Kick-off Time At Caroline's

Caroline's Flower Shop, located at 1510 Gregg street in Big Spring, is ready for the upcoming football season.

Many of those beautiful mum corsages, seen adorning the coats of the women fans attending games here other years, come from Caroline's Shop.

The concern is well stocked for such demands again this fall. Other types of corsages, such as carnations and gardenias, are also available at Caroline's Shop.

Attendants at Caroline's Shop boast long experience in providing floral decorations for such events as house parties, weddings and club socials, along with funerals, and are prepared to relieve persons of all detailed work upon receipt of such orders.

Persons can telegraph flowers anywhere in the United States at any time simply by placing their order with Caroline's Shop.

The establishment, which invites its friends and customers to visit the shop, maintains a delivery service to any point in the city. Those who cannot call at the shop can make their orders via telephone. Business telephone number of the concern is 103.

Caroline's Shop, owned and operated by Miss Caroline Scholz, has on display a complete line of potted plants, which add so much to the interior decoration of a household, along with any kind of cut flowers.

Tucker & McKinley Ready For Area's Bumper Grain Harvest

Prospects point to a bumper grain crop, and Tucker & McKinley Grain company is ready for it.

Not only will the company buy on the spot market from day to day, offering a stable and constant outlet to producers, but it will assist in handling loans.

With storage capacity capable of handling up to 25 million pounds of grain, Tucker & McKinley suggest that producers will want to store their grain here at home.

Such a course will make it a lot handier for the producer, E. T. Tucker, one of the partners in the firm, pointed out.

The grain will be right here at home where all papers concerning it may be had immediately. Should the market rise to a point where the producer wanted to take the grain out of the loan, then necessary processing of the papers could be done in the space of a few minutes. The charge for the service would be no more than at some of the far-removed elevators.

Too, if the producer decided at a later date that he needed part of all of his grain, he could withdraw the required tonnage with minimum trouble and expense. Some will not want to await developments under the government loan. The daily spot quotation, based on the prevailing quotations on major markets, are standing offers to buy in any amount.

There is no delay. Tucker & McKinley have the equipment to grade the grain for quality and moisture content in the twinkling of an eye. There are no samples to be sent off or reports to be waited upon.

Nearly 33 Million Students To Enroll

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5. (AP)—The office of education estimated today that a record 32,903,000 students will be enrolled in the nation's schools and colleges this fall.

It said elementary schools will enroll 23,886,000 pupils, about 1 million more than last year. Colleges will have an enrollment of about 2,700,000, down about 50,000.

Entering first grade will be an estimated 2,800,000 children, the agency said in a statement. That is about 200,000 under the number last year. Another drop is anticipated next year, followed by a jump of about 1 million in 1952-53.

Meat Prices Due To Go Up Shortly

By SAM DAWSON
 NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—Because more people have jobs than ever before, and because the wages of many workers are going up, you'll probably pay more for meat this fall and winter than you did last year.
 This is a reversal of earlier promises, which had held out hopes of a big drop in meat prices this fall. There's lots of meat running around in the pastures or stocking up in the feedlots, and great quantities will move to market between now and Christmas.
 But more Americans are going to have more dollars in their pockets. And the appetite for meat moves in close union with the amount of money around. So that the big jump in the supply of meat which the government has been promising you in the coming months is going to run right into a big jump in demand.

 And the price won't come down as much as you had been promised, and maybe very little at all—almost surely, it won't drop as low as last winter.
 The Bureau of Agricultural Economics lays the blame on the war in Korea. It gave an initial shove to civilian industrial production. Still ahead are the defense programs which are expected to put even more people to work, increase purchasing power even more by spring.
 And if the armed forces grow to three million, a lot of meat will leave the civilian markets, for fighting men eat more than factory workers.

