The beet armyworm is still causing a frown on Bailey County farmer's faces as they whittle away the crops, especially the castor beans.

Spraying services are still running at all but top speed, day in and day out, in an effort to kill the small worms. However, it seems that with the persistence of life of the small worm, it is turning to more of a control method, the "kill" effect. Some fields, of course, have been ridden of the insect by aerial spraying and agriculture pilots report that some fields which have been sprayed as much as three times still have a light infestation.

County Agent J. K. Adams has requested the visit of an entomologist for the area next week and hopes his visit will reveal chemicals which are more effective and a close estimate as to general damage being done by the beet armyworm.

In some locales, the insect is now causing little concern. Light and scattered infestations of these worms are yet present

Hardback Book To Preserve County History

Preservation in a permanent and tangible hardback edition of the half-century of Bailey County history, including stories of individual pioneer families, is still "in the works" but the continued cooperation and assistance of pioneers and their descendants is asked by the book's publisher, Larry Hall.

"We have felt that there was a need for a more comprehensive study since 1963 when our company (the Muleshoe Publishing Company, publishers of the Bailey County and Muleshoe Journals) published a 70-page newspaper commemorating Muleshoe's Golden Anniversary.

"Now - five years later, in this 50th year since Bailey County's formation, material is being gathered from the records and memories of Bailey County pioneers and their descendants to be compiled for a hardback edition, "The History of Bailey County."

"It is our hope that such data will be useful to those both in the present and future who may wish to acquaint themselves with the early history of the county and its pioneers.

"We again wish to thank our many friends who have assisted in this time-consuming job

THIRTY-TWO MINUTES--It took 32 minutes to bring a copy of the Declaration of Independence from Needmore to the Muleshoe city limits, starting off a series of events of beauty and entertainment here July 4. John Fried, left, crossed the finish line with the document, Terry Guter is shown riding with Fried on the final lap. The ride was carried out in the same manner as the famous Wells Fargo Pony Express would have used way back when the mail had stopped reaching its destination in just this fashion, Lester Howard and Leon Warren of Needmore coordinated this event.

Swisher County Approves New Hospital in Voting

Voters of Swisher Memorial Hospital district Tuesday approved a $25,000 bond issue called to finance approximately one-third the cost of a new 30-bed hospital. The vote stood at 518 for compared with 416 against the issue.

The support needed to pass the issue came from the Tulsa box which gave a green light to the project in a vote count of 432 to 264.

All other boxes opposed the issue.

At Kress, it was 26 to 63 against; Happy, 27 to 45 against; Clayville, 9 to 19 against; and Vigo Park, 9 to 18 against. Absentee voting approved the issue to the tune of 15 to 7.

The proposed bonds will be issued to help finance the construction of a $780,000 modern general hospital which would include 30 beds with individually controlled room temperature, new surgery and recovery rooms, maternity and nursery, new laboratory and X-ray emergency and cast rooms, family room, prayer room, new business offices, patient rooms, all equipped with phone, television, oxygen suction and nurse call system.

The building would include approximately 20,000 square feet of floor space.

Plans are to convert the present building into a unit for patients requiring less intensive care than that provided in a conventional hospital.

J. Frank Ford, Republican candidate for State Representative, was accompanied by his wife, Margie, and their four children, Davis, Cindy, Dan and Susan to attend the July 4 festivities in Muleshoe.

While here, Ford visited in the Journal office and expressed his viewpoints toward making this a more prosperous area.

"The recent opening and announcement of two major packers in this area is going to provide one of the best selling markets for feed cattle in the area," Ford said.

"Add to that, the fact that we have one of the best climates for cattle feeding and ample feed and water and this area does have a real opportunity in front of it."

"In 1967, there were seven million bushels of grain sorghum produced in Bailey County. Only two million bushels were fed in this county.

"If capital could be raised for feed lots in the Muleshoe area with capacity to feed the other five million bushels, 150,000 additional cattle could be fed here each year, part of which would be reflected in an improved price to farmers for their maize as well as a good silage market.

"Player fees are $7.50 each, with $5 of the fee being contributed to the Little League to help with financing of the lighting system and the remaining $2.50 retained by the Softball League to purchase equipment.

Anyone interested may become a player by contacting any member of the Board of Directors or officers.

