BORAH URGED TO ORGANIZE THIRD PARTY

Neither Democrats Nor Republicans Capable of National Leadership, Letters Say.

By United Press.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—Senator Borah of Idaho is becoming the involuntary center of a new third party movement which is beginning to be marked by the insistence of its demands that Borah step out and lead a political revolution.

Letters are pouring into Borah's office from men and women of almost every shade of political opinion, announcing their dissatisfaction with the two old parties and urging Borah to take the lead in uniting the political dissenters in the United States under a new organization's banner.

The one respect in which all these letters agree is in the statement that neither the Republican nor the Democratic party is longer capable of national leadership.

TWO DRY AGENTS FATALLY SHOT IN OKLAHOMA RAID

By United Press.

HUGO, Okla., Aug. 7.—Posses were scouring Cheetaw county today in an effort to find a young negro, believed to be the son of Y. C. Reed, who late yesterday shot and killed B. E. Wiggins, federal prohibition enforcement officer.

Wiggins was killed and B. H. Pendergast, another federal officer, was probably fatally wounded, when they were fired upon from the Reed home near Spear, ten miles north of here. The young negro shot Wiggins and then escaped. Reed shot Pendergast and was killed by the officer, who fired ten shots into the black.

MISSOURI WRECK IS PROBED BY STATE

By United Press.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Aug. 7.—Formal probe into the fatal Sulphur Springs, Mo., wreck on the Missouri Pacific, which claimed 37 lives, began today. Investigation of the cause of the disaster was started at De Soto when Coroner George W. Elders called witnesses, including members of the crews of both trains, for questioning.

Eye-witnesses were summoned before the coroner's jury to recount details of the rear-end collision.

Coroner Elders promised a thorough investigation of circumstances which caused the disaster, the worst train wreck in the history of this part of the country. The crews of both trains were summoned by the coroner to give their version of the accident.

SQUEAMISH LONDON COUNCILMEN RETURN NUDE EVE TO DONOR

LONDON, Aug. 7.—Squeamish London county councilmen were saved from an embarrassing situation by a woman who donated a large statue of a nude Eve for the new city hall, which caused the city fathers to blush with shame, wrote a letter asking the work of art be returned.

There has been a widespread controversy since the crated statue arrived at the city hall and it had not been placed in the hall when the king and queen formally opened the building a fortnight ago.

When art lovers protested that the marble feminine nudity was strictly according to Hoyle so long as it was beautiful, the councilmen asserted they were not shocked but could find no place to display Eve.

PASTOR AND COUNCILMAN HAD STILL AND LIQUOR

WHEELING, W. Va., Aug. 7.—A minister and a councilman, after a hearing here on charges of having violated the liquor law, were held under bond of $1,000.

W. H. Brooks, a member of the council of Follansbee, W. Va., was arrested after a raid by government officers, who are alleged to have found 200 bottles of home brew in his home.

Rev. Dr. Benjamin Eden, of Wheeling, is accused of having operated a still in his home. The still was found on a stove in the pastor's kitchen, officers say.

TEXAS COLLEGE GIRL FALLS TO DEATH FROM YOSEMITE CLIFF

YOSEMITE, Cal., Aug. 7.—Elizabeth Jones, aged 17, daughter of Prof. L. W. Jones, of Texas Christian university, was killed in Yosemite park yesterday afternoon when she fell 60 feet from a cliff into the Merced river.

Her father in a frantic attempt to save her, narrowly escaped death himself. Grasping the girl's hand as he saw her falling, he was pulled far out over the cliff. His grip gave way and Miss Jones plunged to her death while Jones clung to the crumbling rocks, according to visitors to the park who witnessed the tragedy.

Miss Jones fell just after she had posed for a picture on the brink of the cliff, taken by her father.

FERGUSON WINS PLACE ON SECOND BALLOT BY UNANIMOUS VOTE

San Antonio Objector May Resort to Court Action to Prevent His Certification; Only One Speech Made Before State Committee Makes Decision.

By United Press.

DALLAS, Aug. 7.—Former Governor James E. Ferguson won his second battle today before the state Democratic executive committee when that body unanimously adopted a motion to leave his name on the ballot in the second primary run-off election to be held Aug. 26.

The state committee, in session here to canvass the returns from the first primary, this morning heard a brief argument by Judge John W. Gaines of San Antonio on his petition to have Ferguson's name stricken from the ballot, and then adopted a motion recommending that all the names now on the ballot be left intact.

The next legal step in the senatorial race between Earle B. Mayfield and Ferguson is expected to come shortly in the announced plan of Judge Gaines to seek an injunction in the Bexar county district court at San Antonio to prevent Frank C. Davis of the committee from certifying Ferguson's name on the ballot. This, however, will not further interrupt the hot campaign now going on between Ferguson and Mayfield and the air will again thicken with the heavy political explosives by tomorrow. Ferguson left his campaign trip to come here to attend the committee meeting in person today. He will probably resume his speaking trip tomorrow.

Ferguson was present when the committee met but did not remain until final action was taken on his candidacy. Mayfield was not present.

