EXECUTIVE OF RANGER BANK STEPS DOWN

Ill Health Causes W. W. Housewright to Resign From Citizens Bank.

W. W. Housewright, active vice president of the Citizens State Bank, Ranger, since its organization in October, 1925, yesterday tendered his resignation of the position and the board of directors today accepted the resignation, the members expressing their regret at losing his services.

Mr. Housewright asked that his resignation take effect April 1, or as soon thereafter as possible. He stated that his failing health made it necessary for him to enter other business that would not be so confining as his present occupation requires.

Housewright came to Ranger in April, 1924, and when the Citizens State Bank was organized in October, 1925, he was made active vice president and has served in that capacity since that time. Prior to that time he was active vice president of the Ranger State bank and disposed of his stock in that institution in August, 1925. He has been in the banking business for 24 years.

He has been active in every organization and movement in Ranger and is rated as one of Ranger's staunchest citizens. He is a member of the Rotary club, the American Legion, the Country club, the Retail Merchants association, and the Masonic lodge. He has been one of the outstanding advocates of the Boy Scout movement and was responsible for its organization in Ranger.

Mr. Housewright will move in the near future to Edinburg, in the Rio Grande valley, where he will enter the mercantile business.

The retiring vice president has been one of the consistent workers in making the Citizens State bank one of the best banking institutions to be found anywhere. During the years that the directors and officers have been working to build up the bank he has given all of his time and thought in an effort to manage the bank as conservatively and yet as impartially as possible.

Mr. Housewright expressed regret at leaving the bank and Ranger. "In severing my relations with the bank I do so with considerable regret," he said. "I intend going into the dry goods business where my work will not be so confining. My health has been failing for the past three years and I feel a change of this nature will be of great benefit to me."

"It is with the respect of the entire board that we accept the resignation of Mr. Housewright. A vote of thanks was given Mr. Housewright for his faithful service," Mr. Conway, chairman of the board of directors said this morning.

Mr. Housewright will dispose of his bank stock and his property here and will move to the valley territory in the near future.

Mr. Conway stated there would not be any change in the personnel of the bank staff, except that Hall Walker would have active management of the bank's affairs.

Texas Democrats May Bolt Ticket If Wet Is Chosen

DALLAS, March 15.—Veiled threats of a bolt from the Democratic party if a wet candidate is nominated were made by State Highway Commissioner Cone Johnson in the keynote speech at a statewide mass meeting of dry Democrats here today.

More than 500 leading Democrats of Texas attended the meeting which made plans for instructing the Texas delegation to the Houston national convention against any wet candidate.

All of the speakers at the meeting bitterly denounced Smith, Reed and Ritchie because of their stand on prohibition.

Al Smith is nominated it would be better for the democrats to go from Houston with word to the republicans to inaugurate their candidate without the trouble of a campaign," Johnson declared.

Johnson was chosen permanent chairman of the meeting following an address by Cato Sells of Fort Worth. Sells declared that it was the supporters of Smith and other wet candidates who are behind the movement for an uninstructed Texas delegation.

Democratic Dries Gird For Battle

DALLAS, March 15.—Dry democrats of Texas were called into session here today by B. D. Sartin, chairman of the Wichita County Constitutional Democratic club, to organize against the candidacy of any democrats opposing prohibition.

An organization to work against the nomination of all candidates for either national or state offices who are wets will be perfected at the meeting.

DAIRYMEN IN CHEANEY AREA WILL CONFER

Ranger Concern Is To Offer Larger Market For Dairy Products of Region.

J. C. Patterson, county agent, and Wayne C. Hickey, secretary of the Ranger Chamber of Commerce, went to the Cheaney community Wednesday and arranged for a dairy meeting to be held at the church there Saturday night at 7 p. m.

C. E. Shields, manager of the Banner Ice Cream company, Ranger, will meet the farmers and dairymen of that community Saturday night and make them a proposition relative to the purchase of all sweet cream, sour cream and whole milk.

Shields is of the opinion that if the community can produce enough milk products to warrant the placing of a truck in that community he will do so in order to supply the demand of his company for these products.

The registered bulls purchased in the Falfurrias area by J. C. Patterson for Eastland county arrived Wednesday and distribution will start immediately. Patterson obtained eight bulls of the finest breed.

Although no registered cows were purchased, due to the high price prevailing at the time he was in that section, it is thought that probably one or two cows will be shipped here from another source.

Hickey will attend the Saturday night meeting and present ideas relative to the disposition of the milk products that are being obtained in that community.

Moody Will Outline His Political Views In Speech at Dallas

AUSTIN, March 15.—Governor Moody is taking more pains with the Jackson day address to Dallas women democrats than he did with his Jackson day address at Washington.

