GERMAN MINISTER SLAIN BY ASSASSINS

GOV. SMALL NOT GUILTY OF GRAFTING

Jury Says Illinois Executive Did Not Misuse State's Funds.

WAUKEGAN, Ill., June 24.—The jury trying Governor Len Small found him not guilty in a verdict returned this afternoon.

Governor Small was charged with the illegal use of state funds by use of a dummy bank, through which it was alleged that several million dollars were made by Small, the lieutenant governor and another man while serving as state treasurer.

It was charged that they conspired to retain the difference between 2 per cent and what the state fund was loaned for.

FEDERAL AID FOR ORIENT R. R. TO BE DENIED

WASHINGTON, June 24.—Senator Sheppard has advised interested parties along the line of the Kansas City, Mexico & Orient who have appealed to him for additional federal aid so that the road may continue operations, that hope of such assistance is vain. Officials of the road had asked that the interstate commerce commission facilitate payments of the amount which is claimed due for losses during federal control. Inquiry at the interstate commerce commission has developed that advances of nearly three-fourths of the amount claimed already have been made and that even if the remainder were allowed it would have to be retained as interest on the loan of $2,500,000 made to this road two years ago.

The road has asked for a larger division in freight rates from the business handled jointly by intersecting and connecting lines, but these proceedings have not yet advanced far enough to warrant a forecast as to the decision.

TOWNS ALONG LINE PLACE DEPENDENCE ON TRUCKS

STAMFORD, June 24.—Despite the warning of the officials of the Orient railroad to merchants in towns served exclusively by that line to stock up before July 1, the date when service on that line is expected to suspend, wholesale houses throughout this section report that there is no increase in business. The attitude of the merchants along this line, it is reported, is that the line will not suspend, and in case it should, there are scores of trucks which can do the hauling. In fact, merchants are said to have pointed out that the truck is now handling most of the business and that the rapid transformation of transport by this means is largely the cause of the present situation of the Orient. Trucks haul freight from wholesale houses to merchants' place of business more economically than it can be handled by hauling to and from stations and paying the high freight rates.

The West Texas Chamber of Commerce today announced that it was without further advice in the situation and it appeared that the road would cease to function unless unexpected aid was given.

POLICE AUTO CRASHES INTO TRUCK; THREE HURT

DALLAS, June 24.—Three policemen, Sergeant Charles Fouraker, Grover Garrison and Walter Roddy, were seriously injured late Friday when an automobile in which they were riding crashed into a gravel truck on the viaduct and rolled down the embankment. Garrison suffered a broken hip, a broken leg and was badly bruised and cut. Fouraker was cut and bruised about the head and face and suffered internal injuries. Roddy suffered cuts and bruises about the head and body.

The policemen were returning from a raid in the western part of the city. It was not believed any of the injuries would prove fatal.

COULDN'T DROP LIGHT SOCKET; L. L. NEAL GETS SEVERE SHOCK

L. L. Neal of the Peoples State bank was badly shaken up this morning at the bank when he came in contact with a high voltage lighting current and was unable to pull his hands away from the socket in one of the lighting fixtures and from the steel grill of his cage. Other employees of the bank rushed to his assistance and he was forcibly pulled away and assisted to the Clinical hospital.

Hospital authorities reported that Mr. Neal would be able to be up within a few hours, none the worse for his experience.

The accident occurred as Mr.

Neal was changing an electric globe from one lighting fixture to another. One hand came in contact with the inside or edge of one socket while his other hand was grounded on the steel grill.

It was explained at the office of the Oil Cities Electric company that the lighting system in the bank cages is what is known as three-wire service; one wire carrying no current, one carrying 110 volts and the third carrying 220 volts. The ordinary lighting current is 110 volts. Mr. Neal is thought to have evidently come in contact with the 220-volt socket.

VISIT TO OLD HOME COSTS LIFE OF WM. ROCKEFELLER, OIL MAGNATE

NORTH TARRYTOWN, N. Y., June 24.—William Rockefeller, brother of John D. Rockefeller, died of pneumonia early today, after an illness of one week. Five physicians were in attendance when Rockefeller—one of the richest men in the world—expired at his home at Rockwood Fall, only a short distance from the estate of his brother at Pocantico Hills.

