The meeting here was considered particularly timely since wholesale price ceilings went into effect Monday except for specifically excepted articles. Ceilings for retailers take effect on Monday, May 18.

Because this is one of the most important federal regulations issued to date, and because it represents putting teeth into a plea by the president to control inflation, all with things to sell were urged to participate in the meeting.

Churchill Fears Nazi Invasion

LONDON, May 12 (AP)—Prime Minister Churchill said today that "air-borne invasion becomes more and more a possibility" but that any attempt of the Germans to land in Britain would be a descent "into a hornets' nest."

Taking heed of his own Sunday warning against a German gas attack, the prime minister wore a gas mask over his shoulder as he spoke informally at an inspection of a home guard unit at Westminster palace. The unit is composed largely of peevish newspapermen and members of parliament.

The prime minister said that under the home guard program "now we have the best part of 1,750,000 men trained to use arms."

School Board Orders Suits On Taxes

To those who are behind with their school taxes: better make arrangements to pay, or else. This was, in effect, the notice that was going out this week to all delinquents of the Big Spring Independent school district rolls, by order of the board of trustees.

Board members, surveying the fiscal affairs of the district at their last meeting, decided that the time has come to take positive action on collection of past due accounts, and voted to take cases to court if delinquencies are not taken care of by June 1.

There are some 600 individuals delinquent in their school taxes, including holders of both real and personal property. The school tax office said delinquencies on the rolls total approximately $55,000.

Letters to delinquents list the amount outstanding and carry the statement "that unless this account is taken care of by June 1, 1942, it will be turned over to the school's attorney for collection."

Trustees said the collection of past due taxes is imperative to maintain balance in school operation. They felt that many persons can and will take care of their accounts if they are impressed with the gravity of the situation, but those who fail to respond to this week's letter may expect to face legal action.

Army Pleads For More Physicians

HOUSTON, May 12 (AP)—Doctors of the nation were urged today by Col. Leonard G. Rowntree, chief of the medical division of the selective service system, to volunteer their services without delay to the United States army or navy.

Colonel Rowntree, himself a physician and a director of the Philadelphia Institute for Medical Research, sounded his plea before the opening session of the state medical association of Texas.

Stressing the "greatest critical situation" which this nation ever has faced, the selective service medical chief said all doctors, both medical and dentists, under 36 years of age will be needed by the armed services, and added that probably all of them up to 45 will be needed.

Tire, Auto Dealers Due To Get Help

WASHINGTON, May 12 (AP)—Thousands of dealers in automobiles, trucks, tires and other goods being rationed may find eventual financial relief under legislation signed today by President Roosevelt.

The measure directs the government's reconstruction finance corporation to advance loans on these rationed articles, or purchase them outright if dealers are unable to sell them after 18 months.

14 Trapped In Sinking Ship

MIAMI, Fla., May 12 (AP)—Fourteen seamen including a gun crew, were trapped in their quarters when a medium sized Dutch merchantman was torpedoed off the Atlantic coast, and they apparently went down with their ship.

The Dutch seamen had no opportunity to reach their guns on deck. Those trapped below decks had no chance to escape as the ship, covered with flames, sank rapidly. It went down so quickly the lifeboats were caught in the davits and could not be launched.

The navy revealed that 20 survivors of the Dutch ship, including Capt. Johannes Peter Gilly of Amsterdam, got aboard life rafts and were saved by other craft.

Late yesterday the navy announced that two American merchant ships were lost in enemy action off the coast. In one of these cases, a naval vessel fired on two attacking submarines but apparently both escaped because another ship was in the line of fire.

There was no loss of life among the 32 members of the crew of one ship, but three lives, including that of heroic Assistant Engineer P. Spera who stayed at his post to cut off the engines after the torpedo struck, were lost in the other attack.

Work Speeds At Airport

Activities at the airport area were beginning to take on an increased tempo Tuesday as preparations were made for beginning operations on a large scale.

Men were being examined preparatory to hire by the contracting firm—Brown & Root, Inc., and Bellows Construction Co.—and there were indications that little time would be lost in forging into action.

Contractors have set up offices in the Petroleum building and are rapidly getting preliminary arrangements in hand, preparatory to starting the drive that is to see the big U. S. Army Flying School here completed early in August.

First Tin Produced From Smelter In Texas

WASHINGTON, May 12 (AP)—The first sample of tin produced at the new government-financed tin smelter at Texas City, Tex., was displayed today by Representative Mansfield (D-Tex.), who told the house yesterday it came from ore shipped from Bolivia and the Dutch East Indies.

Located on the mainland just 8 miles from Galveston, the "Longhorn Smelter" produced tin for the first time on Easter. The project was erected by Tin Processing Corporation as the agent of the Defense Plant Corporation, a unit of the Federal Loan Agency.

Scout-Observation Planes In Production. Ready for delivery to the U.S. Navy are these seagull (BOGOL) scout observation planes lined up outside the Curtiss-Wright Corporation's Columbus, O., plant. This is the first authorized publication of pictures of the planes designed to serve as "eyes of the fleet." Adaptable to wheels or floats, the seagull can be launched by catapult from cruisers or battle ships.

France Near Vital Decisions

Nazis Speed French Factories Work Hours

In War Plants Are Increased

VICHY, Unoccupied France, May 12 (AP)—The German military command in France issued today a sweeping decree taking to itself powers to increase working hours in French enterprises and ordering employers to report immediately the number and categories of workmen made available for other work as a result of longer hours.

(Presumably the order applies only to the occupied zone.) Despite abolition of the old popular front laws, a large proportion of French industry has been working a 40-hour week, and even as little as half that in order to spread the limited employment possibilities.

The decree of Gen. Otto von Stuepnagel, military commandant of occupied France, said minimum working hours would be set by the economic services of the occupation authorities. Lengthening of hours would render many persons unemployed, and it is with them that the census order deals.

(The implication is that the Germans intend thus to increase their pool of forced labor, which has been reported running short of the Nazi demands.) Simultaneously, Chief of State Petain returned to Vichy today from his suddenly interrupted holiday on the Riviera and immediately began a series of conferences with the chief of government, Pierre Laval, and various cabinet members.

It was said the marshal's vacation was cut short "because of circumstances," the nature of which still was not revealed at noon. (There was a possibility that the return and the series of talks involved Martinique and France's East Indian possessions since the United States last week-end requested guarantees from the local government of Martinique that that island and other French possessions in the area would not be used by the axis or in any other way become menaces to the United States.)

The "big barn dance" — one thrown by and for the Texas Defense Guard — will come off this evening as scheduled with folks from all over town and the county joining in the festivities.

Starting time for the frolic is set at 9 p. m. in the spacious Howard county warehouse in the northwest edge of town, and despite the fact that perhaps several hundred will attend, the more than 9,000 square feet of space available for dancing should be enough to accommodate any sized crowd.

Hoyle Nix and his Center Point Serenaders, furnishing the music free as a contribution to the guard, were all ready with a variety of numbers from the old time squared dance tunes to currently popular selections. A public address system has been installed and will enable music to fill the huge hall.

