MANY NAMED FOR DEATH IN IRISH TERRORIST PLOT

Sixteen Arrested. Many Documents Seized. After London Assassination.

By Associated Press.
LONDON, June 23.—The police investigating the assassination of Field Marshal Wilson have come into possession of documents, says the Central News, disclosing a conspiracy to take the lives of a number of prominent persons and conduct a campaign of outrages.

Fifteen men and five women were arrested in raids throughout London last night in connection with the assassination of Wilson, it was announced in the house of commons this morning by Austen Chamberlain, the government leader. He stated that every step possible was being taken to protect life in Ireland and England. James O'Brien and James Connelley, arrested directly after the shooting, were charged in police court today and arraigned with murder.

May Be American.
Investigation to determine if James O'Brien, one of the assassins of Wilson, is an American started here today. The police received unverified information that O'Brien is a United States citizen.

Other prominent British officials, including Lloyd George, were doomed to death by the Irish republican murder ring, police believe today from disclosures following the murder of Wilson. The London police have captured sensational documents as well as plans for a campaign of outrages throughout England.

Predictions that the government's existence would be jeopardized by the death of Wilson through revulsion of sentiment proved unfounded when commons by 107 to 45 defeated a motion to adjourn.

COME TO TEXAS, FERGUSON SAYS TO CULBERSON

BALLINGER, June 23.—Challenging Senator Charles A. Culberson to come to Texas and show himself to the people, former Governor James E. Ferguson, opposing Culberson for reelection, declared here in a speech yesterday that "as a matter of fact the health of Senator Culberson is not good enough for him to take care of the affairs of his office."

Ferguson insisted that he and Senator Culberson "stake the entire race" on the outcome of such a visit to Texas. If Culberson is in a condition to discharge his duties and mentally able to properly attend upon the sessions of the senate and if he will come to Texas and "demonstrate this to be true," then Ferguson promises to withdraw from the race and support him.

Ferguson's proposition in brief, is that the senator make a speech of twenty minutes before his constituents in Dallas and then make a similar speech in San Antonio, and he will withdraw. "Or, if there is an impediment in his speech that would prevent him doing this and he is in full possession of his mental faculties, then I submit that he go to Dallas and San Antonio and listen to two two-hour speeches by his campaign manager, Barry Miller," Ferguson continued. "If he does this I will gladly withdraw."

"I am sorry to say that the senior senator from Texas is not in a condition to represent the people who for the span of a life time have showered favors upon him, and he has not put his foot on Texas soil for the last ten years. He does not know what is going on in Texas," Ferguson said.

By Associated Press.
WACO, June 23.—Secretary Hale of the state Democratic committee has received a communication from Mrs. Marian Ferguson, wife of James E. Ferguson, requesting that her name not be printed on the primary ticket for United States senator, as she has withdrawn from the race.

Secretary Hale has submitted the matter to Chairman Davis of San Antonio and has been advised that procedure of the local authorities on matters of this kind should be submitted to Attorney General Keeling for a ruling.

LIONS TO OPEN TOURIST CAMP AT EARLY DATE

Water and Gas Lines Laid at Shamrock Park and Grounds Are Prepared.

Shamrock park below the Mirror lake dam is rapidly being turned into a tourist park, under the direction of the Lions' club committee headed by R. L. Hodges. Approximately $250 has been raised over town by the club to put the ground in first class shape for a tourist park. It is located conveniently just off of the junction of Main street and the Pleasant Grove road, which has been recently cut through from Main street.

There are sufficient wells on the ground to supply plenty of pure water, the Lions committee reports. Gas jets are to be installed over the grounds for cooking purposes and a rustic fence is to be built around this portion of the park. The club expects to acquire a fund for the proper maintenance of the park.

Chairman Hodges of the committee stated yesterday that the park would be opened some time next week.

DALLAS, THE IDEA!

DALLAS, June 23.—Possibility of locating the proposed tubercular sanitarium of the Woodmen of the World between Dallas and Fort Worth was discussed today with J. B. Fitzgerald and T. B. Patterson of the national executive committee of the organization. They arrived today to inspect the proposed location.

More than $1,000,000 probably will be spent on the sanitarium. Location of the site proposed to be between Texas and either North or South Carolina, it was said. While in Texas, the committee will visit, Amarillo, San Angelo, Kerrville and Kennedy. Several sites near San Antonio also will be inspected.

The project will come up for final disposition at a meeting of the executive committee at Henderson, N. C., July 3.

