Five Wounded in Illinois Train Robbery

DYNAMITE AND BOMBS ARE USED BY 10 BANDITS

Bonfire of Mail Throws Lurid Flame Over 35-Minute Battle.

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Nov. 8.—A pouch supposed to contain $100,000 in cash was the object of the train robbery who last night held up the Illinois Central New Orleans Limited near Paxton, Ill., twenty miles north of here, according to railroad men today. The robbers had the pouch and lost it, the railroad men said. The robbery was one of the most spectacular of the present generation, according to trainmen and mail employees. The mail car was dynamited and set on fire and a continual exchange of shots between passengers and the bandits was going on during the robbery.

Some of the robbers boarded the train and made prisoners of the engine crew before reaching the bridge across the Vermillion river. There the train was halted with the passenger cars on the bridge, and the advance guard of the robbers met their companions, who had reached the scene in automobiles. The engineer was forced out of his cab and used as cover by the bandits to induce the mail clerks to open their door.

At this point, passengers at the far end of the train began shooting and the bandits casually replied with their revolvers while directing the mail clerks to throw out the sacks of registered letters. The band searched the sacks in the presence of their victims and when they found no valuables, made bonfires of the mail, the flames

YOUNG WIDOW GRILLED AFTER HUSBAND'S BODY IS TAKEN FROM RIVER

DETROIT, Nov. 8.—Rose Laborola, 19 years old, widow of Stephano Laborola, hurled to his death in Detroit river two weeks ago after being bound hand and foot and trussed with a rope, still stoutly denied all knowledge of the slaying after a night of grilling in the women's detention home.

An examination of the body of Laborola, who was a fruit dealer, was conducted this morning. A rope used in trussing the victim is the only clew in the hands of police.

Laborola's body had been bent into jack-knife shape and firmly tied. It was in this posture when lifted from the river at the foot of Orleans street. The rope used in trussing with a piece found at the home of the dead man. This clew led to the arrest of the widow and Peter Alimis, former suitor.

SIX ARE DEAD IN 'OLD KENTUCKY' ELECTION FUSS

Shooting Starts When Man's Right to Vote Is Questioned.

JACKSON, Ky., Nov. 8.—Six men were killed and five others were wounded in an election fight shortly after the polls opened this morning at Clay Hole precinct, on Troublesome creek, Breathitt county.

A special train was sent from Junction with physicians to attend the wounded. Sheriff Roberts and deputies immediately set out for the isolated village in automobiles.

First word of the shooting came from Walter Long, at Lost Creek near the scene of the shooting. The voting place at Clay Hole a village of 100 population is in a schoolhouse. Meager reports do not say whether or not any arrests were made.

Roberts was told the shooting started over contest of voters' right to cast his ballot. Men rushed into the polling place and the shooting began. When the smoke had cleared away, the six men were lifeless on the floor. There has been intense feeling in the election especially in the contest between partisans of Sam Cockrill, Democrat, and John Gandrill, Republican candidate for sheriff.

WOMAN IS OKLAHOMA'S FARMING CHAMPION

By Associated Press.

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Nov. 8.—A real dirt farmer is Mrs. Sidney Sharpe of Porum, south of here in this county, who has been designated the champion producer of oats in eastern Oklahoma this year. Her farm lands yielded seventy bushels to the acre, an average, whereas many other farmers in the neighborhood produced but twenty-five to thirty bushels.

Mrs. Sharpe is the largest woman land owner in Muskogee county. She holds title to 800 acres, 500 of which were in cultivation last year.

Mrs. Sharpe is a student of diversified farming. Although her land is located in a rich cotton country, she devotes but a reasonable acreage to that staple. In addition to raising oats and wheat, she produces corn, kafir, sorghum and other feed crops.

MAKES HIMSELF FORTUNE BY GETTING IN BAD WITH LAW

By Associated Press.

GENEVA, Nov. 8.—The collapse in Austrian exchange turned a police court fine into a fortune for an Austrian army officer who has just been sentenced to pay fifty francs at Buchs for assaulting a customs official before the war. The officer then was released upon cash bail 5,000 Swiss francs, deposited at a time when the crown was equivalent to the franc.

36th SAW HANGING.

By United Press.

BEAUMONT, Nov. 8.—Members of the Thirty-Sixth division were allowed to witness the hanging of a negro at Bar-Su-Aube, France, August, 1918. W. O. Haskell, city veterinarian here, member of the Thirty-Sixth during the war, said today.

The negro, whose name he could not recall, had been given a fair court-martial sentence on a charge of attacking a middle-aged French woman, Dr. Haskell said.

INSANITY WILL BE DEFENSE OF WAYNE TODD

First Witnesses Tell Gruesome Tale of the Finding of McNeal.

WEATHERFORD, Nov. 8.—Claude Lasiter unfolded the bloody story of the finding of James McNeal's body to the jury trying Wayne Todd for the murder of McNeal here today.

Lasiter declared on the stand that he saw some birds light in a tree near the ravine. He said he glanced up the ravine and saw what he thought was the body of a man. It proved to be McNeal.

With blood and gashes on his head and blood splattered on his face and clothing, with his clothes torn to shreds and pulled half off him, with red ants crawling over his bare legs—the body of James McNeal was found lying in a deep ravine near Aledo, Lasiter told the jury.

Spectators listened in silence to the story.

