Rosa Herrera Named New Peanut Festival Queen

The Annual Peanut Festival Queen's Contest was held Saturday Sept. 11 during the Annual Peanut Festival. The contest was held in the afternoon downtown at ZJ's Steakhouse this year and saw nearly double the attendance of the past few years.

Of course, it could have been everyone wanting to see two beautiful young ladies competing for the title of Peanut Festival Queen. This year's contestants were Rosa Herrera and Crystal Thackerson. Both girls are sophomores at Gorman High School.

Rosa is the daughter of Carlos and Rosa Herrera of Gorman, granddaughter of Carmen and the late Daniel Herrera of Gorman and Francis Moreno of Eagle Pass.

Crystal is the daughter of Randy and Michelle Byrd of Carbon and Tony and Jeanette Thackerson of Ranger. She is the granddaughter of Jimmy and Valerie Hampton and Darlene Hampton of Gorman and James and Charlene Thackerson of Carbon.

The girls and their mothers joined the judges for an afternoon tea at the Methodist Church, hosted by Becky Laminack and Lori Dodd. The girls had the opportunity to visit one on one with each of the judges and enjoyed delicious food and company.

The girls modeled Sportswear, Evening/formal wear, and presented a speech they wrote themselves. We also heard from Kaci Seaton, 2003-04 Peanut Queen. She read an article she had written for the paper during her reign as Peanut Queen regarding peanut production in our area, and she also gave a farewell speech.

This year's judges were Faye Stinneford, Julie Ratliff, and Marcy Snelson from the D/FW area. They all agreed that it was the toughest thing they had ever done.

There were door prizes given away during apparel changes. The winners were: Jeff Seaton—free video rental, Craig Rainey—candle, Sue Seaton—John Deere plaque, Valerie Hampton—candle, Lester Seaton—Fourth of July wallhanging, and Carmen Herrera—Spiderman hoverdisc. Our appreciation goes out to Texas Creations, Gorman Video, and Antiques from Our Father's House for donating these fun prizes.

School Board Minutes Board Approves Budget and Tax Rate

The Board of Trustees met in two special meetings Thursday, August 26, 2004. The agenda for both meetings dealt primarily with two subjects; the 2004-2005 Gorman ISD Budget and the 2004-2005 Tax Rate.
The first meeting was called to order at 7:02 pm with all current board members and administration in attendance. Others in attendance were Lisa Laminack. GISD Board President Bobby Rich opened the floor for statements concerning the proposed GISD budget and tax rate. No individuals posed questions or statements.
The second meeting began immediately following the adjournment of the first meeting. President Rich called the meeting to order at 7:11 pm. Superintendent Leslie Vann recommended that the Board approve the current cafeteria meal prices. Next, the Board discussed providing the opportunity for the GISD staff to participate in a health reimbursement account (HRA). Vann stated that GISD employees would be able to place a preset amount in the HRA from their pay check each month before taxes were figure thus providing a savings to the employees who choose to participate. After some discussion, Mark Simmons made the motion approve participation in the health reimbursement account program. The motion passed. Approval of the budget was the next item discussed. Superintendent Vann reviewed the proposed budget with the Board and answered questions pertaining to the budget. The $3.35 million dollar budget was approved. The final business item of the special meeting was to establish the tax rate for GISD. Vann reported that tax revenues were based on the appraisal districts values. The net taxable value for GISD is $42,979,860. Taxes will be collected on approximately $40, 440, 00 in values after homestead exemptions. After some discussion, Jeff Seaton's motion to approve the tax rate of $1.45/100 was approved with a 5 to 1 vote with Beth Underwood casting the negative vote.

Kokomo News By Zelda Jordan

Bro. Jim Tilley of Ranger preached at the Sunday morning Service at the Kokomo Baptist Church. "Happy Birthday" was sung to Ashley Little. Mary Jane Little gave a mission emphasis reminding us that this week is the Week Of Prayer for the Mary Hill Davis State Missions and Offerings. The need is great in Texas. Woodrow and Helen Browning rendered the special music with Glynda Bond at the piano. Vernon Bennett of Crane was a visitor.

Bro. Clarence Wilson underwent an angiogram and the clearing of a stent that was trying to close up on Wednesday in a Fort Worth Hospital. He was able to return to his home in Stephenville on Thursday, but didn't feel up to being in the service at church on Sunday. We send our get well wishes to him and hope and pray that he is feeling better each day.