The one at Washington was extemporaneous. This one is being prepared.

The governor spent all morning before taking an 11:30 train for Dallas in dictating his speech. Finishing touches will be added on the train.

His address tonight will carefully define his views on the present political situation.

2 Wells To Be Started In Cheaney District

Both wells are being drilled in the producing area.

AUTHORITIES MOVE TO AVERT PESTILENCE

By United Press. SANTA PAULA, Calif., March 15.—Pestilence—the inevitable feature of flood-swept cities—brought new fear today to the stricken Santa Clara river valley.

While searchers continued their hunt in the debris and mud for more bodies, health authorities moved swiftly to avert the spread of disease over the flood-swept region.

With 300 bodies already recovered the death list was expected to mount still higher today. Relief parties today will go for the first time into the more remote sections of the valley where the toll taken by the St. Francis dam disaster is unknown.

U. S. May Take Passive Role At Geneva Parley

WASHINGTON, March 15.—With America again participating, the League of Nations preparatory disarmament commission met at Geneva today for another fling at the world armament problem. Officials here take a gloomy view of the situation, stating privately though frankly that the commission has still a long and hard road to travel before it reaches a general agreement for a disarmament conference. For this reason they believe the present session will be adjourned at an early date, leaving to future meetings the task of bringing some semblance of order out of the many conflicting views which are now delaying the adoption of an agenda.

Acting under strict instructions from Washington, the American delegates will follow the more or less passive course they have pursued at past meetings. This country is intensely interested in the general question of disarmament, but nevertheless feels the real job before the commission is that of reducing land military forces. Inasmuch as the

Remains of Dam, the Wrecking of Which Caused Hundreds of Persons to Perish

This photo, transmitted over telephoto wires by INEA Service shows the wreckage of the St. Francis dam, 45 miles north of Los Angeles, just after the gigantic reservoir had spent its deadly force on the valley below, where more than 300 persons were drowned. The dam was a massive concrete structure, 185 feet high, built across San Francisco canyon. Under normal conditions it backed up a lake of water containing more than twelve billion gallons of water. A cloudburst in the mountains sent such a torrent against the dam that it collapsed, almost without warning. The picture shows the center section still standing, but both ends of the dam, which was 1250 feet long, were washed away.

2 AMERICANS ARRESTED IN REVOLT PLOT

WASHINGTON, March 15.—The last minute rush to file income tax returns was under way today with about 500,000 taxpayers still to make theirs.

About 4,000,000 already have made returns and the remainder must file before midnight to avoid a heavy penalty.

The total will net the government $2,100,000,000.

SAYS TEXAS FIRM MANIPULATED PRICES

WASHINGTON, March 15.—Anderson-Clayton & Co., cotton brokers of Houston, have manipulated and controlled the cotton market, Arthur Marsh, former president of the New York Cotton exchange, today told a senate agricultural sub-committee investigating cotton prices authorized by the Smith resolution.

Marsh said the company's operations were known to Walter Trombley, special agent of the federal trade commission and the commission's 1923 cotton report was largely based upon suggestions made by officers of the firm.

TWO GONE 53 HOURS AT 8:45 A. M. TODAY

By United Press. NEW YORK, March 15.—Two continents today sought word of the fate of the year's first trans-Atlantic flight attempt—an attempt started by a one-eyed British flyer and a British titled heiress from Cranwell Airborne Tuesday morning.

Throughout the night there were many rumors that the plane carrying the Hon. Elsie Mackay and Capt. Walter Hinchcliffe had landed safely. But dawn found none of the rumors confirmed and belief grew that the black and gold plane had ended its flight in the waters of North Atlantic.

The various reports of a landing or of the plane being sighted came from New Foundland, Nova Scotia and the Boston airport.

At 8:45 a. m. today the two had been gone 53 hours—which is at least eight hours more than the most optimistic believed they could remain in the air.

The one remaining chance today was that the plane had landed safely but that the two flyers had been unable to communicate with the outside. In that event it might be days before their fate is known.

POULTRY ASS'N PAYS $941.63 TO MEMBERS

Bankhead Association Profits Slow Marked Gains During Week

The Bankhead Poultry Producers association, with headquarters in Eastland, paid its members last week $941.63 for poultry products, which is a marked gain over the previous week. It will pay more than that amount this week, according to George W. Briggs, secretary of the association.

The association is gaining new members daily and each week is improving its service.

Officials of the association look for a break in the poultry markets within a short time. When this comes the association is ready to begin storing eggs, which will be held until the price again advances.

Mr. Briggs believes this year is going to be good one for poultrymen. He bases this opinion on the fact that last year there was an overproduction throughout the country, which caused a number of producers to either curtail their production or quit the business entirely. Hence the man who stayed in will this year find competition less keen.