Many members of the Rockefeller family were at the bedside when the end came. Rockefeller's illness followed a visit to his old home town, Richford, N. Y., where he and John D. went to look over the scenes where they had played as boys. It was the first time he had visited the town since childhood. Both William and John tramped over the paths they used to tread and indulged in some of the old romps they had enjoyed as boys. In this trip 70 miles were covered by automobile and the effort, it is believed, may have weakened William and made him more easily susceptible to the disease which killed him. He returned from the trip on June 15 and two days later was exposed to the rain. Last Monday Dr. Eichs, one of the best New York specialists, was called to his bedside.

Figured in Probe.

William Rockefeller had been in ill health for many years. The state of his health, in fact, and his whereabouts, became a matter of intense public curiosity in 1912-13 when the congressional committee investigating the "money trust" desired him as a witness. He could not be found.

When attorneys representing him finally capitulated by accepting the subpoena for him, it was disclosed that he was in his Southern cottage on Jekyll Island, near Brunswick, Ga., but his physicians emphatically maintained that to ask Mr. Rockefeller to answer questions on a witness stand

BIGAMIST SENT TO PRISON HAPPY TO ESCAPE WIVES

CHICAGO, June 24.—Sixty-nine years old and married to five women without the formality of divorce, Thomas Worland smiled with relief when Judge McKinley sent him to the penitentiary on a sentence of from one to five years.

Worland cheered up perceptibly when sentence was passed, probably because two of his wives advanced to the bar of justice, arm in arm, the stern look in their faces boding no good for him.

Worland was sent to the penitentiary in 1917 on a charge of bigamy. He admits he "has a way" with women and they cannot resist him, some even going to the extreme of kidnapping him.

For thirty-seven years he lived with only one wife in Iowa. Then the bigamous fever attacked him. In 1912 he married a girl in Red Wing, Minn. Shortly after that he married a girl named "Lena" in South Beloit and this sent him to the penitentiary.

After getting out he married Olive Holth and Tillie Carlington, both of Chicago, in rapid succession. It was his fourth wife who tripped him up this time.

SIXTEEN MEN LOST IN WRECK OF SCHOONER

HALIFAX, N. S., June 24.—Sixteen men are missing today in the wreck of the schooner Puritan. The vessel, from Gloucester, went ashore on Sable island last night. She was entered in the international fishing schooner race.

According to word received from Superintendent Henry of Sable island, all of the crew were taken off in life boats. The captain and seven men landed safely on the island but sixteen men in two boats are unaccounted for.

BORDER TRAIN SERVICE IN FLOOD DISTRICT RESTORED

LAREDO, Texas, June 24.—Train service all along the border has been restored following the recent floods, with the exception of the road between Monterey and Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, according to wire reports from border points received here today.

CUNNINGHAM RAPS BLANTON'S RECORD IN BRECK SPEECH

BRECKENRIDGE, June 24.—W. J. Cunningham of Abilene, spoke here Thursday night to a large audience at the courthouse. He attacked the record of Congressman Blanton, charging him with inconsistency. He cited Blanton's vote for the Esch-Cummings bill. He charged that Blanton's last race was financed by big business and that not one dollar was given by his constituency.

He said that while Blanton was denouncing others for using the government printing office and mails to further their ends politically, Blanton in the last five years had printed a total of 1,104,500 pamphlets and speeches. He cited the Dallas congressman who had in the same time issued 8,000 printed.

Cunningham said he stood for amending the Volstead act and making it a penitentiary offense for a man to possess a still unlawfully. He favored the soldiers' bonus bill and thought the corporations making the excess war profits of thirty-eight billion dollars should pay the bonus. He was against cancellation of interest or principal of the English war debt. He said he stood for states' rights and opposed the Dyer anti-lynching bill.

LABOR UNIONS OPPOSE RUSSIAN RECOGNITION

CINCINNATI, June 24.—For the third consecutive year the American Federation of Labor was placed on record by action of the convention today against recognition of soviet Russia.

Frank Morrison, delegate of the Typographical union, was yesterday re-elected secretary for the twenty-fifth time, without opposition. The convention last night selected Portland, Ore., as the place for the next convention, over Houston, Texas. Atlanta City, which had invited the convention, withdrew.

