TWELVE LIVES TAKEN BY FIRE AT ORPHANAGE

Collapse of Building Traps Victims at Jewish Boys' Home in Quebec.

SHAWBRIDGE, Quebec, Aug. 16.—Ten children and a man and woman were burned to death early today in a fire which totally destroyed a Jewish boys' home here.

The dead are Thomas Legault, chairman; his wife, Jean Legault, age 7; Marie Legault, 10; and eight orphans ranging from 6 to 16. Collapse of the building where the victims were helplessly trapped threw the vicinity into darkness by destroying a local lighting plant and added to the horrors while rescuers fought vainly to aid the children.

Only the fact that a majority of the orphans slept out of doors prevented their perishing in the holocaust.

Twelve bodies were recovered but some of them could not be identified today.

I. & G. N. AGREES TO KEEP SHOPS AT PALESTINE

AUSTIN, Aug. 16.—The attorney general today approved an amendment to the charter of the International & Great Northern Railway company, changing the name to the International Great Northern Railroad company, and it was filed with the secretary of state.

The charter amended was filed in 1911, which fixed the domicile of the railway company at Houston. The United States court, however, since that time has held that the company made a voluntary contract locating general offices and shops at Palestine. The recently reorganized company sought to file a new charter locating its domicile at Houston, but this was rejected by the attorney general.

NEW CHARTER ASKED FOR SHREVEPORT LINE

AUSTIN, Aug. 16.—The charter of the Louisiana Railway & Navigation Company of Texas was presented to the attorney general today for approval. William Edensborn of New Orleans, president of the company, and R. E. Milling, New Orleans, general attorney, made the presentation. Mr. Edensborn and associates have acquired most of the first mortgage bonds of that part of the M., K. & T. system running from McKinney through Greenville to a point near Shreveport, La. The Louisiana Railway & Navigation Company of Louisiana, having its northern terminus in that city, the company proposes to operate this line as part of its system but before it can do so it is necessary to obtain a Texas charter.

NEGRO SLAYS WIFE AND MUTILATES DAUGHTERS

PARIS, Texas, Aug. 16.—Jim King, a negro, released a day or two ago on charges of wife beating, went to his home last night about midnight, killed his wife by cutting her throat, stabbed one of his girls in the head, struck another a hard blow in the eye which will probably cause loss of sight in that eye, rammed the barrel of his shotgun in the mouth of his sister, and then departed. King was last seen passing the Paris High school, going north. Police were notified and the sheriff and a posse of men started on a hunt for the negro, who is believed to be unarmed. His shotgun was found in the yard of his home.

GOVERNOR PROHIBITS DEMPSEY-BRENNAN BOUT

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 16.—The Jack Dempsey-Bill Brennan fight scheduled to be held in Michigan City today will be prohibited by Governor McCray.

CHICAGO, Aug. 16.—Professor Roland D. Salisbury of the University of Chicago, an international authority on geological and geographical subjects, died here last night.

CONGRESSMEN WOULD HAVE SHIPS USE UP SEIZED BOOZE STOCKS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—The controversy over booze selling on American ocean vessels broke out anew in the house today when resolutions were introduced demanding that the United States shipping board inform congress where the liquor now being dispensed on its ships is purchased.

The resolution, sponsored by Representative Brennan, Republican, of Michigan, and Representative Callivan, Democrat, of Massachusetts, called upon the shipping board to tell congress immediately whether it is true that agents of the board are buying liquor from distillers in England, while at the same time the prohibition officers of this government are seeking England's co-operation in an effort to prevent English ships with booze on board from touching on American ports.

Then the resolution in effect inquired of Chairman Lasker of the shipping board as to whether it would not save money for American taxpayers if the board would arrange with the prohibition agents at Washington to get liquor from stores which this government has seized.

CALLAWAY CHALLENGES BLANTON TO DEBATE HIS OFFICIAL RECORD

The fame of Ananias was dimmed and all the other great liars of history made to look like pikers in the description of Congressman Thomas L. Blanton furnished last night by Oscar Callaway to a fair sized audience at the Christian Tabernacle last night. Callaway introduced records in support of his statements that his opponent in the Seventeenth district congressional race lied about his colleagues in congress while in Texas and lied about his constituents while in Washington. The speaker derided Blanton's claim of saving huge sums by points of order, explaining that points of order could not stop any measure or appropriation that the majority of congress wished to pass.

Federal Reserve Attacked. Callaway bitterly attacked the federal reserve system as the centralization of power in a board of seven men, controlled by Wall street. He told of his fight on the measure while a member of congress in 1912 and quoted Senator Underwood as admitting then that its effects on the country would all depend on whether the board was "angel or devil."

Callaway recited his differences with President Wilson and characterized the statement that he had fought the draft, food conservation and Liberty bonds and only sought to persecute the President, as an unqualified falsehood.

