

Farmers To Be Honored At Banquet Tonight

HULLS
By KERNEL GENE, aPe

Is growing up and accepting responsibilities more difficult today than it was thirty or forty years ago? I believe it is. Of course, we had the bootleg era in those days but even bootleggers tried to teach their youngsters to respect the rights of others. And youngsters who drank a bottle or two of home-brew were very careful where they went to drink it. Courtesy and respect for others were more than obsolete words in a dictionary. Youngsters and oldsters of that bygone day were not angels, nor were they expected to be, BUT they knew if they went beyond a certain phase of hell-raising the consequences would be drastic.

Then came the "pscho" boys with the idea that discipline was outmoded. Along with this mode of thinking grown-ups began having less respect for law and order. Our courts began making it easier for a person to evade conviction. Today minorities scoff at the law - and recently we have heard union leaders make scathing remarks about judges. To top this dessert with cream, our Supreme Court states that no one can have even voluntary religious service in our schools. This could go on and on but you know the story as well as I do.

For the past few weeks several citizens have talked with me about the unsightly beer cans and bottles scattered on our streets, especially on the corner of Kent and Hiway. I doubt if the person or persons who drop these bottles and cans realize they are trespassing on private property and could get into serious trouble if the owner took a notion to prosecute. However, the thing that bothers me most about this lack of respect for other people's property is, "have I in anyway done something to cause some of these people to lose their self-respect?" I don't recall ever stopping and inviting any of them to church or Sunday School. Have you?

The Transit strike in New York is the best example I can think of for Texans to insist upon keeping our "Right-to-Work Law". Senator Tower voted to retain the Right-to-Work Law. Senator Yarborough voted AGAINST the Right-to-Work Law.

Incidentally, this will probably be the last year you will have the privilege of buying a Poll Tax. A Poll Tax will be needed in State Elections. They are now on sale at Todd's Variety Store.

4-H'ers Decorate For Outstanding Farmer Banquet Set Tonight

Green and White streamers grace the windows of the Higginbotham building showing evidence the 4-H'ers have been there making preparation for the big banquet honoring the peanut farmers and sponsored by the Woman's Study Club and Businessmen's Club. Plans are underway for an irrigation field complete with pump and pipe for a centerpiece, thanks to a future 4-H'er Ricky Fuller, who donated his toy, time, and help along with his sister, Christi, and Teddy Jordan as they cleared the floor Saturday and donned a broom for a beginning.

Adult leaders on hand to supervise and tug and pull the furniture from hither to yon were Mesdames Glenn Jordan, Claude Fuller and Bob Green.

Work plans and ideas were presented to the 4-H'ers at their regular meeting Monday afternoon and were strongly approved. Most were disappointed because they had been unable to have a hand in this worthy project, because they feel that their 4-H work will give them a foundation to become a prosperous farmer if they choose it as their vocation and the farmer receiving the award Thursday night could well have been a 4-H member in his time to learn to use his Head, (to put irrigation to work), Heart to make this a better community, Health to be able to work his field, and Hands to do what he sees to do.

And to the Woman's Study Club, "Thank You" for letting us, the 4-H'ers and adult leaders, have a small part in this worthwhile community project.

John E. Musselman Jr. To Seek Election As 63rd. District Rep.

John E. Musselman, Jr., former manager of the Albany Chamber of Commerce and member of a pioneer West Texas ranching family, announced this week he will be a candidate for the Democratic nomination to the Texas House of Representatives from the 63rd. District.

Musselman's announcement came on release of the news that Rep. Wayne Gibbens of Breckenridge, House member from the 63rd since 1961, was resigning to go to Washington to operate the new Texas Liaison office.

Musselman, who said he will file formally for the office within a few days, praised Rep. Gibbens' long service in the House. "I hope I can give our portion of West Texas the same able, energetic representation Rep. Gibbens has provided," he said.

Musselman, 24, is the son of a Shackelford County ranch couple, and grandson of Mrs. Henry Green and the late Mr. Green, who were among the earliest settlers of this area. His paternal grandfather was the late Claude Musselman of Paris, Texas, theatre owner who had movie interests in various West Texas cities.

Musselman attended Albany public schools and was graduated from Lawrenceville Preparatory School in New Jersey with an outstanding record. He was a letterman in football and track, president of the chapel board, president of his dorm, president of the dramatic club and business manager of the student newspaper.

He has had three years work at the University of Texas toward a law degree.

At the University of Texas he was active in student politics serving as a student assemblyman and as foreman of his student political party. He was chairman of the Campus Chest fund raising drive.

