ODD FELLOWS PLANNING BIG COUNTY MEET

Semi-Annual Session I. O. O. F. and Rebekahs in Gorman, August 29.

Eastland county will host Thursday and Friday, August 28 and 29 to the Girls' Glee Club of Corsicana, which is composed of inmates of the I. O. O. F. orphan home at that place. There will be 27 members in the club and they are coming to this county to attend the semi-annual Odd Fellow and Rebekah association, which meets in Gorman, Friday, August 29, for a one-day session.

The party, which will include a number of the officials of the home, will arrive in Eastland at 1:30 o'clock Friday afternoon, August 28, over the Texas & Pacific. From Ranger they will likely visit Eastland, Cisco and other places in response to special invitations from the officials of those towns.

On the night of Aug. 28, the club will give a program at Gorman, which will be open to the general public. They will also give programs at various times during the day Friday, many of which will be open to the public.

According to H. A. Collins, secretary of the Eastland Odd Fellow lodge, the meeting to be held at Gorman will be very important. Grand Master G. W. Hawkins of Houston, Grand Secretary E. Q. Vestal of Dallas and J. W. Hampton, superintendent of the Odd Fellow orphan home at Corsicana, are expected to be among the state officials attending the Gorman meeting. Mrs. Bertie Davis of San Antonio, is also expected to attend.

One of the main purposes of bringing the Corsicana glee club to Eastland county is to demonstrate to the public what is being done for the orphan children who go to the Odd Fellow orphan home. The expense of the trip here, which will amount to several hundred dollars, is being borne by the various Odd Fellow lodges of the county.

DEMOCRATIC PRIMARIES VOTE TO BE CANVASED BY COMMITTEE MONDAY

WACO, Aug. 7.—Sealed returns from the state primary, July 27, were pouring into the office of the Democratic state committee here today in readiness for the official canvass of the vote, August 11.

Nearly 130 counties' vote was in the office in sealed envelopes today, awaiting opening and tabulation in presence of the full committee on Monday.

The state law relative to opening of the ballot returns in the presence of the full committee will be strictly adhered to this year, according to Joe Hale, secretary. "Heretofore it has been the custom for some officers of the committee to open and tabulate the results in advance of the meeting of the full committee in order to save time and expedite the work of the full body, but all returns will be heard as the law requires this session," Hale said.

LITTLE DROPS OF RAIN FALL OVER EASTLAND

Thunder and Lightning Hold Out Promise, But Fulfillment Very Meagre.

Heavy clouds, accompanied by rumblings of thunder and many flashes of lightning, held out good promise late yesterday for rainfall in Eastland county. The thunder rolled well into the night and the lightning provided a radiance when the waning moon was hidden by the heavy clouds, but after all these visible forecasts of what might be expected only a few scattered showers, in many places no more than sprinkles, came to brighten the drooping brows of Eastland county, dampen the dust and cool the air.

The skies were bright and beautiful today, the sun shining through wisps of clouds with undimmed vigor, and the weather bureau gave no promise that rain might be expected tonight.

ILLINOIS FARMS FAIL TO PAY

URBANA, Ill., Aug. 7.—Illinois farmers fall short of making 5 per cent on a conservative valuation on land, to say nothing of the farmer's labor and management, according to a study of representative records kept by farmers in 11 counties of the state and summarized by the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois.

A summary of the records examined showed the earnings slumped to the point where the owners lacked $12 of getting anything for their labor and management after a fair amount of interest had been deducted.

Expressed in another way, the earnings of the farmers, whose records were examined, were such that even if they were allowed labor wages, they still made only 3.47 per cent on their investment to pay them for the use of their capital and their managing ability.

NOMINATION OF WALTON UPSETS PARTY CAMPS

Leading Newspaper of State Forced to Climb One Fence or Another.

TULSA, Oklahoma, Aug. 7.—A hap-hazard, topsy-turvy political situation was becoming apparent for the leading newspapers in Oklahoma today as a result of the practical assurance that Jack Walton, impeached governor of the state, would be the democratic nominee for the United States senate.