Jose Gilbert, deputy sheriff of Weatherford, was the next witness. He told of finding a path made when the body was dragged to the secluded spot. He told of finding splashes of blood, a knife and other trinkets along the path. He said signs of a terrible death struggle were evident. A pool of blood—one foot in diameter—was found eight or ten feet from where the body was discovered, according to Gilbert.

Both Lasiter and Gilbert when cross-examined by the defense declared they did not know who inflicted the wounds.

Gilbert said he examined the wounds and found a soft spot on the back of McNeal's head.

Sam Gray, justice of the peace at Aledo, was next called to the stand.

Last Juror Chosen.

The last juror for the trial of Wayne Todd, one of the three men charged with the murder of James McNeal, Fort Worth service car driver, was chosen this morning and the taking of testimony started.

Court opened promptly at 9 o'clock. Although there were only a scattered gathering of witnesses when the examination of witnesses was resumed, the seats filled rapidly as it became apparent the jury would soon be completed.

Wayne Todd, the prisoner, accompanied by his father and mother and the guard of rangers, entered the court room shortly before 9. Todd took his seat, rested his head on his hands and stared at the floor. His expression never changed.

Spectators Scarcied. Rangers guarded the various entrances and again searched all spectators for firearms. Examination of witnesses was immediately started. After nine of the twenty men in the new panel had been examined, the last juror was accepted. He was Will Henshaw, 39, a farmer living near Whitt.

The state has fifteen fact witnesses and a large number of others who will be placed on the stand. It is expected Todd's attorneys will plead insanity. Todd's mother and father were sworn as witnesses and forced to leave their son. Mrs. James McNeal, wife of the murdered man, and a sister of McNeal's were also here as witnesses.

Relatives Present.

A number of relatives of the three men accused of the murder were here. A Miss Robbins, accompanied by her mother, was here. It was said Miss Robbins was to have married Forrest Dawson, one of the three men accused of the murder.

MEN WHO LIMIT FIREARMS NOT TO LIMIT FIREWATER

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—The possession of liquor by delegates to the limitation of arms conference will be limited only by their carrying capacity.

This opinion became official today, when it was announced that the main foreign delegates will come to the conference with the full rank of ambassadors. Every foreign ambassador has extraterritorial rights, and even his liquid possessions are immune from seizure by the American authorities.

LAD OF 12 INDICTED. HAZARD, Ky., Nov. 8.—Among the forty persons indicted for murder in reports of the last two sessions of the Perry county grand jury here is Boyd Lewis, 12 years old, accused of having killed a playmate, Willie Hurd, 15 years old.

The tragedy took place in Perry county not far from Hazard. It was assumed at first that it was an accident, but developments led to an investigation.

WASTED SACRIFICE

By United Press.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Nov. 8.—The term H. W. Hailey served in the federal penitentiary here in payment of a "soldier's death" has been in vain, it was apparent today. Following Hailey's release, government officials announced they were looking for Thomas W. Jones, Hailey's overseas "buddy."

Hailey, at the close of the war, took Jones' name and assumed by a ruse which federal officials failed to discover until recently, a prison sentence which Jones had hanging over him. Hailey explained he did this for Jones because the latter saved his life while the two were in the army in France.

"Jones' wife needed him, and it was the least I could do to repay him for saving my life," Hailey declared. Jones is thought to be in Canada.

MERCHANTS ON BOOSTER JAUNT TO NORTHEAST

Ten-Piece Band and Special Edition of Times, are Taken Along.

The Retail Merchants' booster party left this morning for the trade excursion over the Ranger trade territory, accompanied by a ten-piece band and a number of business men of the city. Some fifteen cars, decorated with Ranger banners, left the corner of Main and Austin streets shortly after 8 o'clock for the swing north into Stephens county and east and south into Palo Pinto and Erath counties. The party will return tonight after spreading the gospel of the Ranger trade days and the advantages of this city as a trading center for the section, in the towns of Leacassa, Frankell, Necessity, Breckenridge, Ivan, Caddo, Strawn, Mingus and Thurber.

Copies of a special booster edition of the Times will be distributed over the section, together with handbills advertising the rodeo to be held here Friday.

The rodeo committee expects to draw a number of the riders and ropers from the territories through which the boosters are traveling today. Considerable interest has been aroused among the local talent and several are already practicing various stunts at Nitro park during their odd moments.

CHAMPIONSHIP OF OIL FIELDS DECIDED FRIDAY

After routing the Breckenridge team Saturday, Ranger High is all set for the crucial game Friday with Cisco. A victory in this battle will give Ranger the undisputed championship of the oil belt.

Despite an impenetrable line that has resisted all attacks since the early game of the season, and an aggressive backfield, the Rangerites are expecting a hard game. They recall the hard battle when Cisco held them to a 7-7 tie early in the season, and with a home crowd to cheer them on, expect Cisco to play a determined game.

The High school is prepared to make the trip in cars and many supporters of the hard-hitting, clean fighting aggregation are going over with them to see the bang-up game that is bound to result when the two teams clash.

'PROTECTION MONEY' CHARGE TO BE PROBED

So Nolley Tells Law and Order League; 'Men Wanted Here,' Says Langston.

Official inquiry will be made into assertions that $675 in "protection" money were collected here in one week and taken to Eastland, where it was split three ways by "unknown parties," Sheriff Sam Nolley declared last night at the close of the Law and Order league meeting at the Christian tabernacle.

Prohibition Enforcement Agent Bendy was quoted by Chairman Clewell of the league as authority for the charge, early in the evening while reviewing the work of the organization.