By an overwhelming vote the convention today voted to make provision for the striking textile and quarry workers.

DELPHOS, Ohio, June 24.—George Frederick is near death here as result of hundreds of stings suffered when honey bees swarmed on him and his team of horses. Both horses are dead. Forty-one stingers were removed from Frederick's face.

HURRY CALL TO CONGRESSMEN SENT BY G. O. P.

All Republicans East of Kansas City Ordered Back to Stop Filibuster.

WASHINGTON, June 24.—Republican members of the house from the territory east of Kansas City, now absent from Washington, have been ordered to return at once to Washington by Representative Mondell, Republican, owing to a one-man filibuster by Representative Voigt, Republican, of Wisconsin.

The prompt return of the representatives will prevent the issuing of warrants Monday for the absentees, Representative Mondell said. The presence of the representatives, he explained, is essential to the carrying out of the Republican legislative program.

Representative Voigt has shown no disposition to end his filibuster. He forced three roll calls, requiring twenty-five minutes each, during the first hour and a half of today's session. The largest number answering was 247 against 216, which is a quorum. At the completion of each roll call members left the house, despite the orders of Representative Mondell.

Animal Gland Fad to Restore Youth Called Old Stuff

CHICAGO, June 24.—The restoration of youth to the aged, attempted recently by means of animal glands, also was attempted at least 3,000 years ago, according to Dr. James H. Breasted, of the University of Chicago.

An "Incantation of Transforming an Old Man Into a Youth of Twenty" is set forth in the Edwin Smith papyrus, the Egyptian document which Dr. Breasted has declared contains unparalleled evidence of advanced knowledge and scientific spirit on the part of Egyptian physicians of 1800 B. C. or earlier.

The incantation, on the contrary, he said, is characterized by reliance on hocus-pocus. Dr. Breasted's theory is that an extraordinary book on surgery and external medicine fell into the hands of a quack, who was more interested in making charms for making old men young, and who had the incongruous texts combined in the same roll. Thus in the papyrus magical formulae jostle an explosion of delicate surgical operations heretofore believed to be decidedly modern.

The handwriting indicates that it probably was written about 1800 B. C. and it is thought to be a copy of a manuscript that is at least one thousand years older. The original may have been written as early as 2400 B. C., it is thought, because of certain words which appear in the manuscript and which were long out of vogue in 1800 B. C.

The manuscript also contains "The Incantation of Expelling the Wind of the Year of Pest." This shows the widely prevalent notion which has persisted to the present day that winds carry malignant plagues. The last two parts of the papyrus are written in a different handwriting from the front page.

The columns in front treat of the head then the lower head, the mouth, the neck and the spine. Here the papyrus stops, but it is evident that the remainder treated the lower body.

FALLS FROM TOWER

FORT WORTH, June 24.—J. H. Malone, employe of the Northern Texas Traction company, was seriously injured Friday when he fell from one of the traction company's water towers at Handley. Malone was working on the tower when he lost his balance.

He suffered a broken left leg and arm and other injuries which may prove fatal, it is stated.

MAN WHO KIDNAPED WIFE SURRENDERS TO THE POLICE

CINCINNATI, June 24.—Albert H. Marshall, who seized his wife, Clara, on the golf links of an exclusive club here and carried her into Indiana in an automobile last Friday, surrendered to the police today. He is charged with kidnaping by the father of the wife, from whom he is separated and who is suing for divorce. Marshall said he carried his wife away so that he could make an effort to effect a reconciliation.

MONARCHIST UPRISING PREDICTED TONIGHT

Berlin in Turmoil After Walter Rathenau, Minister of Foreign Affairs, Is Shot Eight Times in Head.

BERLIN, June 24.—Walter Rathenau, minister of foreign affairs, was killed today by an assassin who threw a hand grenade into his automobile and then opened fire with a revolver. The assassin then escaped.

The attack occurred just after Rathenau left his home in Grunewald on his way to his office. Rathenau ranked with Hugo Stinnes as one of the most influential men in Germany. He incurred the hatred of the monarchists by his activity in the government of Chancellor Wirth. As leader of the German delegation at the recent Genoa conference he negotiated the Rapallo treaty with soviet Russia which was bitterly opposed by the allies.