Concessions will be operated by the members of company E, 84th HN, TDG, and there will be hot dogs and soda pop (which, contrary to earlier misinformation, will be 10 cents, according to concessionaires).

American Legion and auxiliary officials, sponsors of the affair, said that preliminary checks had indicated a big ticket sale. The guard was ready, some members being instructed to report as early as 5 p. m. for special details. The first of three shifts of guards — to watch over cars, ground, etc. — was instructed to report early by Capt. Cliff D. Wiley, company commander.

Unlike many benefit activities, the one this evening is due to see almost every penny — exclusive of federal tax — go to the guard for equipment, supplies, etc.

14 PLANES DOWNED

CAIRO, May 12 (AP)—The defenders of Malta shot down 14 more axis raiders in the 24 hours ended at noon Monday, the RAF said today in a communique.

Nazis Attempt Crimean Drive

MOSCOW, May 12 (AP)—A German offensive against soviet positions blocking invasion of the Caucasus died down overnight as quickly as it had flared up on the Kerch peninsula of the Crimea, the Russians disclosed today.

The mid-day communique said nothing important occurred last night, indicating the Nazi push had ceased at least temporarily. Whether red army resistance halted the attack or the Germans reverted to their old tactics of fighting by day and resting by night could not be determined immediately.

This was in sharp contrast with the Soviet midnight communique, which told of stubborn battles against a German offensive on the Kerch peninsula. (The German high command, however, declared: "On the Kerch peninsula German and Rumanian troops opened an attack May 8 supported by strong formations of the German air force. The battle since then has been in full swing.")

(A British commentator in London said the Russians had driven the Germans back after four days of fierce fighting which may have been intended as the forerunner of a major offensive by the Nazis.) German goals include seizure of oil and timber of the Caucasus, turning of the allied flank in Iran and possibly a junction with Japan at the Indian ocean.

(The southern front is the first to offer solid footing after the Russian winter. Military observers long have forecast that Hitler would make his first major move of the spring there.)

In the north, the Red army was reported leaving a heavy toll on German manpower and equipment in stubborn fighting. Ukrainian guerrillas were reported officially to have inflicted heavy losses on the 22nd and 48th Romanian infantry regiments and to have "wiped out a big punitive expedition" a few days later.

It was reported that Otto Abetz, Adolf Hitler's representative in Paris, and Laval met yesterday at Moulins, on the French demarcation line, and laid the groundwork for the expected meeting with Goering.

Laval was said to have brought France to the brink of three big decisions—rejection of the American proposals for clarifying the status of Martinique, the degree of military collaboration with the axis, and at least a preliminary settlement of disputed points with Italy.

Although the question of military collaboration was to be decided, foreign diplomat observers said they doubted it would go as far as an outright military alliance. The biggest point is the French fleet, which, with French troops in Africa, would represent considerable reinforcements for the Germans, who are seeking new sources of power in every possible section.

WASHINGTON, May 12 (AP)—Secretary of State Hull indicated today the United States was not particularly interested in whether a French government headed by Pierre Laval recognizes or does not recognize any agreement which may be reached with the French high commissioner on Martinique. Hull was asked at his press conference whether it was true that the collaborator chief of government in Vichy had notified the United States he would not recognize any arrangement for the safeguarding of Martinique unless it was submitted to Vichy for approval.

The secretary replied he had nothing on that subject except to say that this government was not undertaking to follow any phase of the Martinique itself.

Nazis Execute 24 Dutchmen

LONDON, May 12 (AP)—The German occupation forces in the Netherlands executed today 24 more alleged leaders of a secret anti-Nazi organization, bringing to 96 the number of Hollanders shot for alleged complicity in a plot to pave the way for an Allied invasion, the Netherlands radio announced.

The 24 were charged with espionage and possession of arms. The radio announcement said "The trial of leaders of the secret organization is now concluded" and that besides the 24 shot one had been sentenced to death but had been reprieved and that two had received sentences of life imprisonment.

President Designates New Air Corps Medal

WASHINGTON, May 12 (AP)—President Roosevelt authorized today the establishment of a new "air medal" to be awarded to persons in the armed services who distinguish themselves with a flight.

The executive order creating the medal did not describe it but stipulated that no more than one shall be awarded to an individual. For additional meritorious achievements, a bar or other device may be awarded to be worn with the medal.

Aerial photo, subsequent to September 8, 1939, may be given recognition, the order said, by award of the medal.

Three British Destroyers Sunk

LONDON, May 12 (AP)—The British admiralty announced today that three British destroyers had been sunk by German bombs in the Mediterranean.

The destroyers were the Lively, Jackal and Kipling. More than 500 officers and men from the three ships were saved.

Complements of the three ships were believed to total about 600 officers and men.

During the attacks British Beaufighters destroyed one of the Heinkel bombers and damaged at least seven, the communique said.

The loss of the three ships brought to 77 the number of British destroyers sunk in 24 months of the war.

In the battle of Crete, the Kipling, despite repeated and continued bombings, picked up the survivors of the destroyers Kelly and Kashmir which had been sunk. Two direct dive-bombing attacks were made on the Kipling in this action.

Last June 2, the British announced that with three other destroyers the Kipling sank one Italian and two German submarines operating against British ships in the Mediterranean.

The Lively was part of a task force which on Nov. 9, 1941, wiped out two merged axis convoys in the central Mediterranean. The British claimed the axis lost ten merchant ships, four destroyers and suffered damage to a fifth destroyer.

Women Army Corps Bill Is Passed

WASHINGTON, May 12 (AP)—Legislation authorizing establishment of a women's army auxiliary corps was approved by the senate today and sent on to the White House.

Responding to pleas of Senator Austin (R-Vt.), the assistant Republican leader, for speed, the senate approved 88 to 37, the women's army bill previously passed by the house.

Before passing the measure the senate rejected, 37 to 28, an amendment offered by Senator Maloney (D-Conn.) which would have restricted service to the corps to within the boundaries of the United States.

The measure would authorize establishment of a corps of up to 150,000 volunteer women to relieve soldiers from many non-combatant duties. General Marshall, army chief of staff, has informed congress there were many jobs that women could do better than men, including detailed work in the air raid warning service.

Trinity Floods Liberty Area

LIBERTY, May 12 (AP)—The state highway department continued to convoy traffic on highway 90 through the flooded Trinity river lowlands today, but officials said the slowly rising water may force closing of the Houston-Beaumont route at any time.

Several passenger and freight trains already were held up on a Houston-Beaumont run, as traffic ceased early today over three miles of water-covered tracks on the southern Pacific because of a damaged roadbed.

Motorists In East Register For Gasoline

WASHINGTON, May 12 (AP)—As resident motorists from Maine to Florida started registration today for gasoline ration cards the senate interstate commerce committee recommended an investigation into possible use of inland waterways "for transportation of petroleum products and other articles and commodities."

