WORLD WIDE TERRORIST PLOT UNCOVERED

PENNSYLVANIA ROAD AGAIN DEFIES BOARD

OPEN PORT LAW TO BE ENFORCED IN TEXAS STRIKE

Makes It an Offense to Intimidate Any Person Connected With Moving Traffic.

HOUSTON, Oct. 20.—The "Texas open port law," passed during the recent administration of Governor Hobby, will hold sway in Texas in event the railroad strike scheduled for Oct. 30, goes through, it was evident today.

The law makes it an offense for any person to intimidate or frighten persons engaged in the operation of a train or ship or employed in any calling incident thereto.

The law has been termed all over the country as the strongest anti-strike measure ever enacted. Up to this time it has not been invoked.

Picketing of railroad yards or asking a man to quit constitutes an offense of the measure, according to local lawyers. The measure was passed as a result of the recent longshoremen's strike at Galveston. At the time it was bitterly opposed by organized labor.

ROADS CLAIM THEY CAN GET HALF-MILLION MEN

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—Plans to operate passenger, mail and milk trains were being pushed by railroad executives today, to be used in case the strike occurs, with resumption of freight traffic as fast as men can be secured. From the ranks of men recently laid off, pensioners, loyal veterans and others with previous experience, they say they can recruit nearly 500,000 men.

Roads entering New York were advertising today for men to fill places that may be vacated and roads entering Chicago are expected to take the same step within the next few days.

PENNSYLVANIA SHOPMEN WILL TAKE ANOTHER VOTE

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—N. P. Good, chairman of system federation No. 90, the shop crafts local on the Pennsylvania lines, announced today that he had ordered a new strike vote taken among all shop employes on the Pennsylvania lines, both union and non-union, and that the shopmen would not strike until the result of this ballot became known. If it is favorable to a strike, the order will be promulgated.

The result of the two ballots will be known about the first of the month, Good said. If the majority of all employes vote for the union to represent them, negotiations will be reopened. If rejected, then, and then only, will he feel justified in exercising their constitutional rights and taking advantage of the strike vote already cast.

LOWER RATES EXPECTED.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—Decisions by the interstate commerce commission in pending cases, involving reduction of freight rates on hay and grain and on lumber, were understood to be imminent today after a conference on the railroad situation, in which President Harding, Chairman McCord of the commission and Attorney General Goff participated.

STRIKE DETAILS PLANNED.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 20.—Railroad brotherhood lieutenants continued to map out the minor details of the impending industrial war here today, while their chiefs met with the railroad labor board to discuss possible peace.

At union headquarters it was made known there would be no halt in preparations for the general transportation walkout, starting Oct. 30, until word was received from Chicago that a settlement had been reached.

POSTOFFICE ROBBED.

COURTNEY, Texas, Oct. 20.—The postoffice here was broken into and robbed early today, according to reports sent out by R. M. Hudson, postmaster.

No estimates as to the value of loot obtained were made public. No arrests have been made in connection with the robbery, authorities said.

Action May Prevent Settlement of Strike at Conference This Afternoon.

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—The Pennsylvania railroad board again defied the power of the United States railway labor board today just as the board was prepared to enter into negotiations with the union heads in an attempt to avert the Oct. 30 strike.

Chiefs of the Big Four brotherhoods and the switchmen's union of North America arrived this morning and went into conference preliminary to their conference this afternoon with the United States labor board, which it is hoped will avert the strike.

Union headquarters was optimistic and there was a strong evident feeling that there will be no strike unless something unexpected should develop which will disrupt the present plans and proposed agreements.

Present at the union conference were Warren S. Stone, grand chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers; L. E. Sheppard, president of the Order of Railroad Conductors; W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers; and T. C. Cashen, president of the Switchmen's Union of North America.

Shopmen Mark Time. The eleven so-called unions marked time today, awaiting the outcome of the labor board meeting. While a few of the general chairmen met to discuss strike plans, the majority crowded the hearing rooms of the labor board to hear the case of the Pennsylvania railroad, which was summoned to answer to the charge of ignoring the board's orders.

Despite the optimism generally expressed, J. M. McGrath, vice president of the railroad department of the American Federation of Labor, "declared before the labor board in the Pennsylvania case that a strike seemed to him to be certain. The shop crafts have voted to strike but have not issued strike orders.

Twenty-two railroads have violated the labor board's decisions, McGrath said, and the men are insistent on walking out.

No Postponement. Brotherhood chiefs in the conference, which ended shortly before they were to meet the labor board, decided there would be no postponement of the railroad strike called for Oct. 30.

"In our conference with the railroad board, our difficulties with executives must be finally settled or the strike will go on as scheduled," said P. C. Cashen, representative of the Switchmen's Union of North America. "There will be no postponement of the strike we have called."

RAILWAY EXECUTIVES AT WORK ON STRIKE PLANS

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—Proceeding as if the United States labor board in its efforts to prevent the threatened railroad strike by a conference with union leaders would prove ineffective, members of the eastern presidents' conference met here today to lay plans for meeting the strike on eastern and New England railroads.

Although they professed to see some hopes of peace through the labor board's efforts, they contended that with strike orders already issued, they could not afford to delay their plans to see what the Chicago conference would bring forth.

Members of the general managers association and the Association of Railway Executives also were to meet today.

Advertisements for men to take the places of possible strikers have been prepared and will be given to newspapers during the day.

