ARBITRATION OF ROAD FUSS IS SUGGESTED

Cisco Man Says People Cannot Afford to Have Money Wasted in Litigation.

That the opposing factions in the road squabble select two representative citizens of the county, to hear the arguments of all persons interested, and that the decision of this arbitration board be carried out, is the suggestion of Eugene Lankford of Cisco in a letter to the Times. Mr. Lankford's letter, giving his reasons for this suggestion, follows:

Editor Ranger Times:

I want to make a suggestion to all persons interested in Eastland county roads, through the press of the country.

I have taken no part in the road controversy of the county, and think I can truthfully say that I have no fixed opinion as to the merits of the controversy now going on by the different factions, and am no more friendly to one side than to the other,

As a citizen and taxpayer of the county, I am interested in having the roads finished so that we can use the roads which we have issued bonds to build; and I take it for granted that every citizen of the county is likewise interested.

Wet Weather Damage.

If we were to have a long wet spell of weather now, we could not use some of the roads without greatly damaging the work already done; and we are told that a further delay might cause a loss of the hundreds of thousands of dollars of government aid which we are entitled to.

We all know that this matter can be delayed almost indefinitely if it is fought out in the courts.

The question is: Can the citizens of Eastland county afford to have it done that way? Can any man, or set of men, afford to take the responsibility of causing this delay and consequent loss to the tax payers of the county of possibly a million dollars or more?

Another question of equal importance: If the people's money is being wantonly wasted, can the people afford to let it go on without a vigorous protest, and effective protest?

If these millions of dollars and the roads too belonged to the contending factions personally, it would still look foolish in them to waste the money and ruin the roads in litigation, but the rest of us could afford to let them "fight it out"—it would be their business—but should the tax-payers permit this awful waste by a factional fight, if that is what it is?

Wanton Arbitration.

My suggestion is this: Let us assume that every man connected with the road controversy is honestly doing what he thinks is right. Let us assume that each of them wants the people's money spent to the very best advantage; and that the contractors want what is justly due them and no more.

That all being true, each and all of them should be willing to select twelve good citizens of Eastland county to arbitrate and settle the whole affair. Surely there are twelve men in this county who are intelligent, non-partisan and fair enough to hear the evidence and argument of all interested, and do what is right by all concerned, including the tax-payers. The best men of the county should be selected for this purpose, and such a body of men would do justice to all, and save the world wek at once. Even if it is fought out in the courts, just men will have to settle it in the end so why not do it NOW?

Is there a man connected with the controversy who is too selfish to make this sacrifice, if sacrifice it be, for the welfare of his county? Surely not. Very sincerely,

EUGENE LANKFORD.

BERLIN UNIVERSITY BANS ALL STUDENT MEETINGS

BERLIN, Jan. 6.—Alarmed by the spread of radical propaganda among the students, the authorities of the University of Berlin have formally forbidden the student group of the Communist party to meet on the university campus for the next twelve months.

This action, says Dr. Newst, rector of the university, was taken in order to maintain academic discipline, which was sorely threatened by the ballyhoo youths.

OUSLEY HAILS FARM BUREAU AS GREATEST MOVEMENT IN AMERICA

DALLAS, Jan. 6.—The Farm Bureau movement and organization of co-operative marketing associations have been the cause of the action of the war finance board, and are the greatest undertakings in the history of the United States, Clarence Ousley, prominent Texas agriculture expert, and candidate for the United States senate, told delegates and visitors at the Friday morning session of the second annual Texas Farm Bureau federation convention which is meeting at the city hall auditorium.

The reports of the committee on constitution and by-laws recommended that it be made a permanent com-

SIDE SHOW

AUSTIN, Jan. 6.—Another skirmish growing out of the Peeler Clayton murder case was scheduled to be fought out here today.

Interest centered on the trial of Dr. J. E. Howze in corporation court for an alleged assault on Frederick Von Rosenberg, prominent Austin attorney. The altercation is said to have grown out of alleged statements by Von Rosenberg relating to a masked organization.

Howze is one of the defendants in the Clayton case.

