Aside from the direction of public works, Secretary of Interior Harold Ickes has one other major job. He wants to cement himself in as federal dictator of the oil industry.

Backstage

Ickes heard rumors that the Thomas bill was in danger. He also learned that Governor Jim Alfred, Attorney General Bill McCraw and State Railroad Chairman Ernest Thompson were on their way up from Texas to tell Congress why the federal government had no right exercising supreme control over such a purely intra-state matter as oil production.

Control

Then the Texans got to town. In their testimony before the Senate Mining Committee they quoted Charles Evans Hughes as telling the Federal Oil Conservation Board back in 1924 that "Congress has no constitutional authority to control the mere production of petroleum on lands (other than Indian lands) within the territory of a state."

Gov. Alfred and his aides asked that Congress confine itself to ratifying a compact the oil-producing states are now making to regulate themselves. Actually, the compact has no binding force but the legislatures of Texas, Okla.

MELLINGER SOFTBALL TEAM CONTINUES WIN STREAK

Oilers Defeat Ford, 18-15

By HANK HART

Vic Mellinger's Angels and the Cosden Oilers swept onward to victory and first place leadership in the softball league Wednesday night, the Angels winning from the CCC Foresters, 13-4, and the Oilers from the Ford Motor Co., 18-15.

Paul Coburn's circuit smash in the second inning gave the Oilers a lead they never lost. Coburn's home run came with two aboard.

The Oilers outslug the Ford 'n' in the late innings to gain the victory over the Johnsons. The Oilers went ahead in the first inning with a seven run uprising, both teams pulled up even at 10-10 at the end of the second stanza.

Henry settled down after a nearly fatal third to hold the Mechanics to a single marker during the last four innings. Box score (first game)

There was just one lifeboat—an 18-foot affair into which 12 men had to jam themselves. It was powered with a small motor, but had to take it out. They set forth leaving the schooner to sink and set out to brave the gale.

And at last, with food and strength and hope vanishing together, they managed to land on the tip of the island of Brava, in the Cape Verde group, where they slept in caves on a rocky beach until one of their number was able to walk to a settlement and summon help.

So the romance of the sea is dead, is it? If you think so, you might ask this young college lad from Florida.

ERNE ARTHUR, VICTOR over Count Von Bromberg at the Big Spring Athletic Club Tuesday night, left Wednesday for Anarillo where he is to appear in the main go there this week.

LAST TUESDAY'S SHOW was the last to be held inside. Efforts are being made to build an outdoor arena, which promoters hope to have ready by next Tuesday.

ERNE RECEIVED A SEVERE gash across his nose which required several stitches to close. The German appeared to have a slight edge in strength over his Canadian opponent.

THE COUNT LEFT FOR EL Paso. Both he and Ernie expect to return here within the next two or three weeks. Bromberg has taken a great liking to Big Spring.

JACK "DOPEY" DEAN, GOES from baseball to softball. The Dean boy has signed to play with Fiewellen.

JACK SAYS BASEBALL IS making a big comeback in nearly every part of the country. Clubs are handling more rookies than ever before.

THE BOYS WHO PLAY BASEBALL at the Civilian Conservation Camp will get a chance to play the winning baseball teams from other parts of the country. CCC officers in this section of the country decided it would not be practicable to travel hundreds of miles to take part in preliminaries, so as a result the local team will not take part until near the finals.

THE MUGS WHO SLING leather are trying to "protect" themselves now. Jimmy Wilde, great British flyweight of a decade ago, is chairman and guiding spirit of the newly organized National Union of Boxers, whose initial object is to establish a minimum purse of $5 for fighters. Over 400 boxers already have joined the union. Nobody knows quite what will happen when a union pugilist is called upon to meet an open-shopper in the ring. Smaller British promoters have been in the habit of paying as low as $4 in purses for a rousing four-round preliminary.

CCC TO PLAY BROWNWOOD
Game Scheduled Here For May 12
CCC baseball team here has been keeping steadily at it in practice, and outlook now is for a heavy hitting club.

