COOLIDGE IS NOMINATED FOR PRESIDENT

ANYBODY NOW IN RACE FOR VICE PRESIDENT

First Curtis to Fore, Then Kenyon and Now Saunders Is Mentioned.

CLEVELAND, June 12.—With the nomination of Coolidge disposed of by what the chair ruled as a unanimous vote except a loud "no" from Wisconsin, the convention recessed shortly after 2 p. m. in a turmoil over the vice president situation. Word was handed down by William Butler that Judge William Kenyon of Iowa was his choice, but it only served to stir up revolt among the senators and congressmen in the state delegations. Kenyon was brought out after another announcement by some of the Coolidge managers that Senator Curtis of Kansas was their choice. When it became evident that there was a division among the Coolidge managers, Willis of Ohio and Indiana leaders came out against Kenyon and the New York delegates suddenly became lukewarm for Kenyon. Senator Reed of Pennsylvania left the floor for a conference with Butler. Congressional bloc on the floor is especially bitter against the move towards Kenyon. Pepper of Pennsylvania said that he was for Congressman Saunders of Indiana.

Hoover May Seem Reluctant, But In Acquiescent Mood

WASHINGTON, June 12.—Herbert Hoover, secretary of commerce, will accept the republican vice presidential nomination if actually nominated, those close to President Coolidge believed here today. Hoover's refusal to allow the California delegation to present his name was taken as final. He has at no time said definitely that he would not accept the nomination if nominated. He has confined his statements to declaring that he does not want the vice presidency and his actions may be to prevent his name being forced into the open in advance of the nomination. It is regarded as probable that his hesitancy is based on a real desire not to be pushed for the job and thus not be placed in the position of being open for it and suffer the humiliation of being turned down. He is regarded as susceptible to draft. While his personal wishes are against it, he feels obligated to his party to take the vice presidential nomination if the choice falls on him. His course in the past week as merely stating that he does not want the job and refusing to permit friends to put his name up is held to reflect his own wishes in the matter. If he really intended to turn the past down in any event, he would, like Borah and Lowden, make it plain that under no circumstances would he take the nomination.

RANGER SHRINE CLUB PLANS ANOTHER PICNIC

The Ranger Shrine club held their regular meeting Tuesday night in the club rooms at the Gholson hotel and after a short business meeting which was attended by a large number of the members plans were discussed in regard to having another picnic after the success of the last one. A. Joseph, F. A. Brown and Dr. A. N. Harkrider were appointed as a committee to formulate and carry out plans for a chicken barbecue that will surpass the last one. The committee decided that the picnic will be held at the next week probably the 18th.

Today Has Claims To Distinction and So Has Tomorrow

In addition to the distinction of being the 12th day of the month of June in the year 1924—a day that will never return, today has another claim to add to its glory. While less exclusive than the first, the second will arouse more interest. This is the sixth month of the year 1924, and the twelfth day. As written by many in a hurry, the date would appear 6-12-24. It will be many years before such a cubical combination appears again. And if these two claims to distinction be not enough, it may be remembered that tomorrow will be Friday, the 13th day of the month, familiarly spoken of by the foolish as the "double-Jinx." Bad fortune may appear to harass some on the day of the double-Jinx and good fortune is sure to come to many, but in any even on such a day, and equally on every other day, it is just as well to watch one's steps.

PAINLEVE HAS OPPONENT FOR FRENCH CHIEF

President Doumergue of Senate Aspires to Be Elected President of France.

PARIS, June 12.—Party caucuses to select a president of the republic were held today. Leaders of the left, having driven Alexander Millerand from the Elysee, sought to combine behind a candidate who would be certain of a majority at tomorrow's election. Paul Painleve's chances still were considered best, but smooth sailing towards the presidency which appeared to lie before the president of the chamber of deputies was somewhat ruffled today by the attitude of President Doumergue of the senate. Doumergue, who has ambitions to be the 13th president of France, even if elected on Friday, the 13th day of the month by the 13th legislature, is reserving his decision, which suggests a possibility of his becoming an independent candidate, which would split the chamber's vote.