By Associated Press.

HOLIDAY RECESS CUTS NORTH TEXAS OIL YIELD

WICHITA FALLS, Jan. 6.—With total runs slightly under 184,000 barrels for last week, the Wichita Falls district shows a decrease of approximately 4,000 barrels daily over the totals for the week previous, which in turn showed a 2,000-barrel loss from the 14,000-barrel average which is about normal for the district.

The holiday shutdown and the fact that there is no general clean-up of stocks the first of the month accounts for a part of this decline, the loss in the south part of the district being also attributed to natural decline in the flowing wells.

Burkburnett and Stephens showed the bulk of the losses. Each lost around 2,000 barrels daily.

Runs by pools follow: Burkburnett, 36,500; Electra, 11,400; Kemp-Munger-Allen and Iowa Park shallow, 2,750; Archer, Texoma and Holliday, 1,950; Petrolia, 340; Young county, 8,200; Stephens, 52,380; Ranger, 12,600; Comanche, 6,750; Strawn, 525; Brown, 460; Moran, 130; Coleman, 110.

Special to the Times.

EASTLAND, Jan. 6.—The Magnolia Petroleum company has filed suit here against the Wichita Falls, Ranger & Ft. Worth Railway company, seeking the collection of more than $6,000 alleged due on a promissory note and on a merchandise account with the oil company. It is set forth in the complaint that the plaintiffs hold a ninety-day note against the road, dated June 22, 1921, on which only $273 has been paid. Judgment is also asked in the sum of $3,035 alleged due on account.

Santa Claus Turns Bandit, Sticks Up Breckenridge Cafe

BOYD AND LINE ROBBERY CASE SET ON FEB. 15

Ranger Arson and Stolen Property Charges Also Set for Next Month.

Special to the Times.

EASTLAND, Jan. 6.—The conspiracy to rob cases against Lloyd Line and Johnny Boyd who are alleged to have planned to rob Joe Fiebrich, Ranger tailor, who was found murdered in his automobile on the night of Nov. 11, will be up for disposition in the Ninety-first district court on Feb. 15, according to the court calendar. Several other cases are set for trial on the same date including an arson case against Dan Reese of Ranger, and a receiving and concealing stolen property case against Carl Christian, also of Ranger.

Johnny Boyd was acquitted on a charge of murdering Fiebrich a month ago. Line who testified against Boyd and who was also indicted for the murder of Fiebrich, has never been brought to trial on the murder charge and the court calendar does not show that any murder case against him has been set for trial.

Dan Reese was convicted on Sept. 21 of the murder of B. Davis and sentenced to five years in the penitentiary. The case was appealed. The alleged act of arson is said to have preceded the killing of Davis and to have been one of the incidents leading up to the killing.

Carl Christian, junk dealer, was arrested by the Ranger police following the theft of casing from leases near that city, which is said to have been found on or near Christian's property.

By United Press.

WACO, Jan. 6.—Application for a habeas corpus hearing for Leonard White of Cameron, now serving a term in the penitentiary on a charge of criminal assault, was granted today by District Judge Richard I. Monroe. The hearing was set for Sunday.

Attorneys for White will seek his release on the ground that two women served on the grand jury which returned the indictment.

The court of criminal appeals has recently dismissed several McLennan county cases after the opinion that such a grand jury cannot return a valid indictment was rendered.

The offense charged against White took place in a Waco hotel, where it is alleged White criminally assaulted a Cameron girl.

"REASONING" GROCER SLUGGED BY BANDIT

FORT WORTH, Jan. 6.—L. B. Hester attempted to "reason" with a highwayman who entered his grocery store at 1705 East First street armed with a pistol and demanded Hester's life or his cash. The highwayman refused to argue and after slugging Hester into a semi-conscious condition snatched the money drawer containing about $20 from its moorings and dashed through the front door, entering a waiting automobile and was whisked off into the night.

Special to the Times.

BRECKENRIDGE, Jan. 6.—Disguised as Santa Claus but on a quite different mission, a lone bandit held up the Sorenson cafe, in downtown Breckenridge and escaped with $100, at midnight last night.

