NOMINATION BY DEMOCRATS DUE TONIGHT

RANGER GOLFERS WIN THE MATCH FROM EASTLAND

First Defeat of Players From County Seat; Number of Good Records Made.

Proving that practice will accomplish wonders, the Ranger golf team yesterday afternoon gave the Eastland team a pleasant surprise and walked off with nine out of 14 matches. This is the second consecutive meet that the Ranger team has won and their first defeat of Eastland, and if they continue to improve in the future as they have in the past according to Herbert Mendenhall, captain of the team, they will soon be battling the leaders of the association for top honors. Several low scores were made by the members of both teams, the closest being between H. U. Pond of Ranger, and Baughman of Eastland, the two men turning in a 78 and 79, respectively. Seventy eight is the best score that has been made on the Ranger course to date as the best scores heretofore have been in the 80's, the course here being unusually difficult. Gifford Clegg of Ranger and Hardika of Eastland went to 21 holes before the tie between them could be settled, Clegg taking the match 1 up.

FRANKLIN'S HOUSE RAZED TO MAKE ROOM FOR BRIDGE

PHILADELPHIA, July 7.—The march of progress to make way for the new Delaware river bridge which will link Camden and Philadelphia in 1916 has meant the tearing down of many historical homes here, including the old dwelling of Benjamin Franklin. Shortly after Ben Franklin became established here he bought a block of buildings on Front and Spring streets for five pounds and 10 shillings. In one of these houses, 111 Spring street, the great revolutionary patriot and discoverer of electricity dwelt for many years. The home of Franklin's, however, was in the way for an approach on the Pennsylvania side to the bridge now under construction. The city condemned the property.

Benjamin E. Sattler, owner of the little home at 111 Spring street received $1,700 to pay him for its demolition because of the bridge. An enterprising contractor who tore down the dwelling sold bricks from it as relics and received more than $2,000 for them.

SNAKE KILLED AT DINNER.

MARLIN.—When Arthur Johnson heard a commotion in his chicken yard during the night he rushed out to find an enormous snake gulping down a setting of eggs. On killing the reptile Jackson found it to measure six feet five inches in length and seven inches in circumference. The snake could have held another two dozen eggs easily, Jackson believed.

President Prays At the Bedside Of His Younger Son

WASHINGTON, July 7.—As the hours wore on today and Calvin Coolidge Jr. still clung to life in the face of desperate conditions, hope was revived that he might pull through. Although his condition at 1:30 o'clock today was critical, the fact that he had passed through a crisis in which the physicians said he had about one chance out of 10,000 brought a sense of relief.

For the first time in 24 hours, those caring for him permitted themselves to believe that he might live. President and Mrs. Coolidge, worn and tired, left the hospital to lunch at the white house, indicating there was no immediate change for the worse in prospect.

Dr. William Gerry Morgan, a stomach specialist of Washington, was added to the list of consultants today to cope with the accumulation of gas in the boy's stomach, which has prevented him from taking nourishment.

DELINQUENT TAXPAYERS TO FACE COURT ACTION

Ranger School Board Orders Suits Instituted; Teachers Elected to Fill Vacancies.

Delinquent school taxpayers are to be notified that if their back taxes are not paid within the next 30 days suit will be instituted against them, the board of trustees of the Ranger independent school district decided at a called meeting of the board Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

J. M. Dodson, tax assessor, was authorized to notify the delinquent taxpayers of the action of the board and to prepare a list of them for publication.

A number of teachers were elected to fill vacancies existing because of the failure of a number of teachers to accept their contracts.

Miss Gladys Pinson of Thurber was elected to the history department, and W. H. Bryan also elected to serve on the high school faculty.

A. B. White and A. B. Daniels were elected to teach in the high school mathematics department. Mr. Daniels was elected in the place of Mr. Harvey, who failed to accept his contract.

Miss Ruth Terry was assigned to the history department and A. J. Stevens to the Latin department.

Miss Marion Hunt of Eastland was elected to the place of Ike Irvin of Cooper school who did not accept his contract.

COLEMBES STADIUM, PARIS, July 7.—The first American victory in finals of Olympic events was registered this afternoon, when G. Taylor, of Grinnell college, won the 400-meter hurdles. The stars and stripes went up on the flagpole above the score board and 4 points were chalked up for America.

