Britain Issues A Warning As Another Ship Attacked By Spanish Rebel Bombers

Quick And Satisfactory Explanation Demanded As Warship Sent To Scene; Bloody Battles In Spain

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Renewed Spanish insurgent bombings of British warships and merchant vessels and charges of Italy of Franco-Soviet violations of the "hands off Spain" agreement threatened serious international repercussions today.
Great Britain demanded a quick and satisfactory explanation from insurgents for two aerial attacks on her destroyer, Gallant, off the east coast of Spain.
She dispatched the destroyer Garland to Palma, Mallorca, held by insurgents, to back up her warning that she will not tolerate interference with her shipping. The Gallant was bombed twice yesterday but was not hit.
Britain also considered making a formal protest at over the shelling of the British steamer Thorpehall by insurgent vessels in the Bay of Biscay yesterday.
In Rome, government-controlled newspapers said that because other nations had violated the agreement not to send arms and volunteers to Spain, Italy might feel forced to take counter-action.
May Quit Agreement
Usually informed sources said Italy and Germany might withdraw from the 27-nation agreement in protest against alleged foreign aid to the Madrid-Valencia government, particularly by France and Russia. Italy and Germany have themselves been accused of repeatedly breaking neutrality pledges.
In London, the Spanish embassy declared it had received confirmation of the reported landing of 10,000 Italian troops at Cadiz, Spain, as aid for insurgents on March 22, 23 and 24.

Senate Would Widen Strike Declaration

Robinson Wants All 'Unfair' Labor Practices
Condemned

CAPITAL'S METHODS
ALSO MENTIONED

Joint Resolution Would Not Require Signature
Of President
(AP)—Majority Leader Robinson (D-Ark) disclosed today that he would ask the senate to condemn company unions and "any other unfair labor practices" together with the sit-down strike.
He said he expected the senate to vote shortly on a "statement of policy" with regard to the strikes agreed upon yesterday by a group of administration leaders.
The resolution he had prepared denounced sit-downs as "illegal and contrary to sound public policy," and added:
"The so-called industrial spy system breeds fear, suspicion and animosity, tends to cause strikes and industrial warfare and is contrary to sound public policy; and it is likewise contrary to sound public policy for any employers to deny the right of collective bargaining, to foster the company union, or to engage in any unfair labor practice as defined in the national labor relations act."
Robinson said the measure was drawn as a joint resolution, which would not force any action by the president. It would be, in effect, a mere declaration of sentiment by congress, and would never go to the White House for signature.
The resolution is a modification of a measure submitted Monday by Senator Pittman (D-Nev), immediately after the senate had refused to write a denunciation of sit-downs into the Guffey-Vinson coal bill.
Senator Borah (R-Ida), said he was not necessarily committed to vote for the resolution.
"I do not propose to single labor out and condemn its illegal acts," he said, "and leave capital free to pursue its illegal methods. If that is treason, make the most of it."
The veteran Idahoan repeatedly has blamed monopolistic industry or much of the current industrial strife.

2 New Members Are Elected To City Commission

Jess Hall, Bob Schermerhorn Victors Over
Nall And Allen, Incumbents, By Majority Of Over Two To One

Big Spring voters, in the ratio of more than two to one, today had decreed a change in personnel of the city's governing commission. In Monday's municipal balloting, they put a healthy endorsement on the candidacies of Robt. F. (Bob) Schermerhorn and Jess F. Hall, electing the two over Leo Nall and J. W. Allen, incumbents. The unofficial vote was:
Hall 490, Schermerhorn 478, Nall 219, Allen 211.
Total vote was 709, considered a "fair total" in view of the fact that section had developed no specific interests, and also to the fact that this is an "off-year" in elections.
Four Year's Service
Nall and Allen, both long-time residents of Big Spring, had asked for a third term. They are completing four years' service on the commission.
Schermerhorn, oil company executive, and Hall, manager of the Southern Ice company plant here, probably will be inducted into office next Tuesday night, regular meeting date of the commission. Election returns will be canvassed.
They will serve for two years, for the next year with these hold-over commission members: C. B. Talbot, Victor Mellinger and R. V. Jones.
Both the victorious candidates today issued statements. Hall said:
"I deeply appreciate the confidence of the people of Big Spring as exemplified in the vote given me as commissioner. The vote is a clear-cut mandate to the city government to further the best interests of our city. I shall meet the challenge with the very best that is in me, ever remembering that the greatest good to the greatest number is, after all, the best policy. To those who did not vote for me I will say that I have nothing but the kindest regards. I will welcome their co-operation and assistance to the end that I may serve the citizens of Big Spring to the best of my ability."
Schermerhorn made an informal statement in which he expressed appreciation for the vote given him, and pledging himself to harmonious efforts toward efficient municipal administration.

Labor Strife In Auto World Near A Close

Union Leaders, Chrysler
Finally Come To An Agreement

BOTH SIDES REPORT
THEY'RE SATISFIED

Interpretations As To
Terms Of Settlement
Are Varied

DETROIT, April 7 (AP)—A dramatic, midnight settlement of the $70,000,000 Chrysler strike that will send 85,000 workmen back to their jobs within two weeks was hailed today as the basis for permanent peace in the automobile industry.
Strike Over?
Governor Frank Murphy, in whose office at Lansing the pact signed by high officials of the Chrysler Corp. and the United Automobile Workers of America just before last midnight, expressed confidence that labor strife was near an end.
Spokesmen for both corporation and union pronounced the agreement satisfactory. Interpretations of the formula that solved the long-deadlocked issue of "sole recognition" varied, however.
The U.A.W.A., throughout the negotiations for settlement of the strike that began March 8 had demanded sole collective bargaining rights. Its president, Homer Martin, commented that "I don't see how it could be any 'sole' since the agreement gave the union the 'exclusive privilege in bargaining with the corporation."
B. E. Hutchinson, the corporation's finance chairman, said the pact was "non-exclusive" and "doesn't preclude our dealing with other unions."
The U.A.W.A. said the pact was "exclusive" and "non-exclusive" and "doesn't preclude our dealing with other unions."
Hutchinson said that sales would go out today or tomorrow for workers to report, and that normal operations would be resumed within ten days or two weeks. As soon as the 65,000 Chrysler employees resume work, 20,000 workers in supply companies will return to their jobs.
Vard's automotive reports estimated today that Chrysler employees lost $9,000,000 in wages during the strike.