FLECKENSTEIN RESTS WELL AT HOSPITAL

Winning a War

Some of the big events in world history go almost unnoticed at the time they take place. Often it is not until long afterward that people generally realize the importance of what has happened.

For example: Between 1910 and 1928 British and American doctors did something that probably will prove more important to the Far East, in years to come, than the world war itself; yet their exploit got almost no space in the press, and went almost unnoticed except among scientific circles.

The deed that is referred to is the discovery of an apparently sure cure
for leprosy, scourge of the Orient.

Leprosy has been a plague since Biblical times. Everyone who has gone to Sunday school can recall the horror in which the ancient Israelites held the disease. Lepers were driven out of the cities and towns and compelled to subsist miserably in rocky caves. They were "unclean"; no one,
on pain of death, could have anything to do with them. The disease was incurable; it condemned the sufferer to untold agony and a lingering death worse than even the ingenious eastern emperors could devise in their torture chambers.

Now, however, Sir Leonard Rogers, British scientist, declares that new developments in the use of hydnocarpus oil in treating the disease make it possible to cure practically all except advanced cases. He believes that eventually leprosy will disappear
from British and American possessions everywhere.

In the United States the disease is extremely rare, of course. But in the Orient it is common. Some believe there are 1,000,000 cases in India alone. If Sir Leonard is right, and leprosy can be wiped out, it will be one of the greatest things for the Far East than ever happened.

Now Olden Comes
Forward With Story
Of Buried Reptile

Now comes Olden with its own
Horned Frog.

Citizens of Olden, after swearing
by the story of the horned toad that slept for 31 years in the corner stone of the Eastland county courthouse, decided they would have one of their own. But it was all an accident.

Three years and five months ago
the Magnolia Petrolym company set a gas engine on a concrete base about 200 yards from the main office at Olden. There wasn't a horned frog put in there to anyone's knowledge.
At least it was not intentionally done by any of the employees. In those days oil was the prime factor and not horned toads.

Today however, whole workmen engaged in tearing out the old foundation of a road slowly emerged from a piece of the concrete.

C. Q. Boucher, chief clerk of the company, said today that all evidence pointed to the fact that the toad had accidentally, and perhaps regretfully, come in contact with a shovel full of the cement back in 1924 and had been in the base since that time.

S. F. Hyden Placed In County Bastile

Members of the Eastland county sheriff's office arrived in Eastland
this morning from Plainview with S.
F. Hyden, under indictment for robery with firearms in connection with the holdup of the First State bank of Carbon on Dec. 13, last. He was placed in the county jail.

Hyden is the third member of the quartet indicted for the Carbon bank robbery to be placed in the Eastland county jail. Lloyd Norsworthy and Lucile Lawyer were arrested recently in Oklahoma and brought to Eastland. E. V. Allen, who is under arrest in Oklahoma under an indictment for the Carbon holdup, is fighting extradition from Oklahoma.

The wife of George Carson, the "Desert Rat" sought to have him put in a sanitarium because he threw things and had red hair. Don't marry, girls, unless you're sure the man won't throw things or get red hair.

MENU PREPARED BY
C. I. A. HOUSEHOLD DEPT.

DENTON, March 15.—The menus for this week, by members of the household arts department of the College of Industrial Arts have been based on bread made with yeast,
which gives the housewife an opportunity to introduce variety into the meals at small cost. Each baking may produce breads that vary in form and in ingredients, and that are interesting and delicious.

Breakfast
Toasted oatmeal bread; puffy om-
let; coffee.

Lunch
Creamed dried beef on toast,
doughnuts, tea.

Dinner
Brown fricasse of chicken, boiled
rice, buttered peas, Parker House rolls, apple and celery salad, chocolate pie, coffee.

Doughnuts—Dissolve one cake
compressed yeast and one tablespoon sugar in one and one-fourth cups of milk which has been scalded and cooled to lukewarm; add one and one-half cups flour and beat well.
Cover and set to rise in warm place
for about one hour or until bubbles burst on top. Then add three tablespoons butter and one-half cup sugar
creamed, one-fourth teaspoon mace,
one egg well beaten, one-fourth teaspoon salt and three cups flour (enough to make a moderately soft dough). Knead lightly; place in a well-greased bowl; cover and allow to rise again in a warm place for about one and one-half hours. When light, turn on a floured board; roll to about one-third inch in thickness, cut and place on a floured board; cover and let rise again in a warm place until light—about 45 minutes. Drop into deep, hot fat with side up which has been next to board. When a thin film of smoke begins to rise from the pot, or when the fat is hot enough to brown an inch cube of bread in forty seconds the temperature is correct. Fry doughnuts to a golden brown and cool at once in powdered sugar.