Bitterness among the foes of the impeached governor are the Tulsa Tribune, the Oklahoma City Oklahoma and the Muskogee Phoenix, all rock-ribbed democratic publications, who, according to wide-spread belief, will have to support W. B. Pine the republican nominee in the coming election. The Tulsa World, a powerful anti-klan newspaper, will, if consistent, have to support Jack Walton, an anti-klan democrat.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Aug. 7.—Little change was shown at 9 o'clock this morning in the lead of Jack Walton, impeached governor of Oklahoma, for the democratic senatorial nomination over E. B. Howard, but the latter had gained a few votes, cutting down Walton's lead to 7-400 as the count of the ballots neared the last lap. A few more than 300 precincts are yet to be heard from. These are in outlying districts and may not be reported until late in the day.

At Walton's headquarters plans are being discussed for one of the most stormy campaigns in the political history of Oklahoma. It is indicated that the Ku Klux Klan will be one of Walton's chief issues. His other chief issue in the fight will be along the line of legislation to aid the farmer.

Campaign leaders for Howard are saying little, but are grimly hoping that the few precincts yet to be counted will bring victory to him.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 7.—Indications that E. B. Howard had virtually given up hope of late returns from the state primary bringing him victory over Jack Walton in the United States senatorial nomination were given by Robert Burns, campaign manager for Howard, at noon. Howard is now trailing Walton by about 6,100 votes.

"We are not quite ready to concede defeat, however," said Burns.

JOHN D. GHOLSON LOSES 'FORD COUPE TO THIEVES WHO DRIVE OFF IN IT

Car, thieves were again busy last night when they stole the 1924 Ford coupe of John D. Gholson of Ranger from in front of the Thurber club house last night.

No trace has been found of the car so far, although the police are confident that it was stolen by the same gang who have been operating in this section of the country for some time.

It is the opinion of the police that the cars are being taken to some nearby town and distributed from there to other towns, after being worked over. The thieves seem to have a fondness for Ford Coupes, as the last three cars stolen from Ranger have been coupes.

The river commission is optimistic that Peking will be saved. No loss of life in the capital is anticipated, although property damage would be severe in case of flood.

FLYERS AWAIT BREAKING ICE OFF GREENLAND

Supplies Provided for Further Flight on Board Ship Held in Ice Floe.

REYKJAVIK, Iceland, Aug. 7.—The ice binding the Greenland coast probably will loosen within a week and permit resumption of the American round-the-world flight, seamen acquainted with conditions in the northland today advised Lieutenant Lowell Smith, commanding the flying squadron, and a conference of naval officers.

The Danish supply ship, Gertrude Trask, which carries supplies and spare parts for the almen, is ice-bound off Anagnarsalik, on the east coast of Greenland, and it is considered advisable although not altogether necessary that the flyers await her release from the ice clasp. In the meantime the almen are held here and are the center of attention, their visit being one of the important events in the history of the little city.

The two planes were to be hauled on the beach and overhauled today.

LABOR COUNCIL TAKES SHOT AT REIUBLICANS

Criticizes Anti-Union Activities of Dawes, Evening Up Its Attack on Democrats.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Aug. 7.—A new blast was fired today at Charles G. Dawes, republican vice-presidential candidate, by the American Federation of Labor, charging him with consistent anti-union activity.

This denunciation was timed by the executive council of the American Federation of Labor to balance its criticism of the democratic presidential nominee, John W. Davis, whose labor record was scored by Samuel Gompers in letters sent by the labor chief to the democratic national committee.

This double-barrelled offensive against the two old line parties was calculated to bolster up a vigorous federation of labor endorsement of Senator Robert M. La Follette, independent progressive candidate for president. A statement in this same connection was issued by Matthew Woll, spokesman for Gompers, and follows closely exclusive forecasts of previous Unite Press Dispatches.

Woman Seeks to Advise Court How To Conduct Trial

HOUSTON, Aug. 7.—Amateur carpenter, composer, editor and theologian, Mrs. Annie Laurie, who yesterday took the spotlight in the Leopold-Loeb murder trial in Chicago has no credentials from the Ku Klux Klan, according to Klan officials here. She has written two popular songs, shingled her house last month, has been an editor of the Jewish Herald and is well known among Theosophists, but she is not known to the Ku Klux Klan, Klan officials said.

"I told Annie not to get mixed up in this trial," said Mrs. Laurie, Annie's mother. She said she must inform the court what to do, and apparently she has.