He is a member of Silver Spurs, men's honor organization. A member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, social fraternity, he has served SAE as rush chairman and in 1963-64 was president, receiving national recognition for his service in that office.

Musselman returned to Albany from Austin in the spring of 1964 to become manager of the Albany Chamber of Commerce. He was named outstanding citizen of the year at the Albany Junior Chamber of Commerce banquet in 1965, and is listed in "Outstanding Young Men of America" in 1965.

He was prime mover in the revival of Albany's famous Ft. Griffin Fandangle, serving as producer of the revived show in 1964 and 1965.

Musselman directed the drive which resulted in the new amphitheatre which houses the Fandangle.

Musselman said he will name campaign managers throughout the district soon after his formal announcement for the legislative post.

Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Preston and Martha, Daryl Hirst, Glenda Jordan and Dickey Eaves attended the Battle Of Songs in Fort Worth Saturday night.

In the New Testament we are taught, "Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth," 2 Tim. 2:15. Perhaps most of us, if not all, fall short in our knowledge of the Scriptures.

This method of Bible study can be done in the privacy of your own home during your spare time.

WSCS Meets In Home Of Mrs. D. J. Jobe

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church met Monday, January 10 in the home of Mrs. D. J. Jobe.

The study, World Federation of Methodist Women, was given by Mrs. G. C. Acrea. Mrs. Charles Duran gave the devotional, "Light Unto Thy Path."

Guests were Mrs. Doyle Lee Jobe and Amy.

Ten members of the society were present.

Members of the Woman's Study Club gathered in the office of Club President, Mrs. Berenice Jeffs, last Monday night and prepared some 400 cemetery letters for mailing. These reminders to relatives of loved ones is an annual courtesy the club extends in the hope that from the combined efforts of all, this vast old community cemetery can be maintained to at least some degree of honor to those who have gone before. No doubt many are buried here who have no living relatives, for the cemetery is believed to date from about 1880. Too, this is a mobile age, and the club has difficulty retaining an up-to-date address file. You may already received a reminder asking for your donation; or perhaps your address is not in the file, and you may not receive such a reminder. In any case, please do understand that your donation is needed each year, for that is the source of cemetery maintenance.

The cemetery comprises an area of about six acres. Donations usually approximate some $350, with which to maintain this area for a year. During a Spring of incessant rain, you might visit the cemetery and find weeds growing profusely - please don't be disappointed, such condition is temporary. Mr. Gene Baker of the Gorman Progress donates stationery and printing; the Woman's Study Club donate postage and time in addressing and mailing reminder letters; and the City Commission then, with these donations, employs labor and oversees the cemetery work. Weeds sometimes do grow there temporarily, for weather and available money designate work pace, but, all in all, the entire cemetery area is improving under this arrangement.

At the height of the Blue Bonnet blooming season is the time when the cemetery looks most beautiful. Virtually the entire cemetery is now covered, and when in bloom, the beauty of that blue and white blanket is just simply indescribable.

Contribute toward this work if you can. Mail to Gorman Cemetery Fund, c/o First National Bank, Gorman, Texas 76454.

A large number of area citizens are anticipated to attend the Banquet Thursday evening, January 13, honoring Gorman area's Outstanding Farmer and producer of irrigated peanuts.

The banquet, jointly sponsored by the Businessmen's Club and the Woman's Study Club, have a fine program outlined with Mr. Wayne Keese, Agricultural Engineer, Texas A&M University, as principal speaker, Mr. B. C. Langley, Superintendent of West Cross Timbers Experiment Station of Stephenville, Mr. Tom Birdsong and Mr. Ross Wilson Mrs. Berenice Jeffs, Bob Green, and Claude Fuller will also appear on the program.

Mr. Bob Cooke, Farm Editor of the Abilene Reporter-News, who edits the daily column Waggin' Tongue, has been invited and is expected to be on hand to cover the event for the Reporter-News.

All people who are interested in agriculture are urged to attend the banquet.

Tickets, on sale at $1.50 per plate, will be available at the door for those who failed to secure tickets earlier.

The banquet will be held in the Higginbotham Building at 6:30 p. m. tonight, Thursday, Jan. 13.

Eppler Farm Sold After Fifty-Six Years

The Eppler Farm, some 547 acres located about eight miles northeast of Gorman, was sold January 6 by Barton E. Eppler to Charles Duran, local banker. In 1909 the parents of Mr. Eppler, the late Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Eppler had purchased the farm from the H. B. Thurman and Bill Gleason estate.

