ANTI-KLAN FIGHT ON CONVENTION FLOOR

TERRIFIC STORM IN NORTHERN OHIO

JOE JONES IS CHARGED WITH INGRATITUDE

Candidates for Office District Judge Engage in Joint Debate at Eastland.

Judge George L. Davenport and Judge Joe Jones, candidates for the office of judge of the Ninety-first judicial district, the former seeking re-election after serving one term and the latter seeking promotion from the office of county judge-at-law, engaged in joint debate in Eastland Friday night. They spoke in the courthouse square, their large audience being seated in chairs and benches on the courthouse lawn.

In this debate, as in previous debates, much was said about former County Judge Starnes and an ouster petition presented against him which Judge Davenport had denied, Judge Jones claiming that denial of this petition which might have resulted in the removal of County Judge Starnes, had been instrumental in causing the loss of several million dollars to Eastland county.

Judge Davenport had the opening and closing of the debate. In his rejoinder, he said that, notwithstanding Judge Jones was saying harsh things about Starnes, he was a guest in the Starnes' home last Christmas, "sipping wine and playing poker with him." That further, Jones had been associated in the oil business and, by reason of deals put over by Starnes, Jones had made approximately $20,000; that Jones had accompanied Starnes to Dallas on a business trip and there engaged in a poker game with Starnes and others and had been a big winner.

"He seems to have used Starnes so long as it was profitable and until he wanted to run for office, and now has turned against him and is making charges of graft against him," Judge Davenport said.

Local Wheat Fields Producing Well and Grain Testing High

The local wheat fields are doing exceptionally well this year, producing from 20 to 30 bushel to the acre. It is testing from 62 to 64 pounds to the bushel and is as good as it has ever been in the past, according to Mr. Jones of the K. C. Jones Milling Co., Ranger.

The first prize of $5, for the best flower garden, went to Gladys Maddocks, 700 Sixth avenue. Second prize of $2.50 for a flower garden went to Opal Smith, South Hodges street.

The committee found many other fine gardens deserving honorable mention but not awarded prizes because the children received some help in caring for them. These gardens belonged to Leo Healer, Clara Barker, Georgie Bryant, Beulah Lee Miller, Doris Murray, Thurman Taliaferro and Juanita Smith.

BAPTISTS ATTENDING FIFTH SUNDAY LAYMEN'S MEETING, PLEASANT HILL

Many members of the Central Baptist church will attend the fifth Sunday laymen's meeting, being held today at Pleasant Hill, nine miles south of Cisco. Many from Ranger attended the banquet Saturday night, at which Dr. A. K. Weir was one of the principal speakers.

An association of laymen was formed with Mr. Lary of Gorman elected president. The vice presidents are Dr. A. K. Weir, Ranger; B. W. Patterson of Cisco, and A. L. Kelley of Breckenridge.

The association includes members from Shackelford, Eastland and Stephens counties.

The B. Y. P. U. convention will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at Pleasant Hill, with a large representation from Central Baptist church. Mrs. J. N. Poe of Merriam will address the gathering on "The Doctor's Spitzirinkum and the B. Y. P. U."

WOMAN WILL BE SUGGESTED FOR VICE PRESIDENT

Mrs. Leroy Springs of South Carolina to Be Placed in Nomination.

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, NEW YORK, June 28.—For the first time in history a woman will be proposed for the vice presidential nomination. Mrs. Leroy Springs, national committeewoman from South Carolina, convention beauty and politician extraordinaire, has been chosen from among the thousand feminine politicians at the convention to open the way to the White House for women. She will be placed in nomination for vice president of the United States by the state delegation from South Carolina.

"Of course, it is only a compliment and I do not expect to be nominated," Mrs. Springs confided. "But nevertheless I appreciate the honor for myself and for the women of my party."

The "fledglings" at the convention are jubilant. They count it as a victory, first, that the democratic women are the first to produce a woman for vice presidential timber, and, second, that they are getting recognition from the convention of which they have boasted.

Mrs. Springs is the first woman ever to be named as chairman of an important convention committee—chairman of credentials committee. She is one of the leaders on the woman's committee to nominate McAdoo, and she has twice addressed the national convention, one time when she seconded the nomination of McAdoo for the presidency.

DESERTED GIRL FOUND BY FATHER AND AIDED BY CHIEF DAVENPORT

Nina Tompkins, 15, and without a home, who was sentenced by County Judge Jones Friday afternoon to five years in the state reformatory for alleged misconduct, was the grateful recipient of a "good Samaritan" act by Chief of Police Davenport of Ranger, who got her sentence suspended and sent her home to her father in Illinois on yesterday's Sunshine.