Recently, along similar lines, the senate approved a proposal to direct the maritime commission to provide not less than $20,000,000 to be used to build towboats and barges for movement of oil, gasoline, petroleum and other commodities on inland waterways.

Despite these indications that congress believed the shortage of transportation was necessitating the drastic limitation in gasoline, there was considerable speculation that a primary purpose was to conserve tires and automobiles.

Leon Henderson, the price administrator who will direct the rationing, has told congress that the gasoline limitation necessarily would restrict travel and conserve tires, and President Roosevelt directed that the rationing be based on recommendations of Joseph B. Eastman, defense transportation coordinator, who was instructed to conserve the automobiles, tires and gasoline of the nation.

Miss Laneous Notes

By MARY WEALEY

Did you ever long to do something, finally get a chance and then have everything happen to you? Such is the tale of our needle-pointing.

Always we had envied the other girls darting needles in and out and weaving lovely patterns for their backs, footstools and the like but never did we have quite the nerve to attempt it.

However, a bargain finally got us started, (it's our Scotch blood, and we bought two pieces). Of course, we didn't know what to begin, but somebody showed us how. It wasn't the right stitch but ignorance is happiness, so we didn't know until the whole piece was done.

It took the cleaners three days to get it back again in the semblance of a square shaped object. A little bit late, we asked for measurements of our favorite chair and discovered the chair too big for the piece.

However, with another piece still to be done and enough thread to complete it, we pulled in our lower lip and started the second one, working on the theory that both might someday fit some furniture.

About mid-way on the second attempt, we discovered our yarn was of two different colors. Some sales girl had slipped us a curve. Of course, what with the war and all, we could find no thread to match. But many new things have come from shortages and for the first time in history no doubt, there is to be a striped piece of needle point. When folks ask us about it, we intend to act as if we were all intentional and the style very new.

Sadler, Culberson Favor 1,400,000-Barrel Order

That Amount Is Shown In Nominations

AUSTIN, May 12 (AP) — Two members of the Texas railroad commission agreed today the state should have a 1,400,000-barrel daily crude oil allowance for the last 15 days of May.

Commissioner Jerry Sadler, assenting purchasers had made a 1,400,000-barrel firm nomination at a special statewide hearing yesterday, declared he would not sign an order for less oil production.

Commissioner Olin Culberson said he was in "substantial agreement" with his colleague.

Commission Chairman Ernest O. Thompson was out of the city.

The office of the petroleum coordinator has certified a 900,000-barrel allowance for Texas in May. Reflecting on the special hearing Sadler added:

"From all indications it appears that the major companies are trying to close in on the independent operators, and one example came to light to bear this out.

"This company's Washington representative requested that the OPA fix Texas' allowance at 900,000 barrels daily and the same company's representative told this commission that his company's nominations were all firm.

"The commission's records show that on March 1, there were 92,256,000 barrels of oil in storage, and on April 25 storage was 94,322,000 barrels. This means that there are approximately 50,000,000 barrels of empty refinery storage, a good part of which is located at plants operated by independents throughout the state.

"Petroleum Coordinator Ickes has a tireless and thankless task, but in all his conscientiousness and sincerity I believe that major purchasers, through their representatives in Washington, are telling Mr. Ickes one thing and then the same purchasers are having their representatives here give this commission conflicting information. I believe that it is high time to bring these 'plapted' irregularities out in the open.

"This is certainly no time to let such differences exist, and I, for one member of the Texas commission, am not going to sit by and let the big boys try to hoodwink the people, choke the life's breath out of the independents and permit the one-sixth of our Texans who are dependent upon the oil business to take the rap."

British Casualties Total Over 183,000

LONDON, May 12 (AP)—Casualties in the British Empire's armed forces for the first two years of the war were 183,550, of which 48,978 were killed, Clement Attlee, secretary of state for dominion affairs, disclosed today in reply to a question in the house of commons.

Other casualties, excluding deaths from natural causes, included 46,363 wounded; 58,458 prisoners of war; and 29,756 missing.

Both civil and criminal penalties may be invoked against anyone who violates the price control law.

Varied 'Grub' And Plenty Of It Seen On Troop Train

By MARY WHALEY
Visiting an army kitchen on a troop train is just about as interesting a trip as you can take and about as rare a privilege as making a debut in grand opera. But sometimes a reporter gets a break.

There were the inevitable boys unhappily peeling those same dern potatoes that their fathers peeled, and like their fathers, the menu for that night read "beans" for supper.

But unlike during Dad's hitch in the army, these soldiers were to have salad, roast beef, coffee, buns and pudding. How it tasted we can't say, but the smell was wonderful.

Two cars in the troop train were made into the kitchen and since it was getting near "chow time" the main activity was in the kitchens. Big steam ovens were scientifically cooking the food and the cook was more than anxious to tell that these same ovens can be carried along on maneuvers and used in camps.

Gripping about army food is the soldier's number one occupation, so they said during the last war, but while the cooks menus may not taste just "like mother makes" these days he gets mighty few complaints.

Each day, a menu made out from army headquarters, provides the list of essentials for each meal. Just to keep the cooking from the realm of hit and miss methods, such information is posted in the train kitchens telling how many pounds, quarts and gallons of everything are needed to feed 100 men. All the cook has to do is to multiply that by the number he is to feed.

And there can't be any spoiled pudding on a troop train.

Also steaming away in one corner of the train was a big pot of hot water. And that, so the boys informed, was where they washed their own dishes when the meal was over.

Crates of eggs, enough to scare an ordinary housewife, were stored in the cars and you got a rough idea of why the government was calling on all good chickens to come to the aid of their country.

From the looks of things in the kitchen, Joe Soldier, 1942 style, is getting good food and plenty of it.

Many Articles Improved By Substitute Materials

By JOHN B. LEWIS
NEW YORK, May 12 (AP) — Skim milk felt hats for Papa, cotton girdles for Mama, and vegetable quilts to warm the family—these are some of America's industry's answers to the problems of supply posed by wartime priorities.

They were among products displayed by leading firms here to prove that manufacturing genius could provide substitute articles of equal or better quality than those formerly made of materials now diverted to wartime needs.

The display was convincing evidence that the average citizen will still be able to buy household gadgets and little luxuries he thought he would have to do without when current supplies were exhausted.

To replace rationed rubber, metal and other war-scarce materials, industry has plumbed the resources of forest, farm and chemical laboratory.

For example: Little Jimmy may now anticipate repairing his roller skates with plastic wheels that wear longer and make less noise than steel ones.

And Mistress Mary will find her dolls cuddle just as cozy, filled with milkweed instead of kapoc, a fibre.

Musicians who used to boast about that specially imported reed for their clarinets (a South Pacific product), can now "go out of the world" with a home-made plastic lip piece.

Comforters of sufficient warmth to withstand the coldest night are now made from plain garden variety vegetables. The technical name for the filling is cellulose, but it's still just a vegetable off-spring.

Pillows, like Mary's doll, are softer when they contain milkweed silk instead of wool matting.

