TRADE TRIPS.

Trade tripping is a recognized form of aiding commercial activity in the larger towns. If it does nothing else, it advertises, and advertising seldom fails to produce results. It also increases friendliness, which is a mighty factor in business. It is much more pleasant to trade with those one knows personally.

Ranger, being logically situated as the center of a vast territory, and intending to become recognized even by competitors as that center, could well adopt that idea as part of its regular policy. It will pay, not only directly, but indirectly, in proportion to the size of the pilgrimages and the pep put into them.

For that reason, not only merchants, but professional men, and others who have an interest in seeing Ranger grow and prosper, should fill up the old gas tank early next Tuesday morning and hit the northward trail.

Some merchants in the towns visited will perhaps look upon the venture as a piratical invasion of their own territory and property, but on analysis, there is no occasion for such belief.

Ranger merchants are going out after business, it is true, and to some extent are competing with the local merchants of the towns visited. But on the other hand, they cannot get this business unless they offer the people of the region extra service in the way of prices and opportunity for selection. This they naturally can do, because of the larger volume of business here and the special efforts now being made. That benefits every worker in the adjacent oil fields.

It is not a question of Ranger "draining" other communities, it is merely co-operation for mutual advantage and gain.

The oil fields, after all form one community. They will be more progressive and a better place to live when that idea becomes more firmly fixed. And trade trips, with the resulting broadening of acquaintance, will help fix it.

DRUG REPLACES WHISKY AS CURE FOR SNAKEBITE

LELAND STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Palo Alto, Cal., Nov. 5.—The snake bite antidote for the Terrible Thirst of Prohibition Days has oozed away. No more can the owner of an aching throat shriek for whisky—and get it—on the plea that he has been nibbled at by a serpent.

For a newer-than-whisky counter irritant for the poison of a reptile's fangs just has been discovered by Joseph Show, son of the late Prof. Arley B. Show of Stanford faculty.

Thanks and Condemnation. His discovery, according to bartenders, will earn for Mr. Show the undying thanks of prohibitionists and the everlasting condemnation of Civilized Man, the Man who loves Liberty, Beer and Good Liquor.

However, Mr. Show's antidote, like the dose it succeeds, is carried in a flask "on the hip." It is three fold. One must have a bottle about three fingers full of potassium permanganate, which may be purchased without a prescription.

The two other necessities are a well-oiled pocket knife from which the corkscrew hoop-to-doodle has been removed and the rudiments of surgery. Modus Operandi.

Supposing you have been pierced by a rattlesnake, or, if you prefer one less rattlesome, a copperhead, you:

Get out the knife and see that it is not rusted. If it is rusted you are in luck, for the old wet day antidote, whisky, then must be used.

If it is not rusty, however, slash the wound as recklessly as if you were a surgeon removing someone's vermiform appendix. Then suck out the blood.

Place two or three crystals of potassium permanganate in the wound, bind it up and go on about your work.

Mr. Show was bitten by a snake while on a geological survey last week. The new treatment saved his life and gave the world this discovery. "Too bad," say the bootleggers in snake infested regions.

MADALYNE IS NEAR DEATH, SAYS ATTORNEY

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 5.—"Madalynne Obenchain is near death. If she is not brought to trial immediately, or released, it is going to cost her life," Charles Erbsstein, attorney for the woman, who is held in connection with the murder of John Belton Kennedy, declared today.

"Her breakdown is not superficial," Erbsstein said. "We have taken every physical means to revive her, so that she may appear in court Monday." Judge Keave yesterday refused to dismiss the indictment against Mrs. Obenchain.

