LABOR TROUBLE ON HAMON-KELL

New T. P. Station May Cost $175,000

MARSHALL CONTRACTOR ESTIMATES

Joe Pressler, a contractor of Marshall, is here today with the plans of the Texas & Pacific station here, investigating the proposition with the intention of making a bid on the structure. Mr. Pressler, after careful study of the plans, expressed the opinion that the depot the railway company will build here will cost in the neighborhood of $175,000, although he is not yet able to set a definite figure at which he will bid.

SOLDIERS WITHDRAWN FROM SCENE OF STRIKE IN WEST VIRGINIA

WILLIAMSON, W. Va., Nov. 5.—A battalion of soldiers, who have been on duty in the Mingo county coal fields since a strike of the miners was called, almost three months ago, has been withdrawn. Twenty-five troopers of the West Virginia constabulary arrived here today to take the place of the soldiers. Additional detachments are expected within a few days.

ANNUAL GAME BETWEEN HARVARD AND PRINCETON

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 5.—Harvard's football eleven today put the finishing touches to preparations for the annual game at Princeton tomorrow. The day's schedule calls for a light drill after which comes the usual parade. The New Jersey squad is due to arrive late today and will take a light work-out at the stadium.

NO "MOVIE" AMBITIONS.

WHEELING, W. Va., Nov. 5.—A wildcat brought here by a circus wrecked a camera when an effort was made to take its picture. After demolishing the camera the wildcat ran into his cage and someone slammed the door on him.

RIDER HURT WHEN KICKED IN HEAD BY BUCKING HORSE AT RODEO; HORSE NEVER RIDDEN

"Chick" Hammon, of Miles City, Mont., rodeo rider, is in the Ranger hospital as a result of attempting to ride "Barney Newson," a horse that has never been ridden, according to the promoters of the event. Hammon, said to be a top-notch contest rider, came out of the grandstand following a challenge of L. F. Fletcher, arena director, offering $50 to any man who could stay astride the animal. The rider was unseated at the second jump and fell beneath the horse's feet, and was kicked behind the right ear as the bucking horse passed over him. Upon a hurried examination made by Dr. McAdon, who was in attendance, it was thought that a fracture had been sustained. This morning the report is that the rider is not seriously injured. The Jones-Cox ambulance, which was stationed at the grounds in case accidents happened, carried the injured man to the Ranger hospital. Because of the fact that Hammon was dressed in street clothing and came out of the audience, it was thought that he was someone who did not know the character of the horse he was attempting to ride. It later developed that he was contented in the contests, and was a contest rider of ability.

If one in attendance on the first day of Ranger's rodeo yesterday could have seen from his vantage the audience that the grandstand and overflowed in the sidelines, he could have imagined himself at the coronal of some large rained days that are passing.

REPUBLICAN MAJORITY SETS NEW RECORD

Will Have 149 Majority in the House of Representatives. NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—With the size of Harding's electoral vote virtually settled at 404 out of a possible 531 and the complexion of the new senate set down as fifty-nine Republicans and thirty-seven Democrats, Republican leaders today awaited belated returns from eight contests in six states to fix the exact size of the Republican house majority. Exclusive of the eight undetermined seats in the lower house, the Republicans had 286 members to 137 Democrats, and four other designations, making a plurality of 149, the greatest ever held by any party in the house.

JOHNSON'S CLIQUE WON'T JOIN NEW BASEBALL MOVE

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—President Ben Johnson of the American League today intimated that there would be no joint session of major league club owners here Monday afternoon. Johnson's stand was taken by fans to be his reply to reports from New York that President Heydler of the National League has issued a second invitation to the American league executive committee and to the "loyal five" club owners supporting Johnson to join with the National league and the Chicago, New York and Boston American league clubs in the session here.

JUDGE WILL PROBE PALMER'S ACTS IN COAL CONSPIRACY CASES

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 5.—Federal Judge Anderson declared in the United States district court today that the investigation to be made next Monday of Attorney General Palmer's connection with the soft coal conspiracy cases would be for the purpose of ascertaining "whether the attorney general can make an agreement to suppress a portion of the government's evidence."

MERIDIAN, Miss., Nov. 5.—Ten thousand dollars worth of radium was carelessly thrown away by a patient in a local hospital. The man was being treated for cancer of the face. The bandage containing radium became loose and was thrown away in the woods.

Things Are Coming His Way

BY MORRIS

Charges Are Filed Against Ranger Men in Check Swindle

Charges were filed Thursday afternoon against the three Ranger men under arrest in Fort Worth, before George W. Mitchell, United States commissioner, alleging conspiracy to conceal and receive a check stolen from the United States mail. The men being held are Lewis Doer, former collector for the Times; Arthur F. Hinz, automobile mechanic, and John W. Case. The complaints were filed in connection with the theft of a check for $10,740 from the mails at Ranger on Oct. 17. It was made payable to an oil driller at Ranger by the Sinclair Oil & Refining company. Case was arraigned before the United States commissioner Thursday afternoon and pleaded guilty to the charge. His case was continued over until this morning at 10 o'clock, when all three of the men were arraigned. Failing to make bond of $1,500, Case was committed to jail.

