EASTLAND COUNTY ROAD BUILDING MUDDLE

ENFORCEMENT OF LAW URGED BY BURKETT

West Texas' Candidate for Governor Makes Stirring Appeal to Citizens.

Special.
BARSTOW, Texas, May 23.—Senator Joe Burkett spoke here Thursday morning in the interest of his candidacy for governor. Among the things advocated by Senator Burkett was the establishing of a central state bank, long-time rural credits, water conservation and flood control, a state highway system and our educational problems. Senator Burkett said, "Good roads, schools and flood control are linked together in the control of the flood waters and the conservation of same for irrigation purposes, increase the value of the land, making it possible for good roads and good schools."

Senator Burkett speaks at Odessa Thursday afternoon.

Law Enforcement.
Among the things discussed by Senator Joe Burkett, candidate for governor, in an address at Midland Thursday evening was that of strict law enforcement. He said:

"I believe in the enforcement of all laws without fear or favor. To me, all laws stand upon equality, so long as they are on our statute books. If a law is a wholesome one, it should, by all means be enforced. If it be a bad law, then it should be repealed. But all laws should be obeyed while they are in force. No man is higher or bigger than the law by which we must all abide."

"But, in the last analysis, the people are the enforcers of our laws. Our people should be taught a more wholesome respect for our laws, and they will be enforced. I have always held that our laws are made to obey and not to violate, and that our officers are elected to enforce the law as written, without discretion. If the bad laws were enforced they would soon become so distasteful that the legislature would repeal them, but all should be enforced until repealed by the proper authority. I think we have many laws that are too drastic, unreasonable and out of date, and they should be modified or repealed by the legislature, but neither you nor I have the right to disobey them while they are laws."

Against Mob Violence.
"Mob violence is the most dangerous form of lawlessness. No citizen feels safe in the presence of a mob. Neither has a mob any reason. A mob does things in heat of passion and blindly seeks the means to accomplish its purpose. Only cowards, radicals and hoodlums resort to such violence, and either is dangerous and unsafe and undesirable in a free government."

"If I am elected governor I assure you I will use the same zealous efforts to enforce the law against mobs, masked or unmasked, that I will use against any other form of lawlessness to the end that our citizenship may be free to pursue liberty-loving vocations in peace and free from lawless and unwarranted interference."

Jurors Refuse Even to Taste Alleged Bootleg Booze That Smells Strongly of Creosote

OFFICERS TAKE SAMPLES FROM TWO BARRELS

Evidence Shows It Was Disinfectant Used in Poultry Yard and Not Drinkable.

After being on trial before Judge Hill in the district court for a large part of two days, S. L. Reese, who lives a few miles out of Ranger, was found by the jury not guilty of the charge against him, possession of a mash for the purpose of manufacturing intoxicating liquor, and acquitted. The jury was out barely 10 minutes. It was thought at one time the court would instruct the jury to return a verdict for the defendant, but he preferred to let the jury judge the facts for itself.

The plea of the defense was that the liquid or liquor found by the officers on his premises was a preparation used as a disinfectant for his poultry houses, and this was evidently the view taken of it by the jurors, for when counsel passed among them a sample of the liquor and asked if any wished to sample it none wished to do so.

The defense testimony was to the effect that last fall he made a large quantity of molasses from sugar cane juice. The juice was obtained by grinding or pressing the cane, the testimony showing that Reese operated his cane press on grinder for several days and made up several hundred gallons of cane juice, and then he began to cook it into molasses. However, several witnesses testified, that some of the cane juice soured and began to ferment, rendering it unfit for making molasses, and rather than destroy the soured cane juice, the witnesses testified the defendant added a quantity of creosote to the fermented and soured juice for the purpose of making a disinfectant to spray his poultry pens and houses.

State's witnesses testified that officers had driven to the premises in automobiles and there found two barrels, each containing about 50 gallons of the liquor. One officer testified that he had drawn a little of the liquor from a spigot in the bottom of the barrel and tasted it, but they were wary of it as a health beverage. It was represented by the state that parties working in the barnyard had seen the officers coming and had poured creosote into the two barrels to change the original beverage into a disinfectant, but this was not proved.