Blanton Challenged. Callaway declared that he had challenged Blanton to meet him on the stump and that he dared not, for "he knew that I would stick the records under his nose and make him admit that he lied." The speaker declared that if Blanton supporters could hold the latter in one place long enough, he (Callaway) would cancel all engagements on twenty-four hours' notice and meet him in debate.

CONVENTION OF WIVES GATHERING FOR BIGAMY TRIAL OF HUSBANDS

SEVENTEEN CONVICTS ESCAPE STATE FARMS

HOUSTON, Aug. 16.—Posses with bloodhounds were scouring the lowlands around the Clemons prison farm in Brazoria county and the Eastham farm at Weldon today for 17 convicts who broke jail and escaped there last night, according to long distance telephone reports today. Fourteen men escaped from the Clemons farm. All were Mexicans. Three white men got away at Weldon.

According to meager telephone reports, the men at Clemons farm chiselled their way to liberty through the dining room floor. Prison authorities gave the alarm immediately and four of them were re-captured within an hour, the report stated. The other 10 are still at liberty. Details of the break at Eastham farm could not be obtained. Three men made their dash for liberty early this morning and are reported to be still at large.

FRENCH CABINET BACKS PREMIER'S STAND ON GERMANY

PARIS, France, Aug. 16.—Premier Poincare's plan at the London allied financial conference on the German reparations question today received the solid backing of the French cabinet.

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—Delegates are arriving from various parts of the world to attend the first convention of Sam Gordon's wives, it was revealed when Gordon, 49 years old, and boasting acquaintances with the late Theodore Roosevelt, was arraigned in Flatbush court charged with bigamy and held in $2,500 bail.

Sam's known wives, according to the Brooklyn prosecutor, are: No. 1—Mrs. Ida Schultz Gordon of Manila, P. I., married in 1907; obtained a divorce in 1917. Now; he went here from Manila to appear against him.

No. 2—Miss Cecelia Leibovitz Gordon of New York, Rumania and Uruguay. Married in 1910; deserted in 1920. Obtained annulment May 18 last.

No. 3—Mrs. Martha Feree Gordon of New York, Pa.; married in 1920; deserted in 1921.

No. 4—Mrs. Rebecca Penzer Gordon of Brooklyn, married April 2 last and deserted two months later.

Wives Nos. 2 and 3 met Tuesday for the first time in the home of the former's daughter and laughingly recounted their experiences. No. 2, just arrived from Chicago, said she married Gordon in Montevideo and that he left her 10 years later after a trip to London and Paris with money realized from the sale of a rubber business that she aided him to establish. He met No. 3 in York, Pa., when he took a musical comedy company there and engaged her as a prima donna. When the show closed he met Miss Feree on Staten Island and married her after the funeral services for her brother.

Leaving her for No. 4, Gordon's downfall resulted from his quitting the latter before he repaid $1,000 she advanced him, according to the former Miss Penzer.

VARDAMAN HAS SCANT MARGIN IN MISSISSIPPI

Woman Candidate for Senate Gets 15,000 Votes, Causing Runoff Election.

JACKSON, Miss., Aug. 16.—Former Senator James K. Vardaman, bitter foe of Woodrow Wilson, today was leading in the Mississippi senatorial primary by fewer than 200 votes, on returns from 71 out of 82 counties.

Backers of Hubert Stephens, running on a pro-Wilson platform, were confident he would nose out Vardaman when complete returns are in, but it was admitted that a "run-off" primary probably would be necessary because the state law requiring a nominee must get a majority of the votes.

Miss Belle Kearney, the woman candidate in the senatorial race polled about 15,000 votes.

Atlanta Wife Seeks $100,000 Damages of Coco Cola Prince

ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 16.—Mrs. Sarah Gillespie Byfield today filed suit for $100,000 against Walter T. Candler, sportsman and capitalist, charging he caused her "personal injury and humiliation" in an alleged attack upon her aboard the steamship Berengaria, en route to France.

The suit, which was filed in the supreme court here, followed action brought by Candler against her husband, Clyde C. Byfield, prominent automobile man, charging blackmail.

The first of a series of motion pictures for children will be shown at the Liberty theatre Saturday under the auspices of the Junior Red Cross and as part of the organization's program for Ranger for the coming school term. If the initial picture is a success, others will be exhibited as long as the attendance justifies, it is announced by Mrs. John Thurman, chairman. It is explained by the chairman that the pictures are not being exhibited as a financial venture of the Red Cross but are on the same basis as others shown at the theatre.

The Red Cross, however, is anxious to give the children the best type of picture available, to create a community spirit and to promote the Junior Red Cross program, it is stated. In connection with the picture a singsong of 15 minutes will be held for the children. Parents are urged to cooperate to make the program a success. Chaperones will be present to look after the children.

"War Is Declared," Says Mayor As All Refuse to Second Motion to Declare Position Vacant; McDowell Lauded.