Those from the Kokomo Baptist Church going to the Heritage Manor in Gorman for the Sunday afternoon church service were Woodrow and Helen Browning, Joe and Glynda Bond, Jimmy Little, Nancy Hendricks, Zelda Jordan, Ruby Lee Kinser, Jill, Ashley and Breckley Little. In the absence of Bro. Clarence Wilson they used the time to sing many of the good gospel songs that the residents enjoy so much. Woodrow directed the music with Ruby Lee Kinser at the piano.

During the Labor Day holiday weekend, LaVon Snider met Dwayne, Connie and Lisa Snider, Sheri and Brandon LaBonte, Kelly Parham; Franklin, Jeanne, and Chloe Baker; Dan, Dianne and Sandra Snider; Belinda, Isaac, Audri, Ella and Belle Segura and Erik's niece, Madison at ZJ's for dinner. While there LaVon also visited with Mrs. Gwen Davis and her son, Jack Davis, from Brownwood and friends from Eastland.

Recently LaVon visited Charlotte and Ted Snider. She had a nice visit with Karina, Karle, and Klarissa Snider who were spending the weekend with their grandparents.

LaVon enjoyed the Gorman School Homecoming afternoon celebration and visiting with friends. She accompanied Dwayne and Connie Snider to the Homecoming dinner on Saturday night.

Deliah Lewis of Ennis visited during the weekend with her parents, Delmon and Joyce Eaves and they all attended the 1954 Class of Gorman High School

50th Year reunion at ZJ's on Saturday night. Other visitors with Joyce and Delmon were Cliff and Doris Graham of Eastland and Doris's sister Athena of Andrews.

Norma and Oren Webb also attended the 1954 Class Reunion. They all had a great time.

Vernon Bennett of Crane had lunch with his sister, Betty Little and her daughter, Karen Patterson on Sunday. They all attended the Peanut festival and Gorman Homecoming Activities on Saturday.

Bro. Randy and Jacque McDonald of Rowlett spent Thursday night with Zelda Jordan. They went on to Abilene on Friday to see their son, Ty McDonald play in a tennis tournament on Friday and Saturday. Ty is a freshman at Howard Payne University in Brownwood. Bro. Randy was the speaker for several revivals at the Kokomo Baptist Church, Carbon Baptist Church, and The First Baptist Church in Ranger in the 1970s beginning when he was a student at Southwestern Theological Seminary in Fort Worth. He is now pastor of Celebration Bible Church in Richardson.

Zelda Jordan went to Abilene on Friday for an overnight visit with Glenda and Leon Black at their home in Abilene. They were home for a few days from Las Cruces, NM. On Friday afternoon, Glenda, Emily Daniell and Zelda visited the second grade class of Ryan Daniell at the Wylie Butterfield Campus where Ryan was the Star Student of the week, and Glenda had been invited to speak to the students and tell them how important it was to learn to read and do math and how she used her reading and math in her job and every day life. When she finished, Zelda was invited to tell how important reading and math was to her in her daily activities. The children were very attentive and asked really good questions.

Glenda, Ryan, Emily and Zelda also got to meet Kody Daniell in his second grade class as it was just about time for the class to dismiss.

On Friday night Leon and Glenda Black, and Wade, Sheri, Ryan, Kody and Emily Daniell honored Zelda Jordan with a birthday dinner at TaMolly's Restaurant. The meal was completed with a dessert with a birthday candle. Ryan and Kody helped blow out the candle and then all sang "Happy Birthday" to Zelda. Later, Birthday cake and ice cream was served to all at the Black home. The cake was decorated with white icing with blue trimming and had miniature Dallas Cowboy helmets on it, and was inscribed with "Happy Birthday Grandma" and was centered with a candle. ("77" candles would have been too many for the cake.) Zelda has been a Dallas Cowboy fan for many years. Again "Happy Birthday" was sung. Zelda was presented some wonderful gifts. She also received a beautiful floral arrangement from Joe, Viki and Justin Miles of Austin and a gift from Cindy and Kayla Jordan of Lubbock and phone calls from family and friends and gifts from local friends. It is wonderful to have birthdays when you are treated so royally. My heartfelt thanks to all of you. I love you all

Ryan and Kody were overnight visitors with Glenda, Leon and Zelda on Friday night. Zelda returned home on Saturday and Glenda and Leon returned to Las Cruces on Sunday.