However, a sample was taken from each barrel and carried to the county attorney's office where it rested on a shelf for two weeks and then was sent to the state chemist for analysis to determine if it contained alcohol. Dr. W. W. Battle, a witness at the trial, testified that it showed 7.9-10 per cent alcohol. He said it smelt very strong of creosote, but he had not tested the quantity of creosote in the compound. He said he did not wish to drink any of it himself, believing it to be poisonous, although he said it could be tasted with safety. He said it might be used as a disinfectant, but it was not such a disinfectant as ordinarily used. As an expert, he stated he would classify the liquid as a disinfectant rather than a beverage, although it was not a standard disinfectant.

Attorneys for the defense asked witnesses why the samples had been permitted to remain unguarded and exposed for two weeks before being sent to the state chemist and wanted to know if the witnesses could swear that the samples sent to Austin were exactly as taken from the barrels. After members of the defendant's family had testified that the barrels of disinfectant had been left as found, except for the loss of what was taken for samples, that it had since been used for disinfecting chicken houses and that probably a small amount of it yet remained, attorneys for the defense asked officers making the raid if they were not aware the law required them to cause to be destroyed all liquor they found and believed to be illicit liquor, reserving only samples of it for evidence. The state, in fact, presented a case so full of holes that the defense had little difficulty in shattering it.

The raid by the officers when the so-called liquor samples were obtained occurred about four months ago.

Poincare Informs Herriott Relative To Premier's Duty

Although certainly no love is lost between Poincare and the left wing, the premier took unusual steps in offering to inform his successor on such matters as are pending with Great Britain and other nations.

TOKYO, May 23.—With mingled emotion, the American world-flying flyers, learned today that the overhauling of their planes may force them to remain a week at Kasumigaura, the Japanese naval base. Smith put it, "we've had a hell of a time."

Degenerates Said To Have Killed Son Of Chicago Magnate

By United Press.
CHICAGO, May 23.—Degenerates kidnaped and killed Robert Franks, 14, son of Jacob Franks, millionaire manufacturer and real estate man, Dr. Joseph Springer, coroner's physician, declared today after an all-night investigation to determine the cause of the death of the victim. Dr. Springer said there was ample evidence of attack.

Ransom was the primary purpose of the slayers, Lieut. Michael O'Grady, in charge of the police murder squad, stated. Two instructors at the Harvard school, a private institution attended by the boy, were questioned several hours this morning. They were turned loose, but O'Grady said he would take them into custody again later for further investigation.

Letters to the boy's parents indicated that he was seized Thursday afternoon while on his way home from school. A note to his father demanded a ransom of $10,000, which the father was ready to pay, but while he waited for instructions from the unknown kidnappers how to deliver the money to them the boy was killed. His body was found in a culvert beneath railroad tracks in the southern part of town with two wounds on the head. The letters to the parents regarding the boy were well phrased and written evidently by a person of good education.

FORMER OVERSEAS VETERAN DIES IN ELECTRIC CHAIR

HUNTSVILLE, Texas, May 23.—Frantic efforts by relatives and friends of Frank Cadena, Mexican and former soldier, failed to obtain from Governor Neff a commutation of the death sentence, and Cadena paid the penalty for killing his pretty sister-in-law, Pablito Jimenez, at San Antonio. He took a seat in the electric chair shortly after midnight and was dead at 12:30 o'clock. The former overseas veteran went to his death calmly. He had no statement to make, but thanked prison officials for their kindness to him.

Walsh declared that he would fight for its adoption to replace the present insurance plan law. The bill has the same provisions as the 20-year endowment insurance bill already adopted, and in addition to a cash option, adjusted compensation would be paid in cash on the basis of $1 a day for home service and $1.25 for overseas service with a maximum of $500 and $625, respectively. Introduction of the bill was made to serve notice of a fight to be waged in the next congress for a cash option substitute.

