

PAINTERS' PAY DISPUTE MAY DELAY SCHOOL

Three Buildings Involved in Dispute With Contractor Daly.

The three school buildings and the Hodges and Neal building on Main street which are under construction, may be involved in a lockout unless Walter J. Daly, who has the contract for the painting of the buildings, reaches an agreement with the local painters' union.

Daly issued instructions last Friday that all painters who continued to work on the houses would do so at the rate of $8 per day, which is $2 less than the union scale.

The painters claim that they have a local union contract with Daly whereby he is to pay the Ranger price for painters. Three and one-half days' work were done at the $10 price before the order was issued setting forth the $8 price.

The contractor contends that he will lose money at the higher rate. After going into the terms of his contract with Walsh & Burney, who are constructing the building, the painters' union wired Daly at his home in San Antonio that it would pay him $800 bonus and take his contracts over. The telegram was dispatched Sunday night but had not been answered this morning.

If no settlement can be made with Daly, the painters will refuse to work at the $8 price and if non-union men are put on the jobs all other union men who are working on the buildings will be forced to walk out.

In this event the ward school buildings which are so necessary for the opening of school and even in their present state will probably delay the school opening several days, will be out of use just as long as the lockout lasts.

In view of this fact the Chamber of Commerce sent a telegram to Daly setting forth the possibility of the use of the school buildings and asked that he settle the difference as soon as possible.

New York Store Gives Employees Self-Rule Plan

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—The republican form of government for employees, introduced in certain industrial plants throughout the country, has been adopted by a large New York department store.

Employees of this store, numbering 1,700, have a voice in virtually all matters affecting their relations with the management, through elective bodies modeled after the bicameral system of representation prevailing in the government of the United States.

The employees elect members of their house of representatives and senate directly, while the executive department, consisting of a cabinet of five, is named by the corporation officials. The judicial functions are carried out by a joint justice committee from the legislative bodies. All branches of the store government derive their powers from a constitution somewhat similar to the constitution of the nation.

Employees Tax Wages. The fixing of wage and working conditions are included in the broad powers of the house and senate, while the justice committee may bring about the expulsion of an employee from the concern, or if they find a worker has been unjustly discharged, they may have him reinstated. The acts of the legislature may be vetoed by the cabinet, but this has never been necessary as yet, it was said by the officials of the concern.

Improvement of the service rendered by the store to its customers in the end of many of the legislation enacted by the workers, but the bettering of the morale of the force of employees also brings many bills to the floor of the house and senate, which convenes one day in each week.

Conditions Bettered. Recently a bill providing for the installation of a motion picture machine to provide "movies" in the building was passed and the management is to spend $5,000 a year in carrying out its provisions. Another act provided for the location and installation of new individual lockers in the basement where employees might hang their coats and hats.

Passing much of the responsibility for the conduct of the institution onto the shoulders of the employees has brought about many improvements, most of them made to the suggestion of a committee of the house and senate at the rate of more than 50 a week. Employees are paid cash prizes for all suggestions put in use and no suggestion is rejected until an investigation has been made by the committee.

An increase in the earning power of each employee is one of the purposes of the new store government and economy dividends are paid on the saving in the percentage of operating expense. A merit system has been inaugurated by which workers, grades for each employee being made out monthly on a basis of their ability, experience and cooperative work. An average grade is reached by balancing those turned in for all workers by their direct superiors—floor managers, buyers, assistant buyers and department heads. Salaries go up along with the ratings and promotions also are based on them.

Two Houses. The house of representatives membership is elected directly by all of the workers except department heads and their assistants. These two groups elect senators of whom there are 14 elected with 16 representatives. Half the

A. & M. COLLEGE FOR WEST TEXAS TO BE DEMANDED

Western Delegates at Democratic Convention Also for Redistricting.

Special Leased Wire. FORT WORTH, Sept. 7.—The meeting of the state Democratic convention was opened here this morning by welcoming addresses by Mayor Davis and Dr. E. R. Cockrell, dean of the law school of Texas Christian university.

Luther Johnson of Corsicana was temporary chairman. Mrs. B. F. Armstrong, vice chairman, and J. W. Mahan of Dallas, temporary secretary.

The West Texas delegations will make a strong fight for an A. & M. college for that section and also want the convention to go on record as favoring a redistricting bill to give West Texas its proportional representation in the state legislature and the national congress.

BOG NEAR STATION IS SINK-HOLE FOR NUMEROUS VEHICLES

The storm yesterday caused the low place just east of the Texas & Pacific passenger station to resemble a wreck-strewn coast.

Perhaps a dozen cars, consisting of trucks, Ford's and automobiles which were not seagoing, stopped in the high water at that place. Later after the flood had subsided to some extent, their owners salvaged them.

A little further up the creek a near-tragedy happened when two mules belonging to the Ranger Waterworks company nearly drowned when water had filled the corral in which the mules were confined until it was almost over their backs.

Charles Moore, secretary of the water company, constituted himself a life-saving party of one and saved the mules by leading them up to higher ground.

The wagon of the waterworks company was also in the course of the water and was overturned with its contents of tools. No other casualties were reported.

RANGER EX-SERVICE MEN GET MEDALS AT LEGION OFFICE

The discharge papers will be cared for and returned with the medals. The distribution is being made by J. B. Qualey, United States field clerk, from Dallas, who is now in the city for that purpose.

Mr. Qualey is working under the direction of the district recruiting service.

