DISTRICT LEGIONNAIRES HERE TWO DAYS

15 Killed, Including Three Children In An Explosion

LOSS OF LIFE MAY BE MORE

Police Believe That More Bodies Will Be Found.

LYNN, Mass., Nov. 8.—A cigarette in the hands of a fellow workman was blamed by employes of the Preble Box company today for the explosion which caused at least 15 deaths this morning. Investigators were told that a worker in violation of factory rules was smoking a cigarette just prior to the blast.

LYNN, Mass., Nov. 8.—An explosion of celluloid destroyed the plant of a Lynn box company and wrecked nearby dwellings today. At least 15 persons were killed and a score of others injured.

The bodies of 10 men, two women and three children were taken from the ruins and removed to an undertaking parlor here. Police estimated 25 persons had been injured, seven of them severely. Most of the victims were employes of the Preble Box company plant. The three children were burned to death when the blast set fire to their home nearby. Their parents were among those reported dying at the hospital. Most of the victims were burned beyond recognition and identification of the bodies was delayed.

The explosion—exact cause of which has not been determined—occurred without warning, sending sheets of flames through the small factory where a large number of men and women were working. Trapped in the building, they were burned fatally before firemen or volunteers could reach them. At least eight of the dead were believed to have been among the 18 persons working in the factory. Many of the injured were occupants of houses which caught fire after the blast.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Blaney and their seven children appeared to have been hardest hit by the explosion. Mrs. Blaney and two of the children were believed among the dead. The father and three other children were in the hospital, all seriously burned.

NEGRO GOES TO CONGRESS

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—Illinois' wealthiest congressional district, comprising the loop business section of Chicago with its large hotels, banks and department stores, is to be represented by a negro. With only three precincts to be heard from out 12, Oscar De Priest, former alderman and real estate dealer, had a lead today over his democratic opponent, Harry Baker, 23,141 to 20,261, for the sea made vacant by the death of Representative Martin B. Madden, chairman of the appropriations committee.

He is the first of his race to be elected to congress from Illinois and will be the first negro to hold a seat there in more than a quarter of a century. De Priest, educated in the common schools and a business college at Florence, worked as a painter when he first came to Chicago. He was a county commissioner from 1904 to 1908 and served as alderman from 1915 to 1917. While a member of the city council he was indicted in connection with a graft syndicate in his neighborhood, but was acquitted. In 1918 he was under indictment for maintaining a disorderly home, and is at present under indictment by a special grand jury in connection with the election disorders of the April primary.

Democrat Leading For N. Y. Governor

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The democratic state ticket lead in New York continued to grow with Franklin D. Roosevelt's lead for the governorship estimated at 20,000 on basis of present returns. Gov. Smith, it appeared, had lost his home state to Hoover by close to 100,000. The heavy upstate republican vote, the 400,000 and more plurality which the governor piled up in New York City made the race close.

Detective Held in Murder Case

Harvey L. Smith, former private detective and evangelist, is charged with first degree murder in the death of Mrs. Genevieve Stults, beauty parlor proprietor of South Bend, Ind. Smith says, according to police that Mrs. Charles Reyher paid him $50 to get Mrs. Stults out of town because she was infatuated with Mr. Reyher. Smith asserts he hired two strangers to take Mrs. Stults away, but did not intend for them to harm her. Smith is shown, right, with Police Chief James J. Hatt of South Bend, who traced the former detective to Atlanta, Ga., where he was arrested.

SALVATION ARMY WILL SEEK FUND

Raymond Teal Leads Annual Home Service Appeal Here.

Organization will be perfected at 3 o'clock this afternoon, at a meeting in the chamber of commerce offices, for the Annual Home Service Appeal of the Salvation Army, it is announced by Ensign A. Shultz of the Dallas headquarters, who is here to aid in the campaign.

Raymond Teal is appeal chairman. The goal has been set at $3,500 and the campaign will be held from Nov. 15-24. Space has been provided in the chamber of commerce offices as campaign headquarters.

Members of the advisory board of the Salvation Army here are: Raymond Teal, president; C. B. Pruet, vice president; Walter Harwell, secretary-treasurer; Ida McChesler, A. F. Hartman, John M. Cholsen, R. E. Holloway, Wayne C. Hickey, Dr. H. A. Logsdon, Sam Tharpe, H. S. Von Roeder, E. A. Tunnell, H. H. Murphy, Roy Speed, M. H. Hagaman, H. C. Anderson, W. W. Paschall, H. O. Pope, J. L. #### History of Texas Literature Ready

AUSTIN, Oct. 8.—"Survey of Texas Literature," written by Dr. L. W. Payne Jr., professor of English at the University of Texas is now before the state text-book commission and will be ready for distribution about the middle of November, Dr. Payne has announced.

A sketch of the first book printed in Texas, as well as summaries of the first foreign novel concerning Texas and of the first novel written in Texas are included in the book. It is only since the Civil war that Texas writers have attracted national attention, according to Dr. Payne, and for that reason, the latter part of the book is considered of more importance than a literary standpoint than the first half.

"Literature relating to the cowboy and his activities is the most distinctive contribution of Texas to the literary world," Dr. Payne said. "Cowboy ballads in particular have attracted attention not only in America but abroad."

TRADITION WILL AID BULLDOGS

Ranger Team Always Plays Its Greatest Game Against Lobos.

By BOYCE HOUSE.

The game next Monday on the Cisco gridiron between the Lobos and the Ranger Bulldogs is not simply a football game—it is a continuation of a battle that began years ago between these intense rivals, a battle that will continue down the years. And the observer who does not take into consideration the history of other Ranger-Cisco games in weighing the possibilities of the 1928 conflict is overlooking a vital factor.