Destroyed By Flood

When the St. Francis dam in San Francisco canyon loosed its torrent of water early Tuesday morning, this power station and its crew of workmen was the first to be struck. Located only a short distance below the dam itself, this is the highest of the aqueduct power plants operated by the Southern California Edison Company. It is 15 miles north of the town of Saugus. The deep ravine in which the building was placed was filled with a wall of water that rushed down the canyon. The station was washed away by the force of the water.

fee.

Dinner

cream gravy, dinner rolls, baked po-

Texas Club Women
To Be Entertained
At Large Reception

Owing to the large number expected to the Texas dinner, May 26, and the necessity of having to divide the crowd into two sections in order to accommodate them, thus defeating the purpose of the dinner, which was to get all Texas club women together in advance of the biennial of the General Federation of Women's clubs,
the dinner has been changed to a mammoth reception to be held at the Menger hotel in San Antonio. No reservations are needed for this and all Texas club women are invited to attend the reception on the evening of May 26.

The money which has already been received for reservations will be returned and plans will go forward to make this reception an outstanding event. It will also be the means of assembling the Texas women in preparation for entertaining the women of the nation at the biennial.

At first it was planned to do this at a dinner. Soon it was seen that no one hotel could accommodate the thousand and more women expected.
This meant dividing the crowd. Then it was realized that even with the division, the San Antonio women,
with the exception of the committee
chairmen, would not be able to attend
the dinner.

Then the reservations began coming in large numbers and nearly every woman who made a reservation
wanted to be assured of sitting next to a friend from some other city.

So it was decided by the hospitality committee, of which Mrs. W.
W. McCrory is chairman, that to accommodate everyone, allow every one to be with friends and hear all the musical program and "pep" speakers,
a reception would be extended all Texas club women. The time will be the same as the dinner and the place the Menger hotel.

Ranger Civic Clubs
To Aid In Clean-Up

Committees representing the Ranger Lions club, the Rotary club and the Ranger Chamber of Commerce, will meet tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the chamber of commerce headquarters to formulate plans for the clean up week, April 1 to 8 inclusive.

Vaude Swift, sanitation officer, will confer with the committees and work out the lines of procedure.
The committees and officials of the organizations are planning for the greatest clean up campaign that has ever been waged in Ranger.

you can get the facts from

Thousands of women everywhere who were weak, thin,
run-down and discouraged
through overwork, loss of sleep and physical neglect are taking St. Joseph's G.F.P. to invigorate and strengthen them.

"I feel better, eat better and look better than I have in testimony of another; and still another says: "I now have all

The BABY

No mother in this enlightened age would give her baby something she did not know was perfectly harmless, especially when a few drops of plain Castoria will right a baby's stomach and end almost any little ill. Pretenses and fever, too; it seems no time until everything is serene.

That's the beauty of Castoria; its gentle influence seems just what is needed. It does all that castor oil might accomplish, without shock to the system. Without the evil taste, it's delicious! Being purely vegetable you can give it as often as there's a sign of colic; constipation; diarrhea;
or need to aid sound, natural sleep.

Just one warning: it is genuine Fletcher's Castoria that physicians recommend. Other preparations may be just as free from all doubtful drugs, but no child of this writer's is going to test them! Besides, the book on care and feeding of babies that comes with Fletcher's Castoria is worth its weight in gold.

Frankness of Rockne
One of the most attractive of the engaging traits of Knute Rockne is his daring frankness.

The football coach is supposed to teach boys how to play football. Their moral education is for the Sunday schools, he said recently.

Since several prominent eastern coaches have said that they felt it was a high obligation of their profession to make good citizens and good men out of the football players, Rockne's remarks might be interpreted as a slap at those moralists.

Rockne's teams always have been well behaved on and off the field, and if they weren't given actual lessons in proper moral conduct by their coach they knew without being told what would happen to them if they didn't behave.

It's fine to listen to sermons about sportsmanship and that victory is of secondary importance, but every football coach knows that he is being retained for the purpose of developing winning teams. There are enough actual rules in the football code to cover the moral angle, Rockne once said.

The emphasis he placed upon the code of morals and sportsmanship was one of the chief arguments made against a coach of a big western conference university this winter.

Some of the old grads, who were emphatic in demanding his resignation, said they visited the locker room between halves of one of the most important games of the season. The team was a touchdown behind and had played such sloppy football in the first half that they expected to hear the coach give the boys a good old-fashioned calling down.

"But what did he do?" they roared. "Why he went to the black board, called the attention of the squad and wrote on it—'Fight, Fight, Fight, BUT BE GENTLEMEN!' And the boys went out and were as gentle as they could be."