LORD MAYOR'S FRIENDS ASK HIS RELEASE FROM HUNGER STRIKE OATH

LONDON, Sept. 7.—The Daily Mail says it learns that new activity has been noted among certain well organized units of the Sinn Fein republican army. It is believed in official circles that a new series of outbreaks is planned, which likely will begin about Sept. 25.

The newspaper asserts that affairs of the government's definite refusal Friday to release MacSweeney, his friends in London addressed an urgent petition to the republican government of Ireland asking that the lord mayor be released from his oath and permission be given him to take food.

HOW DEMPSEY-MISKE FIGHT MONEY WAS SPLIT

BENTON HARBOR, Sept. 7.—Dempsey received $55,000 for battering Miske to defeat in the third round of the scheduled ten-round bout here yesterday. The total attendance was 11,348. Total receipts were $134,904, including state and war tax. Miske fought for a straight guarantee of $25,000. Promoter Fitzsimmons declared the contest was a success in every way.

Dempsey will go east in search for new opponents. Miske is heartbroken over his defeat. He left the ring in tears, as he had hoped to stay the limit with Dempsey.

TO PUNISH BLAME FOR FATAL COLLISION ON COLORADO LINE

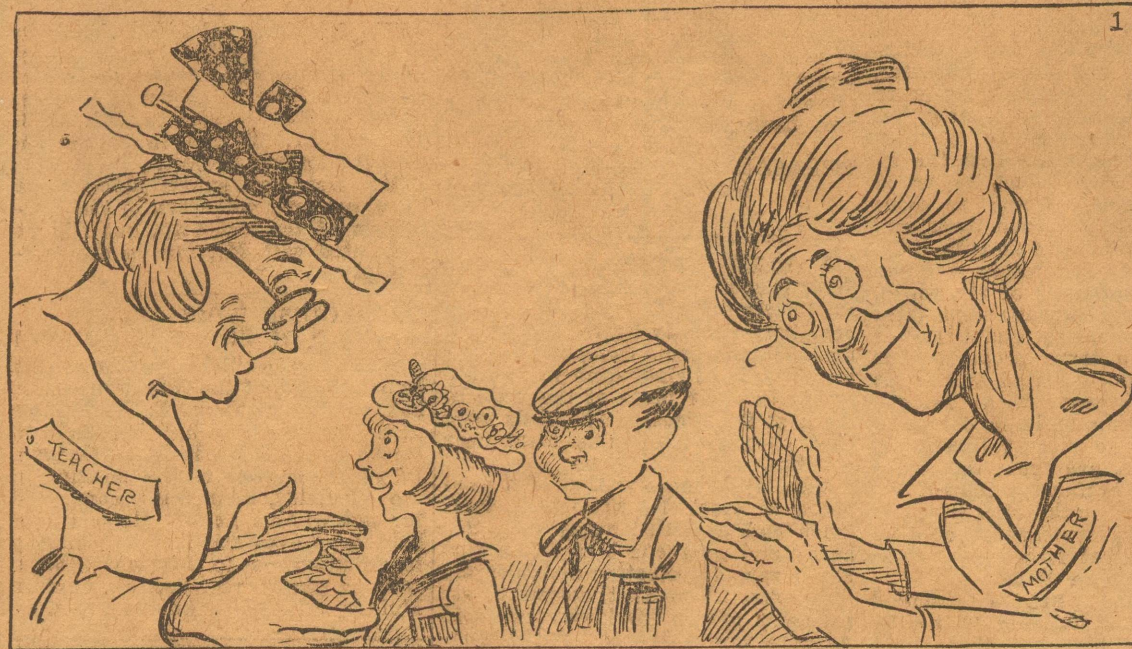

DENVER, Sept. 7.—With eleven dead and ninety-nine injured, six probably fatally, as the result of a head-on collision between interurban trains near Globeville, Adams county, yesterday, officials today began an investigation to fix the responsibility for the catastrophe.

membership of each body changes semi-annually, the electors holding office one year. The five standing committees from each body include those on justice, cooperation, economy and service.

As soon as this industrial democracy plan has gone beyond its infancy, organizers hope to take the public into the organization in some way. Already observance of the wishes of customers by employees has resulted in bills directed toward making shopping more pleasant and suggestions for other changes are expected to come from outside the store after the government grows beyond the embryonic stage.

FARM TOOLS PRICE RAISE HELD ILLEGAL

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—A report of the federal trade commission's investigation alleges manufacturers of farm implements advanced prices through concerted action. The Senate authorized the investigation.

The commission announces it has recommended the reopening of trust proceedings against the International Harvester company and instituting of court proceedings against manufacturers and dealers who have illegally increased prices.

The commission declared its investigation disclosed that farm implements advanced 75 per cent between 1914 and 1918. Advances in cost and expenses of manufacturers did not warrant that increase, the commission said.

CORPUS CHRISTI SEEKS STATE AID FOR SEA WALL

CORPUS CRISTI, Sept. 7.—A bill designed to aid Corpus Christi and Portland, a small town across Nueces bay from here, in the building a sea wall, has been prepared by Representative W. E. Pope for presentation at the next session of the legislature. It proposes the setting aside of net ad valorem taxes collected in Jim Wells, Nueces, Bee, Duval and Live Oak counties by the state for a period of twenty-five years commencing Sept. 1, 1921, into a trust fund to be used in construction of the sea wall.