JOHN B. NALL

Long Illness Is Fatal To Jno. B. Nall

Long-Time Resident Of City Dies At Home; Funeral To Be Thursday

Long illness resulted fatally today to one of Big Spring's former citizens, John B. Nall. Mr. Nall, 65 years old, succumbed at 5:30 this morning at his home, 1409 Main street.
He had been in declining health for nine years and his condition has been serious for the past four years. Two years ago his life was despaired of, and for the past two months his condition had been critical.
Native of Temple, Tex., where he was born Aug. 8, 1871, Mr. Nall moved to a farm in Coleman, Tex., in 1895. He was married to Mrs. Willie Mae Collins of this city.
Come Here In 1937
Mr. Nall came to Big Spring in 1907 during the "boom" when he was down to give work on the oil fields. He stayed in the town and ranch business and made a success of it for two years before leaving with his father, Leo Nall, to form the city's first ice manufacturing concern, the Big Spring Ice company.
One of the city's first bottling works was operated in connection with the plant, which burned but was rebuilt before the Nall interests sold out to Southern Ice and Utilities company in 1916.
However, Mr. Nall continued in the employ of the new company and cared for the heavy duties in downtown Big Spring. While he was 60 years of age, it was not uncommon for him lifting 300-pound calves of ice.
Retired in 1935
After taking charge of the Main street sub-station of the ice company, Mr. Nall retired in 1935 due to his health. He had put in 21 years of his life in the ice business.
Survivors are his widow, two sons, Raymond (Pancha) and J. B. (Buck) Nall, Jr., of Big Spring; four daughters, Mrs. C. T. Crain.

Court Change Is Opposed By Law Profs

33 Members For Fordham
U. Faculty Sign
Resolution

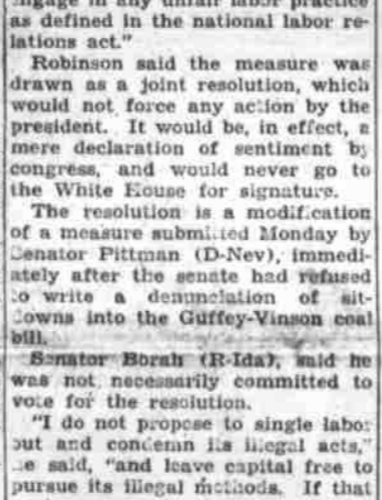

WASHINGTON, April 7 (AP)—The senate judiciary committee received today a resolution signed by all lawyers on the faculty of the Fordham university law school opposing the Roosevelt court bill.
The document was submitted by Dean Ignatius M. Wilkison of the school at the conclusion of a statement in his own behalf against the court measure.
Twenty-three members of the Fordham faculty, including Wilkison, signed the resolution. It reads:
"The undersigned members of the faculty of Fordham university school of law, although holding various political opinions, are opposed to the plan of the president for reorganization of the supreme court of the United States because they regard the proposal as undesirable and dangerous to the maintenance of a free and independent judiciary which is essential for the continuance of constitutional democracy in this country.
"This statement of their views is made by them individually and not in the form of a resolution of the faculty of the school."
Wilkison testified, "It is not a departure from the true meaning of the constitution; in construing, for example, the general welfare clause, but rather that the judicial views in question are unpopular and out of step with the times."
"If the supreme court is to be made to respond always to the prevalent sentiment of the moment, ultimately it must become wholly subservient to public opinion."

GOVT. APPROVAL ON WATER SURVEY

Project Can Be Started As Soon As Deal
Closed With State, City Advised

A geological survey investigation of ground waters in the Big Spring area will begin "promptly upon completion of a cooperative agreement with the Texas board of water engineers," City Manager E. V. Jones was advised today by W. C. Henderson, director of the work at Washington.
Under the agreement mentioned Henderson, the state board of water engineers is to provide an allotment of $2,500 in addition to the federal per centage until July 1. The city is to match the state or federal allotment of $2,500.
The federal contribution, it was explained, is not available until July 1 and is contingent upon congressional appropriations. Expenditures to July 1 are to be paid from the allotment provided through the state board of water engineers.
Big Spring city commissioners last week gave approval to the plan and authorized city officials to cooperate in the plan.
Experts with the U. S. geological survey will make an exhaustive study of the entire region with a view of locating new underground supplies and checking proposed localities for surface supplies.

Opp, tried in Burnet county on a charge of venue, was sentenced to 20 years and Trimble received a five-year sentence in a trial in Gillespie county.

Lindberghs Unreported

No Word From Couple In
30 Hours, All Airports
Watching

LONDON, April 7 (AP)—Officials of Lympe airbase, where Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh usually clear the customs when they are flying to England from the continent, said today they had no word from the American couple, unreported for 30 hours.
Aviation authorities in a dozen countries kept on the watch at emergency landing fields for the Lindberghs, last heard from when they took off from Zagreb, Yugoslavia, yesterday at 11:32 a. m. (CST). The fliers were sitting up a two-month air jaunt which took them to India.
Weather conditions at Lympe and over the English Channel were bad, with rain and fog limiting visibility to 50 yards. Airport officials said they did not believe Lindbergh would attempt to fly to England in such weather, especially as the plane had no radio.
When they left Zagreb, the Lindberghs were reported to have had only enough gasoline aboard their low wing touring monoplane to carry them to Austria, about two hours distant from Zagreb by air.
Although all points along their possible routes were on the alert, no official search was immediately instituted.

Legislature Considers Law On Sit-Downs

ADVISORY BOARD ON THE legislature today faced further consideration of moves to outlaw possible sit-down strikes after the senate had passed to the house a bill carrying heavy penalties.
A house committee set for additional hearing tonight a somewhat similar bill when representatives of the Texas Federation of Labor, making clear their organization opposed sit-down methods, asked to be heard on grounds the proposal might prohibit peaceful negotiations and picketing.
The legislative action followed Governor James V. Allred's recent statement he would oppose sit-down methods with every means at his command.
Penalties of from 30 days in jail to five years in the penitentiary were provided in the senate bill, the felony punishment being aimed at "agitators."

8,500 HEAD OF SHEEP MOVED FROM HERE IN ONE SHIPMENT

Largest single shipment of sheep to be made from here in many years, if not since the T&P built its lines into Big Spring, left here Tuesday evening with around 8,500 head aboard a special train bound for Michigan feeders.
W. H. Swope and Thomas J. Donahue, who have spent the last two weeks here buying approximately 15,000 head of feeder lambs. They averaged about 6 1/2 cents on the lb.
In the shipment Tuesday were included 3,805 sheep from the Hardy Morgan ranch and 1,500 from the Shorby Bigby place. They were trucked to the stock pens here for loading.
Swope and Donahue also contracted for 500 steers and heifers while on their sheep buying swing around the area.
They said they would return here around May 1 to buy enough clipper for a special train. They have arranged to buy from flocks of Bill Neal, John Poe and others.
Recently the two bought 7,000 head of sheep in the Sweetwater territory.
E. A. Hamill picked the lambs from the Bigby place near Stanton.