Rathenau was a guest at dinner of American Ambassador Houghton last night, and on receipt of the assassination the embassy flag was promptly lowered to half mast.

An eye witness told the United Press he saw two assassins attack Rathenau. They were masked, according to this witness. As their motorcar came alongside that of the minister, they simultaneously hurled a hand grenade and then began firing their pistols.

Eight bullets struck Rathenau in the head.

The assassination created a sensation at the meeting of the reichstag committee this morning. Socialists swarmed around former Vice Chancellor Helfferich, who recently attacked Rathenau in a speech. "You're the murderer," they cried. Some of the socialists grabbed Helfferich by the collar as they accused him of responsibility for the assassination. He left at once.

The assassination of Foreign Minister Rathenau today was the signal for a countrywide attempt to overthrow the government tonight, leaders of the independents in the reichstag warned.

The city was thrown in turmoil, the communists demanding the immediate arming of the workmen to resist a monarchist uprising. Majority socialists urged dissolution of the officers' league and reorganization of the reichstag.

The assassination evidently had been carefully planned and carried out. In some quarters the officers' league is held responsible. It was also pointed that the acquittal of the two alleged slayers of Mathis Erzberger had encouraged political murders.

MILITARY BOARD PROBING HERRIN MINE MASSACRE

State's Future Policy Depends on Report; Scenes of Torture and Murder Visited.

EXODUS ON! CARBONDALE, Ill., June 24.—More than fifty miners of the Herrin district passed through here last night and early this morning in leaving the coal fields. Those who could be approached would give no reason for the exodus.

WON'T CALL TROOPS.

WAUKEGAN, Ill., June 24.—Following receipt of the report from General Foreman on the mine war at Herrin, to the effect that troops were not needed at this time, Governor Small has directed the adjutant general to demobilize the 1,000 men held under arms at Chicago.

HERRIN, Ill., June 24.—A military commission, headed by Major General Foreman, commander of the Thirty-third division, sent by Governor Small to report on the mine war situation, arrived at Carbondale early today and went at once to the coal fields. Upon the recommendations of the commission depend the state's future policy and the sending of troops to this district. All the officers are from Chicago.

Members of the commission, accompanied by newspaper men, went to the Lester mine, scene of Thursday's battle. Foreman looked over the wrecked mine, where a car of coal was still burning on a side track. Then the party was guided by Colonel Hunter of Marion, along the road of death, where forty-eight hours ago the victims of the mob were dragged two and a half miles before being shot.

Couldn't Keep Up, Killed. They were shown where D. K. McDowell, superintendent of the mine, was clubbed to death with revolvers because, hampered by a wooden leg, he could not keep up with the marchers, and the wood where most of the killing occurred. Hunter also gave details of the happenings preceding the slaughter.

The chief officials of Williamson county are being questioned this afternoon and the commission expects to complete its investigation and return to Chicago tonight. District Attorney Duty, Sheriff Thaxton, Mayor Page of Herrin, Hugh Willis, member of the local district board of the United Mine Workers, will be questioned, as well as police officers of Herrin and Marion.

Simultaneously with the military board, two representatives of the attorney general's office arrived to conduct an independent probe.

Curious crowds of spectators continue to flock to the morgue today, where seventeen bullet-riddled bodies remain unclaimed and more than half unidentified. No sympathy is heard for the dead. Herrin and Williamson county regard the massacre as the natural result of efforts of operators to work mines in violation of an agreement not to ship coal for commercial purposes.

COMPANY ASKS TROOPS.

CHICAGO, June 24.—Counsel for the Southern Illinois Coal company, whose mine was burned Thursday in the attack on non-union workers, today telegraphed Adjutant General Black, requesting that troops be sent to Williamson county. The attorney charged that the sheriff of the county was still refusing to do his duty and there is danger of further outbreaks.

MONTANA SENATOR PANS UNION FOR PART IN MINE WAR

WASHINGTON, June 24.—Union labor was bitterly denounced for its part in the mine war in the senate today by Senator Myers of Montana. "The atrocities occurring when the union miners made their attack at Herrin were more horrible and repulsive than any committed by Germany in the world war," Myers said.