And, incidentally, the U. S. navy is using some life preservers filled with this same milkweed silk instead of kapoc.

Drapes, curtains and even dress materials are being made of soy beans, skim milk cloth, fiberglass and rayon. Tough, new products such as belts and synthetic leather goods are produced from a resin derived from coal, lime and salt.

Elastic trims, available in every color of the rainbow and not touched by war priorities, will substitute for chromium and other polished surfaces.

Cooking wear of glass and earth are being demonstrated as flame proof and oven proof. But the old cast-iron skillet and roaster are coming back into their own to take the place of aluminum.

Chairs and tables of glass with substitute cloth coverings lend a modern touch.

The manufacturers have gone as far as to develop fan propellers and gears from impregnated plastics, which won't corrode.

And for hard-worked government officials, one manufacturer has created the "victory fan" with plastic blade, cotton insulation and silver wiring. For every 1,000 fans delivered three tons of aluminum, steel, brass, copper, zinc and rubber are saved.

Stars' Dallas Visit Nets $37,000 For Army-Navy Relief

DALLAS, May 12 (AP)—A $37,222 contribution to the army emergency and navy relief funds was made last night by the thousands who turned out to see an array of movie stars, starlets and supporting players touring the country in the Hollywood caravan.

The box office counted $35,222, and the difference was made up by expensive concessions at the show sold by Dallas Career Girls, bonds sold by some of the actors at a downtown department store and two programs autographed by all the members of the caravan which sold for a total of $900.

J. G. Parker of Fort Worth was high bidder at $500 for one program. Each bidder received a kiss from Merle Oberon as a bonus.

Dispersed Japanese Fleet Suffers More Losses

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, Australia, May 12 (AP) — Japan apparently still was paying a disastrous price today for her defeat in the Coral Sea as General MacArthur's headquarters announced that Allied fliers tracking down the scattered, hiding remnants of the great enemy invasion armada and other units had damaged two, and probably three, more ships.

This raised the count of Japanese losses in the six-day battle in the sea gateway northeast of Australia and in its sequel, a ceaseless search of island hideaways, to 23 or 24 ships in the eight days from the start of the Coral Sea battle through yesterday.

Nevertheless, Japan's plans have only been delayed and the threat still hangs over Australia that she will try again to smash southward, Air Minister Arthur H. Drakeford warned.

Two more enemy transports — casualties numbers 22 and 23 — were hit yesterday in the Solomon Islands, which enclose the Coral Sea on the north, a communique from General MacArthur's headquarters announced.

The possible 24th Japanese casualty was a large tanker on which, the communique said, air raiders registered two hits or near misses in the Deboyne Islands of the Louisiade group, a cluster of tiny islets in the Coral Sea off the southeast tip of New Guinea.

An army spokesman said the Louisiades definitely were not occupied by the Japanese, explaining the enemy had landed a few stores and supplies from boats and planes but apparently no ground forces.

The only enemy actions mentioned in the communique were two apparently feeble air attacks, one with slight damage to an air-drome at Port Moresby, the Allies' New Guinea stronghold, and the other, with no damage, on an air-drome on Horn Island in Torres Strait between New Guinea and the mainland.

Need For Tires Is Stressed By Doctors

HOUSTON, May 12 (AP) — The three-day 67th annual convention of the State Medical Association of Texas began today after the council of medical economics criticized any tendency by automobile and tire rationing boards to apply unduly severe restrictive measures to physicians.

A report prepared by the body asserted that "the distribution of adequate medical care to the American people is the primary purpose for the eligibility of physicians and surgeons to purchase new cars and tires."

"Any impairment of transportation for doctors," the report added, "checks or stops the distribution of adequate medical service all out of proportion to the interference."

Calm Down, They Are Only Triplets

ABINGTON, England, May 12 (AP) — Shucks, they were only triplets! After getting half of England all excited upon the basis of medical reports and having neighbors knit layettes for quintuplets — or quadruplets at least — three children were born today to Mrs. Emily Woodley, 28, and her soldier-husband, Private Arthur Woodley.

The United States is ready to use gas if the enemy breaks the Geneva protocol of 1925 but Senator Barkley of Kentucky, the democratic leader, said he hoped that time would never come. "If they start it, though," he declared, "we certainly shall have to use gas."

Gas Masks Urged For America As Protection From 'Sneak' Attacks

WASHINGTON, May 12 (AP) — A possibility of imminent poison gas warfare in Europe prompted members of congress today to urge speedy action toward supplying American war workers and other civilians with masks to protect them against any sneak gas raids that might be attempted on this country.

Congress appropriated $20,892,894 last February for the purchase of gas masks for civilians, and Senator Hill of Alabama, the democratic whip, said he thought industrial workers ought to be equipped with them as quickly as possible.

"I don't anticipate any gas raids on this country," Hill told reporters, "but we can't afford to leave any stone unturned to protect our vital war industries, particularly in the coastal areas."

There has been speculation in congress that Atlantic coast cities might become targets for token raids by axis planes launched from submarines, carriers or even dirigibles with the coming of summer months.

The United States is ready to use gas if the enemy breaks the Geneva protocol of 1925 but Senator

While most legislators thought the American armed forces were well supplied with both offensive and defensive gas equipment, they pointed out that few civilians in this country had masks.

Part of last February's appropriation was set aside for the construction of facilities to manufacture masks for civilians, but Senator O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.) pointed out that the shortage of rubber — a necessity in masks — was such that it might interfere with any immediate large scale production.

Alvin York's Cousin Joins Marine Corps

DENVER, May 12 (AP) — Allen Leroy York, 20, a cousin of Sgt. Alvin C. York, hero of the World War, joined the marine corps yesterday.

"I don't guess I could do as well as Alvin did, but I sure would like to try," he told recruiting officials.

Corpus Contract Is Given Approval

FORT WORTH, May 12 (AP) — Approval of the award of a contract by the city of Corpus Christi providing for construction of a complete incinerator as a war public works project was announced today by George F. Harley, regional engineer for the federal works agency. The contract was awarded on a bid of $138,532 to the Texas Gulf Construction company of Galveston and is scheduled for completion within 150 days.

Materials for synthetic rubber are specifically exempted from the OPA order establishing maximum prices.

Fleming Keeps Up Hot Pace To Aid Cleveland

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

Ordinarily anybody who can bat .414 in a class A-1 minor league can expect to have flags flying and bugles blowing for a ceremonial cross-over of the major leagues' threshold.

Les Fleming hit .414 for Nashville in the Southern Association last year and was gunning for a league record with an average of .421 until he was blanked in a doubleheader on the final day of the season. He batted .678 in the playoffs and .470 in the Dixie series, too.

But Fleming was greeted with ridicule when he undertook to become the regular first baseman of the Cleveland Indians this spring. Observers said he was too short and clumsy to field his position and recalled occasions such as a game last fall when Fleming lost his mitt juggling a teammate's throw and barely managed to hold the

His stratospheric average, and his 29 home runs, didn't count, they said, because Nashville has a notoriously short rightfield fence and a lot of his hits down there would be merely long flies in the major leagues.