Chief Davenport said that when he returned from Eastland Friday afternoon he found a letter from the girl's married sister in Louisiana stating that they had just found out conditions existing here for the girl. Miss Tompkins' mother was supposed to be here, but at the present time her whereabouts are unknown and the girl was left stranded here.

The parents of the girl have been separated since she was a year and a half old, and the father, who had been acquainted with the facts of the situation, sent money for her expenses to join him in Illinois.

Delegates Face Threatening Storm In Early Afternoon

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, NEW YORK, June 28.—Thoroughly crushed in the issue of the Ku Klux Klan, the democratic national convention met at 3 o'clock this afternoon. The session was fraught with every possibility of the most sensational meeting in political history. Talk of possible rioting was heard on every hand. Two hundred extra policemen were ordered on duty inside the historical Madison Square Garden and reserves were ordered to hold themselves in readiness for duty.

After one of the most dramatic sessions the resolutions committee ever held, at which members stood with head bowed in prayer as Bryan besought Divine guidance, Cummings reported to the convention that an agreement had not yet been reached on the Klan plank. A recess was then taken until 3 this afternoon. In the meantime Ed Moore of Ohio, leader of the anti-Klan faction, is planning a coup for this afternoon which would unquestionably throw the convention into a turmoil. Moore's temper has been aroused to fever heat. If the committee still was not ready to report at 3, he threatened to demand the floor and move that the committee be discharged from further consideration of the Klan plank. The planks would then be submitted to the floor, and for the first time in political history, religious issues would be fought out in the open convention with all the bitterness that invariably arises. Everywhere temper was rising. Factions were so far apart that state delegations started quarreling among themselves. The candidates feared to make any statements for fear that they might become involved. Old, experienced leaders saw even a possible wrecking of the party on this question of religious tolerance.

The McAdoo forces at noon were claiming mildly that the outlook was for the adoption of a plank that would not specifically name the Klan. "The outlook is most promising," Judge Rockwell said, "and the judgment of the wisest men in the party is about to prevail. By that I mean that the platform will reflect a national party's views rather than the local views."

PACKING COMPANIES MUST LET GOVERNMENT INSPECT THEIR BOOKS

CHICAGO, June 28.—Books of the five big packing companies must be opened to the department of agriculture, Judge Adam C. Blisse of the federal district court ruled here today in dismissing the petition for a permanent injunction against the department brought by Wilson & Co., Cudahy & Co., and Swift & Co., last fall.

Department officials attempted to examine the records during an investigation of an alleged monopoly of food products. Attorneys for the companies announced an appeal would be taken to the United States supreme court.

MUSSOLINI WILL NOT ATTEND INTER-ALLIED CONFERENCE

LONDON, June 28.—Premier Mussolini of Italy will not represent his country at the inter-allied conference on reparations next month because of the internal situation in Italy following the murder of Deputy Matteotti by the fascisti, a Central News dispatch from Rome said today. The Italian ambassador in London probably will represent his country, following the lead of the United States in naming Ambassador Kellogg as the American observer.

GREAT ORATORS FIGHT BATTLE ON THE FLOOR

Convention Votes Not to Name Klan in Platform; Baker Also Loses Contest.

By United Press.
MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, NEW YORK, June 28.—The official ballot on adoption of the majority report of the resolutions committee on the plank relating to religious toleration denouncing the Ku Klux Klan without mentioning the order by name was: yeas, 543; noes, 542.

The democratic party will not go before the country in the November election with a plank denouncing the Ku Klux Klan by name. Also it will not conduct its campaign upon a basis of a pledge of entrance into the League of Nations.

These two momentous points were decided by the convention when it adopted the majority report of the resolutions committee after defeating minority reports which would have denounced the Klan by name and committed the party to the League of Nations, without first obtaining a referendum vote.

From 6 o'clock until nearly 2 o'clock this morning the battle raged. Two hours of debate was permitted on each subject. The League of Nations question came first and the convention was moved to the heights of emotion by a remarkable speech by Newton D. Baker, former secretary of war in President Wilson's cabinet.

William Jennings Bryan made a supreme effort for those who sought to avoid mention of the Klan. A long list of speakers appeared for both sides. The sentiment of the convention seemed anti-Klan, whether the hooded order was to be mentioned or not.