CLARKSBURG ARMS TO STOP FURTHER RIOTS

CLARKSBURG, W. Va., June 24.—This coal mining center armed itself today in anticipation of further trouble between strikers and strikebreakers. Sheriff Laco L. Young told the United Press today that members of

MOB'S VICTIM WARNS BLACKS

HOUSTON, June 24.—Montgomery county is reported quiet today following the lynching at New Decus late yesterday of Warren Lewis, 18, negro, after an alleged confession to a posse that he had attempted to attack a young white woman earlier in the day.

The negro was hanged by a mob of about 300 Montgomery county citizens after he had been permitted to make a speech to scores of negroes gathered in the town. Lewis advised members of his race to stay in their place, reiterated his guilt and expressed regret at his actions.

COLORADO SPRINGS PASSES ORDINANCE TO FIX HOTEL RATES

COLORADO SPRINGS, June 24.—The Colorado Springs city council has taken regulatory action on hotel rates which is being watched with interest by hotel and resort cities and communities throughout the entire United States.

In common with other communities of the resort character, Colorado Springs and the Pikes Peak region has been criticized by summer visitors on the grounds of exorbitant rates from hotels and restaurants. Last Summer the chamber of commerce attempted to regulate the question by mediation but failed.

Yesterday the city council passed a city ordinance arbitrarily fixing the hotel rates to be charged on the ground that hotels are public utilities and as such are subject to municipal jurisdiction.

A test case will be made of the ordinance by hotels here and it is probable that the matter will be carried to the Colorado supreme court for a decision which will establish a precedent in the right of cities to regulate hotel charges.

MRS. FERGUSON TOLD TO NOTIFY ALL CO. CHAIRMEN

WACO, June 24.—Pending an opinion from the attorney general on the question of removing the name of Mrs. Marian A. Ferguson, wife of former Governor James E. Ferguson, from the Democratic primary ticket, Secretary Hale of the committee has suggested that Mrs. Ferguson notify all of the county chairmen of her desire to have her name removed from the ticket, in order that each county committee might be prepared to act immediately when an opinion is handed down by the attorney general.

STARTER INSTALLED

With the installation of new batteries in the person of Ernest G. Albright as secretary, the overhauled Chamber of Commerce is ready for the roads. Practically, it is a new machine; in fact, it is a new one,
but with the same clientele and the same route to be covered. For while the personnel of chambers of commerce may be changed, their fundamental objective cannot—that is, the upbuilding and improvement of the city which supports the organization.
Mr. Albright is what is popularly known as a "live wire." He looks the part and his record shows that looks do not belie his performance. The chamber's directors saw to that, for they considered many applicants and many possibilities before uniting on Mr. Albright as the proper man to fill the place.

Some persons, of course, may be disappointed in the chamber's activities for the next year. The idea will not down that a good secretary is a man who goes out and corrals foreign capitalists, hypnotizes them,
brings them to his home town,
shows them where to invest carloads of money, and sees that they do so. Persons who hold this view figure if the chamber of commerce
secretary doubles the population of the town every year, he has held his job fairly well, and should be retained; if he doesn't come up to this standard, why fire him! Somebody can surely be found capable of functioning in such a manner!

That, of course, is a mistaken idea.
Slow growth is the most substantial growth. And upon investigation it will be found that towns grow into cities more largely through the work of their own citizens than interesting outside capital. If the citizens invest in their own community and establish enterprises that cause growth,
then they will by so doing interest
the outside capital, far more than they can hope to interest it by sewing up their pockets and expecting outsiders to make all the improvements and build all the factories.

The latter just isn't done; that's all.
If Mr. Albright and the chamber can interest foreign capital, so much the better. But if they cannot, Ranger should not be disgraced. There is plenty of work to be done through our own efforts and with own moneys, and if this work can be co-ordinated and accomplished, the chamber will be well worth while, even if it performs no miracles.

fit in the senate chamber.—Toledo

VISIT TO OLD HOME COSTS
LIFE OF WM. ROCKEFEL-LER, OIL MAGNATE

was to invite his death. He was subject to such spasms of coughing, that speech above a whisper was likely to strangle him.

Could Not Testify.
The Pulo committee, still determined to get his testimony concerning an alleged manipulation of the copper market with H. H. Rogers several years previously, arranged a special sitting in the financier's cottage at Jekyl Island, but had proceeded with less than a dozen questions when the witness was seized with laryngeal spasms and palsy. The committee was unable to continue without fear of causing his death.