HIGH COURT AFFIRMS RE-TRIAL ORDER IN YATES OIL LAND CASE

AUSTIN, April 7 (AP)—The supreme court declined today to change its previous action sending back for re-trial a case involving title to valuable land in the Yates oil field.
It overruled a motion for rehearing in the case of the Permian Oil company against W. A. Smith and others. The opinion was written by special justice Elwood Fouss of Houston, sitting for associate justice Richard Critz who disqualified himself.
Chief Justice C. M. Cureton later will file an opinion concurring in part and disagreeing in part with the majority of the court.
The litigation goes back to a suit between John Monroe and T. F. Hickox in 1910, long before oil was discovered in the area, over the boundary between sections 108 and 104 of the Texas Central railway survey and sections 24 and 25.
R. G. Hughes, attorney of San ### Angelo, said the trial court in that case held Monroe submitted insufficient evidence to enable it to fix the boundary and gave a judgment that Monroe should "take nothing." The judgment was entered on the minutes of the court, but was not filed in records of the county clerk. Later the Permian Oil company purchased sections 108 and 104 under a claim of title from Hickox and instituted suit against a large number of persons to establish the claim, seeking to introduce in evidence the "take nothing" judgment. The Texas county district clerk refused to admit the judgment, and the action was affirmed by a court of civil appeals. The supreme court reversed both civil appeals and said courts, ruling the judgment should have been admitted. This holding the supreme court today refused to alter.

William M. Strong, who happens to be an advertising man with offices in the New York building which houses this department, has written the most helpful travel book of the spring—so far. He calls it "How To Travel Without Being Rich," and he means what the title says. He's not the kind of poor traveler who takes a single room at the Paris Ritz to save money.

He tells you where you can go to get the most out of a week, two weeks, a month, or what have you. He gives fares and elapsed times for trips abroad; he knows about the cheap freight-boat jaunts, and will give you hints on securing accommodations, ashore or afloat, more cheaply than you had expected. But the best part of the book is his enthusiasm for travel, and the way in which it expounds the newer philosophy—do your living before your arteries harden.

Should you go to England, take Olive Rouse's "The Old Towns of England," and set forth afoot to see them. This is a beautifully made and beautifully thought out book, one of a series of travel books which is worth owning even if you never see the places pictured.

Should you go to France by all means take Helen Huss Parshurst's "Cathedral: A Gothic Pilgrimage." This is one of the best cathedral books in English since Adams' immortal "Mont Saint-Michel and Chartres," and even though it is a study of the Gothic impulse rather than a travel book, it is indispensable to an intelligent wanderer abroad.

If South America is your destination, R. W. Thompson's "Land of Tomorrow" is your meat. This is a completely illustrated book on South America east of the Andes and south of the Amazon—chiefly. It contains a good deal about the Gran Chaco, and it is written far and away better than most books of its sort.

Lastly, if you stay in this country and visit Maryland, be sure to read William O. Stevens' "Annapolis." Mr. Stevens is by way of being my favorite travel writer, chiefly because he has a sense of humor and can see something besides his nose and smiling face.

Design For Rug

By RUTH ORR
Pattern No. 451

There's nothing that will add so much to the coziness of your home as a hand-made rug. This design is especially good in that the sections are all made in the same way, and can be joined in any number of ways. As we've shown the piece here, it makes a nice rug for a room size. Here, we've used navy yarn, but any sort of rug put in strips, will serve equally well.

The pattern envelope contains complete easy-to-understand directions, with diagrams to aid you, also what crochet hook and what material and how much you will need.

To obtain this pattern, send for No. 451 and enclose 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) to cover service and postage. Address Big Spring Herald, Needlework Department, P. O. Box 200 Station D, New York, N. Y.

If South America is your destination, R. W. Thompson's "Land of Tomorrow" is your meat. This is a completely illustrated book on South America east of the Andes and south of the Amazon—chiefly. It contains a good deal about the Gran Chaco, and it is written far and away better than most books of its sort.

Design For Rug

By RUTH ORR
Pattern No. 451

There's nothing that will add so much to the coziness of your home as a hand-made rug. This design is especially good in that the sections are all made in the same way, and can be joined in any number of ways. As we've shown the piece here, it makes a nice rug for a room size. Here, we've used navy yarn, but any sort of rug put in strips, will serve equally well.

The pattern envelope contains complete easy-to-understand directions, with diagrams to aid you, also what crochet hook and what material and how much you will need.

To obtain this pattern, send for No. 451 and enclose 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) to cover service and postage. Address Big Spring Herald, Needlework Department, P. O. Box 200 Station D, New York, N. Y.

William M. Strong, who happens to be an advertising man with offices in the New York building which houses this department, has written the most helpful travel book of the spring—so far. He calls it "How To Travel Without Being Rich," and he means what the title says. He's not the kind of poor traveler who takes a single room at the Paris Ritz to save money.

He tells you where you can go to get the most out of a week, two weeks, a month, or what have you. He gives fares and elapsed times for trips abroad; he knows about the cheap freight-boat jaunts, and will give you hints on securing accommodations, ashore or afloat, more cheaply than you had expected. But the best part of the book is his enthusiasm for travel, and the way in which it expounds the newer philosophy—do your living before your arteries harden.

Should you go to England, take Olive Rouse's "The Old Towns of England," and set forth afoot to see them. This is a beautifully made and beautifully thought out book, one of a series of travel books which is worth owning even if you never see the places pictured.

Should you go to France by all means take Helen Huss Parshurst's "Cathedral: A Gothic Pilgrimage." This is one of the best cathedral books in English since Adams' immortal "Mont Saint-Michel and Chartres," and even though it is a study of the Gothic impulse rather than a travel book, it is indispensable to an intelligent wanderer abroad.

Union Drive Big Topic In Oil Industry

Organizers May Have Difficult Time; Conditions Are Good

AUSTIN, April 7 (AP)—Launching of the program further to unionize the oil industry stood out today as one of the most important developments recently in the production and handling of petroleum.

In Texas oil men and state officials watched closely the announced plans of organizers and viewed as of the greatest significance the declaration of Governor James V. Allred that "sit-down" methods would not be tolerated.

The fact that rumors of the coming "drive" toward unionization had been heard a long time before the arrival in Houston of Harvey C. Fremming, oil union chief and Committee for Industrial Organization leader, did not detract from the interest.

Fremming informed the governor he was welcome to investigate his organizers and if a "single subversive member" was found he would be dismissed at once. He also said he had not come to Texas to organize a sit-down strike in the oil industry.

The governor said he had received the names of eight organizers and reiterated that if they were not planning sit-down methods "they have nothing to fear."

Oil sources at the state capital said they had heard of no agitation or general dissatisfaction among field workers and expressed the opinion that prosperous conditions for many months would make it difficult for agitators to gain a foothold.

"Oil field workers generally are well paid," said Lon Smith, member of the railroad commission, which administers the state conservation laws. "This was true even during the depression period when workers in other industries were suffering."