Well, the season is a month old now and Fleming not only still is holding forth at first base for the Tribe, but it is a vital reason for the Indians being in second place today, a game and a half behind the New York Yankees.

Some of those drives the squat, powerful Fleming tears off are better than long flies even in the American league and one of them yesterday was a home run over the rightfield wall at League Park in Cleveland. It came with the score tied, two mates on base and two out in the ninth inning and it beat the Detroit Tigers 8-5.

It was his third roundtripper of the season, enhancing a .333 batting average.

Most of the major league clubs were traveling yesterday preparing to inaugurate another inter-sectional series today and only one other contest was scheduled.

In this the Boston Braves nosed out the Philadelphia Phils 3-2. Tom Earley hurled seven-hit ball for the Braves and big Ernie (Schmoe) Lombardi nailed down the triumph with a two-run homer in the fifth inning, breaking a tie score. Albie Glasco hit a home run in the fourth for the Phils.

Lawson Little's entry was among the latest received.

Herald Carriers Distribute $5500 In Stamps, Bonds

In the 18 weeks they have been serving as Social Defense Agents for Uncle Sam's treasury, Herald carrier boys have sold over $5,500 in War Stamps and Bonds.

A tabulation showed that the newbies, who deliver bonds and stamps regularly each week to the doors of their customers, had distributed the equivalent of 65,890 10-cent stamps.

That's a weekly average of 3,106 stamps—or $310—and an average per boy of 173 stamps per week.

The carriers will continue with their stamp distribution, and will accept orders from any person on their routes, making deliveries regularly each Saturday.

WOW, Radford Are Winners In Softball

The WOW team won two ways from the American Business club ten, while Radford Grocery was blasting the Lions for a 16-4 victory. Money night's games in the softball league.

ABC was unable to muster enough eligible players, so WOW took the matched game by forfeit. However, ABC-ers scratched around and made up a team and the tilt was run off unofficially. The result was a humdinger, with WOW emerging with a 4-3 victory. There were only four hits by each team.

The Radford bunch found the going easy against the Lions, and nicked Smith for 13 safeties.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
Wide World Sports Columnist

NEW YORK, May 12—Looks as if Billy Conn and his paw-in-law wasted a good outdoor fight show by putting it on in the house.

A lot of folks we know would paid more to see that one than some of the so-called "big fights."

...Headline: "Chalky" Wright Stops Young Boxer at 57"—we always thought chalky was clipping a few years off his age.

After looking over Ernie Bonham's record of three shutouts in four games, Roy Nasseu of the Hearshurg (Pa.) Telegraph suggests calling him "The Wizard of O'". And Deak Morse of the St. Johnsbury (Vt.) Caledonian-Record adds that Bobby Doerr's big batting average obviously tabs him as a "swinging Doerr."

Today's guest star—Murray Tynan, New York Herald Tribune: "Alab will live long in America's memory as a colt that was robbed of a triple crown by the dollar sign."

Service dept.—The Chanute Field (Ill.) Planesport club may claim some sort of baseball championship if they win all their games. Their schedule includes the Stateville branch of the Illinois penitentiary, the Joliet "big house" team and the Indiana state penitentiary—also the House of David and those noted sponsors of the "chain gang," the Cardinals...Lieut. Edward N. (Ody) Walters, who was killed in a bomber crash near Alexandria, La., recently, was captain of the Grinnell college football team in 1940. He also played basketball and was a pole vaulter on the track team in his high school days.

They can't hurt us—When Sam Rose, 220-pound New-ark N. J. fight manager, took a couple of his boys to Washington to fight, the boxing commission doctor turned them both down because of high blood pressure.... "Give me a check, Doc," Rose suggested.... "The doc did and found Sam okay.... 'That's because I've never trained in my life,' Rose explained.

Van Patrick, who used to block for Sammy Baugh, at Texas Christian, now is putting a daily baseball review on the air from Rock Island, Ill....The day after Bob Bowman of the Cubs had a violent nightmare, a notice appeared in the clubhouse: "Passeau asks waivers on his roommate."

Beaumont Has Tighter Hold On 1st Place

By The Associated Press

The tenure of the Beaumont Exporters as Texas league leaders was extended last night when they clipped the Fort Worth Cats for a 3-1 decision, while the Tulsa Oilers, who had been blowing down the necks of the Shippers, lost 6-8 to the Houston Buffs.

Beaumont was at the head of the pack by a two-game margin thanks largely to the one-hit game turned in by Earl Cook, who permitted only two runners to reach base. Toren Bain pitched well for the Cats, but he wasn't in Cook's class last night.

The San Antonio Missions fell 4 to 5 before the Indians at Oklahoma City, and the Dallas Rebels, making a home stand, finally managed to win a game, beating Shreveport 7-6 in a ten-inning affair.

Houston unleashed a savage attack against the Oilers at Tulsa, scoring seven runs in the fourth and fifth innings off Byron Humphries. Frank Marino took Humphries' place, succeeding in blunting the Buff offensive. Tulsa put on a three-run rally in the seventh and knocked Eldred Byerley out of the box, but George Kleins, sent in for Byerley, stemmed the rush.

Oklahoma City came from behind with a two-run rally in the eighth to whip San Antonio. A one-run Mission lead was overcome when the Indians put together doubles by Hershel Martin and Alex Hooks, a single by Danny Hoyle, a walk to John Stamper and a long fly by Manager Homer Peel with the bases full.

One of the smallest crowds of the season was on hand to see the Rebels outscore Shreveport, Dallas, in a desperate effort to stop a long string of losses, used three pitchers: John Johnson, McPartland getting credit for the win.

English Lad Given Proof Of Cowboys

COLORADO CITY, May 12—Sheriff Dick Gregory of Mitchell county is a busy man but not too busy to satisfy the curiosity of a little English boy who wrote a letter addressed to "The Sheriff."

The thirteen-year-old lad wanted iron-clad proof that there are really cowboys in Texas so he asked for pictures. The sheriff got the western atmosphere together and mailed it to "Fairfield," 68 Moorgate, Rotherham, Yorkshire, England.

"This week a second letter came thanking him. "After the war is over I shall be coming to Texas and Colorado City and will see you all. Father has promised to bring me."

"I do a lot of horse riding here. I want to get a big cowboy saddle. I often wonder why you have such big ones."

Now all the sheriff has to do is figure that one out.

Yank Airmen Who Crashed Return To Australia To Get New Planes

SOMEWHERE IN AUSTRALIA, May 12 (AP)—Thirteen American airmen whose planes crashed in the New Guinea area have arrived in Australia to pick up new planes and continue the fight against the Japanese.

One man was the only survivor of a bomber which exploded in a forced landing off the New Guinea coast.

He was hurried through the wreckage into the water and before losing consciousness managed to start the automatic inflation valve of his life jacket.