Grandparent Day Celebration a Big Success

Maxfield Elementary celebrated Grandparents Day, Sept. 10th. The students in Pre-K through Sixth Grade invited their Grandparents or Grandparent figures to eat lunch with them. There was a great turnout with over 55 grandparents signing the visitor's sign-in sheet. We appreciate the patience each grandparent showed in waiting for their grandchild to get their turn in the cafeteria. A great big thank you goes to the cafeteria staff for the extra work. A great time was reported by all.

Gorman Ex-Students Association Meeting

A near capacity crowd filled the High School auditorium to attend the meeting of the Gorman Ex Student Association on September 11. The meeting was part of the Homecoming celebration which was held during the 2004 Peanut Festival. The opening ceremonies included the Star Spangled Banner, the Invocation by Billy Taylor, Ex Student from Jasper, Texas and Welcome Address by High School Principal, Mr. Ronny Wright. Carolyn Gilbert called the meeting to order and recognized committee members Sylvia Buchanan, Cecilia Hirst, Kay Craddock, Kenneth Welch, Daryl Hirst, Barbara Morrison, Francis Simpson, Betty Heathington, Marilyn Warren, Carole Rae Ervin, Connie Snider, Charles Reeves and Leslie Vann. Special thanks were given to Mr. Ronny Wright, Lisa Laminack and Pam Childers for their help with the program at the school. Special thanks went to Velda Baze for her help with the World War II recognition program. Members of the Student Council assisted with the program and also conducted a tour of the school facilities following the meeting. These newly elected council members were Ashlee Hornback, Ryan Wright, Rachel Granado, Clint Jones, Sandra Lara and Kent Long. Their advisor Lacy Majors, Spanish Teacher and Student Council Advisor, also assisted with the program throughout the day.

The classes were recognized with the class of 1967 and 1954 having the most present. 2004 represented 50 years for the 1954 class. Both groups enjoyed special celebrations during the day. Secretary Sylvia Buchanan read the minutes of the previous meeting. Charles (C.C.) Reeves received recognition for being the one who traveled the most miles to be at the Homecoming celebration having come from his home in California. Former football players, cheerleaders, band members basketball players and baseball players were also featured. Bird-song Peanuts provided five pound boxes of peanuts to winners in the various categories.

A memorial service honoring those classmates who have passed away during the last year was conducted by Ernestine Todd Shugart. The Election of the Coming Home Queen was held and this year's queen Betty Welch Huff retired her crown to Icy Todd. She received a spray of roses during the ceremony and will reign during Homecoming 2005. Officers for the coming year were elected. New officers for the Ex Student Association are Daryl Hirst, President, Kenneth Welch, Vice-President, Sylvia Buchanan, Secretary and Cecilia Hirst, Treasurer.

In keeping with the "9-11" theme of the Peanut Festival, the program of the afternoon event honored another group who met the need of a nation in crisis. World War II Veterans who went to school at Gorman or who live in Gorman were honored for their service to our country. Twenty three men and their families attended the event which was highlighted by a reading of their personal service history. Committee members presented each man with a medallion which read "World War II Veteran" on the front side and "With Gratitude and Respect" on the reverse side of the coin which was suspended by a "stars and bars" ribbon. They also received personal congressional certificates of gratitude for their military service from Congressman Charles Stenholm of the 19th District. A reception with refreshments was held for the men, their families and friends in the Gorman High School library following the ceremony. World War II Veterans who were honored included Doyle Allen, Elbert Bennett, Vernon Bennett, George Bingham, Bob Boswell, T.A. Brown, Joe Bob Browning, Damon Foster, T.D. Goodwin, Jack Harrison, Thurman Jay, George Mason, Darwin Park May, B.J. McFadden, James Mears, James (Jim) Montgomery, Jack Perry, Edgar Reynolds, Alvis Scitem, Cecil Self, Vernon Smith, Tom Stinnett, and Burl Gene Wright. Also, the children of the late World War II veterans Bill and Virginia Parr hosted today's veterans at the Recognition Dinner held at Z.J.s restaurant Saturday evening.