One view was that the organization probably would make the greatest headway among persons on monthly salaries and in areas where they were concentrated, for example, among the refineries. It was noted that in the great East Texas field workers long have had a union.

Girl Guarded From Slaying Suspect

NEW YORK, April 7 (AP)—The object of a squint-eyed Robert Irwin's affections fled from her Long Island home to escape the chance of a sudden and devastating rape today such as Irwin is accused of in the triple murders of Beekman Hill.

As New York's 19,000 policemen searched faces on broad avenues and narrow cross streets in an effort to apprehend the suspect in the killing of Veronica Gedeon, artist's model, and two other persons, Mrs. Ethel Kudner left her Astoria residence for an unnamed destination.

Several detectives were detailed to guard her and others were assigned to her home.

House Divided On Anti-Lynch Bill

WASHINGTON, April 7 (AP)—The house divided into three factions today over anti-lynching legislation, long a source of argument in congress.

Leaders called up for debate during the afternoon a measure by Rep. Mitchell (D-III), only negro member, levying heavy fines and prison sentences on state peace officers who permit a prisoner to be taken from custody and lynched.

The house republican membership, however, decided last night to support a proposal by Rep. Gavagan (D-NY) to authorize prosecution of members of mobs as well as peace officers involved.

It will be considered next Monday. Gavagan said Mitchell's bill had no teeth.

Both measures would make county liable for damages in event of a lynching, payable to the victim's family.

The third group of members, chiefly southern, opposes federal

Sit-Down Methods Are Assailed By AFOL Chieftain

LAKE CHARLES, La., April 7 (AP)—Delegates to the Louisiana state federation of labor convention heard W. R. Williams, representative of the American Federation of Labor, condemn "sit-down" strikes as "illegal and inimical to the cause of labor."

"People," he said, "are not going to tolerate sit-down strikes. If they are continued, they will lead to legislation."

Williams announced the intention of the American Federation of Labor to organize the oil workers of Louisiana.

There was no indication today that the convention would extend the floor to A. D. Coven, chairman of the Beaumont Typographical Union, to answer a verbal attack by Holt Ross, southern representative of the A. F. of L. on Charles P. Howard, Committee for Industrial Organization, in charge of organizing petroleum workers.

When refused permission to speak yesterday Coven issued a statement defying "any man to prove Howard ever said he is opposed to industrial unionism."

Ross had made such a charge in his address and he expressed today his willingness to repeat it on the convention floor.

Anti-lynching laws as an unnecessary evasion of states rights.

Chairman Summers (D-Tex) of the judiciary committee said such measures "would attempt to extend a federal power and federal control over the states denied by the constitution." He said lynching had all but been suppressed.

Bears Out To Stop Texas Win Streak

BY TOM BEASLEY

Coach Morley Jennings' Baylor Bears will attempt to prove that they are the class of the Southwest baseball league when they take on the University of Texas Longhorns, present leaders in the race, in a crucial two-game series in Austin this week-end.

The Bruins were handicapped measurably by rains and cold weather in the opening two weeks of scheduled Southwest competition, but with clear skies and warm sunshine favoring them in this week's practices, the Grizzlies expect to be in fine shape for the important Texas series, according to Weldon Weekly, publicity man for the Bruins.

Foiled as favorites for the Southwest this season, the Bears were a great disappointment to Baylor followers last week as they dropped a game to the Owls and barely won from the Aggies.

At present the Steers are resting on their usual top post with three wins and no defeats while the Bruins have only an even break after last week's road trip. Scribes are predicting that the Bruins and Steers will split the series with a game apiece, but the maddened Grizzlies are planning to definitely put a cramp in Texas' winning style by capturing both games.

On the sports page today is a picture of the Klondike high school girls basketball team—the Goal-diggers. The Goal-diggers went through thirty-six basketball games undefeated, took first places in four divisions of tennis in the county meet at Lamesa, and have been Dawson county basketball champions for three consecutive years. The Owens' and Lee's Store football teams are scheduled to play a practice game tonight on the Mundy diamond.

West Texas League developments from Midland—Wally Gray is back in town—but where do we go from there? League affairs continue to be in a muddled state because of Odessa's failure to be ready as per schedule. And that can be blamed upon one John Holley. Ho, time after time, reiterated a declaration that Odessa was "ready" to go when league officials said so. Less than six hours before he notified President Price that he was dropping out of the picture in the Rector capital he declared everything was "all set." Despite some of the Odessa business men failing to "come through" as they had promised Holley, he alone can be blamed for the condition of the league at present.

Query arrived here prepared to start immediate construction of the park and spring training for the youngsters that will make up the Midland team this year but was forced to call a temporary halt to all plans because of the Odessa situation. He says he positively will not operate a club if the league is to be started with only four members.

In that decision we concur. With six clubs in the league opposing teams are going to "repeat" at the local field often enough. With only four clubs in the league each club would be forced to appear at least once every three days. And that would be altogether too often. Query says that in his 22 years in baseball he has never seen conditions as perfect for any manager as he had arranged them here. There is only one drawback to the entire set-up. That is lack of housing room for the players. He is hoping to erect a clubhouse at the field and do away with that problem. Both Wink and Monahan are building a two-story clubhouse in which they will take care of their own players and those of opposing clubs. Merchants of the towns feel they will more than make back the money spent on the projects through the money that will be spent by the opposing players while staying in the towns.

And that is logical, too. The boys are not going to be drawing heavy salaries but will spend what they are making. And if they are out of town half the time it means they are going to spend a lot of money out of town. But that is a compensatory measure and will only be an exchange of money.

It just doesn't make sense when a town refuses to put up $2,000—even twice that amount—to procure a franchise in the town. Players' salaries alone each month will be $1,000 and most of it is going to be spent.

TRADITION AGAINST FELLER'S 20-VICTORY QUEST

BOB MAY BE SECOND W. JOHNSON

NEW YORK, April 7 (AP)—Youth will be served, but not apparently on the pitching mound.

Young Bob Feller, shooting at the tender age of 19 for 20 victories in the American League this season, defies a baseball superstition as old Grover Alexander, a superstition upheld eloquently by statistics which show that hurlers achieve stardom and 20 victories late in their baseball careers.

A DiMaggio may be smothered in headlines his first year up, a Frisch may step from the campus to the Giants' infield, but hurlers are usually 25 or older before they crack the 20-game mark.

If Feller cracks this 20-year old jinx, he's the real McCoy as a boy wonder successor to a great tradition. First of the great wonder children was Christy Mathewson, "Big Six" was a real one and proved it by winning 21 games for the Giants in 1901, when, fresh from Bucknell and a brief apprenticeship in the minors, he was 21.

Lefty Gomez and Wes Ferrell, two of the modern crop who ripened early, each won 21 games and Schoolboy Rowe was 21 when he joined the Tigers. And now along comes that "Feller feller," schoolboy sensation. This year he will be breezing his high hand on against seven American League clubs and against a baseball maxim as well supported as Lou Gehrig.

