NO BASIS FOUND FOR AGREEMENT ON MINE STRIKE

Bituminous Conferees Adjourn to Meet Again Today; Anthracite Men Thursday.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Coal operators and miners' union officials, meeting here today at the behest of President Harding, buckled down to the task of reaching a basis for negotiating a settlement of the nationwide coal strike and in doing so resolved themselves into two conferences—one composed of those engaged in the bituminous industry and the other of those interested in the production of anthracite.

The bituminous conferees—by far the more numerous—agreed to meet again at 2 o'clock tomorrow. The anthracite representatives, after discussing with Secretary Fall the issues held responsible for the suspension of work in their districts, adjourned to meet again next Thursday.

Two days, it is expected, will be required to complete the trip to Marion.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., July 1.—Henrietta Spoonhord, 16, missing from her home here for several days, returned today with a tale of experience that moved authorities to investigate. The official notice, declaring that in the opinion of the union, $3.50 is the lowest wage upon which a man may feed and clothe his family, follows: "The common laborers affiliated with the Central Labor Union, take this means to notify employers and the general public that on and after July 3, the scale of wages will be a minimum of $3.50 per day. "We believe that this is the lowest wage scale upon which a man may live decently and clothe his family."

Four shots were fired, all of them taking effect in Jacks' body. The shooting occurred in front of the old Martin sanitarium, just off the southwest corner of the square, and was the outcome of an old trouble between the two men, according to officers. Both the men are jitney drivers.

Jacks' body is being held here pending instructions from his parents in Wichita Falls.

Buildings in Ruins, Hundreds Killed and Wounded, in Three Days.

DUBLIN, July 1.—After a comparatively quiet night, disturbed only at intervals by the noise of sniping, the citizens ventured into the streets today under the belief that the trouble had quietened. But while on previous days the fighting was confined to certain well defined sections, hardly any district today was quite safe and a sudden burst of snipers' fire from unexpected clashes soon drove the citizens back into their homes.

De Valera Directs Rebels. Eamonn de Valera and Charles Burgess, former minister of defense, are believed to be directing operations from the Gresham hotel. The irregular forces have sought to strengthen their defenses in this area by barricades of iron bedsteads, chairs, garden seats and barbed wire entanglements.

The Four Courts is now as much a ruin as the customs house and the postoffice. Nothing but the walls stand of the new library. All documents, including wills and court records, have been destroyed.

The casualties of the battle are as follows: Wednesday, 15 killed and 40 wounded; Thursday, 14 killed and 29 wounded; Friday, 13 killed and 107 wounded.

POLITICAL JOB HOLDER RESIGNS UNDER FIRE

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Members of the United States-Brazilian exposition commission were informed today by the White House that President Harding had received the resignation of Frank H. Harrison of Nebraska, a member of the commission. The resignation of Harrison recently was requested by five members of the commission, who charged that Harrison was not working in harmony with other members of the commission and that he had failed to keep his accounts in such condition as were desired by the commission.

Harrison in replying to the charges alleged that other members of the commission especially Head Commissioner Collier, had not conducted the affairs of the body along economical lines. He filed with the President, it was understood, a series of charges against Collier and those members who joined with the commissioner general in demanding his resignation.

Harrison's resignation was presented to the President along with charges he filed. He had previously announced that he had requested Harding several months ago to relieve him of his duties as a member of the commission.

TWELVE RANGER DRIVERS TO RACE ON JULY FOURTH

Big Fireworks Display Includes Many Brilliant and Novel Numbers.

Two Ranger drivers have already signed up and ten others are expected to enter the Fourth of July road race before Monday at noon, it was announced last night by the promoters of the celebration here. J. M. White, driving a Ford roadster, and A. L. Ward of the Prairie company, driving a Studebaker are the two drivers who have already paid their entrance fees. Sixteen or more drivers in all, from Ranger and neighboring towns, are expected to take part in the race, which will follow the course from Ranger to Caddo to Strawn and back. Numbers for the race will be drawn Monday night at 9 o'clock in the Chamber of Commerce offices.

The cars will start from the ball park, preceded thirty minutes by a pilot car. Their departure and return to Ranger will be marked by the shrill blasts of a large siren.

Fireworks Arrangement Complete. Preparations for a large crowd at the gigantic fireworks display Tuesday night are being made. Nitro park will be wired for electric lights to enable the crowds to find their way about without difficulty on entering and leaving the grounds. The Merchants' association band has been retained for the occasion.

The fireworks program will be opened by a salute of six large bombshells, which will be fired about 400 feet in the air, it is announced. James A. Boze, chief electrician for the Hamon road, in charge of the display, will then set off a smoke screen, a bombardment and lay a barrage across the field. Included in the forty-two numbers on the program will be the "aerial acre of variegated gems," produced in various color effects by the discharge of nine ten-inch bombs; two golden rain bombshells discharging fireproofs reaching to the ground, and various other spectacular numbers.

Morning and afternoon, there will be baseball games between the Ranger and Abilene teams.

Secrecy by the hospital officials prevented the report from being received at the state department of institutions, it was said at the latter place, until reporters had gleaned the news.