Pitching worries, however, have beset the manager. A number of new recruits from Dallas came recommended as top-notch pitchers, but were hit unmercifully in their first appearance with the Big Spring team. A few more days practice may accustom them to the local situation.

Coach Raymond "Bear" Wolf will probably send big Darrell Lester to the mound in the opening game. Lester won his game against the Steers when they played here. The other contest will probably be pitched by Capt. Jimmy Jacks.

At the start of the season T.C.U. had poor pitching but good fielding and heavy hitting. In the A. & M. twin bill here Monday, just the opposite was true. The pitching was satisfactory, but the Frogs made numerous errors and hit only so-so.

SPRING BONNETS HAVE VEILED CHARM

There are few more interesting ways of wearing a veil on your Easter bonnet than that shown below. Liliane Callet designed the model, suspending the veil from the front of a little white bonnet rimmed with white shell flowers so that it falls over the face.

The veiled model seen above is a design by Worth. The veils hang from the back of a black straw toque.

By ADELAIDE KERR (Associated Press Fashion Editor)

PARIS (AP)—You can wear your veil in a half dozen different ways on your Easter bonnet—over your face or hanging down your neck.

Not in years have Parisian modistes used them in such varied fashions. Leavin hangs a crisp, patterned navy blue one in two streamers off the back of a white straw sailor and swaths other blue ones round and round the crowns of small white hats. Patou lets a black one flip off the back of a port yellow straw sailor. Worth hangs a circular veil in folds from the center back of a black toque and Marie Guy swaths a chiffon one around the crown of a forward-facing helmet hat, kempt in a bow and lets the streamers hang.

Many modistes rig small hats with sheer black veils which film the eyes, while Schiaparelli designs a big blue straw hat with a circular veil coming from under the brim and hanging all around the head and Liliane Callet adds to a tiny spring bonnet a double veil falling over the face to the chin.

Some Veils Colored Colored veils—red, green and violet—are another novelty of the season. They are very sheer and brief, just long enough to film the eyes, and are worn with small black dinner hats.

Evening Frock Hats A number of new headgear designs appeared for the dinner frock. One puts a toque of red and rose ostrich tips tilting over the forehead, a pinwheel of black, cigarette or a swirl of green osprey on the heads of the mannequins who stand in long-sleeved black dinner gowns.

Mainbocher even shows hats with some of his evening frocks. A wide brimmed model of black mesh with the entire crown covered with bright flowers steps out with a gaily flowered crepe evening frock and a small black taffeta toque with two small black ostrich tips poled right in front is shown with a low cut black taffeta frock.

Black tulle is being used in new and interesting ways this spring. Moynieux shows for daytime wear a hat with an unwired brim made of three or four circles of black tulle floating loose from a small black crown and Schiaparelli finishes a black tulle toque with a great cluster of white wax tube roses tumbling down the front.

AAA Amendments May Draw Fire

WASHINGTON (AP)—Signs of another possible battle royal over the AAA amendments appeared Wednesday night as the new farm licensing powers sought by Secretary Wallace were advanced, after much delay, in both the senate and house legislative machines.

For a second time the controverted amendments emerged from the house agriculture committee after a new rewriting had exempted retailers of farm products from any chance of having licenses imposed on them.

Coincidentally the senate received from Chairman Smith of its agriculture committee a formal report on the AAA bill which was approved two weeks ago.

These actions put the almost similar bills into position for senate and house floor consideration, but leaders would not set a date for their discussion. There were predictions, however, that AAA amendments in some form would become law before the session ends.

But presaging a bitter struggle was the recent attack by Senator Byrd (D-Va.), on the program and a reply to newsmen by Chester A. Davis, AAA administrator.

Byrd had predicted "chaos and confusion" would result. Davis retorted that congress was "going to begin to hear from the country" and a great deal less would be said about the AAA in a month.

Important in the AAA bill reported to the House was a section of a combination of the old export debenture McNary-Haugen farm remedies. This provision, supported by virtually the full house committee, would authorize subsidizing farm exports, either with processing tax or customs receipts.