Dazed, he floated for seven hours "with things sticking up like submarine periscopes" about him, he said.

"I guess they were sharks but I wasn't worried. I had too many other things to think about. And I couldn't understand why I was alive when all the others were killed."

The tide finally pushed him onto the beach. He was within 50 yards of a village where a native doctor tended his wounds and fed him.

Later he was joined by 12 other airmen who had crashed in the area in two planes. The 13 joined in memorial services for five dead comrades.

The fliers were well cared for by the natives—they said they were fed on delicious seaweed steaks—and finally set out for Port Moresby, allied base on the south coast of New Guinea, in a small boat.

The broadcast will be at 6:30 p. m. (11:30 a. m. Central War Time) on a wave band of 20.35 and 15.37 meters.

Every person who owns or acquires one or more retail stores must register each of these stores with the office of price administration and receive a certificate of registration. A regulation will be issued by OPA prescribing the manner, time and place for registration.

Norwegian Teachers Tortured By Nazis, Exiled Government Charges

LONDON, May 12 (AP)—The Norwegian government-in-exile charged today that German occupation authorities in Norway had established a concentration camp at Jostedalmoen where 700 school teachers were systematically tortured "to break them physically and spiritually."

In an 8,000-word document, the government reviewed alleged attempts by Major Vidkun Quisling, the puppet premier, to justify the school system through threats and terror and asserted that 1,500 teachers who refused to join the Nazi teachers organization were in concentration camps.

After 14 days of a terroristic regime, the statement declared, 20 of the 700 teachers collapsed and agreed to withdraw resignations from the teachers' front, but the remainder held out.

Five hundred of the more obstinate teachers were thrown aboard the 33-year-old ship Skjersstad, bound for forced labor in the Arctic, the statement added. It said the teachers were "packed in to the hold where they had bare standing room."

The statement said that Quisling had ordered all Norwegian teachers to join the teachers' front, whose duty it would be, the Norwegians charged, "to serve as a straight jacket for all those who were unwilling to do their duty to the state and the Norwegian youth."

Bopping Pa-In-Law Expensive—Broken Hand Costs Conn A Fight

NEW YORK, May 12 (AP)—The punch Billy Conn landed on his father-in-law's head in a fight that started out as a "kiss-and-make-up" feast, may cost the Pittsburgh pretty boy a cool $125,000 or more.

That's what he could have expected as his share from the planned late June or early July fight with Joe Louis, which veteran fight men figured would have drawn at least three-quarters of a million dollars. This tussle is off now, because the punch broke Billy's hand and put him out of action for ten weeks or more.

Of course, Promoter Mike Jacobs says Billy'll get a return shot at the bomber in September, but no one knows whether it'll be as "hot" an attraction then or whether conditions will be such as to permit these two soldier boys to hold a big outdoor fight.

Meantime, the June or July title chance will go to someone else, probably Robert Pastor in New York, Cleveland or Chicago.

Billy was back at Fort Wade today taking up his bucket-privating where he left off before going to his Pittsburgh home for the christening of his month-old son, David Philip. It was only a few hours after that ceremony Sunday that his father-in-law, former National league outfielder Jimmy Smith, summoned Conn through a friend to the Smith home to straighten out their differences.

The two have been at odds for three years, ever since Billy first met and fell in love with the girl who is now his wife—Smith's daughter, Mary Louise. When they were married a year ago, Smith threatened to "punch Conn's head off," and since then the feud hasn't cooled off a bit.

The invitation to talk it over came by phone to Billy at his home from Art Rooney, Pittsburgh pro football and fight promoter, and friend of both.

"I went to Smith's house as Art asked," Billy related. "Then Smith said, you and I have got some things to talk over. Let's go in the kitchen."

"When we got there, he started to holler at me. I told him to talk quietly, that I could hear. Then he said, 'Aren't you scared of me,' and I told him I wasn't scared of anybody, particularly him. Then it started. I hit him on the head, and I told him I broke my hand. It only lasted a few minutes before friends separated us. In the confusion, my shirt was ripped off and I wound up with just my tie around my neck."

Orphans Come Out With A 13-10 Victory

The Big Spring stand of the Wichita Falls Spudders may mean something, after all.

The "orphan" club made it two in a row over the Borger outfit in Monday's twilight setto, running up a 13-10 victory in a free scoring affair.

This evening—game time is at 6:30—the club that is calling Big Spring home for the time being takes on a nine that last year called Big Spring home. The opponent is the Rawlins-Kat combines from up Lamesa way, which comes here for two games. Because of memories from last year, this evening's attraction is expected to bring out a sizeable delegation of fans.

The Spudders had several big innings Monday, but made their blows tell in the sixth frame, when six runs were chalked up and Rhodes was chased from the mound to be replaced by Riordan. Rossi went the route for the Spudders, and although he was nicked for eight bingles, his mates were able to keep in the running. They cut loose with another three runs in the eighth to put the game on ice. The game was generously sprinkled with errors, Borger committing four and the Spudders seven.

NEW YORK — Haredity being stronger than environment (all claims to the contrary notwithstanding) your old pal Kay Kyser has yielded to the yen for home cooking—this after more than a decade on the road—and has hired a house in the New Jersey countryside for his month's stay at the Meadowbrook, near Cedar Grove! His mother has come up from Rocky Mount, N. C. to join him, and they say the fragrance of turnip greens, baked hams, turkey, fried chicken and sweet potato pie has been wafted on the breeze over an area of five counties. I aim to be getting over that way myself in a few days and will report on same upon my return.

The Erie railroad passenger cars have a nice little sign these days, but to me it seems slightly misplaced. This sign says, "When Air Raid Warning Comes, Be Calm. . . Keep Away From Open Windows. . . And Don't Reach for the Telephone."

You should have seen the expressions on people's faces when the regular army "took over" Grand Central Station during those maneuvers the other night. Without warning the army moved in. . . Armed to the teeth. . . This movement was coordinated with the police force and the State Guard. . . When the alert came the guard mobilized, then relieved the troops of the regular army who moved on to more pressing assignments. The motive of the alert was to see how quickly vital or key points to the city could be manned by troops. When the army arrived the people in the station hardly knew what to think. You couldn't blame them. They didn't know whether the enemy had arrived at Hoboken in force, or whether Goering's Raiders were expected.

There used to be a place on 45th street that made history in more ways than one during the prohibition era. A speak—as so many of the present day restaurants were then—where you had to be somebody before you could even buy a glass of beer (for $1). This spot was lucky enough to escape the shootings that were prevalent then, and when Repeal came, its good name intact, it opened as a restaurant. One night I dropped by there with Walter Juarell, a newspaperman now in South America. At one table were four men, and on the wall were their pictures. . . These men were leading figures in the theatrical and sports world. Last night, more out of curiosity, I went there again. Only two customers were having dinner. The same waiters, grown old, were standing around. Those four pictures were still there, and I noticed that they had been turned to the wall. You didn't have to ask why. All four were dead. They were Osgood Perkins, Florenz Ziegfeld, John McGraw, and Rudolph Valentino.