TWO BOYS HELD IN DEATH OF WOMAN

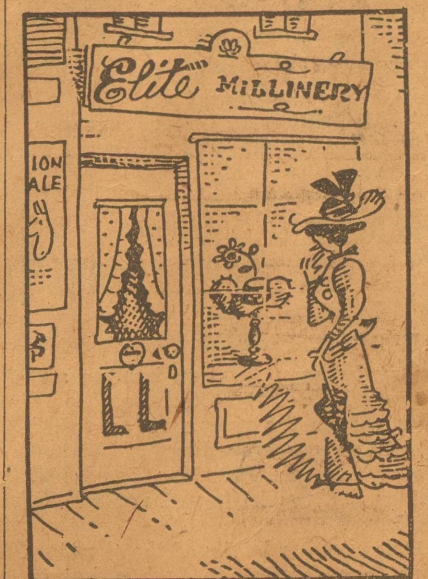

SANTA ANA, Cal., Nov. 5.—Robert Roser, 15, of San Pedro, and Charles Harby, 16, of Van Nuys, are being held today at the county jail here pending an investigation of the death of Mrs. Mary Ricketts, 45, at Anaheim landing. It is said they confessed having tried to stage a holdup when they encountered Mrs. Ricketts of Long Beach in company with G. W. Wolfe, a friend.

The authorities say the boys related getting $15 from Wolfe but stated Mrs. Ricketts resisted and in a scuffle a revolver which one of the boys held was discharged, a bullet striking the woman in the head.

DOG HILL PARAGRAPHS By GEORGE BINGHAM

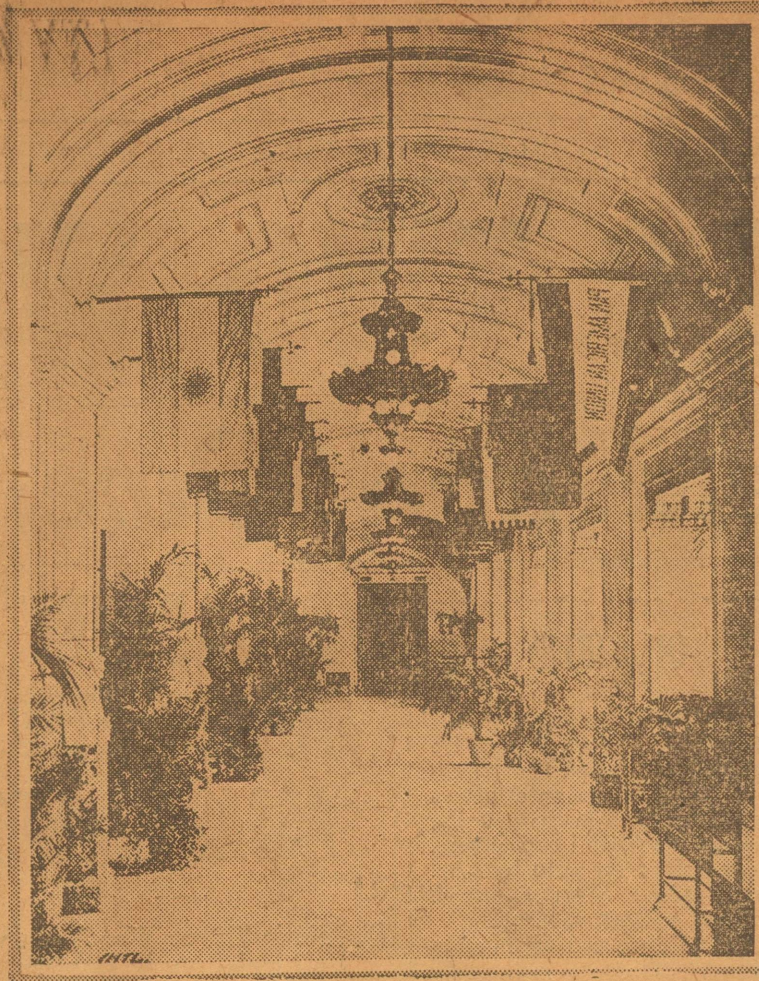

Miss Flutie Belcher spent Thursday and Friday at Tickville looking at a hat.

Washington Hooks left this morning for the Rye Straw store, to exchange a spool of thread he purchased yesterday for his wife, as she decided she wanted black instead of white.

Frisby Hancock is going to Tickville tomorrow, and in order to get his name in the paper he is going to take the editor a big sweet potato.