PACKERY WORKERS STRIKE WHEN WOMEN'S PAY IS CUT

OTTUMWA, Iowa, Oct. 20.—Nine hundred men and women packing house employes of the Morrell Packing company, are out on strike here today, following disagreement over working conditions and wages of women in the trimming department. The plant was closed by John Morrell, owner, the remaining 400 employes being thrown out of work.

It will be opened again when sufficient workers are available, Morrell said.

PREACHER WHO KILLED PRIEST TELLS HIS TALE

Self Defense, Is Plea; Daughter Who Caused Tragedy Disappears.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 20.—Long lines of spectators jostled each other today before the doors of the court house, where the Rev. Edwin B. Stevenson, Methodist minister, will resume the witness stand in his own defense. The minister, charged with the murder of Father James E. Coyle, Catholic priest, was prepared today for a terrific cross-examination of his story told yesterday of how he and his wife had pleaded in vain for their only daughter to return to them, and how he shot Father Coyle in self defense, after he had been knocked down and kicked.

The daughter, Mrs. Ruth Stevenson Gussman, whose marriage to Pedro Gussman, a Porto Rican Catholic, precipitated the tragedy, had not appeared at the trial. A letter read in court stated that the girl, who has since separated from her husband, intends to go abroad. Gussman, summoned by the defense, will likely testify today. His testimony of how he became acquainted with the minister's daughter and finally married her without the knowledge of her parents, was expected to have an important bearing on the case.

The defense in the trial of Rev. Edwin R. Stephenson, Methodist minister charged with the murder of Father James E. Coyle, Catholic priest, rested its case today.

Stephenson's lawyers reserved the right to introduce rebuttal witnesses later. The accused minister was the last regular defense witness on the stand. Cross examination of him continued when court opened.

LUBBOCK, Texas, Oct. 20.—John R. Ralls, cattleman, banker and town builder, of Ralls, Texas formerly of Duncan Okla., died at his home in Ralls Wednesday afternoon of apoplexy, after an illness of a week. Mr. Ralls was well known to every rancher, having built the town of Ralls.

Disinherits Relatives to Provide Home and Happiness for World's Cats

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—Cats all over the world will benefit from a $60,000 estate and the Ewen homestead here. Miss Caroline Ewen, who lived with her two sisters, had a passion for caring for cats. It was her dream that every cat should have plenty of catnip, milk, and a comfortable backyard fence to play on during its nine lives. She devoted her life to establishing sanitariums for felines and looking after their welfare. She willed all of her estate except $500 for carrying on the work. She cut off her two sisters in her will because they were not sufficiently interested in cats. The money for rescuing the cats of the world was made certain when her nephew recently settled his contest of her will out of court.

STARNES STILL IN AUSTIN; NEW COUNTY ATTORNEY IS NOT NAMED

EASTLAND, Oct. 20.—Owing to the continued absence of County Judge Starnes in Austin, the scheduled meeting of the commissioners' court today to elect a successor to County Attorney W. V. Dunnam was postponed. Judge Starnes is to return Saturday and it is not expected that any action will be taken toward filling the vacancy until after his arrival. Dunnam's resignation is effective Nov. 1.

As the result of Judge Starnes' absence the number of applications for the office has been held down to fourteen, no other officials being authorized to receive applications for the place.

It is understood that no action will be taken by the commissioners' court on the matter of advertising for bids on the Bankhead highway between Ranger and Cisco until after Judge Starnes and County Engineer Eccles return from Austin.

HAMON EMPLOYES ALL UNION MEN, BUT DON'T EXPECT STRIKE ORDERS

Employees of the Hamon road, although not working under contracts with the company and consequently having no fixed status in the threatened strike, are all union men, according to statements from conductors, engineers, firemen and mechanics yesterday afternoon and this morning. The publication of two articles stating that the men were not organized and that the road would not be affected by the strike have created the impression, the employes state, that the road is being manned by non-union workers.

The statement from railroad officials, however, referred to "organize" in the sense that the men were not working under the national agreement and that the majority of unions did not have locals here, and was not intended to convey the impression that the employes did not possess union cards. All of the employes of the transportation and mechanical departments and the majority of clerks are union men and belong to locals over various parts of the country, it is explained. The conductors of the road handle their affairs through division No. 543 at DeLeon, E. B. Gregory of the Conductors' union stated this morning, and this division also represents the trainmen of the road. The engineers are represented by Local 725 of the Brotherhood of Engineers at Walnut Springs, F. Bush explained. The firemen have a local here. Employees of the road are getting a higher rate of pay at the present time than those of the standardized roads of the country, Gregory and Bush stated, and explained that the road has never cut wages and that no notice of another decrease, such as was announced by the railroad executives of standardized roads, has been received by the Hamon employes.

Just how they will be affected by the strike the men were not in a position to state, but it is the general impression that they will not be called out in the event the strike should occur.

NEFF INVITES MARSHAL FOCH TO VISIT TEXAS

AUSTIN, Oct. 20.—At the instance of the American Legion of Texas, Governor Neff today sent an invitation to Marshal Foch of France to visit Texas and the Waco cotton palace. The invitation was wired to Marshal Foch at Marquette, Mich.

It read: "In the name of the people of Texas, I extend to you a most cordial invitation to visit our state and attend the Texas Cotton Palace, an exhibition of the wonderful products of our country. By coming to our state you will honor and greatly add to the patriotic impulses of 5,000,000 Texans."

BANDITS KILL FARMER, WOUND THREE OTHERS

MURRAY, Iowa, Oct. 20.—One member of a sheriff's posse is dead and three others suffering from serious wounds as a result of a gun battle with four motor car highwaymen near Osceola.