Shallow Though Oil Sand May Be, Water From Higher Level

The Williamson discovery well, located on the Fox tract about seven miles south of Ranger is on the pump and is flowing around 125 barrels of oil and about 50 barrels of water daily. Oil men in Ranger believe the water is coming from the 200 feet of open hole above the sand. The drillers struck the sand unexpectedly and did not have the hole cased off. Also another reason that they believe the water is coming from above is that the well is only three feet in the sand and the sand is believed to be about 25 feet through. Indications are that if conclusions are correct in regards to the water, the well may turn out to be a good producer.

By United Press.
WASHINGTON, May 23.—Morris Mayfield of Perryville, Texas, brother of Senator Earle B. Mayfield, today denied before the senate committee investigating Mayfield's election that he had contributed to his brother's campaign, except to spend a few dollars for postage. He also said that traveling salesman employed by his wholesale grocery house had given him $15 to $25 each for his brother's campaign, but that these contributions were not solicited. He had not collected more than $150 for the campaign, he said. Mayfield also stated that his brother told him that he had not spent more than $9,000 in the campaign and that he had not received any money from the Ku Klux Klan. The Texas limit for political campaigns is $10,000.

Ryan and Goodbred May Divide Honors In Game Tomorrow

Jack Ryan, formerly with Fort Worth, is expected to be in Ranger for the week-end sometime today. Ryan will in all probability pitch the Saturday game according to Clarence Love, secretary of the ball club. Negotiations have been pending with Ryan all week and are expected to be closed today, Love said. If Ryan arrives in time to pitch Saturday's game he will in all probability be opposed by his former teammate, Tiny Goodbred, the village cut-up. The game should be a tight affair with these two old friends after each other's blood on the diamond. The Nitros have been showing rare form the last week and will render a crackerjack account of themselves Saturday and Sunday.

STEEL TUBE 210 MILES LONG IS TO BE BUILT

Continuous Pipe, Without a Coupling Connection to Be Laid by Magnolia Co.

KIRBYVILLE, Texas, May 23.—A continuous steel tube 210 miles long without a coupling or a screw-thread connection will be laid this summer between the Texas-Louisiana natural gas fields near Shreveport, La., and Beaumont, Texas. News of the gigantic project, the most spectacular welding job ever attempted, came today from the construction camp of the Magnolia Gas company here along with the announcement that the company wants 500 of the country's finest pipe welders for immediate work. When completed, the longest 16-inch diameter pipe line in the world will cross two rivers, innumerable creeks and run underground through four counties to carry the natural gas to Beaumont. Oxy-acetylene welding will seal every joint, replacing the old method of screw couplings, thus reducing the upkeep of the line to the vanishing point, and conserving a great quantity of gas from the leakage which has always been unavoidable with threaded joints.

Working north and south from Kirbyville the construction gangs are clearing the right of way, a tremendous job in itself as the country is heavily wooded. Before the 210 mile trench can be dug, the trees have to be felled and the stumps removed. Special stagings must be built at the Sabine and Neches rivers and at the various creeks so that the pipe may be joined, dragged into place and dropped to the beds of the streams.

The welding crews will operate at a number of points along the right-of-way and the Magnolia Gas company, a subsidiary of the Magnolia Petroleum company, estimates that the welders will require the entire summer to finish the job. The line will be built in straight sections of about 100 feet each and then each section will be "tied-in" to meet the contour of the country. A single welding crew in this way will account for from a half mile to a mile of steel tubing, painting and testing it before putting it in the trench.

WHATEVER PAID, TOO MUCH.

H. S. Stubblefield, present county commissioner from the Cisco precinct and who was commissioner from that precinct during the time the roads were under construction, was called as a witness by the plaintiff and asked to detail the circumstances regarding the building of the railroad switch and the delivering of 495 road bonds to the contractors in January, 1923. The witness said he was opposed to the building of the railroad switch until he was shown the clause in the contract with Fleming-Stitzer Roadbuilding company in which the county had agreed to build it if it was demanded, after which he did not oppose the building of it. He said he did not know much about the matter pertaining to the switch, and, if it was paid for, the amount paid was too much.

