"I'll preach on the bare lot, or go to jail," the pastor avowed.

At a meeting of the board of education last Wednesday, the members voted against granting permission to the church to held a revival service on the campus, after a petition against it had been presented by a score of residents in the vicinity of Church authorities, however, de-clared that consent of four members of the board had been given to holding of the revival ,and that plans for holding the service would continue.

The convict continued on the stand through the morning session elaborating on the testimony he gave yesterday in the trial of Bunkhart, charged with murdering W. E. Smith during the "Osage reign of terror."

The government won its contention in the appeal taken to the suspense court of the United States that the indictanents returned by the federal grand jury were valid.

For three or more years, numerous wealthy Osage Indians were murdued with the rand several others who were indicted. Their bodies were placed in out-of-the-way places. Ranger Mouser Adopts Orphan Squirrels Here

A mother's cat humanity to orphan squirrels has recently been demonstrated in Ranger. Two Ranger boys went a hunting and they found three baby squirrels which they brought home to raise. Seeing that they were too small to be fed from a spoon, they hunted around until they found a mother cat with three kittens and approached her on the subject of adopting three new members of her family.

This the cat gracefully did, and it is said that she washed them, and licked them, scuffed them and ouddled them just as she did her own kittens, who did not seem to object fo their foster kin. However, in spite of the care given the little adopted ones, two of them died but one lusty survivor has now graduated from the cat's care and siys his milk out of a spoon just like a little man.

U. S. Steel Spends Millions For Welfare Work

By United Press.

NEW YORK, June 1. - Twenty years of organized accident prevention in the plants of the United State Steel Corporation has saved 46,000 men from death or serious injury, has averted accidents which would have disabled 322,000 other workmen, and has resulted in a ve-saving of money, according to the 1926 report of the Steel Corporation's Bureau of Safety, Sanitation and Welfare ,made public here today.

The report stated the corporation has spent $158,000,000 for safety, canitation and welfare in the last fourteen years, the largest item being $45,000,000 for the relief of injured employes and of the families of employes killed. From 1912 to 1926 the corporation spent $31,700.000 for sanitation, $28,000,000 for playgrounds, schools, clubs, gardens visiting nurses, and similar activities $15,100,000 for accident prevention $13,000,000 in pensions, and $22, 000,000 for the employes' stock subscription plan.

There are eight teams in the district and it was determined at this meeting that each team should play every other team, making a round robin schedule for this territory.

Championship will be settled on a percentage basis. Ranger will have four games at home and three away from home, according to Coach Blair Cherry, who with Professors Holloway and Lanier, represented Ranger at yesterday's meeting. The four games to be played on home ground are by the large schools of the district.

There are eight teams in the district and referring them to Austin for settlement. All schools in the district had representatives at the meeting.

The schedule for this fall as is follows:

Oct. 2, Ranger at Stephenville, vs. Yellow Jackets.

Oct. 9, open.

Oct. 16, San Angelo vs. Bulldogs, at Ranger.

Oct. 22, Eastland Mavericks vs. Bulldogs, at Eastland.

Tom Lauderdale read "I Want to Be a Scout," and the Boy Scout bugle call was given.

James Smith attempted to tell of "The Job of Being a Father," and did it cleverly, while Frank Kingston told of "some dads I have met," and they were not all the kind of dads that should be dads to Boy Scouts.

Leroy Johnson, Byron Tate and Edgar Barker also contributed numbers to the program. A pamphlet called "Because" was at each Rotarian's plate, put there by the scouts.

In an intra-schol track and field meet recently.

The meet was one of a series conducted annually among fifteen state schools for the blind and in which the comparisor of records determines national champions.

Some of the participants had partial vision, but the greater number depended on mental judgment of height and distance, in field events and a sixth sense in track races. Nevertheless, they made these marks: Standing broad jump, ten feet, one-half inch; 60-yard dash, six and two-fifths seconds; 16-feet rope climb, three and four-fifths seconds.