Condensed into a sentence, the lesson that the past teaches is: The Ranger team plays its greatest game of the season against Cisco—and, conversely, the Lobos fail to reach their full speed and power against Ranger. There is no bitterness between the two cities but the Bulldogs would rather defeat Cisco than the other team and so brightly does this fire burn in the breast of every Bulldog that the Maroon and White always plays an inspired game against the Big Dam team. Once to every eleven comes an afternoon when they reach their finest form of the entire season. On such an occasion, the team plays a game so dazzlingly different from its ordinary style that one can hardly recognize it as the same team. Every player is giving his best, fighting his hardest, the machine is beating rhythmically, not on six or seven cylinders, but on all eleven. Plays work to perfection—now a slash drive through the line, now a dashing run around end, now a breath-taking forward pass. And

One Writer Doesn't Rank the Bulldogs As a Strong Team

One sports writer of the Oil Belt district has already gone on record as to who is going to win the game Monday between Cisco and Ranger.

Bloody Cross of the San Angelo Standard writes: "We do not expect Cisco to have much trouble routing Ranger. The Lobos, with two full weeks in which to prime for the Bulldogs, probably will find Curtis' men fairly easy sledging. "That strong and quick charging line of the Cisco team will make it easy for Little, Van Horn and Eddleman to run wild. You can figure Ranger completely out of the race after the Cisco clash." Ranger fans fully realize that the Bulldogs are facing the strongest team next Monday that the Maroon and White has met this year and that the Bulldogs are certainly the "under dogs." But Ranger enthusiasts believe that the San Angelo writer has ranked Cisco too high and that the Bulldogs have a chance to win.

No Trace of Disappointment As Governor Returns To State Capitol

By United Press.

POST, Tex., Nov. 8.—J. C. Wilson, engineer of the state highway department, was probably fatally injured on the highway east of here this morning when his car overturned. He was found beside the car by a man who brought him here. Examination revealed that Wilson had sustained a fracture of the skull and other injuries.

Wilson, who has charge of the construction of a bridge over the Brazos river, was on his way to work when the accident occurred.

Movies of Game To Be Shown Here

You can see the exciting Ranger-San Angelo game all over again—or the most stirring scenes at least—as motion pictures of last week's gridiron encounter will be shown at the Arcadia tomorrow and Saturday.

Over 50 Planes to Be in Ranger for Airport's Opening

Army Bombers, Fort Worth Aerocade, Parachute Jumper Are Features of Program That Will Draw Thousands Saturday and Sunday.

Fifty-six airplanes—the greatest number ever assembled in any city of Central West Texas—will be in Ranger for the two-day celebration, Nov. 10-11, of the opening of the airport. Many thousands of people from a wide territory are expected to be in Ranger to see the dozens of beautiful ships as they glide to earth—army bombers and scout planes, commercial ships, stunt planes, air mail planes—in short almost every variety of "ship" known to the air.

The planes will begin arriving Saturday morning and the climax will be reached when the Fort Worth aerocade, consisting of 26 airplanes, arrives Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Other planes will include two army squadron ships of the 36th division, Texas National guard, from Houston (Ranger has an infantry company in the 36th); six army planes from San Antonio; six army planes from Galveston; a plane from Abilene; six Alexander Eaglerock planes; a plane from the Spartan Manufacturing company of Tulsa; several commercial planes from Mesquite Field, Fort Worth; a stunt plane; a Texas Air Transport plane which is used in the air mail service, and, greatest of all, the "palace of the air," the tri-motored, all-metal Ford plane, built at a cost of $50,000 and carrying 15 passengers and pilot.

Planes flying in formation, daring deeds far above the earth, including the feats of "Shorty" Radack, famous stunt flyer and

QUEEN OF THE AIR WILL BE GREETED HERE

Ranger Ladies Will Welcome Ladies in Fort Worth Aerocade.

Five ladies will be included among the Fort Worthians who will make the air journey over West Texas, arriving in Ranger in the aerocade Saturday afternoon. Queen Fort Worth and her four feminine companions will be greeted by a reception committee of Ranger ladies. Mrs. G. G. Henry is chairman of the committee and other members are Miss Mildred Matthews, who is the Ranger princess, Mrs. B. H. Murphy, Mrs. Howard Gholson and Miss Arrieta Davenport, maid-of-honor to the princess.

Flowers will be presented to the Fort Worth ladies who will then be escorted in cars by the Ranger hostesses to Acorn Acres for dinner at 6 o'clock.

Little Miss Alice Louise Henry has been chosen to break the bottle of champagne—or its Volstead equivalent—against the hangar of the airport at the dedication ceremony.

Splendid Report Of Cisco Church

CISCO, Nov. 8.—One of the best reports in the history of the First Methodist church was heard at the Fourth Quarterly Conference in Cisco. One hundred eighty-four members have been received during the year, making a total of 384 for the past two years. Approximately $20,000 has been raised for all purposes this year. Every department for the church program made decided progress.

AL INVITED TO MOVE TO MISSISSIPPI

Senate Asks Him to Spend His Life in That State.

JACKSON, Miss., Nov. 8.—The Mississippi senate in extraordinary session was on record as approving a resolution requesting Gov. A. Smith to move "to the bosom of democracy" and spend the remainder of his life.

The resolution was adopted late yesterday and read: "In recognition of the splendid service of the Hon. Al Smith of the union and of his fight for Jeffersonian democracy, we hereby invite to move to Mississippi, where red-blooded democrats voted five to one for him for the presidency of the nation that he might live out his own career here in the bosom of democracy."

MONEY-MAKING MACHINE SOLD

ST. LOUIS, Mo.—James Chapman, 42, negro, made from $3 to $10 daily selling "black cat wishbones" which were supposed to work miracles, cure the sick and bring the owners luck. But that wasn't enough. He sold a negro couple here a "money making" machine which he said would turn out legal tender. He charged them only the $100 tax which he said the government levied for the privilege of manufacturing U. S. money. The machine consisted of two pieces of wood bolted together and containing five fresh official $1 bills. Now Chapman is under arrest on a warrant charging him with using the mails to defraud.