Although the active head of the Standard Oil company of New York
from its establishment in 1865 to 1911
and one of the richest men in America, Rockefeller's prominence was overshadowed by that of his elder brother, John D., the founder of the Rockefeller interests in oil, and for many years the head of the parent company.

81 Years Old.
They were both born at Richford, Tioga county, New York, on their father's farm; William on May 31, 1841, two years after the birth of John. In Cleveland, O., to which the family removed while the brothers were boys, William began his mercantile career in the produce commission business, as did his brother, and joined the latter soon after he became interested in oil, about 1862. The establishment, soon afterward, of a branch office in New York, led to the removal of William Rockefeller to that city to take charge of it. From that time until his retirement in 1911
he was the active head of the New York company.

In almost every respect except his success as an oil magnate, William Rockefeller differed from his brother.
He was a club man; his brother belonged to none. He was interested but slightly in philanthropic work of any kind, or religious activity. Alongside the blocks of millions his brother gave away William Rockefeller's largest gift was $100,000 to Wellesley college. He was an enthusiastic motorist, and saw nothing in golf, of which his brother was such a devotee.
He did not enjoy the latter's rugged health. Although there was no known estrangement and they both had summer residences at Tarrytown, N. Y., the brothers were seldom seen together.

'HEREAFTER' SERMON AT EAST RANGER BAPTIST

"Hell and They Who Are Going
There" will be the subject of the Rev.
M. F. Drury's sermon at the East
Ranger Baptist church tomorrow night. "We are now in a Kingdom fight," the minister points out, "a fight of light against darkness."
At the morning services Mr. Drury will preach on "Heaven and the Blessings and Glories That Await All Who Are Prepared."

ON JOB AN HOUR; KILLED.

DAYTON, Ohio, June 24.—Louis
Seidell, 55 years old, fell to his death
into an elevator shaft from the third floor of the Phillips house one hour after obtaining a job as elevator operator.

DOG HILL PARAGRAPHS
By GEORGE BINGHAM

The near-sighted children in the family of Sim Flinders have moved out on the front fence, thus making more room on the porch.

Atlas Peck says whenever he looks at his watch to see what time it is
and then puts it back into his pocket,
somebody will ask him the time,
and he always has to take it out and look again, just like everybody else
has to do.

Slim Pickens, while he did not have anything else to do today, stated that during a hard rain it looked like it would never be dusty any more.

LIE DETECTOR CLEARS MURDER SUSPECT

Photograph shows Henry Wilkens submitting himself to the "sphygmomanometer," or, in plain language,
the "lie detector," invented by Dr.
John A. Larson, professor-policeman, of the Berkeley (Cal.) police department. The lie detector records the pulse vibrations of suspects under police examination, and it informed the police that Wilkens was telling the truth about the murder of his wife by two auto bandits. The police suspected Wilkens, because he told them
he had never seen the bandits before,
when he had actually been a foreman over one of them for months, and a nationwide search was instituted for Walter and Arthur Castor. They further suspected him because his wife had filed a separate maintenance suit and because he had often threatened suicide because of his grief. But the lie detector freed him.

MANY SEEK BARTENDING JOBS
SINCE 'EXPOSURE' OF SHIP BOOZE

WASHINGTON, June 24.—In all the rush for government jobs during the last year and a half, there has been nothing like the scramble that is on just now, since it has been disclosed that intoxicating liquors is being sold aboard American ships. Everybody and his brother-in-law, it seems, is after a position of bartender.

The amount of salary, which always heretofore has been a primary consideration, does not matter in this instance. There is no question about China, Japan—anywhere—just so it is beyond the three-mile limit.

Degrees of Expertness.
Certain of the applicants are bartenders who discontinued operations when Mr. Volstead found time to write his well-known law. Some of the applicants are relatives of bartenders,
and others have nothing more to say
than that they used to patronize bartenders in the old days.

Most of the applicants have written in to the shipping board, and to members of congress, but some of them

have discarded such tactics, as for too
slow, and have come to Washington
by train.

They have besieged the capitol,
particularly those who have had experience, offering to demonstrate their ability, if they can find somebody who will furnish the necessary ingredients.