Reper Voices Opinion
Bill Reper, the Princeton coach whose team was put on the pan last year by some Harvard boys for the way they played, is like Rockne. He doesn't turn his collar around when he is talking about football. He was game enough to invite a lot of razzing recently when he ordered all his football players to report to the boxing coach.

The boxing coach at Princeton is Monte Murn, former All-America tackle, a Nebraska legislator and a heavyweight fighter of note. He came to Princeton from West Point, where he had been teaching the cadet football players the manly art of fist swinging. It was reported that his position was abolished at the military academy when the annual football game with the Navy was called off.

Talk of Big Dough
The trade mark of the astute Jack Kearns has not been erased from the heavyweight boxing racket. After he had lost a decision to George Godfrey in Los Angeles recently, Paulino, the Basque wood chopper, announced that Gaston Bastanchury, a millionaire citrus man and a fellow countryman, would give Jack Dempsey $300,000 to fight him.

Kearns used up every kind of a millionaire but a big citrus man when he was handling Dempsey's affairs, but Paulino went him one better. Paulino has his angel in the flesh for exhibition. Kearns never produced any of his Cuban sugar millionaires or his Argentine coffee kings.

Gorman Woman's Injuries Serious
Mrs. Edgar Walker of Gorman, who was injured in a car accident last Monday night, is reported little improved today. She is a sister of W. B. Collier, district clerk of Eastland.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker and Dr. and Mrs. George Blackwell of Gorman, with their children, were returning Monday night from Fort Worth when their car overturned off of a culvert at DeLeon. Mrs. Walker was the only member of the party who was seriously hurt.

Physicians who examined Mrs. Walker did not think at first that she had any broken bones but since then she has not shown improvement. X-ray examinations are to be made today.

Want Eastland Autos In Motorcade
George W. Briggs, secretary of the Eastland Chamber of Commerce, expressed the hope that Eastland will send a number of cars to join in the motorcade that will travel from Los Angeles, Calif., to Memphis, Tenn., on the occasion of the Broadway of America convention to be held in Memphis on April 20-21.

Ranger and Cisco have already announced plans for having cars in the caravan and nearly all the other towns along the route will be represented.

Three Ranger boys left this week to try out for professional baseball teams in the Mississippi Valley league.

Lewis Harvey, one of the greatest quarterbacks that Ranger High school has ever known, basketball star and crack baseball player, left early this week and it is said that he had signed a contract prior to leaving. Harvey at one time played with the team of the Texas Pacific Coal & Oil company of Thurber and later with industrial teams here.

Dewey Collum and Leslie Peacock, Ranger boys, also have gone to the league to try out for positions.

Both Peacock and Collum played with teams in the city league two years ago.

W. S. Michael, chairman of the Eastland district Boy Scouts of America, has called a meeting for Friday night at the Eastland Chamber of Commerce at 7:30 o'clock at which time the proposition of a scout training course for the Eastland district will be discussed.

tion of naval armaments, but because of the failure of the tripartite naval conference of last summer Washington has small hope that much progress can be made in that direction.

The American delegates will be on guard against any attempt by France or some other country to have the commission include a nation's commercial or industrial resources in the definition of "war potentials."

France has sought approval of this definition at previous sessions on the plea that the entire range of a nation's resources is potentially available for war purposes and should be included when considering that nation's armaments.

Following this sort of reasoning, a country like the United States, whose resources are stupendous, would have to content itself with an exceedingly small standing army and organized reserve force, while a country with relatively fewer resources would be entitled to a much larger army.

Hugh S. Gibson, ambassador to Belgium, will head the American delegation, being assisted by Hugh R. Wilson, minister to Switzerland, Rear Admiral Andrew T. Long and Major George V. Strong. The technical assistants will be Commander H. C. Train and Major J. N. Greely, while S. Pinkney Tuck, American consul at Geneva, will act as secretary to the delegation.

Clemenceau Asks Only One Thing, To Be Left Alone

By United Press.
PARIS, March 15.—There is only one thing that seems to please Georges Clemenceau, wartime premier of France. That is to be left alone.

The "Tiger" was talking the other day with a policeman who happens to come from his home town in the Vendee. The policeman's brother was a candidate for the municipal council and Clemenceau promised to go and ask him for a little service if he was elected.

To the policeman's incredulous reply the "Tiger" retorted: "Oh, I know what I'm doing. A little while ago I sent a woman to see the prefect. The prefect clerk said to her: 'Well, madame, who is this person Clemenceau?' That shows I have been forgotten. That's about the only real victory I have achieved in my life."