The convention adjourned at 1:55 o'clock this morning until 9:30 o'clock Monday, when balloting on presidential nominations is expected to begin. Adjournment was taken on a viva voce vote.

NEW YORK, June 28.—Anti-Klansmen lost their fight in the resolutions committee for a plank denouncing the Ku Klux Klan by name.

After a brief session this afternoon, the committee voted, 34 to 16, to include in the democratic platform a plank pledging religious freedom, but without mentioning the Klan. A minority report was also prepared to be submitted to the convention, and leaders of both sides said the fight would be concluded on the floor.

A dramatic debate was in prospect. Bainbridge Colby would lead the debate for the anti-Klan plank, it was reported, and William Jennings Bryan would speak for the plank leaving out the name of the Klan.

Senator Owens Pleads.
Senator Robert Owen of Oklahoma, selected by Homer Cummings to lead with a 15-minute speech for the majority report containing no reference to the Klan.

"This is not a question of the Klan winning or losing. The question is merely whether the democratic national convention shall stigmatize the Klan by name as being guilty of acts of injustice. Let it be understood that I would not support any organization, the Klan or any other, that would trample on the rights of our citizens."

"It probably is true that they go about doing midnight frolics in their nighties. There may be criminals among the Klan and some of them do carry on repressions. But they are outside of the Klan organization and criminals do not wear that badge. He spoke of his own feeling of friendship for the Catholics and the care of him taken by negroes.

Does Not Fear Klan.
"From Jews we have received blessings of the Bible," he said. "Our Christian church was founded on the doctrine of a Jew and when the great war came we did not ask a man if he was a Catholic, Gentile or Jew. Shall we now use this question to promote or demote any candidate whatever. When we hesitated to put this issue into the platform they said that we were afraid to mention the Ku Klux Klan. I am not afraid of the Klan, politically or any other way. We licked the stuffing out of the Klan candidate for governor in the recent election."

He asked if this convention wished to pass condemnation of the members of the Klan without evidence from the other side. Shouts of "yes" from anti-Klansmen were heard. Owen asked for no indictment of the Klan until the Klan had presented its case.

"We are offering you a splendid plank and ask only that you apply the concrete fundamentals to it. We do oppose condemning the Klan unheard. We do oppose any organization interfering with religious rights (Continued on page two.)

Naming the Ku Klux Klan as an insidious secret political organization that is attempting by deceit and fraud to gain control of the politics and affairs of Eastland county, Judge Davenport severely criticized and denounced that organization. Judge Jones made only few references to the Klan in his defense of the organization, declaring that it was not an issue in the present campaign. Each candidate spoke for an hour and then Judge Davenport had a rejoinder of a few minutes.

Judge Davenport recalled the Klan's activities in the last political campaign in Eastland county in which, he charged, they practiced deceit on the voters in that their candidates denied affiliations with the Klan and thereby induced people to support them who would not have done so had they known they were Klansmen. He said that they could not do it this time and therefore were seeking to inject false issues into the campaign in order to divert the attention of the voters from the Klan and its activities. "They cannot do this," he declared, "because the people are onto their methods and will vote them out at the coming primary."

Klan Buys Newspaper

Judge Davenport said that the Klan would tell you it was not in politics, but that this was not true. To support this statement he said the Klan put a ticket in the field in the last election, that virtually all its candidates were elected and many were running for re-election this time. He said that to further the political interests of the Klan and its candidates in the county that the Klan had purchased the "Oilless Beltless Newsless" paper in Eastland and made it their organ. As soon as the Oil Belt News became the property of the Klan it began a general attack on the district judges of the county, doubtless believing that both he and Judge Hill, of the Eighty-eighth district court, would be candidates and it has been the policy of that publication to make any kind of a charge against the district judge, and especially himself, that would tend to create a prejudice against them in the minds of the people, he said.

Judge Jones, he said, is making a rather peculiar campaign. He has made a number of speeches over the county and with the aid of the "Oilless Beltless Newsless" paper is seeking to create suspicion and hatred in the minds of the voters and to induce them to believe that, with the exception of himself, the Oil Belt News and the Klan brethren, all are dishonest, crooks, grafters and thieves. He said that at Judge Jones' opening speech at Flatwoods he had admitted he was a Klansman.

Funeral services were conducted Saturday morning for Jose Commancho, of Ranger, who died yesterday afternoon from injuries received when a local freight crew doing some switching in the Hamon-Kell railroad yards hooked on to a string of cars under which Commancho and another Mexican had crawled to eat their lunches at noon time.
Commancho was unable to get out from under the cars and both legs were partially severed above the knees. His legs were amputated at the Clinical hospital in an effort to save him, but he died in a short time afterwards from loss of blood.