HAS HANDED OUT MAIL FOR THIRTY-EIGHT YEARS

HELENA, Mont., Sept. 7.—Billy Bishop, aged seventy-eight years, is forced to retire from his thirty-eight-year-old job of general delivery clerk in the Helena post office because of his age. His age is no indication of his ability and energy, but he must bow to the iron-clad rules of the post office department, although appeals of prominent Helena men and postal officials were taken direct to Postmaster General Burleson. He retired August 20, in accordance with the final decision of the department. Almost since the post office started, before the days of carrier delivery, when there were three men in the entire shop which is now run by thirty-five men and women, Billy Bishop was on the job at the general delivery window. He never missed a day and for nearly twenty years camouflaged his small height. In those days the general delivery window was fairly high up from the floor of the lobby. Mr. Bishop stood on a box and handed out the mail with ease and for a score of years Helena patrons who visited him daily never realized that he is only five feet four inches tall, instead of five feet ten inches tall, as was generally understood until the new post office was built with a lower delivery window.

"NOT SEEKING BEST EVIDENCE," SENATORS TOLD

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—The senatorial committee investigating campaign expenditures of the Republican party "is not seeking the best evidence," to prove Gov. Cox's charges, Edmund Moore, the governor's personal representative, told the committee while on the stand today.

Moore told Senator Kenyon that there were men better able to tell of Republican plans than either he or Gov. Cox and asked why Col. Thompson of New York, chairman of the Republican ways and means committee and "sixty men of the party organization" were not called.

Gov. Cox has no evidence in support of his charges outside of what Moore brought to Chicago with him, the witness said. As he spoke he unfolded a massive brief case and took out a stack of papers apparently numbering several hundred sheets. Moore said Gov. Cox sent him to Chicago to give the committee the list of persons from whom the senators could get information in support of the charges made by Gov. Cox. He mentioned Harry Blair, first assistant to Fred Upham, Republican national treasurer, and several others employed in Upham's office.

SERBS FORBID RELIEF WORK IN MONTENEGRO

LONDON, Sept. 7.—Charges that the Serbian military forces have stopped a British and a Canadian mission from doing relief work in Montenegro are made by Alex Devine of Winchester in a statement to the House of Commons today. Mr. Devine describes himself as a friend of Montenegro whose only interest in that country is that it shall have a chance of determining its own fate—a right that has been denied to Montenegro alone of all the recognized allied nations, owing to the forcible seizure of their country by Serbian troops.

Billie Mayfield of the Texas National Guard before a general court-martial on the charge of having violated the ninety-sixth article of war, was scheduled to begin here at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The other candidates are: R. A. Erwin, Dr. W. C. Palmer and R. D. Lincoln.

HISTORY AND SCIENCE REFUTE EXISTENCE OF PETE ISLAND TREASURE

CALVESTON, Sept. 7.—Searchers after buried silver on the mainland opposite Pete Island, eighteen miles southeast of Corpus Christi, Texas, probably are doomed to disappointment, in the opinion of Dr. J. O. Dyer, a local writer on historical and scientific subjects. The rush of treasure seekers began with the discovery recently of twenty-five skeletons, popularly believed to be those of members of the crew of a Spanish treasure ship which foundered off the Texas coast early in the eighteenth century. No record is available of any such wreck.

The "life" of a skeleton buried in the sands of the beaches of the coastal country, Dr. Dyer points out, is not over forty years.

He says also that treasure ships from Mexico to Spain were discontinued after 1820, partly because of the activities of Jean Lafitte's fleet of buccaniers.

Even before that time the Spaniards tried to avoid excessive losses from storms and Lafitte's fleet of buccanier vessels and fifty Spaniards transported less than twenty tons of silver bullion to the vessel. Then, the current rate in Mexico was approximately $10 a troy pound. The most valuable of all Lafitte's prizes, the Sevilla, carried only $150,000 in specie.

Lafitte's captured treasure, according to the records extant, was buried in three caches. Two of these were located on Galveston Island and the third on a small island to the east, which was completely washed away during a storm in 1829.

There have been many reports of the discovery on this coast of caches of coin or chests from trading ships containing from $5,000 to $15,000.

OVERFLOW TANK IS STRUCK BY BOLT; IS SNUFFED OUT BY GAS

Lightning struck an overflow oil tank on the Jones lease on Eastland Hill yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Gas which accumulated in the burning tank and exploded blew the fire out, according to the fire department. A previous explosion of gas caused a man who was fighting the flames to fall to the ground, sustaining a broken ankle.

Several men were on the tank when the second explosion occurred, but none was injured.

The fire department went to the fire with their chemical apparatus and were using the chemical when the explosion occurred.

About 500 barrels of oil were in the tank. The fire department did not know the name of the man who received the broken ankle. He, however, was carried by Chief Buttmore to the office of Drs. May and Shackelford for treatment.

SALVATIONIST DRIVE STARTS HERE ON HIGH

Times Personnel Gives $95—Quota Expected in Short Order.

TIMES GIVES $95. The Times force contributed $95 this morning to the Salvation Army fund of $10,000 which will be raised in the city today and tomorrow.

The Times total was the only industry from which a total employee contribution had been received at one o'clock today. It is expected that stores, oil camps, tool works and others will make their contributions to some one of their number.

Salvation Army teams and captains are out to put the $10,000 drive over today regardless of the fact that the outlying streets are seas of mud because of yesterday's rains.

Several of the teams gathered this morning in the Chamber of Commerce rooms before beginning work, while others formed groups at various points over the city.