Asked about the delivery of 495 bonds to the roadbuilding company in January, 1923, Stubblefield said that on the day the order authorizing the transfer of the bonds was passed by the court, he left Eastland at about 5 o'clock in the afternoon for his home in Cisco and that when he returned next morning he found the order on the commissioners' court minutes and that he had the clerk to enter his protest against the order in the records. He said he had believed the other members of the court were in a conspiracy with the contractors to deliver them bonds that they were not entitled to. On cross-examination Mr. Stubblefield admitted that he did not know how much the county owed the contractors at the time the 495 bonds were delivered to them; that he left Eastland and went home on his own accord and that no one said anything to him about his going; that if the county owed the contractors an amount equal to the value of the bonds at the time the transfer was made that it should have been paid and that he would have been willing to pay it.

ECHOES OF ROAD BUILDING HEARD IN COURT ROOM

Documentary Evidence Sought in Case of Eastland County vs. Davisson, et al.

The trial of the case of Eastland county vs. G. A. Davisson et al. has been in progress before Judge George L. Davenport of the Ninety-first district court since Monday morning and, from present indications, will continue into next week. All day Thursday was consumed in hearing witnesses placed on the stand by the plaintiff. Much of their testimony was documentary and had to do with the books, records, etc., of the county highway department.

William Sheriff, an employe of the county highway department, was among the first witnesses. By him plaintiff's attorneys sought to identify plans and specifications under which the road work was done, but they were unable to do this and the instrument that purported to be the plans and specifications was not introduced as evidence. Ed S. Pritchard, former county treasurer and at present judge of the commissioners' court was asked regarding methods used in handling the transaction involving the sale of series C and D of Eastland county good road bonds.

J. R. Burnett, liquidating agent for the Security State Bank & Trust company, and W. S. Michaels, county auditor, were called to the witness stand to identify certain books and records of the auditor's office and of the bank, showing the status of the account of the county treasurer with the depository bank.

Special Auditor Testifies.
H. C. Michaels of Fort Worth, special auditor for the county, who was employed to audit the books of the highway department, was on the stand for some time. He testified from his reports which he testified reflected the condition of the records of the office as he found them. Under cross-examination he admitted that he did not know if the records were correct or if all of the records of the department were given him. Instruments alleged to be statements of accounts due the contractors were shown him by the plaintiff and he stated that he did not see them or take them into account in his audit.

Judge R. B. Truly testified regarding a railroad switch, which, it was alleged by the plaintiff, had been paid for but which had not been constructed or started. The witness stated that he had been on the ground where the switch was supposed to be located, and that he saw excavations and grades suitable for a railroad switch, but that no switch was there.

H. S. Stubblefield, present county commissioner from the Cisco precinct and who was commissioner from that precinct during the time the roads were under construction, was called as a witness by the plaintiff and asked to detail the circumstances regarding the building of the railroad switch and the delivering of 495 road bonds to the contractors in January, 1923. The witness said he was opposed to the building of the railroad switch until he was shown the clause in the contract with Fleming-Stitzer Roadbuilding company in which the county had agreed to build it if it was demanded, after which he did not oppose the building of it. BEATS BOSS IN RACE AND GETS TURNED ADRIFT
Earl Cooper, Driver of Studebaker Special, Tells How He Became Racing Pilot.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 23.—When Earl Cooper pulled into the pits after tuning up his Studebaker Special for the international 500-mile race at the speedway, May 30, he was questioned by his old friend, Mayor Lew Shank of Indianapolis, who is a racing fan.

"Listen, Earl," said his honor, "I got into politics by getting the ear of my neighbors as a successful auctioneer. Now tell me, how did you come to get into this perilous game of playing bo-peep to a car that's leaping around a track at 110 miles an hour?"
 Cooper, sun-painted veteran of the tracks, grinned. He borrowed a cigarette from the mayor and said:
 "Mayor, I've made lots of money out of my 14 years' racing, and I owe it all to my old employer in the garage in San Jose, Calif. He fired me under peculiar circumstances, and that started me on my racing career."
 "Yes, I was a young fellow, working in the garage and sales-room of C. H. Letcher. Well, one day I boasted that I was some pump-kins as a racer. So my boss and I agreed on a 25-mile race. You know what funny old gas gondolas they had in those days.
 "Well, I beat him—and he fired me. I was out of a job. So I thought I'd borrow a car and become a racer. I won the great Portola race at Oakland, and I've been living on the tracks ever since."