Charles W. Jones, a farmer, is dead; Dr. I. W. Fuller, Charles H. Eaton and John Miller, also members of the posse, were injured by the fire of the bandits, who escaped.

The little town of Columbia, Iowa, was completely ransacked by the gang, every one of the four stores being entered. They stopped on the bank of a creek, where they camped. Jones observed them from his house, and telephoned the sheriff, who came out, deputized Fuller, Eaton and Miller, and challenged the camp. A fusillade of shots answered them, and three deputies fell. Jones rushed to the rescue, and was shot down.

PA. OIL MAKES ANOTHER JUMP

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 20.—Pennsylvania crude oil continued its meteoric advance today and went up 25 cents to $3.50 a barrel, the Joseph Seep Purchasing agency announced.

No increase in Ranger crude was posted today, but it was stated at the offices of one of the pipe line companies that crude would more than likely be boosted here in the next few days.

OBJECT IS TO FREE TWO RED MURDERERS IN MASSACHUSETTS

Bomb Sent Herrick Is Part of Plot; Desperate Deeds Guarded Against in Other Places; U. S. Consulate Attacked.

BREST, France, Oct. 20.—A mob of 1,000 syndicalists marched upon the American consulate here today and smashed windows, singing the "Internationale" and the "Red Flag." The police finally dispersed the crowd.

Reports from European capitals and from South America today indicate the existence of an international communist plot to secure by intimidation the freedom of Nicolo Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti, Italian communists, convicted of the brutal murder of a paymaster and a guard at South Braintree, Mass., July 14.

American ambassadors in Rome, Brussels and London have received threatening letters from communists in this country. Yesterday an attempt was made to assassinate Ambassador Herrick at Paris by means of a bomb sent through the mail, after he had ignored threats from communists in France.

Brazilian communists have sought the influence of the press in Rio de Janeiro in favor of a pardon for the convicted murderers in Massachusetts.

CONWAY WELL SHOT; RAMEY AND JACKSON TO DRILL DEEPER

No oil showing was obtained this afternoon when the Conway well on the Haganman lease, one mile north of town on the Tiffin road, was shot at a depth of approximately 3,245 feet. The well is being cleaned this afternoon and the result will be known by tonight. The well was drilled to a depth of 3,465 feet but before shooting the driller went back approximately 200 feet.

Six-inch casing is now being set in the Ramey-Jackson well at 3,630 feet, according to the latest reports, and it is expected to drill deeper. No oil showing has been found in the well as was reported Tuesday although a gas showing was encountered, it is stated. The well is located off the Caddo road about nine miles north of the city and in the event that it is brought in, would extend the Stewart pool approximately a half mile to the east.

GOVERNMENT WILL CONTROL STOCKYARDS AFTER THIS MONTH

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—A list of the stockyards which under the packers and stockyards bill go under supervision of the secretary of agriculture on Nov. 1 was issued today. It lists fifty-four yards in almost as many cities throughout the country. Sixteen others will be added as their status under the bill is confirmed officially.

The department will soon issue tentative regulations for the control of stockyards, based on the law, Secretary Wallace said.

Hearings on proposed modifications will be held during the two weeks beginning Nov. 7, at Fort Worth, Kansas City, Denver, Portland and Chicago, by Chester Morrill, assistant secretary, who is in charge of enforcement of the law.

Government supervisors will be placed in all the yards.

DRY LAW CASE AGAINST ARBUCKLE POSTPONED

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 20.—Robt. H. McCormick, special assistant United States attorney general, announced today that he would not press the charge of violating the prohibition laws against Roscoe Arbuckle until after the charge of manslaughter against Arbuckle had been disposed of in the state court. He said he feared a prohibition prosecution at this time would interfere with the prosecution of Arbuckle's for alleged responsibility for the death of Virginia Rappe, actress.

EX-OFFICER FINED FOR CONTEMPT OF COURT

EASTLAND, Oct. 20.—Aaron Bryant, former deputy sheriff of Eastland county, was fined $100 for contempt of court this morning when he failed to appear as a witness in the case of F. C. Decker of Cisco, charged with theft, which was set for trial this morning before Judge E. A. Hill in the Eighty-eighth district court. An attachment was issued for Bryant and a deputy dispatched to Gorman where the witness was reported to be spending the day.

DANCE AND BE BEAUTIFUL IS LONDON EDICT

By EARLE C. REEVES, International News Service Staff Correspondent.

LONDON, Oct. 20.—Dance and be beautiful. It is the latest London cult.

Mr. Edward Scott is the new prophet and the book of the gospel is his book "Dancing for Strength and Beauty."

But one may also dance and be ugly, naturally, considering the wide assortment of contortions to be selected from. It stands to reason, the prophet infers, that all dances do not make one beautiful.

It's this way:

Beauty Tip.
"Dancing of a superior order, renaissance dancing, combining the elegance of the ancient Greeks with the vivacity of sixteenth- to eighteenth-century ideals, does actually tend to improve the locks of those who practice it."

"Dances that produce exhilaration, like the genuine waltz, tend unmistakably to soften the features and brighten the facial expression of the dancer."

But, above all, be not gymnastic.

However proficient and graceful you may become by gymnastic training and constant practice it will never admit you to the ranks of the beauty cult. Severe strain tends to "harden the features."

And certainly beauty is not to be wooed "by practicing some of the decadent wriggling movements that recently disgraced our ballrooms."