"I am Mrs. Laurie of Houston," the woman said when she forced her way into the courtroom of Judge Caverly at Chicago, according to reports from the court room where Loeb and Leopold are being tried. "I was raised a Catholic," she continued, "but I have credentials from the Ku Klux Klan of Texas. I suggest Jewish Rabbis to try these boys."

She said she wanted to advise the judge how to dispose of the case. The court ordered her arrested and taken to the psychopathic hospital for examination.

NEW YORK SWELTERING IN RECORD HEAT OF SUMMER

NEW YORK, Aug. 7.—New York sweltering today in its third day of Amazonian heat wave with a growing list of dead and prostrations. New York's steaming millions slept on fire escapes and in parks while policemen watched. The temperature threatened today to pass yesterday's maximum record of 92.

SWEETHEART OF "DICKIE" LOEB IS A WITNESS

Pretty Co-Ed, Once Betrothed to Young Murderer, Says He Was Queer.

CHICAGO, Aug. 7.—Several girl friends of Dickie Loeb were prepared to take the witness stand today to aid him in escaping the gallows for the murder of Robert Franks, 14-year-old school boy.

Lorraine Nathan, 18, and pretty, Rosalind, her sister, and Germaine Reinhardt, 18, are expected to testify that Clarence Darrow, chief defense attorney, has called to testify at the judicial hearing of Richard Loeb and Nathan Leopold Jr., charged jointly with killing Franks.

Lorraine Nathan is a University of Chicago co-ed and she has been engaged to Dickie several years ago. These three girls will be called by Darrow to support the "shadow lights and childhood dreamhood" of Loeb and to testify to his character.

Other character witnesses will be called to testify for Loeb and Leopold. Among them several University of Chicago and several University of Michigan students are on the list.

Lorraine Nathan, 18, took the stand today to present whatever mitigating testimony she could muster for Loeb and Leopold from the gallows. She told of meeting Loeb in November, 1921.

"How well did you know him?" asked Darrow.

"Very well," she replied.

"Do you mean you went with him to parties and dances?"

"Yes sir."

The girl told of Loeb acting in a peculiar manner at her home. She said that she had told her sister one time that Loeb seemed to be acting young. Her sister replied, "He is not young, that is acting too coo."

"Can you tell of some other time that you saw Loeb?"

"I saw him February 29, 1924. We had a date."

"What happened?"

"I think him irrational. This was the first time I noticed that he was irrational and irresponsible. We had a quarrel and I told him if he was going to continue that way I would be willing to be a sister, but nothing more. Then he went away to Birmingham. When he returned he tried to get a friend to intercede for him and finally we had a date. He seemed very haggard."

Darrow then asked her if she believed him normal or abnormal.

"I didn't regard his strange actions as abnormal, she said."

Crowe began questioning her regarding her friendship with Loeb.

"I suppose Dickie was fond of you?" Crowe asked.

"I think he was."

"And you are still fond of him?"

"No, of course not; not in that way."

CURSING OR BLESSING?
 Curseth be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the Lord.

MEXICAN IMMIGRATION.

Of the 85,174 aliens of all nationalities and classes who entered the United States from Mexico through the ports in the El Paso immigration district during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1924, 42,142 declared to remain permanently; 27,442 supposedly on business or pleasure to remain less than six months, and about 8,000 returning here after a temporary stay abroad to resume an unrelinquished domicile. Fully 95 per cent, approximately 26,000 were native Mexicans.

There being no quota restriction on the admission of natives of Mexico, there is a constant procession of these aliens back and forth across the international bridges and ferds. With the first spring weather they enter the United States by hundreds, with the object in view of obtaining employment, proceeding as far as Pennsylvania, Wisconsin and Idaho to take work with railroads, planters, farmers and industrialists, or even to Alaska to pack salmon. When the snow flies nearly all of them flock back to their sunny climate in Mexico.

Ninety per cent of the Mexicans tell American officers they come to the border "to get work." Relatively few Mexican immigrants declare their intention of becoming American citizens, officials say. In some instances railroads have rushed many train loads to the central west, for construction work.

INJURED JOCKEY WILL RIDE WELL AS EVER NEXT YEAR.