Before reporting the AAA bill, the house committee limited the use of the licensing powers to tobacco, sugar, milk and non-basic farm commodities. These licenses would be authorized if 50 per cent of the processors and distributors agree to them, or if two-thirds of the farmers ask them.

Another change by the house committee was removal of language requiring the application of production quotas if two-thirds of the growers so demanded. This action would still leave fixing quotas to the discretion of the secretary of agriculture.

WEDNESDAY BRIDGE CLUBS GET BACK INTO SCHEDULE; SEVERAL MEET THIS WEEK

Bridge clubs are having a time of it getting back to their regular meeting days. Those of them that duplicate membership have to give due regard to their weeks or some of the members will find themselves with two clubs meeting on the same day, even the most excellent player cannot double herself.

The Ideal and Pioneer are two Wednesday club that must keep their weeks straight. The Justamere and the Ely See have also several members in both. Within a week or two, everybody hopes to be thoroughly over the spring confusion and back on schedule and club members who are invited to parties on their club dates can be sure of their bridge calendar and know whether to accept.

IS HE MAE WEST'S HUSBAND?

Mae West, 'hooper,' married Frank Wallace, 'hooper,' in Milwaukee in 1911. Mae West, screen actress, said it must have been another Mae West because she herself is a spinster. Anyhow, here is Frank Wallace, left, in this singing trio which appeared on Broadway several years ago in Mae West's 'Diamond Lil.' With him are Jo-Jo and Pat Whalen (right). (Associated Press Photo) becomes necessary to knife Mr. Roosevelt on route. The boys feel strongly about the favors they expected and didn't get.

Even Leader Dunnington—supposedly a Farley man—got into several tangles with the Governor.
Insiders frankly rate him as something less than a genius at politics—and infer he was trapped into awkward situations by people who had a clearer idea of what they were after. Both his maneuvers and Tammany's put Lehman on the spot. And anything which weakens Lehman's position also damages the cause of his friend in the White House.

Harmony—
Several backstage New York Republican leaders wish their party spokesman would learn that silence is golden. They figure that Republican chances for 1936 will be greatly enhanced if the party avoids all commitments on specific issues, thereby offering a broad refuge as possible to the discontented.
They are confident that the Democrats will cut each other's throats without any help if left alone.
On this basis it's felt that Hoover would have done better by his prospects for renomination if he hadn't emerged from seclusion so soon.

Stepped—
The million-dollar loss reported by the Amoskeag Manufacturing Company for 1934—as compared with a small profit the year before—taken with salt in informed quarters. The company complains that it was badly hurt by the processing tax and higher labor and city tax costs. The difference in these items between 1933 and 1934 is reported as aggregating 2 1/2 million dollars. But at the same time a $4,000,000 reduction in material costs is recorded, to say nothing of an increase in gross sales.

Clue—
FDR's order to the Tariff Commission to investigate imports of Japanese bleached cotton cloth looks offhand like much ado about nothing. An item amounting to 10 percent of domestic production hardly seems to justify the excitement. But New York sharpshiners figure the President is whetting a useful blade which can cut either way.

Hopeful—
Former Senator George Moses, of New Hampshire, one of the last of the Republican Old Guard, has long been noted for his caustic wit. The other day he had occasion to discuss with a friend the Kansas Republican rally which is going to be held next month under the chairmanship of William Allen White, noted publisher. The meeting is for the avowed purpose of injecting a bit of life blood into the G.O.P.

Notes—
Texas, California and Oklahoma have joined in a big kick against the Thomas oil bill and Ickes' oil policy. Apple pie states are sending samples of their wares to Congressmen by airplane. Two bills that would cost $3,000,000,000 each for farmers' relief are worrying lawmakers from rural districts—they don't want to be recorded against them. Something will be done to help starving sharecroppers. Among other New Deal funds is a growing row between Ickes and Admiral C. J. Peeples, procurement chief, who purchases supplies for all departments except War and Navy. His initials stand for Christian Joy but there are those who predict he will not have much of that in the next year.