Gets 643 Votes Out of 924 After Hot Campaign; Women Take Big Part in Selection of Police Head.

H. S. Cole, leader in the recent liquor raids and vice war, was elected fire and police commissioner yesterday by Ranger citizens, who by an overwhelming majority for their candidate endorsed the work of the citizens committee. In the heaviest voting ever recorded in a special election here, Mr. Cole received 643 votes out of 924, or a majority of 362 over his opponent, A. R. Right.

The new commissioner will not be able to take office until the regular weekly meeting of the commission Tuesday, July 11, the meeting date this week falling on the Fourth of July.

Over two-thirds of the votes were cast during the afternoon. Starting out briskly in the morning at a rate of one a minute, the voting doubled and then tripled during the afternoon and evening, when 684 votes were cast, as compared with 240 cast during the forenoon. The negro vote was heavier than had been anticipated in many quarters.

The vote, as representative as it was large, was drawn from every section of the city and was largely made up of women voters. From the residence sections in the afternoon came the wives, mothers and daughters of Ranger men who had gone to the polls earlier in the day. Election officials were treated to the rare sight of mothers with children in arms or toddlers behind them appearing at the polls for the first time in their lives to take a stand in the affairs of the city. Other women, equally as determined to make their opinions

A police officer testified that he had had an interview with the prisoners this morning, when they had confessed that they had given the wrong names and addresses when they were apprehended for the murder. According to the police officer, Connolly said his correct name was Reginald Dunn, an ex-soldier, age 21 years. O'Brien said his correct name was Joseph O'Sullivan, also an ex-soldier, of the same age. They were committed for trial at the Old Bailey. Testimony was given by several police and citizens who witnessed the shooting.

STRIKE EFFECT NOT MUCH FELT ON FIRST DAY

Men Remain at Work in But Few Places, Reports Indicate.

CHICAGO, July 1.—With the countrywide strike of shopmen declared by union leaders practically 100 per cent perfect, the nation's great transportation machine continued to function today.

Railway executives were unanimous in their belief that the strike would have little effect on the operations of their roads and asserted that any move toward a settlement would have to come from the United States labor board or the employers.

B. M. Jewell, president of the railway departments of the American Federation of Labor, said that the only basis for a settlement was for the roads to agree not to put into effect wage decreases recently ordered for the shopmen by the labor board.

Chairman Hooper of the labor board declared in a formal statement that the power of the government coupled with public sentiment will give every protection to every railway employe who remains on the job and to all new men who take the places of the strikers in the present walkout.

Holiday Aspect. The walkout began in all sections of the country promptly at 10 a. m. and in many places took on the aspect of a holiday, the men singing and cheering as they threw down their tools. As reports came into union headquarters during the day, leaders asserted that ranks of the strikers would number three-fourths of the shop employes.

The only display of force recorded was at Beardstown, Ill., where several hundred shopmen, after failing to persuade four companions to join them in the walkout, picked them up bodily and carried them out. "We sent them home," the leaders were quoted as saying, "to avoid trouble."

In Chicago, where it is estimated 100,000 men are affected, no disturbances of any kind were reported and all of the roads claimed that both passenger and freight were being handled without interruption of any kind. Presidents of railways entering Chicago expressed determination to have no dealings with representatives of the striking unions. They declare the issue was not between the unions and railways but between the unions and the labor board. The executives also asserted that the strike was far from being 100 per cent perfect in the Chicago district, several thousand men remaining at work.

Two Roads Hold Men. The Illinois Central and Clover Leaf were reported to have been the least affected, although no exact figures are obtainable. The executives declared that only one of the Pullman shops had been unionized by Jewell's department and that this shop alone would be closed.

The construction department it was said will be available for the use of the railroads when repairs are to be made. Other car building plants, the Haskell and Barber shops at Michigan City, Ind., will be able to take care of repair work.

The labor board received assurance from the administration in Washington of complete backing on its policies.

CONTRACT LET FOR NEW KELL RAILROAD

WAURIKA, Okla., July 1.—Contract for the construction of a railway link between Byers, Texas, and Waurika, Okla., was awarded by the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railway here late today to Frank Kell of Wichita Falls, Texas. Work will start immediately.

The link will provide direct connection between Wichita Falls and Oklahoma City, it was said.

RAINS FURTHER WEST. ABILENE, July 1.—Fine rains fell over a wide section of West Texas Saturday afternoon, coming in the nick of time to make growing crops do their best. Lubbock, Slaton, Stamford, Haskell and Abilene were among the places which received good rains.

for duty would be given work and protection.

West Out Strong. From San Francisco it was reported that the walkout was more than 90 per cent effective in California, Oregon and Washington.

Reports from Atlanta said that upwards of 30,000 men in the southeastern territory answered the strike call.

The Pennsylvania announced that practically all its shophmen in the central region, extending from Altoona to Mansfield, Ohio, walked out.

SANTA FE ONLY CRIPPLED? TOPEKA, Kan., July 1.—John Purcell, in charge of all shop work on the Santa Fe, said that approximately 500 men out of a total force of 2,500 men here went out this morning.