CITY BUREAU SPEAKER ILL, CAN'T COME TONIGHT

Edward C. Trefz, of the American City Bureau, scheduled to speak in Ranger tonight on "How to Build a City" was suddenly taken ill and cannot fill the engagement. It is expected, however, that a later date will be arranged.

CATTLE BEING SHIPPED TO GARZA COUNTY PASTURAGE

POST, Nov. 5.—Beal Sneed has just shipped in 88 cars of cattle from his Panhandle, Texas ranches for his pastured here. The Post section has the best grazing lands in its history following the splendid summer and fall rains, says the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

BIG SWEET POTATO.

TAHOCA, Tex., Nov. 5.—A "golly-whopper" sweet potato weighing 11 1/2 pounds raised by A. H. Rus Antonio is being shown in this section. The citizens think it is a pity that the Dallas fair is not in the future, says the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

BOSTON BRAVES WANT MUCH AND THEN SOME MORE

The Boston Braves are a modest aggregation. A letter from their manager states that they will train in Ranger provided they are guaranteed $5,000 and a $4 a day board and room hotel rate for the players. The joker in the $5,000 asked is that they want all the receipts from exhibition games except 1,000 tickets for Sunday games which they will allow the Chamber of Commerce to help pay the guarantee. Secretary J. E. T. Peters of the Chamber of Commerce has made a counter offer of $6,000 on the barrel head, lose-win-or-draw. This means that the chamber would pay that amount and take all gate receipts itself. The Detroit Tigers are training at Waxahatchie, the only offer being made them was fair hotel rates. It is said that Cisco has offered the "Reds" $7,500 to train in that city.

JAPAN WILL FIGHT NEW CALIFORNIA LAND LAW

TOKIO, Nov. 5.—When confirmation has been received that the people of California voted in favor of the proposed law, Japan will lodge a protest in Washington, pointing out that the measure conflicts with Japanese treaty rights, according to Yoruetsu Choho, an independent organ, which quote a foreign official to this effect. Formal negotiations, the newspapers say, will follow and an agreement made permanently removing the cause of the trouble.

MISTEROUS MURDER.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 5.—Miss Edna Ellis, 18 years old, was found mysteriously murdered in a clump of weeds on a vacant lot in the northern section of the city today. Her throat had been slashed, a broken razor was found near her body. Miss Ellis was a stenographer,

Street Sweeping Jeopardized by Failure to Pay

Ranger streets are being swept at a loss at the present time, says Mr. Hopkins of the Ranger Transfer & Storage company, which, at the solicitation of merchants bought a sweeper and is cleaning the streets nightly. The understanding was that merchants would contribute a nominal sum weekly to pay the expense of this work. The street sweeping necessitates the employment of three men nightly, says Mr. Hopkins, and with horse feed and other expenses about $150 a week is necessary to keep up the work. This estimate also includes extra men made necessary whenever it rains. Failure and in some cases refusal of merchants to pay is responsible for a loss of about $40 a week which the company has sustained during the two weeks the sweeper has been operating, says Mr. Hopkins. Seventy-five leaseholders are in arrears for their part of expense for this service. Mr. Hopkins hopes for a remedying of this condition, but says the company cannot long continue this service, which his company put on at the solicitation of local people, unless enough is contributed to meet the expense. There are about 200 persons with business places fronting on the pavement, and 75 cents or $1 a week from each would be sufficient. The condition of the streets has been materially improved since the sweeper was put in operation, and it is not believed that any merchant would care to see them revert to the old dust and mud-laden condition.

FEDERAL PRISONERS TAKEN TO ABILENE

Clara Conner, under charge of white slavery; T. W. Williams, Frank Anderson and L. A. Burger, charged with illicit stilling, and H. C. Tabor, under a narcotic charge were all sent to Abilene last night by the police department to appear before the federal court. The Conner woman, with W. D. Young, was arrested following a sworn statement made by her 15-year-old sister. The charges of illicit stilling grew out of a raid made by the police on a house on Hunt street, where a large still was found. Tabor was arrested with narcotics in his possession.

REDUCTION OF HOURS BRINGS WALKOUT OF SWITCHING CREWS; TRAINMEN WON'T TAKE PLACES

No Strike, No Lockout; Men "Out of Service," Both Sides Say; No Freight Is Moving.

Train crews and switchmen are out on the Hamon-Kell line, tying up freight trains until differences can be straightened out or new crews are secured in their places. Both sides of the controversy say that no strike exists, that the men are "out of service." According to officials of the road only twenty-four men are affected, and will not cause shippers any inconvenience. Trainmen, however, say that all train crews except those on passenger trains, are out of service, tying up all freight traffic on the Hamon-Kell, affecting 135 men.

VICTIMS OF AUTO WRECK LIE UNDER CAR ALL NIGHT

Mineral Wells School Teacher Dead, Hotel Manager Is Unconscious.

WEATHERFORD, Nov. 5.—Miss Lillie Rose Couch, a Mineral Wells, school teacher, whose home is in Magnolia, Ark., was killed and Cleve Henson, a hotel manager of that city is in a local hospital unconscious from injuries sustained last night when an automobile in which they were riding overturned. The accident occurred about 10:30 o'clock last night, two miles west of Weatherford. The young people had attended a home talent play in this city and were in their car returning to Mineral Wells, and when about two miles out the car in some manner went over the side of a small bridge. The couple lay on the scene of the accident all night, being found early this morning by workmen who are grading the highway through Parker county. The remains of Miss Couch have been prepared for burial and will be shipped to Mineral Wells for interment after the arrival of a brother from Kansas. Henson will recover.