Langston Principal Speaker.

Rev. Roy Langston was the principal speaker of the meeting, his subject being "Wanted, a Man."

"Men are wanted in Ranger," he asserted at the conclusion of a stirring address, during which he spoke of evil continually defying righteousness, and of the famous men who down through the ages since time began, have come forward and won a great victory for righteousness.

David against Goliath; Moses, who led his people from bondage; Jeremiah and Isaiah, who overthrew stone idols; Paul, Martin Luther and the Wesley brothers were among the great leaders whose deeds and motives were described.

Pulpits Decayed.

Decay in the pulpits was ascribed by the speaker as the great reason for what he termed the evil conditions of modern society, and the illicit liquor traffic was given as the backbone of immoral conditions.

Chairman Clewell, in his review of activities since the last public meeting of the league, denied that any pressure had been brought to bear to force his retiring from the chairmanship; gave credit to the league for the destruction of the large underground still four miles north of town, and asserted that another big producer of corn juice in the same vicinity is marked for destruction. Prohibition agents now have a blue print of its location, he said.

Some Fall Down.

The "invisible twenty" is still on the job, he continued, and is doing good work. Its personnel has been largely changed, he said in a tone of regret, as it was found that some of the members were not turning in worth-while information; in fact, it was information that was deceiving. These men have now been replaced, he said.

In speaking of officers, Mr. Clewell said he wanted to be fair and admitted that they had made many raids in which nothing was found. He also said he was certain that some of these raids had not been "tipped off," and that any time he wanted a raid made, he would call on the officers and "if they don't go, I will tell about it."

He quoted the city laws which prescribe that every employe shall be a bonafide citizen, but made no comment upon it.

Rev. Mr. Langston was then called on, and as preparations were being made to adjourn, Sheriff Nolley asked for a few minutes to express his position. He affirmed that he was at all times willing to enforce the laws and to co-operate with the citizens.

DRIVES GASOLINE TRUCK THROUGH FIRE CURTAIN

BALTIMORE, Nov. 8.—Quick thinking of Samuel A. Adler today prevented an explosion and probably saved the lives of many employes in a city shed when he drove an auto truck, loaded with 820 gallons of gasoline, through a curtain of flames.

Adler was filling a gasoline tank when flames suddenly shot up and enveloped the motor truck. He jumped to the steering wheel and ran the machine out of the building, which soon became a mass of flames.

BOY SLAYER IS INSANE. WARSAW, Ind., Nov. 8.—Harry Long, 17 years old, who recently killed his two brothers, Kenneth, 3, and Russell, 5, by beating them on the head with a piece of pipe, has been committed to the colony for the insane at the Indiana state prison. The boy was pronounced to be insane after an official examination.

FIRST CLASS BUMS!

By United Press.

TWIN FALLS, Idaho, Nov. 8.—Entering the dining car of a Union Pacific train No. 17, east-bound Portland to Chicago, a few miles out of American Falls, late last night, a lone bandit held up the diners and robbed them of cash and jewelry, according to reports here early this morning. Disappointed with his haul, the bandit is said to have expressed his disgust with the "bums who travel first class these days," before he dropped off the train.

TAX REVISION BILL NOW GOES TO CONFERENCE

Senate and House Agreed on but Three Major Provisions.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—The tax revision bill now faces its third re-writing—this time by house and senate conferees. The measure finally was passed early today by the senate, 38 to 24, at the end of a continuous session lasting nearly sixteen hours. It will now be returned to the house, when that body reconvenes tomorrow, and Republican leaders there plan to send it to conference Thursday. It may reach the president for his approval late in the month.

At a rough estimate, treasury experts say, the bill will net approximately $3,250,000,000 or $200,000,000 less than the present law and about the amount of revenue which treasury officials say the government must have. Eventually the bill, the experts assert, would reduce the national tax toll by about $750,000,000 a year.

Only Three Agreements.

While they undoubtedly will make changes in the measure, the conferees are not expected to materially alter the total revenue. As the bill stands, there are just three major provisions on which the two houses agree. They are:

Repeal of the excess profits tax and the transportation taxes on next Jan. 1, and the retention of the present tax on corporation capital stock.

The big fight between the senate and the house is expected to develop over the income surtax rate, with the general belief at both ends of the capitol that the conferees will reach a compromise at a figure around 40 per cent. House Republicans believe they can scotch the movement among some Republicans from western states to have the house instruct its managers to accept the senate maximum rate.

SCARES 'CUSSERS,' BUT THEY GET HIM JAILED

Charged with rudely displaying a weapon, a roamer in a local hotel was taken into custody by the police this morning on the complaint of several men in the vicinity.

The defendant claimed that he had ordered the men to stop cursing in the presence of some women and had later gone to his car and removed his gun, whereupon the alleged "cussers" became frightened and turned in the complaint. He was released on bond for his appearance in police court Thursday.

TOWN OF TROY HAS FIRST FIRE IN SEVEN YEARS

TEMPLE, Nov. 8.—The town of Troy on the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railway, seven miles north of here, was visited by fire Saturday for the first time in seven years, during which time the volunteer fire department had disbanded, owing to having no calls for its services. A barn of J. O. Simmons, with contents, was consumed, entailing a loss of $1,000.

ENGINEER DIES, BRAKEMAN AND FIREMAN HURT

Cab Hurlled 1,000 Feet When Freight Engine Blows Up East of Abilene.