After a week of commission meetings, conferences and committee reports on the situation in the police department, the city commission yesterday afternoon definitely refused to entertain Police and Fire Commissioner Cole's motion declaring the office of police chief vacant. The motion was declared lost for want of a second by the mayor after he and the other commissioners had insisted that additional time be given the police chief to resign or the matter be worked out "for the best interests of the city" and the satisfaction of all parties concerned.

Commissioner Cole insisted that the people of the city had "given in and given in, compromised and compromised" and that they were demanding that the city commission face the issue and take definite action. He declared that the entire week had been given over to attempts to settle the matter and if the chief of police was not in the mind to resign now he would not be in two weeks' time.

The oral resignation of the entire police department with the exception of Chief McDowell, presented to the commission by the mayor before Commissioner Cole's motion was put, was not acted upon, the mayor declaring toward the close of the meeting that it seemed from remarks that "war had been declared and that he did not know if any action was necessary on the matter." The resignation of the police force as presented by the mayor was effective Sept. 1. Mayor Gholson explained that the date was suggested by him as the officers were ready to quit at any time prior to that date or if the city had not succeeded in replacing them by Sept. 1 to continue at their posts until their services could be dispensed with.

It was learned following the meeting that under the city charter, the mayor, acting as city manager, is alone vested with the authority to act upon the resignation of members of the police department other than the chief. The city charter is said to provide for the election of heads of departments by the commission but to leave the subordinate offices in all departments to be filled or vacated by the city manager.

There were two provisos to the wholesale resignation, one that the resignation be accepted as a whole, and second, that while in office that they work under orders of the mayor or commissioners other than Commissioner Cole.

FORT WORTH, Aug. 16.—Houston Upton, 17-year-old son of a prominent Floyd county ranchman and capitalist, will accept the 99 year prison term for the murder of his sweetheart, Gladys Solomon. He was convicted of the crime a week ago at a sensational trial at Clarendon. Upton's lawyers announced today they would not appeal. The girl along with her chum, Nell Umberson, was slain while asleep. A third girl in the bed escaped. Upton will not be tried for the killing of the second girl.

REAL FIREWATER!

CALEXICO, Cal., Aug. 16.—The government proved the wisdom of "Poor Lo" in naming liquor "firewater" some centuries ago. One hundred gallons of liquor confiscated by federal customs officers was ordered emptied into the gutter in the usual way yesterday. The thermometer registered 120 in the shade, and when the liquor splattered on the pavement it burst into flame from the heat of the sun.

The officers moved to another location and started pouring some into the gutter. Again it burst into flames and the flames flashed up the stream of liquor and exploded one of the tanks. The officers then poured the fire water directly into the sewer. Dozens of spectators saw the fire water fire.

AUSTIN, Aug. 16.—Governor Neff was asked today to order a deficiency fund of approximately $30,000 to pay national guard troops on duty at Denison, and state rangers, by Adjutant General Thomas D. Barton, following discovery that only $3,000 remains in the guard fund. The request was made following a conference between Attorney General Keeling, Comptroller L. D. Smith and Barton. Additional funds will be available Sept. 1.

U. S. SOLDIERS AT CAMP MEADE; MADE KLANSMEN

BALTIMORE, Md., Aug. 16.—Several soldiers of the United States army at Camp Meade were said to have been among the candidates initiated into the Ku Klux Klan at its spectacular open air ceremony at Odenton, Md., last night, in which representatives of Klans from Delaware and Virginia participated. The neophytes at last night's ceremonies had taken off their uniforms and were wearing civilian clothes. The exact number of soldier candidates could not be learned. Soldiers among the 1,500 or more witnesses at the ceremony stated there had been klan propaganda in camp for a long time and that many soldiers had joined "for the fun of wearing a white nightgown and acting a ghost." So far as could be ascertained at the Third Corps Army headquarters United States soldiers are not forbidden to join the Ku Klux Klan, nor has the army taken any position with regard to the organization.

BUYING IN RANGER. The main reason all goods are not bought in the home market is really lack of education: Education of the buyers as to the advantages offered by the home markets, and education of the sellers as to anything in their merchandising methods that should be corrected, in order to better cater to the needs and desires of the community.

As a matter of fact only a small per cent of Ranger buying is done in other places, but even that small per cent may reach an imposing aggregate when computed in dollars. And those dollars, if kept here, will directly or indirectly benefit every resident.

For this reason, there is merit in the contest inaugurated by the Retail Merchants' association, in which prizes are offered the best essays on "Buying in Ranger." Wisely, the merchants have not restricted the contest to platitudes on buying in Ranger for patriotic reasons and the like. Rather, they ask suggestions and criticisms which will enable them to improve their service, if there is reason for improvement, in order that buying in Ranger may be the sensible course from every standpoint.

Therein education takes another step, for it seems certain that Ranger is now the best place for residents of this territory to trade—only some of them do not know it. If scales can be lifted from the eyes of all, then the contest will be well worth while, even if no concrete proposals should arise from it.