BANK BANDIT KILLED, COMPANION CAPTURED, BY OKLAHOMA OFFICERS

BLANCHARD, Okla., June 12.—A bank bandit was killed, another captured and a deputy sheriff wounded in a gun battle between three bank robbers and two officers near here today. Claude Lee, 25, one of the three men who robbed the First State Bank at Washington yesterday of $1200, was killed by Deputy Sheriff Oscar Morgan, when he resisted capture. Morgan was slightly wounded in the exchange of shots. Guy Wilkerson, 27, was captured by the two deputies. The third robber escaped. The entire loot was recovered. Lee and Wilkerson had split the haul and over $1,000 in bills was found in their pockets. The deputies found their quarry after all night search on the highways between here and Washington. Lee emptied two revolvers before he was shot down. Wilkerson surrendered.

EARTHQUAKE CAUSING REIGN OF TERROR IN BALKAN PENINSULAR

ROME, Italy, June 12.—Newspapers today announced that several earthquakes were felt in the Balkan peninsula since Monday, especially at Cech Nevesnyie, in the Bosnia-Herzegovina district, where several buildings collapsed and scores of occupants killed. The population of the stricken towns are camping in the woods. The center of the disturbance apparently is in the vicinity of Moscar. Thus prediction of the fanciful banditi seismologist is fulfilled.

POSTMASTER AT IVAN RECONSIDERS RESIGNATION

BRECKENRIDGE, June 12.—When the day came for civil service examinations to select a postmaster for the Ivan postoffice at a salary of $1,100 a year there were no applicants. For a time it looked as if the job would go begging, but L. D. Kennedy, former postmaster, who had resigned, reconsidered his resignation and again took up the work of looking after the Ivan postoffice.

Republican Nominee for President

CALVIN COOLIDGE

PRESIDENT COOLIDGE MANAGES ALWAYS TO KEEP CLEAN HIS DESK; IS VERY HARD WORKER

By R. A. BRADFORD (United Press Staff Correspondent)
WASHINGTON, June 12.—President Coolidge is one of the hardest working presidents that ever occupied the White House, according to "old timers" at the chief executive's office. "If you notice, you always will find Mr. Coolidge's desk clean, as clean as a wiped-off slate," a White House attaché of long service said. "President Coolidge is an indefatigable 'digger' in his work. When he is searching for information on some subject, he never stops 'digging' until he gets it." The late President Harding did a formidable amount of work, the old employes at the presidential offices declare. Mr. Harding had been "in the saddle" for years in the handling of government business—as the result of his service in the senate—and he knew what to do in the White House. Mr. Coolidge's chief characteristic is to dispose of every piece of detail that comes to his desk in the executive office each day before going to the White House proper for the night, it is said. Of course, some decisions that depend on further developments must be held over.

staff are coming to the conclusion that the job of president is becoming too big for any one man to handle. The deaths of both Mr. Harding and Mr. Wilson were attributed to the burdens of the presidency. Speaking of the presidential burdens and their frequent urgency, the old attaché said: "I remember, after the stroke that gave the strictest orders that no question whatsoever and no matter how pressing to be placed before President Wilson for decision. Only three hours after those instructions from the doctors, a paper of such importance came from the state department that it simply had to be up to the president."

LA FOLLETTE CONGRATULATES THE WISCONSIN DELEGATION

CLEVELAND, Ohio, June 12.—Senator Robert M. LaFollette in a telegram received this afternoon by Governor J. J. Blaine, of Wisconsin, a delegate to the national republican convention, said: "Please convey to every member of the Wisconsin delegation my profound feeling of admiration for the gallant fight you have made. Wisconsin is proud of you. You have vindicated the principles of progressivism. Millions of progressives are watching your fight and admire your steadfastness." (Signed) "ROBERT M. LaFOLLETTE."