The real, triple-riveted answer is the minuet. That is the "dance par excellence best adapted for the promotion of grace and beauty."

And then the catch—there's always a catch in such things somewhere. All the world cannot run out and acquire grace and beauty instantly tomorrow night.

For the real minuet, the one guaranteed to cure all comers of homeliness isn't danced any more; it isn't known, and few there are who can teach it.

TWO RESOLUTIONS ATTACK SHIP BOARD

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—A double-barreled drive against the United States shipping board was initiated in congress today. DEDDHAM, Mass., Oct. 20.—Hearing of a motion for a new trial for Nicolo Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti, convicted murderers and avowed radicals, will be held here Saturday morning, it was learned today. The two Italians, on whose behalf the communists throughout the world are alleged to be planning revenge, were tried and convicted in superior court here for the murder of Frederick A. Parmenter, a shoe factory paymaster, and Alessandro Baradelli, guard, who were shot to death in broad daylight in a South Braintree street on April 15, 1920.

SCOUT MASTERS ARE NAMED; TROOPS TO BE FORMED IN SCHOOLS

The organization of Troop A, Boy Scouts, was completed yesterday afternoon at the noon luncheon of the Rotary club with the election of Cleveland Baker, principal of the Cooper school, and W. J. Harrington, principal of the Central ward school, as scoutmaster and assistant scoutmaster, respectively. A club donation for organization expenses and individual donations to assist in scout work were announced at the luncheon. Scoutmasters Baker and Harrington told of their plans for the troop and explained the methods contemplated to make the organization a success. Rotarians have already made application for a charter from the national council of Boy Scouts, it was announced.

Rotarians hope to organize Boy Scout troops at all of the ward schools and feel that from the experience met with at the Cooper school in the organization of Troop A, that there will be no difficulty in perfecting organizations in each of the others. Fifty applications were received for membership in the troop from the Cooper school alone, it is stated, but all could not be accepted at this time as the maximum troop strength is thirty-two.

TOMORROW WILL BE CIRCUS DAY, WITH BIG STREET PARADE AT NOON

Tomorrow the city will be permeated with circus atmosphere, with the appearance of the Gentry Bros. show and wild animal arena; promptly at noon the street parade, which is said to be the best the Gentry management has ever offered, will wind its way through the business section of the city, and the peculiar rattle of the show wagons, the music of the four bands and the two calliopes will cheer the hearts of the youngsters of every age, for we are all young on occasions like this.

At the show grounds, the smell of sawdust and tanbark, the glitter of gold and silver trappings, the sparkling spangles and the antics of the clowns, both human and animal, will remove the frown from the pessimist, increase the joy of the optimist, and proclaim to all the fact that

TWO MEN IN RACE FOR GERMAN AMBASSADOR

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—President Harding's choice for American ambassador to Germany, which post is expected to be filled soon after the exchange of ratification of the treaty of Berlin, is understood to have narrowed down virtually to two men—David James Hill, former American ambassador to Germany, and Representative A. B. Houghton of Corning, N. Y.

FIFTEEN THOUSAND DOLLAR CAR BOUGHT BY—MAKE ONE GUESS

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—Henry Ford bought for his own use a $15,000 automobile, built by the Lanchester Motor company, of Birmingham, England, according to George Lanchester, technical chief of the company, who sailed for home on board the White Star steamship Olympic. The Lanchester car, according to its designer, is the most expensive automobile made in Great Britain, and the car ordered by Ford it is said, will be the finest the company can turn out.

Mr. Lanchester has been in this country for two weeks and has inspected the Ford plant at Detroit, the Packard plant and the Brewster bodies factory. Another owner of one of his cars he said was the Maharajah of Rewah of India.

TRIES HIMSELF FOR FIGHTING; PAYS FINE

BISHOP, Texas, Oct. 20.—Justice of the Peace J. E. Graves of this town, following a recent fight, in which he was a participant, carefully proceeded to put himself under arrest, charged with disturbing the peace. He arraigned himself as prisoner before himself as judge, and assessed and collected a fine from himself as prisoner. Then, as judge, he turned the fine over to the county, and turned himself as prisoner, loose, with a warning to be more law abiding in the future. Graves declared this will place him more in a position to sit in judgment on others.

WANTED EVEN BREAK.

"Why did you give up that fine chance to be a motion picture star in a wild west scenario?" "I don't want no advantages," answered Cactus Joe. "I want to be a regular actor or nothin'." If any of the boys in the audience don't happen to like my performin' I want him to have a chance to hand me his opinion right across the footlights; me—of course, havin' the same opportunities fur defendin' my art."—Washington Star.

Applications to Be Taken.

Applications will still be received however, and another troop raised as soon as a sufficient number is received. Scoutmaster Baker is said to be particularly fitted for his work, having served for four years as scout master of a troop at Canyon, Texas.

The Rotary club will sponsor the Boy Scout movement here under the plan adopted by the International Association of Rotary clubs for boys' work, which includes the scout movement and spiritual and educational assistance to the youth of the country. The club made provisions to loan money to members of the troop who were unable to meet the expense at this time, besides contributing funds for organization purposes. J. T. Gullahorn will purchase uniforms for two members of the troop who are unable to obtain money for the purpose. Other donations made by individual members of the club include: Two tents donated by E. M. Humes, chairman of the boys' work committee, for summer encampment; axes and other camp tools by W. E. Burke, general manager of the Norvell-Wilder Hardware company, and $5 in cash by D. F. McCarty.

life is of a rosy hue after all. During the parade a sixty-pound Shetland colt, born in, and named after Houston, will get almost his first glimpse of a parade crowd, and will doubtless register approval, if such is possible, of the "passing throng."