A highlight of the program came when Edgar Reynolds was presented the Combat Infantry Badge, Silver Rifle Insignia. Mr. Reynolds was awarded the badge fifty nine years ago, but never received in the mail the promised silver rifle as a result of an oversight after the war was over. Due to the perseverance of Homecoming Committee member and Retired Army Master Sergeant, Kenneth Welch, Mr. Reynolds received the medal at the ceremony on September 11. The meeting concluded with the playing of the song "America". A reception was held in the school library following the tour. Student council representatives conducted an open house for the Ex Students during the afternoon.

The Ex Student's Association of the Gorman Schools hosted a Recognition Dinner as part of the Homecoming activities on September 11 at Z.J.'s Restaurant. More than 140 people attended the dinner. Kenneth Welch served as Master of Ceremonies for the event. He was assisted by Daryl Hirst. Also assisting with the event were Sylvia Buchanan and Cecilia Hirst. Six Service Awards were presented to the following:

W.C. Browning – WC is a Gorman native. He and his wife Winnell reside in Gorman and continue to be active in the community. He and his late wife Blanch Browning were parents of four children, Woodrow, Eddie, Glenda Nell and Kay, all Gorman natives. He has seven grandchildren. W. C. Browning is a 1934 graduate of Gorman High School. Well known as a Football player, WC was one of the young men who went to school an extra year so he could continue to play Football. That's dedication!! He is our oldest Football Player of Gorman High School. WC was also a member of the school band. WC worked for Texas Electric Service Company, now TXU, before his retirement in 1978. He was a member of the School Board for 7 years. The Brownings are longtime supporters of civic affairs in Gorman and are mainstays of the Gorman Homecoming. Their children continue this tradition today. Mr. Browning is greatly respected and the committee was glad to honor him in this way.

Estelle Craddock – Estelle Craddock is a native of Gorman. She was born Estelle Clark and spent her school days in Gorman. On July 28, 1935, she married Hubert Craddock. They had one daughter, our friend, Kay Ann. From 1948 to 1958, she and her husband owned and operated the King Theater. This brought back fond memories to everyone in the room. The theater was a Gorman landmark and stood where the current Senior Center is now located. Estelle worked for the Gorman Progress from 1961 to 1984. She is a talented writer and still sends local correspondence to the Abilene Reporter news. Estelle has also been a mainstay in civic affairs in the community. She worked 42 years with the Ministerial Alliance. She was a Brownie and Girl Scout volunteer. Estelle served for 35 years as a Sunday School Superintendent. Estelle will long be remembered for her contribution to civic affairs in Gorman. In 1986, she received the Community Service Award. She has served on the Homecoming Committee for a number of years. It was a great pleasure to present this well deserved award to Estelle Craddock.

