

GOP Worrying About Control Of The Senate

Dewey Confident Presidency Is In His Hands
ENROUTE WITH DEWEY TO ALBANY, Oct. 18. (AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey winds up his second campaign tour today with followers expressing new fear Republicans may lose control of the Senate.

Traveling across Canada early in the day, the Republican presidential nominee was heading for his home base at Albany. He had train speeches scheduled at Buffalo, Rochester, Syracuse and Schenectady.

The New York governor was represented as so confident of his election Nov. 2 that his campaign was entering a deliberate slow-down phase. He speaks in New York City Wednesday night at the Herald-Tribune Forum and Thursday night at a memorial dinner for Al Smith. Otherwise he has no firm speaking dates for this week—the next to the last available for traveling campaigns.

But if the Dewey camp counted its champion as safely "in," it was another story in its analysis of the critical races involving control of the Senate.

The figuring was that ding-dong battles in eight states—Colorado, Kentucky, Minnesota, Montana, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Wyoming and West Virginia—will determine whether the GOP holds or boosts its present 51 to 45 margin in the Senate, yields ground or loses control.

Two weeks before the election, the best calculations of the Dewey strategists indicate they stand to lose at least three seats—in Oklahoma, West Virginia and Minnesota—unless there is a change in sentiment.

If they held their own elsewhere, any such result would produce a 48-to-48 tie in the Senate, but the Republicans would retain control if the Dewey-Warren ticket wins because the vice-president could break the tie on the issue of organizing the Senate.

This would leave Republicans as chairmen on all of the important committees but it would mean that they probably would have to enlist Democratic votes to put over controversial legislation.

Blast Shakes Airlift Plane

BERLIN, Oct. 18. (AP)—A United States C-54 transport plane supplying blockaded Berlin was shaken by a mysterious explosion today shortly after taking off from Berlin's Gatow Airport.

The pilot said at first he believed a Russian anti-aircraft shell had burst near his plane.

U. S. and British officials, however, said they believed the plane was jolted by the concussion from a ground explosion which occurred so near Gatow Airfield that it rattled windows.

There was no indication, these officials said, that anti-aircraft guns were fired.

The Russians gave no warnings of gun practice today in the air corridor used by British and American planes supplying blockaded Berlin.

They did impose a sharp traffic inspection at occupation sector borders within the city, aimed at tightening the blockade.

Abilenian Kills Son's Fiancee, Thinking She Was Own Ex-Wife

ABILENE, Oct. 18. (AP)—County Atty. Theo. Ash said an Abilene barber yesterday fatally shot a 19-year-old girl, thinking she was his ex-wife.

Ash said a murder charge would be filed today against John Thomas Williams, 50, in the death of Miss Jeanne Paschall.

The girl was slain in a tourist camp cabin, where the man's former wife, Mrs. Corrie Williams, resides.

After the shooting, Williams surrendered to police and made a statement to Asst. City Atty. Wilson Johnston and Detective C. Z. Hall.

'NO CHIP ON SHOULDER' President Wants To Erase Distrust

MIAMI, Florida, Oct. 18. (AP)—President Truman said today he considered sending Chief Justice Vinson to Moscow to aid Premier Stalin to help dispel "the poisonous atmosphere of distrust" surrounding negotiations between "the Western Powers and the Soviet Union."

The President, in a speech prepared for the annual American Legion convention, described as "a wicked falsehood" what he called "loose and irresponsible talk to the effect that the United States is deliberately following a course that leads to war."

"So long as I am President of the United States, there will be no chip on the shoulder of America," Mr. Truman declared.

He flew here from Washington in an avowed "non-political" role, and in his address described himself as "a delegate from Missouri, a comrade-in-arms, and commander-in-chief of our armed forces."

In his first reference to the once-considered proposal to send Vinson to meet with Stalin—Secretary of State Marshall talked him "out" of it—Mr. Truman asserted:

"I recently considered the sending of a special emissary to Moscow, my purpose was to ask Premier Stalin's co-operation in dispelling the present poisonous atmosphere of distrust which now surrounds the negotiations between the Western Powers and the Soviet Union. My emissary was to convey the seriousness and sincerity of the people of the United States in their desire for peace.

"This proposal had no relation to existing negotiations within the scope of the United Nations or the council of foreign ministers. Far from cutting across these negotiations, the purpose of this mission was to improve the atmosphere in which they must take place and so help in producing fruitful and peaceful results.

"At this time I want to make it clear that I have not departed one step from my determination to utilize every opportunity to work for peace. Whenever an appropriate opportunity arises, I shall act to further the interests of peace within the framework of our relations with our allies and the works of the United Nations."

Uranium Ore Found

SALMON, Idaho, Oct. 18. (AP)—Deposits of radio-active uranium ore have been found in claims along Agency Creek from Lemhi Pass to the Lemhi River, G. Elmo Shoup, Salmon miner, said yesterday.

29 Men Missing

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 18. (AP)—Twenty-nine crewmen from the British Aircraft Carrier Illustrious were officially reported missing after a gale swamped their liberty boat in Portland harbor late last night.

WORKERS MEET AT 10 A. M. TUESDAY Community Chest Ready For 'Big Push'

GIVE AND GIVE ENOUGH! This will be the appeal voiced by two score workers who take to the field Tuesday after a kick-off meeting at 10 a. m. at the Settlers.

At the general canvass for the 1948 Community Chest swings into action, the objective will be approximately $25,000 of the $37,000 total goal. The big gifts division under C. S. Blomshard has turned in $9,000 in cash and another thousand is in sight to put the Chest campaign off to a good start.

Monday special gifts workers under Champ Rainwater and K. H. McGibbon were being urged to complete their contacts so that these reports may be cleared in advance of Tuesday's big push.

Under direction of Mrs. L. A. Eubanks, a women's group is being marshaled to press the employee division canvass Wednesday.

Before he had to leave town on business over the weekend, R. L. Tollett, Chest chairman, voiced an earnest plea to the people of Big Spring "to give and give enough." The goal, he explained, is within easy reach if everyone will give and give with their hearts.

"The Chest is ours; it doesn't belong to the other fellow," he said. "It is the responsibility of each of us regardless of whether we operate a business or whether we are in a profession or we are employees. The thing that will make it succeed is for each of us to do his honest dead-level best—whatever that may be. I know that no

Polk Slaying In Greece Laid To Communists

Greek Government Gives Results Of Investigation

SALONIKA, Greece, Oct. 18. (AP)—The Greek government says a Communist killed George Polk of Fort Worth, correspondent for the Columbia Broadcasting System, last May.

Topping off a five-month investigation of the slaying, the government yesterday named three others charged with complicity in the murder. Two of them are under arrest.

One of the persons under arrest was quoted as believing the murder was planned by the Cominform (Communist International Information Bureau) to discredit the Greek government abroad.

The government said the actual shooting of Polk was done by Adam Mousenides, member of the central committee of the Greek Communist Party. He was alleged to have shot the correspondent in the back of the head as Polk lay blindfolded and trussed in a boat in Salonika Bay last May 8.

The other three charged with complicity in the murder were Evangelos Vasvanas, still at large; Gergory Staktopoulos, Communist newspaperman, and his mother, Anna, both under arrest for the past two months.

All four face charges of conspiracy to murder Polk. Mousenides and Vasvanas also were charged with illegal possession of firearms and carrying arms, punishable by death under present Greek military law.

Staktopoulos and his mother will be tried in Salonika. The other two may be tried in absentia.

The story of the murder, as told by the official announcement, was as follows:

Polk, 34-year-old war veteran, had expressed a desire to interview Marko Vafade, Communist leader of the Greek rebel.

Staktopoulos was assigned by the Communists as the "contact" man to lure Polk to a boat in Salonika Bay on the pretext he was being taken to see Markos.

Polk got into the boat with the three men. His feet and hands were tied and he was blindfolded, apparently being told he was not to see the route taken for the interview.

Mousenides shot Polk. He took Polk's identity card and a calendar from the dead man's pocket and gave them to Staktopoulos, who said he had not been told the murderer had been planned.

The body was thrown into the water. It was not found until May 15.

Staktopoulos had his mother mail Polk's identity card to police May 11. Police found the handwriting on the envelope was that of the mother. After intensive questioning Staktopoulos confessed.

Two Negro Children Burned To Death

DALLAS, Oct. 18. (AP)—Two Negro children were burned to death early this morning when fire from an overflowing kerosene heater caught their bedclothes afire, firemen reported.

Dead were Eddie Mae Bolts, three, and her brother, Charles Bolts, one and one-half. Their mother, Mrs. Addie Lee Bolts, suffered second degree burns in a vain rescue attempt.

A battery station adjoining the 30-room hotel was damaged. Both the hotel and the station were owned by C. N. Brooks. The loss was estimated at $40,000.

Pennsylvania Youth Given Life Term

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Oct. 18. (AP)—Franklin Lindemuth, 18, waited with outward calm today to be sentenced to life imprisonment for killing an attractive 29-year-old nurse here last July 22.

A district court jury early Sunday found the Harrisburg, Pa., youth guilty of first degree murder but recommended life imprisonment. The recommendation automatically fixed his sentence and saved him from New Mexico's electric chair.

These will be assisted by the following volunteers from service clubs: C. Y. Clinkcales, Wayne Gould, Merrill Creighton, C. O. Nalley, W. N. Norred, J. W. Purser, Eugene Thomas, Horace Garrett, Ray Griffin, V. A. Whittington, R. E. McKinney, Bill O'Neal, George Thomas, Walker Bailey, J. B. Apple, T. S. Currie, Jr., Harlan Choate, L. D. Crane, Wayne Williams, Bill French, Chester McDonald, automobiles (new) J. F. Jones, Howard County Junior College; Joe Williamson, automobiles (used); C. E. Johnson, city employees; D. L. Bohannon, beverage distributors; Harvey Clay cleaners.

Emergency Board Will Deal With Rail Dispute

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—President Truman today created an emergency board to investigate disputes between the nation's railroads and 16 non-operating railroad unions.

The unions are now taking a strike vote, and creation of the board is intended to head off possibility of a walkout. Under the railroad labor act, a work stoppage is forbidden while the emergency board is studying the dispute.

Mr. Truman's executive order said a strike would "threaten substantial interruption to interstate commerce" and "deprive the country of essential transportation service."

The board is given 30 days to make its findings, and neither strike nor lock-out can be ordered within 60 days after the board's recommendations reach the White House.

About 1 million workers are involved. The so-called "non-operating" workers are those not actually engaged in running trains. They include switchmen, yardmen, maintenance workers, telegraphers, and numerous other crafts.