Officers are Eugene Shaw, president; Jim Shafer, vice president; Hilbert Wislan, secretary-treasurer and Bob Stovall, public relations director. Directors are Bob Dodd, Lonnie Merritt, Harold Cowan, Danny Stancell and Alton Burton.

Around 6,000 Celebrants Myriad Events Spark Twofold Celebration

The pre-dawn quiet was broken abruptly by the clatter of hoofs Thursday, July 4, as horsemen mounted their steeds to re-enact one typical scene of the very early pioneer era.

This re-enactment was a facsimile of the ever-famous Wells Fargo Pony Express, a rapid postal and express system operating by relays of ponies.

For this occasion, the Bailey County Pony Express was carrying a replica of the Declaration of Independence by relay from the small village of Needmore, located 15 miles south of town into the city limits to later be presented to Cecil Davis, president of Bailey County Historical Survey Committee.

This was the beginning of a day of revelry spearheaded by local businessmen, social and civic organizations to commemorate the passing of a national holiday, Independence Day, 1968, and to pay homage to Bailey County forefathers as the Golden Anniversary of the County is marked this year.

Kicking off the dual-purpose celebration, the first pony express riders within the county took 32 minutes to bring the document the 15 miles distance and one horse was clocked at a speed of 32 miles per hour on its stretch. Riders were passed the document in their positions, spaced about one-half mile apart.

John Fried, leading the parade and horse riding events, made the final lap of the ride into the city.

Barbara Warren started the relay from the point or origin at the crossroad point in Needmore and Hal Phipps was waiting to carry on. Other riders were Terry Phipps, Bobby Cunningham, Terry Guter, Randy Marlow, Bill Howard, Lester Howard, Charles Moraw, Eddie Mardis, David Carter, Dale Silvey, Bill Posey, Rex Black, Ralph Black, Janie Cunningham, Randy Posey, Delbert Watson, Dick Chisholm, Leon Warren, Roy Whitly, president, presided during the meeting. A report for the past two years' campaign was given by Inez Bobo. Mrs. Bobo serves as treasurer.

The 1967-68 budget was for $13,331 which came up short of the goal in the amount of $364.95 and the goal of $14,600 set for the campaign year of 1967-68 was short $974.59.

The upcoming campaign will be launched in September and the members of the board are working toward a more successful year.

Swine Course Set at Tech

The 16th annual swine short course will be held Thursday and Friday, July 11 and 12 in Lubbock.

Registration for the course starts at 8 a.m. Thursday in the Texas Tech Pavilion.

The course is being sponsored by the Texas Pork Producers Association and Texas Technological College.

Qualified people will discuss such subject areas as management, feeding, building, ventilation and insulation of buildings, marketing problems and such subjects of related matters.

One of the highlights of the course will be the visual evaluation of live market hogs to estimate weight, length, loin eye size and cutout percentage.

The hogs will then be slaughtered and carcass data presented.

BEAUTY AND SOMETHING ELSE--The foreground shows two Muleshoe beauties holding a horseshoe between them. The background... well, that is something else. But it is all part of the July 4 and Bailey County Golden anniversary celebration. Tisha Griffin, title holder of "Miss Muleshoe" and Cindy Stafford who is "Little Miss Muleshoe" are pictured standing on platform steps at the conclusion of the annual parade. Featuring between the two beauties, a young lady visitor from the state of Tennessee squinted one eye and said "Who in the WORLD is that feller with the face hair?" That, my friend, is Joe Pat Wagon, who won the trophy for the ugliest beard in a beard growing contest which ended that day.

GOING FOR KILL—The days of Main Street shoot-out is not a thing of the past as most people think. This is actual proof, Pete Cash, local pharmacist, is shown falling as a result of the penetrating gunfire from the gun hand of Jim Bruton, employee of Anthony's, "Doctor" Royce Harris, leans on his walking cane with medical kit in hand ready to start work on the unfortunate one in the shoot out. This was a part of the fun and frolic seen on city streets during the recent sidewalk sale.

Questionnaires and letters have been sent to all pioneers and descendants whose names and addresses are available, along with a request that they be filled out and returned so that the family histories may be written as quickly as possible. This will speed up publication of the book.

L. B. Hall, Muleshoe Publishing Company, publisher of Muleshoe and Bailey County Journals, said "Several history books are being compiled through different channels and persons submitting their stories and experiences to this company, of course, may also submit them to others who are writing county histories for publication.