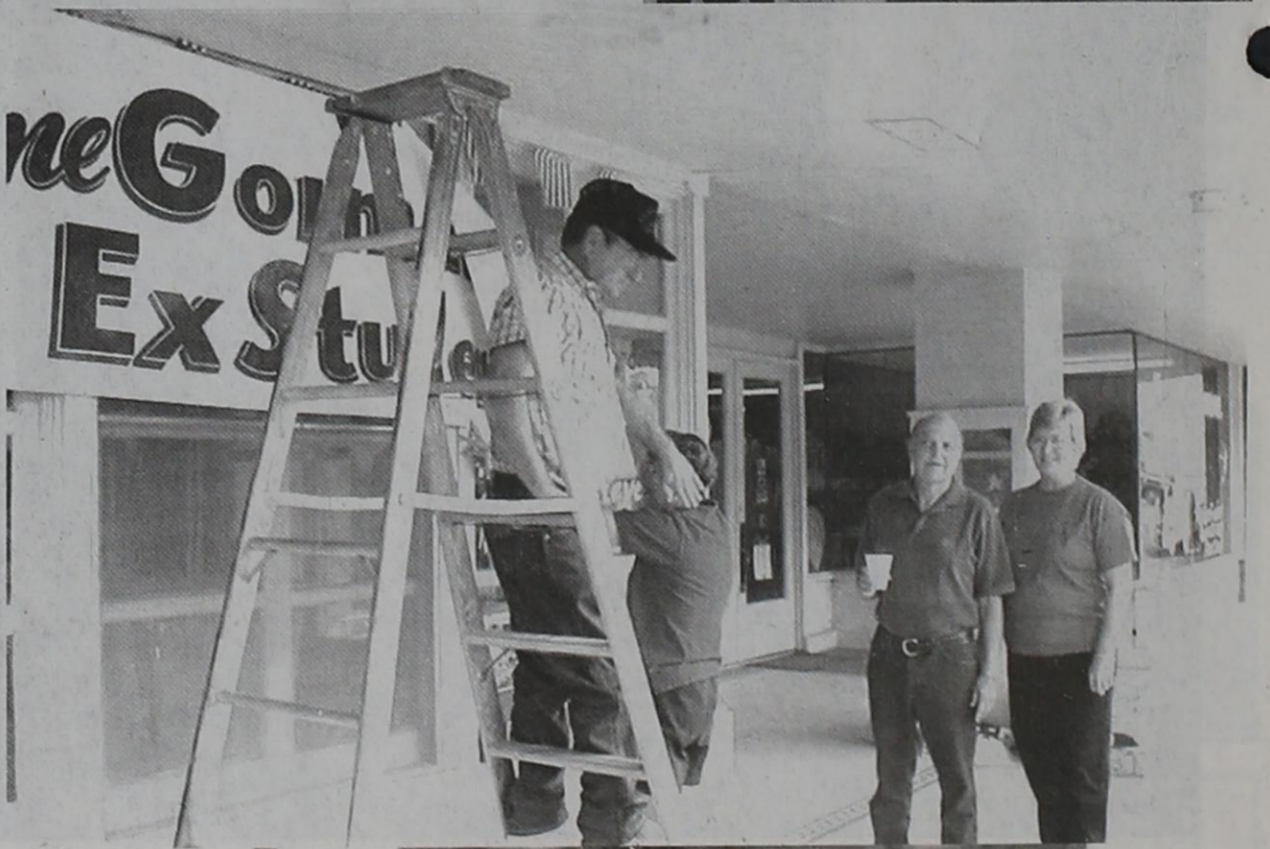

Tommye Sue Roberts – Starting in the 4th grade in Gorman Schools, Tommye Sue Roberts graduated from Gorman High School in 1938. She has remained a faithful supporter of Gorman Homecoming ever since. Her grandparents, Genny and Henry McCroan settled in the community of Jewell, west of Gorman, after the Civil War. Her parents were Tom (Pacer) and Aubrey Bennett. They were a cousin to Dean Bennett. Ms. Roberts has lived in Amarillo for 4 years. Before that, she resided in Georgia, and never missed a Homecoming. A lifelong friend of Louise Rankin, she kept her Gorman ties all her life. We want to recognize her for her steadfastness and loyalty to Gorman Schools.

Billie Jo Tevebaugh – Billie Jo Tevebaugh is a good friend of our last award recipient, Tommye Sue Roberts. They have kept the Red and Blue of Gorman alive and always travel together to Homecoming. She also graduated in 1938. Ora Godwin was her mother. She has a brother, Wesley Franklin. They were neighbor to Mrs. Hattie Wright, Luke Wright's mother. She was a beautician when she was here. She has retired from her Beauty Shop in Amarillo and lives a very active life at Lake Tanglewood there. It is a pleasure to honor Billie Jo for her lifelong dedication to the Gorman Schools.