Under those conditions, it would be well for all persons to join in this contest: Not alone the salaried consumers but the business men themselves. The garage man might ask the merchant why he took his car to Dallas to be overhauled (if such has occurred). The merchant might ask the banker why clothing is purchased elsewhere (if, etc.).

The banker might ask the garage man why his deposit is elsewhere (if, etc.). To be a success, a Buy in Ranger campaign must have the co-operation of the men not only as sellers, but as buyers. If this condition exists now, it should be made known to those who think it does not. If it does not exist now, then the business men should be the first to adopt a Buy in Ranger policy.

COMMISSION BALKS AT OUSTING POLICE CHIEF

resign but that he did not believe that one man or two or three men should stand in the way.

Mayor Favors Delay.

He moved that the position of police chief be declared vacant as of Sept. 1. To Mayor Gholson's statement that the matter would be worked out in a short while without such action, Commissioner Cole declared that a large section of the town believed that too much time had been given already. Mayor Gholson expressed the opinion that the delay so far had not hurt anything. Commissioner Hodges likewise felt that additional time should be allowed by the commission for the matter "to settle itself" and that he would like to see the town stand together.

"The people would feel that any further delay was the result of a hidden motive and are not going to like it," Commissioner Cole said. "As it is, they feel that they have given in and given in, compromised and compromised." The police commissioner explained that he had no personal feeling in the matter and that he had said nothing derogatory to the chief of police except that he did condemn him for his attack on a citizen.

Commissioner Terrell declared that he felt that Chief McDowell had made the best chief of police that the city had ever had and would go down in history as such, "but I am willing to lay down by feelings in the case and if the commission as a whole wants to act now I am willing to act now." Terrell declared that he was placed in an embarrassing position, as he had asked Chief McDowell to take the office at a time when the latter had business connections that stood in the way. "I think, however, if the majority of the people want him out he should not stand in the way," Commissioner Terrell said. The mayor again contended that it was not time to act.

In response to the statement that the majority of the people did not want Chief McDowell removed from office, Commissioner Cole declared that there was no way of ascertaining public opinion except a drastic method which all were seeking to avoid and that he did not think delay would help matters.

Commissioner Teal said that he did not know Chief McDowell when appointed but that he was the best chief the city had ever had and had given the best service. Ten or fifteen citizens, he said, had been working day and night on the matter and had succeeded in preventing the "nearly young war" and that delay was doing no harm. Commissioner Cole asserted that delay was the order of the day and could only now be construed as giving way of ground. "I do not believe in any individual interfering with the good of Ranger," he said, "no matter how good he may be considered." The present situation, he held, was the outcome of the last three years.

Commissioner Terrell declared that 75 per cent of the people had been with Chief McDowell prior to his "scrap" with a citizen but that he had been severely criticized for this. Mayor Gholson asked if the majority of those criticizing the chief for this action had not qualified their criticism with the opinion that because of a good record no severe action should be taken.

Agitated Three Weeks. Commissioner Cole pointed out that the matter had come up three weeks ago and that the majority of people wanted a new chief of police and would make known their wishes if they had a chance to express them. To this Mayor Gholson disagreed.

Commissioner Teal lamented the fact that the city had always had trouble over its police chiefs and was informed by Commissioner Cole that the city would always have such trouble as long as the office of chief of police was a political job.

Commissioner Terrell then moved that Chief McDowell hold office until a satisfactory man was appointed in his place. Commissioner Cole declared that such action would be side-stepping the issue and that he believed that the commission should definitely face the issue and act for the good of Ranger.

Cole Not Seconded.

Commissioner Cole's motion declaring the office vacant as of Sept. 1 was again put and declared lost—for want of a second. On Commissioner Cole's request, the mayor again declared the motion open but no second was forthcoming and it was again declared lost. The mayor expressed the conviction that the matter would be settled within two weeks and his opinion seemed to be shared by Commissioners Hodges and Teal.

The meeting became somewhat tense when a spectator remarked to his neighbor that "it would not take that long." Commissioner Hodges asked Mayor Gholson what action would be taken on the resignation of the other members of the police department. Mayor Gholson replied that it appeared from remarks of gentlemen present that war had been declared and that if they wanted war, war it was and that he did not know if any action was necessary on the resignations. Commissioner Cole stated that if such was the case the people would know where to place the responsibility.

Securing permission from the mayor to address the meeting as a citizen, H. M. Holloway, who was present as a spectator, declared that as a citizen who had supported each member of the city commission, that he called upon the commission to recognize the authority vested in Mr. Cole by the citizens of Ranger when they elected him fire and police commissioner and that he be given full power to handle his department. "That is all the people ask," Mr. Holloway said.

Mayor Gholson replied that Mr. Cole had not been at the police and fire departments in seven long weeks.

Minor Business. Other business transacted at the meeting included the voting of an expense allowance of $25 a month to City Engineer Redwood for the upkeep of his Ford car. Commissioner Terrell explained that it was necessary for the engineer to have a machine to properly carry on his work and that he had purchased one himself and only desired the city to make an allowance for its upkeep. The commission also passed on second reading a resolution vacating certain streets and alleys in Mountain View addition, in order that they might be returned to cultivation.