All the workers are determined to put the drive over today.

Tomorrow night when the drive is scheduled to close, the business girls and women of the city will, between the hours of 7 and 9, tag every man on the downtown business streets, and each tag will represent a contribution to the Army drive. Those who have seen the women in action on such missions as this will have their minds made up to "kick in" or else hide themselves where they can't be found.

Many professional women and others have pledged themselves to help in this part of the work and though it will be a hardship for many of them, they all believe that the cause is worth many times the effort.

In the lobbies of all the leading hotels, in drug stores, restaurants and moving picture entrances the taggers will be stationed. In addition they will cover the streets in pairs. Organization of this group has been placed in the hands of Elizabeth L. Kinnison.

Miss Kinnison said this morning that she could not have too many workers and if there were any ladies who would like to help that they may get in touch with her at the city offices any time tomorrow.

Other than the team workers on the streets and the business women, captains have been appointed in all the large industries over the city. These captains will see the employees at such time as convenient and accept their subscriptions.

POLAND MAKES THREAT OF WAR ON LITHUANIA

LONDON, Sept. 7.—The Polish government has appealed to the League of Nations to mediate the Polish-Lithuanian dispute. Unless the situation improves Poland will be compelled to declare war on Lithuania, the appeal states. The Polish authorities declare an unprovoked attack has been made on Polish troops by Lithuanian forces. The league is considering the appeal.

Press dispatches a few days ago indicated that the Poles met resistance when they invaded territory claimed by Lithuania.

Maine Election Held Important by Both Parties

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 7.—Political interest for the moment is largely occupied in speculation on the outcome of the election in this state on Sept. 13. A campaign that began in earnest on Aug. 23 will be fought without let-up through the final week. The usual predictions of success are being issued by both Republicans and Democrats.

Maine is unique in its constitutional provisions for state elections which are held in September instead of November, and in presidential years the local contests are viewed as of special importance. On these years the fighting is no less for the possession of state offices, representation in Congress and control of the state legislature than for psychological effect.

To what extent if any the national drift may be forecast by a victory or an increased or decreased majority here has long been a matter of dispute with politicians, but certain it is that national leaders have taken the condition seriously and have brought as many of their big guns into the campaign in this state as possible. Four years ago Charles E. Hughes wound up the campaign for the Republicans. This year both parties have had a big representation of state campaigners and have drawn heavily on the national committees for speakers of national prominence. On Sept. 13, a governor, state auditor, four members of Congress, a state legislature and county officers will be chosen. Maine does not elect a senator this year.

For governorship, Frederick H. Parkhurst of Bangor, who defeated Governor Carl E. Milliken, and Judge John P. Deering, in the Republican primaries, is opposed to Bertrand G. McIntire of Norway, whom Milliken defeated two years ago by 5,545 votes.

Both parties and gubernatorial candidates have made the League of Nations a fighting issue. Local questions have received less attention, even prohibition which for more than 60 years has figured largely in state campaigns and particularly in contests for county attorneys and sheriffs, are virtually ignored. The Republicans in state contention approved the refusal of the United States Senate to ratify the treaty "without reservations designed to protect the safety, sovereignty and independence of the United States." The Democratic state platform declared for prompt ratification "without reservations destructive to the spirit and intention of the treaty." Both Mr. Parkhurst and Mr. McIntire endorsed their national and state resolutions on the stump.

SARDINIA ALSO IS ADVOCATE OF HOME RULE

By Associated Press

ROME, Sept. 7.—The spirit of unrest has penetrated since the war even to such old-world and out of the way spots as the island of Sardinia. Among these picturesque peasants, many of whom cannot read or write, though they are often people of dignified manners and strong character, public opinion is diffused by word of mouth and a strong party has arisen lately whose motto is "Sardinia alone," who think that the island, which is the second largest in the Mediterranean, would be more prosperous if it governed itself and had little or nothing to do with Italy.

In ancient days Sardinia was one of the great granaries of the world, supplying first Carthage and later Rome with immense quantities of grain. Now a large proportion of the island is uncultivated and about one-fifth is covered with forests, chiefly consisting of holm oaks and cork trees. The most valuable exports, however, are from the mines of lead, zinc, antimony, copper, silver, lignite and anthracite, which if only thoroughly developed, would be a source of great riches.

Fighting Race.

The Sardinians are a splendid fighting race and not only during the late world conflict but throughout the Napoleonic wars and the middle ages provided some of the staunchest soldiers in Europe. The Sardinians have always considered their island the Cinderella of United Italy. They say that they have been alternately neglected and taken advantage of by the central government, education has been disregarded, the malarious state of the country has been ignored, few roads or railways have been provided in order to develop its resources, while government money has never been forthcoming for its needs.

The peasants of Sardinia declare that this is the moment when Sardinia might start on the road to regeneration and reconstruction, moral, commercial and economic but if it is, as of old, abandoned to apathy and want of initiative, ruin is certain. A deep spirit of discontent and irritation is prevalent. The Sardinians call themselves "the Irish of the Mediterranean" and a large party is being formed of those who desire to work out their own salvation and at least for a certain time to be entirely independent of the mother country, which they accuse of having treated them more like the typical stepmother. They ask to be allowed to take their destiny in their own hands.

PHEASANTS TO THRIVE IN NORTH DAKOTA WOODS

International News Service.