Republicans Have Edge.
Republican bartenders have the inside track on all the jobs. They have demanded it, insisting that Democratic bartenders, no matter how skillful, stay in the background and await their turn. It would be a crime, say the Republicans, if Democrats were to get even one job.

There has been, incidentally, a surprising sentiment among the applicants for a great increase in the American merchant marine. They are joining in the cry for a program much the same as they embarked upon at the outset of the war, and even greater, if possible. "Ships," they said,
"more ships and still more ships, and keep them wet."

BIG PANHANDLE RANCH
TO BE SOLD TO SETTLERS

STAMFORD, June 24.—Arrangements have been made for breaking up 150,000 acres of the 300,000-acre
ranch of the late Major George W.
Littlefield, near Littlefield, according to information received by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce
from C. A. Doose of Ballinger, counsel.

The land is to be subdivided into 160 and 320-acre tracts and will be sold to actual settlers on terms of ten years to pay. The land is located in Lamb and Hockley counties and is pronounced among the finest agricultural lands which have been left for exploitation.

The breaking up of this gigantic tract of land will bring an influx of settlers into the Littlefield territory that will make Littlefield a great own, it is reported to the organization.

SIX PERSONS HURT
BY INTERURBAN CAR

FORT WORTH, June 24.—Six persons were injured at 4:37 p. m. Friday when a Dallas-bound interurban car struck the automobile in which they were riding at Point Breeze, about two miles west of Handley. Albert Neal Andrews, 10 years old, was most seriously hurt. He has a fractured skull and may die.

According to the claim agent of the Northern Texas Traction company,
reports made to him indicate that Mrs. A. S. Gregling was driving the car. She crossed the track in front of the interurban car, and as the automobile climbed the incline the motor stalled and the car rolled back toward the track. The top of the automobile was down and the vestibule of the interurban car caught it and dragged the auto for some distance before it gave way. The automobile was badly wrecked.

NITROS WIN ON BOMBARDMENT IN SEVENTH, 8-5

Overcome Three-Run Lead Given Swatters by Poor Playing.

After playing four innings of baseball that had better be forgotten than described, the Nitros came to life yesterday, and with a truly nitrolike performance, overcame a three-run Sweetwater lead, winning 8 to 5.

The rally was so good and so spirited that it wiped away most of the bitter taste that a weird concoction resembling baseball had engendered. It yielded five runs, scientifically compiled by assembling six hits, one behind the other. A noble inning it was.

Series of Fireworks. With one down, Jimmy Flagg led off the fireworks with a short liner to left, which Hornsby just failed to take off the grass tops, after a slow start. Clayton followed with a drive to hot for Brooks to handle and Lefty Lybrand helped rescue his own game with a two-ply blow to right center, counting Jimmy. White bounced a drive off Gressett's ankle that scored two runs and tied the count. Mr. Brooks, who up to this round had been holding the Nitros to fairly scattered hits, then upon retired in favor of Mr. Gressett, the pinch-hitting, game-saving hero of the Swatters. But Gressett saved no game yesterday. Craig greeted him with a fast bouncer through shortstop, and Dockery's elbow collided with a fast shoot, filling the bases. The stage was set for the entrance of Parson Pyle, who inserted his only knock of the game just at this juncture, driving the winning tallies across. Truly it was a noble inning.

Prior to this onslaught with the bats, however, the Nitros had performed woefully—perhaps their saddest of the year, and largely through Nitro insistence, the Swatters had counted five times. Lefty Somewhat Wild. Lybrand was wild, too wild for comfort, and his backers played for the first five innings like gents practicing for the Fat-Lean game. There was a noticeable air of long suffering patience and an evident display of sympathy for the poor ball player out there working in the warm, hot sun. The sun finally hid behind a cloud, however, as if it had seen all it could bear, and thereafter the performance perked up. Lefty took unto himself a measure of control, which had been the chief defect in his performance, and his cohorts, after a wobbly fourth round, set out to redeem themselves, which they did in first class fashion, both at bat and in the field.