Ranger Lions Again At Work On Street Improvement Task
 The Ranger Lions at their luncheon yesterday, authorized a committee consisting of T. R. Valliant, chairman, J. T. Killingsworth, Paul Walker, J. W. Saunders and Jimmie Tolend to see that the necessary amount of money to pay half of the expense of graveling Elm street in front of the postoffice was raised.
 The city offered to pay half of the expense if the citizens would pay half of it. The Lions club members, in accordance with their customary spirit of civic pride, took upon themselves the task of raising the necessary amount. Forty-four dollars was raised by assessing each member a dollar and the committee was appointed to raise the rest.

RANGER GOLFERS TO PLAY MINERAL WELLS IN TOURNAMENT SUNDAY
 The Ranger golf team will play Mineral Wells in Mineral Wells Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock. The majority of the team will leave here Saturday night so as to play a round on the course and get accustomed to it.
 Dr. C. C. Craig and J. M. Ralston of the club want all who can make under 55 to go to Mineral Wells. "If we can take at least 25 men to Mineral Wells we can beat them," Dr. Craig said.
 Eastland beat Mineral Wells in the last scheduled game of the Oil Belt Golf association with the score comparatively the same as the Eastland-Ranger score.
 The course at the country club is in fine shape and all members are urged to support their club and turn

ACID IN STOMACH SOURS THE FOOD
 Says Excess of Hydrochloric Acid is Cause of Indigestion.
 A well-known authority states that stomach trouble and indigestion are nearly always due to acidity—acid stomach—and not, as most folks believe, from a lack of digestive juices. He states that an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach retards digestion and starts food fermentation; then our meals sour like garbage in a can, forming acid fluids and gases, which inflate the stomach like a toy balloon. We then get that heavy, lumpy feeling in the chest, we eructate sour food, belch gas or have heartburn, flatulence, water-brash or nausea.
 He tells us to lay aside all digestive aids and instead get from any pharmacy four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, while it is effervescing, and furthermore, to continue this for one week. While relief often follows the first dose, it is important to neutralize the acidity, remove the gas-making mass, start the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices.
 Jad Salts is inexpensive and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and sodium phosphate. This harmless salts is used by thousands of stomach sufferers with excellent results.—Advertisement.

POISON COMPOUND FOR GRASSHOPPERS READY FOR FARMERS' NEEDS
County Agent R. H. Bush stated this morning that a large shipment of molasses, bran and arsenic, for use in poisoning grasshoppers, has been received and is now located at the chamber of commerce in Eastland and Cisco, J. T. Elliott's at Carbon and Higginbotham Bros. and the First National bank at Gorman.
The molasses, bran and arsenic was purchased at wholesale for the purpose of re-selling it to the farmers at cost. Mr. Bush states that the molasses are being sold at 25 cents per gallon, bran at $1.45 per 100 pounds and that the arsenic has been sold at 18 cents per pound, but that he believed the present shipment could be sold for a little less.
A large number of the farmers are putting out the poison, according to Mr. Bush, and where this is being done the hoppers are diminishing, he states.

