GISD Seeks Information

Providing a quality education for the children who attend Gorman ISD is an enormous responsibility. Educating the children in our community requires a number of individuals. Teachers, paraprofessionals, bus drivers, custodians, and administrators are the individuals who work with the children at school. Parents are also a very important part of the educational process. The support parents provide is imperative to the students' success. The education of the children also requires assistance from the community. Community members have a wealth of knowledge and skills which can benefit the children.

Schools are accustomed to handing our report cards to students and annually the state of Texas issues a report card based on criteria established by the Texas Legislature, the Texas Education Agency, and the State Board of Education. Gorman ISD is also interested in your rating of the school district. Surveys have been presented the students, parents and faculty. In the near future community members will be given the opportunity to complete a survey. The information from the completed surveys will be used to make plans for the future education of the children who attend Gorman ISD. Prior to the beginning of the school year, a validation meeting will be held to present the results of the survey.

Letter To The Editor

May 31, 2004

Dear Editor:

My name is Sergeant First Class Jose L. Flores. I am currently assigned to 1-124 CAV, a Texas Army National Guard unit, serving in Iraq. I have been in country since March and expect to be here for a full year. I have been in the Texas Army National Guard for over 14 years, serving the last ten as an Active Duty Guard soldier. When at home, I work in Fort Worth, Texas and live in Mansfield, Texas with my wife and daughter.

I grew up in Gorman from 1981 until 1989, when I graduated from Gorman High School. I have not lived in Gorman since then; however, my father, Willie Flores Sr., still resides there. I don't visit my father or Gorman, for that matter, often enough. However, I never forgot my background or where I came from.

In these times of war and national pride, I have taken time to reflect on three key factors: God, Family, and Country. This letter is about all three. First, without God, we would not be here. Second, my father and myself have not had the best of relationships. I know he is proud of what I am doing, but I have never thanked him for making me the man that I am today. Third, I am proud to serve my country, but to me, Texas (Gorman in particular) represents my country. I have lived in several different cities and traveled all over the country, but I never forgot that I am from Gorman.

I am respectfully requesting that your newspaper publish an article about my service in Iraq. I am only asking that you mention that I am a 1989 graduate of Gorman High School and the son of a current Gorman resident, Willie Flores Sr., and include the attached photo in the article. Without saying, the article would show him that I am thankful for what he has done and give our community a chance to sense pride that he is feeling.

If this request is approved, could you please send me several copies of the newspaper to the address in the letterhead? Also, if you have any questions or comments, you can e-mail me at the e-mail address in the letterhead. Thank you for your time in this matter.

Sincerely,
S/FC Jose L. Flores

O'Neal Endows Texas A&M University Petroleum Engineering Scholarship

B.D. (Don) O'Neal of Houston has demonstrated true maroon colors by endowing a fourth scholarship at his alma mater.

His $60,000 gift creates the B.D. O'Neal '53 Scholarship for high-achieving petroleum engineering students at Texas A&M University.

The award is part of the Nelson Scholars Program, established in 1987 to attract exceptional freshmen students to the petroleum engineering profession. The program provides four-year scholarships equivalent to the university's President's Endowed Scholarships.

"As the global demand for oil and gas continues to increase over the coming decades, we will need more petroleum engineers to develop the technology required to meet the demands. The Nelson Scholars Program really helps our department attract and retain the best students, so we can graduate the best petroleum engineers," said Dr. Stephen A. Holditch, petroleum engineering department head and holder of the Samuel Roberts Noble Foundation Chair.

O'Neal previously established a college-wide engineering scholarship and two Corps of Cadets scholarships.

"It is important in this day of high cost education that we graduates of Texas A&M extend a helping hand to future Aggies who have the desire, motivation and ability to educate themselves to better serve our society and our country," O'Neal said.

Matching funds from the ExxonMobil Foundation will help complete his gift.

O'Neal, a native of Hamlin and graduate of Gorman (Texas) High School, earned his bachelor's degree in petroleum engineering from Texas A&M in 1953. He worked 33 years for Exxon U.S.A. in management and engineering positions related to production, natural gas, and coal and oil shale activities. He retired in 1986 as a senior engineering advisor and continued to serve as a private consultant in litigation matters.