SECRETARY SLEMP RETURNS TO DUTIES AT THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON, July 7.—C. Bascom Slemp, secretary to President Coolidge, returned to his desk today after an absence of three weeks. "I am back on the job," he said, dispelling rumors that he had split with the president over the management of the Cleveland convention and his disagreement with Chairman Butler of the republican executive committee.

Slemp went immediately to the Walter Reed hospital to join the president, watching at the bedside of Calvin Coolidge Jr.

DR. FREDERICK COOK WILL TAKE PAUPER'S OATH.

PORT WORTH.—Dr. Frederick A. Cook will take the pauper's oath and make appeal from his 15-year sentence and fine of $12,000 following his trial for misusing the mails, before a special session of court in Atlanta, Ga., July 7. This will be Dr. Cook's last resort of appeal. His petition states that he is not financially able to have the court proceedings printed and that if such form of appeal is required, asks that the government be liable for the expense incurred.

Democratic Convention Leaning Toward Indiana Man

SAMUEL M. RALSTON.

COX ESSAYS ROLE OF PARTY PEACE MAKER

UNITED PRESS HEADQUARTERS, NEW YORK, July 7.—James M. Cox, democratic presidential nominee of four years ago, came to New York to attempt to harmonize the discordant forces of the convention. Declaring that he would not accept the nomination if the convention tendered it to him, Cox said that he entered only in an effort to bring the elements of the party together.

"I have come to New York at the urgent request of prominent members of the party who have expressed to me the belief that a trying emergency has arisen and that the good offices of a titular leader of democracy should be extended to bring about harmony. Let it be understood that I am not only not a candidate but that I would not accept the nomination if tendered to me. My sense of gratitude and duty tells me that I should try to aid. "There is need of harmony between the delegates. Nothing will be gained by going into what has come and gone. I am not for or against any candidate, but am only trying to develop a purely democratic and non-partisan view out of which a democratic president may emerge."

Cox declined to make any comment on the convention outside of his statement and refused to say if he would go to the convention hall.

GAINESVILLE 'CITY DADS' TIRE OF BOYS' FRANKS

GAINESVILLE, July 7.—Ambitious youngsters who have equipped their automobiles with homemade horns that give out a sound like the bawling of a cow, must stop squawking the contraptions on the streets, the city council has ruled. The "city dads" are tired of the foolishness, they say.

BRITISH ROUND-WORLD FLYER MOVING OVER JAPAN

TOKYO, July 7.—Major MacLaren, British round-the-world flyer, reached Kasunigaura, 40 miles northwest of here, at p. m. today, after a difficult flight from Kagoshima. MacLaren was forced down on the coast at Ausami, near Kushimoto, late yesterday, when he ran short of fuel while bucking a severe gale. A supply of gasoline and oil was rushed to him from Kushimoto, and he was enabled to reach the base station before dusk.

CALVIN JUNIOR HOVERING OVER DEATH VALLEY

Young Son of President and Mrs. Coolidge Making Hard Fight for Life.

WASHINGTON, July 7.—The president of the United States prayed today at the bedside of his younger son, Calvin Coolidge, Jr. Only a fighting chance for life remained for the boy at 9 o'clock this morning. Not as a nation's chief executive, but as a father, knowing in full measure a father's grief just as comes to the humblest in the land, Mr. Coolidge brought the ruggedly simple New England faith of his ancestors to ask that his son be spared.

With him was Mrs. Coolidge, nearly worn out with her anxiety and sorrow, her heart full of love for the son whom the ablest physicians in the nation were powerless to aid. The duties at the white house were laid aside for the moment. The Coolidge mother would watch at the boy's bedside. Their son was unconscious of his presence. In every corner of the land, fathers and mothers of the nation sorrow with them.

Twice Sunday, encouraged by optimistic reports of the six physicians who are fighting the septic poisoning which is sapping the boy's strength, the president returned to his office, only to hurry again to the Walter Reed hospital as sinking spells sapped the boy's vitality. Finally they remained all night at the hospital.

"A bare fighting chance," was all the hope that attending physicians would hold out.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION VOTES SYMPATHY RESOLUTION

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, NEW YORK, July 7.—As the first touch of business today, the democratic national convention rose to its feet as one man in unanimous approval of a resolution of sympathy to President and Mrs. Coolidge, whose son, Calvin Jr., lies critically ill in Washington. The resolution was offered by Charles R. Wilson of West Virginia, a delegate, and reads that it is the wish of all the democratic delegations to extend sympathy to President and Mrs. Coolidge and express hope for the speedy recovery of their son.