VALLEY CITY, N. D., Sept. 7.—Sixty ring-necked pheasants were set at liberty in the wooded country near here recently by the North Dakota fish and game commission. Four more flocks of sixty each will be liberated in other parts of the state in the next few weeks. The birds were bred on the state game farm near Grafton.

This is the inauguration of a campaign to stock North Dakota farm lands and unsettled areas with this hardy and gorgeous bird which furnishes splendid shooting and is rarely toothsome. The most successful experiment of the kind ever made in America was in Oregon. A few ring-necked pheasants liberated there multiplied so rapidly that in a few years they were plentiful in all the wild coverts of the state. The original home of the ring-neck is northern China, where the winters are severe, and it is believed North Dakota will be ideally adapted to a bird of such racial cold weather traditions.

Prairie chickens, a related species, which once flourished in North Dakota by the millions, have been greatly reduced in numbers by indiscriminate shooting. Under protective laws they are gradually coming back. The ring-neck pheasant added to the increasing prairie chicken population, it is pointed out, will mean another attraction to settlers who will find sport as well as prosperity on North Dakota farms.

Nitros Take Second Half By Winning Two On Heavy Field

Ranger's Nitros and Eastland's Judges went out in the rain, on a heavy field, Labor day afternoon, and before a handful of true and loyal, played two games. Ranger won both, 2 to 1, in nine innings, and 6 to 3 in seven innings. The first was the result of some five-hit pitching by Red Hill, with a soggy ball; the second was won on wild playing by the Judges.

lowed by Payne's pop to short, and Gross' infield out, which advanced Lewis, meant a score when Hartwick laced a hot single at Joe Tate. A walk issued to Gross was made into the Judges' second marker. He went ahead on Hartwick's out to short and came over when Big Boy Browning, our former playmate, doubled to left. Gross' infield hit, a bunt and a muffed toss from Adkins to Bugs Young brought the third visiting score over, in the sixth. But a safe lead had been amassed then, and there was no fretting.

Our Final Run. Lovelace's single, a wild pitch, a wild heave to first by Matthews on Jody Tate and Ezell's potential triple, on which he failed to touch second and so lost credit for the last two plies of the three-layer blow, scored two more for the Nitros in the fourth. Bugs Young collected the final counter with a life on a bum throw to first, a steal and a muff by Gray at third. He came over while Lovey was being caught in a chase between first and second, after a tap to third.

DEMPSEY WINS ON KNOCKOUT THIRD ROUND

Miske Helpless Before Savage Rushes of the Champion.

BENTON HARBOR, Mich., Sept. 6.—Jack Dempsey proved himself a super-fighter here today when he knocked out Billy Miske of St. Paul in the third round of their scheduled ten-round bout. Dempsey outclassed his opponent throughout the encounter. Miske landed but few blows. He stuck gamely under terrible punishment, however.

Bill Tate and Harry Greb, Dempsey's training camp partners, outpointed their opponents, Sam Langford and Chuck Wiggins, in the six-round preliminaries. The first round of the main event was a standoff boxing affair, with Dempsey having the better of the long range exchange. No effective blows were launched and Dempsey seemed content to show his ability at the scientific game.

Ike Sablosky, Resorter Prexy, Congratulates Jim Galloway

CONGRATULATE YOU ON THE SPLENDID FIGHT YOU MADE. WINNING THE SECOND HALF. WISH YOU LUCK IN THE PLAY OFF.

IKE SABLOSKY.

There, in nineteen words, fans, is the epic tale of a sportsman. It is a wire Jim Galloway received this morning. Little Ike Sablosky, whose rotund figure is familiar to the regulars at Municipal park, as he has accompanied his team on nearly every series the Mineral Wells club has played here, today showed that he is made of the stuff of good losers. Little Ike, president of the Mineral Wells club, and known as "and the circuit as a good little file, with his quips rich in the twang that told his heritage, lost no time quibbling about the slight lead that the Nitros held at the close of the Labor Day program.

ed the club that beat him the "best luck" in the series coming on. Our hat is off to Ike. That settles it.

Doubt is swept away by the congratulations of the losers and now for the dope on the play-off. Josh Billings probably will be first out against the Eagles. They have never been able to do much against Josh. They won two games from him this season, 2 to 1 and 1 to 0. And the percentage of victories against the Eagles is large in Josh's favor. At the other end of the battery will be Pemberton, the peppery smiler. The rest of the club will line up as it has during the last days of the winning drive.

First out against the Nitros will be one of the Hill boys, probably. Either Carl or Gomez Hill will give our crew a battle. It will be nip and tuck all along, if both clubs are at their best. And may the best team win.

ONE OF my jobs, WAS TO keep a watch, FOR HOSTILE patrols, AND GAS attacks, AND LATE one night, I STOOD by the door, OF ONE of the dugouts, AND THOUGHT I smelled gas, I SNIFFED and listened, AND HEARD groans, SO PUT on my mask, AND WENT down to make sure, AND FOUND a doughboy, TRYING to smoke, A FRENCH cigar, AND I took it away, AND GAVE him one, OF MY own cigarettes, AND THE very next night, I HAD to go down, INTO SEVENTEEN dugouts, TO RESCUE doughboys, WHO WERE trying to smoke, FRENCH CIGARS, AND I may be a mark, BUT THERE'S a limit, ESPECIALLY WHEN, YOU'VE ONLY one pack, OF THE cigarettes, THAT SATISFY, I'M DARNED glad, I DIDN'T command, AN ARMY corps.