Girl Hitch-Hikers Are Involved in Killing By Posse

ST. GEORGE, Utah, Nov. 8.—Fatally wounded while fleeing from a posse of sheriff's officers, Gerry Wilson, 20, of Little Rock, Ark., died at midnight. His companions, Jack Williams of Little Rock, Gladys Brown, 22 and Violet Sutton, 21, both of Omaha, Neb., are held on charges of stealing gasoline resisting arrest and stealing an automobile. The girls said they were hitch-hiking to the Pacific coast from their homes and they were picked up by the men near Salt Lake City, Tuesday. At Paragonah, they stole enough gasoline to continue their trip. A posse pursued them and when they ran out of gasoline again, they stole a car, abandoning their own. More than 50 shots were exchanged before they were captured 12 miles north of here.

34,000,000 Votes Have Been Counted

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The republican landslide of Tuesday showed the following results today as many states completed their counting of ballots. Herbert Hoover defeated Alfred Smith by more than 6,000,000 votes and by an electoral count of 444 to 87. The popular vote tabulated at 1 p. m. by the United Press showed Hoover 20, $15,475, Smith 14,000,135.

The democratic candidate carried only eight states—Massachusetts, Rhode Island, and the closely grouped southern states of Georgia, South Carolina, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana and Arkansas.

Jordan Will Be Tried Next Week

Eastland, Nov. 8.—Fred Jordan, indicted in Eastland county for the fatal shooting of Mike Tighe, T. & P. conductor, near Ranger, seven years ago, will face trial in the 88th district court Thursday, Nov. 15. A special venire of 60 men has been summoned from which to select the jury. Jordan, who is under conviction in 20 different cases from various Texas counties, has been in prison for a number of years. He confessed the shooting of Tighe to County Attorney J. Frank Sparks.

NUMEROUS FEATURES ARRANGED

Parade, Noted Speakers, Social Affairs Are on Program

Five hundred members of the American Legion, accompanied by their wives, will be in Ranger for the two-day convention of the seventeenth district Saturday and Sunday which, coming at the same time that the dedication of the airport will be held, will make Ranger one of the most colorful cities of Texas for the tenth anniversary of Armistice day.

A splendid program has been arranged for the Legion convention. On Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock there will be the big Legion parade. That night there will be a dance, and also a smoker. On Sunday there will be Armistice day services with Read Johnson, regional manager of the veterans' bureau of Dallas, Mayor John W. Thurman and the Rev. George W. Shearer as the principal speakers.

Numerous matters of special interest to legionnaires will be discussed at the business sessions of the convention. The Mineral Wells cavalry band, the Eastland, Cisco and Ranger bands will be in Ranger for the convention.

The program follows: Saturday, Registration at Gholson hotel, beginning at noon. Saturday, 5 p. m., American Legion parade. Saturday night, 9 p. m., American Legion dance at Legion hall. Saturday night, 9 p. m., sixth annual smoker at Country club, auspices 40-8. Admission $2. Sunday, Post commanders, adjutants and immediate past post commanders breakfast, green room, Gholson hotel, 8 a. m.

Dedication and opening of Ranger's airport, 9:30 to 11 a. m. Program for church service: Singing of "America" by audience. Invocation, Rev. H. B. Johnson. Special musical number, Methodist choir. Address of welcome, John W. Thurman. Response, Read Johnson. Offertory. Special musical number, "American Citizenship," Rev. George W. Shearer. Benediction. Luncheon, 12:45 p. m., Legion hall. Luncheon program at Legion hall: Sing-song, by the gang. Short talk, Ben J. Dean. Short talk, Read Johnson. Auxiliary business session, 2:30 p. m., green room, Gholson hotel. Legion business session, 2 p. m., Legion hall.

Trucks, Workers Are a Necessity

"Chat" is the great need of the Ranger airport this morning, declared B. H. Murphy, who is highly active in this phase of the project. In the event of rain, the absence of chat would make it difficult for the planes to "hop off," he points out. "Tomorrow is the final day that chat can be used prior to the dedication, and every concern that can spare a truck is urged to use it in hauling the chat to the field. Workers are also needed tomorrow.

Armistice Speech At High School

An Armistice day program will be held at the chapel period at 10:30 Friday morning at the Ranger High school, it was announced today by Superintendent R. F. Holloway.

Barbershops To Close

All barbershops in Ranger will be closed all day Monday, which will be observed as Armistice day.

... jumper, will be some of the thrilling scenes that will be viewed by the hosts of people. Radack will give a wing-walking exhibition, trapeze performing, swing of death and a parachute drop, from a height of 2,000 feet. He will plunge downward 500 feet before opening the parachute. Radack will perform Saturday at 1:30 and Sunday at 2 o'clock. This and all the other features will be free.

At the same time that the airport dedication is in progress, Ranger will be the scene of the 17th district convention of the American Legion, Saturday and Sunday, when 500 legionnaires and their wives will be attending. This convention will be especially significant as it marks the tenth anniversary of the end of the World War. For the legionnaires, there will be a dance, stag smoker, free doughnuts and coffee served by Salvation Army lassies and on Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock there will be a great Legion parade. The American Legion Amistice Day program at the Methodist church at 11 o'clock is open to the public.

Flowers From Clouds.

The dedication ceremonies of the airport will be held Sunday morning at 9:30 with Dr. W. C. Palmer, former post commander, as master of ceremonies, with addresses by Mayor John Thurman and Amos G. Carter, publisher of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram. At 11 o'clock the Rev. H. B. Johnson will ask the throng to bare their heads in a minute of silent prayer for the men who gave their lives in the World War and an airplane will shower flowers from the sky.