FAMOUS WRITER AND TRAVELER FINDS WORLD RATHER SMALL PLACE
One of the rewards a war correspondent receives for Chautauqua lecturing is that he meets up with so many ex-service men whom he knew in France. Dr. William T. Ellis tells of his encounter, two summers ago, in a tiny island off the Maine coast, with an ex-officer who had once succeeded and fed him in the remotest part of the devastated area in France. He adds: "Last year I was in Sofia, the capital of Bulgaria, on a Saturday Evening Post assignment. There I was introduced to an American nurse, who greeted me with, 'Weren't you in Roumania in 1917?'"
"Yes I was."
"Didn't you land at the American Red Cross hospital at Roman, one night about 1 o'clock, on a trip back from the trenches, drenched to the skin and full of cold and half-starved and the night nurse let you in?"
"Right-O!" fervently.
"Well, I was that nurse!"
"Probably, I'll meet in Oklahoma some American with whom I went airplanning over France; or a Yankee with whom I dodged bolshevik bullets Petrograd; or even that queer American exile who, in pre-war days, lived native-fashion with the Bedouin down Bagdad way. 'Ain't the world a small place, anyway?'"
Dr. Ellis is one of the feature attractions for the Ranger Chautauqua, which opens in Ranger May 31. During the world war he worked on six battle fronts. He went five times through the submarine zone. He has been under fire from China to France and Egypt. He covered 20,000 miles in Russia under the revolution and the bolsheviks. He watched the intrigue of the great powers in the Levant.

TWO MISSING SOLDIERS BELIEVED TO HAVE BEEN SWALLOWED BY VOLCANO
HILLO, T. H., May 23.—Belief that Howard Simmons and E. J. Hinman, soldiers of Oswego, N. Y., may have met a horrible death in the fiery cauldron of the volcano Kilauaea was growing today. The two soldiers have been missing since Saturday and search for them was abandoned yesterday. If they are still alive, they may be wandering in search of some native village or other habitation and have not been able to get into communication with friends.
The volcano remained comparatively quiet last night. Three explosions have occurred in the last 24 hours, but they did not approach the violence of Monday's demonstration.

PEOPLE WHO WERE ONCE GOOD LOOKING
A heartrending and yet interesting thing happened in a downtown store when a middle-aged lady got into a loud argument with a clerk. "I know what I want," she kept saying. "I have tried all those other things, but I know from what I saw it do for some friends of mine that it is Black and White Ointment which gets rid of these pimples and blotches. I was just as pretty as any girl when I was young, but I got careless and now I am in the fix you see."
So many people are now insisting on Black and White Ointment, and Black and White Soap, to get rid of pimples, blotches, eczema, rash, tetter, ringworm, "breaking out," etc., because they see and hear of the thousands of others who now know they can depend upon it. And they are more economical, too. The 50c size Ointment contains three times as much as the liberal 25c size. All dealers have both the Ointment and Soap.—Advertisement.

GRADUATES OF C.I.A. TO HAVE EXES REUNION

Classes of Last 10 Years to Start Commencement Activities Saturday.

DENTON, May 23.—C. I. A. exes from graduating classes of the last 10 years will inaugurate commencement activities at the College of Industrial Arts, Saturday. A business session of the graduates will be called to order in the afternoon at 2:30 in the household arts building, by Miss Mattie Craddock, president of the Ex-Students' association, and an alumnae banquet will be given at 6 o'clock in Brackenridge hall.

The employment of a permanent ex-student secretary will constitute the business to be brought before the meeting. A strenuous effort is being made to raise funds for this purpose, and the former students in attendance will be impressed with the necessity for an endowment. A small nucleus is now on hand.

The class of 1922, of which Miss Charlotte Kyle of Sherman is president, will be hostess at the alumnae banquet. Graduates of 1914 will be especially honored at this event. Friends and relatives of the former students have been extended invitations to attend. Miss Mattie Craddock will serve as toastmistress.

Following is the program which has been arranged for the banquet:

President's greeting, Miss Mattie Craddock; toast to the class of '14; Miss Mamie Walker; response, Mrs. Grace Christal Wooley of Dallas; vocal solo, Miss Hazel May of New York; music, Rotary orchestra; toast to the "odds," Miss Maurine Canon of Denton; toast to the "evens," Mrs. W. H. Hawley of Pilot Point; response, Miss Halcyon Bulbrook; toast to "Our Little Sisters," Miss Charlotte Kyle of Sherman; toast to "Our Big Sisters," Miss Ruth Knox, president of the student council; greeting, President F. LAFOLLETTE-WHEELER PROPOSED BI-PARTISAN TICKET BEING URGED

WASHINGTON, May 23.—Robert M. LaFollette, republican, for president, and Burton K. Wheeler, democrat of Montana, for vice president. This is the ticket the independent bi-partisan advocates will put into the field if a movement started by a group of progressive republicans and democrats is successful in persuading the Montana senator to take second place on the ticket, it was learned today from a responsible source.