SUPPOSED MANIAC DRIVES AUTO INTO CROWD; ONE KILLED

TOLEDO, Ohio, Nov. 5.—An automobile driver, believed to be a maniac, is responsible for the death of one man and the injury of seven when he charged on a group of persons waiting for a car this morning. The dead man is Joseph Segrum of Toledo, William Armstrong, a laborer, is injured. About a dozen persons were waiting to board a car when the man, in a large touring car, approached at great speed. Without warning he apparently purposely swerved into the crowd. Segrum was killed instantly. Several others were knocked against the street car and seriously bruised.

BATTLESHIP TO TAKE HARDING TO PANAMA CANAL

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—President Wilson today directed Secretary Daniels to place a battleship at the disposal of President-elect Harding for his contemplated visit to the Panama canal zone. The President also instructed Daniels to offer Harding the use of the presidential yacht Mayflower to convey him and members of his party to Hampton Roads to go aboard the battleship.

BALLOTS FOUND IN NEW YORK SEWERS; WILL QUIZ JUDGES

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—District Attorney Edward Swann today began a formal investigation of alleged election frauds. As a result of the discovery of twenty-six marked ballots yesterday in sewers in the thirteenth election precinct of the fourth assembly district, Swann summoned election officials of the district to be questioned. Meanwhile street cleaners are instructed to search for missing ballots.

DUCKS TOO PLENTIFUL ON PANHANDLE BORDER

FARWELL, Texas, Nov. 5.—A plague of ducks are now covering hundreds of small lakes over this large territory. Ducks are so plentiful that they are marauding about the grain fields, and doing considerable damage to grain in the shock. The heavy rains of the midsummer and fall have filled all the depressions of the land so that they afford considerable winter trysting places, while the neighboring fields of grain furnish comfortable "eats" to the migrating birds.

HIGH WAGE FOR SECTION HANDS

SWEETWATER, Nov. 5.—The average monthly stipend of railway section hands on divisions of the Santa Fe in West Texas is $51 a month, according to the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. This is considerably in excess of the pay given section men prior to the war. White labor is used almost exclusively on this road for section work.

MAJESTIC WILL RE-OPEN NEXT SUNDAY

R. J. Stinnett, New Manager, Will Feature Bargain Matinees.

R. J. Stinnett, for twenty years a show man and at present operating several shows over the country, has taken a three-year lease on the Majestic theater and will open Sunday with five acts of high class vaudeville and feature motion pictures. The vaudeville will run the first three days in the week, to be followed with musical comedy by the best road shows that can be obtained. With the exception of Saturday and Sundays the Majestic will show bargain matinees at a price never had in Ranger before. Any seat in the house may be had for 25 cents.

Mr. Stinnett himself is coming direct from the management of the Jefferson theater in Dallas, where he has been for eight years. He is also operating two show houses in Breckenridge at the present time.

Bargain Matinees. Perhaps the greatest feature of Mr. Stinnett taking over the Majestic is the bargain matinee. This price has never been posted before in Ranger for vaudeville or musical comedy. From out of his experience, however, the new manager believes that the lesser price will bring more people out and show greater dividends than would be the case at a larger admittance price.

The shows which are billed for Ranger come direct to this place from the Jefferson theater in Dallas.

FIVE-ROOM HOUSE BURNS DURING NIGHT

A frame house of five rooms, together with its contents, burned in Rust addition in the southern part of the city last night. The fire department received the call at 2 p. m. On arrival no water could be had in that section.

No cause is given for the fire. The loss on the house and contents is placed at $4,000. The house was owned by B. B. Ratliff of Dallas, who carried no insurance. The house was occupied by Mrs. Wilson, whose sons are employed by the Prairie company.

WAGON RUNS OVER MID-KANSAS EMPLOYEE, CRUSHES THREE RIBS

Ed Lott, an employee of the Mid-Kansas Oil & Gas company was badly injured yesterday when he fell from a wagon. The wagon passed over him crushing three ribs and wrenching one leg.

The Jones-Cox ambulance carried the injured man to the Ranger hospital. Reports this morning are that his condition is serious.

ey for broncho riding. All Stay Top-Side. With the exception of Hannon, every rider entered rode his horse, but many of them were disqualified by reason of contest rules.

These rules are based on the supposition that any rider entered can stay on a horse. To make it hard, rules are drafted that must be obeyed, else the rider is disqualified. The strictest of these is that the contestant must hit the mount three times in the first five jumps and hit him in front to the shoulder.

Goats Win. In the goat roping contest the majority of the goats refused to be roped. With an instinct that seemed to be almost human, they dodged and ducked to the disgust of the ropers. Of the dozen or more entrants only four roped their goats. Of these Cecil Sellers of Fort Worth made the remarkable time of tying his goat in eleven and four-fifths seconds. He received first prize of $50.