Guatemala Limits Rebel Chief's Right To Take Presidency
By United Press.
GUATEMALA CITY, March 15.—Guatemala's new constitution, which became effective today, prohibits the re-election of presidents within 12 years after the expiration of their first term.

The regulations governing presidential re-election are the most advanced of any Latin-American republic, the framers of this new constitution having preferred to make drastic rules rather than to risk turning control of the state over to a self-perpetuating regime.

Another constitutional principle adopted establishes the nation's ownership of subsoil oils or minerals, and prohibits the alienation of such natural wealth. Others amplify the state's functions as protector of individual rights, authorizing it to engage actively in work tending to foster national and private wealth, to fight illiteracy, promote sanitation, and settle labor troubles.

Holding prisoners without communication with their friends is forbidden, and the greatest latitude is declared for rights of habeas corpus.

Making into a fundamental law one of the most important stipulations of the 1923 Washington conference, the new constitution forbids the head of a revolutionary movement, coup d'etat or other armed uprising from becoming president during the presidential term in which order was disturbed, or the following term.

Those who have held high military command or been secretary of state in the "de facto" regime are also prohibited from being presidential candidates, as in the vice president or first designate. Finally, the secretary of state serving at election time or six months before-hand, cannot be elected president.

Monopolies and privileges of all kinds are abolished. Concessions for new industries cannot exceed a period of 10 years, and congress has effective control on all matters referring to concessions, international loans or the national budget.

Government employees, except those in university work, cannot be elected to congress; and army officers are also barred unless they are working under the orders of the executive or the judiciary. Soldiers are not allowed to vote.

Maximum independence has been given to the judiciary. Articles forbidding re-election of the president can only be amended by a two-thirds vote in two consecutive legislatures, and no amendment can be made effective until six years after its adoption.

Hungarians Unveil Statue Of Kossuth, Nations Big Patriot

NEW YORK, March 15.—Thousands of persons witnessed the unveiling of the statue of Louis Kossuth, Hungarian patriot and statesman, today on Riverside Drive.

Ceremonies in connection with the unveiling were among the most colorful and impressive in the history of New York. A roar of applause rose from the thousands of spectators as two beautiful Hungarian girls, one representing Hungary and one the United States, pulled cords which permitted the concealing drapes to fall aside and reveal the heroic figure of the great Hungarian.

A chorus of one thousand voices sang the American and Hungarian national anthems, and the Kossuth song of the Hungarian peasants.

After the singing, the $95,000 statue—a masterpiece by the Hungarian sculptor, John Hovai—was presented to the city of New York by a representative of Hungary.

Mayor James J. Walker of New York, in accepting the gift on behalf of the city, thanked the Hungarian nation and the Hungarian residents of the United States.

In the program of speaking, which included prominent Hungarians and Americans, emphasis was placed upon the similarity of political ideals, in the two countries. Kossuth was compared with Washington and Lincoln as a champion of liberty, and was extolled as the founder of modern Hungary.

Tonight a banquet for more than 1,000 persons will be held in the ballroom of the Hotel Commodore to celebrate the unveiling. Prominent Hungarian and American statesmen will be among the speakers.

Tomorrow a festive march will be made from the Battery to the City Hall to commemorate the arrival in the United States of Louis Kossuth on December 4, 1851. The march will include the Hungarian delegation and the thousands of delegates from various parts of the United States who attended today's ceremonies. At the city hall Mayor Walker will receive the procession. On March 17, at 12:30 p. m., the Hungarian Chamber of Commerce of the United States will be host to the Budapest Chamber of Commerce and the delegation from Hungary. At 9 p. m., a ball will be given in the Manhattan Opera House.

On March 18, after a monster concert at the Century theatre, the Hungarian delegation will depart for Washington where it will be received on March 19 by President Calvin Coolidge of the United States.

SPORTSMATTER

BY FRANK GETTY
UNITED PRESS SPORTS EDITOR

The pressure of public opinion may force the Amateur Athletic Union to relent and permit Lloyd Hahn to go abroad in advance of the American Olympic team.

Such a course is being urged by sportsmen, not only in this country but in Europe. Men who hope to compete against the Nebraskan in the Olympic games are urging that he be given every opportunity to become acclimated so that he can give his best at Amsterdam.

This is an example of sporting spirit worthy of the Olympic ideal. But the A. A. U. does not see it that way.

Hahn wishes no particular favors but would like to practice under conditions similar to those he will encounter at Amsterdam, conditions to which Dr. Peltzer, Douglas Lowe, Seraphim Martin, Paavo Nurmi and others are accustomed.

Before sailing for home, Dr. Peltzer urged that the Nebraskan be sent abroad. English runners, talking on the subject, have expressed the hope that Hahn will be afforded every opportunity in the way of training.