ABILENE, Nov. 8.—One of the largest locomotives on this division of the Texas & Pacific exploded ten miles east of Abilene this morning. Engineer R. Edwards died forty minutes later. Fireman E. C. Jennings and Brakeman E. D. Atwell are seriously injured.

The cab was blown 1,000 feet from the boiler and the entire engine is a total wreck. It was pulling a freight train when the explosion occurred.

All three of the men lived at Big Spring.

The train was eastbound, and consisted of about fifty cars, mostly loaded with cattle.

The engine did not leave the track, but the entire superstructure, including the boiler, was blown into the air about forty feet, and fell back to earth with the boiler ripped open.

WEBB'S REPORT SHOWS GROWTH OF METHODISTS

Rev. L. A. Webb of the Methodist church will leave tomorrow morning to attend the Central Methodist conference at Cisco. Bishop Ainsworth to build the church at his charge here is not expected to return to his charge here. Webb was reassigned Rev. Webb to the present church. Dr. Webb came to Ranger two years ago from Brownwood, having been sent here by Bishop Ainsworth to build the church. Prior to going to Brownwood, Webb was for four years president of the Weatherford district.

His report to the conference this year will show an increase of 253 persons in the membership of the First Methodist church here during the past year with a total enrollment of 1,029 in the three Sunday schools of the church and a membership of eighty-two in the Epworth league.

The sum of $35,440 was raised for all purposes by the church during the year and a total of $22,300 expended in making improvements and in paying off indebtedness. The report further shows that the Women's Missionary society of the church raised year $2,329 for all purposes during the year. The conference is expected to extend through Sunday night or Monday morning.

MILLIONAIRE GETS STOLEN LIQUOR BACK

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—In the most spectacular raid ever staged in Washington the entire force of headquarters detectives recovered a large part of the choice wines and liquors stolen from the Virginia estate of Joseph Leiter last month, after a revolver duel in which one man was seriously injured and four arrested.

The police swooped down on the home of William P. Cady, 2312 K street, N. W., an exclusive residential district of the capital.

The ring leaders of the bootleggers to Washington's fashionable set are believed by the police to have been captured.

The Cady family were found, the police say, sitting about a table drinking some of Leiter's choicest Italian wine. The woodshed was found stacked high with liquors.

POLICE SEE 'FIRE EATER' DRINK EXPLOSIVE MIXTURE

MT. VERNON, Ill., Nov. 8.—Local police have captured a "fire eater" who, they say, imbibes freely on a fiery drink. He was arrested on a charge of drunkenness and when searched was relieved of a bottle of spirits of nitre which he insisted on drinking.

Believing he was shamming the police permitted him to have the bottle. He poured boiling hot water in the cup. This caused an explosion, leaving a residue of anchi, which he imbibed. He claimed it was his regular drink.

Ten-Piece Band and Special Edition of Times, are Taken Along.

The Retail Merchants' booster party left this morning for the trade excursion over the Ranger trade territory, accompanied by a ten-piece band and a number of business men of the city. Some fifteen cars, decorated with Ranger banners, left the corner of Main and Austin streets shortly after 8 o'clock for the swing north into Stephens county and east and south into Palo Pinto and Erath counties. The party will return tonight after spreading the gospel of the Ranger trade days and the advantages of this city as a trading center for the section, in the towns of Leacasa, Frankel, Necessity, Breckenridge, Ivan, Caddo, Strawn, Mingo and Thurber.

Copies of a special booster edition of the Times will be distributed over the section, together with handbills advertising the rodeo to be held here Friday.

The rodeo committee expects to draw a number of the riders and ropers from the territories through which the boosters are traveling today. Considerable interest has been aroused among the local talent and several are already practicing various stunts at Nitro park during their odd moments.

CHAMPIONSHIP OF OIL FIELDS DECIDED FRIDAY

After routing the Breckenridge team Saturday, Ranger High is all set for the crucial game Friday with Cisco. A victory in this battle will give Ranger the undisputed championship of the oil belt.

Despite an impregnable line that has resisted all attacks since the early game of the season, and an aggressive backfield, the Rangerites are expecting a hard game. They recall the hard battle when Cisco held them to a 7-7 tie early in the season, and with a home crowd to cheer them on, expect Cisco to play a determined game.

The High school is prepared to make the trip in cars and many supporters of the hard-hitting, clean fighting aggregation are going over with them to see the bang-up game that is bound to result when the two teams clash.

WORK FOR THE AGED.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Nov. 8.—Two hundred Haddonfield, N. J., girls have been vaccinated on their legs above the knee in connection with a campaign of smallpox prevention.

The oldest doctor in the city was chosen to do the work.

'PROTECTION MONEY' CHARGE TO BE PROBED

So Nolley Tells Law and Order League; 'Men Wanted Here,' Says Langston.

Official inquiry will be made into assertions that $675 in "protection" money were collected here in one week and taken to Eastland, where it was split three ways by "unknown parties," Sheriff Sam Nolley declared last night at the close of the Law and Order league meeting at the Christian tabernacle.

Prohibition Enforcement Agent Bondy was quoted by Chairman Clewell of the league as authority for the charge, early in the evening while reviewing the work of the organization.

Langston Principal Speaker.

Rev. Roy Langston was the principal speaker of the meeting, his subject being "Wanted, a Man."

"Men are wanted in Ranger," he asserted at the conclusion of a stirring address, during which he spoke of evil continually defying righteousness, and of the famous men who down through the ages since time began, have come forward and won a great victory for righteousness.