Mr. Truman did not name the members of the board. A White House spokesman said they will be announced shortly.

Anti-Truman Forces Given Court Order

FORT WORTH, Oct. 18. (AP)—Anti-Truman Democrats of Tarrant County won a temporary restraining order in 6th District Court here today when they obtained a court order of sweeping magnitude designed to set aside actions of the state democratic convention here Sept. 14 as illegal and to halt the purge of precinct chairmen declining to take a Truman-Barkley loyalty pledge.

District Judge Morris signed the order, sought in a 45-page petition filed by Democrats describing themselves as "conservatives." He set 9 o'clock the morning of Oct. 28, as a hearing date for their application for a temporary injunction.

Warring Tarrant factions will be arrayed against each other at that time as they were at the state convention when the State Rights delegation here was replaced by a rump Truman delegation. Prominent members of the State Rights faction filed today's legal action.

At the preceding county Democratic convention here, they adopted a strong anti-Truman resolution.

Man Perishes In Weatherford Fire

WEATHERFORD, Oct. 18. (AP)—One man was burned to death and another injured in an early-morning fire that practically destroyed the two-story frame Montfort Hotel here today.

The dead man was identified as Sam Wells, about 75, of Virginia. His exact address was not immediately available because the hotel registry was destroyed.

The fire started in Wells room from a gas explosion.

The injured man was C. C. Walls, 70. He was taken to a hospital, but his condition was not believed to be critical.

A battery station adjoining the 30-room hotel was damaged. Both the hotel and the station were owned by C. N. Brooks. The loss was estimated at $40,000.

Absentee Ballots

A total of eight absentee ballots for the general election had been cast with the county clerk this morning.

Qualified voters are privileged to vote absentee through Friday, Oct. 29. The election will be staged Nov. 2.

Inonu's Party Wins

ISTANBUL, Turkey, Oct. 18. (AP)—President Ismet Inonu's peoples party apparently won 13 seats at stake in a by-election yesterday featured by the extreme apathy of the voters.

Key Rulings Of Labor Act Are Studied

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18. (AP)—Key rulings that the Taft-Hartley Act curbs mass picketing and sets up a yardstick for replacing strikers with new workers were studied by management and labor alike today.

The interpretations came from the National Labor Relations Board over the week end. In one case NLRB Trial Examiner Irving Rogosin held that mass picketing can violate the act even if it is in the form of a peaceful parade.

Sheer numbers tend to coerce non-strikers, Rogosin said, so he recommended that the CIO-United Electrical Workers and officers of locals 1,150 and 13 be ordered to refrain from holding any more processions like that of Nov. 2, 1947, in front of the Cory Corporation Plant in Chicago.

The other ruling, setting forth at least five conditions under which "economic" strikers lose their jobs to permanent replacements, was handed down by the board itself.

"Economic" strikers are those who walk out over pay or working conditions, rather than in protest against some unfair labor practice.

The NLRB held that 71 strikers, members of the International Association of Machinists, are no longer entitled to reinstatement as workers at the Pipe Machinery Co. of Cleveland; hence they were not eligible under the act to vote in a collective bargaining election.

Blast Wrecks School Plant

KELLER, Oct. 18. (AP)—An explosion and fire about 10:30 a. m. today at the Keller school completely destroyed the building and caused $100,000 damage. All of the 350 students and the teachers escaped without injury.

School records and some typewriters were saved by quick work of school faculty members and several of the older boys.

Forty or fifty pupils in a study hall had a narrow escape when the ceiling almost collapsed on them after the explosion.

Explosion Fatal To One; Four Hurt

DETROIT, Oct. 18. (AP)—An explosion in a compressor station of the Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. at suburban Melvindale early today cost one life and injured four other employees.

A company spokesman estimated damage at between $250,000 and $300,000.

Security Council Called To Study Newest Crisis

TEL AVIV, Israel, Oct. 18. (AP)—Israel accepted tonight a United Nations offer to arrange peace talks with Egypt on the fighting in the Negev, However, she rejected a cease-fire proposal.

The foreign office said no cease-fire proposal would be accepted until Israel is assured the Egyptians will behave.

In actions last night, Jewish troops stormed a and captured heights dominating the road through the Negev, Palestine's southern desert. A dispatch from Associated Press correspondent Carter L. Davidson at the front said the Jews had succeeded in blasting open their supply route to the desert.

(The United Nations Security Council has been called into special session tomorrow morning in Paris to consider the new outburst of fighting in the Holy Land.)

An Israeli foreign office spokesman said the United Nations had proposed a four-day truce in fighting "to settle peacefully the basic differences between the Egyptians and Israel in the Negev" and suggested peace talks in Jerusalem.

Israel, he said, is ready to meet the Egyptians any time, any place for peace discussions. A cease-fire is impossible, he added, unless the United Nations can guarantee the Egyptians will not take advantage of such a truce to improve their positions.

Israel has thrown a top commander into the battle for control of the Negev desert area where reports indicated heavy casualties as Jews and Egyptians struggled fiercely.

The noon communique said bombing targets for the third consecutive night were the El Arish Air Base, the city of Gaza, which is both the seat of the new Arab government for Palestine and the Egyptian headquarters, and Egyptian troop centers at Majdal, Faluja and Beersheba.

Dewey To Continue Governorship Duties Up To Inauguration

EN ROUTE WITH DEWEY TO ALBANY, Oct. 18. (AP)—Thomas E. Dewey will continue as governor of New York up to the day of his inauguration as President, if he is elected Nov. 2.

Paul Lockwood, Dewey's secretary, told a reporter today that the New York governor wishes to maintain the continuity in office and so would not resign until time for him to take over the presidency if the election returns are favorable to him.

Lt. Gov. Joe R. Handley would become governor in this event.

Kansas, Eight Other States Will Ballot On Liquor Issues

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18. (AP)—Bone-dry Kansas will give its voters a chance Nov. 2 to have their say on repeal of the state's 68-year-old prohibition amendment.

Eight other states—Arkansas, California, Colorado, North Dakota, Oregon, South Dakota, Washington and Massachusetts—also are posing liquor questions to their electorates.

The hotly-contested constitutional amendment on the Kansas ballot provides that the legislature may regulate, license and tax the manufacture and sale of liquor and regulate its possession.

If the amendment is approved, the legislature still would have to dispose of the dry statute on the Kansas lawbooks.

In Arkansas, a referendum is on the ballot to require that local option elections to legalize the sale of whiskey, wine and beer be held only in connection with the regular biennial general elections.

In Colorado a proposed constitutional amendment would let any voting district ban the sale of intoxicating liquors within its boundaries.

North Dakota will vote on a constitutional amendment to authorize municipal liquor stores, while South Dakota will put two related questions to its voters.

Jack Riggs Bidding For Student Office At Texas University

AUSTIN, Oct. 18. — Jack Donald Riggs of Big Spring has announced his candidacy for The University of Texas student assembly from the College of Business Administration. Election will be October 20. Riggs, son of Mrs. Alice Riggs, 807 Runnels, is a senior majoring in business administration. He is vice-president of Silver Spurs, honorary service organization for men; house manager of Chi Phi social fraternity; and a member of the Inter-Fraternity council.

A navy veteran, he served as a member of the freshman orientation council this fall.

ZURICH—(AP)—Swiss postal authorities are experimenting with helicopters as a means of speeding up air mail from principal post offices to airports.

Donald's Drive-In Completely New

Within the past year, complete new equipment has been installed from front to rear at Donald's Drive In, located at 2406 Gregg street in Big Spring.

The additions include storage vans deep freezer units, stoves and steam tables.

Rush hours mean nothing to the employees of the establishment, since orders can be handled immediately. The food served at Donald's is kept hot at all times.

The concern, which is open from 6 a. m. to 12 midnight seven days a week, specializes in Mexican food. Any kind of Mexican plate from tacos to the full dinner can be delivered to the customer with little loss of time.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Brown, owners of the establishment, take an active part in the operation of the restaurant. Thirteen other employees dedicate their efforts toward serving the public.

Motorists will find they can get car hop service from 6 a. m. to the closing hour, although the regular hops do not arrive at work until 10 a. m.

Tasty breakfasts of all kind are prepared for early and late risers. Plenty of parking space is available for all motor trade. The parking grounds were enlarged earlier in the year so that more trade could be accommodated.

Most of Donald's help has been in his employ more than a year.

In charge of the animals is William Carew Redfield who is accompanying them to Los Angeles.

Material With Quality Mark Of Local Firm

When it comes to building, there is a vast difference between sand and dirt and between gravel and rocky soil.

There's a big difference too between the run-of-mill materials and those turned out by the West Texas Sand & Gravel company here. Every yard coming out of West Texas pits here and below the Moss Creek load is washed and precisely graded.

Thus gravel is sand free, and sand is dirt free. And when an aggregate for concrete is desired, the mix contains a proportion of conglomerate. It all adds up to better performance and longer-lasting work when individuals and builders specify West Texas sand and gravel material.

Under the management of Otis Grafs, Sr., the company is equipped to handle the biggest sort of job, and many of the major construction jobs and highway projects in this area have called upon West Texas Sand and Gravel to furnish materials.

Smart Tailoring Is W&K Service

Fashionable fall suits for men are catching the eyes of customers at the W&K Cleaners, 1213 West Third street, where cleaning and fine tailoring are performed as practical arts.

The firm has samples of dozens of new fall patterns available for selection. Included are all conventional types of fabrics, and customers may choose the styles they prefer.

W&K represents one of the nation's outstanding tailoring firms whose products are noted for fine workmanship. Deliveries on new men's suits usually are made in less than two weeks after orders are submitted.

W&K also maintains expert cleaning and pressing service, which includes modern processes. The shop equipment is the best type available.

able, and garments left at W&K are entrusted only to thoroughly experienced personnel.

"We are never satisfied with our work unless our customers are perfectly pleased with our service," said O. B. Kirby, owner and manager of the establishment.

Alterations for all types of clothing comprise another important service at the W&K plant. As in other departments of the firm, such work is performed by experienced employees.

Brush fish filets with softened butter or margarine and broil until done. Sprinkle with salt, freshly ground pepper and paprika and serve with short sprays of water-cress and wedges of lemon.

New Wheelbarrow

BUENOS AIRES, (AP)—It took hundreds of years, but somebody finally improved the wheelbarrow. Engineer Arnold Schauer showed city officials his new model. Instead of having the wheel in front, it has it under the body. Schauer said this means the wheelbarrow chauffeur carries less load and the wheel itself carries more.

KASENKINA STORY

Teacher Describes Flight To Haven And Sinister Incident

(Copyright, 1948, King Features Syndicate, Inc. Reproduction in whole or in part strictly prohibited.)