 Employment in August hit the highest mark in history, the Commerce Department reports. Standing at 62,367,000, it topped the previous high of July, 1948, by 750,000. People at work eat more, and are willing to spend more.
 The Bureau of Agricultural Economics predicts more cattle will be slaughtered this month and next than in the same period last year. But heavy demand will keep prices fairly high, and later in the year the outlook is for "steady or possibly slowly rising prices."
 Pork eaters may have it better. More hogs are expected to go to market than last fall and a seasonal 18 to 20 per cent drop in prices by the end of the year is foreseen. However, if defense spending keeps pork demand high, the bureau says, hog prices will stay above the 1949 level.
 Higher lamb prices than last year are predicted this fall because fewer of them will go to market this year than last.

Anderson Fort Worth Talk Now Seems To Be Doubtful

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7. (AP)—Air Reserve Assn. doesn't know yet if Maj. Gen. Orvil Anderson, suspended commandant of the air war college, will be allowed to keep a date to speak in Fort Worth.
 Anderson, scheduled to address the association convention Sept. 28-30, was suspended last week after being quoted in Montgomery, Ala., as offering to bomb Russian A-bomb centers.
 Yesterday the Air Force indicated it will decide the future status of Anderson before approving the answer may depend on what speaking date. A spokesman said Gen. Vandenberg, chief of staff of the Air Force, decides.
 The spokesman said Anderson would be free to speak if he is restored to duty, but that he could not speak if Vandenberg removes him from the post.
 If Anderson is removed, he could retire from the service and keep the speaking date.

Sugar And Molasses Cookies Made By Grandmother Are Hard To Beat

SUGAR COOKIES from the cookie jar make a tempting arrangement as well as a delicious treat.

Grandmother's cookie jar has come back to stay but now it is apt to be filled with many delectable dainties which would probably have amazed that estimable lady. The fancy teatime tidbits are nearly as exciting to make as they are to eat. Then there are the sugar and molasses cookies approved by Grandmother that are still hard to beat.

Cookie-baking day is a special one in most homes. The smell of spice, molasses, fruits, and icings cooking arouse the appetite and the imagination. And the final result is worth every bit of the anticipation.

If you are planning a tea, nothing can be better as refreshments than an assortment of your favorite cookies—the crunchy and chewy along with the soft varieties.

The 17th Culinary Arts Institute cookbook includes 250 recipes for cookies including rolled cookies, filled cookies, molded cookies, refrigerator cookies, drop cookies, cookie bars, curled wafers, macarons, meringues and kisses and Christmas cookies.

The following recipes are included in the cookbook.

Butterscotch Fruit Bars

1/2 cup butter
2 cups brown sugar
3 eggs, well beaten
1 teaspoon vanilla
4 cups cake flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon soda
Tutti-frutti filling

Cream butter and sugar together. Add beaten eggs, vanilla and 1/2 cup flour. Blend well. Add remaining dry ingredients which have been sifted together. Chill. Divide dough into 2 parts and roll each part into sheets 1/4 inch thick. Spread one sheet with the Tutti-frutti filling and cover with the second. Press together lightly. Cut bars 2 inches long and one inch wide and bake at 350 degrees 20 minutes. Makes 40 bars. These bars will not keep longer than 2 days. However, the dough makes an attractive rolled cookie which will keep several weeks.

Tutti-Frutti Filling

1 cup sugar
2 tablespoons flour
1 cup water
2 1/2 cups chopped dried fruits
2 tablespoons lemon juice

Pinwheels

1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon baking powder
1 cup ground nuts
1 ounce chocolate, melted

Cream shortening and sugar together. Add egg yolks and beat. Add vanilla and milk. Sift flour, salt and baking powder together and add with the nuts. Press together with a rolling pin. Roll up as for jelly roll, wrap in waxed paper and place in refrigerator until very firm. Slice the cookies 1/4 inch thick. Bake in a moderate oven 10 to 15 minutes.