Hall said "Many pioneers seem to have the idea that stories given to this company will have to be exclusive to the Muleshoe Publishing Company, however, this is a misconception and those who wish may supply anyone with their versions of early days in Bailey County of the Muleshoe Jaycees cooked pancakes for the horsemen of the early morning ride as townspeople who gathered at the southern end of Benny Douglas stadium.

The entire celebration was carried on under balmy weather conditions which finally gave way to rain for a time during the late afternoon hour. This was in vivid contrast to the relentless sunshine of last July 4 when celebrants sweated in the blistering heat.

Early settlers and newcomers gathered on the courthouse lawn for the 10:30 a.m. dedication of a historical marker erected for the founding of Bailey County. County Judge Don Chahk made the dedicatory address. Among points of interest in the address, Judge Chahk said "Bailey County was created August 2, 1876 and was named for Peter James Bailey, a Kentucky lawyer killed at the Alamo during the Texas War for Independence."

Judge Chahk told briefly how this thinly settled cattle country was attached for judicial purposes to Baylor County in 1876-91 and then to Castro County, Bexar . . . then how it finally became a county within itself.

A marker was erected by the Texas Historical Society prior to the celebration.

For the memorialization of the founders of the county, master of ceremonies was a pioneer, Frank Snyder, invocation was given by Harvey Bass and Cecil Davis gave recognition to both early county officials and their families in attendance.

G. P. Kuykendall, first county treasurer was the only remaining official in attendance. Kuykendall gave a brief resume of the establishment of Muleshoe as county seat and of the changing of the county records from Castro County seat of Dimmitt and first to be housed in the brick of the only bank building here at the time, then Blackwater Valley Bank and presently Muleshoe State Bank.

Kuykendall to the joy of the pioneers needed each other and how they assisted one another with all their problems and shared the joy and hope for the future.

"My wife was the first bride to be brought to Bailey County winners of the young set of and we had been married 13 years before we had to buy our first turkey. That is how things went in those days," he said. Irvin St. Clair, mayor pro-tem, and son of one of our counties first businessmen, pronounced the benediction.

More than 100 persons attended the 2 p.m. Old Settler's Reunion held in Fellowship Hall of the First Methodist Church. Cline Buhman, president of the Old Settler's Reunion for 1968 arranged for a program of entertainment which featured the "Community Singers," a group who sings old-time gospel songs. Also featured was Mita Beth Gibson. Costumed for the occasion, she sang a selection of songs from the shade of the 1900's.

Roy Whitt acted as master of ceremonies. A plaque, bearing a mule shoe, was presented to Irene (Carles) Bradley, Momster, Calif., who traveled the greater distance to attend this event.

All pioneers attending who were 75 years young or over were presented bouquets, supplied by Beavers Flowerland.

Officers elected for 1969 were Jack Young, president; Mervin Witterding, vice president; Cecil Davis, secretary-treasurer. Young is to name those to serve as members of the program and social committees for next year's reunion.

A parade of color originated at the Boy Scout grounds at 4 p.m. under the combined direction of John Fried, Parade Marshal and Deputy Sheriff Bobby Henderson.

Leading the parade was Chief of Police Harold White with appropriate music being played from the patrol car loudspeakers. Riding with Chief White was Derrell Oliver, manager of the Chamber of Commerce.

Members of the Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts formed the color guard.

The beauty features of the parade consisted of Tische Griffin, recently named "Miss Muleshoe" and "Little Miss Muleshoe" Cindy Stafford. Also lending an air of beauty was State Farm Bureau Queen Sharon Parade. Others were Vicki Henexson and Peggy Williams. Miss Williams was first runner-up and Miss Henexson was second in the Miss Muleshoe beauty pageant sponsored in late June by the Muleshoe Jaycees.

Others riding in convertibles were city and county officials. Those participating in the parade from out of town were Lamb County Sheriff's Fosse, Y. L. 4-H Club, Cochran County 4-H, Bovina Roping Club, and the mule drawn chuckwagon; Bovina Riding Club, Clovis Vanqueros Riding Club, Earth Rodeo boosters and individual riders who added to the western trend of the parade.

Parade route went from the Boy Scout grounds to Highway 214, proceeded north to Highway 84; east to Main Street and terminated at the point of origin where the riding groups and posses demonstrated their riding abilities before a crowd of some 6,000 persons.

At the conclusion of the riding demonstration, Buddy Feeler, radio KMUL announcer, gave a brief history of Bailey County, written by Mrs. Horace Blackburn.