On today's article Mrs. Kasenkina tells of her success in finding someone to help her escape in America, of how a friendly editor and a journalist led her to Countess Tolstoy, of their plan for her escape, of the mystery of the hypodermic needle marks on her arm and the flight to freedom.

INSTALLMENT 22

By OKSANA S. KASENKINA
 Edited by Isaac Don Levine
 Only two days remained until the scheduled sailing of the Pobeda which was to take me back to Russia. I was like a person being swept by a tide out into the open sea. Although I was at the very shore, I could find no anchorage. The evening of Wednesday, July 28, I telephoned the Russian language newspaper, the Novoye Russkoye Slovo, and asked for the editor.

Perhaps I was influenced in this by the act of Igor Gouzenko, my compatriot in Canada, when he went to the Ottawa newspaper in his critical hour, as I had learned from seeing "The Iron Curtain." Without identifying myself and disclosing the object of my call, I inquired if the editor, Mark Weinbaum, was in the office. I was told that he had left, but would be at his desk the next day. Although I knew the paper was anti-Communist and stood for democracy and freedom, I asked if there were any Communists around the place.

GETS INSPIRATION
 Thursday morning I cautiously made my way to the offices of Mr. Weinbaum who received me instantly. He understood my situation as soon as I nervously recited to me a few salient facts.

He was the first man I had met in the United States to inspire me with confidence. He suggested that Vladimir Zenzinov, a free-lance Russian journalist, would be in a position to give time to my rescue. I had never heard of Zenzinov, although he had a high reputation as a revolutionist in Czarist days. Mr. Weinbaum assured me that I would be in safe hands. After telephoning Mr. Zenzinov, he sent me to his home on Riverside Drive. I knew I was walking a tightrope by establishing contacts with anti-Communist elements. Mr. Zenzinov showed himself as sympathetic to my plight as his friend, the editor. The circumstances under which Mr. Zenzinov lived in one room did not bespeak affluence. I poured out my heart to him, and he told me that he was sure arrangements could be made to put me in a safe place. He described to me the work of the Tolstoy Foundation to aid refugees from Soviet oppression and the farm which was operated by Countess Alexandra Tolstoy, the favorite daughter of the great Russian writer. It seemed an ideal hide-out and haven.

TENDER SYMPATHY
 Mr. Zenzinov got in touch with Countess Tolstoy at her office in New York, and that afternoon we went down for an interview. Alexandra Tolstoy, too, displayed the tenderest sympathy for me. At last, I felt, I was among people who understood me, who had bonds with America, and who would guide me to a new life.

It was arranged that I continue living with the Porojniakovs until Saturday morning when I would leave for the pier of the Pobeda. But instead of going to the boat, I would go to Zenzinov's place and he would then accompany me to the Reed Farm of the Tolstoy Foundation some 20 miles out of New York.

Friday evening, the night before my scheduled sailing, Porojniakov came home from the consulate, where he served as secretary, unusually early. I was jittery and suspicious. He looked over the bottles and the suitcases in my room, pieces I had sent off to the express company. I was wondering if my surreptitious visits to the anti-Soviet Russians had been spotted.

I retired late that night. As was my habit, I went into the kitchen to get something out of our common refrigerator for a snack. Usually I had tea, sometimes a glass of milk.

SLEPT SOUNDLY
 I was known as a light sleeper. The slightest noise would awaken me. I had the reputation of never being late at school. That night I slept like a drugged person. Not once did I wake up. And when I rose in the morning, my head was as heavy as lead. I ascribed my condition to my nervous tension.

When I emerged from my room, Porojniakov was already up and about, an unusual procedure for him. He stared at me intently and then called my attention to a couple of red marks on my right arm. I looked at them in astonishment, not having been aware of them before.

"Oh, it's just nerves, must be a rash," I remarked, dismissing the matter. At the time nothing else could have entered my mind. It was only many days later, when I was already recovering from my injuries in the Roosevelt Hospital, that my experiences during that night assumed a sinister significance. The note of Molotov to the United States Ambassador was read to me, in which the Soviet Foreign Minister had put special emphasis on the cause of the spots on my arm as they were exhibited to the press while I was held in the Soviet consulate. I then recalled my condition during the night of July 30.

Molotov accused my imaginary abductors of "violently administering a narcotic substance to Kasenkina clearly with the purpose of weakening her will."
USED SUCH METHODS
 This fantastic invention provided a clue to the mystery of those marks on my arm. If Porojniakov had slipped some drug into my food, inducing deep sleep, it would have been no problem for him to enter my room and administer a couple of hypodermic injections. After all, in the show trials of the Great Purge the official Soviet records cite evidence of the NKVD use of such methods.

Came the critical morning of July 31. I bade goodbye to Porojniakov, whose wife was in the country, and left by cab for the pier. Porojniakov said that he would be at the boat later. On the way I had fears of possible pursuers. I proceeded to Zenzinov's apartment where he awaited me. My tension must have been near the breaking point. Most of my hand luggage I left in Mr. Zenzinov's place, where it is still reposing at this writing, before proceeding to the Tolstoy farm. The suggestion was made that I spend the weekend in a New York hotel, but this terrified me. I wanted to get out of New York as quickly as possible. Nearly all my savings had been sunk in articles which were at that moment being loaded onto the Soviet vessel. Mr. Zenzinov and I traveled by motor bus to the farm which was to be my shelter. When I arrived at the restful Reed Farm, to be welcomed by the gracious Alexandra Tolstoy. I thought that my woes had come to an end.

Cooke County Demos Scorn Party Pledge

GAINESVILLE, Oct. 18. (AP)—The Cooke County Democratic executive committee have voted to return unsigned loyalty pledges to the Truman-Barkley presidential slate as required by a resolution adopted at the state convention. Chairman G. D. Bell called the meeting, read the resolution and pledge, and said, "I have publicly stated I refuse to sign the pledge and I do not intend to resign." Ed Liedtke, Sr., precinct chairman in Gainesville, remarked, "I've voted a straight Democratic ticket for 56 years but I do not propose to tell the state Democratic executive committee how I am going to vote."

Non-Commie French Unionists Go Back To Jobs In The Mines

PARIS, Oct. 18. (AP)—Two non-Communist mine union groups ordered their workers back on the job today, but Communist-led miners continued into its third week the strike which has dealt a heavy blow to French recovery efforts.

An official of the non-Communist workers force mine union said members of his group and of the Christian Federation—in all representing about 20 per cent of the miners—have been told to go back. Both groups originally had favored a strike of brief duration.

It was considered doubtful, however, that a large number of miners would risk clashes with Communist union picket lines to return to their jobs.

The Communist-led miners union ordered its maintenance workers to stay out of the pits for 24 hours because it said police were present at a northern mine. The maintenance workers have been guarding against seepages of gas and water into the mines.

IMMIGRATION BARS DOWN

Mexican Workers Go In U. S. Fields

By The Associated Press
 Mexican braceros (laborers) were in Southwest cotton and beet fields today as the result of an unprecedented move by U. S. immigration authorities.

The braceros waded across the shallow Rio Grande at El Paso after immigration authorities there ordered abandonment of efforts to halt illegal entry of the Mexican farm hands.

Grover C. Wilmoth, immigration director at El Paso, said the barriers were let down for the workers Saturday because "they need the work, our farmers need them and the crops were going to waste."

In Mexico City, the government's foreign office said "a thorough investigation" of the border incident would be made and findings submitted to President Miguel Aleman for action.

Foreign Secretary Jaime Torres Bodet said that the incident was a "flagrant violation" of the U. S.-Mexico bracero agreement. Earlier, Don Larin, head of the U. S. Employment Service Farm Placement Bureau, charged that the Mexican government had violated its agreement.

He said Mexican officials came up with a demand that the laborers receive more than the prevailing wages.

The demand for and the supply of braceros were slackening at El Paso last night. An estimated 2,200 were processed and shipped off in the last 24 hours. Several hundred others had already been processed.

Only 40 remained in the border patrol stockade last night. Few crossed after dark, probably because of the colder weather.

Some here said they believed the regulations would be restored within the next 48 hours, perhaps today if no more employers appear.

Under the joint agreement, Mexico is to supply seasonal farm labor to U. S. farmers. The workers are guaranteed wages and treatment equal to that of U. S. workers on the same jobs. Both countries supervise the contracts.

The two countries agreed to try to prevent Mexican workers from entering the U. S. without contracts. The immigration director at El Paso said yesterday that as the braceros waded across the river from Juarez they were placed under arrest and turned over to Texas Employment Commission authorities.

The director said that the TEC "tells us which applicants it approves." The workers went to beet fields in Colorado, Nebraska and Wyoming and to cotton fields in New Mexico and West Texas.

Mexico prohibits the employment of braceros in Texas. It charges there is discrimination in the border state against Mexican nationals.

Big Demand Here For Pickers

Lowering of bars on the "braceros" at El Paso will relieve farm labor demands in the border area and perhaps in the Pecos Valley, L. O. Connally, Texas Employment Commission manager here, ventured today.

Connally said that he did not anticipate any immediate effect from the flood of braceros across the border, although by relieving the heavy demand in the Pecos valley, they may release some migratory workers to report to this section.

Demand for pickers in Howard county are still at a peak. Connally said orders indicate that 1,800 could be placed in Howard county alone. Scurry county needs 600 and Mitchell 500.

Production in Howard county is estimated to be about 26 per cent of the total harvest, pegged originally at about 15,000 bales. Ginnings to the end of the week were 3,940 bales.

Scurry had turned out 5,806 bales on a harvest which may run as high as 30,000 bales. Mitchell county has ginned 3,965 bales toward a 16,000 bale harvest.

COME HOME TO CANNON IN YARD

STRAFFORD, Pa., Oct. 18.—Mr. and Mrs. John A. Reilly returned home from the movies to be told by their baby sitter: "There's a cannon in the back yard."

Reilly took a look and, sure enough, there was a cannon in the back yard of his suburban main line home.

The weapon turned out to be a 105 MM Howitzer owned by the Valley Forge Military Academy. Officials of the academy said the howitzer apparently broke loose from a truck on convoy several days ago and rolled into the Reilly yard.

Democracy Should Not Lie Down With Any Dictatorship

In Rome these days Marshall Rodolfo Graziani stands trial and competent observers contend that "all the cruelty, fanaticism, and warped idealism of Italian fascism stands on trial" with him. This is entirely possible, for Graziani is an apt personification of Italian fascism. Italians would like to forget the chapter that brought them to shame and ruin. They would like to chalk it off as a bad dream, a frightful mistake.