PIONEER PROPERTY INVOLVED IN SUIT

EASTLAND, June 23.—Suit for $50,000 has been filed in district court here by E. H. Ramsey against Tom Bryant, both of Callahan county, in which the plaintiff seeks to recover the value of oil and gas rights on fifty acres in the Pioneer field, together with exemplary damages.

It is alleged in the petition that the assignment of the rights was turned over to the plaintiff but that before the assignment could be placed on record that the defendant obtained possession of the assignment. The sum of $40,000 is asked as actual damages and $10,000 as exemplary damages. Several oil wells have been brought in on the lease in question, the petition states.

Besides internal injuries, her right leg was broken and her body and face badly lacerated and bruised.

At the time of the accident the father, accompanied by his little daughter, was bringing the last load of the family's household effects in their removal from Breckenridge to Ranger. The body is being held at the Millford undertaking parlors pending the completion of funeral arrangements.

Ernest V. Albright of Brownwood Accepts Place Immediately After Quitting Congressional Race; Many Men Considered

Ernest V. Albright, former secretary of the Brownwood Chamber of Commerce, who recently withdrew from the congressional race, has accepted the secretaryship of Ranger's new Chamber of Commerce and will enter upon his duties in a few days. In an effort to obtain the services of the best man available for the place, the directors of the Chamber of Commerce started negotiations with Mr. Albright soon after his arrival here over a week ago on his congressional campaign, but the contract was not closed until after Mr. Albright had formally withdrawn from the race yesterday. The secretaryship of the new Chamber of Commerce had been held open by the directors for several weeks in order that they might canvass the field thoroughly for the right kind of a secretary. Not only were a number of applicants investigated by the board of directors but others who made no application, as in the case of Mr. Albright, were approached and the matter discussed with them.

The new secretary comes highly recommended from Brownwood and from all over the Seventeenth congressional district. He is 28 years of age and married. Mr. Albright plans to move his family here within the next few days by which time the directors expect to have decided upon permanent quarters.

ILLINOIS MINERS HEAD BLAMES LEWIS FOR HERRIN MASSACRE

Situation Quiet, Sheriff Reports; Governor Orders Probe; Troops Ready.

By United Press.
CINCINNATI, Ohio, June 23.—Frank Farrington, president of the Illinois miners' federation, left here early today for the Williamson county trouble zone. Farrington indirectly blamed John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers' union, for the trouble. He said "apparently" it was a telegram sent by Lewis that started the war. Farrington added, however, that he did not know it was a fact that Lewis sent a telegram to the strikers. Farrington said forty-four were killed, according to his information. Of these, all but two were strike-breakers.

MOB HARRIES FUGITIVES

By Associated Press.
WEST FRANKFORT, Ill., June 23.—One of the strike-breakers who escaped the massacre at Herrin is located here early today when he entered a pool room without hat or coat. A crowd gathered but local police took charge of the man and spirited him out of town for a few miles and told him to beat it. Four Mexicans, also believed to be members of the band of strikebreakers, who were found loitering near the railroad station here this morning, were forced to leave town by a mob of several hundred.

By United Press.

This, it is said, would prevent a large portion of ex-service men from receiving a bonus.

GOMPERS HEADS TRADES UNIONS FOR 41ST TIME

Aged Leader Re-elected Without Opposition, as Are Vice Presidents.

By United Press.
CINCINNATI, June 23.—Samuel Gompers today was re-elected president of the American Federation of Labor without opposition. The effort of a coalition of railroad workers, Miners and others to force Gompers out collapsed early today and there was no other candidate. Gompers' election today was the forty-first time he has been chosen head of the Federation, he having held office during the entire life of the federation with the exception of one year. James Duncan, head of the Granite Workers, likewise was re-elected first vice-president, and in quick succession Joseph G. Valentine of the Molders, Frank Duffy of the Street Car Men, William Green of the Miners, W. G. Mahon of the Street Car Men and T. A. Eckert of the Garment Workers were re-elected vice-presidents.

Subhead Was Not Used to Criticise Atwood Indictment

A subhead, "Wrong Indictment," in Wednesday's account of the argument in the Atwood case has caused some persons to criticize County Attorney Overton, the Times has been informed—they taking the heading to mean that there were defects in the indictment.