OILERS SCORE 12-8 VICTORY

Matt Harrington's Couden Oilers bunched their hits in the fourth and fifth innings here Tuesday night to gain a 12-8 victory over a composite team made up of Settles, Lee's Store and Carter players.

The losers had a great chance to tie the game in the final frame when Hart got up with the bases loaded, but the Carter first sacker wilted.

Roland Swatzy pitched for Couden while Able Burrus and Howard Simpson divided mound duties for the losers.

GELBERT TO BE REDS' REGULAR SECOND SACKER

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla., April 7 (AP)—Charley Gelbert, whose playing days with the St. Louis Cardinals were cut short by a hunting accident in 1932, was named today as the Cincinnati Reds' regular second-sacker for the 1937 season.

Gelbert will replace little Alex Kumpouris, a product of the West Coast minors.

The boys are not going to be drawing heavy salaries but will spend what they are making. And if they are out of town half the time it means they are going to spend a lot of money out of town. BRADDOCK CONFINES EARLY TRAINING TO WOOD CHOPPING ;NO BOXING FOR TWO WEEKS

Heavy Snowfall Prevents Wisconsin Road Work

STONE LAKE, Wis., April 7 (AP)—Chopping down trees in the wilds surrounding his camp and sawing them into firewood length to heat his cabin will be the extent of James J. Braddock's training activities for possibly two weeks.

The world's heavyweight champion said today he will indulge in no boxing for at least that time. Road work is out of the question because of the muddy, soggy condition of the highways, almost impassable even to motor cars due to melting snow.

Any hopes of playing golf that Braddock entertained vanished after a storm left half a foot of snow on the course at Harvard, 24 miles away. As a result he will devote his time to chopping and sawing. Robb Lippman, Braddock's trainer, is a strong believer in a boxer wielding an axe to toughen his hands.

Braddock expects to be in training near Chicago by May for the defense of his title against Joe Louis, negro challenger.

Arm Injury Paul Waner Sends DiMag To The Bench

NEW YORK, April 7 (AP)—Was it a coincidence that Paul Waner's announcement that he is ready to talk business with the Pirates came the day after young John Dillinger, his successor in right field, got five for five? TEN-MAN TEAM TO BE SELECTED

NEW YORK, April 7 (AP)—President George Jacobus of the Professional Golfers' Association today named six members of its United States Ryder cup team which will meet the British at Southport, England, June 29 and 30.

Other eligible and hopeful candidates began tanning their strokes for the remaining links tests which will decide the winners of the four vacant places. Definitely allotted posts on the American squad, in addition to non-playing Captain Walter Hagen, are Gene Sarazen, veteran of all five previous cup clashes; Deany Shute, P. G. A. champion; Tony Manero, U. S. Open champion; Horton Smith, and Johnny Hovland.

The team is coached by W. C. McKenzie. A new method will be employed in picking the four remaining team members. A group of at least 25 candidates will be named after the sectional qualifying rounds for the P. G. A. championship. The four players of this group who compile the lowest averages during the 36-hole qualifying round for the P. G. A. at Pittsburgh, May 24 to 25, and the 72-holes of the national open at Oakland Hills, Birmingham, Mich., June 10 to 12, then will fill the vacancies.

Of the six named today, only Smith and Picard have won neither an American nor a British national title. Both, however, had been consistent money-winners. The biggest money winner, Harry Cooper, is ineligible for the team, since he is not a native American. Manero will be a Ryder cup freshman. Picard and Ebovita made their bows at Ridgewood two years ago, winning in foursomes and singles. Shute played in 1931 and 1933, Smith in 1929, 1932 and 1933.

Most prominent in the winter's top flight campaigns in the race for the four openings are Sam Snead, fourth in the cash winning list; Ralph Guldahl, winner of the Radix cup for low average score of 71.83 during 1936; Ed Dudley, Paul Bunyan, Byron Nelson, recent winner of the Augusta national, and Jimmy Hines.

The Americans will be shooting for their first victory on British soil. They lead in the series, 3-2, but precedent favors the home side. Pros Train Sights On Tournament of Gardens CHARLESTON, S. C., April 7 (AP)—More than 50 leading golf professionals, a bit travel-weary but seeking to add a last bit of cash to the old bank roll, trained their sights today on the $1,250 prize in the Tournament of Gardens.

The field of 55 includes most of the leading professionals who claim the annual Augusta national tournament. Missing, however, were Byron Nelson, of Reading, Pa., who won at Augusta, in a Garrick finish; Tony Manero of Salem, Mass., the national open champion, and Gerry Sinte of Boston, national P. G. A. titleholder.

Although a third choice in clubhouse betting odds, Gene Sarazen of Brookfield Center, Conn., looked like a logical choice. The bronzed dairyman breezed over the bunkers and greens in a great 67, four under par, to pair with Joseph Cannon of Charleston and win the pro-amateur prize yesterday with a total haul of $4,000. Lanky Ralph Guldahl of St. Louis, listed as the favorite in an 8 to 1 quotation.

Hawaiians Headline A.A.U. Opening Bout ST LOUIS, April 7 (AP)—A flashy head of fighting little brown men from the Hawaiian Islands proved they didn't travel the long distance only for the ride as they headlined that night's opening card of the National A. U. junior boxing championships here. Five of the six islanders came through with victories—two of them by knockouts—to lead the visiting parade into the semi-finals and finals scheduled for tonight. Championships will be determined in eight weight divisions tonight. St. Louis placed eight men in the semi-finals, while the Hawaiians were close pressed for honors by the Chilocco Indian School, which advanced four men into the scramble for titles. New Orleans and Boston were represented by the three survivors each in today's matings. Little Rock, Ark., and Bloomington, Ill. have two men each remaining in line, and other semifinalists hail from Memphis, Tenn., Clarksville, Ark., Evansville, Ind., Houston, Tex., and Stillwater, Okla. Semi-final round pairings include: Welterweights—Tony Tenet, Boston, vs. Al Beauharnais, St. Louis; Marvin Liddell, Chilocco, Okla., vs. Arthur Dorrell, Houston, Tex.

McKNIGHT'S SPORT SPARKS

By FELIX R. MCKNIGHT

DALLAS, April 7 (AP)—Veteran Trainer Bob McCarvey's clipped comment on the Milky Way Farms Case Ace, publicized "good thing" in the Kentucky Derby winter book: "He's dangerous. . . . Weather conditions mean nothing to that horse. . . . He can go on sloppy or dry tracks, pavement or shrubbery. . . . If he can last a mile and a quarter, he's dangerous."

Squat Reuben Albaugh, one of amateur golf's longest hitters, tapped in a two foot putt for duce on the Dallas country club's 335-yard, par four eighth hole. . . . The ball was directly in line with the hole. . . . The same course received further rough treatment when Harry Todd, rangy former state champion, waited around in 65, seven shots under par.