Spot—
The wild confusion which marked the end of the Albany legislative session—with Governor Lehman and his party leaders in the legislature mutually snarled on several issues—had more of a bearing on the national political picture than you might suspect. Leaders of the anti-Roosevelt drive are especially anxious to sink him in his own state for the psychological effect on the rest of the country. The veteran Republican Senate leader—George Fearon—is highly regarded for his experience and political skill by Democrats as well as his own followers. A number of Democratic leaders have fallen into the habit of consulting him frequently. Those who should know say that he made subtle and effective contributions to Democratic discord—stirring Tammany antagonism to the Lehman-Farley wing and vice versa. Tammany is now frankly out to rebuild its own fortunes and will shed no tears if it

Best—
Good Housekeeping magazine will celebrate its fiftieth anniversary with a million dollars' worth of advertising. This is its best showing in four years. 2,300,000 copies were ordered printed.

Wait—
Railroad men are chuckling in their beards about the billion dollars assigned to grade crossing elimination in the work-relief program. For years they've been fighting the proposal that they should share in the cost of this work—and it looks as if they have at last scored a shut-out victory. But somebody is always taking the joy out of life. New York realists advise them to wait until local tax authorities add a billion dollars to their assessed valuation for these improvements before they celebrate too vigorously.

Sidelights—
Experts estimate that the figure for March cigarette output will show an unprecedented gain and may record the highest production mark in history. New York milk distributors find that consumer complaints about prices are coming in by the bale. Insiders learn that the AAA is less confident about the constitutionality of its taxing power than it tries to make out. (Copyright McClure Newspaper Syndicate)

Experts Are Worried Over Fite Business

By STUART CAMERON
United Press Sports Editor

NEW YORK (UP)—Those amiable gent who write about the business of box-fighting in something of a serious vein are in for a frank summer. These fellows have as one of their duties a "must" assignment in connection with every fight, this same being to inform their readers who is to emerge victorious in the impending fight, and how.

This year their job is a large one, not only because of the volume of prize fights, but because of the probable closeness of several.

There's the heavyweight championship set-to between Maxie Baer and James J. Braddock, for one. Offhand anybody's say that it will be Baer four ways from the dence. But wait until early June (the fight is set for the 13th) and it may not and probably will not seem so easy.

Baer Stories

By that time the stories of Baer's lack of condition will have been well circulated. Some of the experts, who will see Baer and Braddock in training camps, will have decided that Maxie is way out of shape. Meantime Braddock will have been built up into a tremendous battler and the arguments won't be so one-sided as they are just now.

But most experts, unless Maxie falls apart, will decide he's due to retain his title. Probably they'll be right, but no one should forget another fight in which Baer was involved. That was the one with Max Schmeling. There was an oc-

QUICKER, SAFER STOPS

With Dodge Perfected, Dual-Cylinder Hydraulic Brakes

JUST when others are offering their first hydraulic-type brakes, Dodge gives you the extra safety of Perfected, Dual-Cylinder Hydraulic Brakes, pioneered years ago by Dodge and proved in the service of hundreds of thousands of owners.

With 20% more braking surface—fully equalized against skidding or weaving—they get thousands of extra miles from tires and brake linings—give greater stopping power, quicker, safer stops—more safety than ever. Remember, there can be no successful imitation of Dodge brakes—or their safety—without Dodge experience and manufacturing precision.

Here is a big, smart, 45-mile-per-hour car that actually gives you three to five more miles per gallon of gas than lower-priced cars. And even more astonishing economy of oil! With all its savings, the Dodge "Red Ram" engine gives brilliant new ranges of speed—bashing-pick-up—silly silence and ease. Its famous patented Floating Power engine mountings smother vibration, which racks ordinary cars to pieces.

The final word in protection—the famous Dodge safety all-steel body is known to nearly 5,000,000 Dodge owners.

Only the genius of a manufacturing organization such as Dodge—with such complete facilities, with 20 years of experience in building nearly three million fine vehicles—could create such astounding dollar-for-dollar value!

casual observer who had thought Baer had as much as an outside chance, but "virtually everyone had said "Schmeling." This writer, who has been wrong on at least two-thirds of his predictions, strung along with the mob and saw Baer turn loose an artistic lacing.