Such a view is entirely erroneous. No reflection on or criticism of the indictment was intended or justified. The subhead, it might be explained, is used by newspapers to "break up" a long story and make it easier to follow with the eye. Such subheads are intended as a synopsis of the matter in the paragraph which it precedes. In this case, it was written by the copy editor with an interrogation point, thus: "Wrong Indictment?" in reference to Defense Attorney Burkett's argument that the grand jury should have indicted Atwood for selling liquor instead of possessing liquor for the purpose of sale. The interrogation point was omitted in the composing room, making the point somewhat vague, but no criticism was intended and the reader who paid attention to details of the account will surely find none.

FATAL RANGER AFFRAY LEADS TO INDICTMENT

Companion of Slain Electrician Testifies Rusk Street Baler Sold Two Bottles.

Special to the Times.
EASTLAND, June 23.—Alex Reub, Ranger baker, charged with the sale of intoxicating liquor, was convicted by a jury reporting in Ninety-first district court this morning for the sale of two bottles of choc beer, and his punishment fixed at one year in the penitentiary. The jury was out in the case for almost forty hours, the arguments in the case closing late Wednesday.

Reub was not placed upon the stand by his attorneys, L. H. Flewclen and James Strode of Ranger, and no testimony was introduced by the defense. The state's case rested on the testimony of Ira Moody, who testified that in April he had gone to Reub's bakery on Rusk street in Ranger and obtained two bottles of choc beer which he drank while eating his lunch. The witness placed $1 on a dough mixing board, he said, but did not see Reub take the money.

Testimony was also introduced by the state to the effect that in May the officers had seized a still on Reub's premises, together with three and a half gallons of liquor. Reub, it was testified, was found "beaten up" in the establishment.

County Attorney Overton and Assistant County Attorney Bills conducted the prosecution.

Reub's arrest by the police followed the fatal Sunday brawl in which W. E. Nichols, Ranger electrician, was killed by a blow from a pipe or rock in the hands of Ed Winchell. Winchell was not indicted, it being shown by witnesses that he was attacked by Nichols when he interfered in Nichols' attack on Reub. An investigation by the authorities revealed that Nichols had attacked and beaten Moody and Reub while crazed with liquor, as the result of some disagreement between the men, which was never brought out.

WU TING FANG, NOTED CHINESE, DIES IN CANTON

Dr. Wu Ting Fang

SHANGHAI, June 23.—Wu Ting Fang, former minister to Washington and more recently foreign minister for Sun Yat Sen in the disrupted southern republic government, died at Canton this morning, according to a Reuter dispatch.

Known as the most picturesque figure in diplomatic circles at Washington during his two terms as minister from China to the United States government, Wu Ting Fang possibly did more to cement the cordial relations between that country and this than any other envoy from the Orient, with the possible exception of Li Hung Chang.

Dr. Wu had a sharp tongue, was breezy, frank and unconventional, and his keen epigrams, even at the expense of important personages in official life, were constantly finding their way into print, sometimes to the embarrassment of the administration. He was an ardent baseball enthusiast and bicycle rider when bicycling was so popular. He was a vegetarian and had predicted he would live 100 years.

His sympathies with the United States during the Boxer uprising in 1900 led to his recall. The intimation by the state department that his beheading would be offensive to this country only prevented his summary execution.

He was born in Singapore in 1842.

JUDGE'S CHAUFFEUR STAGES CELEBRATION

Celebrating Juneteenth in a reckless manner, caused the arrest of Fred Davis, a descendant of Ham, on Monday afternoon. He was driving a Buick roadster, and for some reason his control was bad, and he was bumping into cars as he came to them. He hit one too many, when he knocked the gasoline tank from the car driven by Buster Haley, another descendant of the same tribe. Haley reported the accident to the motorcycle cop, T. R. Gray, and his side partner, A. Bouton, who located the dusky citizen and started with him to the city. It seems that Fred's control was still bad, for he ran into Mr. Gray's motorcycle, knocking him from the road where his motorcycle fell, throwing the rider to the ground. Bouton held the driver, however, and when Gray got up, the negro was put in another car and brought to the city where charges of reckless driving were recorded against him.

Mr. Gray was not seriously hurt when he fell, but sustained bruises that will force him off duty for a few days.

Davis would not give any too good account of himself. He claims Fort Worth as his home, and several tales have been told about the car. He and his car will be held for further investigation.

Developments later in the day proved that the car Davis was driving belonged to Judge Starnes of Eastland county. The judge, it seems, sent the coon to Dallas a few days ago on some errand and he took the opportunity to celebrate.—Weatherford Herald.