Most of the land was under cultivation until Barton bought the interests of the heirs, his brothers and sisters, in 1940. At present, the acreage is largely pasture land with good fertility in the valley of the main stream of the Leon River and on the flat plains above.

Unusual for southeast Eastland County, the farm has no peanut allotment. It is reported that Mr. Duran will follow a relatively new trend here, that of seeding with Coastal Bermuda.

Miss Katie Thurman, granddaughter of a former co-owner of the farm, recalled that the grandfather, T. B. Thurman, told her how he had bedded in a tree until he could build his house. The tree grows on the edge of a pond familiarly known as the Eppler Lake. In the 1880's the reptile and feline population in these parts was quite dense.

When a fellow townsman inquired of Barton, "Will you be running a few head of cattle?" Eppler shook his head, "No. Retirement will be total. Cattle? Why, I don't even have a cat. Just Pauline and me."

Pauline is the Mrs. Eppler, descendant of the Blackwells, who pioneered in Comanche and Eastland Counties and popular matron in church and social circles.

Mr. and Mrs. Eppler will have ample time to enjoy their grandchildren, Paula, 12, and the twins, Billy Barton and Edward Martin, 8, the children of their son, the later George Eppler, and his widow, Mrs. Fanny O'Neal Eppler of San Angelo.

"Americanism" Topic For WGS Meeting Held In Ripley Home

"Americanism" was the subject on Monday evening. It seems appropriate that the Woman's Study Club began 1966 with such a program, for isn't that one of the things that Americanism is? - Freedom to meet together in the home of Mrs. J. S. Ripley and plan worthwhile projects, study many varied subjects, perhaps laugh, have fun together, and maybe eat, too.

The meeting opened with the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States. Mrs. James Miers led the group. Vice-President, Mrs. Fred Rogers, presided during the many-faceted business meeting. Most urgent, perhaps, was the last minute work on the Outstanding Farmer Banquet. Members reported tickets are selling rapidly; several needed more tickets to fulfill promises. The 4-H Club and sponsors are cleaning and decorating for the banquet, and the Businessmen's Club is helping with arrangements, especially concerning catering. In other business, plans were made for a bake sale later this month to benefit a pet project of the club, the Dr. Rodgers Scholarship Loan Fund. The date, January 22, will be reminded again.

Mrs. Art Prater presented the program, "I Speak For Democracy." An essay by a young lady of fifteen years age, Elizabeth Elliott Evans, was quoted, and it was indeed a beautiful writing of things uniquely American - things such as freedom gained with blood; things such as ice cream, a circus parade, football game, a wheat field, the city skyline; and things such as freedom to be a fish peddler, farmer, clerk, or an industrial tycoon, a Jew or Catholic or Protestant or yet something else, and most of all, the freedom to be an American. Then Mrs. Prater continued with reminders that just as America gained these hard earned freedoms, just so must they be maintained. There followed an impromptu round table discussion on news-management, gold reserves, Viet Nam, local law enforcement, college education, and other American topics. It was a most interesting program, a serious one.

Coffee and Coke? And every hand is raised. Oh - - coffee OR coke? Well, that's a good deal, too, and there were assorted cookies - - chocolate chip ones and others with nuts, and then Mrs. Ripley brought around a second cup of coffee to go with all the conversation. And in America, there is freedom to choose - - sugar? cream? no?

FOR EXTRA WARMTH WHEN AND WHERE YOU NEED IT...

PLUG IN A PORTABLE ELECTRIC HEATER

You'll find a portable electric heater comes in mighty handy during cold weather. Just plug it in and be comfortable as radiant sunshine warmth quickly chases the chill from those hard-to-heat areas in your home. On many models, an automatic thermostat provides the exact heat you want once you've set the controls. Because it's flameless, a portable electric heater is ideal for extra warmth in children's rooms. Why go through another winter without the comfort of portable electric heat? See your dealer soon.

How the new electronic device is affects the hearing. How head congestion affects the hearing.

Woman's Study Club Contributes To School Welfare Program

Club member, Mrs. Ray Rankin, reported that the school nurse had inquired whether there was any one, group, organization or club who could pay for the vaccination of a school student in the Gorman Schools. The child had not been inoculated, thus presenting a threat to the well-being of all. Welfare funds were available to take care of a portion of the expense, but other help was urgent to take care of the matter completely.

The matter was brought to the attention of the Woman's Study Club, and the group voted unanimously to assume the expenditure.