Services were conducted by the Rev. Fr. R. A. Gerkin of St. Rita's church of Ranger. Burial was in the Ranger cemetery. He is survived by his wife and six children.

NEWSPAPER MAN WOULD MIX IN JUDGES' RACE

Jurist Declines to Become Entangled in Any Improper Controversy.

Judge George L. Davenport of the Ninety-first district court, has written to J. L. Tullis, editor of the Eastland Oil Belt News, refusing his request for a division of time in Eastland to discuss the judge's comments on the Oil Belt News. Judge Davenport wrote:

Davenport's Letter
"I have your letter requesting a division of time for joint discussion tonight. Under the circumstances, I feel that I would violate the proprieties by granting your request. I am not deceived for a moment by your offer to confine the discussion to questions of law enforcement and to leave out personalities and mudslinging. There is no issue of law enforcement involved in my campaign. The people of Eastland county need no argument for law enforcement. Your talk of law enforcement, in connection with my race for district judge is all too plainly an effort on the part of you and those who have put you in charge of the Oil Belt News to force a false issue in the hope that under its guise the Ku Klux Klan may a while longer dominate the political life of this community. Any chance for success along this line is dependent on your being able to confuse the issues.
"To agree to a joint discussion with you would place me in a false attitude of accepting the false issue you seek to tender.
"As to avoiding any personalities and mudslinging, the patently malicious attacks you have been making on me and my official integrity, in the total absence of any facts or inferences from facts upon which to base the same, does not enable me to believe that you are now capable of fair argument or legitimate discussion of principles.
"If all the insinuations, vague allusions and loose talk indulged in by you for the past few months even tend to present any issue pertinent to my campaign, then unquestionably such issue is one involving my official integrity, and this, even you should agree, is no proper subject for joint debate between you and me."

Tullis' Letter
In his letter to Judge Davenport, the editor of the Oil Belt News said: "I notice you are to speak in Eastland this evening (Saturday) so I

SUPREME COURT GRANTS COUNTY WRIT OF ERROR

Suit Involving More Than $300,000 of Eastland County Money to Be Reviewed.

The application of Eastland county for writ of error to the supreme court in the case of Eastland county against the commissioner of insurance and banking was granted by the supreme court yesterday.

Joe F. Orr of the firm Burkett, Orr and McCarty received a telephone message late yesterday evening from Austin telling him that the motion for rehearing which he had filed earlier in the week had been passed upon and that the application for writ of error had been granted. Mr. Orr was in Dallas two days of last week in conference with Bailey, Nichols and Bailey of Dallas and Cofer and Cofer of Austin, which firms were associated with his firm representing Eastland county in the case at which time a course of further procedure was adopted and the grounds for the motion for rehearing agreed upon. It is said that they pointed out to the court that no mention had been made by the higher courts of the sum of $85,557.83 deposited in the bank after the change of the character of the deposit and that the county had been deprived of this amount, at least, without due process of law. The motion also laid a foundation for an appeal to the supreme court of the United States in the event that the state court write to ask if you will grant me a division of time. As I understand it, the Oil Belt News and myself have occupied considerable attention in your speeches throughout the county. However, I am not seeking any mudslinging, epithet-hurling or personal discussion. I would prefer to confine the discussion to constitutional government and law enforcement.

"I am not seeking any row of rival friends or to resort to personalities or undue friction, but the calm, candid discussion of the two matters mentioned above. I do not claim any particular right for a division of time because of what you have been reported to have said about the Oil Belt News or myself, as I do not take those kind of things seriously. I have been too long in newspaper work and politics to take such matters literally."

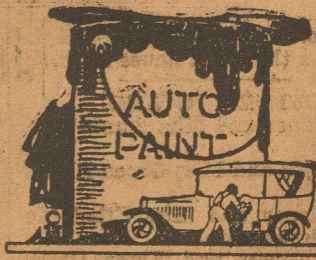

should deny the county the relief sued for.

It will be remembered that Judge Davenport of the 91st district court rendered a judgment in favor of the county for the amount sued for, $629,847.42, finding in effect that the account was a non-interest-bearing and unsecured account and protected by the depositors guaranty fund. The court of civil appeals at El Paso affirmed the judgment of Judge Davenport on all his findings of fact and on all issues, but gave it as their opinion that under the statutes of Texas the commissioners court could not change the character of their deposit by making arrangements for such change with the officers of the bank without the consent of the depositors' guaranty fund. In this opinion, among other things, they said:

"There is no proof that either the bank or the county contemplated a fraud against the guaranty fund, Mr.