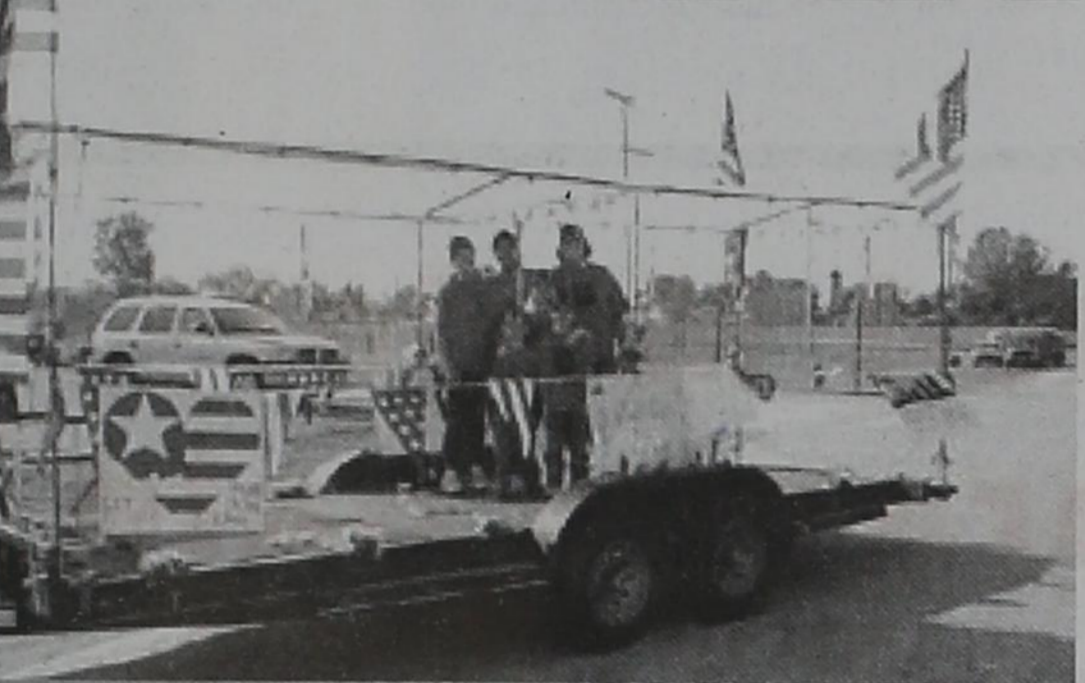

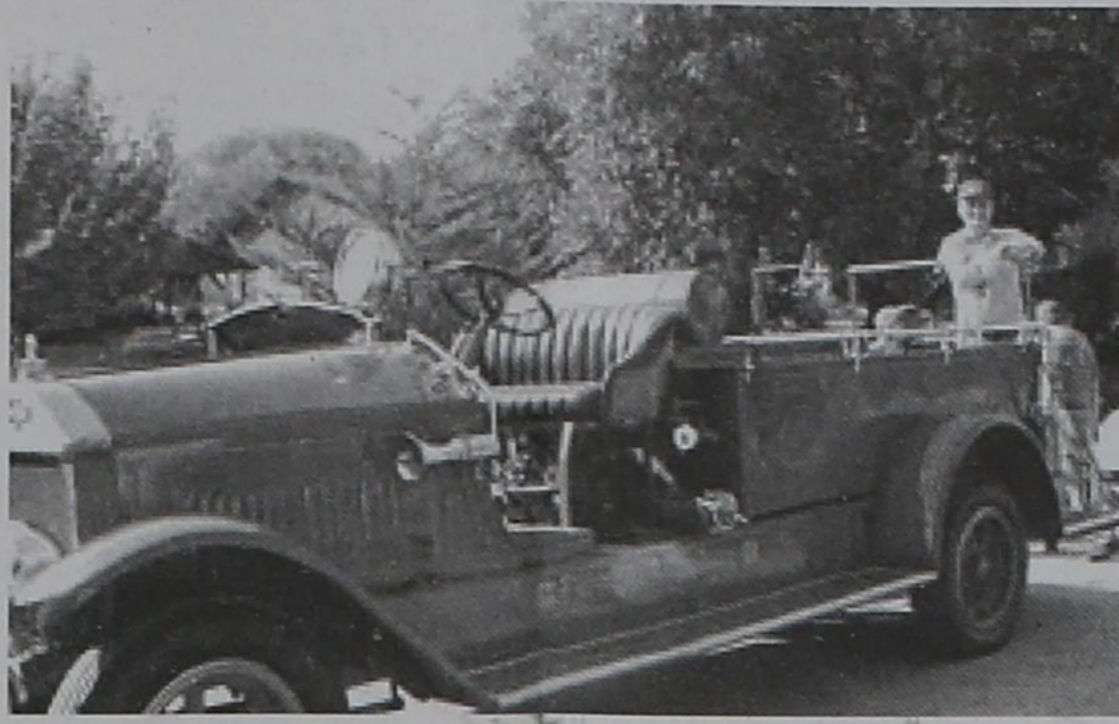

Ross and Rowena Wilson – Ross and Rowena Wilson are well known in the Gorman Area. Both have had long and early ties to Gorman School and have greatly impacted our community through dedication and service. Mr. Wilson's career in Gorman started upon his graduation from Howard Payne University when he was a coach at Gorman High. He then became High School Principal and served as Superintendent of Schools from 1953-1956. From this position he was manager of the Southwest Peanut Growers Association until his retirement. He served us well on the National Peanut Council Board of Directors for many years. Very active in civic affairs, his expertise continues to be sought at the local, state and national levels. Also, for those of you who may not know, Mr. Wilson was recently inducted in the Howard Payne University Football Hall of Fame!