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., Aug. 7.—Earle Sande will ride again unless something at present unforeseen develops, his physician said today. The premier American jockey, who was badly hurt in a spill in the first race at Saratoga yesterday, will be booting a me winner as ably as ever next year, Dr. B. J. Moriarty, who has charge of his case, said.

NAME IS WILLIAMS, BUT SHE MAY BE CALLED BILL

PORTLAND, Ore.—What happens to people who cross their bridges before they come to 'em has been satisfactorily explained here. It happened when Robert C. Matlock applied for a marriage license. He wanted to marry William Maury. The license clerk uttered a startled gasp. "Oh, it's perfectly all right," explained William edging in between Robert and the window. "You see, mama and dad thought I was going to be a boy when they named me William. But I wasn't," concluded the pretty and attractive bride-to-be naively. "Bob and Bill are now honeymooning."

HARD LUCK CHAMP

SAO PAULO, Brazil (By mail to United Press).—Benedicto dos Santos, Brazilian heavyweight boxing champion, has put forward claims for the hard-luck championship of the world. Dos Santos, after a fight with the Italian Erminio Spalla some weeks ago, which ended with the Brazilian kissing the carpet in the ninth round, spent several weeks in a hospital. A few days after the fight with Spalla, Dos Santos nearly died from injuries received in that fight, and he is still fighting to recover control over the nerves of his left side which were paralyzed. While in the hospital, the Brazilian was robbed of something like $800 by a German attendant. Almost all of the remainder of his share of the purse for the fight with Spalla has gone for medical assistance.

VAMPIRE MAN HAS HORRIBLE LUST FOR BLOOD

Confesses to Killing 14 Youths By Tearing Open Their Throats.

By CARL D. GROAT (United Press Staff Correspondent) BERLIN, Aug. 7.—Unmoved at the enormity of his crimes, Herr Haarmann, Hanover's "vampire murderer," has confessed to killing 14 youths, dumping their bodies into the Leine river, and proceeding to hunt even more victims.

The police, whose stool pigeon he was, charge now that he killed at least 22, but Haarmann sitting in solitary confinement in the town jail of Hindenburg's home-town, swears it "was only 14." Beyond that, he will not go. He refuses details of his operations and of the strange blood-lust that caused him to lure youths to his den in the shadow of police headquarters at Hanover and there slaughter them by tearing open their throats, vampire-like, and sucking their blood.

Nor will he tell the police anything to help them clear up the mystery of how he succeeded in a period of three years to slaughter so many victims without ever being suspected of such gross crimes. The police now recall that he had been held previously because some of his male acquaintances disappeared mysteriously, but they were unable to pin anything onto him. And it was only a short time ago that the Leine began giving up its dead, which finally opened the eyes of the police about their stool pigeon Haarmann.

Sold Flesh as Meat.
 They swooped down on his den, used as an old clothes shop and meat market, and found some indications of his murderous pursuits; likewise made the revolting discovery that Haarmann, like the famous Berlin butcher-murderer, Grossmann, may have sold some of his victims' flesh as meat.

Further digging brought to light the character of Haarmann's activities. The Leine was drained and yielded up many bags of incriminating bones—mute evidence of Haarmann's murderous lust.

The police then unraveled a bit of the complicated story. Haarmann and an accomplice lured youths to his den with promises of money, sometimes also telling them that they could be entertained by his mythical "beautiful 14-year-old daughter."

Haarmann operated chiefly around the Hanover railroad station. He had a false police document permitting him entrance to the building at all hours of the day and night. Here he found unemployed youths who had no homes, and besought them to share his quarters.

Most of the homeless needed no urging. They went willingly with the vampire, who gave them to eat and offered them a bed wherein to sleep.

But as they slept, Haarmann killed them, opening the jugular vein with his fang-like teeth. Then he chopped up the bodies and threw them, in sacks, into the Leine.

That Haarmann escaped the hand of the law so long has caused a storm of public anger in Hanover. Haarmann, it develops, was at one time in an insane asylum but was let out again despite the fact that the authorities then established that he was not "accountable" for any deeds he might commit. The public rage is the deeper since it has developed that Haarmann was permitted to engage in a number of shady deals simply because he helped the police with his stool-pigeon activities.