Many of their neighbors, who didn't succumb to the easy path when it appeared to be paying off, would like to forget it, too, but they can't so easily erase the degeneracy from their consciousness. Fascism can't be wiped away from the memories of those who have suffered at its hands.

It is somewhat amazing, therefore, to note the proposed softening toward Franco's Spain in these latter days. In the game of international expediency, such a move is explained vaguely as expediency and hedging against military eventualities. That hedging, of course, is against Soviet Russia, and the reasoning seems to be that if Franco has always been anti-Communist, he might come in handy some day.

It is a tragic prostitution of logic. So was Hitler an opponent of Communist Russia. Franco is no better than his German and Italian masters in fascism. Democracy is the antithesis of totalitarianism. It does not have to lie down—and indeed it ought never to be compromised in lying down—with any form of totalitarianism.

A Warm And Human Thing Is Your Community Chest

The Community Chest is not some cold, inanimate, soul-less thing that annually extracts tribute from citizens.

No indeed, it is alive and warm because it touches people to spread the blessings of the milk of human kindness.

It deals with children, maybe your daughter or the kid in the next block who someday may be going out with her. It deals with wide-awake boys and girls who find themselves isolated on a sea of misunderstanding between childhood and maturity.

It deals with people who missed a step; with those who have tasted the dregs of life, with those east a drift; with those in want of food for their bodies or souls.

No indeed, the Chest is not a collecting agency; it is the modern Good Samaritan. How much it can do in helping to shape the lives of youngsters, in lifting up the fallen, in lodging the homeless and feeding the hungry, in stirring ambition for righteous living among the youth is dependent upon you.

But you're just a little person? Nonsense! You're the stuff which makes our city tick. As you go, so goes the town. Don't think your gift is unimportant, because it is one of the planks which build the walls of the chest. Don't pass it over lightly or settle for less than a day's pay. Don't settle for even that if you are honestly able to do better. Why? Well, give and you'll know why. You'll have to experience the feeling; we can't describe it to you.

New Overtime Pay Regulations Established By Court Ruling

WASHINGTON, (AP)—THIS IS AN ABC on a new interpretation — by the U. S. Supreme Court—of the wage-hour law.

The government begins enforcing it Monday.

The new interpretation comes in on something that is called "premium" or "differential" pay.

That's when a boss pays a worker a little more than the regular rate of pay for working inconvenient hours, like nights, Saturdays or Sunday.

This works in several ways. Take them separately:

Example No. 1: Jones gets $40 for a regular 40-hour week. But in that plant the boss pays the man going to work at 5 p. m., a flat $4 extra for the week—premium pay for the unusual working hours.

If that night man works more than 40 hours a week, his time and one half pay for overtime is based on the total $44 he received, not on the regular $40.

Example No. 2: Some unions have put this into their contract with employers: any man who has to work more than eight hours in any day must get premium or extra pay for doing it.

mium pay for that one hour he worked Tuesday over his regular eight.

Suppose it happened that, by working one hour extra one day, he winds up the week with 41 hours. Then his total pay for the week is $40.50. How come?

His regular pay is $1 an hour. Time-and-one-half for overtime at that rate means 50 cents an hour, more or $1.50 for every overtime hour.

But he's already received 25 cents in premium pay for that one hour extra he worked. So he has only 25 cents more due him to round out the overtime.

Example No. 3: Some bosses pay workers premium pay for work on Saturday and Sunday. But if a man works overtime by working Saturday and Sunday, he must be paid at overtime, not a lower premium, rate.

If a worker is only rounding out his 40-hour week by working Saturday and Sunday, the boss doesn't have to pay any more than the regular pay for other days, unless he's agreed to give premium pay for those two days.

But suppose a boss has agreed to that and one of his employees starts his week on Thursday. Then he gets regular pay for Thursday and Friday, premium pay for Saturday and Sunday, regular pay of Monday, thus making 40 hours.

But say he has to work overtime in that week of his by working Tuesday and Wednesday, or 16 hours over his regular 40 hours.

Then the total money the worker received in the preceding 40 hours, including Saturday and Sunday premium days—is added together to first figure his average pay, then work out his overtime pay.

THE CONTRACT SAYS THE BOSS HAS TO pay 25 cents an hour extra for any hour over eight hours worked in any one day.

Suppose Smith—getting $40 for a five-day, 40-hour week—works nine hours Tuesday but winds up the week working only 40 hours because Wednesday he worked only seven.

Thus his total pay for the week is $40.25. That's because he gets the 25 cents pre-

A Way To Spend A Rainy Day: Get Out Trusty Bubble Gun

NEW YORK, (AP)—A LANKY CONNECTICUT Yankee who is a pioneer of railroading in a small way now wants to set all America bubble gunning.

The people who engage in railroading in a small way are those who run miniature choo-choos around their living rooms and basements. Supplying them with choo-choos is now a $60 million industry.

As for bubble gunning, a coming indoor sport, let William Russell Smith, the Connecticut Yankee, explain.

with it.

"Well, when things get dull," explained Smith. "You pull one trigger and out float two or maybe three bubbles. Then you pull the other trigger. It automatically fires harmless little cardboard pellets."

"And—?"

"THE IDEA," SAID SMITH, "IS TO hit the soap bubbles with the pellets and break them—the bubbles, I mean. The gun holds 800 to 1,000 soap bubbles and 200 to 400 pellets, and of course you can purchase refills."

This sounded like a wonderful way to spend a rainy day at the office, and I promptly accepted. I expect to have a fine time—if my boss doesn't confiscate the bubble gun.

It turned out that the anti-bubble gun was only a side gadget with Smith, who is the Thomas A. Edison of model railroading.

This dry-voiced, 38-year-old ex-machinist holds or has applied for 100 patents in the field.

"And please don't call them toy trains," said Smith. "It makes the kids mad—and their fathers, too. The dads get as much fun out of them as the kids. And model trains aren't exactly toys anyway. They're built to the same scale as real locomotives."

He came up to my desk and asked: "How would you like to have a double-barreled toy gun that fires soap bubbles and cardboard bullets?"

"I don't know what else life can offer me," I said. "But just what would I do?"

Washington Merry-Go-Round — Drew Pearson

Revercomb's Attitude Toward Nazis Helps Explain Coolness From Dewey

Copyright by Bell Syndicate, 1948

WASHINGTON—It isn't hard to understand—when you know all the inside facts—why Governor Dewey has so carefully steered clear of helping Republican Senator Chappy Revercomb of West Virginia in his re-election fight.

Not only did Revercomb ram through Congress the displaced persons act discriminating against Jews and Catholics, but on July 6, 1948, he telegraphed the Justice department asking that some of the worst nazis in the U. S. A. be kept in this country.

The Justice department had ordered these nazis deported, but for reasons best known to himself, Senator Revercomb demanded that the deportation order be canceled.

Here are some of the nazis the Republican senator from West Virginia wanted kept in the U. S. A.:

Max Albrecht Blank—indicted for conspiracy to commit espionage in the Duquesne case. Pleaded guilty of violating the foreign agents act and was sentenced to eighteen months in jail. Also employed in the German library propaganda outfit in New York.

Andrew Heinrich Jans and his wife, Emma—visited by one of the eight nazi saboteurs in Chicago when they arrived in this country by submarine. Jans and his wife were given $3,600 in cash by nazi spy Neubauer for safekeeping.

Paul Knauer—U. S. Supreme Court, ruling on his denaturalization, said on June 10, 1946: "There is solid, convincing evidence that Knauer before the date of his naturalization and subsequently was thoroughly going nazi and a faithful follower of Adolf Hitler."

Fritz Robert Koehler—member of German Bund and employe of German consulate in Los Angeles. During the war he refused to work, saying he would not aid U. S. war effort.

Hartwig Reese—when arrested, the nazi flag, swastikas, photographs of Hitler and Mussolini, and fascist propaganda were found in his possession. He was leader of the German Bund in San Francisco.

Kurt Ludecke—author of the book, "I Knew Hitler," which was dedicated to Ernst Roehm, Gregor Strasser "and many other nazis who were betrayed, murdered, and traduced in their graves."

The list of nazi Senator Revercomb wanted kept in the U. S. A. is too long to be published here, and will be continued in a future column.

KEEPING THE RECORD STRAIGHT

President Truman spoke sorrowfully about how the Republicans gutted western reclamation projects at the last Congress—which they most certainly did. But he didn't remind the people that he rewarded the chief G. O. P. enemy of reclamation—Congressman Robert Jones of Lima, Ohio—with a juicy appointment to the Federal Communications commission. Harold Stassen, always quick to challenge others to debate until he crossed issues with Tom Dewey, is now slower on the uptake. The Women's Press Club recently invited Stassen to settle his farm price debate in a public forum with Secretary of Agriculture Charlie Brannan. Brannan promptly accepted, but Stassen held back.

RED TAPE OVER AIR Veterans going into the air-freight business are still snarled in red tape, can't get government certification from the Civil Aeronautics Board. In formal hearings the board has been lined up almost solidly behind the big airlines which are opposing the veterans.

One CAB member, Harold A. Jones, was so eloquent in expressing the big airlines' point of view that the grateful American airlines counsel, Dan Gribbon, inadvertently let slip this remark in front of everyone:

"Mr. Jones, I don't think you could have put your company's policy into better words."

Jones coughed nervously, colored with embarrassment.

Note—The Air Force has announced the urgent need for building up an air-cargo fleet. Yet usually astute Seth Richardson, counsel for Northwest Airlines, testified: "This whole proceeding is inopportune. There may be need for an air-freight industry five or ten years from now, but not now."

WHISKY BATTLE The whisky industry, which has witnessed many a David and Goliath battle, is headed for another when the Internal Revenue Bureau opens hearings today on the question of labeling Scotch whisky made in the U. S. A.

The powerful Scotch whisky trust—Distillers Corporation, Ltd.—claims that the word "Scotch" means made in Scotland, and that this word should be banned from the labels of all American-made Scotch.

If so, a small group of American distillers, led by the Scottish-American Distilling Co. of Peoria, Ill., claim they will be driven to the wall. They are already suffering unfair restriction being required to label their product "Scotch-type" whisky, they argue. This makes people think it is an imitation of the real product.

Big American distillers of bourbon are officially observing a pious neutrality, while secretly aligned with the Scotch importers. Lone exception is Hiram Walker, which has been producing some domestic Scotch.

The others—Schenleys, Seagram and National Distillers—all act as distributing agents of various brands of Scotch imports. So they would shed no tears if some of their American Scotch competition were killed off.

To fight their case Distillers Corporation, Ltd., have hired the biggest name-lawyer available—John W. Davis, once Democratic nominee for president.