FORT WORTH NEWSPAPER MAN TO ADDRESS C. OF C. OPEN AIR MEET

VERSATILE CHAP!

GALIPOLIS, Ohio, Aug. 7.—Captain Mell O. Irwin, commander of a river packet, probably is the only boat captain on western waters who makes it a practice to deliver a sermon to his passengers every Sunday night.

On week day nights Captain Irwin entertains his guests with clog dancing. His skill in this direction is widespread among passengers who usually urge him on the first night out to "do a few steps for them."

Captain Irwin served in the Spanish-American war and was a guard at the capitol during the World war. He is known to thousands of tourists, as well as many senators, representatives and other government officials.

CHAMBERS OF COMMERCE FIGHT EXPRESS INCREASE

By Associated Press.

AUSTIN, Aug. 7.—A proposed increase in intrastate express rates to correspond to interstate rates was the chief business at a conference of traffic managers of Texas chambers of commerce held here today. A statewide hearing on the matter is considered likely. Traffic managers are scheduled to appear before the railroad commission today.

ENGINEERS CONSIDERING WATER CONTROL PROBLEMS

By Associated Press.

AUSTIN, Aug. 7.—More than 200 engineers from all parts of Texas attended the conference here today on flood control and reclamation problems called by Governor Neff. Dean Taylor of the State university engineering department was appointed chairman of the conference.

in person but was represented. He had made his position plain as opposing any action which would bar Ferguson from the second primary.

Judge Gaines in his statement to the committee protested against alleged "steamer roller" tactics and accused the committee of trying to shut off discussion and prevent the people of Texas from knowing what had transpired in the meeting. The instant Judge Gaines took his seat Chairman Frank C. Davis of San Antonio, without even glancing in Gaines' direction, put the motion which was passed upon unanimously. The report by a subcommittee, recommending that all names on the ballot be certified, ended the principal business of the convention, as the report of the committees on proxies had already been passed over the protest of Judge Gaines. Several matters of minor importance are expected to come before the committee this afternoon when it reconvenes after a recess lasting until 2 o'clock.

The morning session was for about an hour, and was open, contrary to previous expectations. About 75 persons other than committee members attended. Among observers were T. W. Davison of Marshall, run-off candidate for lieutenant governor against Billie Mayfield Jr., of Houston, and Cullen E. Thomas, one of the candidates in the July primary for United States senator. Mr. Thomas was given considerable applause when he entered the room.

CHICKEN THIEF ROBS ROOST BUT LOSES $200

GAINESVILLE, Aug. 7.—"Got any chickens to sell?"
"No, we sold them all last night."
Bang went the door and the conversation ended.

A chicken thief raided the roost of a Gainesville citizen one night last week and cleaned it out. In his haste to make a getaway he dropped a roll containing $200 in currency. Next day a man came to the premises, and while making a hurried survey of the chicken lot, discovered his presence was known. Strolling to the house the conversation took place. But the $200 wasn't recovered.

DALLAS, Aug. 7.—An "empty" shotgun in the hands of her 10-year-old sister today caused the death of a 6-year-old negro girl here. Beulah Stallworth, age 6, the dead child, was blown almost in two by the discharge.

President Calls on Railroad Strikers to Return to Jobs

Requests Both Sides to Abide by Labor Board's Decision on Seniority of Men Who Walked Out; Executives Won't Comment.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—President Harding today called on the striking railroad shopmen to return to work and requested the railroads assign them to work, and asked both the workmen and the carriers submit the disputed question of seniority to the railroad labor board.

The President sent telegrams to B. M. Jewell, head of the railroad shopmen's unions, and to T. Dewitt Cutler, chairman of the Association of Railway Executives, outlining the plan which he hoped would result in speedy termination of the strike. In his message President Harding asked that both parties to the dispute agree to comply with the decisions rendered on seniority by the railroad labor board.

A further statement made by the President was that he was "mindful of the pledge of both executives and striking shopmen to recognize the validity of all decisions by the railroad labor board." He also pointed out that the question of seniority which he presented and outlined recently in a settlement plan "remains in dispute and bars a settlement."

Settlement through the railroad labor board, the President is said to believe, is the only practical course for the government to take. The President, it was added, considers the suggestion just made as representing the judgment of one who has been standing in between the parties to the controversy. The President, it was stated, said the new proposal will direct the support of public opinion and will bring about a speedy ending of the strike, now in its sixth week.

EXECUTIVE WON'T COMMENT.

NEW YORK, Aug. 7.—L. F. Loree, president of the Delaware & Hudson railroad, spokesman for the Eastern rail executives, refused to comment this afternoon on President Harding's latest move to end the strike of rail shopmen.

The heads of 148 American railroads which last week rejected President Harding's first program for settlement of the nationwide rail strike, probably will be asked to reconvene within four days to consider the latest proposal which the White House has addressed to railroad officials and strikers, Cutler said.