The affair has even taken on a political aspect. Efforts are being made to "get" District President Noske (former war minister) because of the link between the authorities and the vampire.

Haarmann is a tall, gorilla-like man. He comes of a respectable family, who wanted to place him in the army. But it developed soon that he was mentally and physically unfit for the officer career. Therefore he sunk rapidly into the depths of vice and degeneracy, going from theft and swindling to murder in its crassest forms.

When the case comes to trial, experts will be called in, and, under the German law, Haarmann, despite the horribleness of his crimes, will be leniently handled, if it is proven that he is a victim of a degeneracy complex which he could not master.

GRASSHOPPER PROTECTS ITSELF FROM JAY BIRDS

FORT WORTH, Aug. 7.—Grasshoppers, usually peaceable insects, are also capable of taking care of themselves in a picnic, according to Capt. Kale, sage of the police department here.

This is the way Kale found out about hoppers. "I was strolling along the north side the other day, when I saw a jaybird perched in a tree, visibly agitated and glaring bashfully at something in the middle of the street." "The father of all the grasshoppers was sitting serenely in the street." "Suddenly the jay swooped down and hovered over the hopper, pecking viciously, but the victim was all set."

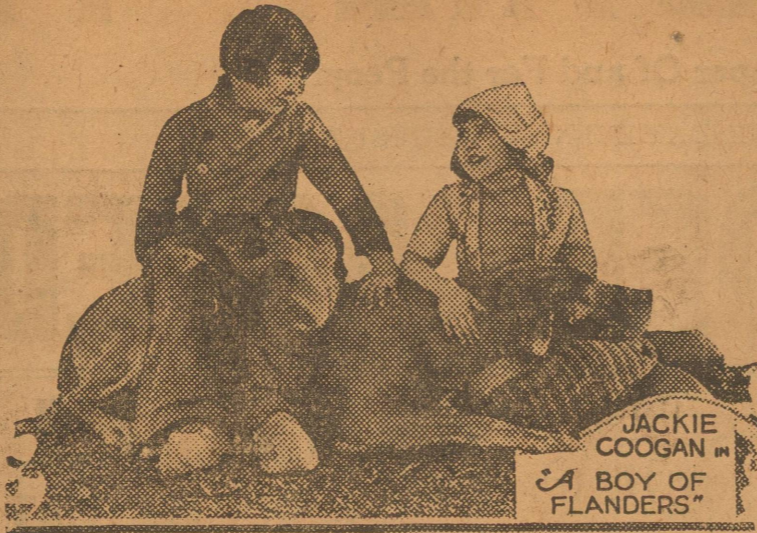

"Reversing ends like a Missouri mule, the insect flailed the jay in the face, raking him from eye to beak." "As I walked away the jay was again on his perch, swearing in bird language at the belligerent grasshopper."

"It might have been corn liquor, but I doubt it."

HOUSTON.—If wifey gets rough—this is what one man tried. Two officers answering a frantic rush call were directed to a certain house by an excited neighbor.

Muffled sobs came from behind a locked door. No one was in sight. The officers broke down the door, and found that hubby had disciplined wifey by locking her in a dark closet. But she wouldn't file charges against him when she was released.

EVACUATION OF RUHR COMES UP IN PARLEYS

Inter-Allied Conference Facing Conflicting Interests of Military Occasion.

By United Press. LONDON, England, Aug. 7.—The inter-allied conference adjourned today until tomorrow to permit Premier Ramsay MacDonald to spend the day in the house of commons facing his critics who are attacking the government on the subject of the Anglo-Russian Pact.

The inter-allied conference, which now has lasted longer than any previous conclave on reparations, is expected to tackle today or tomorrow its chief bone of contention, the military evacuation of the Ruhr. Removal of French and Belgian arms from German territory will be discussed only informally in committee, but it is considered of the utmost importance.

Premier Herriot of France is believed to have promised the military evacuation of the Ruhr, but may make the occasion one of seeking further concessions to the French viewpoint by the British and Americans in order to "save his face" at home.

The fact that Charles E. Hughes, American secretary of state, is departing for America in taken as a favorable sign of his confidence that the conference is succeeding and that his presence on the side lines is no longer necessary.