Note to sports editors: Get ready to struggle over the name of John Howard Pfardrecher in your Texas league box scores. . . . He's a knuckle ball expert with the Galveston Bucs. . . . Early nomination for dark horse of the women's state golf tourney: Miss Jo Hanson, 17, Parkersburg, W. Va. Her first trip around the Spring Lake club course at Waco netted a 78. The St. Louis Brownies, very shy on base hits in training games, could take a lesson from their San Antonio farm club. The Brownsies have murdered the ball in every appearance. . . . These brass state schooling grid champions, Amarillo's Golden Grizzlies now find it hard to book games. . . . On the afternoon of September 25, October 3 and October 16, they have nothing booked so far more exciting than thumb twiddling bee. . . . Twenty schools approached yesterday afternoon with the Sandies on any of the three dates have given negative answers. . . . REAPING REWARD, CASE ACE ARE REAL DERBY THREATS

Mars Stable To Bid With Five-Ply Entry

(This is another of a series dealing with the outstanding Kentucky Derby eligibles.)

By ORLO ROBERTSON

NEW YORK, April 7 (AP)—Mrs. Ethel W. Mars, America's first lady of the turf, is bidding for the 63rd running of the Kentucky Derby at Churchill Downs May 8 with a five-ply entry that boasts quality as well as numerical strength. Heading the delegation from the Chicago sportsman's Milky Way Farm at Pulaski, Tenn., are Reaping Reward and Case Ace. The others include Murph, Jawbreaker, and Military.

Reaping Reward is considered the stable's real threat, however. He whipped Pomonby by a nose in the mile and 70 yards of the New England Futurity and then came back a week later to take the mile of the Kentucky Jockey club stakes at the Downs. His earnings were $56,965. "Reaping Reward is well advanced after training since January 8," writes trainer Bob McCarvey from Arlington Downs where the five eligibles are receiving their final preparation before moving on to the Downs. "His only drawback is that he isn't such a good mudder. "As for Case Ace, there's a horse that will be dangerous if he will go the mile and a quarter. He can run on wet or dry ground, pavement or anywhere else."

McCarvey is not so sure but that Reaping Reward will develop into a dangerous contender. He ran a good race in the Santa Anita Derby and since then has been training soundly.

Yankees Send Three Players To Oakland

Pitcher, Outfielder And Catcher Sent To Pacific Coast League Team

SAN FRANCISCO, April 7 (AP)—Three badly needed players are on their way from the New York Yankees baseball camp today to help pull the Oakland A's out of the Pacific Coast league cellar. They are pitcher Jimmy Tobin, winner of 16 games for the Oakland last season; outfielder "Chief" Ernie Koy, who batted .313 for Newark in 1936, including 21 home runs; and catcher Bill Baker, who batted .297 with Newark.

Courtney, Brown Win Volley Ball Contest

STANTON, April 7—Courtney high school and Brown rural school were winners in the county interscholastic league volleyball contest held at the Courtney gymnasium this week. The Courtney team won first place in the high school and ward school division, with Courtney ward school as runnerup. Third place will be determined in a game to be played between the high school and ward school teams of Stanton.

Brown defeated Lencora for first place in the rural school division, with Lencora and South Plains trailing the Lencora team with a game yet to be played to determine third place.

Brown defeated Courtney for the county championship and will represent Martin county in the district meet. Brown defeated Courtney for the county championship and will represent Martin county in the district meet.

TACOMA, Wash., April 7 (AP)—A final answer to the flitic question, "Who has the middleweight championship?" appeared possible here today as preliminary sparring began for a main event between Freddie Steele, Tacoma's pride, and Marcel Thil, venerable French boxer.

Dave Miller, manager of the Tacoma, who buses his claim to the title on a long string of victories, maintaining in three wins over Eddie (Eab) Eichen, announced he was willing to sign Steele for a fight with Thil in France. ### Farmers Slow To Join In Control Program This Year And Excess Production Is Feared By Many

If the federal benefit payments constitute golden eggs, cotton producers are preparing to gorge themselves on them.

From the county agent and county committeemen to the farmer who plans to do it, all are agreed that unless things take a different turn within the next few days, this county, along with the rest of the Farmland, is headed for another year of over-production.

Some of the most enthusiastic supporters of the current federal program for aiding agriculture believe that control efforts in effect since 1933 are going for naught and that the cotton belt is pointed toward five cent staple, despite its trend now in the other direction.

Less Reduction
County Agent O. P. Griffin disclosed that cotton producers are slow in submitting work sheets this year and that it is likely that the total number filing the data will be considerably smaller than last year. At the same time, many of those who are not staying out of the program outright are indicating decidedly less reduction in cotton acreage.

Thus far the expansive production fever has been held in check reasonably, but it is highly contagious and those with their fingers on the farm pulse believe that once it breaks over the bounds that there will be no end to how much cotton farmers will plant. Indeed, some are considering planting more of their acreage to the cash crop.

Lower Prices?
Strange part about the entire move is that those who intend to indulge in heavy production believe that it will straightway hammer the price down, possibly back to the five cent level in a season or two. They tell you that they don't want to overplant, but that their neighbor may do it and they would be left holding the "sack." They reason further that perhaps they will get in one season of heavy yields at 15 cents if they never get another.

There is one point of unanimity—cotton producers believe that compulsory control is needed. Almost without exception they say that some sort of law, embodying the principles of the late Bankhead act, is the solution to the problem of how to overcome the human yen to produce more when the price gets high.

And if farmers over the Southland are looking at it the same way, the current federal soil conservation and building program may be in for some rough sledding until it gets a set of new teeth.

Fire Loss In Texas Down 50 Per Cent

Sharp Reduction In State Achieved In Past Two Years

AUSTIN, April 7.—Texas' fire loss has decreased over 50 per cent during the last two years, Marvin E. Hill, fire insurance commissioner, announced today.

"Figures compiled from the reports of over 500 Texas fire marshals show that the high fire loss trend of 1931 and 1932 has taken a steep swing downward in recent years," Hill said. "The total loss for those two depression years was $22,625,837. The total loss for the years 1935 and 1936 was $12,732,597—still too high an amount, but encouraging nevertheless."

According to the fire marshals' reports to the Texas fire insurance department, 79 per cent of the 6,514 fires in 1932 occurred in dwellings, with a loss ratio of 55 per cent. In 1935, 68 per cent of the fires occurred in dwellings, and in 1936 the number decreased to 2,897, or 62.1 per cent of the total number of fires. The loss ratio has decreased 20 per cent in five years.