SAVING WAYWARD GIRL BRINGS $5,000,000 LEGACY TO MINISTER

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—"Buy me a drink," said a pretty, wayward girl to Rev. David S. Kidd when he visited the old levee district of Chicago back in 1906.

Today Rev. David S. Byrne, the same man, for he since has taken the girl's family name, prepared to go to Florida to receive title to an estate valued at millions—his reward for having saved her.

"And the first thing I am going to do with the money," he said, "is to build a home for girls and name it after Lucy Lillian Byrne, the girl who repented that night."

The fortune was amassed by her father, the late Wellington K. Byrne, of Baltimore, who out of gratitude, made the pastor his heir if he would take the Byrne name.

"After talking things over with Lucy that night," Rev. Mr. Byrne continued, "she returned to her parents in Baltimore, where she later died."

"She had told her father of the incident that led to her repentance, and when he died he left $425,000 to me. Eight years ago his widow and other heirs went down on the Empress of Ireland in the St. Lawrence river.

"Florida courts that have jurisdiction over the fortune held that I was heir to the estate, provided no other could be found. They allowed twenty-four months to search the world for other heirs. None was found and the time is up."

Rev. Mr. Byrne is taking to Florida a trunkful of legal documents to prove his heirship.

Speaking of his plans for the future, Rev. Byrne said: "The first thing will be the building of the Lucy Lillian Byrne Memorial Home for Girls. I will probably build it in Chicago, and it is to be a real home for girls, who have no home to turn to as Lucy did when she repented."

IRISH RAID ARSENAL, SEIZE POLICE ARMS

BELFAST, Nov. 5.—In violation of the Irish truce, armed men, supposedly Sinn Feiners, today raided the police barracks at Kesh, locked the constables in the cells and seized the contents of the arsenal. Rifles and bombs were carried away in motor cars.

HAMILTON LAUGHS AT 15-YEAR SENTENCE

HENRIETTA, Texas, Nov. 5.—The jury in the case of Dick Hamilton, charged with the murder of Postmaster B. F. Allison at Charlie, brought in a verdict Thursday giving Hamilton fifteen years in the penitentiary. He laughed when the verdict was read. Attorneys for Hamilton stated that a motion for a new trial will be made and if it is overruled they will appeal the case.

SNOOZING ON WALK HOME, STEPS INTO NORTH RIVER

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Sometimes after a long evening of overtime work in the shop it's pleasant to take a little nap on your walk home, what with the streets nicely deserted, so you won't bump into anyone. Jeremiah Otto, mechanic, does so often and finds it quite refreshing. He just dozes off, as it were, on leaving the shops and instinct does the rest.

Last night something evidently went wrong. Perhaps, he says, it was the birthday party he peeked into near the shop. At any rate, Otto suddenly walked into the Hudson river. Policemen rescued him.

SCHOOL BOOK PROBLEM KEEPS LEE GENTLE BROKE

ATLANTA, Nov. 5.—Lee Gentle, affectionately known as the "Babe Ruth of domestic tranquility," hung up a new record here when the family doctor announced "A boy," adding the twenty-seventh to his household. There are sixteen living out of the twenty-seven. Eight are at home and eight are scattered throughout the United States. The last is reported doing very well. He is strong and healthful.

Gentle, for many years a stock dealer at Inman Yards, is now the proprietor of a cafe. He says the school book problem keeps him broke.

IN THE NURSERY. "Willie!" "Yes, mamma." "What in the world are you pinching the baby for? Let him alone!" "Aw, I ain't doin' nothin'! We're only playin' automobile, an' he's th' best!"—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

HALF OF BIG LEAGUE TEAMS COME TO TEXAS

DALLAS, Nov. 5.—Texas will be the mecca for the big time baseball teams next spring. Five teams have already picked the Lone Star state for their spring training.

Tris Speaker and his tribe of Indians from Cleveland will invade Dallas along about March 1, next year. The Cincinnati Reds have chosen Mineral Wells for their spring training. Seguin, a little town near San Antonio, has been chosen as the training camp of the White Sox. The Giants have decided on San Antonio, and the Yankees are looking for a field in Texas. Detroit will also invade San Antonio. The Boston Braves have announced they will not train at Galveston in 1922, but may find another Texas training camp. The St. Louis Cardinals are understood to be dickering for a training camp in South Texas.