GIANT STILL IS RAIDED JUST OUTSIDE OF DALLAS

DALLAS.—While election judges counted returns, showing he had a big majority over his opponents, Sheriff Dan Marston with Ranger Captain Shumate Sunday afternoon raided a bootleggers joint, capturing one of the largest stills ever seized in Texas. The still was housed in a two-story building on a lonely spot west of the city, and was one of the most elaborately equipped ever seen here. Huge copper coils, copper kettles, and a heating apparatus equipped to burn carbide gas were used. Oriental incense was burning in the fireplace to hide the smell of liquor.

Eastland Boosters To Meet Tonight In Progressive Mood

A meeting of Eastland "Boosters" is planned for tonight at the American Legion Club and a large crowd is expected. If the club rooms prove too small to accommodate the crowd, the meeting will adjourn to a more commodious place.

The purpose of the meeting is to foster the "booster" spirit among Eastland citizens. The club was organized a short time ago and already has quite a few members.

It is hoped by those sponsoring the movement that all Eastland citizens who can will attend the meeting tonight and lend their support to the work.

ATHLETIC CLUB NEEDS FUNDS TO MAINTAIN PRESENT WORK.

A movement has been put on foot by which it is hoped that sufficient funds may be raised to liquidate some indebtedness against the Eastland Athletic club and building and also to raise money with which to help defray operating expenses of the Athletic until January.

Something less than $2,000 is necessary to be raised for the present status of the club to be maintained it is stated.

SHOOTING THE SHOTS LATEST WET DODGE

PHILADELPHIA.—The new "alcohol gun" has made its appearance here.

One shot with the gun and near beer has its ailments cured and the beverage turns into an intoxicant.

Prohibition agents here believe they will soon have to spend more time searching for the new gun syringes than in hunting whiskey and alcohol.

The alcohol gun operates on the principle of an ordinary hypodermic needle, with the fluid always under control of the operator. The gun, however, is quite large and holds just enough alcohol to put a "mule's kick" in a half barrel of near-beer.

Prohibition agents admit that the new device makes enforcing the law very difficult. Beer now leaves the breweries here in the near stage. It is still near-beer when it is delivered to the saloons.

But when the fluid comes out of the faucet it foams with a zip and has a real kick.

TORTURED BY FATHER, CHILD SAYS.

Mrs. Coleman and Antonette Forti

Paul Forti is under arrest in New York City on the charge of inflicting inhuman punishment on his daughter, Antonette, eight, who is shown here with Mrs. M. Coleman, of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children. Forti is alleged to have tied the girl up by her wrists for 24 hours, during which time her cries alarmed tenants of the house where she lived. They summoned a policeman, who found her hanging limply, her hands puffed from congested blood and her wrists cruelly bruised.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK?

E. R. WAITE Secretary Shawnee (Okla.) Board of Commerce.

THAT some people seem to look at public service corporations as a common enemy to be destroyed. THAT some of them may need regulating, but it is not necessary to destroy them to regulate them. THAT railroads mean quick transportation at nominal cost—no country has developed without the aid of the railroads.

THAT where railroads go new cities grow, and as they expand and develop so does the whole country grow and develop.

THAT the telephone and telegraph makes possible quick communication. Without them we would be headed back toward the dark ages, instead of headed forward in the march of progress.

THAT electric power and gas give universal service.

THAT without electric power we would go back to the days of long ages and lose all hope of future progress along the lines of industrial advancement.

THAT it is about time to quit cursing the public service corporations and try to find some happy medium where they and the people can cooperate together to make business better for both.

Public service corporations should advertise the facts about their business in every newspaper in the land, as newspaper advertising is the only sure way of reaching all of the people.

CARELESS BURNING OF GRASS CAUSES RUNS BY RANGER FIRE FIGHTERS

Four runs were made by the Ranger fire department yesterday to the grass fires, which were caused through carelessness, according to firemen. A run was made to Hodges Park yesterday morning, two runs were made to the end of South Marston street and one to the Gholson addition yesterday afternoon.

Chief Murphy said that if people were not careful some one would be fined for violating the law in regards to burning trash on a windy day.

Electricity is being used as the sole power for dredging the Welland river, in Ontario. An armored submarine cable brings electricity from the land end of a transmission line to the dredge itself at anchor in the river. On the dredge there are a number of motors, ranging in size from 60 to 1,250 horsepower each.