"While it is true that the total premiums on dwellings for the years 1932, 1935 and 1936 were approximately 47 per cent of the total state premiums, yet the number of dwelling fires and the amount of dwelling losses each of those years is indicative of the fact that too many fires have been and are occurring in the home. The amount of losses on dwelling house fires for the year on which we have the latest figures, 1936, was $1,027,479," Hill said.

Hill stated that only through investigation by the proper authorities and by active fire prevention measures to eliminate careless fires could losses in dwelling houses be further reduced.

British Are Skimpier With Heart Balm

Farthing Held Too High In One Damage Suit; Average Is $560

LONDON, April 7 (UP)—British courts, increasingly concerned with ancient and inadequate divorce laws since the Simpson affair spotlighted marital problems, have turned to the knotty question—what is the cash value of a wife?

The English wife is worth exactly $260.30, if the average of the last three jury verdicts is an indication.

Of three cases, the first wronged husband elected to seek damages for enticement of his wife's affections instead of a divorce, with damages. The wife and the other man were living together openly. The jury awarded damages of one farthing, which is a half-cent in American money. The judge scathingly indicated that this "price" was too high; counsel for the husband remarked that the sum obviously represented the jury's valuation of the woman.

Court Welcomes Damages
The next husband went to the provincial court at Leeds and was luckier, since this jury ruled that the other man stole $1,500 when he absconded with the plaintiff's wife. The judge also was of a different nature. He commented that he was glad damages had been sought and awarded and said it was well that people should understand that damages might be claimed in a divorce action and that an injured spouse has recourse in law.

The third husband, who won a divorce in a ruling by Justice Sir Riggley Philip Watson Swift, was lucky to escape without a judicial reprimand for marrying such a woman. When the question of damages came up, the jury awarded the husband $250. Then the judge had his say, and he said plenty.

Mr. Justice Swift's pleasant plump face, framed in his full-bottomed wig, belied the biting tongue he used. Addressing the husband's counsel, he said:

"Your client has done $49 1/2c better for himself than he ever should have. They don't let me assess damages because they know quite well I should say half a crown (62 cents)."

Refuses Costs Award
The judge refused to award the husband costs, continuing:

"What does a man lose when a miserable woman goes off with someone else—nothing. No, I shall not say anything—perhaps a little."

In the next case, the judge refused to allow damages when the jury inquired how much the wronged husband had to pay a housekeeper.

"You can't assess the value of a wife as though she were a chattel," the judge said. "She is not a piece of furniture. You can't treat her as though she were a piano and ask how much per leg did you pay for her. Don't look at how much he is now paying a housekeeper—ask yourself what he lost when a woman who couldn't live with him went away and left him. He lost nothing."

In another case, when a wife sought judicial separation, with maintenance, but not a divorce, Justice Swift refused his award further. The wife said, "I feel that the marriage is cannot be severed, ever." Said the judge:

"I entirely disapprove. I will be no party to it. She comes here alleging grounds on which she is entitled undoubtedly to a divorce, but she says, 'I don't approve of divorce, so I will come to you and ask you to give me an order out of which I can at once make some money.'"

"If she believes that her husband, who has left her, is living in adultery, what a farce to come to this court and say she doesn't believe in divorce because those whom God has joined together should not be put asunder."

"Long before they came near this court they were divorced. They came here only to have the label of matrimony removed. She wants to have some control still over her husband. And so she shall. She shall remain married to him so far as I am concerned."

Tree-Ripened Fruit Goes To Market In New Ventilated Packing Baskets

WASHINGTON, April 7 (UP)—E. E. Mallison, fruit marketing specialist of the department of agriculture's bureau of plant industry, has developed a basket which he says will bring tree-ripened fruit a step nearer big market centers.

"Tree-ripened peaches—favored by consumers because of superior flavor—are a step nearer the big marketing centers because of modifications in the shipping basket which allows the fruit to be refrigerated more quickly," Mallison said.

The basket is slatted or spaced for ventilation. The crown-shaped lid, also of open construction, allows air to pass through. Instead of a solid cushion between the lid and the fruit, Mallison devised a ring type, ventilated pad with a circular hole in the center. A slotted paper liner completes the ventilated basket.

Mallison said a series of tests he conducted at Fort Valley, Ga., showed that peaches packed in the ventilated baskets with ring pads cooled off three times faster than those packed in the old style, unventilated basket with standard pad.

In the experiment a car of peaches was loaded at an average temperature of 83 degrees Fahrenheit. Three different types of baskets were used—tight, unventilated with standard pad; ventilated with standard pad, and ventilated with the new ring pad.

Thermometers placed in fruit near the center of baskets of each type were checked immediately after the car was cooled for two hours and 10 minutes. Peaches in the tight, unventilated baskets cooled only to 72.4 degrees. In the ventilated baskets with standard pads the temperature dropped to 65.3 degrees and in the new-type ring pad baskets the temperature dropped to 64.5 degrees.

Free-cooling—now widely used in the commercial peach orchards of Georgia, the Carolinas, Virginia and Tennessee—is a comparatively recent process by which fresh fruits and vegetables are chilled immediately after loading into a refrigerator car.

The new type basket favors more rapid and better results from pre-cooling, Mallison said. Prior to pre-cooling it was necessary to harvest peaches while still hard so that they would remain firm in transit. Some of the flavor was sacrificed for appearance. Proper packing, plus cooling, allows peaches to be both attractive and tasty, Mallison said.

LOUISIANA PLANS RELIEF MEASURES

BATON ROUGE, La., April 7 (Sp) Gov. Richard Leche said today he would call a special session of the legislature "within two or three weeks" to obtain more money for relief of needy persons in Louisiana.

The governor said his call principally would be to "make the welfare tax more collectible and easier to pay."

He said lawmakers were working on a plan to substitute a gen-

Baylor Boasts Fine Pitching Prospect

WACO, April 7 (Sp)—"Tommy Fine (Baylor sophomore hurling sensation) is the best pitching prospect that I've seen in twenty years of coaching college players," said Morley Johnson yesterday to an inquiring group of friends. "He's a natural and will make a major league pitcher without a doubt," he confided.

In answer to a question of one of his listeners as to whether Tommy is better than Teddy Lyons was in his college days, the Bruin mentor replied in the affirmative. "Of course, he needs more time to develop his pitcher, but he's got more right now than any pitcher I've ever coached had at the start of his sophomore year," the diamond veteran concluded.

Fine came through in nice shape against the heavy hitting Texas Aggies last Friday to set them down with seven scattered hits as the Bears won 4-3. It was the potentialities of Fine, along with the tested ability of Jody Solteffe, that put the Bears first in pre-season ratings.

WHY FRET ABOUT OIL?

ON TOUR OR IN TRAFFIC BE MERRY WITH YOUR ENGINE OIL-PLATED

Laugh off your old doubts about warm-weather engine oiling... because Oil-Plating is so terribly hard to rub off, scrape off or burn off. Here's one form of lubrication which is not a mere shifting temporary oil-film. For in addition to the normal moving type of film, vastly strengthened, Conoco Germ Processed oil forms a stationary Oil-Plating.