Not to be outdone, the U. S. Scotch Distillers have hired Joseph Numan, Jr., former commissioner of internal revenue. It will be a merry fight.

MERRY-GO-ROUND The University of Wisconsin seems to have fallen for some neat propaganda by the Wisconsin Power and Light company. The university's extension service is circulating a so-called "educational" film prepared by Wisconsin Power and Light which inferentially compares public power with nazism. It is costing AFL leaders more than $20,000 to set up an independent labor committee to campaign for Truman and Barkley—largely because the Teamsters Union Chief Dan Tobin blocked endorsement of the Democratic ticket. The CIO has decided not to pull out of the world Federation of Trade Unions, to which the Russians also belong. Phil Murray feels no membership in the organization gives a loophole by which the CIO can get ideas behind the Iron curtain.

Mrs. O'Brien Tells About Movie Mothers

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—This week Veronica Lake's mother was making news by suing her daughter for support. Let's talk to another movie mother and find out what the job is really like.

Our subject is Gladys O'Brien, a handsome, graying brunette with flashing eyes. Her daughter is a precocious million-dollar package named Margaret, not yet a dozen years old.

"The biggest problem for a screen mother," Mrs. O'Brien remarked, "is to keep the child from being spoiled. People think, 'Poor little girl, she works so hard,' and they tend to spoil her."

"However, the studio work itself is discipline and that helps. Like all children, Margaret may argue, but she has never said 'I won't' to me yet. I don't know what I'd do if she did."

Mrs. O'Brien was keeping a vigil outside her daughter's school room on "The Secret Garden" set. She is always nearby her famous charge.

"A movie mother doesn't get any time to herself or have much of a life outside her child," she said. "A few times I have left Margaret with someone else overnight and I can tell the difference in her the next day."

"I've never been on a vacation by myself since she was born. I won't be able to until she grows up."

AA Is An Organization That Helps A Fellow Help Himself

(This is another of a special series dealing with organizations sharing in the Community Chest.—E.A.)

Alcoholics Anonymous reaches out and embraces persons from all stations in life, the rich and the poor, the man who has made his mark in business and the individual who has never been able to hold a job more than two weeks at a time.

The vast organization, which has been functioning since the early '30's, plays no favorites. It concerns itself with the person seriously interested in helping himself, the sick alcoholic who can't leave intoxicants alone but would like to strengthen his resistance.

The movement was born back east when a man high in the business world, finding himself fighting a losing battle with Demon Rum, took inventory of himself one day and decided the best way to rid himself of his shackles was to lend moral assistance to the most hopeless drunkard he knew. He sought out the individual, cemented their relationship by sticking with him and lending encouragement in the friend's darkest hour and both eventually found themselves on "the road back."

By helping others, the man discovered he had helped himself. He was determined other victims of drink would profit by his experiences and he contacted others who drank to excess within his circle. Again he used his special psychology and worked with repeated success.

Each person who underwent the "special treatment" within the group had a different story to tell, different as to time and place and characters involved but alike in one respect. Eventually most of the experiences were put to print and out of it came the AA "bible", now a must on the reading list of most members of the group.

Some 4,000,000 persons in this country alone drink regularly. An astonishing 800,000 of that group are considered chronic alcoholics. The AA's list some 80,000 members on its rolls and the number is increasing rapidly.

Persons as young as 20 and as old as 70 have sought out the organization, seeking assistance.

In two, short years of activity here, Alcoholics Anonymous has handled approximately 145 individuals. Of that number, at least 85 recoveries were reported. There are an estimated 500 alcoholics within the county alone, nearly half of whom are considered chronic cases.

Each victim of drink ordinarily causes concern to 20 people or more, including husbands or wives, fathers and mothers, children, in-laws, creditors, bosses, fellow employees, etc.

The $1,975 set aside in the Community Chest fund for AA work is for rent, utilities, yard upkeep, furnishings and maintenance of the local club. Sober alcoholics and their friends are entitled to use the unit's facilities at all times.

The AA itself does not accept contributions for its work, preferring to raise the needed funds within its ranks. Some $900 is paid in here annually to carry on the AA program.

The local organization convenes every Tuesday night at 8 o'clock and every third Sunday in an open session for educational purposes.—TOMMY HART.

Some Causes For Optimism About European Situation

SIGNS ARE INCREASING THAT THE democracies finally have the Communist aggression in Europe fairly well in hand. Your correspondent has been calling attention to this gratifying tendency but returns to the subject because the success of the Western Allies is a much needed antidote to the dismal precisions of war we have been bearing.

While we shouldn't allow ourselves to be fooled into any feeling of false security in these obviously dangerous days, there is sound reason for encouragement.

TESTIMONY IN SUPPORT OF THIS thesis comes from General Lucius D. Clay, American Military Commander in Germany, who expresses the belief that "Soviet expansion will not only be halted, it will recede," if the Western Powers continue to stand firm in Berlin.

General Clay maintains that the rise of democratic forces and economic recovery in Western Europe will create pressure against Soviet domination in the satellite countries. Personally, I believe there are many signs that when such pressure has been created, there are likely to be revolts against the red domination by the liberty loving peoples of countries like Czechoslovakia.

Even more sweeping claim of success comes from Paul G. Hoffman, economic co-operation administrator, who declares that "the Marshall Plan has not only stopped the march of Communism but has turned the tide in the other direction."

HE FURTHER SAYS THAT IF WESTERN European countries remain free nations and stay united with America, "we can, I believe, be sure that no aggressor will march against us."

However, while the Soviets have used up most of their heaviest ammunition in Europe, we must expect a good deal of hard fighting yet. France and Italy, with their great and powerful Communist parties, remain danger spots and the Bolsheviks are exploiting these unhappy nations to the utmost. Thus it is good to hear from Mr. Hoffman that there have been notable improvements in both countries.

Then, too, we mustn't overlook the great offensive which the red Cominform is pressing in the Orient. It's too early to predict what may come out of that.

Still, the democracies have full right to be confident of ultimate success.

Today And Tomorrow — Walter Lippmann

Present U. N. Attack Will Not Remove Berlin Duress

It is not about time to ask ourselves whether our position in the Berlin dispute cannot be based on something stronger, sounder, and better than the formula now in use? We are saying that we won't negotiate under duress but that the moment the Russians lift the blockade we are willing to negotiate on all German questions in a Council of Foreign Ministers.

The trouble with this formula is that even if the Russians accepted it, we should still, as respects Berlin, be negotiating under duress. For Berlin will still be deep inside the Soviet zone of military occupation, and therefore the Russians will still control the land approaches to Berlin. Therefore, though they now lifted the blockade, they would retain the power to impose it again. The fact that they had this power would hang, like the sword of Damocles, over the negotiations in the Council of Foreign Ministers, and in a very real sense we would be negotiating under duress: the duress of knowing that if the negotiations failed, we should be back with the blockade, the air lift, and the choice between appeasement and an ultimatum.

It is evident, therefore, that the formula for which we are now contending is not a solution of the problem of Berlin. It fails to take into account the real situation, which is that as long as Berlin is surrounded by the Red Army, our position in Berlin must remain highly vulnerable.

Our right to be in Berlin may be absolute. But our ability to stay in Berlin will be contingent on how the Russians calculate the risks of exploiting their strategic superiority. And no verdict of the Security Council, no diplomatic formula agreed to now, can do away with the fact that Berlin is a military pocket well behind the front line of the Red Army.

Does it not follow that the real alternative to our surrendering Berlin to the Russians is to ask that all the occupying powers leave Berlin and the territory around it? Granting that the withdrawal of all the armies from Germany cannot take place until the terms of a peace treaty have been negotiated—it does not follow that a withdrawal of the armies from the center of Germany to the periphery might not be arranged for the period during which a Germany peace treaty is being negotiated.

Backs High Pay

PRAGUE, (AP)—Even a Communist run state is troubled by complaints about high salaries paid to top industrial executives. But the Prague trade union daily, "Prace," says that such complaints about "privileged persons" are the work of "reactionary instigators."

In an editorial, "Prace" said it received complaints about the high salaries of factory managers. The editorial answered these letters by saying that "some of the high officials of the nationalized industries could not be paid enough, even if given their weight in gold." It added that a floor sweeper who works only eight hours a day can enjoy life more than the executive who is working "even in his bed—if he manages to get to bed at all"

Hawks Open Circuit Play On January 7

Cagers Launch Drills Today

A 12-game schedule has been arranged for the Howard County Junior college basketball Jayhawks and Coach Harold Davis said today he was interested in booking "two or three more contests".
Davis returned yesterday from Lubbock, where he attended a schedule meeting of Western Zone Conference coaches and completed preparations for opening fall practice of his collegians in the campus gymnasium at 3 p. m. today.
He is expecting about 30 boys out today, three of them lettermen from last year's squad.

According to present plans, the Hawks will open their 1948-49 program in a game with the Hardin-Simmons university freshmen here. He wants to play as early as Dec. 1 or 2, however, he said.
Other member schools of the Western Zone JC conference are Amarillo, Wayland of Plainview and Odessa. Wayland will complete this year, despite the fact that it has made application to be recognized as a senior college next March. Whether or not the games in which they play will count in the standings will be decided later, Davis stated.

The Hawk schedule:
Dec. 7—Stout (home)
Dec. 10—Weatherford JC (home)
Dec. 11—Hanger tournament
Jan. 7—Amarillo JC (home)
Jan. 8—Weatherford JC (home)
Jan. 15—San Angelo JC (home)
Jan. 21—Wayland (conference)
Jan. 22—Odessa (conference)
Feb. 1—Odessa (home)
Feb. 12—Stout (home)
Feb. 13—Weatherford (home)
Feb. 14—Wayland (home)
Feb. 15—Amarillo (home)

Hogan Rallies To Win Open

GLENDALE, Calif., Oct. 18. (AP)—Ben Hogan won the inaugural $15,000 Glendale Open yesterday with 13-under par score of 275 for the 72 holes of play at the Oakmont Country Club.
Bantam Ben erased Lloyd Mangrum's victory hopes in yesterday's final round with a 64—eight blows under par.
Mangrum had a total of 277.
Hogan pocketed $2,450 first money and brought his earnings up to $35,547 in PGA-sponsored tournament play this year.