Little "Houston" is a great favorite with the children, so much so, that, being missed in Tulsa, he was found three blocks from the show grounds, in the arms of a youngster, supposedly, on route to the child's home. Now, a pony boy is delegated to watch over the little equine, and upon arrival in winter quarters at Houston, the little Texan will enter the show's annual "kindergarten" and next year he will be doing stunts to amuse his juvenile admirers.

There are 110 pure Shetland ponies with the show, and all are docile and love the little folks.

ARMY WILL SELL MUCH LAND NO LONGER NEEDED

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The war department today announced it will sell at auction more than seventy real estate tracts over the country, regarded as useless for present or future army purposes. Among the tracts to be sold as soon as authorization can be obtained from congress are many obtained during the war for special purposes, but the sale will include a number of old-time forts and military post sites. Among the latter is the Fort Henry, Maryland reservation with the exception of a small tract on which will be erected a monument to Francis Scott Key, author of "The Star-Spangled Banner."

The real estate holdings to be sold include:

- Texas—Love field septic tank.
 - Oklahoma—Lincoln county range.
- All property will be sold to the highest bidder. In disposing of it, the war department will give the locality or community in which it is situated an opportunity to purchase the property, and especial consideration will be given in case of any property having historical interest.

DOG SAVES COWS.

CONGRESS, Ohio, Oct. 20.—"Bounce," a shepherd dog, is the hero of Congress. He risked his life to save six cows for his master, Walter Johnson, during a fire on the Johnson farm.

While the barn was a seething furnace "Bounce" was sent in to bring out the cows. The dog obeyed, bringing out one cow at a time, barking and snapping at the heels.

Flaming embers were dropping from all sides, but the dog seemed fearless. He saved all but two cows. He started after the remaining two but his master held him, fearing he would die in the flames.

FARMER PUZZLED.

NASHUA, Ia., Oct. 20.—Farming is a queer business, Henry Maloy mused, as he jostled along on a lumber wagon on his way home from market. He had just sold a load of corn and a crate of chickens. The load of corn brought $14.04. The crate of chickens, twenty-two in all, brought him $15.66 or $162 more than his load of corn. Maloy does not know what to think about this farming business, when a single crate of chickens brings more than a full load of corn.

FORD MAY PURCHASE ANOTHER RAILWAY IF FIGURES ARE RIGHT

Copyright by United Press. CINCINNATI, Ohio, Oct. 20.—"If the government will let me have Muscle Shoals, I'll teach it something about solving unemployment problems."

Henry Ford, automobile manufacturer and owner of the Detroit, Toledo & Ironton railroad, made that statement in an exclusive interview prior to his departure for West Virginia coal fields.

"There is a job in this country for every man who wants to work," he said.

The Muscle Shoals plant was established by the government during the war for manufacture of nitrates. Ford has offered to take over the establishment to manufacture fertilizer, but his offer has not been accepted.

Although his party is not concerning itself with negotiations for purchase of other railroad lines, Ford announced that his secretary was to consult with officials of the Cincinnati, Milford & Blanchester Traction line.

"If the figure is right, I have told my secretary to notify officials of the road that I would be interested," he said. The road would be converted into a branch of the Detroit, Toledo & Ironton railway.

B. H. Kroger, one of the principal owners of the C., M. & B. line, announced that Ford held an option on the road.

MEDICAL MEN ENDORSE FERRASAL

DOCTORS AND DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE KNOW VALUE OF MINERALS

Ferrasal contains the same elements as the most famous European mineral waters. It contains nothing harmful or painful in its action. Its elements include Calcium (Lime) and Iron, Acid Citrates, Acid Tartrates and the Sodiums. All of these elements are vital to the human system and are particularly needed to relieve and tone up the digestive organs.

DR. C. F. DYSON—of Minneapolis, Minn., says: "The majority of cases of weakened physical condition which ultimately leads to tuberculosis are caused by a deficiency of lime in the system." (See Journal of American Medical Association, issue 7-27-12, page 308.)

Druggists everywhere recommend Ferrasal because they know it benefits the system. If one package does not convince you the trial will cost you nothing.

SKUNK TRAINED TO GUARD BOOZE MAKER'S CACHE

DENVER, Oct. 20.—A squad of federal prohibition agents this week raided a lonely shack in a field near Watkins, Colo., expecting to find a moonshine plant.

What they found, they say, was a trained skunk in charge of the premises.

The skunk, annoyed at being disturbed, made not the slightest attempt to conceal his vexation, according to Director McClenahan. It advanced upon the bold sleuths "company front." It might have been a whole flying squadron as far as results achieved were concerned. McClenahan's staff is made up of bold men, some of them inclined to be contentious in small matters. But none of them made any attempt to argue the right of way with the skunk.

They arrived in Denver an hour later, pale of face and out of breath. Also they were one and all trembling with indignation.

"Violating the prohibition law is bad enough," Director McClenahan wheezed as he plumped into his swivel chair and fanned himself. "But anybody who will deliberately train a cold-blooded skunk to violate the law—well, hanging's too good for him."

At last reports the skunk was still guarding the shack, triumphantly seated on the door sill and waving its furry tail flauntingly at passing automobiles.