David against Goliath; Moses, who led his people from bondage; Jeremiah and Isaiah, who overthrew stone idols; Paul, Martin Luther and the Wesley brothers were among the great leaders whose deeds and motives were described.

Pulpits Decayed.

Decay in the pulpits was ascribed by the speaker as the great reason for what he termed the evil conditions of modern society, and the illicit liquor traffic was given as the backbone of immoral conditions.

Chairman Clewell, in his review of activities since the last public meeting of the league, denied that any pressure had been brought to bear to force his retiring from the chairmanship; gave credit to the league for the destruction of the large underground still four miles north of town, and asserted that another big producer of corn juice in the same vicinity is marked for destruction. Prohibition agents now have a blue print of its location, he said.

Some Fall Down.

The "invisible twenty" is still on the job, he continued, and is doing good work. Its personnel has been largely changed, he said in a tone of regret, as it was found that some of the members were not turning in worth-while information; in fact, it was information that was deceiving. These men have now been replaced, he said.

In speaking of officers, Mr. Clewell said he wanted to be fair and admitted that they had made many raids in which nothing was found. He also said he was certain that some of these raids had not been "tipped off," and that any time he wanted a raid made, he would call on the officers and "if they don't go, I will tell about it."

He quoted the city laws which prescribe that every employe shall be a bonafide citizen, but made no comment upon it.

Rev. Mr. Langston was then called on, and as preparations were being made to adjourn, Sheriff Nolley asked for a few minutes to express his position. He affirmed that he was at all times willing to enforce the laws and to co-operate with the citizens.

DRIVES GASOLINE TRUCK THROUGH FIRE CURTAIN

BALTIMORE, Nov. 8.—Quick thinking of Samuel A. Adler today prevented an explosion and probably saved the lives of many employes in a city shed when he drove an auto truck, loaded with 820 gallons of gasoline, through a curtain of flames.

Adler was filling a gasoline tank when flames suddenly shot up and enveloped the motor truck. He jumped to the steering wheel and ran the machine out of the building, which soon became a mass of flames.

BOY SLAYER IS INSANE.

WARSAW, Ind., Nov. 8.—Harry Long, 17 years old, who recently killed his two brothers, Kenneth, 3, and Russell, 5, by beating them on the head with a piece of pipe, has been committed to the colony for the insane at the Indiana state prison. The boy was pronounced to be insane after an official examination.

FIRST CLASS BUMS!

TWIN FALLS, Idaho, Nov. 8.—Entering the dining car of a Union Pacific train No. 17, east-bound Portland to Chicago, a few miles out of American Falls, late last night, a lone bandit held up the diners and robbed them of cash and jewelry, according to reports here early this morning. Disappointed with his haul, the bandit is said to have expressed his disgust with the "bums who travel first class these days," before he dropped off the train.

TAX REVISION BILL NOW GOES TO CONFERENCE

Senate and House Agreed on but Three Major Provisions.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—The tax revision bill now faces its third rewriting—this time by house and senate conferees. The measure finally was passed early today by the senate, 38 to 24, at the end of a continuous session lasting nearly sixteen hours. It will now be returned to the house, when that body reconvenes tomorrow, and Republican leaders there plan to send it to conference Thursday. It may reach the president for his approval late in the month.

At a rough estimate, treasury experts say, the bill will net approximately $3,250,000,000 or $200,000,000 less than the present law and about the amount of revenue which treasury officials say the government must have. Eventually the bill, the experts assert, would reduce the national tax toll by about $750,000,000 a year.

Only Three Agreements.

While they undoubtedly will make changes in the measure, the conferees are not expected to materially alter the total revenue. As the bill stands, there are just three major provisions on which the two houses agree. They are:

Repeal of the excess profits tax and the transportation taxes on next Jan. 1, and the retention of the present tax on corporation capital stock.

The big fight between the senate and the house is expected to develop over the income surtax rate, with the general belief at both ends of the capitol that the conferees will reach a compromise at a figure around 40 per cent. House Republican leaders believe they can scotch the movement among some Republicans from western states to have the house instruct its managers to accept the senate maximum rate.

SCARES 'CUSSERS,' BUT THEY GET HIM JAILED

Charged with rudely displaying a weapon, a roamer in a local hotel was taken into custody by the police this morning on the complaint of several men in the vicinity.

The defendant claimed that he had ordered the men to stop cursing in the presence of some women and had later gone to his car and removed his gun, whereupon the alleged "cussers" became frightened and turned in the complaint. He was released on bond for his appearance in police court Thursday.

TOWN OF TROY HAS FIRST FIRE IN SEVEN YEARS

TEMPLE, Nov. 8.—The town of Troy on the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railway, seven miles north of here, was visited by fire Saturday for the first time in seven years, during which time the volunteer fire department had disbanded, owing to having no calls for its services. A barn of J. O. Simmons, with contents, was consumed, entailing a loss of $1,000.

HARRELD RESTS EASY AFTER AN OPERATION

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Senator Harreld of Oklahoma was described by physicians as resting easy following an operation of minor nature Monday at Walter Reed Military hospital here.

ENGINEER DIES, BRAKEMAN AND FIREMAN HURT

Cab Hurlled 1,000 Feet When Freight Engine Blows Up East of Abilene.