He is a registered and licensed professional engineer and a certified mediator in Texas. He is a member of the Society of Petroleum Engineers.

His military service included duty with the U.S. Navy and U.S. Army Inactive Reserve (Ordinance Corps).

The Nelson Scholars Program targets scholastically superior students with high leadership potential. The goal is 50 endowments, each providing an annual $3,000 stipend to a deserving student.

The O'Neal gift counts in two fund-raising campaigns: One Spirit One Vision Campaign, the university's multiyear campaign aimed at helping Texas A&M attain national top 10 status among public universities, and the recently concluded petroleum engineering department's The leader today/The leader tomorrow campaign.

KOKOMO NEWS

BY ZELDA JORDAN

I apologize that there was no Kokomo News last week, but I was out of town on news day. My sister-in-law, Wanda Lewallen Russell of Floydada, underwent heart by-pass surgery at the Lubbock Heart Hospital on Tuesday morning, June 8 and I was in Lubbock to be with her and other members of the family. She has been in CCU since the surgery as she developed pneumonia, but was doing much better today (Monday) and hoped to be moved to a room today or tomorrow. I send get well wishes to her.

Wanda's son, Carl "Bubba" Lewallen and his daughter, Laura of Lewisville and daughter and son-in-law, Jayma and Phil Montoya of Albuquerque, NM were in Lubbock to be with their mother. Other family members there were Laverne Winn of Muleshoe, Audree Tipton of Lubbock, Jim Winn of Lubbock, Zelda Jordan of Gorman, Glenda and Leon Black of Abilene, Cindy Jordan of Lubbock, Barbara and Bo Bell and Arvel Lewallen of Denver City.

I accompanied Glenda and Leon Black to Lubbock and we visited with Cindy and Kayla Jordan during the weekend and Monday night. Leon was working at the Lubbock Heart Hospital on Saturday and Sunday. Others visiting with us at Cindy and Kayla's home on Sunday were Laverne Winn of Muleshoe, Wanda Russell of Floydada, Barbara and Bo Bell and Arvel Lewallen of Denver City, and Clinton Favver of Welch. Kayla came home with us for a visit with Grandma Zelda, Glenda and Leon Black and Sheri, Wade, Ryan, Kody and Emily Daniell in Abilene.

Woodrow and Helen Browning blessed us with the special music at the Sunday morning service at the Kokomo Baptist Church as they sang "I'm Happy And Free". "Happy Birthday" was sung to Glynda Bond and "Happy Anniversary" was wished to Joe and Glynda Bond. Trevor Clayton of Springtown and Mike and Susie Hampton, Chance, Mykesha and Larissa were visitors.

Glenn Gilbert of Katy blessed our hearts with the special music at the evening service singing "Carry Your Candle" Glenn is the grandson of the late Odis and Berneice Rodgers and has visited at Kokomo many times. We enjoyed you being here and singing for us, Glenn, and hope you will come again soon.

Those from the Kokomo Baptist Church going to Heritage Manor in Gorman for the church service on Sunday afternoon were Bro. Clarence and Leona Wilson, Woodrow and Helen Browning, Joe and Glynda Bond, Johnnie B. Griffith, Nancy Hendricks and Zelda Jordan. Helen and Woodrow rendered the special music.

On Saturday, June 5, LaVon Snider accompanied Ted and Charlotte Snider of Gorman, Toby, Angie, Karina, Karle and Klarissa Snider of Lake Brownwood, and Clay, Susan, Kinsey, Caitlin and Kyann Wheat of Ranger to Hollis, OK for Kael Snider's High School Graduation Ceremony. There they met other family members and friends of Kael. After the Ceremony, Jamie, Stephanie, Kael, Craig, Matthew, Anna, and Andrew Snider hosted a BBQ dinner.

On Sunday afternoon, LaVon attended a birthday party for Daniella Snider.

Those visiting LaVon this week were Dan Snider of Gorman and Dwayne and Connie Snider of Stephenville.

Betty and Larry Strube attended the Crawley Family Reunion at the Kokomo Community Center on Saturday, June 5. They reported a good time with the large crowd attending.