The greatest fun of the day came in the steer-riding contest. The steers, which were big fellows, showed the audience just what a steer could do. They did their best to shake loose from the thing that was above them. In every case the steers were ridden, but as in the broncho riding strict rules disqualified many riders.

"Red" Sublett, not to be outdone by "Shorty" and "Ben," rode his steer and then played leap-frog back and forth over his back.

"Texas Bud" took first money in this event, the amount being the same as in the other contests.

That there might be no dull moments, the management of the rodeo had a jazz band in attendance, and Broadway Jones also entertained with songs.

Those who are promoting the event say that they have some of the worst horses in the county yet to be ridden. A layman's view of the matter is that if they are any worse than those run yesterday, they must be some bad actors.

The prizes awarded the contestants were: Goat Roping—Cecil Sellers, Fort Worth, first prize, $50, time 11 4-5 seconds; M. D. Kelly, Ranger, second prize, $30, time 15 seconds; Miles Emerson, Ranger, third prize, $20, time 1 1-15 seconds.

Broncho Riding—"Shorty" Ricker, Ranger, first prize, $50; Angelo Hughes, Breckenridge, second prize, $30; "Red" Sublett, Santa Fe, N. M., third prize, $20.

Steer Riding—John Henry (Texas Bud) first prize, $50. In this contest Red Sublett, Shorty Douglas, Charley Williams and Ben Howell are tied for second and third prizes.

FRANCE DON'T CARE.

By Associated Press. PARIS, Nov. 5.—Newspapers of this city gave great prominence to reports of the American election and published many pictures of the Republican presidential candidate. In comments the newspapers praise Harding's personality and recall that he has always asserted great sympathy for France.

Polite Robber Thanks Victims, Says 'Good Night'

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 5.—The methods used in four highway robberies last week were so much alike that the police believe they were all committed by one man who rides in a Ford coupe and waylays pedestrians and who is scrupulously polite and seems to have a weakness for pins.

Frank Orenstein, 18 years old, of 2928 Sheridan avenue, was walking on Academy avenue between Page boulevard and Vernon avenue at 7:20 o'clock when a man drove up to the curb in a coupe.

Orenstein told the police the stranger stepped out of the machine and said: "Good evening. Just a minute, I'll trouble you to take off that overcoat." Orenstein obeyed and the robber tossed the overcoat into the car. He then took Orenstein's tie pin, valued at $35, and drove away after saying, "Good night." He was described by Orenstein as being

JUST GAVE UP SUFFERED SO

Weakness, Pains and Other Troubles Had Discouraged This Arkansas Lady. She Took Cardui, Found It Helpful. Got Well!

Harrisburg, Ark.—After serious symptoms had become apparent, Mrs. Belle Wilkerson of Route 1, this place, says she "got worse and worse."

"I wasn't able to stand on my feet and had to go to bed," she explains. The . . . grew worse, and for about three weeks nothing seemed to do me any good. I grew so weak and nervous and could not sleep. I began to have pain in the lower part of my body and all across my back. There was a great deal of soreness and pain in my left side. . . . I just gave up, for I suffered so. I grew discouraged and thought I was not going to get well.

"My head not only ached, but would feel so light and dizzy. . . . I decided then I would take Cardui, as I read of how many women it had benefited, and some whose case was like mine. When I began Cardui, just after a few doses, I noticed a change. I slept better at night and felt like I could eat something. I got up and began to do the work in the house and yard, and after three or four bottles of Cardui I was well."

If you suffer from disorders peculiar to women, take Cardui—the Woman's Tonic. It should help you, like others.—Adv.

about 23 years old and wearing dark kid gloves. Fred Hoffman of 4424 Laclede avenue, reported that at 8:35 p. m. a young man wearing a gray overcoat and kid gloves and holding a revolver, stepped from a coupe in front of 4460 Laclede avenue. He as dithshredshrdlunuuumf hands up the robber smiled and said: "Oh, shucks, don't do that. That's old stuff." The robber took a $35 tie pin and $12 from Hoffman. He handed back Hoffman's purse and private papers which were in it.

Philip Kiefer of 3969 Folsom avenue, was walking with Miss Carrie Glenn of 3909 McRee avenue, on Folsom avenue near Thurman boulevard about 9 p. m. when a young man drove up in a coupe, jumped out and pointed a revolver at them. Miss Glenn ran. The robber took a diamond stud from Kiefer's tie, his gold watch and chain and $3.50 in cash. He was searching Kiefer for more money when Kiefer said: "Hurry, my wife has run away and I must find her."

"Go ahead," replied the robber. Kiefer thus saved a purse containing $25. The robber wore a gray overcoat and kid gloves.

E. H. Rubleman of 4488 West Pine boulevard was about to enter his home at 11 p. m. when a robber who drove up in a coupe stepped out and said: "Wait a minute. Give me what you've got." Rubleman put $13 into one of the robber's kid-gloved hands. The robber put the money in the pocket of his gray overcoat and said, "Thanks."