Hunt, the active vice president of the bank, wholly fails to disclose any such intent. The evidence absolutely acquits the county officials of any fraud or knowledge of the condition of the bank.

The court of civil appeals however reversed the judgment of the district court and an application for writ of error to the supreme court was prepared by the attorneys for the county and two weeks ago this application was refused by the supreme court without giving any reason or writing any opinion whatever. The attorneys then prepared and filed a motion for rehearing on their application for writ of error and this was passed upon yesterday resulting in the granting of the writ of error. This means that the case will be taken up and considered by the supreme court.

The Ku Klux Klan was the main issue in the present campaign and that it was necessary to organize the County Constitutional club to combat the political activities of the Klan and the people had a right to organize that club, there was prolonged applause from the audience. "I oppose the Klan only as a political organization," Judge Davenport said. In the early part of his speech, Judge Davenport told of his long residence in Eastland county, said that he had been actively engaged in the practice of law and stated many reasons why he believed he was qualified for the position to which he seeks re-election. He told of his record on the bench and asked that the voters go to the records in the courthouse and see for themselves whether or not he was telling them the truth.

As in former speeches Judge Davenport took up the Starnes oyster suit, which his opponent is discussing, and told of his handling of the case, going into details as to the law governing such cases. He went on to state that he had investigated the fact and the truth or falsity of the allegations made in the petition and not for a hearing, he said. "Out of the hundreds of cases that I have tried since I have been on the bench my opponent and his Klan supporters can find only one, the Starnes oyster case, in which they charge I have made a mistake," Judge Davenport said.

Judge Jones Replies.

Judge Jones, in his address, said that he had been born and reared in Eastland county, had received his education here and that, he above all others, would be opposed to surrendering the control of the county's affairs to an emperor at Atlanta. "My opponent would have you believe that there is danger of the Klan moving the courthouse to Atlanta," he said. Judge Jones charged that there had been hundreds of thousands of dollars of the taxpayers' money grafted, but didn't claim that Davenport had taken any of it, charging only he had permitted others to do so. He also said that Davenport didn't follow the law in handling the Starnes oyster suit. He criticized Judge Davenport for his attack on the Klan and referred to that organization as a fraternal order. He claimed that Judge Davenport was trying to dodge the issues in the campaign.

In his rejoinder, Judge Davenport said that it was unnecessary that his opponent should have made his speech as the "hooded boys" would have voted for him anyway. He said, that, as at Olden and other places where Jones had spoken, the Klan bunch were present from all over the county to applaud Jones, but that they would make but little impression on an intelligent audience.

Heckler Confused.
Just after Judge Davenport began his rejoinder a number of parties here and there in the audience began sounding horns of automobiles and there was an apparent desire of certain klansmen to interrupt the speaker. One man sitting almost in front of the speaker, sought to heckle him and when Judge Davenport emphasized certain points, exclaimed, "God Almighty!" To this Judge Davenport replied, "It is a great revelation, isn't it?" The man in the audience again exclaimed, "God Almighty!" and Judge Davenport, addressing him said, "My friend, I appreciate your sympathy very much." Nothing more was heard from the heckler.