N. O. HOTELS AGREE TO BUNKS FOR BUDDIES

NEW ORLEANS, June 23.—Doughboys, gobs and marines, who attend the American Legion national convention in New Orleans Oct. 16 to 21, may obtain a "bunk" for $1.50 a day, as a result of an agreement between representatives of seven leading hotels and convention officials.

The hotel men have consented to establish a rate of $1.50 for rooms without baths and $2.50 with baths. This rate is based on a minimum of three persons to the room. If the service man prefers to dwell in solitary grandeur he will pay $4.50 or $7.50, dependent upon whether his room is equipped with a bath.

All reservations for hotel rooms during the five days of the convention will be made through the forty-eight legion state adjutants, who will forward the reservations to the hotels and housing committee of the convention.

If Europe had its way, the conference at The Hague would be a "Dutch treat." Uncle Sam would pay the check.—Birmingham Age-herald.

were in a freight car in the hands of the miners. About sunrise we put up the white flag. The miners poured in and we surrendered our arms.

"Up to this time, not one of us had been injured that I know of, although I understood several of the miners had been shot. The miners spread around quickly and tied us together in groups of three and six. The tied men then were rushed off in different directions. Some of them tried to run, but they were shot down as fast as they moved.

Shot in His Tracks.

"One miner asked who was the machine gun operator. Some one pointed him out and he was shot in his tracks, and his body laid over the machine gun. They tied five men with me, took us out on the road and told us to run. We ran and hundreds of bullets followed us. Some staggered on, but finally three of our group fell, pulling the others with us. We were tied down, several bullet holes being in me already.

"I laid there while men came up and fired more shots into us from three or four feet. Then everything went black. I woke up later and begged for water, but there was none. I remembered being dragged along the road, but I don't know what by. Then they brought us to the hospital."

O'Rourke's story was confirmed by S. P. Williams and Ed Green of Chicago, two of the men tied with him who are still alive. The other three were killed. These were the six found by the Associated Press correspondent and whom he tried to take water, only to be refused permission to help them.

James E. Morris of Junction City, Ill., a young miner in the attacking forces told the correspondent the attack had been spontaneous and that when the men went to the mine they did not really stop to think of the bloodshed that might follow.

He was wounded early in the fight. "I was on my way to Herrin," he said, "when I met a gang of fellows. They said they were on their way to run out those scabs at the strip mine. I joined them and others kept joining us until there must have been five thousand. Most of us were armed and those that were not soon got their guns. When we got to the mine we spread out around it. We had no real leaders, everyone was working for himself. It was just one big mob out to get the men who were running that mine.

It Is Real War.

"I am not sure who fired the first shot, but after it was fired there was real war. The fire kept up for hours, I guess, and several of our men were hit. Late in the evening, I was shot in the arm. The wound was not serious and I walked back to where a group of our men were standing and they sent me here in a car. I wasn't there, but I understand most of the killing was done after the mine surrendered. It was terrible, I know, and I am sure some of those scabs really were innocent men. It's just the old story of a mob getting started."

Other miners confirmed Morris' statements.

O'Rourke is not expected to live. He is one of the nine men in the hospital. Morris, the only miner, and seven of the imported men are expected to die, physicians said.

The hospital was carefully guarded, all doors being locked to prevent any possible attack on the wounded men. Only persons who could prove they had business in the hospital were admitted.

GUARDSMEN MOBILIZED.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 23.—Mobilization of the Illinois National Guardsmen companies at Chicago, Delevan, Mount Vernon, Salem, Danville and Cairo, on orders of Adjutant General Black that they be ready to move on three hours' notice, have been practically completed, General Black announced this morning. At 2:30 o'clock word was received from Herrin that everything was quiet.

SHERIFF NEEDS NO HELP!

MARION, Ill., June 23.—Sheriff Thaxton of Williamson county today reported in answer to Governor Small's request for an official report on the mine war by telegraphing the governor that the situation is well in hand. There is no danger of a further outbreak and no need for troops, he stated.

INJUNCTIONS ASKED TO STOP MINE VIOLENCE

INDIANAPOLIS, June 23.—Mine owners prepared their first legal action toward ending the coal strike today. Suit for injunction to restrain officials and the 650,000 striking miners from interfering through violence with operation of mines will be filed in federal courts today or tomorrow, it is said.