We are happy that Oren Webb is home now and doing better following his heart by-pass surgery recently in Abilene. James Webb of Glen Rose, Stacy Webb, Renee Fox, Jacob Webb, Randell, Kaci and Aaron Suniga of Comanche visited with Oren and Norma on Saturday.

Woodrow and Helen Browning visited in Graham on Thursday with Gary, Rebecca and Emily Browning and Gary, Donna, Lesley, Melanie and Garrett Gatlin. Emily came home with her grandparents for a visit and Gary and Rebecca came for her on Saturday.

Stephanie, Raegan and Sydney Bond of Copperas Cove visited with Joe and Glynda Bond.

Volunteers Needed

The Gorman ISD Board of Trustees approved the purchase of new playground equipment for the Maxfield Elementary playground this past spring. The Elementary PTO has worked diligently raising funds for the new equipment and has donated the funds to pay for fifty per cent of the project.

Delivery of the equipment is scheduled for June 23, 2004. The District is seeking volunteers to assist with assembly of the new equipment. There will be a planning meeting Tuesday, June 22, 2004 at 7:00 pm in the GISD Cafeteria. Refreshments will be provided.

Wharton Family Reunion

The grandchildren, great-grandchildren, great-great-grandchildren and great-great-great-grandchildren of the late Clint and Susie Wharton met for their annual family reunion on Saturday, June 12, 2004 at the Kokomo Community Center.

They began arriving around 9:00 a.m. until about 11:00 a.m. There was lots of visiting and catching up on the family activities throughout the past year. There were lots of pictures to see and many pictures to be taken throughout the day.

A picnic lunch of sandwiches, dips and chips, fruit, assorted desserts, and cold drinks was enjoyed at the noon hour. Jimmy Nelson gave the prayer of thanks for the food and the opportunity to be together.

Those attending from the late Jim and Clydie Wharton Jordan family were: Zelda Jordan of Kokomo, Glenda Black and Sheri and Emily Daniell of Abilene, Kayla Jordan of Lubbock, Jimmy Nelson, and Travis, Glad Alexis, Tiffany and Ethan Nelson of Fort Worth; from the Dwight and Edie Wharton Gothard family were Paul and Kay Gothard and Summerain Gothard of Blackwell; from the late E.W. and Lila Wharton Lovell family were Doris Neill of Midland, Sheron Graham of Early and Shanna, Nesim and Noah Halfon of Kissimmee, FL; from the late Jake and Faye Wharton Crawley family was Larry Strube; and from the Lucille and the late Garland Wharton family were Brenda Harrison of Mansfield and Vanessa Harrison of Venus. The family of Wordene Wharton Hawthorne of Dallas was unable to attend. Betty Strube of Kokomo was ill and unable to attend. All that could not attend were missed.

All too soon it was time for the good-byes, but all left saying, I hope to see you next year at the same place on the second Saturday in June.

Trevor Clayton of Springtown visited with his grandparents, James and Mary Donham.

Visitors with Nancy Hendricks were Kayla Jordan of Lubbock, Zelda Jordan, Jonell Torrez, Charlie Torrez, Jr. Reed Torrez, Ike Torrez of Gorman and Johnnie B. Griffith.

Daisy Slaton of Gorman visited with Zelda and Kayla Jordan on Friday night and they enjoyed several games of "Skip Bo".

Glenda Black and Sheri and Emily Daniell of Abilene visited with Zelda and Kayla Jordan on Saturday and attended the Wharton Reunion at the Kokomo Community Center. Kayla returned to Abilene with Glenda, Sheri and Emily for a visit.

Zelda Jordan received a telephone visit from Rick Fuller of Pittsfield, ILL on Sunday night. He says hello to all his friends in this area. He reported that their area had received a lot of stormy weather recently with hail and high winds. His son, Wesley, is in the Navy and stationed in Monterrey, CA. It was good to talk to you Rick. Call again soon.

I've just learned tonight (Monday, June 14) of the death of Mrs. Hope Joiner. Mrs. Joiner was a long time member of the Kokomo Baptist Church and the oldest member of the church. She was very active in the church as long as her health permitted, and was a teacher for the Ladies Sunday School Class for many of those years. She will be missed. We extend our sincere sympathy to her family.