The first plane to enter the big new hangar of steel will be the Pathfinder, leading the Fort Worth aerocade. This ship is owned by the Texas-Pacific Coal & Oil company, which drilled the first well in the history of Ranger. The planes in Ranger during the dedication will be provided free with Ranger-produced oil and gasoline. —T-P's motor fuel and Chestnut & Smith's Naturaline, a super-aviation fuel made from natural gas. These companies are also providing the oil and gasoline without cost to the Fort Worth aerocade on its entire journey.

Opportunity will be given to everyone at nominal cost to fly during the two days. The huge 15-passenger Ford plane will make 30-mile flights over the Oil Belt. The airport—115 acres—is a mile south of the business section of Ranger and is immediately south of Cooper school. It has a 2,500-foot runway north and south and a 3,000-foot runway east and west; 200-foot taxiway, concrete washed clear; 60x60 all-steel hangar with regulation wind cone on top of the hangar.

B. H. Broiles, editor of the Mexico (Texas) News, says in the world-ink—brings more enlightenment than any other substance. The history of education, personal, national and community progress and prosperity is written with ink. Without ink there would be no Bible, no law book, no school book, no newspapers.

The most effective use of the dusky servant is the rapid distribution of ink with the printing press, and the most practical use of the printing press is the newspaper page.

Our national prosperity is based on the use of printers' ink, rather than our credit system, our installment buying, our high wages, rapid transportation or natural resources.

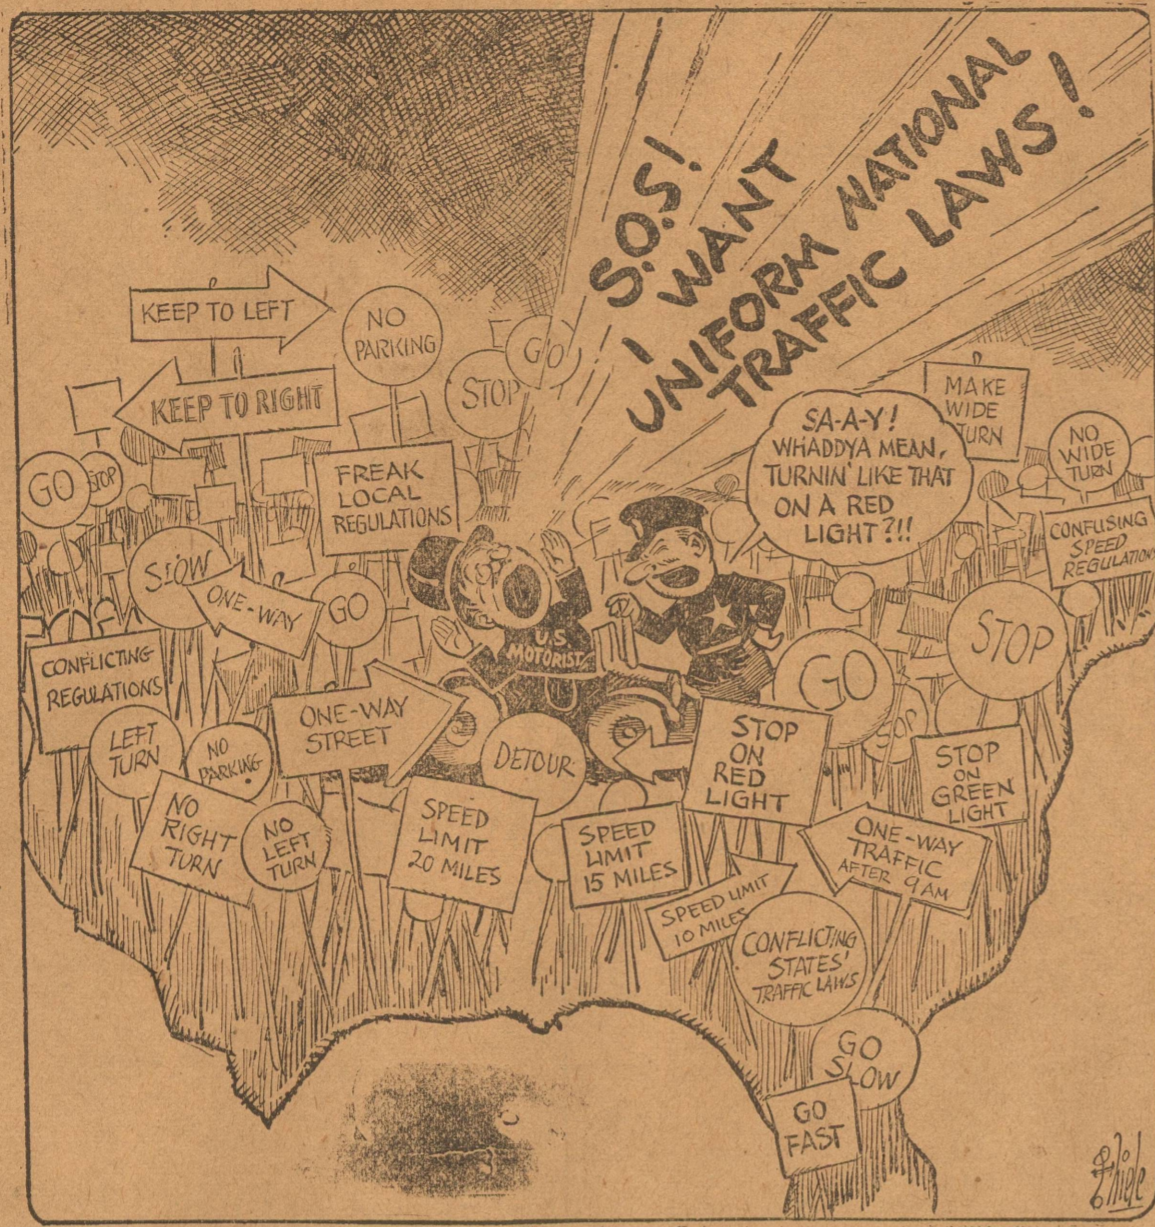

America is the most prosperous nation in the world today because of the use of printers' ink as a trustworthy salesman of products.