The movement has been balked temporarily by the refusal of the Montana senator to accept the place picked for him, but those behind it have not abandoned hope of a final decision by Wheeler to run.

METHODISTS RETURN TO ANTI-WAR RESOLUTION

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., May 23.—Another drive to put over an "anti-war" resolution at the Methodist general conference was started today when a resolution was presented by Dr. Stockman.

The new resolution calls for a committee of 25, to include five bishops, whose duty it will be to call a conference of religious workers of the world in behalf of a crusade for universal peace. The new resolution also demands America's entrance into the League of Nations and court of international justice and urges President Coolidge to call another disarmament conference.

Americans Declared Most Gullible, Lose One Billion a Year

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., May 23.—"Americans, the most gullible people in the world, lost one billion dollars in fraudulent stock last year," Henry L. Doherty told delegates to the convention of the National Electric Light association, now in session here.

"More and more men are living today by fraudulent means. If we permit the criminal element to sell fraudulent stock to the people at the tune of a billion dollars a year, how can we ever hope to get the people interested in safe and legitimate securities. If the wage earner is to be taught how to save and become successful he must have safeguards thrown about him to ward off the pirates."

PROMINENT WOMEN REVEAL FACTS ABOUT KARNAK

Right: Mrs. Jennie Reeves

Of the many grateful statements given in praise of Karnak for the wonderful benefits obtained through its use probably none are more interesting than those of Mrs. Martin Chellev and Mrs. Jennie Reeves. Mrs. Chellev, who is a highly esteemed resident of 530 Cleveland avenue, Wichita, Kan., says: "Most all my life I have suffered from stomach trouble and for the past five or six years my condition was so deplorable I could hardly eat enough to keep body and soul together. Gas, from my undigested food, would press around my heart until I felt as if I would smother, and I was in misery for hours after every meal. I was nervous and sleepless and so weak and rundown I never felt like turning my hands to do a thing about the house. But Karnak helped me from the very start and now I am no longer bothered with any of my old troubles. I feel so strong and healthy I can do my housework with ease. I think Karnak is the grandest medicine on earth."

states: "For four years I suffered from such bad case of stomach trouble, weak spells and nervousness that I had about lost hope of ever being well again. Everything I ate caused me agony, and my nerves were strained near the breaking point every minute in the day. I had spent hundreds of dollars trying to get my health back and was about the most discouraged woman in Kansas City. Well, Karnak has restored me to perfect health, and I always feel eager for the day's work and pleasures now, just like I used to years ago. My gratitude to Karnak is simply unbounded." Karnak sets the stomach right, aids digestion, increases nutrition and strength, helps purify the blood and co-operates with Nature to restore the body to a condition of health, strength and vitality. Its phenomenal success has become the sensation of the drug trade. If you are not surprised and delighted with the substantial and lasting benefits received your money will be cheerfully refunded. Karnak is sold in Ranger by the Rexall Drug Store and Texas Drug store.—Advertisement.

THURBER WINS, DESDEMONA HAS GOOD RECORD

Fast Get-Away Enables Miners to Walk Aways With Victory.

Thurber and Desdemona met Thursday afternoon in a fast and splendidly played game at Desdemona, and, due to a fast get-away, the boys from the mining town copped the victory. Moore was in the box for Desdemona and King for Thurber and both were hit freely at times, but excellent field work kept runners from scoring. Only in the first and second innings, before Desdemona had got well warmed up, Thurber circled the diamond for seven runs and that runaway brought success. Desdemona tried for an eleventh-hour triumph come-back, but the attempt died out too soon.

S.S.S. stops Rheumatism. And with it pain and its ability of reaching the heart. "Rheumatism? Me? No, indeed, it's all gone, every bit of it! It's sunshine and joy for me now for the first time in years, I feel a wonderful glory."