PUPIL SEES RESEMBLANCE TO ONCE FAMILIAR FRIEND

DALLAS, June 12.—When W. C. Lemon, vice president of the board of education, paid a visit to an elementary school in company with J. F. Peeler, district superintendent, Peeler asked the class if they recognized the gentleman with him. After a few minutes, one small boy timidly raised his hand. "Do you know who this is?" asked the superintendent. "No sir, but I know who he looks like." "Who?" asked Peeler. "Patty Arbuckle."

KENYON SPRINGS TO FRONT RANK FOR NOMINATION

Butler Opposes Curtis and Later's Supporters Likely to Be Cowed Into Subjection

CLEVELAND, June 12.—Amazing developments within the ranks of the Coolidge managers developed while the convention was in session today that made another complete turnover in the vice presidential situation, and forecast the nomination of Judge William S. Kenyon of Iowa instead of Curtis, Borah or any other candidate. Senator Reed Smoot of Utah told the United Press on the floor of the convention that the nomination of Kenyon could be regarded as a virtual certainty. Pennsylvania and New York delegates during the morning endorsed Curtis. They gave such endorsement on the understanding that one of the closest advisers to the president had passed out word that Curtis would be acceptable to the white house. After arriving at the convention hall, however, they began to get information that something was wrong. They were told that if the fight for Curtis was stressed, William M. Butler, campaign manager for Mr. Coolidge, would take the platform himself to oppose Curtis. New York and Pennsylvania delegates immediately decided they should have another caucus. A recess immediately after the nomination of Coolidge consequently was forced to enable the delegates to straighten themselves out. It was understood that both New York and Pennsylvania would reconsider and switch their endorsement to Judge Kenyon. It was apparent there was a division among the Coolidge managers.

WHALE OF A FIREMAN TAKES DIMINUTIVE BRIDE

HOUSTON.—"Big Boy" McLean, the city's biggest fireman, chose a diminutive bride in Miss Thelma Diskey. "Big Boy" is 6 feet five inches tall and weighs 225 pounds. The bride is four feet ten inches in height and weighs around 100.

PLATFORM JUST AS WANTED BY MR. COOLIDGE

Republican Convention Adopts Creed Which Has White House Indorsement.

CLEVELAND, June 12.—A platform following completely the desires of President Coolidge stands adopted by the republican convention, which today was to name him as the party's standard bearer. After hours of wrangling within the resolutions committee, the platform was formally presented and adopted at last night's session. A mighty shout of "yes" greeted the question for adoption, while defiant shouts of "no" came from the Wisconsin delegates when the negatives were called for. Back of this defiant shout was the drama of the present convention breaking of bonds that will result in an independent ticket being presented to the country at the progressives meeting, to be held here July 4, and headed by Senator Robert M. LaFollette.

Japan Selecting New Ambassador To United States

TOKYO, Japan, June 12.—The Japanese government is giving most careful consideration to the question of the Washington ambassadorship, regarding it at the present time as of vital importance. Hayashi, now ambassador to London, is likely to be retired temporarily and will be succeeded by Mathu or Ishii. It is presumed that Hayashi will be sent to Washington.

Mrs. Sherman Is Named President Of Women's Clubs

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 12.—Mrs. John B. Sherman of Estes Park, Colo., was elected president of the General Federation of Women's clubs in yesterday's balloting, according to reports at convention headquarters today. Official returns were to be announced this afternoon. She was a two to one favorite over Mrs. Wallace T. Perham of Montana, it was indicated. Mrs. Edward S. White of Indianapolis was the only candidate for first vice president, while Miss Florence Dibert was unofficially reported chosen second vice president. Mrs. James Hyes of Georgia, was elected recording secretary and Mrs. Florence C. Floore of Cleburne, Texas, treasurer.

CAR GOES ON JOURNEY ALL ON ITS ACCOUNT

EL PASO, June 12.—When Leland Hart returned to where he had parked his auto and found it gone, he immediately notified the police. At midnight the long arm of the law found his car, head-on against a front porch of a house. Hart had parked his car at the top of a hill. It had started on a tour of its own and finally nestled against the porch. The occupants of the house heard the thud, but thought it was just an explosion nearby.