BROWNWOOD.—Expansion of the system of the West Texas Telephone company in Central West Texas has necessitated increase of the company's capital stock.

DOHENY FIGHTS INDICTMENTS ON TECHNICALITY

WASHINGTON, July 7.—E. L. Doheny and E. L. Doheny Jr. today filed motions in the district supreme court to quash indictments returned against them by the special grand jury charging conspiracy and bribery.

They contend the indictments are invalid because of the presence of a department of justice official in the grand jury room while testimony was being taken. They claim the case was taken out of the hands of the grand jury and put in charge of special counsel, hence the presence in the grand jury room of a department of justice official was illegal.

MINISTER JAY TO RUMANIA WILL REPORT ON THE NEW OIL LAW

WASHINGTON, July 7.—Peter Augustus Jay, minister to Rumania, has been ordered to return to report on the new Rumanian oil law, against which the country has protested. Jay is not being recalled, it is presumed that he will return to his post after a conference. It is understood this country will take no further action regarding the new Rumanian oil law until Jay reports.

NEW YORK CONTINUES VOTING FOR AL SMIT

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, NEW YORK, July 7.—The New York delegation today decided to continue to vote for Governor Al Smith, in spite of the agreement signed by the governor, in which all the candidate except McAdoo agreed to release their delegations. The New York delegation caucused and approved the action of Governor Smith, by reaffirming its allegiance to him and decided to continue to vote for him.

RALSTON DECLINES TO BE AGAIN NAMED AS CANDIDATE

INDIANAPOLIS, July 7.—Senator Samuel M. Ralston today urged To Taggart, talking to him by phone, not to present his name again for the democratic national convention as a candidate for the presidential nomination. Although Taggart indicated to Ralston that it appeared quite possible for him to obtain the nomination, Ralston said he had heard nothing to cause him to change his attitude since withdrawing his candidacy.

Judkins and Barnes To Debate Tonight On Courthouse Lawn

Frank Judkins, who is seeking the office of county attorney, and W. J. Barnes, who is seeking re-election to that office, are to meet in an open-air debate on the courthouse lawn at Eastland at 8 o'clock tonight. They were to speak last Saturday night, but postponed the meeting because of the death of Sam J. Day, late justice of the peace at Eastland.

The County Constitutional club had arranged for a meeting in Eastland at the city hall tonight to arrange for a rapid finish to the campaign as the day for the primary election approaches, but because of the Judkins-Barnes debate tonight, decided today to postpone the meeting to next Monday night.

PHILADELPHIA, July 7.—The annual meeting of the American Bar association will begin its formal sessions here tomorrow, with the annual address by President Robert E. Lee of Dallas, Texas, and addresses of welcome and responses, reports of secretary, treasurer and executive committee and the nomination and election of new members. On Tuesday evening the headliner will be an address by United States Attorney General Stone. Reports of committees and sectional work will take up the Wednesday's morning session. While Chief Justice Taft and ex-Governor Charles Whitman are scheduled to speak at the afternoon session. Former Senator J. Hamilton Lewis, of Chicago, is on the evening program. About 2,000 United States lawyers, many with their wives and families, will take the London trip at the invitation of the British bar. The official party will be divided between the British steamships Berengaria, Laconia and Aquitania.

The English courts will be in session at the time of the London arrival of the American bar members and abundant opportunity will be had to see the courts. The program is continued to one week, July 20 to 26. All visiting members will receive equal consideration. In order to accomplish this, the proposed dinner at the Westminster hall has been changed into an opening meeting with addresses of welcome and responses. The dinners at the Inns of Court will be duplicated on successive evenings so as to care for half of our members each evening. Finally the lord mayor's dinner in the Guild hall will be supplemented by

DELEGATES ARE RELEASED FROM THEIR PLEDGES

Convention Recedes During Afternoon With Indications of Rush to Ralston.

NEW YORK, July 7.—A nomination for the presidency by the democratic convention appeared well within the range of possibility tonight when balloting will be resumed. The convention recessed shortly after 4 o'clock this afternoon, after taking the eighty-first ballot. The delegates will reconvene at 8:30 o'clock this evening after a series of conferences and high hopes were expressed that a nomination will be made tonight.