RANCHWOMAN WOULD DIE FOR HER PACK OF DOGS, EXECUTED AFTER THEY CHEWED NEIGHBOR TO DEATH

By United Press.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Aug. 16.—Convicted without trial, sentenced without hearing and executed without warning or benefit of clergy, 19 dogs here paid the death penalty for the murder of A. Bise, rancher.

Bise was found, chewed to death by dogs, in his bed at his home at Antelope, near here.

Mrs. Louis Balardi, owner of the dogs, was taken to her home and instructed to call them in from the field. She did not know they were to be killed.

"I would give my life for my dogs," she said. "I would kill the person that kills my dogs. They mean more to me than husband or brother to me. They are more to me than life itself."

After Mrs. Balardi had been taken back to the county jail Humane Officer H. J. Winton shot the 19 dogs as they were penned in the little cabin. Re-enacting step by step the details of the gruesome murder which resulted in the death of Bise, whose mutilated body was found Tuesday morning, Mrs. Balardi conducted Chief Deputy District Attorney Clifford A. Russell and deputies from Sheriff Ellis Jones' office over the ground where the murder was committed.

"The dogs did it," she screamed. "So help me God, I am telling the truth. Bise struck my dog and—well, everybody goes crazy. I don't know what happened after that until I found myself helping the man to his house."

The Belardi woman said she would have confessed sooner, but she was afraid the dogs would be killed.

She pointed to a black and white mongrel. "That's Causeway. He is the same age as the Yolo causeway. I would give my life for him. See that scar on his head. That is where Bise struck him with a club."

"Do you think more of Causeway than you do of your husband?" the woman was asked.

"I do," she replied. "Causeway saved my life once. I would die for him before I would for my husband or brother."

"I'll come back to you, Causeway," she said, patting the dog's head.

It was a pitchers' battle between Frank Rarey of the Coyotes and Elkins of Eastland, with Rarey grabbing off the honors by virtue of a home run clout which was enough to win the game. Seale stole home in the sixth with the other run.

SWORDFISH SPLITS SIX-INCH PLANK IN ATTACK ON VESSEL

SEATTLE, Aug. 16.—A swordfish drove its sword through a six-inch plank in the hull of the barkentine Monitor, her master, Alf Hansen, relates. Captain Hansen says that the attack on the ship was made somewhere in the South Seas, but that it docked at San Francisco to learn was not discovered until the Monitor why she leaked.

"The swordfish evidently took the Monitor for a whale," said Captain Hansen, "as that is the swordfish's favorite method of attacking the big mammals, making a dive and coming up underneath with great momentum. We found the sword, minus the teeth, in the plank."

THURSDAY.
Thursday Bridge club meets with Mrs. Frank Rarey in the morning.

MRS. JOHN MOYER'S PARTY.

The bridge party given by Mrs. John Moyer at the Gholsion hotel Tuesday afternoon when she entertained the Friday Bridge club and other guests held the attention of Ranger's social world, for it made one remember the whirl of last winter when one had to get dated up far ahead for a party reservation at this hotel.

The mezzanine floor was the scene of this function and since it was an ideal day for a party, and since everybody was glad to attend a formal affair again, it was a very happy event.

Mrs. Moyer was assisted in receiving her guests by Mrs. T. B. Scott, and in serving by Mrs. Jimmie Ward, Misses Clara and Nannie Haden, Fleda Dupuy of Houston and Laura Schmuck. Decorations for the afternoon were cut flowers, with a pink and white color scheme carried out in the refreshments, which were angel food and devil's food cake, pink and white brick ice cream, and Jordan almonds, all served on pink lined plates, covered with white lace doilies, and raspberry julep.

Tables were arranged for bridge and six lovely prizes were carried home by those who played in luck. The high score guest prize, a community ice cream server, went to Mrs. Frank Rarey. The next-to-high guest prize, a bulb bowl, went to Mrs. Garrett Bohning. The low guest prize, a fancy apron, went to Mrs. J. E. Raborn. Mrs. Harold Whitbeck made high score for the club and received as a prize, a cut glass nappy, while the low score prize, a deck of cards, went to Mrs. Ira Nourse. The cut prize, a serving tray, was awarded to Mrs. E. L. McMillen.

The hostess wore a new model long skirted gown of periwinkle crepe, trimmed in jet.

Those included in the invitation list were: Meses. C. C. Craig, Howard Cole, Jr., W. H. Burden, Frank Champion, J. B. Haden, W. J. McFarland, M. H. Hagaman, E. E. Crawford, Garrett Bohning, Frank Rarey, S. B. Tunnell, S. W. Bobo, Walter Cash, Frank Brahaney, A. G. Jury, Richard Lavery, J. A. Martin, CHILD'S WELFARE CLUB LUNCHEON.