A night watchman in the back of the cafe did not know it was being robbed at the time and pedestrians who saw the fleeing "Santa" thought he was an employee of the cafe amusing himself by aping a fugitive Santa Claus.

The bandit wore canvas gloves to complete his disguise. It is not known whether he was white or black. His only words were the usual curt first greeting of a pickup man.

RATES ON MONEY DROP TO PREWAR LEVELS IN N. Y.

Extensive Offering Cause First Drop Below 5 Per Cent Since 1917.

By United Press.

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—Money rates dropped to new low levels here today. Time loans were made at 4% per cent for the first time since Sept. 4, 1917, while call money dropped to 3½ per cent, the lowest since July 8, 1921.

For some time money has stubbornly resisted breaking through the 5 per cent level, but extensive offerings of call money recently and the refusal of brokers to take offerings, caused the break in the rate. Call rates were forced downward by the plethora of money in the present time.

BELFAST RIOTS AGAIN.

BELFAST, Jan. 6.—Shooting and rioting occurred last night despite increased military and police patrols.

Troops were forced to fire upon riotous groups and a small girl and a man were seriously injured.

NEWBERRY CASE BEING CONSIDERED IN SENATE

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Official consideration of the Newberry senatorial contest was begun in the senate today under the unanimous consent agreement previously made.

"No sir," Hudler replied.

He later reiterated that he had no dealings with the Klan, when questioned by County Attorney Hornsby, who asked:

"Did you not ask Mr. Weber of 109 East Sixth street to join the Klan?"

"No sir," Hudler replied.

When Hornsby objected, saying:

"Since they have started this, we would like to go into it," Johnson allowed the question and also issued a subpoena for Weber.

TAXICABS MAKE PARIS STREETS DANGEROUS

PARIS, Jan. 6.—The Paris pedestrains are up in arms against the taxi chauffeurs, who have made walking on the streets of Paris a dangerous diversion.

As the French press pays little attention to accident stories the toll of deaths and injuries wrought by reckless motor traffic does not get the attention of the public. A committee of the town council, which has investigated the situation, puts the daily number of accidents at a hundred.

ECONOMY.
Economy is the watchword at Washington.

Nine million dollars, plus some odd hundred thousands, are asked to enforce prohibition upon dissenting millions.

Twenty million dollars are provided for Russian relief.

To balance these expenditures, congress turns to the maimed, the halt and the blind—the mutilated men who were wrecked by war—and proposes to gamble with their rehabilitation.

The object, to save $750,000.

It is proposed to substitute civilian doctors for army doctors in the government hospitals, and by cutting 20 per cent from the salaries, to save this sum.

Now, suppose you were one of the men who had gone into that hell in France, and had come out gassed, or shattered by bullets or shell fragments. Suppose through weary months under care of men who knew the complications of your injuries, you had gradually improved until recovery could be hopefully looked forward to. Then suppose they changed this doctor for another—one who was not in personal touch with your condition, one whose superficial examination could find nothing wrong, one who tried the mental system of treatment—"All you need is the nerve to get out of bed," and that sort of thing.

Now supposing all this, what would you think of the gratitude of a country for which you fought and suffered, and perhaps will continue to suffer all your life?

You would think patriotism is the bunk. And you would have a right to think so.

America, if it must economize, should under no circumstances economize at the expense of men who have given their health and well-being to the common cause. If congress does not know any better, the people should speak. A flood of letters from an outraged constituency will set the scientific pursepincers who started this thing in a mad scramble to right the wrong they are attempting.

Do you know a congressman? Have you a postage stamp?

MANHATTAN CAFE-THEATRE FIXTURES SOLD

The estate of Pappajohn Bros., including three-fourths interest in six residence lots in Dallas, Waco and Ranger, restaurant, bakery and picture show fixtures, and groceries, was bid in at the receiver's auction sale this morning by Raymond Teal and associates for $6,316.