Union officials countered this with the assertion that Monday will see the strike nearly 90 per cent effective. The shops here are the largest on the Santa Fe system, officials say.

The shops will open as usual Monday morning with every department in operation. Ample protection is promised all men who want to work, Purcell said.

The older men appeared to be saddened by the order which called them out. Some of the younger men cheered but there really was little demonstration.

OKLAHOMA STRIKE COMPLETE. By Associated Press.

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 1.—The strike of railway shophmen in Oklahoma was described today by union leaders as complete. More than 3,000 men were reported out. The greatest effect of the strike was seen at Shawnee, where 750 men struck at the Rock Island shops and 150 employed by the Santa Fe. Five hundred men quit work at the shops in Oklahoma and the Midland Valley, and nearly as many walked out of local shops of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas, Rock Island and Frisco.

Six hundred men were reported to have left the Rock Island shops in El Reno and 200 are said to have struck at the Frisco shops in Enid and 150 at Tulsa; 325 men left the Rock Island shops at Chickasha. All but two of the 177 men employed by several roads in Guthrie quit.

100 PER CENT AT MARSHALL. MARSHALL, July 1.—The Marshall shops of the Texas & Pacific, one of the largest establishments of its kind in the Southwest, was depopulated of its workmen at the stroke of 10 this morning, when every member of the six federated shop crafts affected by the strike order took off their overalls, wrapped up their tools and left.

THOUSANDS QUIT WORK IN SOUTH TEXAS SHOPS

HOUSTON, July 1.—With reports from various shops of railways entering Houston, it is indicated that the strike call was obeyed almost to a man. Approximately 2,000 men went out in Houston. These are principally Southern Pacific workers. About 500 went out at Palestine, where the I. & G. N. shops are located.

Five hundred left their jobs at Kingsville, on the Gulf Coast line. Other points employing only a few men, report the walkout complete. The only place so far reporting part of the forces remaining at work is Victoria, where the Southern Pacific employs about twenty-five members of the shop crafts. Only twelve left their posts there.

In every instance the men left their work in an orderly manner. No trouble is anticipated in this district.

TEXAS & PACIFIC EXPECTS TO MAINTAIN SERVICE

DALLAS July 1.—"Maintenance of regular service and protection of public interest" is expected by operating officials of the railroads in Texas, they said, following the walk-out of shophmen in connection with the nationwide strike. Operation of the trains almost on schedule is anticipated, according to a member of the M. K. & T. railroad operating staff here.

J. L. Lancaster, receiver for the Texas & Pacific road, announced an effort would be made to handle freight and passenger traffic as usual.

ORIENT EXPENSES CUT. SAN ANGELO, July 1.—Fifty-five Orient and eight Santa Fe shophmen went out on strike here. Seventy-six Orient employes walked out in Texas.

The burglar entered her room without pausing to look at the bed in which she was lying, Mrs. Bailey said, and when she asked what he was doing, said: "It is my error, I'm in the wrong room."

WILSON SLAYING LEADS TO AMERICAN'S DEATH

LONDON, July 1.—The assassination of Field Marshal Wilson last Thursday was the indirect cause of the death of John S. Saltus, a prominent American resident of Paris, said Ingelby Oddie, Westminster coroner, at an inquest over Saltus' body.

Saltus was found dead in his apartment at the Metropole hotel Friday morning, having swallowed cyanide of potassium the night before. From the evidence given before the jury, Coroner Oddie said, it was evident that Saltus had been deeply affected by the death of Wilson, and that it was highly probable that he took the poison by mistake.

Saltus had purchased 100 grains of cyanide from a druggist to clean old coins in his collection. He had mixed a solution in a glass and had then ordered ginger beer, placing the glasses side by side on his dressing table.

Coroner Oddie dismissed the suicide theory on account of the apparent absence of motive, and read a cable from Saltus' fiancée, Mrs. Robert James Campbell, now living in New York, which Saltus had just received. It read:

"Letters received. Great surprise and honor. Am happy, but not well. Going to sanitarium. Let's remain true friends for the present. There is no one but you. Be cheerful and hold your own. Love. Estelle."

The assistant manager of the hotel, testified that when he found the body, two fingers, badly burned by the acid, were in the mouth, showing that Saltus had tried to empty his stomach when he discovered his mistake in drinking the poison.

BRITISH DOCTOR PLANS CURE FOR SEX INEQUALITY

LONDON, July 1.—Sex determination to redress sex inequality. The war has supplied the problem. It has left Europe with a surplus of 25,000,000 spinsters, and Britain alone with almost 2,000,000.

Dr. Leonard Williams, the noted Harley street physician, thinks he has found the answer. It lies in the application of his theory of sex determination, expounded in a recent medical association address, to ensure the birth of more boy babies.

Mothers who wish for sons may receive injection of the male interstitial gland. If they do, says Dr. Williams, they will mother men.

"It has long been known," said Dr. Williams, "that the reproductive glands preside over the determination of the secondary sexual characteristics—such as the beard and the bass voice in the man and the smooth skin and treble of the woman.

"Administration of the male or female interstitial gland to the expectant mother will determine the sex of the child to be born."

Future generations could thus be organized so that more boys are born than girls and, in the event of war, such a preponderance of woman as exists in Europe today need not occur again.