CONVALESCENT SOLDIERS ARE MADE ILL BY FAKE WHISKY

International News Service. ST. LOUIS, Nov. 5.—A campaign has been started to wipe out soft drink establishments in the vicinity of the United States Hospital here, where, it is charged, poisonous concoctions are being sold convalescent war veterans under the guise of whiskey. A number of the 532 veterans at the hospital have been made ill, it is charged by Major L. P. H. Bahrenbrug, the commandant, from drinking the concoctions. The first arrest in the campaign was that of John Wetzel, charged with selling a concoction of sweet spirits of nitre, alcohol and other undrinkable ingredients to a prohibition officer who entered the place accompanied by a soldier. Wetzel denied selling drinks to soldiers. He was held for violation of the prohibition laws.

DOCTORS USE CALOTABS FOR COLDS AND FLU

Influenza and Grippe, Like Ordinary Colds, Require Calotabs, the Purified and Refined Calomel Tablets That Are Nauseless, Safe and Sure.

Doctors are warning the public that simple colds and mild cases of influenza often lead to pneumonia and other serious complications. They say that every cold should receive immediate attention and that the first step in the treatment is to make sure that the liver is active. For this purpose Calotabs, the perfected, nausealess calomel tablets are the surest, best and most agreeable laxative.

One Calotab at bedtime with a swallow of water—that's all, no salts, no nausea, and no upsetting of the digestion and appetite. Next morning your cold has vanished, your liver is active, your system is purified and refreshed and you are feeling fine with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Eat what you please—no danger.

For your protection, Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price thirty-five cents. All druggists recommend and guarantee Calotabs and are authorized to refund the price if you are not delighted with them.—(Adv.)

TEMPLE.
 During the filming of "An Old Fashioned Boy," the last Ince-Paramount-Aftermath production starring Charles Ray, scheduled as the feature attraction at the Temple theatre for two days commencing today, Thomas H. Ince, who personally supervised the picture from start to finish, left no stone unturned in his effort to produce a story that would surpass the quality of any of Charles Ray's past successes.

"An Old Fashioned Boy" is introduced by Mr. Ince as the first film play without an iris or "fade-out," the plan for which having been conceived by Agnes Christine Johnston, scenario writer for Thomas H. Ince and author of the newest Ray release. Without the iris, the action of "An Old Fashioned Boy" is continuous and audiences will witness the unfolding of the entire story without a "break" or "fade."
 Ethel Shannon plays opposite the star.

LAMB.
 Beginning today, "The Price of Redemption," the big new Metro production starring Bert Lytell, will be the feature attraction at the Lamb theatre, for a run of two days. Picturized from the famous novel, "The Temple of Dawn," by I. A. R. Wylie, this new Lytell vehicle is said to surpass all previous screen productions of this popular young star, and to establish a new record in expensive film production.

The story of the play in which Bert Lytell enacts the leading role is that of a young Englishman in the dark heart of India, who becomes famous for a deed of exceptional bravery and then sinks to the depths of degradation after an unhappy marriage in London. The picture portrays life in far-off India where, in English garrisons and native villages, Leigh Dering, a young English officer, first distinguishes himself as the hero of Fort Akbar, and then sounds all the depths of evil ways among the native grog-sellers' huts and opium dives.

In the cast supporting Mr. Lytell in "The Price of Redemption" are Sena Owen, Cleo Madison and Landers Stevens. Dallas M. Fitzgerald directed the production, which was photographed by Sol Polito. Beautiful scenic effects are a part of this superb new picture including a native uprising when the garrison of Akbar is stormed by the Hindus and the British occupants are threatened with death. It provides Bert Lytell with the opportunity for some of the best work of his career.

The Cigar that Won the Friendly Regard of all Texas

The great name and greater reputation of Lovera has been swiftly but quietly achieved without a single word of wild and frantic advertising.

The mild and rich Havana flavor of Lovera simply cannot be described, yet more Loveras are smoked in Texas than any other brand.

That proves Lovera quality beyond the shadow of doubt.

You can buy them everywhere, at a price that suits your pocketbook.

HOW CAN THEY DO IT?

The amazing folly or incompetency or worse exhibited by army officers in disposing of government property should be investigated, and those guilty of flagrant violations of the rules of common sense business should be punished or separated from what they evidently consider a desirable job.

The recital by Judge Starnes of the purchase of Ford automobiles for $25, which could be put in first-class running order at very little expense, is laughable from one angle, but when one begins to consider the magnitude of the condition of which this is only one instance, it becomes far more serious.

A few weeks ago the army had a tug for sale at Hoboken. The city of Jersey City needed it. They offered $10,000, but could not close the deal until final authorization came from the council. While they were putting this through—in one day—some person willing to "take a chance" came along and obtained the vessel for $2,500. Ten days later he sold it to Jersey City for $18,500.

Recently a firm composed of ex-army purchasing agents bought harness from the government at $9 a set for which they had contracted in the government's name to pay $236 per set for. They ordered about ten times as much as the 4,000,000 army would need in five years, from a firm with which they had been connected, at outrageous prices and then on retiring from the service bought it back from themselves as agents, as a final act, at a fraction of its actual value.

How and why they can do these things is beyond comprehension, if the officers are honest. It takes some intelligence to be an officer in the army. Anyone knows there is no need to dump this material on what was until recently a rising market at sacrifice prices. In the matter of selling to government agencies for roadwork and such activities there may be some good public policy, as it remains to the benefit of the people. But when these sales are made to private individuals, the only thing benefited is the grasping greed of profiteers.