TULSA BEAUTY HORSE- WHIPS DANCING MASTER

Miss Ruby Boydston, a Tulsa, Oklahoma beauty, who administered a horsewhipping to A. S. Siegel, a dancing master, because of an alleged remark he made in public about the young lady, who at one time was one of his assistants. While a friend of the young lady pinioned the arms of the dancing master she administered the lashing with a three-foot whip.

PROGRAM

TEMPLE—Harry Carey in "The Freeze Out," and sixth episode of "The Terror Trail." MAJESTIC—Rosemary Theby and Rex Ballard in "Across the Divide." LIBERTY—"The White Rider," and "The Adventures of Tarzan," and comedy, "Ride on a Runaway Train." MANHATTAN—Eugene O'Brien in "Is Life Worth Living?" also Sunshine comedy and Pathe News.

TEMPLE. Grinning, fighting, human Harry Carey is seen to good advantage in his latest Universal release, "The Freeze Out," which will be the feature attraction at the Temple theatre today only. This picture is proving, according to reports, as good a hit as Carey's recent subject, "If Only Jim" and its story is fully as absorbing.

CHARLES BEING TAKEN TO BRITISH WARSHIP

BUCHAREST, Nov. 5.—Ex-Emperor Charles and wife apparently are not to be interned at Galatz, on the Danube northeast of this city, it was indicated today. The former emperor and his consort left Orova, a town on the Danube near the Rumanian frontier, yesterday morning, being placed on board a special train, which did not come through Bucharest.

It was reported during the day that the couple would embark at once on the British light cruiser Caribis, under command of a British vice admiral. The apparent intention is to have the cruiser sail at once, as it is convoyed by four Rumanian launches.

BAMBINO KIDS JUDGE LANDIS IN VAUDEVILLE

MOUNT VERNON, N. Y., Nov. 5.—Babe Ruth, billed as "The King of Swat," made his long heralded stage debut in Proctor's theatre in this city, ably sustained by Wellington Cross and a pianist. Ruth and Cross appeared in a sketch dubbed "That's Good," with the sub title "A Satirical Home Run." A crowded house was on hand and applause compelled Ruth to make a brief curtain speech. He even indulged in the course of the sketch in a topical song dialogue with Cross and unblatantly a not unpleasant baritone voice. He got the jibes over well, too, the chief outbursts occurring when, after the Babe had received a stage telegram from Judge Landis and had been asked by Cross, "Is it serious?" Ruth answered, "Should say it is—75 cents collect."

INDIANS GO BACK TO DALLAS NEXT YEAR

DALLAS, Nov. 5.—The Cleveland Indians will train here next Spring. Manager Tris Speaker Friday afternoon announced that he had signed a contract for the use of the ball park with both contending sections and would bring the Indians here to train on March 1. The Indians trained here last spring.

RAID "PURE FAKE." BROWNSVILLE, Nov. 5.—Reports of a raid on Zapata, Texas, Thursday night by fourteen Mexican bandits, who shot Customs Inspector Collic Taylor twice after he had killed two of them, were officially denied by Capt. D. J. Keane, post adjutant of Fort Brown, here this morning. An army officer from Ringgold detailed to investigate the affair Friday reported the whole story a "pure fake."

SHOT, ROBBED, THROWN FROM TRAIN FOR $8

McALESTER, Okla., Nov. 5.—Murdered for $8 is the record given the police department in the case of John White, 45 years old, of Bethel Springs, Tenn., who was shot and robbed and thrown off an east-bound freight train of the Rock Island near Dow Thursday night. White was found some time afterward and given medical attention, after which he was brought to a hospital in this city, where he died on the operating table about 1 o'clock Friday morning.

White told the officers that he had been held up by a negro and shot. There were two white men in the car who feigned being held up, but they afterward assisted the negro to throw him off the train, White said. Lying beside the railroad tracks, White called loudly for help, and was given assistance by the constable at Dow.