The monthly luncheon of the Child's Welfare club was held at the Presbyterian club rooms yesterday at high noon, with the vice president, Mrs. L. L. Rector, presiding. These luncheons grow in popularity, as each one seems a little nicer than the preceding one. Table decorations were cut flowers. The splendid spirit of co-operation that has made this club a success, prevailed throughout the luncheon, and was evident in all reports that were made. The committees on the playground equipment were relieved of further duty, having done their part well, and new committees were appointed to plan for playground supervisors and caretakers. A report was made on contributions that had come in for the playgrounds since the last meeting and this included rope from the Oil Well Supply company, cash from Mr. Sullivan, nails from the Davenport Hardware company, and trash receptacles from the Standard Tank company.

Those in attendance were: Meses. Bob Hodges, William Clegg, John Thurman, Karl Jones, D. M. Steel, M. H. Hagaman, A. J. Orth, J. B. Haden, E. E. Crawford, Ross Hodges of Mexia, L. L. Rector, Miss Boles.

MRS. CHASTAIN ENTERTAINS GREEK LETTER WOMEN.

Mrs. Garvin Chastain entertained with an informal breakfast at her home in Hodges Oak Park, yesterday morning, honoring the members of the Greek Letter societies in Ranger. Breakfast was served in three courses, on a table sweet in its cut flower decorations. This was a get-together of Greek letter women, six of whom so far have shown their eligibility, and was a most enjoyable affair. Next Tuesday Miss Ruth Hagaman will entertain for them and in the meantime, should there be others in Ranger who are eligible, as these members feel sure is the case, they will please notify Miss Hagaman, phone 136. Miss James is a Greek letter woman, but was unable to be present. Covers were laid for Mrs. A. J. Orth, of the University of Wisconsin, Miss Ruth Hagaman, of the University of Missouri, Miss Helen Stafford, of the University of Oklahoma, Miss Dora Mayne Cole, of Southern Methodist University at Dallas, and the hostess, Mrs. Garvin Chastain, of the University of Michigan.

CIRCLE "A" HAS PLEASANT MEETING.

Circle "A" of the Methodist Missionary society had a most delightful meeting this morning with Mrs. Roush. These meetings are growing in interest and needles are working faster on the quilt which is getting pretty full of names, for of course everybody wants their names on the quilt. The hostess served delicious refreshments of punch, devil's food and angles food cake, and brick ice cream.

PURELY PERSONAL.

Mrs. C. E. Maddocks and daughter, Gladys, arrived home yesterday afternoon from Los Angeles, Cal. They returned home by the Southern Pacific and were fortunate in getting through, as the next train was stopped at Tucson. Their trunk was evidently on that train, as it failed to arrive with them.

Mrs. George O. Patten and children of Waco are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Scott.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lander are expected home today after a five months' visit to relatives in Philadelphia.

John Moyer of the American Glycerin company is spending several days in Cisco and Breckenridge.

Mrs. E. R. Everett of Belton is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Jimmie Ward, at the Tee Pee.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Flaherty are visiting Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Marks and other friends in the city for a few days, after which they will go to Fort Worth, where they will reside in the future.

LONG-TIME SWEETHEARTS MEET DEATH TOGETHER

MEDIA, Pa., Aug. 16.—A romance a quarter of a century old, that bridged the years from youth to age, ended in a tragedy beneath a Pennsylvania railway train near here, when Emma V. King, 50 years old, and Jesse A. Dutton, her 56-year-old sweetheart, were struck and killed.

For 25 years Miss King and Dutton had been close friends. As the years passed and gray hairs came they were content to jog along the easy way of friendship, each finding life's happiness in the other's company.

Dutton was a garage owner and Miss King for years lived alone and kept a store. Both were prosperous. It was in Miss King's motor car that they met death.

SITE PURCHASED FOR REFINERY AT GRAHAM

GRAHAM, Aug. 16.—Property has been purchased near the stock pens on the Rock Island railroad for a large refinery which is to be built by Oklahoma capitalists, it was announced Tuesday. The company will have its own pipe line to the seat of production.

THIS IS THE LIFE, SAY HOBOS; AS 'STRIKEBREAKERS' RIDE FREE

CHICAGO, Aug. 16.—The railroad strike may cause sleepless nights and worry in American homes, from the White House down to the humblest cottage, but, according to Dr. Benjamin L. Reitman, vice president of the Hobo College for Migratory Workers—plain hoboes—it has proved to be one long season of bliss. Railroad officials, however, say that a hobo labor would comprise only a comparatively small portion of the new men.

Migratory workers, according to Dr. Reitman, have evolved a system for "beating" the railroads. They sign up at Chicago to work in a shop at a distant point. The railroads move them in Pullman cars—while they eat, the best of everything, supplied in dining cars. Arriving at his destination, the hobo works a day or two, or "jumps" the job, and soon is signing up with another road to work at another distant point.

