LAS VEGAS, N. M., June 16.—
Former Judge J. D. Leahy took the stand here today at the trial of Carl C. Magee, held for manslaughter.

Judge Leahy was called by the state as the third witness. He attacked Magee in a hotel lobby here last August and during the encounter the editor shot John S. Lassetter, a bystander.

Indecous article, Dec. 23, 1917, was affirmed today by the supreme court in an opinion written by presiding Judge Ben F. Powell of the commission of appeals.

At the time of the publication Lancaster was chief of the police of San Antonio, and he and many other city officials were criticised during a campaign waged against vice in San Antonio.

Actual malice in the article was found by the jury trying the case,

Stalking Lions Will Meet Coy Lizzies Today

The stalking Lions will meet the coy Lizzies at Nitro park this afternoon at 5:30 o'clock. Leveille-Maher team reports that they have been doing some intensive and extensive practicing, changing their line, and otherwise improving each shining moment and are rarin' to play ball.

Rip Galloway, spokesman for the Lions, said when asked what his dope was on the game, "We're going to lick'em, that's all." So there is the true and correct dope as given by both teams and none but the powers that be can foresee just where either team will be at the end of the last inning, this afternoon.

Of racing metodramas in most essentials, and weaves a romantic story as well as side-splitting comedy. The humorous elements run the gamut of laugh-producing ingredients, from subtle whimsicality to a broad slap-stick treatment, and it would indeed be a captious spectator who could not get a score of laughs out of this F.