The wounded man gave names of two relatives, a sister, Mrs. Mary J. Sides, Blossom, Texas, and Clyde Spray, Plows, Kan.

AUSTIN COLLEGE LOSES GAME TO HOWARD PAYNE

BROWNWOOD, Texas, Nov. 5.—In a football game Friday that fairly bristled with sensations, Howard Payne defeated Gene Neely's Austin college Presbyterians, 21 to 0. Howard Payne swept down the field three times for a touchdown with a dazzling attack which could not be resisted. With a score standing 21 to 0 against them and only three minutes to play the fighting Presbyterians came back and made fourteen points. Quarterback Turner tried for a field goal when he had the game cinched. The kick was blocked and a touchdown resulted for the opposing team. One minute later Howard Payne fumbled into the middle of the field and Austin college secured the ball and ran for a touchdown.

ONE TOUCHDOWN WINS FOR TEXAS CHRISTIAN

the hardest-fought gridiron battles seen here this season, Texas Christian university defeated Missouri School of Osteopathy of Kirksville, Mo., at Panther park Friday afternoon, 7 to 0. A forty-yard forward pass from Captain Fowler to Freshman Cherry gave the Frogs the lone marker of the game in the first period. The teams were evenly matched and played great football from whistle to whistle. A feature was the absence of any rough playing on the part of either club.

An exchange of punts in the first quarter, about five minutes after the initial kickoff, gave the Frogs the ball on the Bonesetter's forty-yard line. Two passes over the line were incomplete. Fowler dropped back, started an apparent end run and then shot the ball to Cherry, who squirmed between two opposing players and crossed the Missourians' goal line. Ryan kicked the goal and the count was 7 to 0, with the Frogs on the long end. It was enough to cop the contest.

WHITE SOX TO SEGUIN.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Nov. 4.—The Cincinnati National league baseball club will train at Mineral Wells, Texas, next spring. Negotiations were completed Friday.

MRS. SOUTHARD FOUND GUILTY

TWIN FALLS, Ida., Nov. 5.—Mrs. Lydia Southard, charged with poisoning her fourth husband, Edward F. Meyer, was found guilty of murder in the second degree Friday night. The jury deliberated twenty-four hours.

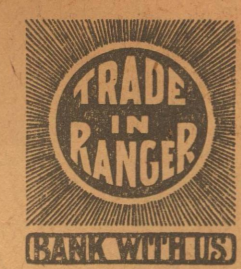

Sentence will be passed by Judge Babcock Monday morning. The penalty for second degree murder in this state is from ten years to life imprisonment.

Mrs. Southard is also accused of poisoning three former husbands and a brother-in-law. Court attaches say that failure of the jury to return a first degree murder will force her to stand trial for the other four deaths. One of the husbands died in Nevada and a prosecuting attorney from that state was a constant attendant at the trial.

Mrs. Southard appeared to be unmoved when the verdict was read. This has been her usual attitude throughout the trial.

She was arrested about three months ago in Honolulu where she was living with her fifth husband following the discovery of poison in the bodies of each of her former mates.

The prosecution attempted to show that recovery of insurance was the motive in Meyers' death.

STATEWIDE "LIVE AT HOME" DAY TO BE HELD ON NOV. NINETEENTH

The Ranger Chamber of Commerce has offered its assistance in any possible way in arranging for a county-wide meeting of farmers, bankers, merchants and business men in general at Eastland on Nov. 19, for a general discussion of agricultural problems. The date set has been designated as "Texas Live at Home Day" by the Texas Chamber of Commerce and the United Campaign for Better Agriculture, and meetings called at the county seat of every cotton producing county in the state on that day.

H. P. Brelsford of Eastland has been appointed county chairman and will work in connection with County Agent Bush and the chambers of commerce of the three Eastland county cities in making the meeting a success. The meeting is called for 1 o'clock on the afternoon of Nov. 19 at the courthouse.