Newspaper advertising—the most common tool of the dusky servant—is the basis of big business success and can be made the foundation of prosperity for the smaller businesses of the country.

He Bought 92 of Them By Mistake And Got In Trouble

By RICHARD McFILLAN,
 United Press Staff Correspondent.

PARIS.—If you want to meet trouble in a hurry, ask M. Houplin, with an address in Rue Jean-Bart, Paris, if he wants to buy an umbrella.

The other day, Houplin went to an auction sale at the Hotel Drouot with the intention of preparing for a rainy day. The very thing he was seeking was put up for sale—a substantial looking umbrella which Houplin secured for 16 francs, which is little more than half a dollar.

"Parcel it up," the buyer told the clerk. "I'll parcel them up."

Houplin, it seems, had bought not one umbrella, but 92 and the auctioneer insisted he take delivery, or else have storage room charged.

With melancholy eyes, the sad possessor of 92 umbrellas watched the taxi clock tick upward as he sped homeward. His wife scrutinized him suspiciously when he stumbled across the threshold with his arms full of umbrellas and her worst fears were about confirmed when the taxi-man came along with many more.

After making presents to all his own and his wife's relatives, M. Houplin found still on his hands six dozen umbrellas. What to do with them? The unhappy warrior of the sales, urged as much by the desire to rid himself of the brutes as to retrieve the taxi-fare, took an up pitch in the Rue de Medicis, spread out his goods, fixed a card to them bearing the inscription, "Umbrellas, one, two and three francs," and waited.

Too good to be true, thought the pedestrians. Only one person spoke to the amateur street trader and he took him off, wheeling his umbrellas before him, to the magistrate who, after remaining Houplin that there were such things as licenses to trade in the streets of Paris, let him off with a caution.

New Barber Shop To Open Tomorrow

A four-chair Union barber shop will open tomorrow in the building formerly occupied by the Beauty Shop at 105 South Austin street.

The new shop, which will be first class in every way, is being opened by Gill F. Gully. Mr. Gully comes from Sweetwater. He said he was favorably impressed with the future of Ranger to such an extent that he was sparing no expense in fitting up his shop with the best in the barber line.

All the reserved seat tickets allotted to Ranger Monday were sold rapidly and C. E. Shields of the athletic association last night received 400 more. By noon only about 100 tickets were unsold.

It is likely that Cisco will build additional stands.

There will be hundreds of general admission seats for sale at the box office before the game.

Just how keen the demand for tickets is may be seen by the fact that Bobby Bates obtained 50 tickets to be sold in the drug stores at Eastland but before he could get to a drug store, all the tickets had been bought. So he obtained 100 more and these too have gone.

The attendance estimate of 8,000—originally made a week ago—now looks conservative as the tickets are going fully as swiftly in Cisco as in Ranger and several hundred fans from Abilene, even more from Breckenridge, as well as large representations from Rising Star, Gorman, Strawn and other towns will view the game.

CAVALRY CHIEF CITES STRIDES IN MOTORIZING

Crosby Says Men and Horses Never Will Be Replaced, However.

By United Press.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Motors and machines never will replace men on foot and horseback in the fighting of battles, according to Maj. Gen. Herbert B. Crosby, chief of cavalry, whose annual report to Secretary of War Davis was made public yesterday.

Crosby's report reveals tremendous strides in mechanization and motorization of cavalry units. All regular army cavalry units have been re-organized and with new organization and equipment, Crosby estimates that the new cavalry regiment has twice the fire power of the old regiment.

But as regards mechanization, Crosby reported, it is believed that the horse-soldier, like the foot-soldier, cannot be replaced by any machine as yet developed nor is it anticipated that any such machine will be developed. So long as there are marshes to cross, rivers to swim, woods to pass through or climb, cavalrymen and infantrymen will be necessary.

Tanks, tankettes, armored cars, armored airplanes, smoke projectors, gas and all modern means of warfare in use or still to be adopted cannot take the place of the man and the horse. They supplement the efforts of the man and the horse but they do not replace them, says Crosby.

Changes Necessary.

"The 1927 divisional maneuvers," Crosby continued, demonstrated the necessity for certain changes in organization, both of cavalry units as then organized in certain of the auxiliary units. Among the points demonstrated were the following:

1. The value of aircraft so-operation.
2. The advisability of partial motorization of the division trains.
3. The desirability of complete motorization of the rear echelon of division headquarters.
4. The desirability of incorporating armored cars and light, fast tanks in the cavalry division.
5. The necessity for having anti-aircraft weapons and anti-tank weapons within cavalry regiments.
6. The necessity for new pyrotechnic signals and for early completion of new cavalry radio pack sets.
7. The feasibility of transporting cavalry and other units complete with their horses, equipment and personnel by means of motor trucks in emergencies.

DALLAS, Nov. 8.—It is a rather foreign complex in County Clerk D. C. Whitley's office where 75 Greeks have appeared, either in person or by letter, to claim the $30,000,000 estate of Apostol Constantas, Dallas Athenian, who is said to have died here thirty years ago with the monumental estate.

The seventy-fifth Greek applied for the fortune the latter part of the week. Unfortunately, he met the seventy-fourth Greek just leaving the clerk's desk. The seventy-fourth lingered to find out what was about to take place and the argument.

At New York Opera Opening

Both claimed to have been bosom friends of the dead man, who died penniless, as far as local investigators can determine.

Said the seventy-fourth to the seventy-fifth, "I know him twenty years. Do I ever see you? No." Said the seventy-fifth to the seventy-fourth, "I take care of him when he sick; I live with him; I sleep with him, but I see you never till now."

Said Mr. Whitley to them both, "Might as well go boys, can't find hide nor hair of a penny."