THREE STRIKE LEADERS CONSIDER HARDING'S PLAN

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—The trio of striking railroad shopcraft leaders here in Washington, B. M. Jewell, general strike leader, William H. Johnson of the machinists, and J. P. Noonan of the electrical workers, went into conference this afternoon on President Harding's new strike settlement proposal. There was information that the proposal had not made a favorable first impression upon them.

FORMER GOVERNMENT OFFICIAL IS INDICTED FOR HUGE WARTIME FRAUD

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—Indictments were returned today by the federal grand jury investigating wartime frauds, against Ernest C. Morse, former director of sales for the war department; E. M. Davis, president of the Davis Chemical company of New York, and Alex Phillips, associated with Davis.

All three men are charged by indictment with having defrauded the government out of more than $1,000,000 in connection with the sale of the war built plant of the Miekory Powder company at Nassau, Tenn.

The indictment set forth that the government expended $85,000,000 in constructing the plant but received only $3,450,100.

STATE HIGHWAY BODY MAY GIVE EXPERT ADVICE TO CO. OFFICIALS

By Associated Press.

Recommendation that representatives of the Texas Highway association investigate the road affairs of each county in the state, with the view of offering expert advice where county commissioners are inefficient or are not familiar with road matters, were made by President W. V. Crawford of Waco at the convention of the association Friday and Saturday in Galveston.

Eastland county was particularly well represented at the convention, J. M. Dodson and Ernest G. Albright attending as representatives of the Ranger Chamber of Commerce, and four other representatives attending from Eastland and Cisco. Mr. Albright opened the convention with prayer Friday.

The efforts of the newly organized association to bring about a connected system of roads through the state had attracted 500 good road enthusiasts and engineers from all over Texas and from many parts of the country, Mr. Albright stated. One of the speakers from California told of the astounding increase in land values in California following the completion of the state highway system by putting out of the way sections close to markets, and declared that the Texas soil was equal, if not better, to that of California.

The convention went on record as recommending a general revision and modification of the road laws of the state by better adapting them to the present method of construction and maintenance. It also recommended a revision of the highway traffic laws.

The state legislature was urged to call a constitutional convention at its ensuing regular session in one of a number of resolutions passed.

It was brought out in speeches that Texas is getting the lowest amount of federal aid per mile of any state in the union and that this condition could be remedied by a strong association working with the state highway department.

FIVE PROVINCES OF ITALY UNDER MILITARY RULE

Government Making Strong Effort to Stamp Out Civil War Now Raging.

By HENRY WOOD.

United Press Staff Correspondent. ROME, Aug. 7.—With five provinces under martial law, the government moved today to stamp out civil war that has been raging between the fascisti and socialists since the uprising of the former last Friday.

Premier Facta planned to establish the iron rule of the military in other towns when fighting between nationalists and radicals threatened. Seven cities were in the grip of the fascisti Monday. Fearing the fascisti may attempt to seize Rome, the government took all necessary precautionary measures.

FIRE HORSE ENDS LIFE TO ESCAPE FROM DISGRACE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—Ten years' honorable service as a fire horse, rewarded with a job hauling a garbage wagon, broke the heart of old Jack Gallup. He ended his life in front of a fire house and his firemen friends say he did it deliberately.

Old Jack for years was one of three plump, sleek bays who whirled a steamer to every big fire in Washington and many little ones, too. But the motor finally got old Jack and his pals and they went the way of thousands of others in an age of progress.

A week ago, there were a few sobs choked down and a few tears brushed away among the firemen over in Congress Heights when Jack and his mates were led away. Today Jack turned up with one of them on an ill-smelling, filthy garbage wagon in old Georgetown.

The day was hot and the job was nasty and the disgrace was worst of all. Nobody knows what Jack might have said in horse to his companion, but, anyway, he took the bit in his teeth and bolted, dragging his team mate with him and heading for the nearest engine house.

Jack knew right where it was, too, although he never had worked in that part of the city before. He galloped full tilt right into the brick wall, head on, and crumpled down in a heap. The shocked and grieved firemen, recognizing the old hero by the brand marks on his hoofs, gave to him the coup de grace to end his struggles.

Nobody could convince them that Jack didn't deliberately take his life rather than end it hauling a garbage wagon.

SESSUE HAYAKAWA FLEES NATIVE LAND

TOKIO, Aug. 7.—Believing his life endangered, Sessue Hayakawa has sailed for America on the steamer Tenyo Mauru, months ahead of his original plan. He has been guarded while here by five policemen, who protect him from super-patriots who denounced the roles he played as anti-Japanese and traitorous.

A few days ago Hayakawa disappeared from Tokio, while his wife refused to see all callers. It is known that he went to Kobe disguised, where he boarded the Tenyo following receipt of numerous threatening letters. Police also advised him to return to America.

DENIES SUGAR PLOT.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—Denying charges that he had proposed curtailment of the Cuban sugar crop to 2,500,000 tons this year in return for reduced tariff on sugar, Senator Smoot, Republican, read today to the senate a statement from the president of Cuba that no proposal for the limitation of the crop had come from American government officials.

Horror Haunts Streets of City Wrecked by Wind and Tidal Wave.

By Associated Press.