MOTHER'S TELEGRAM STOPS WEDDING OF BOY AND GIRL

CHICAGO, July 1.—A telegram to the police from a frowning mama, who lives in Texarkana, Ark., slowed up the plans of her sixteen-year-old daughter, Allie Wise, and Clarence Williams, twenty-two, for an early marriage.

Williams, who met the girl not long ago when working in Texarkana, recently wrote her and enclosed $40 to pay her carfare to Chicago, so that they might be married.

SCENE FROM "THE SON OF WALLINGFORD" One of the most exciting climaxes ever screened is seen in "The Son of Wallingford." The hero, heroine and juvenile are entrapped on a lake of burning oil. J. Rufus Wallingford and his partner, Blackie Daw, struggle with the people of the town to prevent the sluice gates from being opened to empty the water from the lake, thus imperiling the lives of the three young people.

A new $400,000 high school was recently opened at Bethlehem, Pa. This school, the newest model in modern educational institutions, will house pupils representing more than 40 nationalities.

SWIMMING POOL MODESTY DEBATED BY EDUCATORS

DETROIT, Mich., July 1.—"Are swimming pools conducive to immodesty?" Members of the Detroit board of education have taken up opposite camps in debate on this question. It arose with the development that pupils in some of the city's public schools bathe in the swimming pool entirely naked.

NOTED HOTEL GIVES UP GHOST TO PROHIBITION

NEW YORK, July 1.—Semi-secret restaurants where drinks and gaiety still are on tap have driven Hotel Claridge, long a Broadway institution, out of business. L. M. Boomer, its president, announced today.

The Claridge, once the famous "Rector's," having been built by Charles E. Rector, of Chicago, will close its shutters Aug. 1. Morris Glazer, Cleveland, has leased the property, and will convert the lower floor into stores and the upper floors into bachelor apartments.

Mr. Glazer's rental for twenty-one years will be $5,000,000.

Mr. Boomer's announcement attributed the downfall of the Claridge to "unequal enforcement of the Volstead act by prohibition officers."

"While the Claridge has obeyed the act implicitly, nonenforcement of the eighteenth amendment in other places has led the public to places where liquor is procurable," he said.

The Claridge, overlooking Longacre square, in the heart of the white-light district, has been the haunt of famous theatrical and motion picture stars for years. It was built in 1912.

THIS RAILROAD STRIKE.

Whatever the consequences to the country, the strike of 400,000 railway shopmen must undoubtedly be of serious consequence to both the roads and their employees.

It has too often been pointed out that the wage gains made even by a successful strike can never equal the cost of winning for that to be any longer effective as an argument. Technically, it is true that the workmen will lose more in two weeks' idleness than they will gain in a year if they should win their contentions. Practically, that may not be true, for the men not at work will give more heed to expenses than when the necessity of spending a pay envelope confronts them every week. However, it is a mystery how they will continue to meet grocery bills, house rent and the like without a continuous income.

The railroads, on the other hand, will by paying increased wages to strikebreakers, to whom the scale set by the labor board will have no meaning, through the employment of extra men as the guards and other inevitable expenses that arise, will in a short time spend more than the saving that is theoretically made by the wage cut.

Thus, whichever wins, both sides lose.

It is one of the principles of America that men shall stand for their principles and what they conceive as justice, regardless of cost. In that way alone can industrial disturbances of the extent of this one be justified. If one side failed to contend for its rights there would be no stopping the aggression of the other, and for this reason both perhaps feel that the test of strength is well worth while.

It is unfortunate for American industry that such disturbances should occur. The participants get black eyes. The innocent bystanders get kicked in the solar plexus. And whoever is doctor gets neither payment nor thanks for his trouble.

Perhaps some day America will stop this sort of thing, but how, is not apparent. The labor board was conceived for just that purpose, but it failed. To give such a government agency power to enforce its decrees on both men and money would be a dangerous precedent, for if this is to remain in part a free country, men must have some say as to what their job is worth and capital some say as to what it can pay.

This present controversy has two sides. Both have good arguments. So take your choice and pray that they get together.

E. M. Humes Leaves for Los Angeles; Will Open Store There This Fall

E. M. Humes, until recently the head of one of Ranger's best known stores, left last night for Los Angeles with his wife, after disposing of his business here. Mr. Humes expects to open up a woman's specialty shop in that city in October and explained that while he was well satisfied with the success of his business ventures in Ranger had met with that he was seeking larger fields. During his residence in Ranger Mr. Humes took an active part in the civic and business life of the city and it was under his administration as president of the Retail Merchants' association that the two scrip issues were launched and successfully carried out. He served as trustee for both the Guaranty bank and the Farmers & Merchants bank issues. He planned the organization of the Ranger band and headed the trade trips of the organization into the surrounding territory last winter. Mr. Humes' business career in Ranger was successful from the first. Arriving here in June, 1919, he opened up a soft drink stand near the Prairie camp with a capital of $400. Being an experienced ladies' ready-to-wear man, he later embarked in that line, first opening a store on Marston street and later moving to the Main street location.

WHY BRIDGE IS SO MUCH FUN!