Walter S. Ward and Deputy Sheriff Ruscoe

WALTER S. WARD, indicted for the murder of Clarence Peters, former U. S. sailor, whom he accused of blackmailing him. Congressman Says Anti-Saloon League Bought Prohi Law

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—Renewing his attack on the Anti-Saloon league, Representative Tinkham, Republican, Massachusetts, declared in the house Thursday that the eighteenth or prohibition amendment had been bought and paid for, and that, according to reports "worthy of belief," Wayne B. Wheeler, the league's general counsel, "and the interests he controls" expended from $100,000,000 to $150,000,000 in the series of years preceding its adoption."

Mr. Tinkham asserted that "conclusive and certain proof" of his charge in the house of "extensive violation of the corrupt practices act" by the Anti-Saloon league had been laid before the department of justice and that "twelve weeks have elapsed and the evidence has not been presented to a grand jury."

Married men are now barred from enlisting in the United States marine corps.

HAND BROKEN IN CADDO ROAD CAR COLLISION

Hubert Gilbreath of the Gilbreath Grocery company on Rusk street, was slightly injured yesterday afternoon when the car he was driving ran into another machine on the Caddo road. Several bones in Mr. Gilbreath's left hand were broken and the front end of his car damaged. The accident is said to have resulted when the other car turned across the road without warning.

MOVIE OF SELF CALLED CURE FOR DRUNKENNESS

CHICAGO, June 23.—Movie films today replaced the "cure" for imbibers.irate wives wanting their husbands to view themselves as others do, now call the cameraman to shoot a few reels of the head of the house as he "weaves" home after the cocktail hour.

"We get several calls each week from wives who want their husbands put on the celluloid," said Watterson A. Rothacker, movie producer. "Just before the husband—a bit worse for wear—is 'poured' from a taxi, the wife puts in a rush order for a cameraman.

"A close-up is taken as he unsteadily moves up the cement stairs. Then he is snapped trying to prove to his wife how sober he is.

"He sinks into the softest chair; another close-up.

SOCIETY AND WOMEN'S ACTIVITIES

Conducted by MRS. R. B. CAMPBELL Telephone 418 SATURDAY. Bake sale at Phillips drug store. HONORING MRS. BOSTICK. One of the most charming parties of the summer was given yesterday morning by Mrs. W. J. McFarland at her home on Elm street, in honor of her guest, Mrs. A. C. Bostick. Morning parties in Ranger are a rarity and perhaps it was the very unusualness of the hour that made guests look forward to this party with quite a bit of anticipation. The McFarland home was very cool and attractive in its simple decorations of sweet peas, freshly gathered, and its color scheme of pink and green, which was carried out in general decorations and in the refreshments. Bud vases on each table held sprays of sweet peas, while tiny bouquets of the same delicate flowers were placed on each plate and given as favors. Refreshments took the nature of a morning luncheon and were deviled eggs, potato chips, pickles, pear salad on lettuce leaves, crackers, white cake and iced tea, all served on plates covered with either pink or green crepe paper, with white lace doilies over the colors. To each table there were two green covered plates and two pink covered ones, which further accentuated the general color note. The hostess was assisted in serving by Meses. R. M. Schmuck and John W. Moyer. Bridge was the diversion for the morning. Those partaking of Mrs. McFarland's hospitality and extending welcome to the honor guest were: Meses. J. T. Gullahorn, F. E. Langston, Frank Brahaney, H. A. Logsdon, Ed Maher, John Moyer, J. M. Dodson, M. O. Burt, Carroll Clarke, J. L. Thompson, R. M. Schmuck, W. S. Adamson, A. G. Jury, H. D. Woods, J. T. Lander, Pop Endicott, M. H. Hagaman, Harry Reed, Walter West, M. K. Collie, J. B. Haden, S. W. Bobo, J. A. Martin, Howard Cole Jr., T. B. Scott, Ira Nourse, R. H. Hodges; Meses Mayme Ruth Langston and Maxwell of Hico. THURSDAY BRIDGE CLUB. Mrs. Saunders Gregg was hostess to the Thursday Bridge club Thursday morning at her home on Pine street. Garden flowers were used in profusion for house decorations. An ice course, served with angel food cake, was refreshing and cooling. In bridge, the favors went to Mrs. W. H. Fouke, who made the high score, receiving a picture, and Mrs. A. J. Orth, who made low score and receiving a Pyrex pie plate. Those present were: Meses. Frank Brahaney, D. M. Steele, E. L. McMillen, J. T. Gullahorn, C. O. Terrell, W. H. Fouke, A. J. Orth, Garrett Bohning, Bowden of Fort Worth, M. H. Hagaman, F. A. Brown, Charles Conley.