DALLAS HIGH GRADUATE HAS RECORD TO BE PROUD OF

DALLAS, June 12.—The school record of Miss Eva Williamson, member of the graduating class of Forest Avenue high school here, is one for other students to shoot at. From the time she started school she has missed only one day and a half from her classes and has never been tardy. In addition to that, she hasn't missed Sunday school in nine years and has been late only twice.

NEW CANADIAN RIVER BRIDGE FORMALLY OPENED

OKLAHOMA CITY, June 12.—Kansas and Texas joined hands today in celebration of the actual opening of the new Canadian river bridge. Fifteen thousand persons, including the governor and high officials took part in the ceremonies. The gigantic span at last completes the Meridian highway, connecting Mexico, Canada and the United States. The place was jammed with visitors.

LONGVIEW.—The high tension electric transmission line between this city and Gladewater is nearing completion. Considerable use of electricity in rural homes along the line is likely to be arranged.

REPUBLICAN PARTY CHOICE FOR PRESIDENT

Calvin Coolidge Now Goes to People With His Record Asking Endorsement.

MUNICIPAL AUDITORIUM, CLEVELAND, Ohio, June 12.—Calvin Coolidge today was formally selected to lead republican voters to victory or defeat at the polls next fall. As the climax of one of the most extraordinary conventions held by the party in years, the president was given an overwhelming vote of confidence for another term in the white house amid scenes of cheering applause and unrestrained demonstrations by the delegates and the galleries.

The nomination of the president marked the emergence of a new leadership in the G. O. P.—a leadership of New England. The so-called senate oligarchy passes as the dictator of the party organization with the rise of this new leadership. The convention's choice was acclaimed by a wild din as the delegates and galleries whistled and applauded the formal nomination of Mr. Coolidge was accomplished by the extraordinary clever and eloquent nominating speech by Dr. Marion Leroy Burton, president of the University of Michigan, a personal friend of the president. Dr. Burton departed from his set speech to engage in humorous sallies at his audience, and spoke entirely without a manuscript. He was distinctly a hit with the convention.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—The wire in the white house telegraph room today clicked off a message for Calvin Coolidge, saying, in its cool, impersonal way, words to this effect: "You have been nominated."

Behind that message lies the romance of the poor boy who came at last to the greatest eminence his nation knows. With those words opened a vista through which he could see ahead the goal of a full term of that high place—a term in his own right. Between him and that lie the obstacles of the campaign, but in great moments men do not see obstacles, but only goals. The Calvin Coolidge who today got that message is an older, somewhat wearier man than he who was called by the sudden turn of destiny to occupy the white house in August, 1923. He has had, between then and now, the burden of the presidency upon his shoulders and his heart, and the thrill that today's message brought must have been tempered somewhat by knowledge. The president knows that he faces a fight for election and that, if he is elected, his pathway will be hard and long. Four years ago, in Chicago, "Jimmy" Reynolds had Calvin Coolidge's presidential boom in his pocket. Reynolds didn't tell it abroad at first, but that boom was really a vice presidential boom, and with consummate skill he worked things so that Coolidge was the vice presidential nominee.

In March, 1921, Mr. Coolidge took his oath as president of the senate and assumed the not too arduous but rather deadening duties of that office. He succeeded the effervescent Tom Marshall, whose sense of humor was so active that not even senate routine could dull it. But Mr. Coolidge seemed not to mind the dragging hours of senate debate, or the more or less purposeless parliamentary bickerings. He applied himself from the beginning to mastering the intricacies of senate rules, and so well succeeded that he was voted a fair and intelligent presiding officer. Too, he afforded occasional glimpses to some of the senators of a Coolidge they did not suspect—one with a sense of humor and a chatty humanness. He came to be well liked, and was always respected, though he was not, as Marshall had been, a "chummy" vice president.