Simple Home Treatment Giving Amazing Results

Rub Gently and Upward To-ward the Heart as Blood in Veins Flows That Way

If you or any relative or friend is worried because of varicose veins, or bunches, the best advice that anyone in this world can give you is to ask your druggist for an original two-ounce bottle of Moore's Emerald Oil (full strength) and apply as directed night and morning to the swollen, enlarged veins. Soon you will notice that they are growing smaller and the treatment should be continued until the veins are of normal size.

WHIRLWIND

By ELEANOR EARLY

THIS HAS HAPPENED
Sybil Thorne, Boston society girl, plaintiff in the most sensational divorce case in the annals of local jurisprudence. Sybil has petitioned for divorce from Richard Eustis, whom she married secretly, and with whom she lived for only two weeks. She has asked also for the custody of her child, Teddy, whom Eustis has never seen.

Her husband counters by bringing suit for $100,000 against Craig Newhall for alienation of Sybil's affections. Craig has loved Sybil for years, but is absolutely guiltless of Eustis' allegations. The newspapers carry sensational details in great headlines. Society is intensely interested, and speculation is rife.

It is the first day of the trial—and Sybil, with her mother and her brother, Tad, is waiting in court. Craig Newhall is there, too. And throngs of vulgarly curious.

Richard Eustis has not come. Neither has his lawyer. The judge, frowning, consults his watch. Mr. Peterson, Sybil's attorney, tells her that the case may be dismissed. Suddenly a court officer hurries from the corridor to the judge's bench.

Now go on with the story:
CHAPTER XII
Something had happened. Something dreadful. On her feet, Sybil felt suddenly dizzy. Perhaps she grew pale, for a man in a blue uniform took her arm and walked beside her. Up there—in front of those people. The cynosure of all eyes.

She squared her shoulders bravely. And those in the courtroom saw the judge bend kindly toward her. His grizzled locks seemed to touch her satin turban. Peterson's bald head gleamed beside. Only a word or two.

Sybil's lawyer put his hand beneath her elbow and they left the courtroom through the judge's lobby. Then the judge stood before the vast assembly and spoke very quietly.

"There has been an accident. Richard Eustis, defendant in this case, accompanied by his attorney, motoring from New Haven to attend this session of the court, was killed this morning in Providence."

A second's silence. And then a

SEARCHES NEAR PARIS DEVELOP NEOLITHIC FIND

Prehistoric Flint Implements Discovered in Fields of Marly-le-Roi.

PARIS.—After nearly two decades of inactivity researches are to be resumed in the famous neolithic fields in the vicinity of Marly-le-Roi, less than an hour's train ride from Paris, where some notable specimens were discovered before the war.

Unlike the prehistoric finds at Glazel and Solutre, the find registered recently by a few independent researchers of a local historical and archeological society the nature of the early discoveries are admittedly beyond all doubt.

In this, they are like the museum pieces found throughout the world's museums from a neighboring field at Schelles, which has given its name to one of the phases of the neolithic system of classification.

One of the most important finds during the summer was the central stone of the dolman which attracted attention of scientists before the war. At first it was believed that only two common boulders, about eight feet in diameter, had been uncovered, but some of the local experts had an "uncanny" certainty that something more would be found.

Deeper excavation brought to light the stone necessary to complete the dolman, giving its flat sacrificial stone, a second exterior stone, carved to contain the bones of those for whom the monument was created, and the central table stone, apparently supported by slabs behind which the priests of the neolithic days retired to say their prayers.

A large number of flint hatchets, knives without handles, scrapers and even rudimentary flint drills, said to be very rare, were also among the discoveries during the year and submitted to officials of the University of Paris for classification.

Tradition Will Aid Bulldogs

Spirit Means Everything. It was such a superb spirit that enabled little Center in Bo McMillan's day to defeat Harvard; that enabled the light San Angelo team to hold the Lobos to a tie a few weeks ago; that made it possible for S. M. U. to play the Army off its feet. And if the Ranger Bulldogs do not have that same spirit on Nov. 12, it will be the first time that they have lacked it when Cisco was the opponent.

Turn back to 1923. That's a long time ago. The Lobos had one of their strongest teams in history. They led the Abilene Eagles at the opening of the fourth quarter—and that was the year that Abilene won the state championship. Cisco was the only team able to score on the Eagles that season. But when Ranger and the Lobos met, it took a fumble by a Ranger backfield man to give Cisco a 6-0 victory.

Go on to the next year—1924. Ranger lost to Stephenville in an unofficial game; played a scoreless tie with Comanche; played a scoreless tie with Breckenridge. The Bulldogs seemed about like the old-time baseball team, the Chicago White Sox, who were known as the "hitless wonders." But when Ranger faced the Lobos, Ernie Wilson scored one touchdown and that was all that the famous Cisco team that went to the state semi-finals was able to do. They won 7 to 0 but a dropped pass in an open field cost Ranger a score, inability to elude the safety man cost a score, a boot that hit the crossbar lost a field goal by inches.

Down Through the Years. Then turn to 1925. The story is always the same. Eastland defeated Ranger 25 to 0. Cisco defeated Eastland 30 to 0. Then the Bulldogs and the Lobos met. Until Buster Mills was carried off the field early in the second half, it was anybody's game. The final score was 24 to 7—the only touchdown that had been made against the Lobos up to that time during the season.

Nineteen twenty-six—all Ranger fans remember that year. They rank it right along with 1776 and 1492. Stephenville defeated Ranger, then Cisco defeated Stephenville. What happened when the Bulldogs met the Lobos? 13 to 0 in favor of Ranger. A touchdown for the Bulldogs in the first minute of the game—an intercepted pass and a 40-yard run by Buster Mills—a 100-yard punt by the same Buster—those are some of the highlights. The two teams had to play off the tie in the standing. In a sandstorm they met and Buster kept them on the defensive by his great kicking and finally booted a goal to give Ranger the championship, 3 to 0.