Louis Carnera Boxer

Then there's the Joe. Louis-Primo Carnera business, which may be closer than either's next breath. Fully half of the experts are going to be wrong on that one. Ditto the third meeting of Jimmy McLarin and Barney Ross in which the former will defend his welter title.

The Lou Ambers-Tony Canzone lightweight scrap is another tough one. Because of Ross' addition of the lightweight crown, they are fighting for recognition as champion of the division. On straight form Ambers looks like the probable winner, but little Tony has a knack of bobbing up with a win when it isn't expected.

The fight expert who comes through with a perfect slate in picking winners in these four fights won't need to apologize for doing some plain and fancy gloating.

Two Year Term Given Wife For Furnishing Gun

DICKENS—Convicted of furnishing a weapon to a person charged with a felony, Mrs. Clarence Brown was sentenced to serve two years in the state penitentiary by the 110th district court jury here Wednesday afternoon.

The charge grew out of the Dickens county jail escape of her husband and Virgil Stalcup after Sheriff W. B. Arthur was shot to death Oct. 27. Brown pleaded guilty of murder at Lubbock Monday and accepted life sentence.

Mrs. Brown wept when the verdict was read. She had pleaded guilty and asked a suspended sentence. The term was the minimum.

Five convictions have followed the jail break. Stalcup was assessed the death sentence. Two persons, a man and a woman, were convicted at Houston for harboring Stalcup.

Testimony by Mrs. Brown was that she was returning from Fort Worth with Sheriff S. H. Newman of Seury county when her husband broke jail. She said the officer had invited her to go with him to a convention. A defense character witness, Newman said Mrs. Brown has asked to make the trip.

Stalcup and Brown were recaptured in Houston after their break from the Dickens county jail. Sheriff Jess Slaughter was one of a party of West Texas officers who returned them to Lubbock. Slaughter was instrumental in recovering certain stolen property taken by Stalcup.

Cattle Prices Reach New High Since 1930

Roper Urges Much Airport Development

Commerce Secretary One Of First To Make Known Intentions

WASHINGTON, (UP)—Secretary of Commerce Daniel C. Roper Wednesday announced he will seek a share of the $1,800,000,000 work-relief fund for a nationwide airport development program.

Roper was one of the first to disclose his intention to put in a bid for part of the huge fund.

Aside from the airport program, the commerce department will seek $10,000,000 to employ jobless "white-collar" workers in a survey to collect data looking toward elimination of waste in distribution.

Roper also is prepared to use the machinery of his department in conducting an unemployment census.

Roper said commerce department transportation experts and officials of the bureau of air commerce within a few days will be ready to submit to Frank C. Walker's application an information division a constructive program for air commerce development through use of work-relief funds. This activity will not conflict with operations of FWA. The amount required for airport development has not been determined.

The distribution survey would study costs of commodity distribution from the producer to the consumer, Roper was unable to say how many workers would be needed. He said facilities of NRA and the bureau of the census might be used in the survey.

Lion Convention Reports Heard

Lions Wednesday reviewed their work at the district 27 convention just ended in Plainview where they sought the next district meeting of the organization.

Big Spring had asked for the 1936 convention but withdrew in favor of Childers before the selection of the next meeting place was made.

Grover C. Dunham, who acted as chairman of the steering committee, told the club that much good will had been gained in the campaign for the convention and he expressed the belief that the 1937 convention was assured this city if the club staged a wise follow up campaign.

He briefly reviewed other activities of the convention. Dunham served on the district resolutions committee.

Others to report on the convention which ended Tuesday were Lee Hubby, Ludwig Grant, James E. Payne and Robert Riegel.

Delegates were high in their praise of entertainment furnished in behalf of the club by the Riegel students. In all that group gave over ten performances advertising Big Spring and the club.

DIFFERENCE BETWEEN POLECRAT AND POLECAT

RALEIGH, N. C. (UP)—A member of the North Carolina legislature, rising to a point of personal privilege, called another legislator a "polecrat." Newspapers throughout the state quoted him as saying "polecat," and one sheet translated it into "akunk."