ABILENE, Nov. 8.—One of the largest locomotives on this division of the Texas & Pacific exploded ten miles east of Abilene this morning. Engineer R. Edwards died forty minutes later. Fireman J. C. Jennings and brakeman E. D. Atwell are seriously injured.

The cab was blown 1,000 feet from the boiler and the entire engine is a total wreck. It was pulling a freight train when the explosion occurred.

All three of the men lived at Big Spring.

The train was eastbound, and consisted of about fifty cars, mostly loaded with cattle.

The engine did not leave the track, but the entire superstructure, including the boiler, was blown into the air about forty feet, and fell back to earth with the boiler ripped open.

WEBB'S REPORT SHOWS GROWTH OF METHODISTS

Rev. L. A. Webb of the Methodist church will leave tomorrow morning to attend the Central Methodist conference at Cisco. His return to his charge here is not expected as assured, although his conference has unanimously requested bishop to reassign Rev. Webb to the present church. Dr. Webb came to Ranger two years ago from Brownwood, having been sent here by Bishop Ainsworth to build the church prior to going to Brownwood. Webb was for four years president of the Weatherford district.

His report to the conference this year will show an increase of 253 persons in the membership of the First Methodist church here during the past year with a total enrollment of 1,029 in the three Sunday schools of the church and a membership of eighty-two in the Epworth league.

The sum of $35,440 was raised for all purposes by the church during the year and a total of $22,300 expended in making improvements and in paying off indebtedness. The report further shows that the Women's Missionary society of the church raised year.

$2,329 for all purposes during the year. The conference is expected to extend through Sunday night or Monday morning.

MILLIONAIRE GETS STOLEN LIQUOR BACK

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—In the most spectacular raid ever staged in Washington the entire force of headquarters detectives recovered a large part of the choice wines and liquors stolen from the Virginia estate of Joseph Leiter last month, after a revolver duel in which one man was seriously injured and four arrested.

The police swooped down on the home of William P. Cady, 2312 K street, N. W., an exclusive residential district of the capital.

The ring leaders of the bootleggers to Washington's fashionable set are believed by the police to have been captured.

The Cady family were found, the police say, sitting about a table drinking some of Leiter's choicest Italian wine. The woodshed was found stacked high with liquors.

POLICE SEE 'FIRE EATER' DRINK EXPLOSIVE MIXTURE

MT. VERNON, Ill., Nov. 8.—Local police have captured a "fire eater" who, they say, imbibes freely on a fiery drink. He was arrested on a charge of drunkenness and when searched was relieved of a bottle of spirits of nitre which he insisted on drinking.

Believing he was shamming the police permitted him to have the bottle. He poured boiling hot water in the capcans. This caused an explosion, leaving a residue of alcohol, which he imbibed. He claimed it was his regular drink.

CRUDE PRICES GET INCREASE IN ALL FIELDS

By United Press

DALLAS, Nov. 8.—The Magnolia Petroleum company and the Prairie Oil & Gas company announced the following increased prices of Oklahoma, Kansas and Texas crude oil at the wells, to be effective immediately.

Kansas crude oil, $2 per barrel, an increase of 50c per barrel.

Mexia, 75c, an increase of 50c a barrel.

These advances were immediately met by the Sinclair Oil company and the Couden company.

OIL FIELD FOLK PROVE SELVES HARD TO HURT

Special to the Times

BRECKENRIDGE, Nov. 8.—Members of the A. E. F., according to all accounts, were tough to take, or stop. Many of them were oil field workers. That there may be a connection and a glimpse of an explanation in these opening assertions, may be judged by a pair of incidents yesterday.

C. L. Munsinger, driller for the Texas company, suffered an ugly laceration of the scalp when a wire line clamp swung wildly and clipped him over the head. He was taken to the Emergency hospital and the three-inch laceration was treated. The accident happened at 1 a. m. He went back on tour last night.

Charles Alkins, member of a casing crew making headquarters at Parks camp, was standing with two companions on the old foot-bridge crossing Gonzales creek near the Hamon station. One of Alkins' companions looked down in the creek bottom and remarked it would make a nasty fall, onto the rocks in the oil and slush-filled creek course thirty feet below.

As he spoke the one-inch pipe which served as hand rail and against which Alkins was leaning gave way and the young man made the plunge. His left elbow struck a nail protruding from a plank at the bottom of the creek. A nasty wound was inflicted. A lower left rib was fractured and his left hip sprained. The accident also occurred early Monday morning. He left the hospital in the afternoon, to report back to Parks.

FOCH WANTS TO KNOW WHETHER AMERICANS EAT CHICKEN ONLY

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—The man who tried to eat a quail a day for thirty days was a piker when consideration is given the record of Ferdinand Foch, marshal of France.

Since his arrival in the United States Foch has been fed chicken at least twice a day. Fried, baked, fricasseed, on the half shell—it has been chicken morning, noon and night.

It seems that the marshal commented on the fact.

"Is it that Americans eat nothing but the chicken?" he is said to have asked one of his party.

So a wise chef trotted out a three-inch porterhouse steak for the marshal at a banquet here and the famous soldier smiled as broadly as a negro boy inspecting a plate of fried catfish after a hard day's loafing.

LOS ANGELES COURT HOLDS BURCH IS SANE

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 8.—Arthur C. Burch, indicted for murder in connection with the slaying of J. Belton Kennedy, broker, here last August, was adjudged legally sane here Monday by Superior Judge Sydney N. Reeve. The court cried a motion that Burch be granted a sanity trial before trial of the murder case.