There Are No Bobbed Haired Angels, Says Parson as He Fires Choir Girls

CHICAGO, June 23.-Bobbed hair and sharply knees have caused a temporary disruption between Paul Rader, evangelist, and Mrs. C. B. Chadwick, who is gathering a choir of 300 girls for Rader's tabernacle at Clark and Halsted streets. Mr. Rader arrived from Indianapolis and discovered twelve girls in the prospective choir who had bobbed hair and whose skirts were too short. "Nobody ever saw a picture or heard a description of a bobbed haired angel," said Rader. "And a handsome knee never kept a keen observer out of heaven," came back Mrs. Chadwick. Rader fired twelve of the girls. "Bobbed hair, knee skirts, rouge-no congregation could think of the salvation of their souls with such a chorus," he said. "I'm not picking on the girls personally, but they can't stand on the platform and flap." But Mrs. Chadwick went right on picking her chorus. "A chorus is made up of voices, not legs," she declared. ENDS LIFE WHILE ASLEEP. CHICAGO, June 23.-Mrs. George Solits of No. 4826 Seely avenue told the coroner today she was convinced that her husband committed suicide while asleep. "He was a confirmed sleep-walker," she said, "and frequently left the house while asleep." He had gone to the rear of the house and hung himself with a clothesline.

REAPING THE WHIRLWIND.

Some months ago, a man named Robertson, arrested west of Ranger and charged with doing a small business in liquor, was sentenced to a year in the penitentiary, evidently for corrupting the community by his illegal operations.

This week at Eastland, Harry Atwood was charged with possessing liquor for sale. Finding of the liquor was proved. Official records and testimony of several citizens gave at least the strongest presumption that the building in which it was found belonged to Atwood, and this was offset only by the statement of another man that he owned the building—a statement not corroborated in any way.

By what line of reasoning they could come to such a conclusion appears incomprehensible. To all appearances the state's case was complete.

This failure to convict under those circumstances is a quasi-victory for the defendant. But it need not be taken as any evidence that bootleggers can work as they please in Ranger. The mind of the citizenship is made up that past conditions shall not prevail. Even if there are enough men in Eastland county to prevent convictions, they cannot prevent men being brought to trial for infringements of the law.

If Ranger folk were not of one mind on that determination before the Atwood trial, they are now. The deliberate harassment, if not insult, to respectable women of the community by summoning them as witnesses for the defense has aroused a storm that will not die down. They were dragged to Eastland just as surely as if they were under arrest, and for two days kept in or near the courthouse—which is no comfortable place to spend such a length of time.

Their testimony was not called for, and no one expected it to be called for, for by no conceivable means could they have any evidence that would be of benefit to the defendant. Such tactics should meet the opposition they deserve. Further than that, there should be some court protection for "innocent witnesses."

BRECKENRIDGE PLANS TO ANNEX EAST SIDE ADDITION

BRECKENRIDGE, June 23.—A movement is under way here to annex what is known as East Side to the city of Breckenridge. It will mean the addition of about 2,500 persons to the city's population and an area of about one mile square. The proposed addition is a desirable part of the community and affords an excellent residence section.

DOG HILL PARAGRAPHS By GEORGE BINGHAM

The attention of the Deputy Constable has been called to a stray razor-back hog, which put in its appearance around the postoffice this morning. The hog is in disguise, as it wears a sheep bell.

Washington Hocks says at times he gets discouraged at the non-progressiveness of some of our citizens, as about all they do is sit around and think of the faults of others. He would not like for Sile to get hold of it, but he says fellows like Sile Kildew are about as valuable in a neighborhood as a jug without a handle.

EASTLAND ONLY COUNTY TO GAIN PIPE LINE RUNS

over the production of the same fields for the previous week. The county's two principal producing sections, the Pioneer field and the Eastland-Ranger district both made substantial gains. These gains, however, were more than offset by losses in some of the other fields of the North Central Texas districts and the average daily production for the whole territory showed a loss of more than 800 barrels as compared with the production of the previous week. Stephens county suffered a rather heavy loss in average daily production, as did the Burk Burnett field. The losses were due to the fact that no completions of any importance have been recorded in those fields since the last report of pipe line runs. Young county showed a very small gain over last week's output, as did the Moran district. Practically all other pools showed slight losses during the week. The average daily output for each of the fields, together with that of the previous week, is given here:

Table with 2 columns: County and Production (This wk. Last wk.). Includes Electra, Burk Burnett, Iowa Park, Holiday, Petroia, Young county, Strawn, Stephens county, Moran, Eastland-Ranger, Coleman county, Brown county, Desdemona-Pioneer, Mitchell county, and Total.