Deputy Bob Henderson presented trophies to the three riders from the junior division.

Junior division winners were Cochran County, first, Progress 4-H Riding Club, second and Clovis Vanqueros, third place.

In the senior division, Cochran County Sheriff's Fosse won first; Lamb County Sheriff's Fosse won second place and Bovina Riding Club, third. Deputy Bob Henderson presented trophies to all winner representatives.

John Fried served as master group of ceremonies for the presentation.

Those who rode in the parade and their families were served a barbecue meal at city park immediately following the parade.

Members of the Lion's Club served the meal provided by the cooperative efforts of the Pleasant Valley Social Club, Progressive Homes Club, A-AUW, Muleshoe Study Club, Jaycee-ettes, Epsilon Sigma FORDS VISIT—J. Frank Ford, Republican candidate for State Representative and his family spent July 4 in Muleshoe visiting and taking part in the day-long celebration. Pictured with the candidate are his wife, Margie and their four children, Davis, Cindy, Dan and Susan. The Fords live in Hereford. He is a native of the Texas Panhandle-South Plains area and is a graduate of Texas A & M.

Alpha, Llano Estacado Civic Club, Bailey County Historical Society and Muleshoe Area Service Women. Muleshoe Area Service Women's Organization acted as organizational channels in order that sufficient food would be prepared to complete the barbecue meal. Meat for the barbecue was provided by John Fried and prepared by L. B. Hall, Journal Publisher and Bailey County Judge Don Chahk.

Rain began falling just as the parade guests were served. The shower sent guests scampering to their cars and other places of shelter, but not without plates filled to capacity. A community-wide family type picnic was held in Benny Douglas stadium with guests bringing basket lunches to spread on the grass while entertainment was being provided by "We Two," a musical team composed of Delton Bass on the drums and Leland Ferris at the piano. Fiddling John Fried gave a rendition of old-time fiddle music.

Winners of the Jaycee-sponsored beard growing contest were Richard Puckett, winner of a trophy for the fanciest beard; Joe Pat Waggoner for the ugliest and Frank Parker won the trophy for the longest beard.

The grand finale was the gigantic fireworks display. The brilliant display of fireworks was fired by Muleshoe Volunteer Fire Department.

MISS JODY SHACKELFORD (Engaged to Eddie Mitchell)

By Anne Camp

For the month of June of 1968, a total of 3615 books were checked out over a total of 3035 books for the same period last year. That is a gain of 580 books checked out for June of 1968. 4194 books were checked out at the beginning of the summer reading program.

Four hundred new books have been purchased for the summer season - about 300 of which were bought with the State Grant sum. Of this sum, most of it went for a set of 1968 Science Encyclopedia - "Bowher" -

"Books in Print," a three volume set; and Readers Guide; subject to periodicals and magazines, a two volume set of 1966-67. The balance of the 400 books were mostly children's "fiction" and "non-fiction."

The approaching marriage of Miss Jody Shackelford and Eddie Mitchell has been announced by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Roy Shackelford, 221 Rosdawn.

Parents of the future groom are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mitchell of Lubbock.

Miss Shackelford graduated from Plainview High School in 1967 and attended Business College of the Southwest. She is employed by American National Insurance of Plainview.

The Choice Is Yours

(Taken from the Mid-Week Messenger)

Your life is fashioned out of choices you make. You were born into the world without any choice in the matter, but you cannot go on another hour without choosing the life you are to live.

You choose the attitudes you take toward the world, toward other people, toward God, and toward yourself, and your life is made up of those attitudes. If your past choices have been bad, they can be remedied by better choices today. Whatever you will know of happiness or pain tomorrow, you may decide today. No one can compel you to become jealous, envious or petty. You make that fateful decision for yourself. Or you can choose the beautiful and good. "Choose ye this day whom you will serve."

Open House to Observe Girlstown Anniversary

The public is urged to attend the 19th Anniversary of the founding of Girlstown this Saturday and Sunday, July 6th and 7th.

In July, 1949, a dream became a reality. Girlstown, U.S.A., now "home" for seventy - four deserving girls from the ages of 10 months to 19 years, moved to its present location nine miles south of Whiteface (50 miles west on State Highway 116 from Lubbock).

During the past 19 years more than 600 neglected, unloved or homeless girls from 40 different states have received guidance, training, love and an opportunity for the future.