Mr. Wilson's wife, Rowena Wilson made valuable contributions to the area in her forty four years as a public school instructor. She was awarded the prestigious University Interscholastic League Award in honor of her achievement of qualifying students for State level contests during 25 years of her teaching career. She had many State winners in the various business classes she taught. There is no way to determine how many Gorman students were able to get good jobs and be successful in their careers because of the skills and high standards for achievement instilled in them by Mrs. Wilson. Her commitment to excellence made a difference in the lives of her students and will long be remembered by those she taught.

Jack Harrison – Jack Harrison's award was read by his longtime friend, Gene Foster. Gene told of his first encounter with Jack as he approached him for a job as a driver on a school route years ago. Gene told humorous stories that brought joy to the hearts of all who went to school here. Everyone in the room who attended Gorman Schools during Jack's tenure there related to the stories and well understood the warmth and expansive heart of this great man. He spoke of Jack's generosity and told of many instances when he went far beyond the call of duty to get the job done. Gene ended his tribute to Jack when he told of a comment a Homecoming committee member made during a recent meeting, "If you ever got in trouble in school, you tried to go to see Jack first before you went to the principal's office. It helped to talk to Jack. He had a way of softening the blow".

Every Sunday morning, an old man walked several blocks to attend the church in his neighborhood. He was deaf, so he couldn't hear the sermon or the congregational singing.

"Why do you spend your Sundays in that church when you can't hear a word?" a neighbor asked.

CAPITOL COMMENT

U.S. SENATOR

KAY BAILEY HUTCHISON

Homeland Security

Earlier this month, Chechen separatists carried out a gruesome attack on a Russian school, killing hundreds of children, teachers and parents. The episode was a particularly stark reminder of the despicable tactics terrorists of all stripes will use to advance their causes. That assault, and the recent third anniversary of the September 11th strikes on our soil, underscores the continuing vigilance we must show to protect our homeland.

This survey, the last of three focusing on important issues facing our nation, concentrates on Homeland Security. I thank you for your participation and look forward to reading your responses.

Survey Part III - Homeland Security

1. An estimated 400,000 people travel into the United States on a daily basis through our state's 11 border crossings. While our close proximity to Mexico has enriched us culturally and economically, the border also presents a security challenge. Under the recently adopted United States Visitor and Immigrant Status Indicator Technology (US-VISIT) program, Canadian tourists can visit up to six months but a Mexican tourist on the same visa can only stay for one month. Many Texans are concerned this will negatively affect the state's economy by keeping foreign tourists from visiting. In your opinion, what is the best way to apply US-VISIT to the U.S.-Mexican border?

Allow Mexican nationals to stay for 30 days on a visa, as allowed by present policy

Allow Mexican nationals to stay for 6 months, the same length for Canadian nationals under the US-VISIT program

Additional Comments:

2. Since the attacks of September 11th, Congress has approved critical legislation I co-authored to improve aviation security, from enhancing baggage and passenger screening to expanding the air marshals program. We know there is more to accomplish. Which issue should be our next priority in transportation safety measures? (Choose all that apply)

Expand the registered traveler program to airports nationwide, allowing frequent flyers to volunteer personal information in exchange for access to shorter security lines

Implement a computer database administered by federal security officials to check airline passengers' names against terrorist watch lists

Apply the same security standards to air cargo shipped on commercial airlines already in place for passengers and baggage

Overhauling security procedures for passenger train travel

Additional Comments:

3. Since 2001, funding for homeland security efforts has nearly tripled. Budgets have increased for everything from aviation and port security to vaccinations and fire fighters. What further changes would you like to see in homeland security appropriations? (Choose all that apply)

Better train and prepare first responders at the local level

Change the distribution formula to allocate a larger share of federal resources to states and cities facing a greater terrorist threat

Keep current spending levels; they are sufficient

Additional Comments:

4. Following September 11th, Congress created the Homeland Security Department to address national security deficiencies and for the first time tasking a single government entity with defending U.S. soil. What do you believe should be our next top priority in improving our homeland security?

Tightening security at national borders

Upgrading screening of cargo on airplanes

Addressing weaknesses in port security