HONG KONG, Aug. 7.—With casualties now estimated at 10,000, detailed reports are revealing the full extent of the typhoon and tidal wave which last Wednesday swept the port of Swatow, 250 miles north of here. Two British steamers had been reported ashore and today it was learned that a third, bound from Hong Kong to Shanghai, was wrecked but that her passengers were saved. Desolation hovers over the ruined city and horrors haunt its streets. In the water hundreds of corpses and the carcasses of animals are mingled with the debris.

It is estimated that more than 75 per cent of the city's buildings were destroyed, including the silk knitting factories and the old German consulate. The American consulate and Standard Oil company's warehouse were slightly damaged.

WATER DAMAGE GIVEN STORE BY DOWNTOWN FIRE

The stock of merchandise of The Toggery, at the corner of Main and Rusk streets, was considerably damaged by water last night following the breaking out of a small blaze in a toilet in the second story of the building. Dave I. Cohen, proprietor, stated this morning that he had been unable to estimate the water damage but that it would run high and he did not have one cent of insurance.

As the result of an encounter with Charles Romick of the Ranger Dry Goods company shortly after the fire, Cohen pleaded guilty and paid a fine of $20.70 at police headquarters for fighting. Mrs. Cohen, also arrested on a fighting charge by Chief of Police McDowell and Patrolman Ingram, was found not guilty in city court this morning.

Witnesses state that Romick was attacked by Mr. and Mrs. Cohen after a facetious remark had been made about the fire.

THIEVES LOOT FREIGHT CAR OF FORD PARTS

Ford parts were decidedly in demand last night, as shown by the activity of thieves who broke into a carload of Ford cars in the Texas & Pacific yards and carried off various parts of the machines. Later a spare tire was stolen from the Ford coupe of S. B. Tunnell, while parked on Main street.

The shipment of Fords was consigned to the Leveille-Maher Motor company here. Seven windshields, seven tops, seven jacks and one floor board were missing this morning when a checkup was made.

Mr. Tunnell's car was parked on Main street in the vicinity of the Holy Roller revival last night when the spare tire was stolen from the rear.

NEWSPAPERS GROW FEWER The Duluth Herald in commenting on the recent purchase of the Kansas City Journal makes the following editorial comment: "This is but one of the many instances disclosing a very marked tendency in the newspaper field in this country—a tendency that is increasing rather than diminishing. Up to a few years ago the launching of new publications was a common thing; now it is a rare thing, while the absorption of surplus newspapers is almost a daily happening."

Communities that used to have three, four and five newspapers now have only two. Only the very largest communities are able to support more; and even in the larger places with a number of newspapers, there are usually only two or three conspicuous successes, with the rest tending toward the ragged edge.

There are two outstanding reasons for this, and both confirm the thought that the tendency is permanent: First, the greatly increased cost of producing newspapers.

Second, the more scientific selection of newspapers by the advertiser with a view more to getting results than to dividing up his advertising to "help" newspapers that do not justify support by adequate returns from the advertising they carry.

Advertising is no longer a hit-or-miss affair. It is rapidly approaching the dignity of a science, both in its preparation and the selection of mediums. When advertisers study newspapers and buy advertising space as wisely as they buy goods, the position of the unnecessary newspaper in a community is greatly weakened.

These two factors above others account for the very marked and very significant tendency toward fewer newspapers instead of more newspapers. And this is wholly for good, for fewer newspapers means stronger newspapers, and stronger newspapers means better newspapers.

The increased cost of producing newspapers, while it was enormously inflated by war and post-war conditions, is by no means wholly temporary. War inflation is lessening and many but by no means all war-made increases are going down or will go down.

But, much as publishers regret it, there is a factor of permanency in this increased cost of publication, and that lies in the fact that in large part the increase is due to the very greatly enlarged service which the modern newspaper is giving to its readers. War costs may and will decline; but an expansion of newspaper service that has since been made, and to which readers have become accustomed, cannot and should not be abandoned. The cost of this increased service will offset the reduction in the normal items of operating costs.

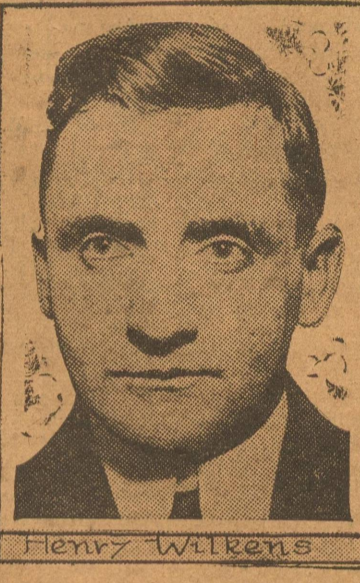

Instances like that in Kansas City are becoming common. There will be more of them before there are less. Publishing a modern newspaper is an enterprise calling for large capital and operating expenses, and it is no longer possible to engage in it "on a shoe-string," or to continue in it with a losing venture in the face of the increasing discrimination of advertisers.