EVEN a cigar smoker takes to Chesterfields, because of their satisfying body. And yet they're mild, too. Their blend of best Turkish and Domestic can't be copied—and what a blend it is! No wonder Chesterfields "satisfy!"

FARMER VILLA

That "Pancho" Villa, Mexican bandit extraordinary, does not intend to settle down to a life of ease and idleness, but rather, expects to harry the soil of Mexico as vigorously as he once vexed the authorities of that country, is indicated by the order for farming equipment he recently placed in El Paso. This order includes 800 plows, 20 mowing machines and 400 scythes, also a complete blacksmith shop.

Villa as a farmer will do much more good for Mexico than he accomplished as a liberator. Whether or not he has been actuated in his past exploits by motives of patriotism, and a desire to benefit the masses. But the fact remains that he kept northern Mexico in turmoil.
 Between Villa and the federal forces opposed to him, industry was paralyzed, transportation disrupted and useful enterprise, because of robbery in the name of requisitions, was made unprofitable.
 Security was unknown and prosperity perilous. Soldiering and banditry were easier, paid better and were less dangerous than civil pursuits.

But finally the cattle of the Mexican overlords grew thin upon the ranges, the peons ceased tilling their frijoles and other crops for the benefit of itinerant fighting men and crossed the Rio Grande in search of better wages and steady employment. Persons of substance picked up their negotiable property and removed to more orderly districts. There were few left to rob and pickings became poor for an army which must "live off the country." The loot market was bearish. So Villa, actuated by motives of patriotism, of course, decided that with the assistance of a kindly disposed government he would like to farm for a while.

It is quite possible that Villa will make a successful farmer. The size of his equipment order indicates that he does not expect to do the work himself.
 But his dynamic power is such that his hired hands will probably work harder than they ever have in the past or intended to in the future. His business agents will keep in mind the ruthlessness with which he has in times past rewarded a breach of trust, and will need the stimulus of a bond to keep their accounts in order. One may well believe that when the liberator gets his farm in order he will in truth have abandoned his wild-ways for the more orderly activities of civilian life. As a cure for radicalism and an inducer of respect for law and order, there is nothing better than the ownership of property.

RED BLOOD AND "RED" BLOOD

Tall building and canon-like streets destroy perspective.
 The heavy rumble of traffic in large cities deadens the ear and the miasmatic fumes of over-crowded humanity stifle the finer feelings. Proper proportion under such conditions is almost impossible.

The dweller in the big cities may be likened to a fly in a tea-caddy. His view to the right and the left, the front and the rear is limited. Even when he looks upward his vision is shut off by the soot-laden smoke of industry. Because they are close to him and he sees nothing else, he magnifies things. Little wrongs become great wrongs and little hurts sources of ever-lasting rebellion.
 Because of these things extremist radicalism, Bolshevism, nihilism and the rest of the ill-begotten brood born of stunted intellect and misdirected emotion, grow lush in great centers of humanity. And for the same reason they never penetrate out where the air is purer and the perspective wider.

West of the Alleghenies, excepting the city of Chicago, radicalism such as flourishes in the noisome ghettos and slums of New York, Boston, Philadelphia and similar spawning places of the down, you doctrines is virtually and are it not for the news-magazines it would not be the open stretches where the true vision is undimmed and the feelings unblunted; out in the open stretches where the real dynamo of national progress has its seat, the defiant poodle-like yelping of the radical missionary arouses only amusement. Men who are accustomed to deal with full-grown cata-mounts just can't be pestered with coyotes.

 Disciples of destruction who invade the West, the South and the Southwest to convert the benighted, are either killed or cured in the process. Ordinary they are cured. It's the air, you know.
 And the vistas.

"Tinker Bob"

Stories
by Carlisle H. Holcomb

MRS. KILDEER.

Tinker Bob, King of the Forest, wanted to prove to the brave hunter that he knew all about the creatures of the great woodland.
 "Now, Mrs. Kildeer, I have something to ask of you. Do you know anything about this fellow, the Hunter?" Mrs. Kildeer was so surprised to think that this fellow was actually the Hunter that she could hardly speak. After a little spell of fright she said:
 "Oh, King, I know this Hunter better than he knows me. He comes out into the cornfield with his gun and sneaks up as close as he can, then when he sees me he shoots and shoots, and because he cannot kill me he is angry and I hear him say that he'll get me next time."
 The Hunter did not like to hear this report from Mrs. Kildeer, but he knew it was true, and he dared not do her any harm in front of the King.
 "Do you ever destroy the Hunter's corn? Do you know that the Hunter thinks you do and that is the reason why he always tries to kill you?"

"Kil-dee, kildee, kil-dee," cried Mrs.
 Kildeer, "I never ate a bit of corn in my life. Corn is not a good thing to eat. I'd rather have a good grasshopper or a fat beetle or a corn spider than all the corn that ever grew. I hope to die, O King, if I ever took one bit of the Hunter's corn!"
 Poor Mr. Hunter, he didn't know what to say when the King looked at him. But of course he didn't want the King to think that he was in the wrong, so he said:
 "I don't believe what Mrs. Kildeer has said, O King, and I will have to have other proof before I stop shooting at her.
 You know I must save my corn field."
 "Mrs. Kildeer, the Hunter will not believe what you say. What shall I do to make him know that you are telling the truth?"
 "Take the Hunter into the corn field and show him that I don't touch his corn. Then ask my friend Mr. Chuck—

TEXAS TAX VALUATIONS SHOW BIG INCREASE

By Associated Press
 AUSTIN, Sept. 7.—Tax rolls reaching the state comptroller indicate that taxable valuations of Texas will show an increase of at least $200,000,000 over last year. These rolls, according to Controller M. L. Wigginton, are for property returned during 1920. Renditions during 1919 exceeded those of 1918 by approximately $100,000,000.