A recent communication from the Dallas offices of the United Campaign for Better Agriculture sets forth, as the purpose of the meeting, a general discussion of the agricultural problems and a pledging of the people of the county to a sane, diversified agricultural program for 1922, against an increase in the present cotton acreage. The secretaries of the chambers of commerce are called upon to assist in arranging for a suitable program, and in working up a large attendance.

an employe of the Phoenix Oil company at Pleasant Grove, died last night at 6 o'clock. She is survived by her husband and two sons, Jack, aged 4; and William, aged 2. The body was sent to Fordyce, Ark., this morning by the Jones-Cox company for burial.

LENIN ADMITS HIS POLICY IS FAILURE

MOSCOW, Nov. 5.—"Our previous stormy attack upon the capitalistic fortress was like the siege of Port Arthur," Nikolai Lenin, the Russian Soviet premier, declared in addressing the communistic party conference of the Moscow district. "The attack failed; therefore, we must pass to a more difficult and slower siege, according to all the rules of military science."

Responding to criticisms of his previous economic policy, Lenin said it was no mistake to attempt to storm the capitalistic citadel, but it would be a great mistake to adhere to such tactics after they were found to be ineffective.

YOUNG COUNTY TOWN IS SWEEPED BY BIG FIRE

JERMYN, Jack county, Texas, Nov. 5.—The business section of the town of Loving, in Young county, eight miles west of here, was practically destroyed by fire Friday afternoon. Only three occupied business houses were left standing. These were the postoffice, First State bank and the store of John E. Morrison & Company.

The fire originated from an oil stove in the Daniel hotel, adjacent to the Gulf, Texas & Western railroad depot.

E. J. BARNES RECEIVER FOR MANHATTAN CAFE AND PICTURE SHOW

The Manhattan cafe and theatre went into the hands of a receiver yesterday afternoon following the filing of a voluntary petition in bankruptcy Thursday in the federal court at Abilene. E. J. Barnes was appointed receiver of the properties by the court and assumed charge yesterday afternoon. It was stated that the receiver will continue to operate the cafe and theatre.

Assets of the partnership are said to include improved and unimproved residence property in the Young addition here, unimproved property in Dallas and both improved and unimproved residence property in Waco. The majority of creditors are said to be non-residents of Ranger.

CORN SELLS FOR 30 CENTS BUSHEL IN OKLAHOMA
McALESTER, Okla., Nov. 5.—

Corn is selling in Pittsburg county for 30 cents a bushel delivered, according to County Agent E. B. Nelms, and farmers are urged to keep their corn and if necessary buy hogs to feed it to. He calls attention to the scarcity of stock hogs and urges that farmers make every effort to stock up on hogs while there is plenty of feed, offering his services to help find the stock hogs for them.

FORGOT REVOLVER WRAPPED IN AUTO ROBE; MAY DIE FROM WOUND

FORT WORTH, Nov. 5.—Attending physicians at the Protestant hospital have little hope for the recovery of Charles Huffine, a barber, living in Wichita Falls, who was accidentally shot at the St. Louis wagon yard, 109 Taylor street, at 7 o'clock Thursday night.

Huffine was taking a robe from his automobile and forgot that he had secreted a revolver in the folds of the cover. When he pulled the robe out of the machine the weapon fell to the floor and exploded. The bullet entered the left breast, penetrating the lung. He was taken to the hospital in a Robertson-Mueller Undertaking company ambulance.

WOULD BUY ARIZONA & NEW MEXICO RAILROAD

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—The El Paso & Southwestern Railroad company today asked the interstate commerce commission for authority to acquire by purchase of stock and otherwise, control of the Arizona & New Mexico railway. They also ask for permission to issue $3,500,000 worth of short term notes for purchase of stock and bonds of the Arizona & New Mexico railway.

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY—

Can Ranger be established without God? Can our city live long and be worth while if God is dethroned in the hearts of its citizens. Do we want to live in a city where God is loath to come? These are serious questions, none more so to the citizens of Ranger. If we believe God is essential to the life of a city, then professing Christians must seek to live so that God will come and honor his works. The Sabbath and the church are means through which we may attest our desire to have God help build our city and then go out into the city to exemplify our faith in God and man. A. N. STUBBLEBINE, Presbyterian Church.