Mangrum received $1,750 and brought his earnings to $34,358.32.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART

Here's the way they may lineup in the Bowl games New Year's Day.
COTTON BOWL—Texas vs. Georgia Tech. The Longhorns have been defeated twice but look to have the goods necessary to win the Southwest conference, especially since they play SMU at home. Georgia Tech has knocked over Vanderbilt, Tulane, Washington and Lee and Auburn in succession, still has toughies with Duke, Tennessee, Alabama and Georgia besides games with Florida and The Citadel.
ROSE BOWL—Northwestern vs. California. The Wildcats were beaten by Michigan last Saturday but the Wolverines can't return to Pasadena before 1952. Northwestern still has games with Syracuse, Ohio State, Wisconsin, Notre Dame and Illinois on its program. California is far and away the best thing on the Coast with the possible exception of Oregon, does not play that eleven this fall.
SUGAR BOWL—North Carolina vs. Penn State. The Tarheels have played the toughest part of their schedule and came through with flying colors. Only Tennessee has a chance to trip them up. The Nittany Lions are headed for their second successive unbeaten season. Only Penn on Nov. 6 and Washington State on Nov. 27 will provide major tests.

ORANGE BOWL—Missouri vs. Clemson. The Tigers can write their own ticket if they beat Oklahoma two weeks from next Saturday. Kansas will provide some trouble on Nov. 25. Clemson was never taken seriously until it knocked over Mississippi State. The remainder of the Tigers' schedule is none too tough.
SUN BOWL—Texas Mines vs. Utah or Nevada.
ROBB CO-CAPTAIN OF METHODIST FROSH TEAM
Ike Robb, the rugged grinder who played guard to all-district perfection for Big Spring high school last season, served as co-captain of the Southern Methodist university frosh team in the game against the Rice Owlets last Friday night.
Robb was in action all but a few minutes and turned in a most creditable performance, according to reports.
The Big Springer plays opposite Gordon Headlee, the Odessa boy who also rated the All-District JAA team last fall.

LOCAL GRID ELEVEN IN FAIR PHYSICAL SHAPE
Bobby Wheeler, who was injured prior to the current season, suffered several battered ribs in last Saturday's night's Big Spring-Odessa B game.
Billy Van Pelt, a regular on the varsity squad, hurt a leg in Friday's bout with Brownfield but is due to report for practice today.
Outside of those two boys, and Don Williams and Kelly Lawrence, who were not used Friday the Steers are in fair shape for their next game. Donnie Carter, the 177-pound fullback who missed the Brownfield contest, is due to be back in the lineup soon.

LOCAL POLO TEAM TO TAKE PART IN TOURNEY
Dr. M. H. Bennett and Roy Barry, the local poloists, were skied to Vernon Sunday by Bill Edwards for the finals of the El Ranchito polo tournament, which found a crack Vernon club slapping down an Abilene team by a score of 12-3.
The Vernons were led by Roy's brother, Harold a seven-goal player, and Dutch Ellinger, who also carries a seven-goal handicap and who may be rated at eight or better in 1949.
Bennett and Roy Barry will take a Big Spring polo team to El Paso to compete in a gigantic tournament starting there Nov. 5.

Most Hi Teams To Concentrate On Loop Play

The Texas schoolboy football campaign rumbles into its heart of the championship race this weekend with 41 of the 54 games counting in district standings.
Fourteen teams are undefeated, ten of them unbeaten and untied. Conference games start in one district of the City Conference—the Dallas district—and first championship tilts are scheduled in four Class AA districts.
Feature games of the state are the clash of John Reagan (Houston) with Port Arthur—an interconference affair matching undefeated, untied teams—and a battle between Alice and San Benito for first place in District 14 of Class AA.
The Alice-San Benito game also sees two of the state's unbeaten teams tangle. Alice is undefeated and untied, San Benito has been tied.
Important conference games dot the schedule from top to bottom. The feature of the City Conference will be the clash of Brackenridge and Alamo Heights in the San Antonio District. Both are unbeaten in conference play.
Headlining the Class AA card are:
Odessa vs. San Angelo in District 3. They are undefeated.
Brackenridge vs. Stephenville in District 7. This game matches two of the top-rated teams of the district. Stephenville is undefeated and untied over the full season route.
Gladewater vs. Texarkana in District 8. They are undefeated in two conference games apiece. Gladewater last week upset favored Marshall 14-7.
The state's undefeated, untied list shows Arlington Heights (Fort Worth) and Milby and John Reagan of Houston in the City Conference and Amarillo, Sweetwater, Stephenville, Henderson, Waco, Fort Arthur and Alice in Class AA. Lamar of Houston is unbeaten but has been tied. South Park of Beaumont, Baytown and San Benito

RECORD LOSS Texans Make It Difficult For The Babe

FORT WORTH, Oct. 18. (AP)—Texas isn't doing right by Texas Babe Didrikson Zaharias — Texas women golfers, that is.
Texans are beating the world's foremost feminine athlete more than all the other competitors put together.
The Babe, who hails from Beaumont, Tex., ran into her second reversal in two years here Saturday as she fell before Polly Riley, diminutive Fort Worth star, in the Women's Texas Open.
Miss Riley, the 23-year-old Curtis Cup player, trimmed Mrs. Zaharias 10 and 9 in the 36-hole finals.
A year ago Mrs. Zaharias was knocked out of the Texas Open by Mrs. Bettye Mims White of Dallas.
Miss Riley has been a top golfer for six years but it was 1947 before she broke into the national limelight by winning the Trans-Mississippi.
This year Miss Riley has taken the Florida-East Coast at San Augustine, Fla., and Trans-Mississippi and Southern.
Her first victory of note was in 1942 when she captured the West Texas Women's tournament.
This year the stocky Fort Worth miss (she's barely over five feet tall) has hit the tournament trail with a vengeance. She has played in 18 events in addition to the Curtis Cup matches.
Today she reported to a law firm where she will be in the book-keeping department. Miss Riley has been a stenographer and life insurance salesman.
carry this distinction in the City Conference.
Two teams fell from the undefeated ranks last week. Austin of El Paso lost to Waite High of Hondo, O., 20-13 and Gladewater knocked out Marshall.

STOUT GANIS FOR TCU — Pete Stout, fullback and captain of the TCU Horned Frogs, smashes through the center of the Texas A&M line for a short gain in the first quarter of their game at College Station, Texas. Herbert Ellis, A&M center, comes in to assist on the stop (55). TCU won the game 27-14. (AP Wirephoto).

OWLS PLAY TEXAS

Rice, Texas A&M Scrap To Stay In Loop Fight

By WILBUR MARTIN
Associated Press Staff
Stakes run high in the Southwest Conference this week as Rice and Texas A&M play for survival in the championship chase.

The odds are against A&M dumping unbeaten Baylor and Rice winning over the Texas Longhorns. Southern Methodist University takes on Santa Clara in an inter-sectional tilt at Dallas. Texas Christian entertains Oklahoma at Fort Worth.

Rice fell to SMU under a brutal barrage of Gil Johnson passes and Doak Walker runs last week, 33-7. Texas beat Arkansas 14-8, and had a gilt-edge statistical margin.

Texas A&M lost to Texas Christian, 27-14, in the opening minutes play. Baylor waddled over Texas Tech in the mud, 13-0, to protect the only unbeaten record in the conference. The Bears have a 7-7 tie with Mississippi State as the only flaw on their slate.

Both A&M and Rice have been beaten once in conference play. Two defeats in the circuit almost always spells "finis" to title aspirations. Arkansas already is being counted out of the running.

The beating Rice took by Southern Methodist may show up in the weakened physical condition of the players this week—another factor in Texas' favor if it does. The Longhorns did most of the pushing against Arkansas.

Baylor's narrow margin over Texas Tech did little to dull the shine on the Bear's glimmering performance this year. It only demonstrated they had a dependable crew of pluggers behind a steady line. Johnson turned in a terrific performance against Rice, pitching three touchdown passes and connecting on seven of ten for 130 yards.

Walker's touchdowns and three extra points ran his scoring for the season to 53 points, seventeen better than Pete Stout of Texas as Christian with 36. Stout took over second in scoring with three touchdowns against A&M. Clyde Scott of Arkansas is third with 30 points. He added six to his total with the Porkers' only touchdown against Texas.

Eleven Grid Teams Still Boast Unbeaten And Untied Records

NEW YORK, Oct. 18. (AP)—Michigan and Notre Dame, sailing along on the longest winning streaks in college football, were back in their familiar roles today as the leading candidates for national honors.

The list of unbeaten, untied teams number 11, still an imposing array, but the schedules seem to favor those two mighties from the Midlands who finished last season 1/2 in the Associated Press poll.

The East, cradle of the sport it can no longer dominate, was four of the unblemished representatives in Army, Cornell, Pennsylvania and Penn State.

In better shape are the other unbeaten—Georgia Tech, North Carolina and Clemson from the heart of Dixie, and California and Nevada from the far west.
The three Southern teams fortunately don't run into each other and wind up their schedules against sectional foes. California plays a strict Pacific Coast card the rest of the way. Nevada, the little team that leads the nation in offense, doesn't meet opposition of the size to warrant much national consideration.

Two of the unbeaten collide coming Saturday when Army meets Cornell at Ithaca. They have won four games each, yet remain something of an unknown quantity.

Michigan's Wolverines graduated from the question-mark class Saturday with a resounding 28-0 conquest of Northwestern. They proved they could still get along without All-American Bob Chappuis and Bump Elliott. They just gave the ball to a lad named Leo Koceskiand he

Flock Thunders To 32-6 Win

KNOTT, Oct. 18.—Ackerly Eagles thundered to a 32-6 victory over the Knott Hillbillies here Friday night to keep the District 4 six-man grid race in a three-way tie.
Darrrel Crass sprinted 20-yards for the first Eagle score in the opening quarter. The Hillies knotted the count, however, when Don Barnes swiped an Eagle pass and ran it back 65 yards for a touchdown early in the second period. The Eagles gained a permanent advantage a few moments later when Crass climaxed a 75-yard drive by plunging over from three yards out. Gail Batson pulled in a pass for the extra point.

In the third Gerald Rogers counted twice for the Eagles, scooting over from the two and then ripping off a 45-yard touchdown run. Crass bucked over for one extra point.
A pass play, with Clinton Lauderdale on the receiving end of a 47-yard gainer late in the fourth, completed the scoring. The final whistle blew just as Lauderdale pulled the ball out of the air.

Ackerly, Union and Flower Grove are tied for the district lead. The Eagles and Union will settle their part of the argument on the Ackerly gridiron Friday night.
Carl Smith, Big Spring, in all departments. Rip Smith, Big Spring, won one nine from Clayton Webster, Angelo, but that was all.
Herschel (Red) Ramsey, Angelo, downed Ray Snyder, Big Spring, on both nines and the 18.

strated they had a dependable crew of pluggers behind a steady line. Johnson turned in a terrific performance against Rice, pitching three touchdown passes and connecting on seven of ten for 130 yards.