At a recent party a certain matron who is a dreaded adversary in cards on account of her temper, pounced on a younger woman, who was just learning to play and said: "My dear, if I could not play cards any better than you do, I would stay home until I learned how." And the younger woman, hurt to the quick by the unkind calling down, came back with this Roland for her Oliver: "Really, Mrs. Blank, if I did not have prettier manners than you have, I would stay home until I learned some!"

As a result four people were decidedly uncomfortable, and these two had broken a law that is as old as the hills, for they had forgotten that they were guests under another roof, and therefore broke all the rules of hospitality. In the olden days, one who took salt under another's roof was bound to him by the ties of hospitality, but in these days many of them bring the paprika of their tongues with them and not only criticize other guests but often the hostess herself. It's a deplorable fact that women are often called "catty," but it has been brought on by just such things as the above.

CHILDREN'S PARTY.

Judging from the color scheme used in and about the Saunders Gregg home, at a party given in honor of the two sons of the home, Lewis and Saubito, Friday evening, one could not help but conclude that the glorious Fourth is just around the corner. Everything carried out the idea of the national holiday. A soda pop stand decorated in flags and red, white and blue bunting, was formed in one corner of the spacious porch, and here soda pop and ice cream cones were supplied by the dozens. Needless to say, it was a popular resort.

There were many novel and entertaining games, suggestive of the day. In a marshmallow race Charles Terrell won the prize, a stick of red candy, while in a wheel-barrow race, Wilbourne McFarland and Roy Jameson were the lucky ones, winning a jar of candy. All the games were played out in the yard and were entered with a truly American spirit.

Those invited to enjoy this pleasant party were Bill and Charles Terrell, Kenneth Weir, Martha Marie Gholson, Nicol Crawford, John and Martha Williams, Dixie and Scott Neal, Elizabeth Brock, Elizabeth Valliant, Cecil Chenoweth, Mary Edlow Davenport, Glenn Cox, Wilbourne McFarland, Roy Jameson, O. B. Davenport, Marvin Green, Bobbie and Frances Fouke, Dorothy Outlaw, Emily and Howard Fitch, James Smith, Finis Langston.

YOUNG MATRONS' CLUB MEETING.

Mrs. J. T. Gullahorn entertained the Young Matrons' club this week, and in bridge the high score favor, a serving tray, went to Mrs. L. A. Vandervoort, and the low score favor, a bud vase, to Mrs. E. E. Crawford.

The hostess served a sherbet and cake course to her guests, who were: Mmes. Charles Conley, Frank Brantley, L. A. Vandervoort, A. J. Orth, C. C. Craig, C. O. Terrell, D. M. Steele, E. E. Crawford, Howard Gholson, Ed Maher, Leo Terry, L. L. Rector, and Miss Rita Davenport.

TWENTIETH CENTURY WITH MRS. DENNING.

Mrs. William Denning of the Cooper addition was hostess to the Twentieth Century club Friday afternoon. The house was attractively decorated in masses of wild flowers. The high score favor, a set of tea glasses, went to Mrs. F. A. Brown, and the low score favor, a lovely basket of fruit, went to Mrs. Frank Reames. The guest prize went to Mrs. William Love and was a cut glass powder box. Refreshments of orange ice and angel food and devil's food cake was served.

Those present were: Mmes. E. J. Wiss, Mary C. Blair, E. L. McMullen, N. D. Gilson, Frank Reames, A. Neil, F. A. Brown, Walter Clune, James Cole of Tulsa, William Lowe, J. C. Martin, J. Scott Blair.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. J. F. Champion.

A SURPRISE PARTY.

A few evenings ago when R. B. Waggoman returned home from the day's work, he was agreeably surprised to find a number of his most intimate friends waiting for him, and to receive their most vociferous birthday greetings, for it was his birthday, and not only had they remembered enough to come in person to extend felicitations, but they also brought with them birthday gifts. These gifts would appeal to any boy no matter how many years he had attained, as there were balls, balloons, firecrackers and lots of other boyish gifts. After he had unwrapped each gift and tried it out, Mrs. Waggoman invited all of the party into the dining room, where she served a three-course dinner, with fried chicken being the piece de resistance. The table was very prettily decorated with a vase of flowers on a mirrored, ivory wreathed surface. Covers were laid for Messrs. J. T. Gullahorn, Walter Murray, Lytton R.

ROTARY ANNS HONOR GUESTS.

The meeting given by the Rotarians of Ranger in honor of the Rotary Anns of Ranger, at Shamrock park on Friday night, was one of the most delightfully informal affairs imaginable. Anticipation was on tip-toe from the very minute the clever invitations were received by the Rotary Anns and those who accepted and were "among those present" were in no ways disappointed, for their hosts lived up to every word of their invitations.

Contests were unique and hilarious. One was a lemon and rose contest, and since men are accustomed to having a lemon handed them, they naturally lost out in this contest, and Mrs. L. A. Vandervoort carried off the honors, receiving as a prize, a bottle of toilet water. Another was a contest founded on a guess at the total waist measurement of all Rotarians present. In order to facilitate this, the ladies were given as favors tiny four-foot tape measures, in ivory cases, embossed with the Rotarian emblem and slogan. Mrs. Howard Gholson was successful in this contest, her guess being 936 inches, while the actual measurement was 921 1-2. The gentlemen were given favors of match boxes in ivory cases, embossed with the Rotarian slogan and emblem. Rotary hats played their part in the general good times.