The festivities started Saturday at 2 p.m. with an Open House. At 4 p.m. Miss Girlstown, U.S.A. for 1968 was chosen. Candidates included Angie Collins, Fort Worth; Betty Fore, Haskell; Linda Metcalf, Lubbock; Patricia and Malinda Weeks, Midland. Miss Brenda Griffiths, of Fort Worth, the reigning Miss Girlstown, U.S.A., crowned her successor.

At 5 p.m., a barbecue was served to all guests and visitors, courtesy of the Littlefield Volunteer Fire Department.

The Open House festivities continue today (Sunday) from 2 to 4:30 with conducted tours by the girls.

Girlstown, U.S.A. is not a correctional institution; it is non-profit, non-sectarian, providing homeless girls with an apron string to tie to.

There is no charge, all are cordially invited.

Ask Amy

BY AMY ADAMS

GIFTS LEAVE HIM UNCERTAIN

Dear Amy:
I am 22 years old, but I need to know the truth about this whole thing.
I am going with a woman, 25 years old, who has three children. We have had quite a few break-ups in the year that we have been going together. She has even gone out on me before with other men which at the time didn't mean a thing to me. At least that's what I thought. But I love her very much and I think she loves me just as much now because I got real mad and went out on her, too, so she has stopped going out, and for the past two weeks, we have been engaged.

However, there is a certain other man I can't get out of my mind because he keeps sending things to her children and to her. I have to leave in June for the Navy and I'm scared to death he might come back from Alabama and see her again. Need to know what to do?

Dear Serious:
Very Serious
It's up to your fiancée to discourage this man from sending gifts by returning them. If she doesn't, then she is not serious about the engagement as you think she is.
Her reaction to a request from you that she return the gifts should clue you in.

Dear Amy:
One day when I was leaving for work but my husband had the day off, I asked him if he didn't want to go spend the afternoon up town. He said no, that he just wanted to relax at home.
The next day one of my neighbors asked if the woman next door to me was sick. She said she saw my husband helping her with her garden. When I asked him, he flew into a rage and said a man can help a neighbor if he wanted to. But that afternoon, when I was working in my garden, he didn't even help make the rows.
I work to help meet our bills and take good care of him... and this is all the thanks I get?

Jeannie Martin Wins First

Jeannie Martin, 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Martin of Muleshoe, has won first place in the South Central Assembly of God Teen-Talent Search. This included Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Kansas. It was held Tuesday, July 2, in Duncan, Okla.

Jeannie placed first in the key board division with her organ solo. She was also presented a trophy. Last April, she won first place in Amarillo for the West Texas District, making her eligible for the South Central competition this year.

Jeannie will be going to the National Teen-Talent Search, August 19 in Springfield, Mo. Jeannie is a senior in Muleshoe High School. She belongs to high school band, is a member of the choir and a member of FHA.

THE PARTY

This is Peter Sellers' latest spoof and it makes for good entertainment, although not up to "A Shot in The Dark" or even "What's New Pussycat?"

The opening scene is a good one and Sellers manages to come up with laughs throughout the picture. Yet his acting in this one is far from convincing. It almost seems as if he is accepting Hollywood standards, as it were, for in some of his humorous situations the acting is less than Sellers is capable of.

FIRST PLACE WINNER---Jeannie Martin won first place in her organ solo of the Assembly of God Teen Talent Search contest which includes Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Kansas. It was held in Duncan, Okla., Tuesday, July 2.

The story is a subtle slap at American social customs and so-called society. In fact, a typical Hollywood party is the scene for at least two-thirds of the picture and anyone who leaves the theater not a bit revolted at the Americans portrayed there is not thinking.

Checks and puids in black and white are both smart, designs for dresses and skirts, looped during most of the party, at which he serves, rivals Sellers for laughs and in a better production, with better timing, could have been more hilarious. Recommended.

Plant Practices Conservation

Cooperation of industry and agriculture in the expanding program of water conservation on the High Plains is being graphically illustrated at a Partner County Site.

Missouri Beef Packers, Inc., now operating a Friona facility reported to be the second largest installation of its type in the world, is using about 432,000 gallons of underground water daily, but is making the effluent available for maximum farm use.

In a nutshell - the $3 million packing plant opened only April 20 as one of the area's newest enterprises, but it already has instituted sound conservation practices in keeping with those long advocated under leadership of the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District No. 1.