ONLY HALF OF STEPHENSON CASE WITNESSES APPEAR

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 20.—More than half the 177 witnesses subpoenaed in the case of the Rev. Edwin R. Stephenson, who is charged with second-degree murder in connection with the slaying of Father James E. Coyle, failed to respond when the roster of witnesses was read Monday, preparatory to beginning Stephenson's trial.

The defense announced that it was ready, but the state asked for time to round up important witnesses.

Mrs. Ruth Stephenson Gussman, daughter of the defendant and principal witness for the state at the preliminary trial, was one of those who failed to answer. Gussman, summoned by the defense, was present.

OUR MISTAKE
Through a mistake on the part of the Times, the admission prices to the Majestic during the run of "The Old Nest," were printed in the advertisement yesterday as 10, 20 and 30 cents, when they should have read, 10, 30 and 50 cents. The feature picture that is being shown at the theatre makes the increased prices necessary, the management states. The prices as printed in the advertisement yesterday are the regular admission prices at the Majestic.

MANHATTAN

At the Manhattan theatre last night, where "Queenie," the Fox picture starring Shirley Mason, opened an engagement, the occasion marked a triumphant re-entry of the popular star in a photoplay the interest in which was maintained at a high point from the first scene to the final climax. "Queenie" the play and Queenie the heroine scored success with a capital "S."

TEMPLE

Douglas Fairbanks overtops all his previous pictures with Dumas' immortal romance, "The Three Musketeers." In all fiction there is not another hero of romance to equal D'Artagnan. He is the embodiment of every youthful virtue—even to a complete collection of lovable faults. His stout heart, generous soul, high sense of honor, love of a good fight and a good laugh, forgetfulness of self, devotion to his queen, and skill with his sword make him a most fascinating figure.

To the portrayal of such a character Douglas Fairbanks brings his remarkable agility and proficiency, and fights, swims, and rides his way through the part with bewildering ease and brilliant effect.

In "The Three Musketeers" which comes to the Temple theatre Friday for a three days' showing, both Fairbanks and the screen have come into his own.

last! "The Old Nest," a story of mother love and self-sacrifice common to every family the world over, which was shown at the Majestic theatre last night, is the work of Rupert Hughes, the eminent American novelist. There is humor and there are tears in this plain story of daily life as we all know it. Not a person in the audience was free from the grip of its appeal.

If you like to laugh, if you enjoy a gentle weeping spell, if you want to see yourself, your brothers and sisters, your father and your mother on the screen go and see "The Old Nest."

While this story is gripping, it has a different hold on the emotions than the usual thriller. There isn't one melodramatic scene. Yet this picture held the audience at the Majestic theatre more strongly than any melodrama ever filmed. And the reason is that "The Old Nest" is a genuine story, beautifully acted and excellently produced.

LAMB

D. W. Griffith's spectacle, "The Birth of a Nation," began its engagement at the Lamb theatre last night. There will be two performances daily, at 2:30 and 8:00 p. m.

Nothing like this wonderful attraction has ever been seen upon the local boards. It is given here exactly as presented recently in New York City where the drama set a new record for attendance at the famous Capitol theatre playing to over 46,000 in one week and to more than 150,000 people in a fortnight.

It covers a wide range of American history and touches only the highest points of interest in the great events that preceded and terminated the civil war. The force that slavery played in producing this crisis is traced from its inception to its abolition. While the basic theme is historical, 18,000 people fill the stage which has a vast territory for its background, 3,000 horses pass before your view in wild dashes over miles of country roadway. The decisive battles of the civil war are reproduced in faithful detail and you see these conflicts fought again just as they were waged over fifty years ago. One enormous battlefield is shown stretching over an area of ten square miles and upon these plains and trenches 10,000 soldiers clash in a warfare that is as real as if you were an eye-witness of the actual occurrence. Holding the great effects in together is a story as tender and true as love and romance can be pictured. There are tears and smiles, noble sacrifices and heroic deeds of personal valor.

HAMON FILM BARRED BY NEW YORK COMMISSION

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—"Fate," the Clara Smith Hamon picture made in Los Angeles following the close of the murder trial in Oklahoma, has been rejected by the motion picture commission of New York. Senator George Cobb, chairman of the commission, said the picture was "too real" and "too true to life." He added that it would have a tendency to incite crime.

FEMALE RAFFLES RIFLES SLEEPING MAN'S POCKETS

A negro charged with robbing a white man of over $150 Tuesday night, was arrested yesterday by the police and is being held for investigation. The woman, it is claimed, found the man asleep in an automobile on North Marston street and rifled his pockets. Two other negro women claimed to have witnessed the robbery and to have refused to accept a division of the money.

TOO MUCH QUESTIONING.

OLD WORDS MADE NEW.

Abilene, aside from building some more colleges, a big lake and other improvements, makes another bid for fame. Not only does it pass some new traffic rules, but in so doing it amends the dictionary, or rather the meaning of a common law or slang phrase, namely, "joyriding."

Joyriding, according to the Abilene interpretation, is "the act of persons in motor cars driving up and down business streets with no object in view but their own pleasure, and who continually pass and repass through busy business streets unnecessarily."

Thereby, Abilene pokes a wallop at the automobile industry, and if its example should be generally followed, there would be a general shaking of auto folks' fists and hard expressions crackling like thunder over the heads of that city's councilmen. What for are autos, anyway, but for persons to drive about with no object in view but their own pleasure? Lately, 'tis true, there has been an increase in trucks used for purely utilitarian purposes of getting something done. But when it is simmered down to fundamentals, the automobile is about 98 per cent used for pleasure. The man who has to have one is mistaken; he has merely deluded himself into thinking that his pleasure is a necessity.