My Rheumatism is all gone. In the free motion I used to have when my days were younger. I look at my hands and think of the twists and swellings they used to have. I bend way over to the floor. I haven't been able to do that in many years. I can thank S. S. S. for it all! To me it was a rising sun of joy and liberty. Brothers and sisters in misery, do not close your eyes and think that health, free motion and strength are gone from you forever! It is not so. It is here and now for all of you. S. S. S. is waiting to help you. There is a reason why S. S. S. will help you. When you increase the number of your red blood-cells, the entire system undergoes a tremendous change. Everything depends on blood-strength. Blood which is minus sufficient red-cells leads to a long list of troubles. Rheumatism is one of them. S. S. S. is the great blood-cleanser, blood-builder, system-strengthening, nerve-invigorator. It stops skin eruptions, pimples, blackheads, acne, boils, eczema. It builds up run-down, tired men and women, beautifies complexion, makes the flesh firmer. Start S. S. S. today. It is sold at all good drug stores. The larger size is more economical.

STUBBLEFIELD SUES TO FORECLOSE ON MASONIC BUILDING IN EASTLAND

Judge J. R. Stubblefield, as attorney for himself, has filed suit in the Ninety-first district court against the Eastland Masonic lodge and G. W. Fisher, asking for approximately $12,000 alleged to be due him on certain vendor's lien notes and a foreclosure of his lien on the Masonic temple and the land on which it is located. Plaintiff's petition alleges that G. W. Fisher is claiming some right or title to the premises. The petition also asks that the property be sold and that should the proceeds from such sale be insufficient to liquidate the claim of the plaintiff that other property belonging to the defendant be levied upon and sold to satisfy the claim. The petition recites that on Dec. 1, 1919, the Eastland Masonic lodge, through its worshipful master, P. L. Parker, executed and delivered to J. R. Stubblefield a series of 10 notes for $1,700 each and bearing interest at the rate of 8 per cent per annum and due one each year until the last of the series were paid, said notes carrying a clause by which it was agreed to pay 10 per cent additional on unpaid principal and interest if collected by an attorney or through the court. The petition also states that notes Nos. 1 and 2 and all interest on all notes up to 1921 has been paid and that a credit of approximately $1,600 has been allowed on other notes.

It is alleged that a clause in the notes provides that when any one of the series of notes, any part thereof or any installment of interest is not paid when due, the holder may, at his election, declare those unpaid to be due.

Georgia Lady Says She Has Grown Stronger by Taking Cardui—Thoroughly Convinced of Its Merits.

Clyattville, Ga.—In a statement which she gave at her home on R. F. D. 1, here, Mrs. T. A. Copeland said: "I have, I believe, avoided a good deal of suffering by the use of Cardui, and am thoroughly convinced that it has been of great benefit to me.

"Before the birth of two of my children, I grew so weak and nervous I could hardly go, and suffered . . . I had a friend who told me of Cardui, so the next time when I grew so weak and run-down I began to use it. I used it three months. I grew stronger and less nervous. The baby was stronger and a better baby, and I really believe it was because I built up my strength with this splendid tonic."

Cardui has been in successful use for more than forty years. Thousands of women have written to tell of the beneficial results obtained by taking Cardui, and to recommend it to others. It is a mild, harmless, purely vegetable medicinal preparation—a product of practical experience, scientific investigation and pharmaceutical skill. Sold everywhere. NC-169

"A Solid Quart of Dead Flies," Certainly, Sweet Dreams Spray

Restaurant Keeper Tries the "Kill While You Look" Remedy in Kitchen.

To be able to kill flies by the quart solves one of the big problems of restaurant keepers. The housewife, the operators of meat markets and bakeries, and others may well heed this testimony. Sweet Dreams Spray will solve any problem that arises from the presence of insects: flies, mites, moths, bed-bugs, ants or fleas. Sweet Dreams Spray is not a poison, and it kills insects while you look. It is therefore most highly recommended for general use. Half-pint, red-top cans, 40c. Larger packages much cheaper in proportion. Money refunded if not absolutely satisfactory. Sold by every dealer, everywhere.—Adv.