Most of the sales have been made to corporations. The packers bought meat back from the government at half the price at which they sold it to the government, and then they disposed of it to the people at standard prices, or nearly so. The government lost millions—gave them to the capacious pockets of those already rich.

These acts are too numerous and well known to require elaboration. They are also too flagrant to be passed over unnoticed. Some one should be punished and punished severely. Treason is the charge that should be made against these plunderers and wastrels in the pay of the people.

"So she refused you?" "That's the impression I received." "Didn't she actually say no?" "No, she didn't. All she said was 'Ha-ha-ha!'"—San Francisco Chronicle.

"I desire to now present my wife," Harding said at Chattanooga. Boston will go democratic. She'll never vote for a split infinitive.—Arkansas Gazette.

TINKER BOB

By CARLYSLE H. HOLCOMB

A TERRIBLE FIGHT.

When Tinker Bob had seen the action of Mr. Rat and Mr. Loggerhead, he was ready to return to the palace, for he knew that Jerry the Jay would soon be back with another story to tell, and also that Major Pole Cat would soon arrive. Said he to Red Fox, whose hair had been standing straight up ever since he climbed into the magic basket, "Now you can go your way and I will return to the Palace. But if you hear anything be sure to come and tell me at once for I will want to know."

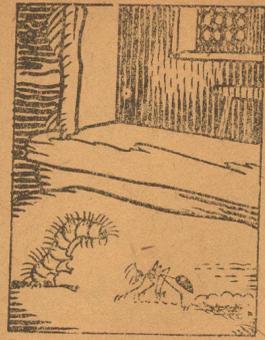

It was a great relief for Red Fox to know that he didn't have to ride again in the wonderful basket, for he was frightened almost to death. He ran away at once so the King would not have a chance to change his mind. Then Tinker Bob tapped the Stone of Knowledge and the Beautiful Creature of His Desire was at once at his side, and he was off again.

Tinker Bob examined the basket more carefully this time than ever before. He was thinking about how he and Lady Duck were going to take the trip to the Southland. The thought came to him that there was no cover on the basket and that if it started to storm they would get wet and cold. So he said to the Creature, "What if it rains on our journey to the land of the South? What can we do?"

The Beautiful Creature smiled, and said, "Don't worry about such little things as that, for we will travel by way of raindrops, and if they come too fast we will go ahead of them so they cannot catch us."

Tinker Bob did not understand how it would be possible to do such a thing as that, but he also knew that it was not wise to question this Beautiful Creature too closely. "I am glad we will not get wet," said he.

Suddenly they came upon the scene of a terrible fight and it was at the foot of the King's palace. Tinker Bob climbed from the basket in a great hurry, thinking that some one was being hurt. But when he saw that it was a very even fight he stood by and watched. It seems that Mr. Red Ant was trying to keep Mr. Caterpillar from climbing the King's steps. You see Tinker Bob had given all caterpillars permission to build their winter homes on the side of his palace. And Red ant was jealous.

He rushed at Mr. Caterpillar with all his force. Then Mr. Caterpillar, raising on his hind legs, would swing his body with all the strength he possessed, and send Red Ant rolling. But back Red Ant came again and again until Mr. Caterpillar became very angry. So he waited until Red Ant came very close and then he swung his body will all his force and sent Mr. Ant off the steps sprawling on the ground. And when he came to he could find his way back. And Mr. Caterpillar went on his way rejoicing.

they would knock him cold; but, oh, there were no fleas on our standard bearer bold. He came from Salt Lake City, the home of Brigham Young, and he was wise and witty and had a fluent tongue. The farmer left his barley, in manner circumspect, to vote for good old Parley, our President-elect, and Peter, Mike and Charley, the toddlers plied their feet, to vote for good old Parley, who takes the Woodrow seat. Oh some were sure that Harding would harvest Wilson's socks, and some made claims regarding my old friend Jimmy Cox. And some grew sore and snarled, defending Warr'n or Jim, but I stood up for Parley, and now rejoice with him. Old parties are disjuncted, and driven from the map, and I will be appointed to some fat public snap.

THE WOMAN WHO SAW

Neither Jot Nor Tittle Wanting.

Chaos reigned in the office of the big chief when Miss Brown, the efficient stenographer of many years' standing, was kept away by the serious illness of her mother. The fluffly little flapper sent from the typewriter agency to substitute was good to look upon, with her permanent wave, perfectly manicured hands and artistic complexion, but these things counted for naught with the Big Chief. He demanded efficiency and Miss Brown was so used to his erratic form of dictation, with its many interjections, that a mere outline was often all that was necessary.

The flapper had an unlimited amount of self-assurance. There was not a trace of nervousness as she sat waiting for the B. C. to begin, and they were soon rushing along in great shape, disposing of a mass of correspondence in an incredibly short time. Finally the usual "That will do Miss Brown," indicated the end, when he bethought himself of a social letter long unanswered. Here was a chance to indulge in a little "joshing" of the boys without Miss Brown's dignified personality to restrain him. He gave free vent to his emotions, dictating what he considered a letter breathing good fellowship and friendliness.

Later, when the mass of correspondence was laid on his desk prior to closing time, the B. C., with his usual implicit confidence in Miss Brown, hurriedly signed his letters and departed, leaving the office boy to do the rest.