Oil development, Mr. Wigginton said, was responsible for a considerable portion of the increase expected, but activities in various other lines also have enhanced values to a large extent.

"I Never Ate a Bit of Corn in My Life."

he will tell you about what I eat, for he thinks it's very funny that I don't eat anything but meat."
 Tinker Bob went into the Palace and came out again very quickly. He did this to give instructions to Jack the Wood Rat, for he was going away and someone was going to call while he was away and so he wanted Jack to know about it. When he came out, Mrs. Kildeer was gone.
 "You see," said the Hunter, "she is guilty, for while you were gone she flew away."
 "What we want to know is whether she eats your corn or not, and now we will go to see."
 Tinker Bob tapped the Stone of Knowledge and there stood before them the most Beautiful Creature the Hunter had ever seen. "Climb into the basket," said the King. The Hunter did as he was told not knowing what would happen.

RIPPLING RHYMES

HARD TO KILL

You take a club and swing a snake, and it will vain contortions make, long after it is dead; the tail will tie itself in knots as in defiance of the swats that smashed the evil head. But when the sunset comes, men say, the serpent quits its foolish play, and drops its bluff insane; and some one hangs it on a fence in the belief, devoid of sense, that such an act brings rain. And it is much the same with Boozie; his sinful head we saw him lose and gloried in his fall;
 but still his body squirms and twists,
 what time the nation winks and wists, that dead things shouldn't crawl. Still sinners brew their jugs of ale, and we escort them to the jail and give them fifty years; and every time I walk the street some delegate I'm sure to meet whose breath suggests zwiwi beer. Bootleggers in the alleys thrive—and yet the ser-pent's not alive, our statues so confound;
 like any broken snake is Boozie; the reflex action of his thews just make him flop around.

EFFICIENT HOUSEKEEPING

UNANSWERED LETTERS

Inquirer—I have some fine linen which has turned yellow with age. How can I bleach it? The old-fashioned way of placing it wet in the sun does not even seem to help it.
 Answer—Buy Javelle water at any drug store. To every pail of clear water add 1 to 2 cups of Javelle water (do not boil) Plunge the linen into this mixture, after washing it clean, and leave it in for 3 or 4 minutes, then take it out and wash it in hot soapy water.
 Repeat this process if necessary.
 Bride—I would like to know how to make bound buttonholes. I am making some bungalow aprons for myself and wish to make bound buttonholes on my sewing machine—a lovely machine which my Mother in law gave me for a wedding present.
 Answer—Your inquiry prompted me to write yesterday's article on "Getting the Most Out of Your Sewing Machine" I am glad to know of one woman who actually investigates the attachments to her sewing machine! So many use it only for plain sewing. Here are the directions for the buttonholes.
 Bound Buttonholes Made on the Machine—First decide how far apart you want them to be and cut a strip of drilling (or whatever material you wish to use) of that width. Bind both ends of this material. Then cut across this strip in little strips one-half inch wider than the buttonhole. Set the bound edges together, two by two, and stitch down both sides, finally covering the edges with binding. The buttonhole strip is now ready to sew on the opposite.
 Farmer's Wife—"We live near a railroad and sometimes one of our cows gets killed by a train. How can I use the beef, so that it will not be a total loss?" Answer—Canned Beef—Cut the meat into slices which can be easily handled and roast or boil it slowly for 30 minutes. Then cut it into small pieces, removing gristle, bone and excessive fat, and pack it into hot, sterilize jars. Fill the jars with gravy from the roasting pan if you have roasted the beef, or with stock boiled down one-half if you have boiled the meat. Adjust rubbers and caps and sterilize for 4 hours in your wash boiler. If you wish to corn it first, follow these directions:
 Canned Corned Beef—Dissolve rock salt in water until will float a raw potato, then plunge in the meat, weight it down, cover the crock and let stand from two to four days—according to the degree of saltiness you like. At the end of this period of corning, take the beef out, soak it for 2 hours in clear water to freshen it (chinging the water once) then boil it slowly for 30 minutes.
 Plunge it into cold water, removing gristle, bone and excessive fat; cut the meat into small pieces, pack it closely into jars, put rubbers and caps into position and sterilize for 4 hours in your wash boiler.
 Tomorrow—good Home Dinner.

Merely putting a Heavy Truck on Air is Not Enough

NOT all pneumatic-tired trucks are delivering economy.

Some owners would have found it cheaper to stick to solid tires than to run on pneumatics not built to meet trucking conditions.

Merely putting a heavy truck on air is not enough.

The air has got to be contained in something—in something stronger than the ordinary pneumatic tire.

We don't recommend pneumatics for all truck uses.

But where we do recommend them, we recommend U. S. Nobby Cords — truck pneumatics built to meet trucking conditions—with side walls bulwarked, flaps moulded, breaker strips multiplied and cords positively anchored around the bead wires — features that give U. S. Nobby Cords the exclusive position they occupy today.

DISTRICT COURT SESSIONS OPEN NEXT MONDAY

Special to the Times.
—EASTLAND, Sept. 7.—The following cases were filed in the district court Saturday:
J. C. Howard vs. J. M. Reiger, debt, $2,500.
L. V. Dwyer vs. Tom Hutcherson and W. A. Letson, debt, $504.