MAKES REMARKABLE CONFESSION OF MURDER

Arthur Castor

Henry Wilkens, a prominent San Francisco automobile man, has been arrested on charges of conspiring to kill his wife. The murder was committed while Wilkens and his wife were driving. Men in another car killed Mrs. Wilkens. Arthur Castor, in a remarkable confession, admitted he was one of the bandits, declaring Mrs. Wilkens was killed by his brother, Walter, at the instigation of Wilkens. "If I'd known it wasn't simply a stick-up job," he said, "I'd have killed my brother before we started. I hear that woman's moans in my sleep. It gives a fellow the jimmies. It's bad enough to bump off a guy, but to bump off a woman—it's hell!"

IS SUICIDE EVER JUSTIFIABLE? GIRL'S ACT CREATES DISCUSSION

Belle of Missouri Town Ends Life with Butcher Knife When Flames Envelop Her Body; Insanity of Fear Pleaded in Her Behalf.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 7.—Is suicide ever justifiable? Can the moral law—"Thou shalt not kill"—be interpreted, under any condition, to the soul salvation of a self-destructionist?

Clergymen of the Middle West are divided over these questions as are friends of pretty Stella Marshall, popular town belle and teacher in the little Baptist Sunday school of Columbia, Mo., who lies in her grave, the victim of her own hand.

Her story is without precedent in the ecclesiastical law of life and death. Miss Marshall's Sunday school class was giving an entertainment. The young teacher went into her garden to cut a corsage bouquet of roses for the fluffy organdie dress she wore. She carried a razor-edged butcher knife.

Fatal Fire of Papers. Papers, gathered from the street during a windstorm, cluttered the yard. Miss Marshall gathered these into a bundle and touched a lighted match to them. Then she turned to the cutting of her roses.

A moment later and her dress was afire. A scream—then a moment of frantic effort to beat out the flames which had enveloped the girl's body. Then, dropping to her knees, the burning girl prayed: "Dear God!" J. E. Nash, a next-door neighbor, heard her cry, "Forgive me! Forgive me!"

The flames had reached Miss Marshall's hair—her body was a torch. Slashes Throat With Knife. Nash vaulted a fence in his effort to reach the girl's side. But before he could do so Miss Marshall placed the blade of the butcher knife she carried to her throat. A moment later she fell—the veins of life had been cut.

Frantically Nash beat out the flames which by now had burned deep into the flesh of the girl. But the knife had made a fatal wound—Miss Marshall died before medical aid could be administered.

Physicians who later examined the body expressed the belief Miss Marshall's burns would not have proved fatal. She would have been disfigured for life, however.

Miss Marshall's father, E. O. Marshall, a merchant, justifies his daughter's act upon a childhood experience of his daughter. Had Horror of Burning. "Stella, when a very small girl, was painfully burned," the father says. "Since then I have heard her say many times that she preferred death to the agony she suffered at that time. I believe this fear, grown to a mania, led my daughter to commit an act over which she had no control."

Clergymen of the middle west allied with the liberalist school of theology declare the state of Miss Marshall's mind at the moment she took her life would serve as her justification in the tribunal of the moral law.

"If Miss Marshall, at the moment she killed herself, believed that death would result from the flames which were consuming her body she had the moral right to relieve the death pains which her childhood experience had built into a monster which drove all else from her mind at the moment," the Rev. James E. Peoples, local clergyman, says.

Ministers Cling to Commandment. Opposed to this is the teaching of other of the city's leading ministers, who are emphatic in their declaration that the commandment, "Thou shalt not kill!" was binding on Miss Marshall.

"God gives human life," they argue—"only God can take it." Unless the act of self-destruction is that of insanity, some of the clergymen insist, the soul is lost.

They are joined by the "old-fashioned" ministers of the Missouri hills—teachers of the "old school." As a result of the bitter debate over Miss Marshall's act the subject of her moral justification may be brought before the national conventions of many of the leading church organizations this year and rulings asked.

GERMANY PLANS TAX ON PRE-WAR WAIST LINES

BERLIN, Aug. 7.—"Cut down the waist," will be the slogan of Teuton taxpayers, if the best idea that has yet been struck in getting Germany out of debt goes through the various state parliaments, where it has formally been presented by feather-weight theorists.

It asks that the government measure the chests and stomachs of all Germans from the ages of 15 to 70 years, and tax every half inch of bay window on a graduate scale; 30 years, 1,000 marks; 40 years, 500 marks; 50 years, 300 marks; with older boys getting two and a half and four inches grace while a slight tax exemption will be made for "double" bookkeepers.

Woman, Two Sons, Turned Blue by Home Disinfectant

NEW YORK, Aug. 7.—Poisoned by oil of mirbane, a supposedly harmless disinfectant, Mrs. Blanche Shipley and her two infant sons were turning blue by the time they succeeded in summoning neighbors to their home at No. 85 Seventh avenue, Newark.

Mrs. Shipley and her elder son, Frank, 11 months old, were blue about the lips and the finger tips. Robert, the 11-day-old infant, was blue from head to foot and apparently in pain. The victims were able to walk to the City hospital. The case is puzzling physicians there. The disinfectant was simply sprinkled about the house and its principal constituent is bitter almond juice.