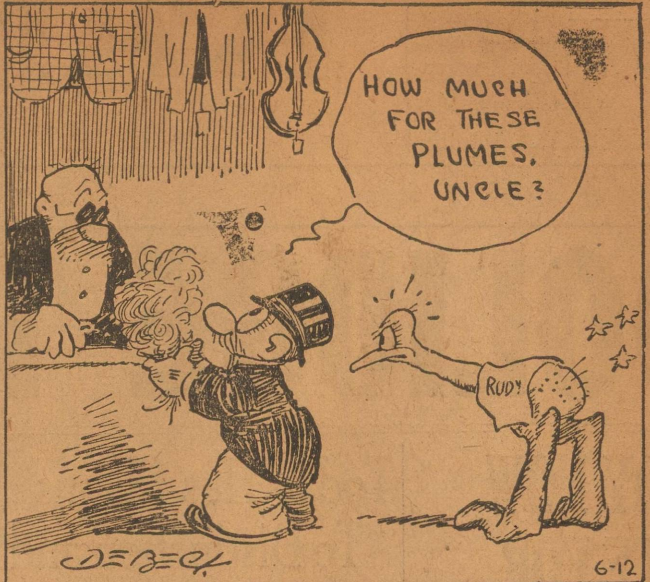

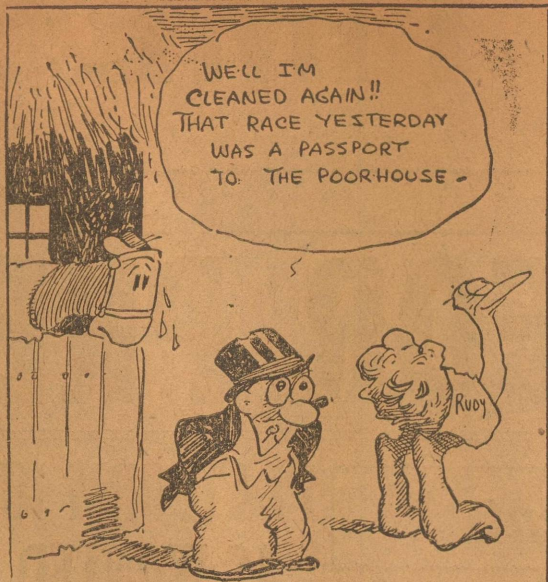

Called to Presidency. When, in the early morning of Aug. 3, 1923, Mr. Coolidge was notified of the death in San Francisco of President Harding, he took the oath of office from his father amid a setting as romantic and as fitted to the American tradition of simplicity and democracy as any recorded in the nation's history. He stood up in the vague light of kerosene lamp, in the parlor of a Vermont farm house, far from any suggestion of majesty or pomp, close to the eternal hills, and there accepted the responsibility which thus had come upon him out of the night.

It was on a farm in the same state that he was born, amid the patriotic manifestations of July 4, 1872. He came of Puritan stock, and his youth was no stranger to hard work and to the homely training of the region and period. He got out of the primary school and was sent to the Block River and St. Johnsbury academies, as preparation for Amherst. His classmates at Amherst couldn't quite make Coolidge out. He had by (Continued on Page Two.)

 This time developed Yankee reticence to a fine art, so that, though he was not regarded as unfriendly or a "grouch," he was not among the popular boys in the college. But he was liked. The fellows couldn't seem to get close to him, that was all. He has always trod a lonely path, judged by other people's standards, but there are evidences that he never felt lonely.
 After his graduation, Coolidge was admitted to the bar, and with characteristic practicality, while practicing his profession, he devoted himself at once to the field in which his inborn faith told him his destiny lay—politics. He started at the bottom of the ladder, and from that time on he moved up, step by step, to the amazement of politicians and laymen alike, who never have understood the secret of his success. Perhaps they do not properly estimate the power of faith.
 Elected Governor.
 Minor offices in Northampton, Mass., were followed by election to the Massachusetts house. Then he was twice mayor of Northampton, and after that presiding officer of the state senate. In 1915 he became lieutenant governor of the state, and in 1918 governor.
 The Boston police strike brought him into national prominence. There has always been some dispute about Coolidge's part in putting it down, but whatever the facts about that, it made Coolidge's name known and opened the way for his nomination as vice president.