This dredge is removing a very tenacious clay from the river bed 38 feet below the surface of the water and discharging it through a pipe line 5,000 feet long lying 30 feet above the water line. It operates at a speed of 350 cubic yards an hour.

FORT WORTH TO CONDEMN PROPERTY SOUGHT FOR PARK

FORT WORTH, Aug. 7.—The city legal department here has been instructed to file condemnation proceedings against Mrs. Cynthia Sisk, of Forest Park here. The tract is deowner of a 33-acre tract of land north sired by the department for park purposes, to alleviate crowded conditions in the present park playground.

Park officials said several attempts have been made to purchase the land but they could not afford to pay $2,000 an acre—the price demanded by the owner.

RAILROAD COMMISSION OPPOSES HIGHER RATE

AUSTIN.—Texas will not acquiesce in the raising of state freight rates on grain to Texas ports to overcome alleged discrimination against shippers of Oklahoma and other states, according to the state railroad commission. The commission has ordered O. D. Hundall, chief rate clerk, to go to Washington this week to represent the commission before the Interstate Commerce commission.

There is approximately 13 cents difference in the rates from Amarillo to territory to Texas ports. Texas will suggest the lowering of the interstate rates rather than increasing the Texas rates, it was declared.

NEW GERMAN OIL SOLD UNDER WRITTEN GUARANTEE RUBS OUT RHEUMATISM

A remarkable new discovery of German chemistry, called Buhler Oil for the relief of rheumatism, gout and neuralgia, is astonishing the medical world. This marvelous oil seems to kill rheumatic poisons just as effectively as these other German pain killers—Novocain for painless dentistry and Aspirin for headache pains. Rheumatism in very many cases is due to internal abscesses (such as a blind pus pocket in a tooth) which give off poison, and which are carried in the blood to the joints and muscles. Buhler Oil when applied to the affected parts, seems to quickly penetrate and be absorbed by the body tissue. Even in the most stubborn and severe cases almost instant relief has been obtained.

So remarkable have been the results from the use of Buhler Oil that the American distributors have authorized local druggists to dispense it to rheumatic, gout and neuralgia sufferers in this city with a positive written guarantee to return the full purchase price of the first bottle if it does not bring wonderful relief. All sufferers should promptly take advantage of this guarantee. For sale at D. M. Harmon, Texas Drug Store, Phillips Drug Store, Oil City Pharmacy.—Advertisement.

PLANTERS USING WHIPS TO FIGHT GRASSHOPPERS

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. — (United Press)—Planters in Arkansas are using large groups of negroes with leech whips to drive destructive grasshoppers from their fields, according to H. K. Thatcher, of the College of Agriculture, University of Arkansas.

J. D. Bethea, county agent, Little River county, has wired that grasshoppers, coming from Oklahoma, are eating up many acres of the cotton crop in his county, cutting all the leaves and part of the stem of the cotton. W. M. Galbright, Foreman, is being damaged, also. The method recommended by the department of entomology, College of Agriculture, University of Arkansas—which may be obtained upon request—is being used.

"In some places the hedge rows sprinkled with kerosene and the hoppers driven into the hedge," Thatcher says. "Reports are that the hoppers were killed instantly. We are planning a systematic campaign against the pest."

R. B. Harvey, associate professor of plant physiology at the University of Minnesota. Growing test crops in greenhouses under electric light entirely and also by supplementing daylight with artificial light, has made possible the production of two generations of test crops in the winter.

PIMPLES CAUSE FOLKS TO SHRINK FROM ATTENTION

Whenever you go out, you can't help but pity the many folks you see trying to have a good time but are so shrinking and backward about coming near others where pimply, blotchy and uneven skin can be seen. You almost feel like going up to them and telling them that they ought to begin using Black and White Ointment, and Soap, which so many thousands of happy people are depending on to keep their skin clear, smooth and good to look at.

Black and White Ointment, and Soap, are selling at the phenomenal rate of more than two million packages a year, and the fact that they are so economically priced is largely responsible for this record. The 50c size Ointment contains three times as much as the 25c size. All dealers have both the Ointment and the Soap.—Advertisement.