The score of last year's game might indicate that the old tradition no longer held, for Cisco was victorious, 22 to 0. But the Lobos were regarded as far outclassing Ranger, yet at the end of the half the score was 0-0. Worn down by that half, the Bulldogs had to retreat in the second half.

Will 1928 see Ranger playing its greatest game of the season against Cisco? History says so.

2,700 Arrows In Man's Collection

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. For many years Louis Brunke has made it a hobby to collect Indian arrow heads, and now has a collection of 2700 different types of arrows.

In his search for the treasured bits of flint, Brunke's only tools are his eyes. He never digs for the arrows, but scans the ground carefully and can tell an arrow head from any other piece of rock at a considerable distance.

Brunke drives his automobile over fields where the more cautious driver would fear to venture in his search for arrow heads. He carries a fence tool with him and when a barbed wire fence is in his path he takes it down, drives over it and replaces the wire.

In his search for arrow heads, Brunke has covered most of Eastern Colorado and virtually all of the San Luis valley.

The collection is kept in carefully arranged glass cases.

Nebraska Star

You might think, from the press reports, that Blue Howell is just about everything in the Nebraska backfield. Well, here's a young man whose name is Clair Sloane and he is one of the reasons why Nebraska seems headed for championship of its section and perhaps a claim at the national title.

It Is Knute and Mrs. Rockne

SPORTSMATTER BY FRANK GETTY UNITED PRESS SPORTS EDITOR

While about 35,000,000 voters throughout the country registered their preference for Al Smith or Herbert Hoover, a million voters of Boston and vicinity also decided a question of paramount importance to baseball fans—Where will Rogers Hornsby play in 1929?

It was not a question of who will enter the White House, but of who will be second baseman for the Chicago Cubs.

A deal—the greatest baseball deal in history from a financial standpoint—which will send "The Rajah" from Boston to Chicago awaited the verdict of the voters of the Bay State.

If Massachusetts gets Sunday baseball by way of the ballot, the Boston Braves can afford to keep Hornsby as playing manager, for the attendance presumably will justify the expense. If the voters reject a proposal for Sunday baseball, Judge Fuchs cannot afford to reject Chicago's offer of Webb, Heathcote, McGuire and $200,000 for Rogers.

Cubs Out to Win. Chicago is out to win the National League pennant in 1929, regardless of expense. The St. Louis Cardinals, champions this year, are shot to pieces and must be rebuilt if they are to escape a tumble into the second division. The New York Giants are dangerous, but need pitchers and a good right handed hitting outfielder. The Cincinnati Reds may not be strong enough to reach the top and stay there, and the Pittsburgh Pirates are apparently going to be no stronger than they have been.

In other words, the door is wide open for the Cubs to drive through to a pennant, if they can get Hornsby. With "The Rajah" Kiki Cuyler, Hack Wilson and other heavy hitters and as good a pitching staff as there is in the league, the Chicago Cubs would look like champions.

The offer for Hornsby has been made, and tentatively accepted. It will not be formally accepted until after the vote on Sunday baseball is made known.

The Boston Braves would be a money-making outfit if they could just play ball at home seven days a week. The odds are that the decision of the voters will be otherwise, however, and that Hornsby will make his third change in as many winters.

Hornsby the Wanderer. In 1926, after he had led the St. Louis Cardinals to their first National League pennant and a world's championship, Hornsby was traded to the New York Giants for Frankie Frisch and Jimmy Ring and probably some cash, although none was mentioned.

In 1927, after he had played brilliantly with the Giants for whom he acted as field captain, he was sent to Boston for "Shantay" Hogan and Jimmy Welch, which was no compliment to any ball player of Rogers' ability.

In 1928, after another highly successful season as a player—Hornsby, the Wanderer of baseball, probably is due to move on again. Every club wants him. No club wants him long. The Cubs will take him to win a pennant and then send him on his way to keep Joe McCarthy from resigning. Or else they will sack McCarthy and hand over the control of the team to Hornsby. It is one thing or the other.

Hornsby had yet to play with Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Brooklyn and Philadelphia. The Pirates don't want him; neither do the Reds; while the Robins and Phillies cannot afford any such luxuries.

Rogers may be over in the American League before long.

TALKIES IS BIG INTEREST IN PICTURES

By United Press. HOLLYWOOD, Cal. — Sound, sound, sound—all over the capital of filmdom the producers, directors and stars think of nothing but the "talkies."

Virtually every announcement from the studios has to do with sound and the end is nowhere in sight, if indeed there is to be an end. Here are some of the latest developments:

The Harry Richman talking and singing picture that Irving Berlin has written has caused producers, John W. Considine, Jr.; director, Alan Crosland, scenarist, C. Gardner Sullivan; art director, William Cameron Menzies, and photographer Karl Struss, to leave for New York. There the picture tentatively titled "Say It With Music" will be put in production.

Dorothy Burgess, Broadway stage star, has been cast for the leading feminine role in the Motion picture drama, "In Old Arizona," now being directed by Irving Cummings.

Miss Burgess has risen rapidly to the notice of metropolitan theatre-goers in the last few years. She first came into notice when she succeeded Helen Hayes in the leading role of "Dancing Mothers" during the Broadway run. Following that she was under the management of Edgar Selwyn in "The Adorable Liar."

She scored an emphatic personal hit in the Bide Dudley musical comedy, "Bye, Bye, Bonnet," although she had not been trained for musical shows and had to master the art of dancing at short notice in order to enter the piece. Lately she has been appearing in "The Squall" during its run at a Los Angeles theatre.

Universal Pictures will make a featurette of Charles Dickens' famous "Christmas Carol."

Tom Terris, British actor and director, will direct the picture, as well as play the role of Scrooge. Production will be commenced at Universal City at once to have the picture ready for timely showing throughout the country during the Christmas holidays.