 Outwardly there is little change in Coolidge since he became president. He seems not to have taken on or lost a pound of weight. His habits have undergone no change. He has adopted no new practices, political or personal, despite his changed circumstances. Just as he clung to his faith in his early years, so today he clings to the ways of his youth.
 Washington subjected him to a cold and somewhat cynical examination, but he seemed unperturbed by it. His callers soon found that, when he thought the occasion called for it, he could display a sense of humor he proved to be astonishingly well informed.
 Mrs. Coolidge, who, as Grace Goodhue, a school teacher, was once warned by a white house guard not to touch the gold piano in one of the

CURTIS AGREED CANDIDATE FOR VICE PRESIDENT

By United Press.
 CLEVELAND, June 12.—Senator Charles Curtis of Kansas, republican whip of the senate, was agreed upon early today as the administration choice for the running mate of President Coolidge, and is expected to be nominated as vice president in an early ballot. The Illinois delegation will give him 41 votes on the first ballot, according to the Coolidge leaders. He will be acceptable to the wheat states bloc which has demanded a nominee from the middle west, and little opposition to him is expected from any source.
 This development came after emphatic statements by Senator William E. Borah of Idaho that he would not accept the nomination for vice president under any circumstances.

CURTIS BELIEVED TO BE IN RECEIPTIVE MOOD
 By United Press.
 WASHINGTON, June 12.—Senator Curtis of Kansas will accept the republican vice presidential nomination of it is offered to him, but he declined to make any statement this morning when notified of the agreement of leaders at the republican convention to pick him as the administration vice presidential candidate. Those close to him, however, say he will accept.
 Curtis is said to feel that it is a great honor to receive the vice presidential nomination and one not to be turned down. It was said he was reluctant to make any statement without direct word from the convention, but there was no doubt what his answer would be.

This is because Kellogg's Bran is ALL bran. Nothing but ALL bran can be so effective. This is what she wrote:
 "Gentlemen:
 I am so wonderfully happy over my discovery, I feel I must tell the world about it. For years I have been ill continually from constipation, never getting relief to pills or other means. I heard of your permanent relief and I heard of your Krumbled Bran.
 Every morning I take two table-spoonfuls before my breakfast—and since the latter part of August I must admit have not experienced one sick spell which I have had for years. I have started my little girl of four years on your Bran, and already I have noticed a change in her. I thank you.
 Name and address furnished on request. Write the Kellogg Co., Battle Creek, Mich.
 If eaten regularly, Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, is guaranteed to relieve permanently the most chronic cases of constipation. Eat at least two table-spoonfuls daily—in chronic cases, with every meal. Money returned if not effective.

DAMAGES AWARDED TO G. H. FINE HURT WHILE WORKING ON CISCO DAM

A verdict for approximately $1,600 for the plaintiff was the result of the trial of the case of G. H. Fine vs. London Guarantee & Accident company in the 91st district court. The case had been on trial two days. The jury returned the verdict late Wednesday evening.

Fine fell from a scaffold at the Cisco dam last summer while engaged as a laborer there and sustained injuries from which he claims that he still suffers. He was covered by an insurance policy, carried by his employer, which paid him $20 per week for such time as he was unable to work. These payments have been paid weekly but the defendant sought to collect the amount of $20 per week for about 400 weeks in a lump sum. The jury gave him $20 per week for 80 weeks, payable weekly.

COST OF MEETING KING COMES RATHER HIGH

LONDON, June 7.—The cost of being presented at court has soared this season to stiffer prices than were ever known before.

The proud papa of a society bud who is scheduled to blossom at a court ball can count himself lucky if he gets off for as little as $5,000. Its a cinch the bills will not be under that and they may be anywhere above it, clear on to the bright, blue sky as a limit.