SOUSED MOUSE IN POLICE STATION JUST SPOILING TO MEET CAT

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 7.—A heavy drinker, partaking freely of the contents of confiscated kegs, barrels and dripping stills in the county detective headquarters, appearing in the offices in a highly inebriated condition, frightening women clerks but eluding the efforts of 30 sleuths to capture him, is the latest scandal in liquor law enforcement here.

The toper is often seen, but even when he is blind, staggering drunk, which seems to be most of the time, he is too fast and wary for detectives. District Attorney Rowand, whose office adjoins the room where the booze is stored, is out after the marauder's hide. He would appreciate the loan of a skilled mouser—why sure, the dry law violator is only a little mouse, but when drunk he sits right up on his hind legs and in what may be his deepest bass, calls for any cat in Pittsburgh.

YOUTH KILLED IN TRACTOR SMASH HAD DEATH PREMONITION

COLAMO, Mich., Aug. 7.—A half hour before Clarence Morlock, 17 years old, was to quit his job as driver of a farm tractor because he was afraid of the big machine, he was killed in an accident which upset the "iron horse."

"Mother, I am afraid that tractor is going to get me," he said as he left the house in the morning for his final day's work on the machine. "It may seem foolish, but I am afraid of that tractor, and I'm going to quit the job as soon as I'm through work tonight."

He worked all day and was careful and deliberate in handling the machine. Just before quitting time he drove the tractor out on a stone road preparatory to putting it in a shed. He was driving along the side of the road to permit an automobile to pass when the soft soil at the edge gave way and tilted the tractor to such an extent that the boy was thrown clear of the machine. One of the lugs on a wheel, however, struck him on the head and fractured his skull. He was dead when members of the automobile party picked him up.

ELECTION FRAUDS ARE CHARGED IN COOKE CO

GAINESVILLE, Aug. 7.—The big surprise of politics as an aftermath of the recent Democratic primary election in Cooke county came Saturday when Fred E. Wankan, who lost the race for county attorney by 67 votes, to J. L. Gettys, incumbent, filed a contest with the county executive committee against the two voting boxes at Muenster and also Lindsey, alleging fraud and illegality at the three boxes. Affidavits were read before the committee on Saturday of last week charging that fraud was practiced at the south Muenster box and on the strength of these the presiding officer at the box was removed and another appointed to serve on Aug. 26. The petition sets up that marked ballots were used, that electioneering was carried on by the presiding officer for Wankan's opponent, and that persons who have not received their naturalization papers as American citizens were allowed to vote.

RICH RANCH GIRL WASHES DISHES IN BOSTON

Miss Dallas Duane, 19, of Carson City, Texas, is "pot-walloping" in a Boston restaurant. Her brother, an army officer, chided her into doing it. He declared she would starve to death if it weren't for her big private income, whereupon she replied with Texas spirit: "Is that so? Watch me!" Then she got the restaurant job, rolled up her sleeves and pitched in to work. She says she will stick until her brother repents.

EXPERIMENTER TELLS HOW TO KNOW WHEN YOUR MOSQUITO IS HAPPY

NEW YORK, Aug. 7.—Why and when does a mosquito sing? Why and when does he feast at your expense? These vital questions were answered here by Willem Rudolfs, of the New Jersey agricultural experiment station, who tested the critters to find out.

And it's all a question of heat. Mr. Rudolfs conducted his experiments on mosquitoes he had placed in a closed glass jar containing water.

Like Blood Heat.

The insects were in the gayest and most happy mood when subjected to a degree of heat similar to that of the human body.

At a temperature of 63 degrees the mosquitoes were dull and slow in movement.

When the water temperature reached 78 degrees the insects began to grow more lively. At 86 they were decidedly active, and at blood heat life looked rosy to them and they sang about it.

As the heat grew more intense they sang in a higher key and flew with short rest periods. The heat was getting under their skins. When the temperature was raised a little more they fell upon their backs and wiggled their legs. As it grew still hotter they were pronounced to be dead.

Register Moods.

Mr. Rudolfs also learned something of the moods of the creatures. They register their likes and dislikes much like "movie" stars do before the camera.

When they are satisfied or pleased they rub their legs and wings and sing in a low tone. Who has not heard this ominous chorus or solo?

They register irritation by flying fast to and fro, singing in a high tone.

Indifference is registered by remaining anywhere with proboscides straight or curved; no singing.

Of cautious nature they keep one or two hind legs bent forward when they alight.

Attraction is registered by flying straight toward the object; thrusting proboscides straight in.