CHEVROLET

- 1.—Chevrolet is modern in appearance. All models are of steam-line design, and fine, durable finish. Closed models have genuine Fisher bodies.
- 2.—Chevrolet is modern in construction. It has standard sliding gear transmission, Remy electrical equipment, modern cooling system, suction fuel feed with tank at rear, demountable rims, safe steering mechanism—in fact all essential engineering improvements found in the highest priced cars.
- 3.—Chevrolet is fully equipped as sold. We quote prices on complete cars only. Chevrolet is all there, ready for use as soon as you put on your license plates.
- 4.—Chevrolet transportation averages less cost per mile than that of any other car at any price. This cost includes the list price of car, insurance, operation, maintenance, annual depreciation and interest on your investment. Why pay more per mile for lower quality?
- 5.—Chevrolet has the most powerful motor of any low priced car. Its supremacy for hill climbing and hard going is well known. Where there are most hills there are most Chevrolets. Why drive a slow car and hold up the line when it costs less to be a leader?
- 6.—Chevrolet yields solid comfort in riding. This is due to its long wheel base, correct body suspension on extra strong and resilient vanadium steel springs, well-sprung and padded upholstery, deep seats, with ample leg room, and correctly inclined backs.
- 7.—Chevrolet service costs are low because so few hours per year are needed in service stations. Chevrolets are built to stay together, and do not require you to be always near a service station. When adjustments or repairs are needed the Chevrolet Flat Rate System keeps the cost down to the minimum.
- 8.—Chevrolet is a quality car. You are proud to tell of your ownership of a Chevrolet. Your Chevrolet tells the world that you appreciate modern quality and are a good judge of values.
- 9.—Chevrolet is built for safety. It steers firmly and easily and the steering gear will not lock itself. It holds to the road even at high speed on gravel. Its braking power is ample. It is easy to handle and accelerates so quickly it enables you to get out of a bad position promptly. It is one of the few cars granted Class A rating by insurance underwriters.
- 10.—Chevrolet is easy to buy and easy to trade. In buying a home, you always consider what you could get for it if you ever wanted to move. Be sure the car you buy has a good trade-in value, so that when the time arrives to get a new one you can make a good deal. Chevrolet's trade-in value is high because of the big demand for this well-built, long-lived automobile.

M'CARTY HANDS HARD JOLT TO STUBBLEFIELD

Klan and Anti-Klan Figures Largely in Debate at Cisco.

Adopting the tactics of the Klan at Carbon Saturday a week ago, when that organization had Judge J. R. Stubblefield of Eastland follow Milburn McCarty, who spoke there in the interest of candidates endorsed by the County Constitutional club, McCarty, Saturday afternoon, appeared unannounced in Cisco where Judge Stubblefield was making an address in the interest of the Klan ticket, and followed him in a speech in which, according to many of those present, he more than evened the score with the Klan.

It had been announced that Stubblefield would speak at Cisco at 3 o'clock. Klan and anti-Klan congregated to hear him. Judge Stubblefield, being introduced by the Rev. Mr. Vaughn, a minister of Cisco, said he came without hatred or malice in his heart toward anyone. He said that perhaps many did not attain to the points of usefulness to their country as they wished, but that if one contributed to the making of better churches, better homes and better schools and impressed the idea of love of country and of God upon the lives of the children that their efforts would not be in vain. He denied that he was a Klansman and said he was not a member of the County Constitutional club. He took up the cases filed and tried in the district courts of the county in which the road matters of the county were involved. He reviewed the cases, as he did at Carbon, and made many charges of graft and dishonesty, against those having charge of the county's affairs at that time.

McCarty, at Carbon, had advised him to get the grouch out of his system and forget the law suits he had lost and to look to the future. Stubblefield said, "They don't want me to bring the old skeleton out of the closet," he added.

Stubblefield said that he had been fighting the road gang for a long time and that he did not lose two or three law-suits, but that he fought them to the last ditch and had never lost his honor. He referred, in his talk, to the time when he was making a speech at the city hall in Eastland when the crowd, to a man, walked out and left him standing on the platform. After talking for about one hour, the most of which time was taken up in discussing the road and bank cases in the county and discussing Joe Burkett and Allen D. Dabney's connection with the signing of certain bonds and other matters, Stubblefield brought his speech to a close by a plea to his hearers to remember the old road gang and vote against them in the coming primary.

McCarty appears. When Judge Stubblefield had concluded, Mr. McCarty appeared from the crowd and mounted the platform. He was greeted by a prolonged applause by one element in the crowd and by a few jeers and cries of "we don't want to hear you," "why are you here?" and the like from another element. McCarty attempted to go ahead with his speech, but by this time several people had gathered close about the truck and kept up such a noise that it was impossible to hear him.

At this juncture R. A. St. John of Cisco appeared, and, shaking his fists in their faces, told those who had gathered about the truck that their speaker had been accorded a hearing and had not been disturbed and that Cisco demanded that the speaker on the platform should also be undisturbed if he wished to speak. He said officers would be called if quiet was not restored and maintained. The crowd then drew back a short distance and remained there.

McCarty said that it was a deplorable plight of mind for a man to get an idea into his head that he and a few of his friends were the only honest men in Eastland county and referred to the fact the Judge Stubblefield, in his speech at Carbon and the one just delivered, had questioned the honor and integrity of many of as good men as lived in Eastland county.

"I didn't know until recently that Stubblefield and a few law suits that he had been unable to win, were issues in the present political campaign in Eastland county," Mr. McCarty said.