A "Happy Birthday" to my grandson, Joe Miles of Austin on June 18th from Grandma Jordan.

The community has received good rains over the past week or so. I've received over 4 inches at my house.

Letter to Editor

I guess I am one of "the group" that Daryl Hirst referred to in his letter to the editor of May 13, 2004. Some of the candidates seemed to me to be more qualified with more years of experience in jobs that would give them the skills to be school board members. I have no problem with Mr. Hirst writing a letter to the editor supporting his choices for the school board. His campaigning for his candidates and my campaigning for my candidates is the American way. However, I was greatly offended by his attacks on three of the candidates and "their group" with charges that are vague and just not true. He charges that they "do not have the best interest of the school in mind," they "have a vendetta against the superintendent and school board," and they "are always against any agenda item." Therefore, I would like to reply to Mr. Hirst's comments in his letter to the editor.

First of all, let me emphasize that I love the Gorman School System. I attended the system for 12 years and received an excellent education from the many teachers I had over the years. I have often thought how fortunate I was to have had such an education that prepared me for adult life. Last year, I served as President of the Ex-Student Association and worked very hard to make the homecoming of ex-students a special event. I worked with the superintendent to have a tour of the school for ex-students. Was this "never being in support of any agenda item?" Therefore, when Mr. Hirst accuses me of not having "the best interest of the school in mind," I am appalled. It is because I want the best for Gorman Schools and want our tax money to go for the education of the current students in the schools that I interacted with the superintendent and school board last year.

Several people came to me last year suggesting that I attend a school board meeting because there were some serious issues that needed to be addressed. These individuals knew I had years of experience working in educational systems and knew about school policies and procedures. At the first meeting I attended, someone (a taxpayer whom I had never met) made a plea for the school board to look into the issue of the use of credit cards for personal use by school administrators. It is illegal for school employees to use credit cards for their personal use. Later I was shown documentation where school credit cards had been used for items and events that would seem to be personal. I also learned that this taxpayer had been meeting and pleading with the superintendent and school board for several months, trying to get them to stop the practice. At the first meeting of the school board which I attended, his comments were met with silence.

I never support any idea by anyone unless I look at the facts. Little is accomplished by saying "someone doesn't have the best interest of the school in mind" without supporting such statements with specific facts. When we tried to get Mr. Hirst to look at the facts and documentation on the issue of credit cards, he said he didn't want to know the facts.

In subsequent weeks and months, I met with school administrators and the chairman of the school board. I met with the superintendent several times. There was and still is (contrary to Mr. Hirst's statement) an ongoing investigation by the District Attorney and Texas Ranger. I met with the Texas Ranger to check out facts. He said there were some illegal charges on credit cards and that although the investigation would continue, going through credit cards receipts was extremely time consuming and he also had murder, robbery, and drug problems to address. Rightly so, credit cards receipts were things the school board should look into to verify problems. I discovered that the school board never looked at credit card receipts. And the administration who may look at such receipts was the entity being addressed as using credit cards for personal use.

There were also many missing credit card receipts or illegible receipts which always seems suspicious. It took the board several months to act on the situation. Again, I thought I had the best interest of the school in mind when I wanted the school money to go for the educational needs of students in the school, not for personal expenses such as university tuition, contribution to the Republican Party, pay-for-view movies, and expensive meals.

Only after several months, when the school lawyer, ranger, and auditor told the school board that credit cards should not be used for personal expenses did they pass a motion that credit cards could no longer be used for personal expenses and that they would look at the credit card receipts every three months. A lot of time devoted to this issue and a lot of frustration could have been prevented if the board had promptly looked into the issue, checked out the facts with an entity like the Texas Education Agency, and corrected their policies.

We need to have individuals on the board who are open to public comments and suggestions and who let the public know the details of what is going on relevant to a certain issue. They need to act promptly when an issue is raised.

On Monday night at the school board meeting, another such issue developed. A board member is moving this week and some action needed to be taken. The item was listed on the board agenda. One common practice is to appoint someone to fill out the term of the departing board member. It is also common to appoint the person who received the next highest votes in the most recent election. This would be Marceil Laminack who lost the election by only 2 or 3 votes. Evidently, in spite of Mr. Hirst's negative comments in his letter to the editor, many people thought marceil would make a good school board member. However, once again, the board delayed action on a controversial issue and did not appoint anyone Monday night. Also on Monday night, "the group" was criticized in a long speech by a board member for causing problems.