No bid was received on the two Main street lots and buildings formerly occupied by the Manhattan cafe and Manhattan theatre. On the latter properties Receiver E. J. Barnes, acting as auctioneer, explained that there is an outstanding mortgage amounting to $16,177.

Dallas Men Bid.

The bakery, restaurant and theatre fixtures and the groceries were first sold separately and then as a whole with the real estate. Bids were carried from $2,000 to $6,316 by Raymond Teal and a representative of Zuber & Zuber, Dallas accountants, who are thought to have been acting for third parties.

It is stated that no attempt will be made by the purchasers to operate either the cafe or the picture show and that the purchase was in the nature of an investment. The sale is subject to the approval of the federal court.

The stock and fixtures of the Popular store on Main street was scheduled to be sold at auction this afternoon at 2 o'clock by W. D. Girard of Abilene, acting as receiver.

BAN ON PICKETS DENIED FORT WORTH PACKERS

FORT WORTH, Jan. 6.—Strikers have the right to gather on Exchange avenue and hold discussions with packing house workers, but have no right to threaten or interfere with the employees in any manner, ruled Referee George E. Miller after the hearing on the picketing injunction asked by Swift & Co. against the strikers had closed Thursday.

Miller will recommend to James C. Wilson, United States district judge, that he enjoin the seventy-one persons named in the injunction plea and their comrades against committing any unlawful acts, that the court order the strikers to allow the workers free access to the packing plants and to refrain from stopping street cars or other vehicles which the employees of Swift & Co. are riding.

Miller, when Swift first filed an injunction plea several weeks ago, was appointed referee in the matter, but the packers and strikers reached an agreement before the hearing started.

Attorneys for the packers, asserting that the agreement had been violated by the strikers and the Butcher Workmen's union, filed a new injunction petition last Monday and the hearing was opened Wednesday afternoon.

He was discovered and released after daylight.

DOG HILL PARAGRAPHS

By GEORGE BINGHAM

Flim Dillard is one of our most natty young men and he keeps that way by being particular with his clothes. And now, since getting his new pair of pants he has got an oil can with a long spout on it, so he can stand back and oil his bicycle without getting grease on himself.

Raz Barlow stood near the road last Sunday afternoon and found fault with a nice looking young man from near Thunderation, who has set in to going with Miss Peachie Sims.

Fletcher Henstep has found that one main trouble about drinking is that you always have just drunk a little too much or not quite enough.

"FAIR AND COLDER" BUT HEALTHY

"Come on in," said Miss Ida Schnall to the photographer, but he stayed put. "We don't blame him for not following her advice, for the water is quite chilly these mornings. Miss Schnall is a snowbird, that is she just delights in taking a dip in the ocean or running around the snow-covered sands at Brighton Beach. She says that it makes one healthy, and we replied, "Who wants to be healthy?"

INCOME TAX COLLECTOR TELLS HOW TO FIGURE EXEMPTIONS

The following statement is issued by Collector of Internal Revenue George C. Hopkins, of the second district of Texas:

The revenue act of 1921 contains two new and important provisions, which are the subject of frequent inquiry. The first relates to personal exemptions allowed married persons, and the second to the provision requiring that a return be made of gross income of $5,000 or more.

The personal exemptions allowed married persons, apply also to the head of a family, a person who supports in one household, one or more relatives by blood, marriage or adoption.

Heretofore a person whose net income was less than his exemption ($1,000 if single, or $2,000 if married) was not required to file a return. Under the revenue act of 1918 the personal exemption allowed a married person was $2,000 regardless of the amount of net income. The normal tax rate remains unchanged, 4 per cent on the first $4,000 of net income above the exemptions and 8 per cent on the remaining net income.

"Net income" is gross income, less certain deductions. The fact that allowable deductions from gross income, for business expenses, losses, bad debts, etc., may reduce the net income to an amount below the personal exemptions of $1,000 or $2,000, does not alter the requirement to file a return of gross income, if such gross income equals or exceeds $5,000.

For example, on a net income of $5,010, the tax, without this saving clause, would be $120.40 which is 4 per cent on $3,010, the amount of net income less an exemption of $2,000.