Egg for glaze, milk

Cream shortening and sugar. Beat eggs well and add with the milk and lemon extract. Mix and sift dry ingredients and add. Chill. Roll 1/4 inch thick. Cut and brush tops with egg diluted with milk. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees) 10 minutes. Makes 150 cookies 2 1/2 inch diameter. If desired top each cookie with 1/4 almond before brushing with diluted egg. Decorate with narrow strips of candied ginger, pineapple, citron or lemon peel.

Acclaim Of The Nation Will Greet Bradley's Five-Star Generalship

WASHINGTON — Gen. Omar Bradley, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, will be made a five-star general within the near future and there will be dancing in the streets of the Capital.

Congress began at the top and, as representative Vinson explained, kept it exclusive. Five stars went to General Marshall, Eisenhower and MacArthur of the Army, the late Hap Arnold of the Air Force and Admirals King and Nimitz of the Navy.

The General still took a dim view of the investigation with its anonymous letters, etc., but he was enormously upset to find that he had hurt people's feelings.

McCabe And Snyder Clash Involves Top Rank Policy, Not Personalities

WASHINGTON. — On Friday, September 1, in the richly-appointed meeting room of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, Secretary of the Treasury John W. Snyder was a polite, attentive onlooker as Edward Lee Norton, of Birmingham, Ala., and Oliver S. Powell, of Minneapolis, Minn., were sworn in as governors.

The clash started months before Pearl Harbor when the country was re-arming. The reserve board felt that banks had an oversupply of "excess reserves," which might lead to free and easy lending.

The disagreement, though repressed, simmered through the war and beyond. Morgenthau's reign. Secretary Fred Vinson, who succeeded Morgenthau, held firm to the Treasury's position. When Vinson resigned to quiet the discord in the Supreme Court, Snyder clung to the position of his predecessors.

Almost a year ago, while a student at the University of Missouri School of Journalism, I wrote an editorial for the daily newspaper published by journalism students. Though a lot of water has fallen over the dam, I would like to repeat that editorial.

That leaves the United States. Now any sensible person knows we are not an imperialistic country. We are not casting doubt on any nation nor do we intend to. All we aim for in our foreign policy is to attain peace, security and economic recovery for all peoples in all parts of the world.

Rain Helps Winter, Fall Cover Crops

The rains over the Labor Day week end made conditions just right for planting fall and winter cover crops, farmer-cooperators with the Martin-Howard Soil Conservation District said this week.

The cover crops of winter peas and abuzzi rye and hairy vetch will be planted for a protective cover against blowing, and for soil improvement. Among those who are ready to start planting are R. W. McNew, Alex Walker, W. D. Miller, J. T. Balch, and O. H. Bolinger.

J. F. Buchanan is going to plant 8 acres of Dixie Wonder peas on his farm 7 miles north of Coahoma as a fall and winter cover and soil improving crop. He will inoculate the seed to insure a better growth and to add nitrogen to the soil. The Dixie Wonder pea that Buchanan is planting is a variety that is planted in the fall and grows during the winter, making an excellent cover and soil improving crop. It should be turned under in the early spring, Buchanan states that years ago he used to farm up and down hill, but now that he has his farm terraced and on the contour as a part of his coordinated soil and water conservation program in cooperation with the district, he produces a lot more crops.

Terrace ends were blocked this summer on the Alfred Cates farm at Vincent to protect the terrace outlets and to hold water where it falls. Cates left the ends open when the terraces were constructed and the open ends were doing lots of damage. Several rains have fallen since the blocks were put in and no damage has been done.

Whip-poor-will peas will be harvested on the D. W. Christian farm 6 miles east Fairview. Christian will use the peas, harvested from part of his 65-acre field of the summer peas which are up to a good stand, to plant on his farm next year. He inoculated the peas to add nitrogen to the soil and to insure better growth of the plant. Leroy Echols also has 55 acres of summer peas for a summer cover and soil improving crop on his place near Coahoma.