The explanation is that patented Germ Processing makes this oil really plant itself on bearings, shafts, and upright surfaces too, such as cylinder walls. Not even the good old Law of Gravity can make Oil-Plating drain down. It's always up there all the while your car is parked, or showing its heels in the open. None of that much-mentioned starting risk for you... No anxious eye on the heat indicator... Armstrong Deals Out Beating To De Grasse LOS ANGELES, Calif., April 7 (AP) - It took Henry Armstrong ten rounds and every blow in his deadly repertoire of punches to knock out battle-scarred Pete De Grasse here last night.

-Twenty-three seconds more and De Grasse, the "sneak-in" featherweight the wise boys said could not last five rounds, would have gone the limit.

Ten thousand spectators, nearly filling the Olympic auditorium, saw Armstrong deal out a merciless beating. They also saw the little Mohawk Indian from New York stand up and take it, and what was more, fall back with vicious punches. Locally for a moment they carried more fury than effectiveness.

The clinch-shaded negro from Los Angeles knocked De Grasse to the floor in the tenth with a right smash to the head.

Kansas University May Select Henry KANSAS CITY, April 7 (AP) - The name of Gwinn Henry, already well known to the Big Six conference for his football coaching record at Missouri university, bobbed up today in discussions of the much-debated athletic directorship at the University of Kansas.

Henry, whose style of deceptive and speedy play developed championship teams at Missouri, has been recommended for the post by the recently created K. U. athletic board.

It must be noted on by the university's board of regents which failed to approve a previous recommendation of the athletic group.

The Kansas City Star says the regents will consider Henry's name at Topeka, Kan., today.

Search Sea For Bodies Of Three Navy Fliers

SAN DIEGO, Calif., April 7 (AP)—Patrol craft searched the sea today for three missing victims of a mid-air collision which sent four navy fliers plummeting to their death in the flaming wreckage of two bomb-laden airplanes.

A naval board of inquiry was called to meet aboard the aircraft carrier Lexington and investigate yesterday's tragedy while the search went on 40 miles offshore.

Sailors who witnessed the collision told of a roar that "sounded like a clap of thunder," when one plane apparently sidestepped and landed on the plane underneath it.

Naval officials denied there was a mid-air explosion.

For a moment, the two ships were enveloped in black smoke, seamen said. Then they plunged 500 feet flaming into the sea.

The first four weeks of the strike, which now is in its fifth week, Ward's also estimated that the automobiles which normally would have been produced during that period would have been sold for $60,000,000 at the factory.

Added to that strike cost was a vast increase in the welfare load which probably approximated $1,000,000.

Further Negotiations

The settlement provided for further negotiations, to begin tomorrow, on such issues as seniority and methods of dealing with grievances.

Today, Governor Murphy planned to bring together representatives of the U.A.W. and the Hudson Motor Car Co. and the Reo Motor Car Co. in separate conferences to seek a termination of strikes which have closed those plants.

A statement by Homer Martin, international president of the union, indicated that sit-down strikers in the motor car industry were at an end.

Oil Organizing Gets Under way in Texas

HOUSTON, April 7 (AP)—John L. Lewis' busy committee for Industrial Organization surged along today in its subcommittee, proposed drive to unionize under its banners a million American oil industry workers.

The newly-launched campaign will reach an important stage tomorrow when Harvey C. Fremming, president of the international Oil Workers Union, CIO affiliate, says the union's demands before E. Q. Vance, president of Humble Oil and Refining Company. In negotiations with the steel and automobile industries CIO union has demanded recognition as sole bargaining agent for the workers.

Yesterday the CIO drew attention in Beaumont, Houston and Austin.

Fremming and Adolph Germer, Lewis organizer from Detroit, went to Beaumont for a mass meeting where they exhorted Magnolia Refinery employees, 3,600 of whom previously voted against CIO organization. Fremming warned them they faced imposition of a 40-hour week in place of the present 36-hour system. He said 300 to 400 men might

In the southern province of Cordoba, government troops repulsed insurgents in a bloody battle and advanced within three and a half miles of Villaharta.

A short drive from Villaharta would enable the government soldiers to cut the insurgents' main line of communication, the Cordoba-Panarroa road.

Government advisers said 400 insurgents were killed at Mount Chimorra, in Cordoba province, captured by government troops.

At Valencia, the air ministry announced government planes bombed two trains at insurgent-held Algeciras, in southernmost Spain. The government navy ministry also charged that German warships were helping insurgents in the Bay of Biscay.

Club Discusses Plans For District Sessions

Plans for the approaching district 2-T convention to be held here were discussed by the Lions club today. Grover Dunham, general chairman, made special appointments and checked on committee progress.

The club ballot for 1937-38 officers was completed at the session. Voting will be accomplished on April 21. Lion G. C. Schurman announced the appearance of two famous Indian singers, Ho-Te-Me-Wa, mezzo-soprano, and Ish-Ti-Opi, baritone, here Monday at 8 p. m. and urged a good attendance. J. C. FARMERS DRIVE OUT SIT-DOWN STRIKERS

HERSHEY, Pa., April 7 (AP)—Frate farmers and workers opposed to the union went into the plant of the Hershey Chocolate corporation today and drove sit-down strikers from the building.

The farmers, whose market for some 800,000 pounds of milk daily has been paralyzed since the strike started last Friday, took matters in their own hands after they said sit-down strikers rescinded an agreement to come out by 1 p. m., the final deadline set by the milk producers and "loyal workers."

The fight broke out inside the ivy-covered separator plant which was one of the first buildings in the great plant and model town of Hershey, Pa. Hershey laid out in a corn field some 34 years ago.

DON'T SCRATCH, SOOTHE THE IRRITATION

Quick relief from the maddening itch of eczema, psoriasis, poison ivy, and irritation about the rectum or personal parts is obtained by applying an ointment called Resinol. Leave it on over night. It lessens the desire to scratch, and eases the irritation.

The soothing effect of Resinol takes the sting out of the irritated areas and makes you comfortable. The skin heals sooner, too, with the help of Resinol.

The oily base of Resinol Ointment is ideal for penetrating the outer layers of the skin and securing deeper action. Bathing the affected parts first with Resinol Soap hastens the effectiveness of Resinol Ointment. Many nurses suggest and use Resinol—why don't you try it?

Buy Resinol Ointment and Soap in any drug store. For free sample, write to Resinol, Dept. 4, Baltimore, Md.

Don't belittle little things

In brewing, it's the little things that count against you—if you don't watch them. Little grains of broken barley... little metal particles... little drops or rises in temperature... little oversights on timing. Watching and guarding against a multitude of such little things 24 hours a day has produced one brew of such qualities that it has become something more than beer—a social companion.