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, NEW YORK, July 7.—William G. McAdoo suffered a smashing blow in the democratic national convention this afternoon when the convention by an overwhelming vote adopted a resolution to suspend the rule and accept the conference report which recommended that the delegates be released from their obligations and pledges to the different candidates. This does not disturb the unit rule, but throws the convention wide open and that many of McAdoo's delegates desired to get away was shown when several states switched their vote.

One thousand and five voted yes, 87 no, four not voting, total of 1,091.

McAdoo opposed the conference sending the letter to Walsh submitting the alternate proposal.

Senator Pat Harrison took the floor saying he had been with representatives of eight states who intended to switch to Ralston. Taggart became more active and reports of a Ralston rally were circulating about.

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, NEW YORK, July 7.—Leaderless and sweltering through ballot after ballot continued to be demonstrated just what can be done in the way of bringing about a deadlock when religious issues are injected into politics. There was no sign of breaking at the eighty-first ballot. Delegates are getting more and more restless and tired, but the leaders of the factions are standing firm. Instead of the race narrowing down to fewer candidates, there has been an increase during the day. Both McAdoo and Smith showed a dropping off in votes as this occurred and McAdoo was 432 in the eighty-first ballot against Smith 365. Oklahoma went back to Owen and Glass, Underwood and Robinson, Ritchie, Salisbury are still trailing along.

Votes were cast for 17 candidates on the eighty-first ballot.

Seventy-Eighth Ballot. McAdoo 511, Smith 363 1-2, J. W. Davis 73 1-2, Underwood 49, Glass 21, Robinson 22 1-2, Ritchie 16 1-2, Salisbury 6, Walsh 6, Ferris 17, Bryan 3, Ralston 5, J. W. Girard 1, Roosevelt 1.

Eighty Ballot. McAdoo 454 1-2, Smith 366 1-2, J. W. Davis 75, Underwood 46 1-2, Robinson 28 1-2, Glass 68, Ralston 5, Ritchie 16 1-2, Salisbury 6, Ferris 17 1-2, Walsh 4, Bryan 4, Daniels 1, Owen 1, Roosevelt 1.

Eighty-First Ballot. McAdoo 432, Smith 365, J. W. Davis 71, Underwood 48, Robinson 28 1-2, Glass 75, Ralston 4, Ritchie 16 1-2, Salisbury 6, Walsh 7, Bryan 4 1-2, J. T. Barnett 1, Ferris 16, Daniels 1, Owen 21, Roosevelt 1.

McAdoo 412 1-2, Smith 366, J. W. Davis 73, Underwood 49, Robinson 27 1-2, Glass 75, Ralston 24, Ritchie 16 1-2, Salisbury 13, Walsh 6, Bryan 4 1-2, Barnett 1, Ferris 1, Daniels 1, Owen 1, Roosevelt 1.

McAdoo 418, Smith 368, Davis 73, Underwood 49 12, Robinson 27 1-2, Glass 76, Ralston 24, Ritchie 16 1-2, Salisbury 6, Walsh 4, Ferris 1-2, Wheeler 1, Owen 20, Roosevelt 1.

BIBLE THOUGHT.

THE LORD is the portion of mine inheritance and of my cup; thou maintainest my lot. The lines are fallen unto me in pleasant places; yea, I have a goodly heritage.—Psalm 16:5, 6.

MAY INCREASE MAIL RATES.

The postoffice employees are not dismayed or discouraged because of the veto of their revised salary bill by President Coolidge. They are satisfied the bill would have been passed over the veto had it not been for the filibuster conducted by Senators Spencer and Pittman to prevent a vote.

The postal salary will again come up on the reconvening of congress next December. In the meantime, the ascertainment of the cost of carrying the various classes of postal matter now being conducted by the postoffice department under a congressional appropriation of $500,000, will in all probability be completed during the summer or fall. The results of the investigation by the department and the subcommittee will show that an increase in certain postal matter will be justified, and that this in turn will provide the funds for the payment of the salary increase. It is also pointed out that the normal increase of 10 per cent per annum in the business of the postoffice will more than pay the increase in salaries.