E. O. Brown of Vincent has deferred 500 acres of pasture on his ranch at Vincent since the middle of May. Brown rested his pasture to improve the cover and kinds of grass. Sideoats, grama seeded out and is spreading, Brown said. He plans to keep his livestock off the pasture till October.

His head hit the bottom of the 12-foot deep river. He suffered a skull injury.

Lions Club Gets Verbal Preview Of VA Hospital

Lions got a verbal preview of the Veterans Administration hospital Wednesday.

Noting that the dedication of the six million dollar plant is coming up Sunday, Charles A. Tosch, Jr., assistant manager, explained that the hospital is of the general medical and surgical type. Other VA hospital types are tuberculosis and neuro-psychiatric.

Currently there are 135 beds open now at the hospital, which has a 250-bed capacity. By Christmas, he said, it is hoped to have 225 beds open. Tosch recited various statistics about the hospital, showing immensity of physical properties.

Carleton Carr, special service officer, outlined some of the steps taken in contributing toward the comfort and entertainment of patients. He stressed especially the part the community could play in giving service and helping morale.

In case of individual patients, he suggested that it would be wiser to contact special services first of all to ascertain patient needs rather than to go at it single-handedly and blindly.

Dr. W. R. Woods, Washington, D. C., office of U. S. Commissioner of Education, spoke briefly. Harold Stead was in charge of the program.

Cottonseed Price Support Loans Are Set At $51 A Ton

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7. (AP)—The Agriculture Department announced Wednesday a national average price support of $2.06 a bushel for 1950 crop soybeans and price support loans of $51 a ton on cottonseed.

This compares with $2.11 a bushel on last year's crop of soybeans, and with support loans of $49.50 a ton on 1949 cottonseed.

Where a purchase program may be necessary, the department said, cottonseed purchases will be made at $47 a ton compared with $46 a ton last year.

SPECIALIST SAYS Crop Prospects In County "Good"

General crop prospects in Howard county were described as "good" Wednesday by F. C. Elliott, cotton specialist for Texas A&M college extension service.

Barring any unforeseen destruction by insects and weather conditions, Elliott said he believed cotton yields would be higher here than in 1949 when area farmers harvested a bumper crop.

"I have been in 27 fields, and most of them look better than cotton crops I saw here at about this time last year," Elliott declared.

"It has been a tremendous expense, but farmers in this county have done a good job of controlling bollworms and leaf worms," Elliott continued. "I believe they will find that the controls pay in the long run."

Most other sections of the state were hit by more intensive infestations of cotton damaging insects, Elliott disclosed.

In north and east parts of the state, for example, farmers were confronted with both bollworms and boll weevils.

"We saw some large bollworms in crops here in Howard county, but no young insects or eggs were found. Maybe the bollworms are about ready to quit," Elliott suggested.

Recent rains could increase the yield, provided and early frost doesn't hit the area, Elliott declared. With a late frost, fruit that is now beginning on cotton stalks could mature, the cotton specialist explained.

Rains have caused crops in this area to begin fruiting at the tops of the stalks.

While here, Elliott scored cotton demonstration projects of county 4-H club members, who have entered the annual cotton contest.

Hannay deferred sentencing until Sept. 13.

Squint's Drumming For Fair Play!

Squint Miller's mighty proud of the lot he owns that fronts on River Road—one of the prettiest spots around here.

He's been in a stew about it lately, though. Seems that trash-dumpers take one look at his property, stop their car or truck, and out goes a load of rubbish, spilling all over his place and the roadside, too. Wouldn't that make you mad?

Last night Squint dropped by the house. Over a friendly glass of beer, he tells me what he's done. "I put a couple of empty oil drums out there," he says, "with a big sign reading: 'If you must dump trash—use these—I like to keep my property clean!'"

From where I sit, Squint's sign should make any would-be roadside trash-dumpers pretty darned ashamed of themselves. Now and then some folks just have to be reminded that they ought to have as much regard for their neighbors' rights as they do for their own.