Chibears Crush Detroit, 28-0

NEW YORK, Oct. 18. (AP)—The fight for sectional honors in the National Football League and in the Western Division of the rival All-America Conference is growing more tense.

In the National League the Chicago Bears pace the Western Division by one game while the Philadelphia Eagles lead the Eastern half by only half a game.
The San Francisco 49ers enjoy only half a game lead over Cleveland in the All-America's Western Division race. In the Eastern Division, the Baltimore Colts are two games in front of the runner-up New York Yankees and Buffalo Bills.

The Bears crushed the Detroit Lions, 28-0, yesterday to stay in front of the Defending Champion Chicago Cardinals. The Cards ripped the New York Giants, 63-35. Philadelphia trampled the Washington Redskins, 45-0 to gain sole possession of first place from the Skins and Pittsburgh Steelers. The Steelers were beaten, 13-7, by the Boston Yanks. In the other National League game the Green Bay Packers blanked the Los Angeles Rams, 18-0.

The 49'ers turned back the Yanks, 21-7. The Cleveland Browns remained hard on the 29ers heels by thumping the Buffalo Bills, 31-14.

TOO LOW Veck Ignores Offers For His Part Of Tribe

CLEVELAND, Oct. 18. (AP)—Bill Veck, president of the world champion Cleveland Indians, said today that "two or three offers for his interest in the ball club were not 'fabulous' enough to interest him current for months.
Veck has been saying "I'm not going anywhere. I'm staying in Cleveland."
Today in answer to a reporter's questions, he declared, "like anyone else, I'd sell my stock if I had a chance to get the money I'd want for it."

He said "I have received two or three offers. None has been high enough. It would take a really fabulous bid to interest me."
Vice President Hank Greenberg is among those rumored to be interested in purchasing the club, but Veck said "I don't think Henry would be interested in buying the Indians."

The Tribe prxy declined to indicate where the offers came from. He is the largest single stockholder, his shares of the club being reported at about 30 per cent.

Getz Tries For Second Win Over Marvel At AC Tonight

A head-on collision which may cause some of the rivets in Pat O'Dowdy's Sportatorium to rip loose occurs at the palace of sweat and sweat tonight.

That would be the skirmish between Al Getz of Pittsburgh, Penn. and Jack Steele, better known as the Marvel.

Steele has never been beaten here and is very proud of that record. Only last week he pummeled Rod Fenton, old Jack The Ripper himself.

Getz drew first blood, having throttled the fat-cheeked one in Amarillo a couple of weeks ago. A great unveiling ceremony took place during the match. Steele not only lost the decision but his false face and the secret surrounding his identity, as well.

So he'll be gunning for revenge tonight against a bloke that obviously likes to assume the role of the buffalo but who can wrestle like all get-out when he's amind to.

For the 8:30 o'clock opener, Promotor O'Dowdy has booked Sammy Kohen, the original Red Devil, and Dick Trout. Kohen hails from New York City, Trout from California.

Kohen is the better known here although Trout has been a regular

SAMMY KOHEN
Devil in Prelim

visitor here for several years.
Kohen, a meanie, is capable of giving anyone trouble if the referee doesn't watch him closely. Trout is a plodder, is apt to give as well as take, if he becomes aroused.

New Developments Promised In Siegel Shooting Mystery

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif., Oct. 18.—"Startling developments" may soon be forthcoming in the 16-month-old Bugsy Siegel murder case, Police Chief Clinton H. Anderson says. "We know who killed Siegel but the persons involved are so big we can't go out and give them the bum's rush," declared Chief Anderson yesterday. "Siegel was killed on orders of an international underworld syndicate," he added. "This was no ordinary shooting. There was big money behind it."

Chief Anderson said he needs only time to gather more corroborating evidence before making an arrest.

Houston Stock Show To Offer $51,000 Prizes

HOUSTON, Oct. 18. (AP)—Prizes totaling $51,000 will be made to winning exhibitors in the 1949 Houston Fat Stock Show, W. Albert Lee, president of the show, said Saturday. Fat stock show employees Saturday were mailing copies of the 130-page premium list to county agents, vocational agricultural teachers throughout Texas and to potential exhibitors in 40 other states. Copies also are being mailed to livestock breeders in Cuba, Honduras, Mexico, Guatemala, Canada and Venezuela. Lee said entries for the cattle, sheep and swine divisions will close Dec. 15, with entries for the horse, poultry and rabbit exhibits closing Jan. 15.

Chest

Cathy, Bob McEwen, D. T. Evans, Avery Falkner, John Dibrill, W. D. Berry, D. M. McKinney, Eugene Hutchins, Clyde Watts, Jr., Joe Stanley. On most of the big gifts reported to date, contributions have been raised 27 per cent (the amount needed to close the gap between last year's total and the goal for this year). Some have gone up as high as 50 per cent and many as high as 35 per cent.

Donors were urged to remember that the Chest is a "six-in-one gift." Were this not so, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Salvation Army, YMCA and AAs and Chest would each have to make separate appeals, which doubtless would cost more because each would have its administrative expense, which is taken care of in the Chest campaign by the Chest. Donors also are encouraged to designate the division of their gifts. At this time, the Alcoholics Anonymous are thus assured of their $1,975 quota.

State Fair Moves Toward New Record

DALLAS, Oct. 18. (AP)—The state fair of Texas moved toward a new attendance record today as it went into its final week. Yesterday 212,560 persons braved cold weather and high winds to visit the fair, bringing the total for the year to 1,149,508. Last year at this time 1,077,740 had visited the big exposition.

A hook-up and pump race by volunteer fire departments from 11 Texas towns was a feature of the fair program yesterday. The Mesquite, Tex., fire department won just 22.1 seconds to hook up and lay 100 feet of fire hose.

Wallace Looks Toward 1952

DETROIT, Oct. 18. (AP)—Henry Wallace, looking toward the 1952 election, moves his musical presidential campaign to Pittsburgh today.

He was still striving for every possible vote for his Progressive Party on Nov. 2—two weeks hence—but he was also taking every opportunity to hammer home this message:

"No matter what the vote is, on Nov. 2 I am not going to quit this fight. This party is going to keep right on going."

Wallace bore down heavy on that theme yesterday at three meetings in Detroit and Flint, Mich., fighting to offset the anti-Wallace leadership of the CIO United Auto Workers.

That union, headed by Walter Reuther, has rejected Wallace's third party and announced plans to seek the formation of a "genuinely progressive" third party after the November election.

Last night in the Detroit music hall, before a singing, cheering crowd of nearly 2,000 which included many members of the anti-Reuther faction of the UAW, Wallace walked away at future third parties.

He said "the time is now, not tomorrow." He said, "It is a queer kind of thinking that says: Lock the political barn door after the election has been stolen."

Divorces Granted

Donya Barry, granted a divorce from Len A. Barry in 70th district court proceedings here Saturday, also won the right to use her maiden name, Dyson.

In other cases, J. H. Pryor was granted a divorce decree from Joyce Pryor and James F. Fite gained marital freedom from Estelle C. Fite and the custody of a minor child.

In the Pryor case, the defendant's former name of Norrel was restored.

Toyah Man Dies In Hospital Here

A retired Texas & Pacific railroad employe, John F. Keating of Toyah, was found dead in his room at the Big Spring State hospital early Monday morning. He was 60 years old.

Mr. Keating was brought here for treatment about two weeks ago. The body is being forwarded by Eberley Funeral home to El Paso for burial.

Mr. Keating is survived by his wife, the former Miss Lydia Schuber, who formerly lived in Big Spring; two sons, George of Buenos Aires, Argentina, and Stephen of Little Rock, Ark.; and a daughter, Mrs. Frances Means of El Paso.

$257 In Fines

Eighteen cases in corporation court this morning resulted in fines totalling $257 and three other cases were transferred to the county.

Fines levied by City Judge W. E. Greenlee included $22 on five traffic counts, $210 on 12 drunkenness cases and $25 for one charge of affray.

Dulles Enthused Over Berlin Morale

PARIS, Oct. 18. (AP)—John Foster Dulles said today Russia's bid to shift the Western Powers out of Berlin by invoking "starvation, disease and fear" has backfired.

The Republican Party's adviser on foreign affairs told a news conference he was impressed by the high level of morale in West Berlin and West Germany resulting from the Western Powers' determination to remain in Berlin.

A new low in the morale of the people of Soviet Germany is shown by intelligence reports reaching U. S. authorities, he said.

Dulles made a three-day visit to Vienna, Berlin and Frankfurt.

Chiang Tries New General Against Reds

PEIPING, Oct. 18. (AP)—Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek threw a new commander at the rolling Communist armies in Manchuria today.

He is Gen. Tu Li Ming, fortyish, debonair South China general who occupied all of the government strongpoints in Manchuria as the Russians retired in the winter of 1945-46. Illness forced him out in the summer of 1946.

Tu, who led a South China army under the late American Gen. Joseph Stilwell, pitched right into battle after he was flown with Chiang to Mukden on Friday. Tu went into action against Sinitu, an important rail junction and Red supply base 70 miles west of Mukden.

Reports here today said he had captured Sinitu. If that is true, it would give him an excellent base to mount an attack on his old headquarters at Chihnsien, taken by the Reds last week in some of the bitterest fighting of the Chinese war. National losses there reached 100,000 men, the Communist radio reported.

Group Will Attend Salvation Army Meet

Three young people will go from here Tuesday for a sectional meeting for Salvation Army youth in Abilene.

Maj. William Powell, young peoples' director for the Southern territory, is to be the featured speaker. He will be assisted by Maj. William Pike, Dallas, State "SA young peoples' worker."

The meeting starts at 4 p. m., followed by dinner at 6 p. m. and the spiritual and inspiration meeting at 7:30 p. m. Those going from here are S. B. Killough, Bobby Fletcher and Berry Fletcher, and they are all enrolled in the SA six-year Bible class. Accompanying them will be Capt. and Mrs. Olvy Sheppard.

Wintry Blast Hits Midwest

CHICAGO, Oct. 18. (AP)—The mercury skidded to new seasonal lows again today as many Midwestern points as the premature winter blast shoved on eastward toward the Atlantic Coast.

Temperatures well below freezing were reported as far south as Nashville, Tenn., and Northern Texas, but a sudden reversal had sent the mercury climbing in the Northern Plains states.

Snow piled to a depth of an inch and a half within an hour at Mt. Summit, Pa. Oakland, in Western Maryland, Elkins, W. Va., and Beckley, W. Va., also reported their first snows of the year. Slush on the highways made driving hazardous at Uniontown, Pa.

Slightly Injured As Auto Overtakes

An automobile driven by Ewing Thorp overturned after striking a culvert near the West Texas Memorial Museum in City park early Sunday evening, police reported.