ANONYMOUS NOTICES TO BE INQUIRED INTO AT MARLIN

MARLIN, Texas, Nov. 8.—Investigation of any development of a system of posting anonymous notices and sending anonymous letters was ordered by Judge Prentice Oltorf in impelling the November term grand jury in Falls county district court Monday.

"Such practices are contrary to the spirit of the American people," said the judge.

KILL BOOTLEGGERS, CHURCH PAPER URGES ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS

"A Dead One Is the Only Good One," Declares Methodist Reform News Digest; Congress No Longer Hastens to Do Bidding of Anti-Saloon Leaguers.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—"The only good bootlegger is a dead bootlegger," is the startling headline in an article in the World Digest of Reform News, issued by the Methodist board of temperance. Clamoring for law enforcement for prohibition, the World Digest asserts:

"On several occasions recently Prohibition and police officers in the discharge of their duty have been fired upon by bootleggers. Unfortunately some of the belligerent bootleggers have been taken and lodged in jail; they should have been lodged five feet under the ground."

In describing a recent arrest the World Digest says:

"Both bootleggers leaped from the car with drawn revolvers; nevertheless, the officers took them alive."

In black face type the article goes on:

"This is not good policy. Such incidents should be dealt with according to the code of the Texas ranger. We would be the last to advocate the unwarranted use of weapons by officers, but a bootlegger is worth a lot more to the country dead than alive."

Prohibition leaders are very angry over the regulations for medicinal beer and consider launching a fierce campaign against Secretary Mellon and Commissioner of Internal Revenue Blair. Their attitude in this matter has aroused their friends in Congress, who assert that in one breath the Anti-Saloon league denounces the promulgation of the beer rules, which were overdue eight months, under a clear interpretation of the law and in the next demand enforcement of the dry laws.

Denounces Law Breakers.

In an appeal to the public Wayne B. Wheeler, legal representative of the Anti-Saloon league, denounces those who refuse to "obey the law."

"Law enforcement must be emphasized as a national issue," he added. "The nation that fails to enforce its laws is doomed. It is a fight for civilization."

At the same time the board of temperance, prohibition and public morals of the Methodist Episcopal church, an ally of the Anti-Saloon league, in the drive for national prohibition, declares:

"Secretary of the Treasury Mellon has issued the long deferred beer regulations based upon the decision of ex-Attorney General Palmer that doctors may prescribe unlimited booze. No one had any respect for Mr. Palmer's decision when he gave it and no one has any respect for it now."

The wet and dry fight is being fought over again. Secretary Mellon's action on the Palmer opinion has given the shock of their careers. They had no idea that the head of the treasury department would dare do such a thing while they stood guard.

"Now, with everything moving toward medicinal beer and the senate hesitating in its consideration of the anti-beer bill, they are all worked up, preach violence and threaten the defeat of members of congress."

Would Defeat Palmer.

"It may be that Mr. Palmer could be appointed to some office again, but unless we miss our guess he could not be elected dog-catcher in Padunk," is what the wrathful drys say about former Attorney General Palmer, one time their friend.

To Senators Reed of Missouri, Stanley of Kentucky, Bronsyard of Louisiana, Brandegee of Connecticut and Moses of New Hampshire the Methodist temperance board says:

"There are millions of people who will meet you at the polls when the day comes."

While Mellon and Blair are following the prohibition laws in crisis crossing the nation making speeches and running a propaganda shop in his office. His tours will cost the government thousands of dollars if his present programme is carried out.

The Anti-Saloon League advertises the head of the prohibition unit among its speakers. In announcing his speeches made today Wayne R. Wheeler said:

"Congressman A. J. Volstead addressed a meeting in Baltimore, Prohibition Commissioner Roy A.

Haynes spoke in Newark, and Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsellor of the Anti-Saloon League, at Williamsport, Pa."

Urges Preachers to Pray.

Mr. Wheeler in formal statement said that the wet and dry contest is not over. He urged the preachers of the country to pray for the success of his efforts. Reasons for continuing the fight were stated by Mr. Wheeler. They are:

"The liquor interests refuse to obey the law, and patriots must not surrender to lawlessness."

"Thirty wet organizations are working to defy, repeal or weaken the enforcement code."

"A minority of the United States senate is willing to use the filibuster to prevent the vote of the majority for law enforcement legislation."

"Many people do not yet realize that in scoffing at and disobeying the prohibition law they are encouraging anarchy, mob violence and murder."

"The sensational news item about the violation of law is still given more publicity than the facts about the good results of prohibition."

"The work yet to be done is essential to final victory. The public must be educated to reverence law, to sacrifice for the public good, to condemn lawlessness, to require a higher degree of efficiency and integrity in its public officials and to take as large a hand in their own government as they do in their private business."

"The same organized force that secured prohibition must protect it and see to it that it is enforced."

A very interesting situation has arisen in the senate over the proposed cloture. Southern senators, most of whom are on record for prohibition are afraid of any cloture; they do not want to make a precedent now, lest it rise to annoy them if anything like a negro suffrage measure is brought up. There is a suspicion that some time in the near future some Northern or Western group will start a movement to carry out the plans of President Harding for better political conditions in the South for the negro. Dry workers have found that many of their old loyal friends from the South are "viewing with alarm" all plans to make the cloture rule of the senate a ready consort in time of filibuster. This feeling has interfered with the plans of the Anti-Saloon league and others opposed to the beer regulations.