In this way they keep traveling, with an occasional day or two of work to interrupt an otherwise perfect "see-America-first" tour. Railroads, while admitting Dr. Reitman's statement that many men who have signed have "jumped" their positions, say the total of hoboes who have tricked the employment agencies relatively is small.

Officials of the Burlington railroad say from 90 to 95 per cent of their new employes have remained; that their employment methods now make it virtually impossible for an imposter to succeed.

Goodbye Boils!

S. S. S. Will Rid You of Boils, Pimples, Blackheads and Skin Eruptions.

A boil is a volcano—your blood is so chock full of poisons that these "boil" out into a boil. They'll keep "boiling up" until you destroy them completely by the use of S. S. S., one of the most powerful blood-cleaners known to science. S. S. S. has stood the test of time. The power of its ingredients is acknowledged by authorities. Its medicinal ingredients are guaranteed to be purely vegetable. Right off, it clears the skin of pimples, boils, blotches, blackheads, acne, eczema, rash and other skin eruptions, and does it thoroughly. It drives out of the blood impurities which cause rickets, makes the blood rich and pure, builds up lost flesh. It helps to manufacture new blood cells—that's one of its secrets. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores, in two sizes. The larger size is the more economical.

Are you "up to the neck" in blood impurities? S. S. S. is one of the greatest blood-purifiers known. Try it.

THE ART OF PRINTING

ORIGINALITY IN PRINTING nowadays is one of the most difficult of qualities to attain. You must use the types and blocks and papers and colors which have been in use for ages; hence it is extremely unlikely that rearrangement of all of these things in a manner admittedly satisfactory and at the same time quite original can be achieved by those lacking experience.

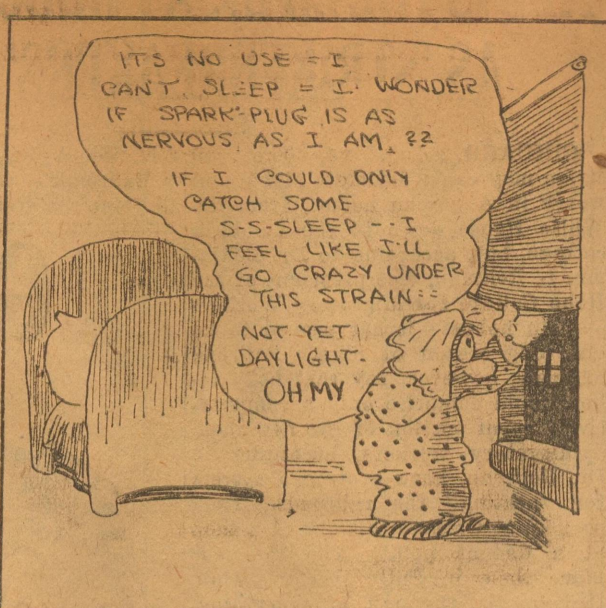

It requires years of thought and study to master the art of printing. Novices can "print" in a way, but compare the product with that of a student of the work.

We claim to have mastered the art, and take pride in the fact that our work cannot be equalled by the ordinary printer. Of course, it takes money to manufacture a product of quality, the same as in any other line. Our prices are made up to quality, not down to price.

NITROS TREAT RED HILL ROUGH, BEAT EAGLES, 9-5

Red Hill, who hurled for the Nitros last year and has performed with Greenville during '22, broke in with the Abilene Eagles yesterday and was tendered a hearty homecoming by the Nitros, who won the rubber game of the series, 9 to 5. The welcome was so hearty, in fact, that Red was overcome in the fourth inning, when Craig belted a homer with the sacks jammed, after Pyle had been purposefully passed. Previous to that, Red was peevish and showed it. He had been greeted with a shower of blows in the second round that yielded four runs and staked the Nitros to an early lead, and Red's new boss wasn't praising his efforts in flowery language.

It was an all around large evening for a small crowd at the apple orchard. The joy of seeing Red was augmented by the gladness with which the Nitros took to his offerings, and as whipped cream to round off the luscious matinee, the Nitros presented the most spectacular fielding feats of the year.

Fielding Electrifies. Craig and Leedy were the lads that electrified the stands both in the field and at bat. Craig pulled two catches that won the vociferous admiration of everybody, except John King. One was a fast sprint toward the diamond to snag a Texas leaguer at his shoe strings. The other was a flashing stab of a "long gone" liner to right center. At bat, he collected a single in addition to his circuit club—which later came at a tense moment, with the Nitros only one run to the good. Leedy kicked in with a triple that gave the Nitros' first three score and led off the fourth-inning rally with a single, after two were down. Then in the seventh, he went far to his left to perpetrate a wonderful stop of Mason's fast bouncer.

Those several plays and several clouts were necessary, because Lefty Phillips was being touched up much more promiscuously than is his wont and there was apprehension until the fourth. After that, Lefty grew more puzzling, except in the seventh, when hits by King, Burch and Etheridge drove one run across. John King, made amiable by a fine day at bat, showed good sense in this round by staying glued to third when Dockery took Speegle's fly and lined the ball to the plate. It was an A-1 peg. King counted a moment later, however, when Etheridge bet out a tap to the infield.

