If so, it might be well to pause a moment before spending the dollar or so now remaining of the bond issue. For in six months of use, the surface has been worn from this road and ruts are forming. In a year, teamsters will be pulling trucks out of chug holes.

But then, the bonds only run for forty years.

"In addition to the story of the announcement the paper contained helpful hints to the bride, advice to a young husband, and an editorial on marriage. The guests were then invited into the dining room, where 'a delicious four-course luncheon was served. In the center of the table were several small canoes on a reflector representing "Life's Stream." Each guest found a small canoe containing a modern version of Longfellow's "Hiawatha," which told of the courtship of the happy young couple. A tiny quill was run through the corner of each place card, which further carried out the scheme of Hiawatha.'

MILLIONAIRE DOUGHBOY HAS TWO LEGAL WIVES

IS WEATHER PROPHET

Many a man has two wives, but "Tom" Wells, millionaire doughboy of Youngstown, Ohio, has two legal wives with the permission of the courts. Tom went to war as a buck and came out a sergeant. Twelve years ago he married in New York Stella Welch, a beautiful manicurist, who helped him spend his coin. The call to war came and he took his bride to Chillicothe to remain until his return, if he were that fortunate. While he was fighting she was entertaining officers at her hotel suite. He came home sickened of war and desirous of leading a simple life, but she exclaimed.