LEGALLY DEAD EIGHT YEARS, VISITS MOTHER

TULARE, Cal., June 23.—Harry Bowman, missing for fifteen years and legally dead for eight years, surprised his mother Mrs. P. D. Fowler, yesterday by walking into her home here.

Bowman left his family home in Kansas fifteen years ago and when no word was received from him after his father died, the court declared the son legally dead to permit the settlement of his father's estate. Bowman learned his mother was here while attending the Shriners' convention in San Francisco. Of the 7,000,000 or more British war and victory medals issued, one-fifth were sent to the Dominions.

PRINTING is the Inseparable Companion of Achievement. Every activity of mankind is accompanied by printing, either in advertising matter or in forms that must be used to forward activity. From the registering of the birth of a child to the final certificate of death, every day printing must play a part, and without it man would not achieve much. It is only from the time that movable types were invented that real advancement in human life was made, and today achievement follows only when printed matter is used—and lots of it. The man who thinks he can get along without printing will soon find out that he will not get very far, and the more he uses printed matter, the greater advancement he will make. BLIND GIRL WHO TELLS COLORS BY SMELL DECEIVES HERSELF AND REALLY SEES, SCIENTIST FINDS CHICAGO, June 23.—An explanation of the apparently unusual senses developed by Miss Willotta Huggins, 17-year-old deaf and blind girl and the inmate of the Wisconsin School for the Blind, is given in the current issue of the American Medical Journal by Prof. Joseph Jastrow of the department of psychology of the University of Wisconsin.

In a recent demonstration before the Chicago Medical Society, Miss Huggins apparently distinguished colors by the sense of smell, told what was spoken to her by means of a wooden rod, one end of which was held and the other end of which was placed against the head of the speaker and "read" newspaper headlines by the sense of touch.

"The reason Miss Huggins is accredited with these unusual senses is through the conviction that her sight and hearing are useless," Professor Jastrow says, and explains that these conducting such experiments usually have "the will to believe" and are credulous at the beginning.

Instead of distinguishing colors by smell, Professor Jastrow says Miss Huggins was able to tell them thru the remnant of sight which she retains. There probably is no intention to deceive on her part, he explains, asserting the case may be one of self-deception. Instead of actually smelling colors, he contends, that Miss Huggins sees them thru the slit of vision she still has. To prove this he asserts that the tests failed in a dark room, and adds that dyes used for wool, silk and cotton are very different for the same colors. He asserts that Miss Huggins is able to see under a blindfold in the same manner.

He states that Miss Huggins was able to distinguish sounds when the wooden rod was not in contact with the head of the speaker, and adds:

"We would take far more careful experiments than have yet been made to see if she has a case of hysterical deception, or whether other factors are involved. This would mean that the girl deceives herself in the belief that the vibrations conveyed to her finger tips make her hear the sounds which really reach her thru auditory channel."

He adds that the tests made are not absolutely conclusive but show where the presumption lies.

SAYS HAM FOXER WISHES KNOCKOUTS ONTO HIM

CHICAGO, June 23.—"While Billy Mu'doon and the New York boxing commission are legislating to see that Jack Dempsey defends his title, I hope and trust that they can do something which will prevent a fighter from using another fighter's name in the ring and getting away with murder," Joe Welling, New York lightweight, said here today.

"From time to time various fighters have taken the name of some boy who has taken a period of many years to establish a reputation and then some bum comes along and gets topped over. That's the case with a boxer in Philadelphia who calls himself Joe Welling when he gets knocked out, and when he wins, which is seldom, he calls himself Philadelphia Joe Welling, to distinguish himself from the original boxer of that name to be sure that he gets full credit.

"When there is a kayo it's sent out Joe Welling, and some of my friends in other parts of the world don't really know the difference. The boxing game is tough enough to survive in without some bum getting knocked over and then you get the rap for it."

Three Views of Ranger's New Passenger Station

 Lower Right—View from Main street crossing.

Constructed at a cost of $65,000, the Texas & Pacific station here is the most modern and perhaps the most commodious on the line, outside of the larger cities. It is fireproof throughout, and contains all facilities for the comfort and convenience of passengers, as well as being arranged so as to provide for efficient operation. A passageway separates the baggage room from the waiting rooms, which are built on either side of the ticket office.