The actual tax is $110.40, computed as follows: From the net income of $5,010 is deducted $2,500, leaving $2,510, the 4 per cent tax on which amounts to $100.40. To this is added $10, "the amount of net income in excess of $5,000."

The personal exemptions allowed married persons, apply also to the head of a family, a person who supports in one household, one or more relatives by blood, marriage or adoption.

SINN FEIN HEAD RESIGNS, THEN CHANGES MIND

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Eamonn de Valera, after presenting his resignation as president of the "Irish republic" to the Dail Eireann today, withdrew it upon condition that a vote be taken on the peace treaty with England tomorrow. In his speech of resignation, which carried with it the dissolution of his ministry, De Valera declared that he would only remain at the head of the Sinn Fein as a "republican." Later he agreed to remain as president if a vote were taken tomorrow.

Earlier in the day the Dail had rejected De Valera's alternative proposal which he submitted to take the place of the treaty signed at Downing street. "I will never be a British subject," De Valera exclaimed, indicating that he expects the treaty to be ratified.

U.S. WOULD BAR POISON GAS IN FUTURE WARS

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Consideration of the submarine question was concluded today by the five-power naval committee with the adoption of the final Root resolution, declaring submarine commanders who with or without orders from their government violate the existing international law of submarine warfare to be guilty of piracy.

The American delegation, through Mr. Root, also brought forth new proposals to prohibit the use of poison gas in future wars. It is said to have been received favorably by the delegates but decision was deferred until tomorrow.

ACTIVITY EXPECTED IN SHALLOW FIELD TO WEST

MORAN, Texas, Jan. 6.—Considerable enthusiasm is manifest here over the development of the shallow sands in this section of the state. The Terrell shallow field, three miles west of here, has eleven producing wells and several others drilling, with prospects for a greatly increased development within the very near future.

The shallow field in northern Callahan county to the south of here is now producing around 150 barrels daily, and many new wells are expected in shortly. Homer Peoples, Un-green & Simons, Moore & Sneed and the Baird Oil Development company are the principal operators in that field. Oil from that field is being run through the Texas company's pipe line to the Moran station.

AMARILLO TO JOIN WEST TEXAS LEAGUE

AMARILLO, Jan. 6.—Amarillo is to be a member of the West Texas league during 1922, according to an announcement made here today by A. Rankin Johnson, manager of the Amarillo Grays last season. Johnson and Hal Witherspoon, joint owners of the local ball park, will leave for Stamford Sunday to attend a meeting of the West Texas league Monday.

Amarillo ball fans and business men are jubilant over the announcement. The wonderful success of the Amarillo Grays last season has aroused a great deal of enthusiasm in Amarillo over baseball, and the fans have demanded that if Amarillo enter the league that only a permanent winning team shall be maintained.

A corresponding reduction in all other prices of barber shop luxuries and necessities has been made. The scale of 65 cents for a haircut and 35 cents for a shave has been effected here since the oil boom assumed large proportions.

PEACE TREATY ENDS DETROIT TRACTION FEUD

By Associated Press

DETROIT, Mich., Jan. 6.—A "treaty of peace" between the city of Detroit and the Detroit United railway, agreed to recently by plenipotentiaries of each, shortly will give Detroit the distinction of having the most extensive municipally owned street car system in the world.

Under the "treaty," signing of which marks the end of a twenty-year war, the city proposes to take over soon the entire holdings of the company on a rental basis. At some time during 1922 the electors of the city will be called upon at a special election to vote on a question of purchase of the property by the city. As the people here have approved every municipal street railway project advanced in recent years, city officials expect the municipality will have the entire street car field here to itself before the beginning of 1923.

When the city assumes control its municipal street railway system will consist of 476 miles of trackage, putting it far ahead of San Francisco, its nearest rival in municipal street railway operation. The west coast city's municipal system has but sixty miles of track.

A PACIFIST FLEA

PARIS, Jan. 6.—A non-biting flea has been produced in a scientific laboratory here.