The biggest part of the bill, of course, is the court dress. The white plume fan, the feathers, the train the veil, the gloves, the flowers, everything must accord with the rigid specifications provided by the lord chamberlain. Before the court season commences the British, American and other debutantes and matrons who are to be presented to the king and queen spend many weeks at dressmakers and hair-dressers.

NEW SPECIES OF YAM POTATO BROUGHT TO TEXAS

A new species of yam or sweet potato has been discovered in Florida, the origin of which is unknown. Recently some of these potatoes were sent by Prof. E. P. Simpson of Little River, Fla., to Dr. David Fairchild, director of the experimental division of the U. S. department of agriculture, and some of these rare potatoes have been sent to H. M. Madison, general farm and immigration agent of the S. A. & A. P. railway for planting on the experimental farm of the railway. The remarkable quality of the new yams is that the yams grow both in the ground attached to the roots and on the vines and the yield is said to be very large. The ground yams attain an unusual weight while those growing on the vines are smaller but are produced in large numbers. The yams above the ground have a black skin and perfectly white meat.

YOAKUM, June 12.—The largest tanning plant in the south is located at Yoakum, Texas. ### BRAZIL'S NAVY OLD.

SOUGHT FOR YOUNG GIRL RIO DE JANEIRO.—The Brazilian navy is gradually being reorganized, with the assistance of a mission from the United States navy. President Bernardes is averse to spending any large sums on the navy, although Brazil has a vast coast line. With the exception of two battleships, the Brazilian navy is composed of antiquated and in part obsolete vessels. Of her 10 destroyers, eight are now in the drydocks for repairs. The president holds that Brazil cannot at present afford heavy naval expenditures and that it should make the most of the fleet it now has, gradually substituting modern ships; Brazil was armed 27 years ago.

CARNEGIE MEDAL IS U. S. MISSION AIDING

SAN ANTONIO.—A move is under way to secure a Carnegie medal for Alma Mercer, 10, who saved her 11-year-old playmate, Harriet Dale, from drowning after the latter had been knocked unconscious by a stone thrown by boys while the girls were in swimming.

QUANAH.—For some time, Quanah has had a brand new band stand, but no band to grace the structure. Plans have now been made whereby a band is to be organized at once so that the band stand won't be just a mere ornament.

CLIFF DWELLERS' RUINS AROUSING INTEREST IN PRE-HISTORIC AMERICA

WASHINGTON.—The National Geographic societies' expedition headed by Neil M. Judd, is now working in the ruins of Pueblo Bonito, New Mexico, giant "apartment house" of prehistoric homes. More than 300 rooms have been cleared and many kivas, or circular ceremonial chambers, already have been exposed. The explorations revealed that Pueblo Bonito was a busy village within a single dwelling. When inhabited, it stood four stories high, included some 800 rooms, and sheltered 1,200 or more persons.

No written record or hieroglyphic inscription was left by these ancient Americans. But it already is possible to piece together their life story from the evidence of the silent walls of their abandoned rooms and the scattered objects recovered from their deserted dwelling. Their daily activities, their civic organizations, their communal enterprises and their struggles against more warlike tribes can be pictured. It is evident that the Bonitians, who lived in what now is the Chaco Canyon National Monument, in northwestern New Mexico, probably had the most pretentious ### settlement in the southwestern United States in pre-Columbian times.

With the penetration of the Pueblo Bonito ruins, the early history of America has begun to attract world interest—an interest being augmented with the sending of a national geographical society expedition to uncover the great mound of Cuicuilco in the valley of Mexico, which may be 8,000 years old.

HOUSTON.—While lurking in the shadows to kill a man who had done him a wrong, the would-be murderer heard the words of an old hymn, which so affected him that he went to the nearby tabernacle from whence the song emanated and turned over his gun to the Rev. H. L. Haughton. At the same time he confessed to the pastor that he had intended killing a man, but after hearing the old hymn, changed his mind.

DON'T EXPERIMENT WITH "PIMPLE CURES"

Do you think so little of your delicate skin and face as to allow yourself to become the subject for experiments. By all means use only the thing which has stood the test of time and public opinion to get rid of your pimples, blotches, bumps, "breaking out," eczema, etc. Black and White Ointment, and Soap, have not only stood this test, but you are sure of it—when you know that they are selling at the tremendous rate of more than two million packages a year.