Official reports of foodstuffs in cold storage on the first of June shows 424,000 barrels and 944,000 boxes of apples, nearly double the amount of a year ago. Of creamery butter there were 22,328,000 pounds, double that of a year ago; cheese 27,148,000 pounds, 10,000,000 pounds more than last year. Eggs show a reduction from last year's figures of about a million cases, while the stock of lard increased 44,000,000 pounds. This, too, in face of the fact that exports have generally increased. In any event, the nation is in no immediate danger of going to bed hungry—but the "law of supply and demand" seems to be largely on ice.

SOCIALISTS URGED TO UNITE IN CAMPAIGN WITH PROGRESSIVES

By United Press.
CLEVELAND, Ohio, July 7.—The socialist national convention today was urged to unite with the conference for progressive political action in support of LaFollette, for president in the majority report of the national executive committee of the socialist party. The committee made this reservation that the socialist party declare itself firm in the adherence to the cardinal principals of socialism. Thirteen of fifteen members of the committee signed the report.

A Picnic In Russia, A Profession Here

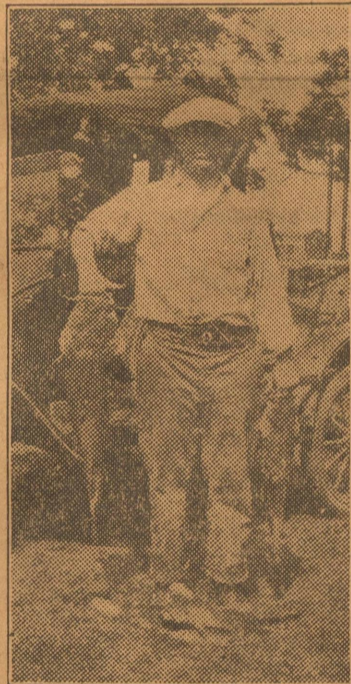

RUSSIA'S primitive method of making bread is charmingly rustic, but hardly reassuring in respect to cleanliness. Bread making in the great modern bakeries of America, while not so much of a picnic, is first, last and all the time a scientific pursuit in which cleanliness is the first consideration. The picture at the right shows an automatic dough mixer in one of the huge Ward bakeries. This mixer or kneader, which has a capacity of 1500 pounds of dough runs at high speed, 60 revolutions per minute, and thus works and churns the ingredients thoroughly into a uniform mass of dough absolutely the same throughout in temperature and composition. Contrary to the Russian method, no hands touch the dough during the process. After it is mixed from 10 to 15 minutes, it is automatically discharged into a trough where it is left to raise.

RANGER BUSINESS MAN PROVES HE IS ALSO EXCELLENT FISHERMAN

George Manning, Advertising Manager for Joseph Dry Goods Company

George Manning, of Ranger and manager of the men's furnishing department of Joseph's dry goods store, returned from a two weeks' visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Manning of Crockett, Texas.

While there Mr. Manning said that he seized the opportunity to go fishing in the Neuches river, and that he had excellent luck. The first night out they caught 45 pounds, among which was a 14 1/2-pound catfish. The second night they totaled 75 pounds and the largest one in that catch weighed 23 pounds. Mr. Manning said that he caught that one on an ordinary hook and line set from the bank. The rest of the catch was made from trout lines.

MOSS WILL AID FIGHT AGAINST BOLL WEEVIL IN EASTLAND COUNTY

D. J. Moss of the Moss Gin company, a visitor in Ranger today from his home in Cisco, has arranged to give 50 gallons of Texaco B. Q. Concentrate, manufactured by the Texas company to kill boll weevils, to the first 50 farmers applying for it, one gallon to each farmer.

Mr. Moss does not guarantee this spray will be effective, but he believes it worth a trial and wants to encourage the farmers trying it. One gallon is said to be sufficient to spray one-half acre, by which time a farmer may determine if he wishes to buy more. The Ranger Chamber of Commerce agreed to give the B. Q. Concentrate to the farmers applying until the 50 gallons are distributed.

In a circular issued by the Texas company it is stated that B. Q. Concentrate will not damage the growing cotton plant to any material extent, that when brought in contact, in the form of spray or mist, with the boll weevil, pupa or larva it will kill the same, and that it acts as a repellent to the boll weevil and other insects.

Mr. Moss has had repair men working on the Ranger gin for the last month and said it is in as fine shape mechanically as it is possible to put it. Everything is in readiness to be ginning as soon as the cotton is picked.

THURBER WINS EXCITING GAME FROM RANGER

Hard Hitting and Good Base-Running Features of Hectic Contest.