Next morning a pile of neat carbon copies occupied its usual position in the letter basket for reference. What was that sentence which seemed to stand out on top of the pile? The B. C. looked and looked again. Yes, it was his letter to his pals, the last one he had dictated. It read smoothly until he reached the sentence—"I wish I were with you chaps in Texas (God forgive the lie)." The flapper had proved her efficiency; not a word in her notes had she missed, and the letter had been sent, interpolations and all.

Business First—But Which Business?
 The Woman found Gloria in front of a milliner's window, absorbed in delectable creations fit only for accessories to a vase of orchids in a limousine. "Any hat in this window for Five Dollars," read the sign card. The Woman could see the desire bubbling up in Gloria's soul like a mountain spring, and she could not blame the child—not one bit. Gloria wears her name as naturally as a flower wears its morning dew! She turned to the Woman ruefully.

"I want a plain little hat for business," she explained. "But I am having the awfulest time in getting it. The first time I bought—please don't laugh! I bought the loveliest hat with a violet plume. It's beautiful! But of course it won't do for business."

The Woman nodded comprehensively and Gloria went on:

"So I tried again. That time—after I had firmly made up my mind to bring home nothing but a plain, dark blue sailor—I just couldn't resist the sweetest pinky thing with little flowers on it. I knew I shouldn't do it, but I bought it anyway!"

"And today?" prompted the Woman. Gloria turned her back on the lovely things in the window. "I've worn this old hat on my head for five years—I've got to get a hat for business."

Tail-Worn.
 A blatant whistle shattered the peacefulness of the surroundings. The Woman, holiday-making in the Adirondacks, shuddered. "It sounds like a factory whistle, and I thought—"

"It's just the saw mill whistle," said the Oldest Inhabitant.

"Well that's much the same thing. It represents noise and crime and labor, long lines of weary workers—"

LITTLE BENNY'S NOTEBOOK
 By LEE PAPE

I finished my lessons last nite and still had a hour to stay up, and pop was smoking and thinking and ma was reading the junk page in the paper without any expression, and I started to try different athletic tricks on the floor, putting my leg eround my neck and saying, Look, ma can you do this? Can you do this, pop?

Im reading, sed ma, Pop not saying anything, and I took my ruler and tried to ballants it on the end of my chin, saying, look pop, look ma, can you do this?

I dont see you doing it, sed pa, meaning on account of the ruler always falling off as it was getting balanced. Ma not saying anything, and I laid on my back with my legs straight up in the air and grabbed ahold of my feet on account of me having sutch long arms for sutch short legs, saying, Hey, ma, look, pop, heers sumthing you can't do, I bet you, look, ma, this is a good one.

I can't see anything very inspiring about it sed ma.
 Pop not saying anything, and I got a cushion and stood on my head, saying, Can you do this, pop, can you do this, ma?

Wich jest then I fell over backwards and my feet hit the little table with the lamp on it a fears crack and the lamp jiggied eround and almost fell but didn't and ma jumped up to catch it in case it did, and pop sed, Speaking of doing things, you can march yourself rite up to bed before I sic my slipper onto you. EVEN MONEY SALE

All sale prices end in even money, you'll find no 98c or $1.49 figures. If it is a $3.00 article you'll get it for $2.00 and the reduction will really amount to something. We're going to lose money on almost every item we offer in this sale. But we know the public wants lower prices, we also know we must reduce our stock at once and only low prices will do this. Many staple items listed here were bought last year at peak-high prices--we're offering them today at about one-half what we paid for them then. We're staking our reputation as reliable merchants that this is the greatest value giving you've seen since the war. However, only by visiting the sale can you really gain a conception of just what this event means in actual cash to you.

Prices Are Slaughtered Below Your Fondest Expectations in Order to Make This the One Supreme Value Giving Event of the Season

Seldom if ever will you see greater values and finer merchandise than this Even Money Sale offers you. From the front door to the back the store will be crowded with bargains, piled high on shelves and tables, every item plainly marked in figures so you can see just what you are getting. Hunting Bargains in Ranger

Bargains discovered in trips through Ranger shops and department stores are here presented briefly, for the benefit of Times readers.

I. The Leader Store offers some exceptionally good values in piece goods this week. Gingham, twenty-seven to thirty-two inches wide, in plaids and stripes, for 19c per yard. Good quality, thirty-six-inch percale for 20c and twenty-seven inch percale at 16c a yard.

II. At Cohn's Millinery is one of those hats trimmed with the fascinating Spanish fringe effect of black lace and jet beads. The hat is of black velvet, roll brim and long on the sides. This shop is having a good reduction on hats. Ten to eighteen dollar hats are marked down to $5.00 and fifteen to twenty-five dollar hats priced at $10.00.

III. At the Richardson-Brown company tomorrow you can buy 9-4 bleached sheeting for 40c per yard, unbleached domestic at 17c, outing for 18c, and good heavy grade of gingham for 27 cents per yard.

IV. Among other bargains at the J. M. White company for Saturday are $3.00 sheets for $2.00 and crepe de chine, georgettes, messalines, taffetas, formerly selling from $2.50 to $4.00 per yard, for $2.00 now.