Sportsmen respect other sportsmen, and are interested in seeing the best man win. That phrase is not always the bunk. The best athletes of Europe would regret the defeat of Hahn at Amsterdam if it occurred solely because the B. A. A. runner was not accustomed to the Holland climate.

The 800 metres run at the Olympic Games promises to be the greatest in the history of that event, and 800 metre runs always have been among the high spots of all Olympiads.

There was the famous race in 1908, when old Mel Sheppard was in his prime and won for the United States in 1:52 4-5. Then at Stockholm, four years later, Ted Meredith, a schoolboy, upset things by racing to victory.

England's great runners, A. G. Hill and D. G. A. Lowe, then came to the fore, and the 800 metres run ceased to be an American event. Hill won at Antwerp in 1920 and Lowe at Paris in the 1924 games.

This year, there will be Hahn, who recently set a new world's record for the half mile; Dr. Peltzer, who holds the world's record of 1:51 3-5 for the 800 metres; Seraphim Martin, the strapping young Frenchman; Lowe and a host of others.

On his showing against the watch, the American could take the measure of all that great field. Time trials seldom win Olympic races, however, since the competition is so stern that more is required than mere speed of limb. Hahn has the heart as well.

The Frenchman, Martin, if properly coached, would make a lot of trouble for the best of them. He has the speed and courage, lacking only the finesse which a good coach could impart.

It may be that if Hahn is allowed to go abroad in sufficient time to prepare adequately for the test, the Nebraskan will take his place along with Sheppard, J. D. Lightbody, and Paul Pilgrim, whose names are synonymous with American victories in the middle distance Olympic events.

HIGGINBOTHAM TO JOIN SAN ANGELO CLUB

By United Press.
COLLEGE STATION, March 15. Roswell Higginbotham, assistant baseball coach of the Texas Aggies, expects to join the San Angelo club of the West Texas league this season. He will be unable to report until June 1.

Higginbotham was formerly in the Texas league with Fort Worth and at one time was with the St. Louis Cardinals.

A lot of fuss is being made over the Boston talking dog, but it's the talking cats that make all the trouble.

Seen any Irish around here? You don't have to ask it twice of a St. Patrick Day, and here are "seven of the finest ye'd hope to lay eye son." Do you know your Irish? Then, who are these seven. Look at their faces closely, and if you don't recognize them, look below for the correct identification.

1—Gov. Al Smith of New York; 2—Colleen Moore of the movies; 3—Oney Connolly, world champion "gate crasher"; 4—Senator Tom Walsh of Montana, head of the Senate oil investigations; 5—John J. McGraw, manager of the New York Giants; 6—John McCormick, king of the Irish minstrels; 7—Jack Dempsey, former heavyweight champion of the world.

Rail Line Being Laid Into Frozen Region Of Northern Canada

By United Press.
THE PAS, Manitoba, March 15.—The Canadian winter has generally been considered anything but an ally of those engaged in railway, or kindred works of construction. However, the contractors laying the steel into the Film Flon area, a mineral region adjacent to The Pas in whose development the Harry Payne Whitney interests of New York have a controlling share, are making a benefit rather than a hardship out of the frigid conditions prevailing in the north.

The first part of the 84 miles of line to be constructed and in operation by December 31 next is largely composed of muskeg, according to the recent report made by C. S. Gzowski, chief engineers of the construction department of the Canadian National Railways. At the present time this country is frozen over. After the spring break-up it will become soft and virtually impassable for heavy traffic.

Accordingly the engineers on the location realizing this, working under pressure night and day, covering the snow-bound territory by snowmobile, dog team and snowshoe, cleared the right of way for the first 50 miles. Over this they laid the track on the surface of the ground, blocking the low spots with timber and ties. This is only possible because of the extreme solidity of the ground.

It is expected that by March 20 the steel will be laid to Mile 50.

TEXAS NET STARS TO ENTER FLORIDA MEET

By United Press.
AUSTIN, March 15.—Wilmer Allison and Berkeley Bell, nationally known intercollegiate players of the University of Texas, are practicing for the southeastern tennis tournament in Florida, where they will play unofficially. This pair is expected to represent Texas university in the intercollegiate matches this summer.

Eastland Elks Plan Snappy Wrestling Program Tuesday

According to plans of the Eastland Lodge, B. P. O. E. high class wrestling matches will be staged at the Elks club in Eastland in which some of the leading grapplers are expected to participate.

The first show will take place next Tuesday night and will bring together in the main event Jack Gorman, 147 pound grappler of San Angelo and Nick Karavas, 147 pound mat artist known in wrestling circles as the "Boston Strong Boy." They will grapple catch-as-catch-can style, to a finish, best two out of three falls.