"Stubblefield says he is not a member of the Klan, but if he is not a member his heart is certainly with them else he would not permit them to use him as a smoke screen to mislead and deceive the people of Eastland county as to the issues in the present campaign." He called upon Stubblefield to know why it was, if he was not a member, that he personally solicited a business associate to join the Klan. Mr. Stubblefield called from the crowd that he did not do it, to which Mr. McCarty replied that E. B. Massey told him that he did. There were cries from the audience that Stubblefield would answer that in his rejoinder. He did not mention it again, however.

McCarty referred to the principles for which the Klan says it stands, calling attention to their claim of protection for womanhood, purity of the home and for law enforcement. He then called upon Judge Stubblefield to know when he became the champion of womanhood and the paragon of virtue and honesty.

"I dislike to deal in personalities," McCarty said, "but as Judge Stubblefield has made his honor and honesty an issue, I feel compelled to cite a few instances in his life which do not sustain the position he is attempting to assume."

Mr. McCarty then said that if Stubblefield was not a Klansman he was taking Klan money and referred to the fact that the Klan, or others, has employed him to assist in the prosecution of the sheriff of Stephens county, who was charged with murder, in connection with the killing of a man in that county alleged to have been a Klan bootlegger.

McCarty makes charges. At this juncture McCarty reached into his pocket and got a large brown envelope and holding it in his hand, asked Judge Stubblefield to explain why it was, while he was in Breckenridge, taking money for assisting in the prosecution of the sheriff, that officers were called to his room in his hotel and there found him in an embarrassing situation.

Stubblefield was also asked if in a political campaign in this county a number of years ago, he was repudiated and defeated for re-election as county judge by the voters of the county.

Mr. McCarty, after having finished with Stubblefield, launched into a discussion of the Ku Klux Klan. He said that the issue before the people of Eastland county today is whether or not the Ku Klux Klan, a secret political organization, should continue to dominate the affairs of the county or if the people as a whole are to have a voice in the county government. The Klan, McCarty said, "is primarily a political organization and its participation in public affairs is violative of the very fundamental principles upon which this government is founded. He closed with a plea to the voters to go to the polls on July 26 and by their ballots return the affairs of the county to the people."

When Mr. McCarty had finished his address Judge Stubblefield was recalled to the platform and spoke for a few minutes in reply to Mr. McCarty. He said that he had not been as good a man as he should have been, but that he would not dignify the charges made against him by Mr. McCarty, by answering them. He said he was grateful to those who believed in him and that he was glad that he had never lost his courage and his honor.

FOREIGN TEAMS GOOD AT LONG DISTANCE RUNS

By FRANK GETTY (United Press Staff Correspondent) NEW YORK, June 28.—In predicting an American triumph in the track and field games at Paris in July, consideration has been given to the fact that as the races get longer this country's strength lessens.

of European stars upon the point-winning places begins. In the 800 meters, with Bill Richardson, Leland Stanford, S. C. Erick, Penn State's great runner; Ray Dodge, Ray Watson and the game, but inexperienced, "Soapy" Watters, the United States is well represented, but it is probable that the French, English and other European middle-distance stars will break through the American front here. However, in both the 400 and 800, we have every right to expect that this country will get as many points as all the other nations put together.

parts of the top of Europe seem able to get going and run on forever just a little bit faster than anyone else wants to run. We have nothing in either the 5,000 meters or the 10,000 meters to hope for, except the chance of picking up a couple of points to go with the grand total. Our steeplechasers didn't show anything remarkable before they left. They had plenty of grit, but that is not remarkable in the team the United States sent over on the "America" a couple of weeks ago. It's the required thing. R. Payne of Ohio State, who runs awkwardly, but without apparent effort, slipped and fell in this event after he had been around the stadium a dozen times and was blown and leg weary. But he was up and after them in no time at all, and when it came to the gun for the final lap, he raced big Marvin Rick into submission in the stretch. Nothing much for America in this event.

BABE RUTH'S BAT FOR AL SMITH.

"Bastin' Babe" Ruth, of the New York Yankees, world's champion slugger and home run hitter, presented his famous home run bat to Governor Alfred E. Smith, of New York, with the expressed hope that Mr. Smith would be able to bat in the Presidential nomination.