Around the courthouse today there has been many signs of activity. Many attorneys and parties were in and out of the clerk's office seeing about their cases and getting ready for the meeting of both district courts next Monday. Justice of the Peace Horn brought in a large number of records of investigating trials to be submitted to the grand jury when it convenes Monday. Justice McFatter of Ranger sent down several appearance bonds in cases on preliminary hearings before him.

Courthouse Changes.
A force of men has been busy preparing the ninety-first district court room so that Judge George L. Davenport may have a proper place to open his first court session Monday. The tax collector and assessor are moving their offices and fixtures over to the two-story building just south of the Texas hotel on Commerce street. FARMERS' INSTITUTE TO ASCERTAIN CROP COSTS AT MEETING TOMORROW

AUSTIN, Sept. 7.—The tenth annual meeting of the State Farmers Institute will begin a three-day session in Austin tomorrow, at which, according to officials of the state department of agriculture, matters of urgent importance to the farmers of the state will be considered.

"Several hundred progressive Texas farmers are keeping tab on the cost of producing this year's crop" said a statement issued by the agricultural department "and their reports will be in the hands of the price recommending committee of the state institute on the opening day. Government estimates on yields will be available shortly at this time to enable the committee to approximate very closely the average cost of growing the 1920 crop, which will give a basis for price recommendations."

"With a view of ultimate sale of cotton direct to the spinner, they have been invited to send representatives to the state farmers' institute meeting. Invitations also were extended to Senator Smith of South Carolina and Senator Hefflin of Alabama, able friends of the southern cotton growers, to address the meeting."

SELL WAR-BUILT HOUSES

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—Over 6,000 houses built by the government for industrial war workers have been sold by the government to individual home holders on time payments, according to Leroy K. Sherman, former president of the United States Housing Corporation. Mr. Sherman, who recently resigned also as director of industrial housing of the department of labor, has returned to his home in Chicago.

These houses, Mr. Sherman remarked, supply an instance of war salvage made useful in the reconstruction period owing to the housing shortage. They were located in 27 cities which were large producers of munitions and war materials.

LONDON, Sept. 6.—Terence MacSweeney, lord mayor of Cork, spent a restless night at Brixton prison. Continuing his hunger strike since August 12 in protest against arrest by British authorities, he has placed himself very near the portals of death. He is still conscious and his mind is active but it was reported at noon that he showed steadily decreasing stamina.

30,000 Teachers Needed by Texas Public Schools

AUSTIN, Sept. 7.—More than 30,000 teachers will be needed in Texas public schools during the coming term, according to the state superintendent of public instruction, and with the long-term schools opening about the middle of this month, the teacher situation is no better than it was last year when 2,000 schools closed because of lack of teachers.

Reports to the state department of education show that city schools are fairly well supplied with teachers, but rural schools are having considerable difficulty in finding the instructors needed.

The average salary of Texas teachers last year was $382.06. Rural teachers averaged $343.90, while urban teachers averaged $875.22, according to figures compiled by the department of education.

With the scholastic apportionment increased from $8.50 to $14.50 per capita, officials of the department declare that considerable more money will be available to apply to teachers' salaries.

The effect of low salaries is shown by the fact that in 1915 there were 7,777 male teachers in Texas, while last year there were only 5,229 male teachers in the state's public schools.

Ranger fandom today is rife with mingled joy and non-belief. It seems too good to be true.

A few of the Ranger Elks jumped up a celebration for the boys after they had feasted at the Ranger cafe last night. The Nitros and some of the Judges were guests at the club and enjoyed games, music and refreshments.

According to Tommy Lovelace, the boys were the recipients of a carton of cigarettes apiece, the gift of Fanette Mavis Ertell.

One fair fan who was not disheartened by the rain saw the contests at Municipal park yesterday. She was Mrs. Joe Harness. She went with Joe, who also is a hardened spectator.

GOES 70 MILES TO GET TANLAC FOR HIS MOTHER

Son Says She Gained Seventeen Pounds by Taking It and Her Wonderful Improvement Is the Talk of the Neighborhood.

"It's no wonder that everybody sees a change in mother since she began taking Tanlac, for she has gained seventeen pounds and can get about better than for the last twenty-five years," recently declared T. E. Ellis, well known livestock dealer, living at Rumsey, Ky.

"My mother is now sixty-eight years old and for eight years has suffered from loss of appetite, nervousness, constant headaches, severe pains in the chest and back and frequent spells of dizziness. She became so bad off about five years ago that she had to give up all household work and spent most of her time in bed. During all that time she neither knew what it was to have a well day or a night's rest, and her condition became so alarming that we never expected to see her up and about again.

"One day she read in the papers about someone who had been greatly helped by Tanlac, and nothing would satisfy her until she had tried it herself. So I drove 35 miles to Evansville and got her a bottle. She's had four more bottles since then and she has actually gained seventeen pounds in weight, and it's years since I saw her looking so well. She praises Tanlac all day long, and her remarkable recovery has made such a stir around Rumsey that scores of other sick people have been taking Tanlac with splendid results. I make a trip to Evansville every week and always carry back a load of Tanlac for the neighbors. We all think there is no medicine like it, and I'm glad of this chance of telling everybody about what it did for my mother."

Tanlac is sold in Ranger by Phillips Bros; and in Eastland by Butler Drug Co.—Adv.