Folks, I believe something is wrong when we cannot point out illegal and unethical issues to a school board without being chastised to doing so. Contrary to Mr. Hirst's comments, I have absolutely no vendetta against the board or superintendent. I simply believe that we need to be legal and ethical in our school activities.

LITE-UP AND LINK UP AVAILABLE TO QUALIFIED CUSTOMERS

The Federal Communications Commission and the Public Utility Commission of Texas have established two programs to make telephone service more affordable to eligible customers. LITE-UP (Low-Income Telephone & Electric Utilities Program) and Link Up are programs available to qualified low-income consumers for discounted telephone/electric rates and reduced installation charges, respectively.

Customers automatically qualify for the LITE-UP discount if they already receive certain benefits from the Texas Department of Human Services (DHS), including: Food Stamps, TANF (Temporary Assistance to Needy Families), Medicaid or Low-Income Medicare, and Supplemental Security Income (SSI). If automatic qualification does not apply, any customer at or below 125 percent of the federal poverty level may qualify through self-certification for the LITE-UP Texas low-income discount.

Link Up lowers the amount eligible consumers pay for establishing home telephone service connections. Qualifying consumers may receive a discount amounting to one-half of the customary telephone connection charge, up to a maximum of $30.

For additional information on LITE-UP and Link Up, call the Low-Income Discount Administrator (LIDA) at 1-866-454-8387 (4-LITE-UP). Once consumer qualifications are met for discounted service rates, LIDA will notify the applicable telephone/electric company of the eligible service rate reduction.

SERVICIO LITE-UP Y PROGRAMA LINK UP

La Federal Communications Commission (Comunicacion de Comunicaciones Federales) (FCC) y Public Utility Commission of Texas (Comision de Servicios Publicos de Texas) ha establecido dos programas para hacer el servicio telefonico mas accesible economicamente para clientes elegibles. LITE-UP (Low-Income Telephone & Electric Utilities Program) y Link Up son programas para hacer servicio telefonico y electricidad disponible a tarifas reducidas y reduccion en los cargos de instalacion.

Clientes automaticamente reciben las reducciones de LITE-UP si usted a participado al menos en uno de los siguientes programas del Texas Department of Human Resources (DHS) (Departamento de Servicios Humanos de Texas):

Food Stamps

TANF (Temporary Assistance to Needy Families)

Medicaid

Low Income Medicare

Supplemental Security Income (SSI)

Si no califica automaticamente, cualquier cliente que alcanza o esta mas abajo del 125% del parametro federal de pobreza puede calificar para el servicio LITE-UP Texas low income discount.

Link Up reduce para clientes elegibles cargos de servicio telefonico en su casa. Clientes pueden recibir asta la mitad (1/2) de los cargos de servicio de conexcion o $30.00, lo que sea menos.

Para obtener mas informacion del programa LITE-UP o Link Up, llame a Low-Income Discount Administrator (LIDA) al 1-866-454-8387 (4-LITE-UP). Cuando un cliente califica para reducciones de servicios, LIDA manda informacion acerca de servicio telefonico/electricidad para que el cliente pueda recibir su servicio reducido.

Rodgers Reunion

On Saturday, May 29, and Sunday, May 30, the descendents of Alice and Bob Rodgers had a reunion at the home of Betty and Ken Heathington on their ranch outside of Gorman. Attending the reunion were 115 relatives from Texas, Arkansas, Tennessee, and Colorado. Eighteen years had passed since the last reunion which was held in Eastland.

Bob and Alice Rodgers were married in 1887 and moved to the Gorman area in the late 1800s and resided on a farm outside of Gorman until their deaths. They build a residence which still stands today. Eight children grew to adulthood at this residence: Will, Lois, Edd, George, Fred, Cullen, Ellie, and Ollie. Ellie died in early adulthood. Four of the children (Will, Fred, Cullen, and Ollie) remained in Gorman until their deaths. Edd and George moved to West Texas and Lois moved to South Texas where they resided until their deaths.