WILL YANKS LAST OUT THE 1924 SEASON

By FRANK GETTY (United Press Staff Correspondent) NEW YORK, June 28.—The famous world champions are fading—slowly but surely. The Yanks are an old team, as baseball goes. It received practically no young blood during recent years. New faces have appeared, but they were mostly old in the league. Manager Huggins has depended almost entirely on buying "made" players. He had unlimited cash from the rich New York American league owners, and so long as Harry Frazee was selling off the Boston Red Sox, money talked very freely. But now that the new owners are building, money is tongue-tied in Boston.

EASTLAND AND CISCO LIONS PLAY EXCITING GAME, CISCO WINNING

A game replete with interest was played between the Eastland and Cisco Lions, Friday afternoon, at Comanche park. The score was tight all the way through, in fact neither team scored until about the fourth inning, when Eastland slipped one over. This was soon tied by Cisco and the tie was not broken until the last inning, when the Cisco bunch got one more, making the score 2 to 1 in favor of Cisco.

TEXACO STARS CLINCHING HOLD ON TOP PLACE

Win Game From Magnolias at Olden By Score of 10 to 4.

The hustling Texaco Stars took a firm foothold on the top rung of the Oil Belt association ladder when they trimmed the Magnolias 10 to 4 at Olden Saturday evening.

Big Chief Sealy proved too much of a stumbling block for the Magnolias and the Parks camp gang was in there hustling all the time. Bill Sisk handled nine chances at short during the afternoon and Bounds called in from the outfield to cover second for Jew Hellman, who was hit on the wrist by one of Coop's slants, made several corking stops. The big chief was steady all of the way, with perfect control of his splitter. Beside whiffing seven Oldenites his baselining double in the eighth drove in three Parks runs.

RANGER LOSES PLUCKY GAME TO BRECKENRIDGE

Dynamos Get the Breaks and Win Game by 13 to 10 Score.

Ranger out-fought and out-played but were out-lucked by the Breckenridge Dynamos to the tune of 13 to 10 in a hard fought and closely disputed game at Breckenridge yesterday.

Breckenridge landed on Ridings for 12 runs before he chased himself to the showers and Harvey, a newcomer from Dallas, went in in the sixth inning and held the Dynamos the rest of the way.

Gore was hit freely by the Nitros and was eventually chased to the wash-house and replaced by Ruth, only to have to go to the aid of his teammate in the seventh.

The game was very nearly ended in a near riot in the fourth inning when Weatherford and the Dynamo third baseman tangled up over a close decision at third by the umpire.

The two teams, including the spectators gathered round and it looked like a hot time in the old town for a few minutes but all concerned cooled off eventually and the game proceeded.

Shires and McElreath went on the war path and wielded a nasty stick all through the game. Shires slapped out four hits in as many times to bat and "Cocoanut" drove out two doubles.

The two teams will play again today at 3:30 at Breckenridge. Weatherford will do the flinging for the Nitros and promises a different tale when the score is counted up.

Score by innings: Ranger020 200 501—10 Breckenridge041 340 010—13 Batteries—Ranger, Ridings, Harvey and Hensley; Breckenridge, Gore, Ruth, Gore and Smith. Umpires, Price and Brusardt.

BOXING BOUT WILL USHER IN JULY FOURTH

Three Splendid Fights by Experienced Scrappers Night of July 3.

Twenty-four rounds of cracker-jack fighting will be given to the fight fans of Ranger when three local boxers tangle up with two Eastland and one Denton scrapper at the Liberty theatre at 8:30 p. m., July 3.

The affair is being staged by the young men to start an athletic club in Ranger and every effort was made to secure experienced battlers for the scrap.

Shorty Houghton, local lad, is the same one who caused a great deal of grief to the carnival scrappers who boasted loudly but not for long about their prowess. Houghton has had quite a bit of experience in the ring and will give the Eastland battler, Gene Wood, a hot run for the money.

Wood is no slouch of a scrapper himself. Doc Curry, local lad, who will endeavor to put Grady Ross of Denton, under for the count on the semi-final bout held the welterweight championship of the naval base at Hampton Roads for the time he was stationed there.

Pug Sealy, local boy, will stage the preliminary with Mac McCleskey of Eastland, and the battle promises to be a warm affair. Tickets are on sale at all drug stores.

Ranger Golfers To Play Strawn Today On Strawn Links

The Ranger golf team will go to Strawn today in an effort to take the Strawn golfers to a cleaning. Ranger has not been going good for the last two or three weeks, but the members have been practicing steadily for the last week and are in better shape.

Ranger should have played Strawn last week but on account of the poor condition of the Strawn course the match was postponed until today. All members of the Ranger team are requested to be present at the Strawn course by 1 o'clock.