KILLED GETTING CASING
MIAMI, Fla., May 12 (AP)—Benjamin E. Lenoir, 66, stopped his automobile, crossed the road and picked up a discarded fire casing. Returning to his car with it, he was struck by an automobile and killed.

Editorial — — Teaching Of Law Enforcement

No less an authority than J. Edgar Hoover, director Federal Bureau of Investigation, offers a program he believes would have great influence in diminishing crime. He said:

"I believe a good course in law enforcement should be added to the school curricula of every law-abiding nation on the globe. I hope to see the time when law enforcement and all correlated subjects are taught in our schools and colleges."

Hoover said that he did not mean the schools should be crowded with pupils who expect to become hunters of men, but it did mean that youth should have the knowledge essential to the protection of the family and community. He believed that youth should accept the challenge of the millions of lawbreakers. It is the youth of today that must obey and enforce the laws tomorrow and to do this properly and with the right understanding of the task, they must be educated in the reasons for law, the necessity for observance of law, and be shown the schemes adopted by law breakers.

Especially in such a time as today it would seem there ought to be observance of law relating to property rights as well as to offenses against nations. The nation is in a state of uncertainty in many respects, men being taken from their ordinary pursuits for defense work or armed service, women replacing some of them and engaging in new occupations or professions, all leading to a sort of feeling that anything may happen and that people should not be held too strictly accountable for what they do, whether it be theft, burglary or worse.

There is much demand that the schools teach Americanism, and the basis of what we have come to call Americanism is law, constitutional and statutory. The course should not be that of the law schools, but one that inculcated respect for law and the reasons for that respect.

Chapter Two
Capitulation
"Joseph Lee Neely, you leave here this instant!" Kathleen called. "Do you hear me? Get away from in front of my house!"

There was no reply. Joe went right on with his marching. Kathleen was now seething. The stubborn hard-headed, cock-eyed idiot!

"If you want to make a fool of yourself," she said, "go somewhere else to do it."

Joe stopped, and came to the gate. "It's you I'm making a fool of," he said. "Not myself."

Kathleen gasped. The group of children stopped giggling, and began laughing hilariously. The grown-ups grinned broadly. It was the best free show Lindville had ever had. It was as good as a carnival. It was as much fun as a parade.

"There's only one place I'll go," Joe went on, "and that's in your house. We're going to have a talk, and right now."

"We're not!" cried Kathleen. "We've already talked too much."

"And only in circles," said Joe. He again lifted the sign which he had temporarily lowered. "Okay, have it your way. I'll keep this picketing up until you come to your senses."

"What about your job?" Kathleen reminded. "You're due at the Gazette office this minute. — and you know it."

"To heck with the job!" said Joe. "What good's a job, if you've lost your girl?"

Encouraging Joe
Kathleen looked around for something to throw. If only she had an over-ripe tomato, or could lay her hands on a pot of flowers! If only she —

"Attaboy, oil!" an onlooker yelled. "It's high time we men put these here modern females in their places."

"Right," said Joe. Kathleen couldn't stand any more. "Very well, come on inside," she called. She glared at Joe and the people around him. "I'll tell you in private what I think of you."

"Now you're talking," said Joe. He opened the gate, and came up the walk. He leaned the sign against one of the porch supports, and smiled at Kathleen. "Morning, honey. You look as cool as the proverbial cucumber in that green dress."

"Well, I'm not cool," Kathleen snapped. She strode into the hall. Joe right behind her. "As a matter of fact, I could wring your neck and glory in the act."

Hollywood Sights and Sounds — — Mae West Goes Russian

By ROBBIN COONS
HOLLYWOOD — Mae West, like her own heroine Diamond Lil, is "dooin' a job she never done before."

She's coming up to see the Russians sometime—and soon.

"Now's the time," she said. "The Russians are doin' such marvelous fighting, and everybody's interested in Russia, so I've decided to do it. It's a picture I've been dreamin' about a long time. . ."

The picture is a yarn of Catherine the Great, or "Catherine Was Great," as she'll call it. Once she planned it as a $2,000,000 spectacle in color. That's out now.

"We'll make the scenes more intimate instead of spectacular," she said.

Mae was at home. She was sitting on the white plush couch under the nude oil of Mae West ("Look closely and she breathes," she said. "Is marvelous.")

She wore a pink crepe negligee, and practically no jewelry—only a mammoth topaz bracelet and a gigantic clip to match. (Costume stuff," she said disparagingly. "Might be worth $2,000 but I picked it up for $1,800. You got to wear something—your fans might think you're cheap if you don't.")

Mae's apartment fits Mae like her hour-glass costumes. White plush, satin brocade, gold and ivory chairs and baby grand piano, lush draperies, one wall almost entirely mirrored, and on the piano the famous nude statue of Mae. Flowers, some real and some permanent, everywhere.

But back to Catherine: Mae has been boning up on the Catherine era, spending wads on source material before she wrote the script. She can rattle off the "vitches" and the "offa"—with a Westian drawl—like a moujik.

And this may hasten you at first! Mae plans to play Catherine straight. A character, without Mae West touches. None of the eyes, or amulating hips, or Brooklyn grace notes.

"I've had some pretty wonderful dramatic training," said Mae, "and I'm goin' to use it. I couldn't have played Diamond Lil without that training. Lil was a queen, and Catherine was just another queen on a higher plane. She'll give me a chance to introduce different silhouette, technique, mannerisms. Catherine kept up her interest in men till she was 70, but I've telegraphed a lot of history into the time when she was 25 to 30. I want to show how she ruled men with one hand and Russia with the other. She had to be smart, to take all these different men and find out all they knew. And a woman couldn't maneuver that way without a sense of humor."

But I felt better when Mae told me about Catherine's first speech. The new queen gets out on the balcony and there she's faced by whole regiments of her army, as far as the eye can see. With a queenly gesture Mae will cry: "MY men!"

"It'll still be serious drama, you see," said Mae.

Uh-huh. I saw.

(3) Training of women and girls for all trade and clerical occupations.

(4) Courses in nursing, nutrition, first aid.

(5) Intensive physical fitness courses for lads and lassies who will be up for military training or war work within the next three years.

(6) Office of Civilian Defense (OCD) courses for air raid wardens, auxiliary fire and police wardens and other OCD jobs as may be needed in these areas.

(7) Continuation and expansion of such vocational and agricultural courses as now are offered under the federal aid program.

The Office of Education already is battling off outlines for all courses suggested in the first six recommendations. But it is pointed out that each local school administration must decide its own needs and adapt its summer school program to its own community requirements.

Time was when summer school was something to be attended by the laggards who couldn't keep up with the rest of the class or some smart Johnny or Mary who wanted to reach high school or college at the prodigy age.

The latter may sneak in this summer—if their particular talents apply to the war effort—but there will be no dumb clucks in this wartime summer school. The office of education recommends that counselors be appointed to select only those who will benefit most and those who will benefit the country's all-out military program most by this special summer school training.