Three six-inch wells provide water that is profusely used in the plant that is federally approved for a 250-head kill per hour. The company presently has an average daily kill of near 500 cattle.

The water leaves the plant carrying a great deal of waste from washing and cleaning of cattle and carcasses. It is directed into two settling lagoons of 23,000,000 gallon total capacity.

Impurities settle from the water in the lagoons, and then the water is channeled into a large playa lake. At least two area farmers have installed lake pumps for the return of large amounts of this lake water to their farms for irrigation purposes.

Reagan Dinner In Amarillo On July 19

Jim Campbell, Panhandle Republican Campaigner, announced today the arrangements for the Reagan dinner to be held in Amarillo on July 19.

The dinner honoring Congressman Bob Frice will be held in the Tri State Fair Coliseum at 6:30 p.m. All those purchasing dinner tickets will be invited to a reception honoring Bob Frice and Governor Reagan at 5:30 p.m. in the Commercial Exhibits Building.

Also attending the reception will be Senator John Tower, Republican gubernatorial candidate Paul Eggers, Republican State Chairman Peter O'Donnell and other outstanding Republicans.

Records are being kept on amount of water ejected from the packing plant, quality of this water, and how many acres are being irrigated from the playa lake systems, together with other pertinent information.

Presence of a good water supply has been a prime factor in location of Missouri Beef Packers (with its $1.2 million payroll and $150 million anticipated first-year business) and other industries on the High Plains.

A continuation of the industrial and agricultural growth pattern here can be anticipated, said district officials, pointing out that if residents on the farm, in the towns and in the units of government, continue to be aware of water conservation needs and practices.

Numerous technical and practical aids (including services and engineering data) are available from the district offices of the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District No. 1, at 1628-15th St., Lubbock, Texas.

Cold-Tolerant Cotton Control Increase Yield. Earlier cotton planting and root rot "escape" could be combined to give root rot control plus higher yields, Dr. Luther S. Bird, professor in Texas A & M University's Plant Science Department says.

Work here has shown that cotton can be planted two to three weeks earlier than usual and the damage by the root rot fungus can be lowered. By moving the planting date up to about the middle of March instead of early April, we have had good results at picking time.

By early planting, the cotton can reach the stage where there is about three to four weeks free of disease during but the earlier maturing process can take advantage of the moisture which comes earlier in the season, Bird points out.

One particular strain tested here has withstood freezing temperatures and progress is being made to breed this cold-tolerance into other cotton strains, according to the professor.

"Escape" from cotton root rot is an inherited factor of certain plants and although the process is complicated, progress is being made in breeding the cold-tolerant cotton with the cotton which has this escape factor, he said.

Not only can earlier planting lower the incidence of root rot,

Public Works Bill Passed by House

The Public Works fund bill passed by the House Wednesday included $892,000 for continuation of water import studies for West Texas and Eastern New Mexico, according to Panhandle Congressman Bob Price. The fiscal 1969 appropriations allowed the Corps of Engineers $425,000 for their investigation and $467,000 to the Bureau of Reclamation, Price said.

The Reclamation Bureau recently issued a preliminary report on their study of the feasibility of importing huge amounts of water from the Mississippi River.

Commissioner of Reclamation Floyd E. Donny emphasized that any import plans that may result from the investigations must carefully respect the rights of the many states whose interests would be involved.

"The preliminary studies reveal that the High Plains region will need to import 16.5 million acre-feet of water a year in order to meet its agricultural and municipal and industrial requirements by the year 2020," Commissioner Donny said. "This is no small matter, and before any plans are developed for diverting any such quantities from the lower Mississippi River system, we intend to be sure that only water in excess of the foreseeable needs of any states involved can be considered surplus and available for possible importation into High Plains."

The Progress Report found that there is no question but that water will be available in the Mississippi River for export during some periods of most years, but determination of the amounts and times when water can be exported will require exhaustive studies to establish future needs in the valley states.

There was also $380,000 budgeted for Arkansas - Red River salt control which includes forks of the Red River in Childress, Hall, Collingsworth and Donley counties, Price added.

MEN AND MONEY:
 Both must be employed if our community is to prosper. If you plan to buy anything, purchase it from a local merchant. If you want your job to be secure and your investment protected, then trade at home. If you want a good thriving community, with good churches and good schools, one that you would be proud to be a part of, then support your local business men who are largely responsible for making all this possible.