Thorp was treated at a local hospital for minor injuries following the mishap.

The vehicle is owned by E. B. Thorp, father of the driver, police said.

Warren Will Make Fort Worth Stop

FORT WORTH, Oct. 18. (AP)—Gov. Earl Warren of California, Republican nominee for vice president, will make a one-stop visit in Texas here Oct. 21.

Henry Zweifel, state campaign manager for the Dewey-Warren ticket, announced today that Warren will stop off in Fort Worth Thursday on his way from Miami, Fla., to Junction, Colo.

A special plane carrying Warren and his party will land at Meacham Field at 11:45 a. m. Warren will be carried on a special network.

De Gaullists, Reds Trail In French Voting

PARIS, Oct. 18. (AP)—Candidates running under the rightist banner of Gen. Charles De Gaulle and the Communists of the extreme left trailed in voting for the electoral college, but the De Gaullists claimed far more strength than the figures showed.

The election was held yesterday to choose 100,001 members of the electoral college which on Nov. 7 will name the 320 members of the council of the republic, the advisory upper house of France's legislature.

Nearly complete returns showed the Socialists and Independent Socialists received 26 per cent of the vote; the Radical Independents, 21 per cent; the Rally of the French People (RPF), De Gaulle's group) 13 per cent; Radical Socialists (conservatives) 12 per cent; Communists, 10 per cent; the Centrist Popular Republican Movement (MRP) nine per cent; and miscellaneous others, nine per cent.

Lehar Has Relapse

VIENNA, Oct. 18. (AP)—Franz Lehar's doctor said last night the Austrian composer had suffered a relapse and is in serious condition. He said the 79-year-old composer of "The Merry Widow" had taken no food since Saturday. Lehar has been suffering from a heart ailment complicated by a stomach ulcer.

The 1949 FRAZER

Trailblazer-of cars to come!

Once in a blue moon the stylists and engineers outdo themselves. They create a car that goes beyond today and sets the pattern for cars of the future. This is what they have done with the FRAZER for 1949! Low, sleek and differently handsome it is the trailblazer in style of cars to come. Its exclusive colors and fabrics have made the world's leading fashion designers fall in love with it. They call it "the dream car."

The same car, the FRAZER for 1949, has even won the hard-to-win hearts of the test drivers who must relentlessly punish a car mile after mile for weeks on end. They say the Frazer makes such driving no punishment for them. Its driving ease and riding comfort "make 600 miles a day a breeze," they say.

There's a thrill waiting for you at your dealer's tomorrow. With 100 new features, improvements and refinements, the 1949 FRAZER is ahead of its time... out front—trailblazing the way for all the cars to come. First to break clean and scrap tradition, the cars from Willow Run have done it again. Because unlike other "new" cars built since the war, they've road-proved their dependability—2 billion miles worth! Value-proved to a quarter-million justly proud owners. See and drive the new FRAZER Tuesday! It's at your dealer's. Kaiser-Frazer Corporation, Willow Run, Michigan.

LITTLE BIRD WASN'T THERE

ARMONK, N. Y., Oct. 18. (AP) Deputy Game Warden Douglas Brown went hunting yesterday and bagged a wood duck which he tossed onto the back seat of his automobile.

On the way home, he stopped at North Castle town police headquarters to display his game.

When he opened the back door the duck flew out and away.

Seek Burglar Who Might Be Looking For Atomic Data

OAKLAND, Calif., Oct. 18. — FBI agents sought today a burglar who, one police inspector explained, "could have been searching for atomic data." Private papers in the study of Francis R. Bichowsky, a University of California scientist, were ransacked but valuables elsewhere in the closed house were undisturbed.

Bichowsky, an instructor in thermodynamics and an observer of the atom bomb tests at Bikini, was out of town; friends said he may be attending atomic energy conferences in Washington.

Mrs. E. Nettie Catena, a San Francisco friend of the Bichowskys, discovered and reported the break on Sunday morning. She visited the residence "to make certain everything was all right," as she had promised the family.

TWO MOUNTAINS TAKEN

Greek Commandos Go Into Action

ATHENS, Oct. 18. (AP)—Newly-trained Greek commandos went into action for the first time last night, capturing two mountains in Communist leaders Markos Vafiades' "free Greece."

The commandos wrested control of Mount Vitsi and Mount Mankovitsi from the guerrillas. Both mountains are more than one mile high. Possession of the Vitsi summit gave the Greek army the dominating height of the whole Vitsi triangle. The mountain is 11 miles northeast of Kastoria.

A government communique said the army losses were four dead and 21 wounded while 61 rebels were killed and 19 captured. The communique said three counterattacks were repelled.

No other action in the Vitsi triangle was reported. It is still too early to determine whether the surprise commando action was the beginning of the long-awaited offensive to clear up the 300-square-mile sector near the juncture of the Greek, Albanian and Yugoslav borders. The army has been stalled in the area for several weeks.

U. S. Secretary of State Marshall, who conferred with Greek leaders yesterday against a background of growing concern over the military campaign, was to take off for Rome this afternoon on his way back to Paris. He is staying in Rome overnight.

Marshall told newsmen he could not discuss the Greek situation other than to say that the United States was deeply concerned in a desire to "be of assistance in the rehabilitation of Greece."

"In the critical state of affairs, discussions and negotiations, anyone in my position has to be extremely careful that no single sentence is perverted and turned to another use," the secretary said, explaining his reluctance to discuss the trip.

The secretary saw both King Paul and Premier Themistokles Sophoulis yesterday. He also saw Acting Foreign Minister Stephanos Stephanopoulos.

Crash Of Airlift Plane Kills Three

FRANKFURT, Germany, Oct. 8. (AP)—A C-54 Berlin airlift plane crashed today near Frankfurt, killing its three American crewmen.

The four-engine plane was on its way back from Berlin, assigned to reload food and coal for the blockaded former German capital. Wreckage was strewn for hundreds of yards when the craft crashed and exploded at Neu-Isenburg.

This brought to 12 the number of Americans who have died ferrying food and supplies to Berlin over the Soviet land blockade.

Officers at the busy Rhine-Main airport had no immediate explanation for the crash. The plane had not reported any trouble to the control tower.

Veronica Lake Has Second Daughter

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 18. (AP)—It's a second daughter for Veronica Lake.

The film actress gave birth to a six pound, four ounce girl Saturday night at Good Samaritan Hospital.

The proud husband and father is Director Andre de Toth. They also have a son, Michael, nearly three. Miss Lake has another daughter, Elaine, seven, by her former husband, John Detlie.

Conservation Men To Attend Course

A. J. Hughes, district conservationist for the Soil Conservation Service, and A. L. Jordan, local work-unit leader, will participate in a range refresher course in the Davis mountains this week.

The course is to be in the Big Bend park area and B. W. Allred, Fort Worth, chief of the regional range division for SCS, will be in charge. Allred is an outstanding authority on grasses and range problems in the Southwest.

Others due to attend from this area are A. T. Bratton, Sterling City, A. E. Pittman, Stanton, body work unit leaders.

Barkley Heads For Tennessee

PADUCAH, Ky., Oct. 18. (AP)—Undaunted by the cool reception received on his first visit to the South, Sen. Alben W. Barkley headed for Tennessee today with a plea for unity in the Democratic Party.

The Democratic vice presidential nominee scheduled speeches at noon in Chattanooga and tonight in Nashville. He told newsmen he would urge southerners, disgruntled over the party's civil rights program, to stand by the party and support President Truman for reelection.

Barkley expects no repetition in Tennessee of the reception given him Saturday night in New Orleans when less than 300 persons, and virtually none of the state's Democratic leaders, showed up to hear him talk.

Tennessee's senior senator, Kenneth McKellar, and Rep. Estes Kefauver, candidate for the Senate post vacated by Tom Stewart, are backing the Truman-Barkley ticket.

The state's titular Democratic leader, Ed Crump of Memphis, who sought to defeat Kefauver in the primary, is supporting State's Rights Presidential Candidate J. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina.

New Frazer Models To Be Shown By Medlock Motor Here Tuesday

The local Kaiser-Frazer dealer, Medlock Motor company, 600 East Third, tomorrow joins other K-F dealers throughout the nation in presenting the new Frazer and Frazer Manhattan, new models which complete the company's four-door sedan series for 1949.

The Kaiser Special and DeLuxe, companion models, were announced a month ago.

Edgar F. Kaiser, vice president and general manager, has announced the new Frazer sedans joined Kaiser models on Willow Run production lines Sept. 14, and that K-F's output of 1949 models is now over 800-a-day mark.

Restyled throughout, the Frazer sedans incorporate extensive mechanical changes which include a 12 per cent boost in horsepower with no accompanying increase in fuel consumption.

The power increase was accomplished with the adaptation of dual manifold and a dual-throat carburetor which provide most efficient distribution of fuel to all cylinders. A compression ratio of 7.3-1, highest among standard mass-produced automobiles, has been maintained in the six-cylinder engine to produce maximum economy and performance.

Style-wise, the Frazer series is distinguished by longer skirted body panels, a new "honeycomb" grille, wide chrome trim along the base of the body, and the addition of a chrome "crease molding" which extends the length of the car below the window openings.

In interior design, the Frazer and the Manhattan represent a new approach to fabric and color styling, featuring 57 varieties of body colors and harmonizing fine-quality upholstery fabrics.

Four Killed In C-82 Crash

CLINTON, La., Oct. 18. (AP)—A crippled Air Force transport plane crashlanded in a ravine near here late yesterday and killed four of the 33 persons aboard.

The twin-engine C-82, the lead plane in a flight of seven with a total of 172 passengers aboard, left Biggs Field at El Paso Sunday en route to "Operations Combine III" at Elgin Field, Fla.

Occupants of the plane included 29 artillery officers from Fort Bliss, and Fort Sill, Okla., and an Air Force crew consisting of three officers and one enlisted man.

First man to be identified were Lt. Col. Herbert S. Ramey, 45, and Capt. Harold M. Dudley, 36, both of Fort Bliss. Officials at Fort Bliss said Ramey entered the service from Springfield, Mo., and Dudley from Long Meadow, Mass.

Names of the other casualties were withheld pending notification of next of kin.

The survivors, who included Brig. Gen. C. H. Hart, said trouble developed when the plane was at about 5,000 feet. They prepared to jump but abandoned this idea when the craft entered an overcast and lost altitude rapidly. The pilot, Maj. P. E. Blow, brought the plane down in a small ravine about seven miles northeast of here.

Survivors said the casualties were caused when a slight rise in the ground caused the left wing tip to crumple into the fuselage.