PET DOGS TO MATCH COLOR OF GOWNS

International News Service. LONDON, Nov. 5.—Pet dogs to suit the color of the costume are the latest fashion experiment. Women wearing pale blue or primrose-colored costumes are to be seen walking with their pet Fido of the same color.

This new fashion either necessitates having the one dog frequently dyed to suit the color of the costume as it is changed, or of keeping a number of dogs for the different costumes.

New Elixir, Called Aspirinal, Medicated with Latest Scientific Remedies, Used and Endorsed by European and American Army Surgeons to Cut Short a Cold and Prevent Complications.

Every Druggist in U. S. Instructed to Refund Price While you Wait at Counter if Relief Does Not Come Within Two Minutes.

Delightful Taste, Immediate Relief, Quick Warm-Up.

The sensation of the year in the drug trade is Aspirinal, the two-minute cold and cough reliver, authoritatively guaranteed by the laboratories; tested, approved and most enthusiastically endorsed by the highest authorities, and proclaimed by the common people as ten times as quick and effective as whiskey, rock and rye, or any other cold and cough remedy they have ever tried.

All drug stores are now supplied with the wonderful new elixir, so all you have to do to get rid of that cold is to step into the nearest drug store, hand the clerk half a dollar for a bottle of Aspirinal and tell him to serve you two teaspoonfuls with four teaspoonfuls of water in a glass. With your watch in your hand, take the drink at one swallow and call for your money back in two minutes if you cannot feel your cold fading away like a dream within the time limit. Don't be bashful, for all druggists invite you and expect you to try it. Everybody's doing it.

SHORT RATIONS FOR LONG TIME, GERMANS ARE TOLD

BERLIN, Nov. 5.—The first congress of Shop Soviets recently held here refused to go on record as favoring the Soviet government of Russia. There was a sharp clash between the Communists and Independent Socialists over the question but the motion was voted down. About 1,000 delegates attended the meeting.

The workers in the German industrial and commercial establishments, who are now given an active voice in administration of them, were impressed in the congress with the need of conserving raw products so that Germany may produce sufficient finished commodities to enable her to establish credits abroad with which to pay for the importation of the most

Pecos Reports New Shallow Sand 25 Miles South

Special to the Times.

PECOS, Texas, Nov. 5.—Sixty feet of sand showing oil and a new sand into which the drill has just penetrated, the latter making a much stronger showing of oil, has been had in the El Paso-Saragosa Oil company well, twenty-five miles south of Pecos.

The company is now preparing to underream, and get a water sand shut off in order to determine the possibilities of this sand, which was found at 400 feet and opens up a possible new shallow oil territory. There is about 400 feet of water in the hole and a shut-off should be effected without much difficulty due to the hard formations passed through.

The Grant Oil Syndicate is planning to make a thorough exploration of the territory around the well which it is pumping at fifty-seven feet and obtaining enough oil to fire a standard rig engine and operate the two other oil burning rigs. Shallow wells have been pushed down in all but two directions from the discovery, and the new rigs have been moved on the locations ready to explore these areas. The Giant well offsets the three Tamey wells, which have produced oil and water for years. The location is fifty miles southeast of Pecos.

Cleans Out Water Well.

As a result of the El Paso-Saragosa discovery, M. H. Robbins has started work cleaning out an old water well drilled on his property years ago to 1,500 feet. This well had some oil showings, and the grease caused it to be abandoned as a water well by the cattlemen. In addition to the Robbins well, Moore Slack of Pecos, has sounded in a well in section 220, block 13, H. & G. N., offsetting the El Paso-Saragosa and J. J. Riell of Racine, Wis., and El Paso is here arranging to take over the Prior & Adams holdings on the Moore ranch near Saratoga and drill with a standard rig on section 75, block 13. The timbers for the rigs are on the ground.

Jack Birmingham has taken the contract of completing the Bell-Reeves. This well had oil sand at 1,429 feet, but the small hole has caused efforts to enlarge it by underreaming, and the result has been about ten weeks of "monkeying around" by drillers who have not made much progress. There remains seventy feet to underream before the depth of the sand is reached. This well is situated north of Pecos.

We carry at all times a complete stock of GLASS, Builders' Hardware and Building Material. Let us figure your bill.

Yours for service, Buell Lmbr. Co. 209 Lamar St.

MEXICO INTERESTED. MEXICO CITY, Nov. 5.—Reports of the election in the United States were given the entire front pages of newspapers in this city. Only two journals, however, ventured to comment editorially. The Excelsior forgoes immediate recognition of the provisional Mexican government as a result of the election, while El Herald de Mexico says there will be no obstacles to amicable relations.

Why Are Skin Diseases So Difficult to Overcome?

When your skin breaks out with itching eruptions, tetter, rash, eczema, psoriasis, or other terrifying disorders, temporary relief will do you but little good, for soon all the itching and irritation breaks out afresh with renewed fury, and you soon realize that local remedies such as ointments, salves and similar treatment will never rid you of your troubles. These troubles originate in the blood, and if you expect real substantial relief you must treat them through the blood. The best remedy for this purpose is S.S.S., the fine old blood purifier that purifies the blood of disease germs, and thus restores the skin to a normal and healthy condition. Begin taking S.S.S. today, and write a complete history of your case, and our medical director will give you expert advice without charge.