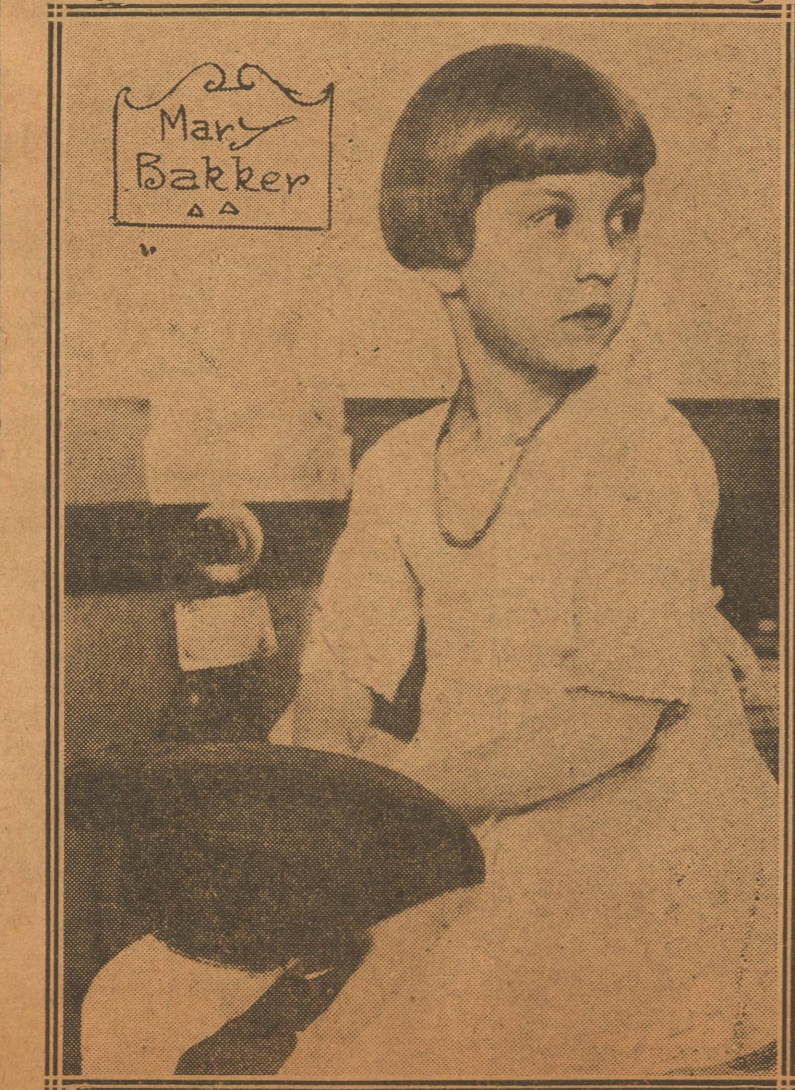

Mr. Rudolfs says a human meal is a mosquito's second choice. They prefer animals.

SAYS RUSSIAN Famine IS RELIEVED NOW

A. C. Ernst, who has been in Russia for six months and who has just returned to America, declares the food situation, insofar as it relates to the peasantry, is fairly well straightened out. Mr. Ernst was in charge of the distribution of American relief food in a large district centering about Saratov.

GIRL, 5, SOLD FOR BOARD BILL

A human chattel, a 5-year-old girl, was sold in a Chicago court to satisfy a debt. She was Mary Bakker, held by Mrs. A. Stolpman as security for a $405 board bill incurred by the child's father. She was purchased through the payment of $30 by Mr. and Mrs. John Kenney, of Rentville, Mich., her uncle and aunt, who plan to take her to their home.

WOMAN.

She will live longer with an undeserving mate than any known animal.

She will forgive oftener than an angel.

She will make herself ridiculous if she thinks it attractive.

She will pay 15 cents carfare to get a $4 article for $3.98.

And she will go to heaven and be lonesome.—Richmond Times Dispatch.

LABORITE WANTS TO KNOW WHAT BRITISHERS PAY FOR THEIR TITLES

LONDON, Aug. 7.—James Ramsay Macdonald, member of parliament for Leicester and former chairman of the Labor party, has some original ideas as to how the party should deal with the "sale of honors," a question that has been much discussed of late.

"When the Labor party comes into office," he writes, "one of the very first spare days that falls to its lot should be devoted to the setting up of a committee with full powers to send for papers and persons to ascertain how much recent recipients of 'honors' have paid for their titles, and who pocketed the money."

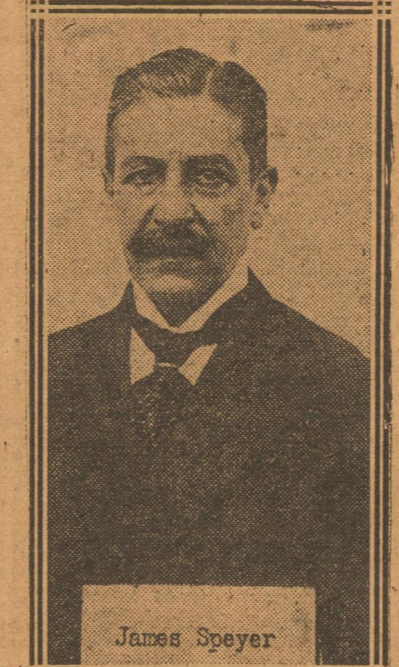

"I should deprive no man of his title once he had bought it. But the public ought to know how much he gave for it, and that can be ascertained by a committee of the house of commons endowed with the powers of a court. Every peer created within the last 20 years should be asked to send under oath a statement of his peerage transactions, and, if information is suppressed or falsified, he should be prosecuted for perjury."