These engravings were made for the Times in preparation for the opening celebration, which was abandoned because of the floods. Since they cost the Times $68, we're running them anyway. Out of town readers who have heard of the new station will be interested in its appearance.

RANGER ROTARIANS ATTEND CISCO PICNIC

Six Ranger Rotarians and their families yesterday attended a Rotary picnic near Cisco, on picnic grounds donated to the club of that city by Frank Harrell. The grounds are located on the Harrell goat ranch, three or four miles from the city and have been improved by the club for the benefit of Rotarians and their families. A regular weekly meeting was held by the Cisco club with Eastland and Ranger Rotarians and the Cisco Lions as guests. More than 200 members and guests were present. A negro jazz band and a number of speakers furnished entertainment for the occasion. Lytton R. Taylor told of the benefits of Rotary to Eastland county. Other Rangerites present were: John Thurman, C. E. May, J. M. Dodson, Marvin Collis, R. B. Waggoner, and their families. General John J. Pershing was recently honored with the Order of the Eagle, the highest decoration in the gift of Poland.

WOMEN SHOULD KEEP OWN NAMES AND BE FREE TO LIVE OWN LIVES AFTER MARRIAGE, LECTURER SAYS

No Reason Why They Should Marry for Lifetime Just Because They Have Maternal Instinct, Psychologist Declares, Attacking Marriage Forms.

NEW YORK, June 23.—The new woman, the free woman, is being championed by Mrs. Harriet Luella McCollum of Brooklyn, recently of Kansas City, Kan. Mrs. McCollum, who lectures on applied psychology, boldly attacks marriage in its present form.

She said Sunday: "There has always been a certain chagrin among women over giving up their names and changing their personalities on marrying, while men did nothing of the sort. After marrying the men wondered what had happened to the girl. Women are now wiser. They will keep their own personalities.

"I believe a woman should keep her own name after her marriage. If I were a conventional woman I would be known as Mrs. Grosow, which was my husband's name. When my sister married a man named Smith she did not take his name.

Children Should Choose Own Name. "Children should take whichever parent's name they prefer; be called after the parent they love best. My children took my name. It is really very simple.

"Why should women marry for a lifetime because they have the maternal instinct? If a woman makes her intention of becoming a mother and not remaining a wife, that is her right. Many women do not care to live as wives for a lifetime.

"Men made all the laws and they made them for their own benefit.

Women Change All Laws. "Women are changing all these laws and rules—but they are not interfering with the essentially sound traits of human nature.

"There is no danger that men will lose anything as woman gains in freedom. A husband gains with his wife. If he loved her as an individual he will not wish to change her to a nonentity. As to bearing children unless they bear his name, he will support them if he loves them and trusts his wife. If she is working in the home of which he enjoys the comfort, it is only his share to work on the outside.

"Man is naturally more aggressive than woman, and women will always receive a certain amount of protection from men because they are es-entially of a more sensitive nature. Daughter to Study in Europe. "My daughter, Marion, who goes by her own name, will go to art school next winter and the following autumn she will leave her husband for a year and go to Europe to study art, and her husband fully approves. This is as the modern marriage should be—freedom on the part of both to live their own lives.

"My grandmother married at 15 and on her wedding day her husband handed her the Bible and ordered her to read the passage where St. Paul says: "Wives, submit yourselves unto your husband." That sentence typifies her life. She hated her husband as long as she lived.

"The constant coarsening of men through their over-emphasis of sex has made them abnormal. Sensitive, refined women, while wishing to be mothers, often do not care to be wives over a long period of years.

"Every girl should have a gainful occupation that she may remain alert and self-reliant and independent whenever she wants to be. And first of all, women must eradicate fear from their minds. To do this they must re-educate their automatic or sub-conscious minds—which means a lifetime of the study of psychology."

Chemists say most of the bootleg whisky sold is poisonous. Their pronouncements don't seem to be hurting the trade.—Birmingham Age-Herald.

WHY NOT TAG 'EM?

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, June 23.—R. A. Waller and R. V. Waller, twins, who are principals of schools here, cannot tell themselves apart, it developed today when a newspaper carried pictures of them, but neither of the men were able to say which picture was his. Children and parents have endeavored all through the school year to distinguish the two, but have failed, and, in fact, a class taught by one of them for two weeks thought its teacher was his brother.