Several good preliminaries will complete the card. The semi-windup will be a one-fall match to a finish between "Smoky" Roberts, 225 pound wrestler from Breckenridge and Whitely Davis, Ranger heavyweight.

Mamos In Shape To Enter Ranger Arena With Giant Hoosier

Harry Mamos, 194-pound heavyweight, has recovered from an infected leg and will be in perfect condition to meet the giant Gus Hakensmidt, heavyweight of Evansville, Ind., on the mat at the Ranger Athletic club in the basement of the Gholson hotel, Friday night.

Mamos was scheduled to meet Hakensmidt last Friday night but was unable to appear and B. Demittraff, manager of the club, substituted for him.

The match scheduled for Friday will be the best that has been put on by the club since its opening. Both of the wrestlers have long lines of victories to their credit and have met some of the foremost wrestlers of the country.

Mamos' popularity in Eastland county is growing with each contest and he is proving to be one of the best wrestlers seen in this section.

Hakensmidt was knocked out at the end of the second fall in his match with Demittraff, but has recovered from a sprained neck and is in condition to meet Mamos.

Ringside seats have gone on sale and general admission can be paid at the door. There will be an abundance of seats for the match, each giving the spectator a perfect view of the arena.

THE STORY THUS FAR

Vance believes Skeel innocent of the murder of Margaret Odell and that he lay hidden in a closet while the strangled did his work. Markham ridicules the theory but Vance is unshaken. He shatters Cleaver's alibi of being out of the city the night of the murder and urges Markham to call Mannix in for questioning again.

CHAPTER XXXIV

Mannix took his time. It was a full minute before he spoke, and then it was to put another question. "Haven't I got a right to call on a lady—haven't I?"

could have entered her apartment was by the way of Apartment 2; and nobody who knew Miss Odell ever visited Apartment 2 except yourself."
At these words Mannix leaned over the table, grasping the edge of it with both hands for support. His eyes were wide and his sensual lips rung open.

NO

It was not fear that one read in his attitude; it was sheer amazement. He sat for a moment staring at Vance, stunned and incredulous. "That's what you think, is it? No one could've got in or out except by Apartment 2, because the side door was locked?" He gave a short, vicious laugh.

Graves of Heroes Of War Of 1812 To Give Way To River Levees

By United Press.
NEW ORLEANS, March 15.—The graves of more than 200 war heroes in Chalmette National cemetery, just south of New Orleans, must be disturbed after the occupants have slept peacefully since 1912. The removal of the dead, all in the "unknown soldier" section is made necessary by the recent decision of the Mississippi river engineers that an additional levee must be constructed through a part of the hallowed burial grounds to protect two southern Louisiana parishes from possible danger from high waters.

Investigation and soundings taken by engineers disclosed that the river bank was saving and that these giveaways were undermining the old levee. The new levee was determined upon as a double precaution against the recurrence of flood stages on the Mississippi.

The soldiers were killed in the battle of Chalmette when the Americans defeated General Pakenham's forces and thus stopped the British invasion of the southland.

On the majority of grave markers appear only numbers, corresponding with a similar number in old army records. These numerals aid cemetery officials in keeping track of graves. Now and then a last name or the abbreviation of a state appears on a marker, indicating that the occupant of the grave was at least partly identified before burial.

Chalmette cemetery is a show place. Its lanes and driveways, shaded by huge oaks and magnolias, attract tourists from all over the country.

Why does a man lie to his wife? Ask me another.

Many men lie to their wives when the truth would do just as well. The wives themselves are responsible for this because of the very simple fact that they always have a thousand million questions to ask about anything and a man can save answering many of them by omitting part of the story and substituting some of the parts not omitted.

In this way the more commonplace events may be made to take on an air of choice gossip while some of the more spicy items may have some of their tang extracted therefrom.

Having learned from an old experienced liar that women certainly like to hear things told in the way they like to hear them it is easy for us to understand why the line of the least resistance seems to follow the deviation from the absolute truth frequently.

Then, too, women get a great kick out of catching their husband in a lie. And when the said husband goes too long without getting caught in one, then the wife begins to suspect herself of losing her cunning and forces the poor boy to lie about something lest some of his honest statements be questioned in their authenticity because of the law of averages.

There is no set rule to follow. Our suggestions to husbands, particularly newlyweds, is to lie every time you get a chance and save the truth for occasions upon which it is essential. For whether you lie or not is a small matter, for you are constantly under suspicion and the veracity and probably truthfulness of your story is always carefully weighed by friend, wife, whether she advises you of same or not.

However, when you do lie, tell one that will stick and tell it so that it sounds possible and fairly conceivable when you have a good