Universal produced the Dickens' classic as a silent picture first in 1915. It was made in two reels by Rupert Julian, who also played "Scrooge."

In an effort to obtain written testimony of the public preference between Vitaphone acts and vaudeville numbers of the same sort, the Vitaphone Corporation recently conducted a survey of opinion in a typical American city. Although Vitaphone Corporation was convinced of the preference of Vitaphone from the very reliable knowledge gleaned from box-office reports, it was decided to obtain further proof.

Mansfield, Ohio, as a typical American community, was the city selected for the survey. Five hundred letters, containing a request to state the preference of the writer for either Vitaphone or vaudeville, were sent to residents who constituted the professional and business class of the city. Seventy replies, an average of 14 percent of the requests, were received at the Vitaphone offices. This is an exceptionally high average.

Out of the entire number only 18 percent favored regulation vaudeville. The remaining 82 percent were unanimous in their preference for the Vitaphone short subjects.

"Barnum Was Right," a stage comedy by Philip Bartholomae and Jerry Meehan, which enjoyed a long run at the Orange Theatre here in 1923, with Donald Brian in the star role, has been bought by Universal for Reginald Denny. It will be made as an all-talkie comedy.

Construction will begin immediately on another gigantic stage for the making of Vitaphone pictures.

This sound-proof stage will be 200 feet by 300 feet and will be an exact duplicate of the one completed last month. It will give to Warner Bros. the two largest sound-proof stages ever constructed and it will bring the total number of Vitaphone stages up to five, the other two of studio buildings erected for the making of silent pictures.

PIG WILL PAY OWNER'S FINE

By United Press. WATSONVILLE, Calif.—If the little pig of B. C. Ethers goes to market soon Ethers will not have to go to jail so he welcomes every pound of flesh piggy acquires.

When Ethers appeared before Judge Webb on a charge of reckless driving he pleaded to stay out of jail.

"Don't send me up, your honor," he begged. "If you will wait until I fatten my pig I'll sell him for $25 and pay the fine."

"How long will it take?" the judge asked. "Two weeks, your Honor," said Ethers.

The judge accepted the proposition and Ethers hurried to his ranch to pay special attention to the pig's diet.

HENRY L. FARRELL And Two More Babes Miller Huggins, departing for his Florida winter home with a new set of store teeth and a bag of clubs that shoot tens, says that even his ball club can't carry two weak hitters. He has two weak hitters and he proposes to do something about it.

He may move Koenig to third base and try Durocher at short. He hopes that Durocher will hit and he also hopes that Dickey will come through as a badly needed hitting catcher.

Lazzeri can play third or short but he'll be kept at second where he is considered invaluable. Wera, Lary and Reese will be given plenty of opportunity in the spring to get a regular job in the infield.

Huggins also confided that he would like to have two more regular pitchers who could win twenty games each.

Get Your Hands Up, George! The little manager of the champion Yankees said his greatest thrill in the late world series came when George Pipgras escaped the second inning of the second game. One more hit in that inning and it would have been the end of George, he said.

It will be recalled that Pipgras had such a tough time getting started that the players gave a massed demonstration of their disapproval. It looked for a moment as if they were going to force Huggins to make a change.

"I kept telling and signaling Pipgras to get his arms up high but he wouldn't do it," Huggins said. "He was wild in the first inning but he struck out Hafey with two on and got by. He went back again in the second inning and they got three runs and tied the score on a couple of hits, a pass and an error. One more hit and I would have jerked him, but he finally got his arms up around his neck and started pitching. They got only two hits off him after that. It gave me my greatest thrill when he started working me. I knew he could."

Gold in Them Hills Several years ago Pete Rielly paid $1500 for a broken down fighter and he cashed in for about $100,000 in purse cuts when Jack Delaney rebuilt his ham and became one of the highest priced fighters in the business.

Rielly went along with Delaney until he sensed that he was about through and then sold him for $50,000.

The Reilly investment in Delaney, until recent weeks, held the record for a business in which the breaks are more often bad than good.

A few days ago Larny Lichtenstein turned down a cash offer of $50,000 for Baby Joe Gans, a colored lightweight. His original investment in acquiring ownership of Gans was $340, an amount

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth. Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs. Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

BEER DRINKING CAT FEROCIOUS WHEN IN CUPS

"Tiger" the Terror of Fleet Street During Occasional Splees.
LONDON. — Just off Fleet street lives the world's only beer-drinking cat. Its name is "Tiger" so named on account of the wild disposition it gives vent to when drunk. When sober, Tiger is one of the most popular cats in Fleet street. Children play with him, and handsome offers have been made for him—when sober. But when Tiger is drunk the bravest alley cats all head in the other direction, and the children flee to their mothers for protection, for with beery froth dripping from his whiskers, Falstaffian joviality shining in his eyes, and an alcoholic courage which fears no awe—dog—Tiger is truly an awe-inspiring sight.

Noted Advertising Expert Makes Use of Plane in Work

A. J. Ratliff, distributor of Superior stock and poultry feeds in Ranger, will be at the local airport Saturday to welcome Charles C. Johnson Jr., advertising manager of Universal Mills, who is coming here as a member of the Fort Worth aerocade.

Mr. Johnson is one of Texas' leading advertising men and is no new hand at flying, having had over 500 hours in the air while serving as a lieutenant and flying instructor in the United States army air service during the world war.

Universal Mills are the first feed manufacturers in the southwest, and possibly the first in the entire country, to utilize the airplane as a mean for their executives to keep in close touch with their several hundred distributors. According to advice received from Mr. Johnson, he will visit Superior distributors in 11 towns and cover approximately 1,000 miles in three days by airplane, at a great saving in both time and traveling expense.

Mr. Johnson predicts that the demands of modern business for economical and rapid service will soon make the airplane the most widely used method of transportation by the majority of progressive business men.