A "polecrat," the legislator explained to newsmen, is a person who, defeated on the Democratic ticket, jumps to the Republican ticket; defeated there he jumps back to the Democratic, and so on—jumping from poll to poll.

Two Escape Convicts Recaptured Quietly

SUGARLAND, (UP)—Bloodhounds late Wednesday night drove in the open two of four convicts who escaped from the Imperial prison farm here earlier in the day, and guards recaptured the pair without firing a shot.

The two, Coy Adams, 18, serving six years for burglary and theft from Fannin county, and Robert Steward, 24, serving 14 years for robbery by firearms, were recaptured, in a railway station as they took refuge from a pack of bloodhounds placed on their trail by prison guards.

Guard Kidnaped

The other two convicts, Ralph King, 31, serving 75 years from Dallas county for robbery, and David Capes, 28, serving 75 years from Tarrant and Hill counties for robbery, were still at large in a wooded section near Addicks. Both were believed armed.

The four kidnaped L. H. Hillyer, a guard, and fled from the prison farm in a hall of bullets fired by guards. Before fleeing the farm convicts slugged John Cullen, superintendent of the prison canteen plant, and a convict barber, who was shaving Cullen when the break was staged later.

Mrs. Larson Lloyd returned from San Angelo with her mother-in-law Mrs. R. E. Lloyd Tuesday. They went to San Angelo to be at the bedside of Rex Wylie who is convalescing from an emergency appendicitis operation.

Distinct Gains For Newspaper Advertisement

NEW YORK (UP)—National advertisers paid $168,000,000 for newspaper space and $249,000,000 for all mediums in 1934, the bureau of advertising reported Wednesday to the American Newspaper Publishers association.

The estimates indicate distinct gains over 1933 advertising expenditures, more than recovering the losses of that year to place them slightly ahead of 1932.

In 1933, the bureau reported, general advertisers spent $145,000,000 for newspaper space out of a total of $299,000,000.

Saying "the first quarter of 1935 finds the newspapers facing unusual competition for the national advertiser's dollar," the report presented figures to show that the daily press was superior to both the magazine field and the radio as an advertising medium.

The survey contrasting newspapers and magazines involved nearly a million homes in 15 cities.

"The final conclusion," said the report, "is that the advertiser who uses newspapers alone is getting the best available coverage at the lowest cost.

One newspaper in each city would reach 607,300 homes at a cost of $2.09 a line, the survey showed, whereas it would cost $7.15 a line to reach 472,420 families through the 17 magazines with the largest circulation and 85 per cent of the advertising revenue.

The bureau of advertising reported that although 61.5 per cent of the nation's homes have radios, only 4.5 per cent are tuned in to a single program and only 3.2 can identify the advertiser or his product.

One automobile company's program was said to reach an average of 645,000 listeners at a cost of $11,098, for which the bureau said the advertiser could buy more than a page and a half of newspaper space reaching 1,000,000 readers.

Whip Becomes Huge Tree

PRESCOTT, Kan. (UP)—When Charles Coon drove his ox team to Kansas 68 years ago and settled on a farm near here, he stuck the willow sprout he used for a whip into the ground and it grew to make a fine tree and shade the house he erected. This year, however, the tree has not leafed, and the Coon family fears the 1934 drought was too much for it.

Mrs. Robert Hickey of Roseville, Calif., writes: "My doctor prescribed Kruschen Salts for me—he said they wouldn't hurt me in the least. I've lost 17 lbs. in 6 weeks. Kruschen is worth its weight in gold."

Mrs. Hickey paid no attention to gossipers who said there was no safe way to reduce—evanescent weight who don't like to see others profitably slim. She wisely followed her doctor's advice. Why don't YOU?

Get a jar of Kruschen today (last 4 weeks and costs but a trifle) and if you don't lose 12 lbs. and feel years younger and healthier—money back. Simply take half teaspoonful in cup of hot water every morning (tastes fine with slice of half lemon added). Collins Bros., drugs, Cunningham & Phillips sell lots of it.—adv.