Keisler Stops Slaughter. Keisler, who went in for the Eagles in the fifth, held the Nitros technically hitless, although Price missed one in the seventh, when Dockery slammed a simon pure liner into left for two bases. It was apparent from the stands that the drive was fair by a foot, but the line was dim and Price had a right to a reasonable doubt.

MATTY MOTORS 365 MILES TO HIS OLD HOME TOWN

FACTORYVILLE, Pa., Aug. 16.—This whole town turned out today to greet its idol, Christy Mathewson, who returned to his old home for a visit for the first time in more than two years.

FANNING WITH FARRELL

BATTLE BETWEEN RICH AND POOR.

By HENRY L. FARRELL, United Press Sports Editor. NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—Pennant races in both major leagues have developed into a battle between the rich and poor.

With millions at their finger tips, the two New York clubs have spent prodigiously and not unjudiciously. Both have seen their investments turn into pennants and pennants return large sums of cash.

Fighting the Giants and the Yankees are the two St. Louis clubs, slim of pocketbook, but fat in resourcefulness. While the New York clubs bought, the St. Louis teams sought and they found mostly some castoff misfits that were worked into real baseball teams.

Both St. Louis teams are built around two great stars, the only big stars that New York has not, and probably never will be able to buy. The Cardinals are built around the great Rogers Hornsby and the key-stone of the Browns is the super-star George Sisler, the perfect ball player.

The Giants have invested a half-million dollars in Arthur Neff, Frank Snyder, Irish Meusel, Dave Bancroft, Heinie Groh and Hugh McQuillin.

The Cards got Rogers Hornsby for $1,500 and developed him into a $200,000 player. Jack Fournier is a cast-off from the Chicago White Sox. Del Gainer went from the Boston Red Sox to the American association and was grabbed by Branch Rickey. Eddie Ainsmith was kicked off the Tigers team as through and he is a sensational comeback with the Cards. Doc Lavan came in a cheap trade with the Washington Senators and Stock came at a low figure from the Phils. Jack Smith came from Seattle for $600. Muller was drafted from Syracuse.

The Giants have three developed players but they are real stars—Frank Frisch, Ross Young and George Kelly.

Close to a million dollars have been spent by the New York Yanks for Babe Ruth, Carl Mays, Waite Hoyt, Sam Jones, Joe Bush, Frank Baker, Everett Scott, Wally Schang, Bob Shawkey, Mike McNally, Wally Pipp, Joe Dugan, Johnny Mitchell and Whitey Witt.

In contrast, the Browns have spent practically nothing. Sisler was secured dirt cheap when the national commission decided the Pittsburgh-St. Louis argument over his contract in favor of the Browns.

Ken Williams and Jacobson, major league castoffs, came up from the Western association. Hank Severide was sent down from the big time and brought back by the Browns. McManus came direct from the minors and Ellerbe was grabbed, after Detroit had rejected him. Gerber was picked out of the American association. Shocker, the pitching ace, was secured in a trade with the Yanks for Pratt and Plank. Pruett came direct from college, while the other pitchers were groomed in the minors.

If the Browns and the Yanks were put on the auction block as a working ball club, the Browns probably would bring the highest price.

While the Giants and the Yanks are fighting for the title of the champion buyers, Harry Frazee holds the undisputed selling championship of all times and all weights. Since Frazee secured the Boston Red Sox in 1916, he has disposed of Babe Ruth, Carl Mays, Shore, Leonard, Foster, Gregg, Carrigan, Thomas, Cady, Agnew, Hobbittz, Gainer, Barry, Scott, McInnis, Gardner, Janvrin, Strunk, Schang, Shawkey, Hoyt, Bush, Jones, Speaker, Hooper, Lewis, Shorten, Walker, Walsh—the greatest assemblage of talent in baseball.

For that all-star gang of players, Frazee must have benefited to the extent of at least $300,000. He has suffered a poor gate at his Boston park but he doesn't care as long as he can find a market for players. One thing in Frazee's favor is that he is frank. He admits that he has only a passing interest in baseball and that his chief concern is to get the money.

A HUSBAND'S MORAL CODE.

A husband's moral code is never so strict as when his wife steals some of his own stuff. Monte Collins, gay and irresponsible trifter, had no idea how his actions appeared in the eyes of his wife until she exercised the same freedom he enjoyed himself. He didn't like it! What did he do about it?

See "Woman, Wake Up!" starring Florence Vidor at the Lamb theatre Sunday. This story by Ben Moore Clay, directed by Marcus Harrison and presented by Associated Exhibitors, is a comedy-drama of romance after marriage. While the courtship of Anne and Monte Collins is shown, the story really commences where stories usually end—with "they lived happily ever after."