THURBER, July 7.—Thurber downed Ranger in a hectic game here Sunday by a score of 11 to 7, and went into a tie for first place with Parks and Olden in the pennant race in the Oil Belt league, with only two more games to go in the first half of the split season.

Thurber remembered the beating Weatherford, ace pitcher for Ranger, had previously given them and pounded out 11 hits for a total of 23 bases. Hudspeth pitched good ball for Thurber but was given poor support from his mates. The game was anybody's game until the eighth inning when a single and a home run by Paulowsky and one by Adkins gave Thurber a four-run lead. Dinsmore and Shires hit home runs for Ranger in the first and second innings.

HENSON PITCHES FOR CISCO IN OLDEN GAME

Magnolias Lose, 1 to 0, Despite Best Efforts of Koch to Twirl to Victory.

Special.
OLDEN, July 7.—"Satchel" Henson, Cisco's curve-ball artist, spoiled the Magnolias' chances to take the leadership of the Oil Belt association, at Olden Sunday afternoon, for while he was winning a tight pitchers' battle from Charley Koch, Breckenridge was whaling the life out of the Texaco Stars at Breckenridge. The verdict at Olden was 1 to 0 in favor of Cisco and the game was practically devoid of thrills because Henson and Koch were turning the batters back with such monotonous regularity that the fans had little else to become enthused over.

Koch whiffed 14 Cisco batsmen and allowed only five bingles, three of them so scratchy that it was a shame to mark them up in the hit column. He was steady throughout and walked only one man. Henson, for Cisco, using a wide outcurve struck out 10 men and allowed only two singles, although walking six men.

Cisco scored in the ninth. Mauck popped to Rainey. Larkin singled over second. Campbell beat out a measly roller to third and Har-singed to center, scoring Larkin. Stewart whiffed and Henson rolled weakly to Flagg.

Olden had 10 men left stranded on the bases during the afternoon. The box score:

'WILD BULL OF PAMPAS' RULED BY PATRIOTISM

By A. M. EASTERLING,

United Press Staff Correspondent.

BUENOS AIRES (By mail to United Press).—Luis Angel Firpo's decision to return to the United States and fight Harry Wills, or some one else, was not lost to the fact that around half a million dollars is waiting to be garnered by him in the north. It was really taken, in the opinion of his friends, to offset the growing impression among his countrymen that the Bull was losing sight of the "glory to the fatherland" by loafing around and waxing fat in Buenos Aires.

While Firpo is a hard bargainer and extracts the last cent of value from the money he accumulates, he is, on the other hand, more obsessed by the idea that he is an Argentine patriot, than he is by the ambition to become rich. Friends pointed out to him that Chilean fighters were acquiring fame in the north, and were taunting him with cowardice in refusing to fight again. At the same time, and after Tex Rickard had broken off negotiations with "The Bull," the Uruguyan football team in the Olympic games in Paris "won eternal glory for La Patria" and received thousands of cables words of praise in the Argentine newspapers.

In the matter of patriotism, Firpo is super-sensitive and dead in earnest. Those who know him best, often are surprised by the extent of this feeling, and believe he would sacrifice his chances to make more money for a decisive victory over Chile's best representative, or the representative of any other Latin, or Anglo-Saxon nation. The fact that many of the natives who follow him about to fawn or flatter or try to make money out of him—in which latter they have lamentably failed—are quite "international" in their feelings, apparently has not influenced the "Bull of the Pampas."

Although Argentina gave him birth in poverty and reared him in hard knocks, and all his money has been made in North America, Firpo's love of his homeland is the greatest passion of his life, and about his only continuing ambition. When he realized that the Argentine was about to finally class him as a "sacker" and that henceforth could not boast of the "fearless Bull," Firpo was glad enough to accept Rickard's proposition to return and fight.

Whether Firpo is a better fighter than he was when he met Jack Dempsey may be open to question, for since his last fight here—when he trained hard and was in excellent condition—he has lived a soft and easy life, but there is no question but what he returns to the United States with much more confidence in himself than he had when he met Dempsey. He believes he can win, and he is not a coward and will do his "durndest."

The Argentines feel that Wills is only an incident in the "Bull's" career toward the championship, and there is no doubt but the local betting on that fight will run high with big odds on Firpo. Should he lose, there will be a lot of bankrupt patriots down here.