That fourth session, however, was lamentable. It set folks to thinking, thinking something like a fellow does when his best girl breaks a date to sit in the porch swing with him and goes to the movies with another fellow. You know, mean though 'ts. For at that time and the 'abouts, there were sundry things that weren't baseball as it might be played. There were errors, and too much lassitude and the like, which netted the Swatters four scores and cost the Nitros one or two.

Lets Man Score. It really began in the third round, after strikeout tactics had retired the Swatters in the second, when they filled the bases with one down. In the third, they did the same thing on two walks and a hit. Then Bupp drove a bouncer to Flagg. It looked like a cinch foreout at the plate, but Jimmy elected to allow the run and make one sure. Perhaps it was good baseball, as it only tied the score and a sure out might avert a rally. However, it wasn't the snappiest play of the two alternatives, by any means. The fourth was worse and more of it. With one out, Craig chose the bad hop on Lory's grounder and stopped the ball with his chest. When Brooks rolled to second, White lobbed the ball over Gober's head, and Lory took third. Grady White drove him home with the only clean hit of the round, and when Hornsby drove a hot one straight at Gober, Jack elected to do a backhand stab that didn't take, and two men counted. A strikeout and pop fly then ended the agony, but did not keep it from being an inning well filled with bad baseball.

White counted Clayton in the fifth with a Texas leaguer double to left, which Clayton judged accurately and sprinted home, although three fielders got within a few feet of the ball. Craig followed with a single to center, on which White was caught at the plate. Binie may have been running all the way, but he didn't look like it.

After the fifth, the sun hid. The score:

UMPIRE BADLY HURT AS BONHAM FANS RIOT

DENISON, June 24.—Dit Spencer, an umpire in the Texas-Oklahoma league, is hovering between life and death at his home here as a result of an attack by fans Thursday afternoon following a game at Bonham, which Greenville won. Spencer fished and banished from the game Manager Tullos of the Bonham team and fined another Bonham player. While changing his shoes Spencer was kicked in the head, then a general attack ensued. Spencer's head and chest bear marks of shoe heels and the flesh is literally torn from his body. Two attending physicians say they can not determine the extent of his injuries for 24 hours. Local county officers have ordered the arrest of a Bonham man and ordered him held until Spencer's condition can be determined.

Filthy Bread and Water Fed Child Bound in Closet

PARIS, June 24.—Child martyrs long have been common in Central Europe, but rarely in France has such a flagrant case been found as one near Paris this week, which resulted in the arrest of the parents of five-year-old Maurice Passot.

According to the neighbors the child was hated violently by both his parents, and though cries of despair frequently were heard, none dared to inform the authorities. Gossip, however, resulted in the Passot home being searched.

The boy was found in an unlighted, unventilated upper closet, bound hand and foot to a bed, with a bowl of filthy bread and water on a chair near by. The lobes of his ears were distended more than an inch, due to constant pulling, his body was bruised and scratched, and both arms were terribly twisted.

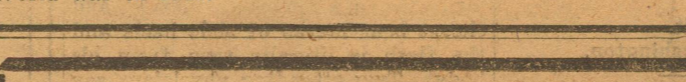

The parents refused to explain, each accusing the other of the evident brutality.

SLAYER OF GIRL IS SON OF PEERESS

Lady Annabel de Freyne.

The storm brought about the head of Home Secretary Edward Shortt, of England, because he relieved Major Ronald True, who was to be hanged for the murder of a girl in London, and sent him instead to an insane asylum, has been intensified by the discovery that True is the son of Annabel, Lady de Freyne. Her first husband was named True, and in 1902 she married Baron de Freyne, an Irish peer, who was killed in the World war in 1915.

Ronald True.

The Blazed Trail

WORKERS in the woods frequently find the trail blazed by the axes of those who have gone before. Guided by these marks, they easily find their way.

Advertisements perform a similar duty for you in the important business of spending your money. They point the way to values of which you would never know if they were not there to guide you.

Do you read them? Wise shoppers do. They are the economical buyers—the ones who keep themselves strictly up-to-date on the best opportunities for saving money, or spending it judiciously, which is one and the same thing.

Read the advertisements in this paper. Read them to know what's what in the shopping district. Read them because they place before your eyes a moving panorama of business progress. Read them to save money—to save steps—to save disappointments. Read them because they blaze your trail to satisfaction in your every-day buying.

Read them regularly. Follow their guidance. It pays.