The larger cities, with 100 miles or more of paving, have traffic problems, too, based on the pleasure car. It is different, because they have more miles of paving and the motorist does not have to go over the same ground. But this traffic is just as heavy on many streets as that of the smaller cities on one or two. And it is nearly all pleasure riding.

In the smaller towns, with a smaller paving mileage, motorists are going to ride up and down, because of the smooth riding provided. This will be done at hours when the streets are deserted, so far as industry is concerned.

Our first guess is that Abilene's new ordinance will be obsolete before it goes into effect. It can only stir up rancor in the hearts of those who will think they are haled into court over nothing. It gives officers too much opportunity to discriminate, or at least it will give many persons that belief.

The sales tax is not rejected by the proposed compromise on the senate taxation bill, but merely postponed for further consideration, and the campaign of popular education as to its possibilities should go on.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

AUTOMOBILES
CASE OF STRIKE

By United Press.
By PAUL R. MELLON,
United Press Correspondent.
NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—The nation's fleet of ten million motor cars is being prepared for mobilization to transport food in the event of a general railroad strike. Lists of all trucks and passenger cars in the country are being prepared for national, state and civic authorities so that they can be taken over in case of emergency.

"The government would be empowered to seize all vehicles in time of dire necessity," F. W. Fenn, secretary of the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce, told the United Press today.

Broke English Tie-up.
"If all the railroad workers of the United States go out on a general strike, we are making preparations to help the government take over all auto trucks and even passenger cars. There are approximately 1,000,000 trucks available for service. They can haul food and transport passengers on short hauls. There are 9,000,000 passenger cars. We look to airplanes for speedy passenger service over long distances. This will break any railroad tie-up. It did in England, where there was not half the organization in the motor trade that there is here today.

"We believe that if the strike is called, and if the trucks of the nation are utilized as they must be, they will supplant the railroads in many parts of the country.

"Trucks can transport freight over short distances at cheaper rates and secure speedier delivery than trains."

NEGROES WHIP WHITE MAN FOR "ASSOCIATING"

TEXARKANA, Oct. 20.—A mob of negroes severely whipped a white man and negro woman who were discovered together near the negro baseball park several nights ago, according to officials who investigated the matter. The whipping was kept secret until yesterday.

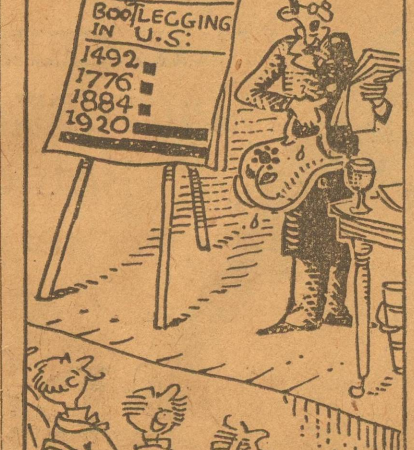

Officials declared that both were whipped until their backs were badly lacerated. The negro woman was first whipped. While the whipping was going on the white man attempted to get away, but was caught and whipped.

MAKING A JOB.

Making a job grow where one never grew before is a valuable accomplishment these days, when some six million men in these United States are looking for a payroll with signature room.

Harry Carroll, a San Francisco man, to whom adversity is just a strop for his wits, found himself "up against it" when he was discharged from the hospital about two weeks ago, after six months of suffering from injuries inflicted by a reckless motorist. He had been a skilled automobile mechanic, but with four ribs broken at the spine and with a twisted vertebrae this work he could no longer do.

Carroll may have broken ribs but he has plenty of backbone left. He didn't take a hatful of pencils or a box of sweet lavender and go out on Market street to horrify the nickels and dimes out of the harassed pedestrian. He racked his brain for an idea, and he got one.

Every day now you can find Carroll at the Ferry building working among the long lines of cars that are awaiting the transbay ferries, tiding up the automobiles as the owners wait.

For 10 or 15 cents Carroll will polish a windshield, take the dust off hood and fenders. For proportionate sums he changes tires, turns down grease cups, tightens bolts and does one hundred other of the little things that force themselves on the attention of motorists when they wait in line in their cars. It's a job no one thought of before.

Business is picking up. People are getting to know Carroll. They like his rates and his work and they look for him at the Ferry building.

To unemployed men the moral of Harry Carroll is that there may be lots of jobs not listed in the want ads.—San Francisco Bulletin.

RIISING LIBERTY BOND PRICES.

The most notable financial fact of the day is the recovery in prices of the Liberty war-loan issues. All of them save the 3 1/2's of the first loan are now above 90 and still going strong. The gains from the low of the year have amounted to $4 and $5 on the $100 for most issues on heavy buying.

This is a highly encouraging symptom for the general business outlook. Some of the strength in these bonds is no doubt due to treasury buying for the sinking fund. But the major causes are larger and deeper. As the low prices had resulted from the forced liquidation of individuals and corporations in more or less distress for want of cash, so the present sharp turnaround in the market indicates that liquidation in that quarter is well over.

Money is cheaper all around. This is another cause of the strength in Liberty bonds. Even at the present higher prices for the best security in the world, the yield on these bonds of maturities five years or so away, if held to maturity, is above 6 per cent, while railroad equipment notes are being easily floated to yield less than 6 per cent.