Bob and Alice had 28 grandchildren—17 are still living. There were 14 of these grandchildren in attendance at the reunion. In one period of time in the 1950s, there were Rodgers children in almost every grade in Gorman schools.

In addition to the grandchildren, there were several generations of descendents. The family of Ray (deceased grandchild) and Lavelle Rodgers had five generations in attendance.

Breakfast, lunch, and dinner were enjoyed on Saturday; breakfast and lunch on Sunday. A church service was held on Sunday with many family members in attendance.

Old photos were examined as well as current photos of those unable to attend. Family trees were compiled and oral histories exchanged. The most frequent phrase used was: "Do you remember when...?" One of the most cherished photos was the one shown, taken in 1948 which shows six of the children of Bob and Alice at a reunion (left to right: Edd, Fred, Lois, Ollie, Cullen, and George).

What wonderful memories we all shared. On the registration table was a poem which read:

Families are like quilts—
Lives pieced
And stitched together,
Colored by happiness and tears,
Bound by memories
And love,
Cherished throughout
The years.

Craddock Reunion

Saturday, June 12, was a special, joyous day for the descendents of the late Alford and Virgie Hargrove Craddock when they met at the Community Center for the annual family reunion.

After many hugs and kisses, the group gathers around the tables lined with scrap books and photo albums to reminiscence, and view the family photos of the past and present.

The noon meal was a catered Bar-B-Que dinner. Chef, Eddie Auvenshine did a super job in preparing the biscuits and sausage. The delicious desserts, salads and snacks were furnished by family members.

In mid-afternoon, Mayor Robert Ervin, brought packages of roasted peanuts, compliments of Texas Producers Board.

Before the day ended, Joe Craddock, who was unable to make the trip to Gorman due to health problems, made a telephone call and talked with each one. He was with us in spirit and voice, a very nice surprise.

Amber Craddock, 94, wife of the late Bishop Craddock was the oldest member present and Caroline, age 1, was the youngest, she is the daughter of Greg and Liz Ragland of Amarillo.

Around 8:30 p.m. everyone left the Center for their hotel rooms, some met in the home of Johnny and Ina Smith for visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. 'Bubba' McDaniel and Billie Craddock of Sundown were guests in the Smith home.

The families of the McDaniels, Billie Craddock, Trish Hudson of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hudson, Ina and Johnny Smith, Kay Ann and Estelle Craddock met at Hwy. 6 Cafe for breakfast on Sunday.

Those present for the reunion were: Emmett and Kay Lynn Lasater, Earl and Mary Ragland of Eastland; Kay and Everett McDaniel and Billie Craddock of Sundown; Trish Hudson of Dallas; David and Jane Brush, Davidie, Chad, Cord and Molly Lester of Gustine; Amber Craddock of Comanche; Greg, Liz, and Caroline Ragland of Amarillo; Larry Gay Ragland; Gary, Terri, Bethany and Faith Ragland of Andrews; Amy, Audrey, Jaimie and Kinsey Johnston, Estelle Craddock, Ralph and Margie Hudson, Johnny and Ina Smith of Gorman; Brenda Tucker and Nathan of Desdemona; Nita Auvenshine and Emily and Ashley of DeLeon; Kevin, Amber and Jordon Scitem of Gorman; Kay Ann Craddock of Plano. Visitors were Cole Conner of Andrews and Veronica Seaton, Kimmy and Kourtney of Gorman.

Estelle and Kay Ann Craddock were hostesses for the reunion. Billie Craddock and Kay Frances McDaniel will host next year's reunion.

Charlie Stenholm
is working to reduce the cost of prescription drugs
for all Americans!

Dear Friends,

Too often I hear from constituents, especially seniors, who are forced to choose between buying groceries and paying for medicines their doctors prescribe.

That's just plain wrong.

While the new Medicare discount cards are a first step towards making prescription drugs more affordable for seniors, much more needs to be done to bring down the cost of drugs.

As a Congressman from West Texas, I'll continue to work hard to lower prescription drug costs and make medical care more affordable and available for everyone.

And as a founding member of the Rural Health Care Coalition, I'll continue fighting to provide vital assistance to rural hospitals and health care providers.