Washington Daybook— School Isn't Out

(First of two articles)
By JACK SKINNETT
WASHINGTON—"Yoo-hoo, Skinny—school's out" used to be the June cry of American youth, but it won't be this year.

Commissioner John W. Studebaker's Office of Education has issued this pronouncement: "This summer comes not as a time for vacation but as an opportunity for the schools' pointing up their services toward certain basic objectives highlighted by the needs of the armed forces and of war production."

As President Roosevelt once pointed out, the educators just have to say it the hard way. All that means is that any school that doesn't keep open this summer and contribute its plant and personnel in some way to the war effort is skipping its opportunity to be of important use to the community and the nation.

Just so those opportunities won't be overlooked, the Office of Education's wartime commission has outlined them and they are worth repeating. For example, schools, which heretofore have gathered nothing but dust and broken wind-downs through the summer heat, can touch off a little T. N. T. under the enemy this year (so the commission says) by offering their buildings and staffs for—

Two Die In Plane Crash At Corpus

The men were on a routine training flight. The crash occurred last Saturday.

Bandit Takes $6,000 From Mathis Bank
MATHIS, May 12 (AP)—A widespread search was underway today for a false-whiskered bandit who robbed the First State bank of Mathis of approximately $6,000 at the point of a blue-barreled gun.

The man forced three employes to lie on the floor yesterday after a fourth handed him a pasteboard box crammed with $10, $5 and $1 bills. Cashier J. W. Nelson said. He then ran out the back door and fled in a pickup truck.

UNFAIR TO LOVE

By Watkins E. Wright

Lizzie heard them and came out of the kitchen.

"You'll going to eat breakfast now, Miss Kathleen?" she asked.

"I'm not hungry," said Kathleen.

"Well, I am," said Joe. "I got up early to do my picketing before going to work."

Lizzie grinned at him. She liked Mr. Joe Neely.

"Arsenic For Sugar"

"Ain't yo' going to ask Mr. Joe to eat, Miss Kathleen?" she inquired.

"No," said Kathleen. "But since you've got breakfast waiting, you can go ahead and feed him. And while you're at it, sprinkle some arsenic on his grapefruit."

"Yes'm," said Lizzie. She gave Joe a broad smile, and bustled off to the kitchen.

Joe stepped closer to Kathleen. "I'm sorry, honey," he said, "if I made you mad."

"How nice," said Kathleen. "I suppose saving a lot of nasty things to me wasn't enough—so you had to make a spectacle of yourself in front of my house."

"Well, a man gets desperate when he sees the girl he loves on the verge of making a tragic mistake."

"What do you mean — tragic mistake?"

"Throwing over happiness for a career as an exhibitionist."

"A career as an actress," Kathleen corrected.

"It's all the same thing," Joe said. "Your Uncle Frank said an actress was ninety percent exhibitionist—and he should know."

"Oh, for heaven's sake, don't quote Uncle Frank!" Kathleen flared. "He's quite capable of quoting himself." She walked into the dining room. "Come on, eat your breakfast — and get on to your job."

Procedures for seeking adjustments or amendments will be provided retailers, wholesalers and manufacturers under the price control law.

Full Quota Cotton Crop Is Discussed

VERNON, May 12 (AP)—Delegations from cotton counties in West Texas, Eastern New Mexico, and Western Oklahoma met here today to consider a plan for full quota production of cotton as a war measure through a realignment formula.

The plan, already submitted in a petition to the secretary of agriculture by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, would permit sections of the three states, where late planting and growth can be conducted successfully, to put into cotton about 2,000,000 acres of the 1942 national allotment of 27,000,000 acres.

A petition by the chamber, sent April 16 to Secretary Claude Wickard contended that 2,000,000 acres of the national allotment would be used by June 1 to have been unplanted.

The one-day meeting here was sponsored by the WTCC and the statewide cotton committee of Texas, with the plan advanced as a measure of relief from the threatened shortage of fibers and cotton oils needed for war production.

CHICAGO, May 12 (AP)—Prices of hogs and cattle which farmers ship to slaughtering centers apparently were frozen within certain limits today as if expressly included, instead of exempt, among ceilings now governing wholesale markets.

Commission To Hear Traffic Suggestions

Three resolutions, two having to do with traffic and another with bicycles, were to be presented to the city commission on authority of the Big Spring Safety Council. The council Monday went on record as favoring abolition of left turns at certain busy downtown intersections, which were prone to produce traffic congestion.

Also favored was the institution of parallel parking on Runnels street in areas where angle parking now threatens to bottleneck traffic movement and produces unsafe conditions.

The bicycle resolution adopted by the council had to do with a proposal to register bicycles as a safety measure. As in the other two cases, Police Chief J. E. Bruton said the bike registration plan had been under advisement.

Italian Prisoners In England Re-Captured

Shooting Brings Sabotage Charge

CLEVELAND, May 12 (AP)—The U. S. district attorney's office announced today that Donald Kintner, 20, would be charged with sabotage—the shooting of a locomotive engineer in an effort to halt a trainload of war materials. The maximum penalty on conviction under this charge is 30 years imprisonment plus a $10,000 fine.

Jerome N. Curtis, assistant U. S. district attorney, said Kintner would be accused of "killing" New York Central Engineer F. J. Becker with a .22 caliber bullet last Friday near Elyria, O. His fireman took over the train's controls and brought it to the next station. Becker suffered a head wound but is recovering.

"Kintner was interrupting the flow of war materials to help the German cause, and he conceived the idea of wrecking trains," Curtis said. His announcement of the charge, under wartime sabotage statutes, was made after he conferred by telephone with department of justice superiors.

Church Softball Discussion Set This Evening

Representatives of various churches, interested in starting a softball league for youths in their charge, were to meet at 8 p. m. today with H. F. Malone, recreational supervisor, in his office.

Much Lower Tax Bracket Is Suggested

WASHINGTON, May 12 (AP)—A new individual income tax program, based on drastically reduced personal exemptions for normal tax purposes but retention of the present levels in computing surtaxes, was presented to the house ways and means committee today by its technical experts.

Colin F. Stam, head of the joint committee on internal revenue taxation, was reported to have suggested that exemptions for single persons be dropped from $750 to $500 and for married couples from $1,500 to $1,000, with the present $400 dependent exemption retained.

Then a normal tax of 6 per cent—it is now 4 per cent—would be applied. Surtax rates—probably slightly higher than the present ones—would apply on a base computed with present individual exemptions.

Members said such a scheme would raise $1,547,000,000 in new individual income taxes, compared with the Treasury Department's revised program of $4,800,000,000.

Stam last week brought forward a plan of retaining present exemptions, raising the normal tax to 6 per cent and starting surtax rates at 11 per cent on the first $2,000 of net income.

Chairman Doughton (D-NC) of the committee told newspapermen that Stam probably would complete discussion of the individual income tax question during the afternoon and added, "We hope to get down to votes on rates and exemptions tomorrow."