The way they are economically priced, in liberal packages, has helped to make them so popular along with their dependability. The 50c size Ointment contains three times as much as the 25c size. All dealers have both Black and White Ointment and Black and White Soap, as they are called.—Advertisement.

ORDINANCE IN RANGER FORBIDS STREET LITTER

Scattering of Handbills and Circulars Barred as Public Nuisance; Not Enforced.

The city of Ranger has had an ordinance prohibiting the scattering of cards, circulars, handbills, etc., in the public places and yards of the town for the last three years. This ordinance has never been enforced and yet the ordinance specifically states that it is regarded as a public nuisance and punishable as such. Early in 1920 when the ordinances of the city of Ranger were being passed upon there was one under the heading of "public nuisance," and which stated that "scattering or distributing any advertisements, circulars, cards, handbills, announcements or other paper of like character upon any street, sidewalk, alley, park, public grounds or within any public buildings," is forbidden as a public nuisance.

Violation of this ordinance by any person, firm, a corporation or association of persons, is punishable by a fine of not less than $10 or more than $100 and each day that such violation shall continue is to be deemed a separate and distinct offense and punishable as such, says the enactment.

This ordinance has never been enforced in Ranger, while Breckenridge, Cisco and Eastland are all enforcing the same ordinance in their towns.

ORDINANCE IS BEING ENFORCED IN EASTLAND

Eastland has an ordinance against distributing circulars and other literature on the streets and in the residence section of the city and so long as such is the law it will be enforced, according to a statement made Wednesday by Chief of Police Elmer Lawrence of Eastland. A number of people have had to pay fines for violating this ordinance, Mr. Lawrence said.

Another ordinance, which was passed sometime ago but which has never been observed to any great extent, is that forbidding dogs to run at large without tags, which may be secured only by paying the license fee of $1.50. The ordinance is also being vigorously enforced.

Chief Lawrence says the Eastland people are very agreeable about traffic rules and regulations and says that he is having very little trouble along this line. All seem to be pretty well posted on the rules and perfectly willing to obey them. He said that markers will soon be placed along the curbs on the streets, indicating just exactly where cars should and should not be parked.

Mr. Lawrence and Constable Shepherd paid an unexpected visit to a "crap" game a few nights ago and as a result several dollars were added to the fund in the city's treasury.

Rotarians Going To Mineral Wells To Dine Tomorrow

Twenty-five Ranger Rotarians have signed up for the trip to Mineral Wells Friday evening to attend the dinner to be served by the Mineral Wells Rotarians. An attendance contest between the two clubs recently was won by Ranger, which during a period of six weeks had a larger percentage of its members at the weekly luncheons than did Mineral Wells.

Those who are going will meet at the Gholson hotel a little before 5 o'clock Friday evening, at which time the start will be made. Those who have automobiles are requested to bring them along and give a lift to those who have no cars, else the latter will have to walk.

The Ranger Rotarians, at their weekly luncheon, Wednesday, voted $50 for the public nurse's automobile fund that is being collected by the Child Welfare Club.

JUDGE DAVENPORT TO MAKE OPEN-AIR ADDRESS IN RANGER TONIGHT

Judge George L. Davenport, who is seeking re-election as judge of the 91st district court, will be heard in an open-air address in Ranger at 8:30 o'clock tonight. It is to be an open-air discussion of campaign issues with a presentation of his claims to be returned to the office he has so ably conducted. Chairs will be provided for the ladies, who are not only invited, but are urged to attend.

Judge Davenport has extended an invitation to his opponent, Judge Jones of Eastland, to address the voters of Ranger at the same time, offering to divide time with him. It is expected, too, that many other candidates for office in Eastland county will speak a few words announcing their candidacy, but these introductions will have to be brief, as the chief part of the evening will be occupied by Judge Davenport and Judge Jones.