"No one who has bought a peerage should be allowed to vote in the house of lords, and should not be eligible for election to any reconstructed second chamber. All those who have bought their way into the privy council should be dismissed at once, and that body should be purified again."

ARBuckle GOES TO ORIENT.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 7.—Roscoe Arbuckle, who was acquitted several months ago of causing the death of Virginia Rappe, will seek forgetfulness in a trip over the world. "Fatty" applied for a passport Saturday for a business trip to China, Japan and Korea. He stated that his visit would be of "indefinite length."

S. S. S. Fills Out Hollow Cheeks, Thin Limbs!

Men and women, whether you will ever build yourself up to your normal, just-right weight depends on the number of blood-cells in your blood. That's all there is to it. It's a scientific fact. If your blood-cell factory isn't working right, you will be run-down, thin, your blood will be in disorder, and perhaps your face will be broken out with pimples, blackheads and eruptions. S. S. S. keeps your blood-cell factory working full time. It helps build new blood-cells. That's why S. S. S. builds up thin, run-down people. It puts firm flesh on your bones, it rounds out your face, arms, neck, limbs, the whole body. It puts the "pink" in your cheeks. It takes the hollowness from the eyes, and it fools Father Time by smoothing out wrinkles in men and women by "plumping" them up. S. S. S. is a remarkable blood-purifier. While you are getting plump, your skin eruptions, pimples, blackheads, acne, rheumatism, rash, tetter, blotches are being removed. The medicinal ingredients of S. S. S. are guaranteed purely vegetable. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores, in two sizes. The larger size is the more economical.

Miss Anne Burnett, of Fort Worth, Texas, has been left $15,000,000 under the terms of the will of her grandfather, Burk Burnett, pioneer cattleman, of Texas. Already a millionaire, Mr. Burnett's fortune was increased many million dollars when oil was discovered on the hundreds of thousands of acres he owned, and the town of Burk Burnett, Texas, in the heart of the oil region, was named for him.

It Looks Pretty Dark to Barney Just Now

By Billy De Beck NASHVILLE WILL RUN SCHOOLS THROUGH YEAR

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 7.—Nashville will be the first city in Tennessee to have an all-year-round school term if the recommendation of the city board of education is adopted by the city council.

According to plans the school term will be divided into four sessions of three months each. Each student may elect what three of the four sessions he wishes to attend or he may attend all four. This will give those working in the summer time an opportunity to continue their work, while those working in the winter or other sessions will have the same opportunity.

It will also give those who have been forced out of school because of illness or other causes, or those who have failed to make their grades, an opportunity to attend the extra session and in that way keep up with their classes.

NITROS DROP OPENING GAME AT CLOVIS, 8-2

CLOVIS, Aug. 7.—Buzz Wetzel's serves were too much for the Nitros yesterday and Clovis took the opener, 8 to 2. The Buzzers staged two concentrated offensives during the matinee which made the score somewhat unbalanced. They took an early lead in the second round, by pounding over three tallies on hits mixed with daring baserunning, and in the eighth added four more, after Lybrand had had them on the hip for several rounds.

The Nitros went scoreless until the eighth, when White parked the ball with the bases empty. They added the final marker in the ninth, when Ammons, batting for Conley, hit safely and Clayton drove the run across with a double. That was the only inning in which Ranger grouped two blows.

COYOTES POUND OUT VICTORY OVER BRAZOS

Hefty hitting by the P. O. & G. Coyotes turned back the invading nine from Brazos yesterday at Nitro park, 12 to 3. The Coyotes proved themselves more effective in the pinches, both with the willow and in the field, and held a continually increasing lead after the second round. Three double plays and a fast one-handed stop and throw by T. Seale with a man on third were the fielding features.

Young of the Coyotes was the hitting star for the winners, with four out of five, while Austin Allen proved himself a powerful clouter and a neat fielder for the visitors. Allen hit a homer his first time up and also collected a triple and single.

Umpire "Jones" Neill was the real hero of the game, he especially drawing the razzing of the crowd when he refused to chase down foul drives.

THURBER EVENS UP SERIES FOR OIL BELT TITLE

By beating the Texaco Stars yesterday, 4 to 5, in a hard fought battle at Parks Camp, the Thurber team evened up the series for the oil belt title and the deciding game of the series will be played next Sunday at Thurber. More than 1,000 partisan fans saw the game. The victory made a two-day trip of the Thurberites 100 per cent successful, as they beat the Humble team at Cisco on Saturday, 4 to 0, Lefty Adkins holding the Humbletown aggregation to two hits.

Wild throws by Tankersley, the Thurber catcher, gave the Texacos a lead at one stage of the game, but Scott was pitching far better ball than his opponent, and the smashing bat of Joe McKinnon drove out a three-bagger in the sixth which put the winning run across the pan.