A plate lunch served at cafeteria added much to the pleasure of the evening. Mrs. Gus Coleman presiding at the piano, furnished music for those who cared to dance.

Dancing and games continued until a late hour and were enjoyed by the following Rotarians and Rotary Anns: Messrs. and Mmes. Gus Coleman, R. B. Waggoman, S. B. Tunnell, S. P. Boone, C. E. May, John Gholson, Karl E. Jones, J. A. Pitcock, E. E. Crawford, C. O. Terrell, Ed R. Maher, J. E. T. Peters, H. R. Gholson, J. S. Echols, O. D. Dillingham, J. E. Milford, L. A. Vandervoort, H. S. King of Breckenridge, J. R. Brantley of Atlanta, Ga.; Misses Clampitt, Helen Albin, Evelyn West; Messrs. Gullahorn, A. Joseph, Earl Taylor, Quick, John Thurman, Gifford Clegg.

The next meeting will be a departure from the regular meetings, and will be a picnic and swimming party at Sinclair lake on Thursday evening. Cars will leave Mrs. V. E. Ashford's home at 7 o'clock.

CHILDREN'S PARTY.

Little Miss Mary Edlow Davenport entertained a number of her friends Saturday afternoon from 5 to 7 o'clock at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Davenport. The Fourth of July motif was carried out. The flag race and many games were enjoyed on the spacious veranda which had been made very attractive with pot plants and flags.

Refreshments of marshmallow pudding and cake were served. Flags and red, white and blue caps were given as favors.

Those present were: Misses Evelyn Lory, Juanita Davenport, Marguerite Adamson, Martha Williams, Cathryn Odum of Belton, Anna Maud Bedford of Eastland, Elizabeth Barrett, Charlotte Ratliff, Cathryn and Madge Davenport of Eastland, Wilma Joe Jones, Elizabeth Valliant, Cathryn and Maril Galloway, Elizabeth Davenport; Cecil and Max Chenoweth, Andrew Pat Jones, Lewis and Saundito Gregg, Billy and Charles Terrell, Billy Barrett, Brantley Cole, Max Ratliff, Jack Galloway,

OL' LADY LUCK BEATS NITROS OUT OF GAME

Lubbock Wins, 5 to 4, When Nitro Machine Skids Twice.

A miscalculation by Clayton and a perspiring hand attached to Dude Craig cost the Nitros a tense ball game yesterday, 5 to 4. It was hard to see two of our most energetic Nitros fall from grace, but those things will happen, as the restaurateur explained about the fly in the pie.

Previous to these direful happenings, which were not unaccompanied but drew the limelight because of their fatal consequences, the Nitros had been traveling at a fast gait, grouping their smashes nicely in a couple of rounds and heading off the Hubbers every time they threatened. Parson Pyle was transferred from right field to the box, in order to give him a rest from the arduous chases of the last few days, and for six innings he blanked the Hubbers, pulling out of bad holes in two innings—once by fanning Jawn King with the bases full.

Hard Luck. The break came after the Nitros by consistent hitting in the first and fourth had driven in a four-run lead. In the seventh came Clayton's hard luck, after a walk to Brooks and Speegle's triple with two out had given the Hubbers their first run. With Earnshaw at bat, a short passed ball rolled about six feet back of the plate. Speegle dashed in and was safe on a close play, as Clayton elected to make the out himself instead of tossing to Pyle. Earnshaw held his ground in the box and was very much in the way, but it seemed to make no never minds.

That gave the Hubbers two runs and made the Nitros shaky. The Parson was nicked for three successive blows in the eighth, which drove in one run, and he deflected Dockery's throw to the plate, which had driven Swenson back to third and allowed the tying run. Worse than that, Langford, who had driven out the rap, took second as the ball bounded to the grandstand. He counted the winning run when the ball slipped from Craig's hand as he was throwing it back to the diamond after Brooks had hit to center. Except for this accident, the game would probably have ended in a tie, as rain was bearing down on the field as the last out was made in the ninth.

Scared of Pyle. The Nitros made a last ditch comeback in the ninth in the midst of a sandstorm that almost blew the diamond away. Ammons for the second day in a row pinch hit successfully, and the Parson was purposely walked, to the great disgust of the crowd. He was forced at second when White rapped to Brooks, but Phillips, running for Ammons, reached third, and the gang pinned hopes on Craig. Dude rolled to Earnshaw, who fumbled the ball in a cloud of dust, but recovered in time to make the play at first. It was a fine ball game, even including the accidents. Jimmy Flagg played short in big league style; Craig robbed Brown of a real hit by going straight into the fence, with two on in the ninth, and members of both teams handled chances in snappy fashion.

Mickey Is Back. Mickey Guydas, who played several games with the Nitros early in the season, and his brother George are the newest bolsters in the Nitro lineup. Both betrayed a little nervousness, but each contributed a knock to the Nitro scoring and Mickey redeemed two errors that cost nothing by nice catches and stops.