But money is cheaper all around for the reason that liquidation has been extending all around. And if liquidation is over in Liberty bonds it is inferable that it is about over in other markets.—New York World.

TOO MUCH SUPERVISION
CAUSE OF R. R. TROUBLES

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—In the event the threatened railroad strike materializes, the roads are prepared to do our utmost to move necessities, utilizing to the fullest possible extent all the manpower available, Charles H. Markham, president of the Illinois Central declared Wednesday in an address before the American Mining congress.

Mr. Markham said the present transportation tangle was due to the fact that ninety-nine public bodies have a hand in fixing the rules, income and expense of the roads and that the roads have no voice in the expenditure of more than 97 per cent of their money.

"The remedy is to place once more into the hands of railroad managements, under competent and broad-minded supervision, the control of operating costs, in such a way that responsibility may be properly fixed upon the managements for the operation of their properties," Markham asserted. The railroads, he said, have taken their share of losses in the present period of depression, despite the fact that they were not permitted to profit as other industries were during the period of high prices because their earnings were fixed by the government.

SAN ANTONIO BOYS GIVE
TESTIMONY ON CRUELTY

By United Press.
SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 20.—Three former inmates of the juvenile training school at Gatesville, were examined at the county jail here Wednesday, where they are held for offenses committed since their discharge from the school. They were questioned as to charges of brutality and cruelty to inmates, about which the board of control has only recently completed an inquiry. They were examined by A. R. Johnson, member of the board.

Johnson came to San Antonio following receipt of a telegram from State Senator Hertzberg, asking that the boys be heard. When he received the telegram, Johnson said that the board already had enough evidence to form its conclusions, but he later decided to hear the evidence the boys had to offer.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—New York and Pennsylvania national guard units which were scheduled for participation in the exercises at the burial of the American unknown soldier in Arlington cemetery on Armistice day have been eliminated from the program and only troops nearer Washington will be used.

Limited funds provided by congress to care for expenses of the ceremony was said to be responsible for the change in plans.

WE'RE PRETTY BAD HERE, SAYS EVANGELIST

Ranger hotels, moving picture shows and drug stores all came in for a large share of the general condemnation of the city last night at the hands of Evangelist L. C. Garrison. Sold out to the Devil, Lock, Stock and Barrel. Declaring that the Sabbath day was being desecrated by the movies, that "jake" constituted a large part of the retail drug business here and that lewd women thronged the hotels, the evangelist shouted that in this "two-by-four town you have no more respect for the Lord's Day than you have for the dirtiest negro gambler."

In one drug store, he said, over 50 per cent of the business last Saturday was from the sale of jake, and quoted a druggist of Humble as stating that the standards of the drug business were being lowered. "If ever a town was cursed with social impurity, it is Ranger," the speaker said, and declared that women with the mark of sin on their faces could be seen on every hand, on the streets, in drug stores and hotels. He claimed to have information as to the number of "lewd women" rooming in one of the hotels now and declared that officers who permitted such conditions to exist ought to be run out.

The men of the town were declared moral cowards for not running these responsible for such conditions out of town. Attacks Social Parties. The evangelist attacked gambling from every angle, including the social card parties for prizes, and punch boards and characterized gamblers as on the level of thieves. Women who play cards for prizes are no better than gamblers, he said. Swearing and gossiping were catalogued as tools of the devil and he dwelt at length on gossiping as one of the evils responsible for a large part of the troubles of communities. In his sermon last night the minister took his text from Esau's sale of his birthright and declared that the city had sold out to the devil for the evils enumerated above. Three united with the church following the sermon and special pleas made by the evangelist.

Rev. Mr. Garrison announced that tonight he would preach on "God's Remedy for Sin, or a Sure Cure for Snakebite;" Friday night on "Bombarding the Fort of Hell;" Saturday afternoon on "The Hard Way; Saturday night on "Mother, Home and Heaven;" and Sunday night on "The Unpardonable Sin."

SALVATION IS MATTER OF PROFIT AND LOSS, DR. CHAPPELL'S MESSAGE

Methodist Meeting Closes With Tonight's Services; More Than Forty Additions Made to Church; High School Students Hear Address on "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde."

The revival meeting at the Methodist church will close tonight, it is announced, in order that Dr. Ashley Chappell may have a few days rest before returning to his pulpit at Broadway Methodist church, Ardmore. The meetings have been very successful, more than forty additions to the church resulting from the constructive and helpful sermons which Dr. Chappell has delivered.

Dr. Chappell's subject Wednesday night was "The Price of a Soul," taken from the text "What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul?"

In his sermon, the minister pictured man as possessing two properties: Property No. 1, the world, and property No. 2, the soul. Comparing these, he said in part:

Simple Question. "The question is not metaphysical or philosophical, but simply a question of profit and loss—which men have to deal with every day.

"Both properties are valuable. I am not one to demean the world; it's a good world with its zones of stars and its mountains and seas. It offers large fields of investment. Yes, property No. 1 is a great property. But to be frank with you, the title is only temporary, because the world will fail us, and when a man finds that he must leave a certain piece of property he must make some arrangements.

"Property No. 2, which is the soul, I belabor myself to speak to of this, because we are so accustomed to speak of things in terms of size.

SWEET ADALINE: My wardrobe thought it was complete until Humes put those Angora scarfs in the window. It is hardly fair to have them all so pretty; too much tax on the mind deciding which to buy. I crave the green one while I am looking at it. But when I see the brown I want that too. Perhaps mother can be induced to purchase one and then I will have them both. Your partner in crime, MABEL.