MAN KILLS WIFE, YOUNG SON AND THEN HIMSELF

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 8.—Mrs. Tessie Mead, 22 years old, and her son Fernal, 3, died today at a local hospital from bullet wounds sustained late Sunday when they were fired on by Orley C. Mead, 28 years old, husband of the woman and father of the child.

Mead, after wounding his wife and son, turned his pistol on himself and committed suicide. Domestic troubles were assigned as the cause of the tragedy in accounts of the shooting given the police by acquaintances of the Meads.

MEXICAN SHOTS FARMER, BEATS WIFE

VERNON, Texas, Nov. 8.—A farmer named Rutter, living twelve miles southeast of Vernon, was shot three times Sunday and his wife beaten on the head with a hammer by a Mexican known as "Chorce."

Several shots were fired by the Mexican at a son of the couple who escaped to spread the alarm. A posse was formed and scoured the country all Sunday afternoon and is still at work.

No trace of the assailant has yet been found. Mr. and Mrs. Rutter were brought to Vernon at a late hour Sunday and are in a critical condition.

The tragedy is said to have originated from a dispute over a cotton crop which Rutter and the Mexican are said to have raised this year on shares. A disagreement is said to have come up over the amount due "Chorce" and he went to the Rutter home yesterday with an avowed threat of revenge.

NATIONS LOOK TO AMERICANS FOR GUIDANCE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.-With the arms limitation conference only four days away, a war tired world looked to America for guidance.

Though the English, Japanese and other conferees have their own plans-and in some cases axes to grind-they have pocketed these, waiting upon America to lead the way. Until the United States is ready, at the horseshoe table in Continental hall, these plans will remain pocketed.

GENERAL PERSHING REGARDS ARMS MEET AS IMPORTANT WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.-General John J. Pershing has confidence in the "complete success" of the impending Washington conference on limitation of armament.

The chief of staff and general of the armies of the United States so expressed himself today in an exclusive interview with the United Press on the eve of the assembling of the conference delegates.

In his first interview on arms limitation, Pershing asserted the conference will be "one of the most important ever held." He believes the "prospects are excellent" for cutting down the chances of war.

Leader of the American expeditionary forces in France during the most terrible war of history, and this country's greatest authority on modern warfare, General Pershing, is making his opinions on the conference into an important contribution to a proper understanding of this event.

RIGNEY IS FREE AGENT JUDGE LANDIS RULES

DALLAS, Nov. 8.-Emory Rigney, former Marine and shortstop of the Fort Worth club, Texas league, and Dixie champions this year, is a free agent, according to a decision promulgated by Kenesaw M. Landis, commissioner of baseball, which reached the office of the Texas league yesterday.

Rigney was turned over to the Fort Worth club by the Detroit Americans last spring for a purchase price of $300. This fall he was sold to Detroit by Fort Worth for the same amount. The papers in the case recorded both transactions as outright sales and Rigney was not listed by Detroit as a player under option.

Apparently on his own initiative, without request from any club, Judge Landis undertook to pass on the Rigney case and similar minor league cases not involving Texas players. He holds that the small price involved indicates conclusively that a gentleman's agreement existed to return the player at the original price.

"BETTER SPEECH WEEK."

"Better Speech Week" is being observed in Ranger at the various schools. Mrs. Wm. Clegg is the speaker for Tuesday, Mrs. Geo. Davenport will be the speaker for Wednesday and Mrs. Boone for Thursday, at the High school.

At the ward schools on each day there will be five or ten minutes' talk on "better speech," made by members of the 1920 club. "Invest in Good Speech-It Pays dividends"-is typical of the slogans that will be used during the "better speech week" of Nov. 6 to arouse the nation to the evil of slovenly speech, careless enunciation, ungrammatical constructions, mispronunciations, the use of slang, and poor choice of words.

The "better speech week" of 1921 will be the third national observance of this movement. It is sponsored by such powerful organizations as the National Council of Teachers of English, General Federation of Women's Clubs, the American Academy of Arts and Literature and the Society of Pure English. "Better speech week" calls attention to the importance of our language and it seems very worth while for teachers and parents to train our children and ourselves in the cultivation of lucid, forceful and uncorrupted diction. comes a time for self examination and for pledges similar to the following written by Grace Willis, son of Willet, of the Chicago Women's club: "I love the United States of America, I love my country's flag; I love my country's language; I promise:"

1. That I will not dishonor my country's speech by leaving off the last syllables of words;

2. That I will say a good American "yes" and "no" instead of "ya" or an Indian grunt "uhum" and "nup um" or a foreign "ya" or "yeh" and "nope";

3. That I will improve American speech by enunciating distinctly and by speaking pleasantly and sincerely;

4. That I will try to make my country's language beautiful for the many boys and girls of foreign nations who come here to live;

5. That I will learn to articulate correctly one word a day for one year."

Warlike Mex, With Antique Gun, Makes Cullud Boy Hard to Catch

Disturbing the peace was the charge placed against a warlike Mexican this morning, who opened fire on a negro near the corner of Rusk and Pine streets with a nondescript pistol. While the Mexican was extracting the shell from his "pistol" with a pair of tweezers, the negro covered several blocks and it was not until sometime later that Constable Faircloth was able to round him up as a witness. Justice of the Peace Fenwick assessed a fine of $20 and costs, or $31.70, against the Mexican for his target practice.

The trouble between the two is said to have originated in the rear end of the Liberty cafe where the negro ordered the Mexican to get out of his light while he was eating.