As an added attraction, Guber waxed argumentative and derisive toward Umpire Jones in the fourth and was chased. His vigorous protestations were shared by Sled and both got the gate. It took about fifteen minutes to clear them out of the park, and even then it didn't stick, so far as Sled was concerned, he betraying a fondness for viewing the game through the cracks in his doghouse.

WEST TEXAS GAMES

TIE AT SAN ANGELO.

SAN ANGELO, July 1.—Sweetwater and San Angelo battled to an eleven-inning 6-6 tie, stopped by darkness today. Each club had thr, game on ice twice but it got away, due to a muddy field that prevented a double-header and caused many fatal errors. Scoggins' single, following Clairborne's hit and theft of second, enabled the Broncos to knot the count in the ninth, after Muns relieved Howell in the first half with two on and one out. Three Swatters struck out in the ninth. Pitchers Badger and Trammell were released by the Broncos today.

THIS POLICE CHIEF NOT SEEKING A LIFE OF EASE

MANITOWOC, Wis., July 1.—Herman Boettcher, recently appointed fire chief at Reedsville, does not propose to have the aphorism, "the devil finds work for idle hands" apply to him. In addition to his newly acquired job, Herman holds several other positions in the village. He is the village marshal, speed cop, street commissioner, tax collector, and commissioner of noxious weeds. When he isn't busy with official duties he devotes his time to gardening.

TWO NEW COMERS MAKE BIDS FOR BATTING HONORS

CHICAGO, July 1.—Lawton Witt, the Yankee's outfielder, today is on the heels of the batting leaders of the American league with the prospects of becoming a dangerous contender for first place honors.

In seventh place a week ago, Witt connected with ten hits in his last six games, and batted his way into fourth position. George Sisler, the St. Louis Brown's star, continues to lead the race with an average of .429 compared with .434 last week. Harry Heilmann of Detroit displaced Tris Speaker of Cleveland for the runner-up honors with an average of .381. Speaker is three points ahead of Witt, his average being .374. These figures include games of Wednesday.

Other leading batters for forty-five or more games: O'Neill, Cleveland, .368; Cobb, Detroit, .367; Blue, Detroit, .359; Ed Miller, Philadelphia, .352; Schang, New York, .350; Bassler, Detroit, .349; Hooper, Chicago, .326; McManus, St. Louis, .325. Lawrence "Hack" Miller, the strong man of the Chicago Nationals and former slugger of the Pacific Coast league, has started a climb among the National league batters that is attracting considerable attention. Miller slammed out twenty-two hits in his last eighteen games. This boosted his average from .330 to .358, and landed him in third place, according to figures which include games of Wednesday.

Rogers Hornsby, of St. Louis, continues to top the batters with an average of .393. He has run his string of home runs to sixteen, which is far in front of his rivals. Hank Gowdy of Boston is the runner-up with a mark of .383. Other leading batters for forty-five or more games: Bigbee, Pittsburgh, .356; Daubert, Cincinnati, .354; Kelly, New York, .351; J. Smith, St. Louis, .350; Baneroff, New York, .343; Grimes, Chicago, .342; Duncan, Cincinnati, .340.

PHILADELPHIA, July 1.—Babe Ruth made three home runs in the Yankee-Philadelphia double-header today, bringing his seasonal total to eleven. The first was made in the first game and the second and third in the fourth and seventh innings, respectively, of the second game.

The third home run was one of the longest ever seen here. The ball went over the roofs of the houses opposite the ball park. There were six home runs in the second game. Besides Ruth's two, Walker made two, giving him a season's total of fifteen. Ward and Welch made one each.

The race was over a distance of a mile and a half for a purse of $15,000; $2,000 of this went to Yoshiami, who finished second, and $1,000 to Olympus. The time for the mile and a half was 2:35 4-5.

HIGHER RETAIL PRICES IN FALL ARE PREDICTED

Levels in Primary Markets Rising as Consumers Postpone Buying.

NEW YORK, July 1.—A belated trade for fall is accompanied in the primary markets just now by preparations for next spring's business.

Conditions remain confused as yet, and many of the arrangements, consequently, are tentative in their character. Much depends on the results of the retail buying which now is in progress and which has not come up to expectations in all respects, a result partly due to weather conditions.

Consumers still are coy and are not disposed to buy until they really are compelled to do so, although this applies more particularly to men than to women.

One impelling force is the growing belief that present prices are lower than future ones will be, as would seem to be indicated by the fact that levels in the primary market seem to be rising constantly without corresponding increases at the retail counters.

Higher Prices Indicated.
Growing cost of raw materials and the added burdens threatened by the proposed tariff, point in the same direction of higher prices in the immediate future. So, certain forehanded persons now are buying to avoid paying more for things later on.

But, even at that, the volume of business is less than it should be. What will happen if the suggested price increases go into effect and the public attitude does not change, appears to be problematical. It has been likened to the old matter of an irresistible force meeting an immovable body.

In April the balance of trade in favor of this country, so far as concerns merchandise, took a large jump upward. It was larger than for any month since October, 1921, and was nearly equal to that of February and March combined.

Yet the net imports of gold in April were the smallest of any month in years and were only about one third of those of the month previous. These gold imports have shown a tendency to dwindle ever since this year began.

How far this indicates a disposition to extend credit abroad is a question. But of one thing there is no question. This is the greatest offsetting of American exports by the so-called invisible exports of other countries, especially the European ones.

Formerly the spectacle was presented of a yearly excess of exports from this country of $500,000,000 or more than the imports into it, while at the same time gold was exported from here.

Big Profits Drawn.
This was due to several causes. One of them was the large amount of dividends or profits drawn from

To the Citizenship of Ranger:

I am seeking the office of Justice of the Peace of Place No. 2 (now filled by Hon. J. N. McFatter), this precinct and county.

I am an attorney at law by occupation, my business address is 311 Guaranty Bank building; my residence address is 433 Marchbank avenue, Lackland addition. I have lived in Ranger over a year and a half and I expect to make this city my future home and permanent domicile. I am married, have one child, my age is 35 years.

While the statutes do not require of incumbents of the office of Justice of the Peace any certain educational attainments, I believe that a candidate with a legal education and training should deserve your consideration. The office being judicial in its nature, a legal training is highly indispensable to a proper and intelligent discharge of the duties involved. I think that the question of qualifications of a justice of the peace is an important one to the citizenship of Ranger, and believing that I have those qualifications necessary to a proper administration of the duties of that office I trust you will seriously consider my candidacy between now and the 22nd of July.

Since there has been some inquiry and discussion as to my religious affiliations, and although I consider it a more or less personal matter, I am free to say that I am a humble member of the First Presbyterian church of Ranger and one of the board of trustees of that church.

If I am elected to the office of Justice of the Peace, I will discharge my duties faithfully and conscientiously, without fear or favor to any person or group of persons. If elected, I will try cases brought to me according to the law and evidence, without partiality to any one. I have never held public office.

Although I have been in Ranger less than two years, I have many friends here, and I am sure that if I am elected to this office I will have, at the end of the term, a still greater number of friends in Ranger and vicinity.

Faithfully yours,
MILTON T. LYMAN.

REAR ADMIRAL ASKED TO AID IN CHINA

Rear Admiral Straus

Rear Admiral Straus was asked by Jacob Gould Schurman, American minister to China, to rush gunboats to Chinese waters when shells, fired by the warring Chinese factions, struck American buildings in Canton.

foreign investments in the securities of this country or delivered from real estate and from manufacturing or other establishments in which capital from abroad was a factor. Another was the matter of service, which took various forms, such as ocean passenger traffic and freights, insurance and reinsurance. Still another was the incomes of Americans living abroad. Aside from all these was the large sum spent by travelers on business and pleasure trips and the no inconsiderable amount sent by foreigners to their kinsfolk on the other side of the Atlantic.

There has been of course, considerable change in some of these items since before the war. A number of American securities were sent here in payment of obligations incurred during the conflict. These, however, came mainly from Great Britain.

But there still is considerable foreign capital invested here, and the dividends on it remain an offset to purchases. This is also true as to the incomes of Americans living abroad.

In all of the directions the outlay of American money is growing larger.

IN MEMORIAM, SISTER ETHEL RAWLS BROWN

We, your committee, appointed to draft resolutions respecting the death of Sister Ethel Rawls Brown, beg to submit the following:

Whereas, our Sister has been removed from our midst, and we meet her no more through our daily walks of life, therefore be it resolved;

By Ranger Chapter No. 275 Order of the Eastern Star, we do not the less mourn our Sister who has been called from her labor on this earth, to her labor in that beautiful isle somewhere beyond. She was a devoted Christian, a member of the Methodist church, and like Mary, whom Jesus loved, stood ever at the foot of the cross of suffering humanity, ever ready to extend the hand of sympathy in sorrow, and aid in misfortune. She was Past Worthy Matron of this Chapter, and one that her sisters and neighbors loved, and we believe her to have exemplified in her daily life, the heroic heroines of our five pointed star.

Be it further resolved that this Chapter has lost one of its truest and oldest members, her church a faithful christian, and her family a devoted wife, mother, sister and daughter.

And be it further resolved that these resolutions be spread on our minutes, a copy sent to the various members of her family, in this sad hour of loss, in token of love and friendship from our Chapter.

Fraternally,
GRACE DREINHOFER,
CORDIE McFARLAND,
J. F. DREINHOFER,
Committee on Resolutions.

HUNS WANT TO TUNNEL UNDER BRITISH CHANNEL

PARIS, July 1.—A huge war reparations plan under which the Germans would reconstruct France and also build the long planned tunnel under the English channel has been submitted by the minister of public works, M. Letroquer, to Premier Poincare, who has laid it before the French minister of the reparations committee. The plan involves the use of German labor and materials to the extent of twenty billions of francs. The newspapers assert that if Germany is able to carry on the construction of railways and telegraph lines at home, she is able to reconstruct the war torn areas in France and also to help build the canals, electric power plants and railways which are needed in France and which are now under partial construction.