A scientist confined a pair of fleas in a glass case and fed them on milk. The fourth generation of this flea family, nourished exclusively on sweetened milk, were finally introduced to the scientist's naked arm, but they declined to use it as pasture and treated it merely as a playground. Even after a three-days fast the insects refused to take advantage of the arm of the woman laboratory assistant which was heroically offered them.

The entomologist deduces that the flea is not blood thirsty by nature but only by force of circumstances.

WILDCAT GASSER IN PALO PINTO COUNTY

MINERAL WELLS, Jan. 6.—It is reported here that the Jack Dalton No. 1 on the R. S. Dalton ranch, about twelve miles northwest of this city is making 10,000,000 feet of wet gas at 3,732 feet. The driller states that the line has just been entered. The Jack Dalton is a wildcat proposition and should it prove a good producer, which is indicated, it will open a larger area of new territory in the Palo Pinto county field. It is located about half way between Hart-Seaman field and the Whitt gasser and is about ten miles south of the Holt No. 1 well, which has been producing for nearly four years.

FATHER INSISTS ON TRIAL FOR DAUGHTER'S MURDER

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 6.—Martin Lemberger was formally accused Thursday of fourth degree manslaughter of his daughter Annie, on the night of Sept. 5, 1911.

The death of the 7-year-old girl sent John A. Johnson to prison to serve a life sentence. He had served ten years under protest of innocence when a dramatic turn at his pardon hearing last fall brought an accusation against the child's father.

Lemberger was to be arraigned next Monday, Judge A. C. Hopperman announced in court this morning his verdict on the long preliminary hearing of the Lemberger case. It was learned Lemberger would refuse to waive the statute of limitations which is fourth degree manslaughter in six years. It was said in court circles that he might free himself by that action. Meanwhile arrangements are going forward to complete action in Johnson's application for a pardon.

FORD HAS RIVAL

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—A new proposal for the lease and operation of the government's nitrate and water power projects at Muscle Shoals, Ala., was received Thursday by Secretary of War, from Frederick E. Engstrum of Wilmington, N. C., president of the New Port Shipbuilding company of that city.

FLOWERS FOR THE DEAD! BOUQUETS FOR RETIRING DEAN OF UMPIRES

By International News Service

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—Hank O'Day the veteran umpire, is reported to be about to tender his resignation to President Heydler, of the National league. If O'Day does retire the game of baseball will lose one of its most famous characters—an umpire who has stood the knocks of baseball fans and critics for a quarter of a century with sturdy and honest indifference, knowing full well that he was always doing his best in the toughest jobs that any man was ever called on to fill. An umpire's work is never appreciated and probably never will be.

Still, Hank O'Day will sever his connection with the national game with the love and respect of the baseball public, and his retirement will be a sad loss to the sport. Hank was stern in his rulings, prompt in making his decisions and strict and firm in his dealings with players.

Knows Rules Thoroughly.

No man knows the rules of the game any better than O'Day. Players as a general thing are not well versed in the rules. The majority of players, in fact, never make a close study of the rules.

Hank O'Day received his appointment as a National league umpire from Nick Young of Washington, D. C., when he was president of the parent baseball organization. "Uncle Nick" never regretted making the appointment. Hank became so proficient that he soon gained the reputation of being the best umpire on Young's staff and was assigned to the most important contests.

Hank saw many umpires come and go, but both he and Bob Emslie, who was also appointed by Nick Young, lasted through the regimes of all the presidents who followed "Uncle Nick." Harry Pulliam succeeded Young, and it was during the latter's administration that Hank made his famous over-night decision in 1908 when Fred Merkle failed to touch second base. That resulted in the game being called "no contest." The game was played off the next day on the Polo Grounds.

Cubs Won Pennant.

The Chicago Cubs won out, thereby winning the deciding game for the championship of the National league.

O'Day was a pitcher, as was Eddie, in his playing career. Hank was on the Washington Nationals, and from there came to this city and became a member of the Giants, together with Mickey Welch and Tim Keefe. Hank drifted back to Chicago and was quickly appointed an umpire. He has not enjoyed the best of health since he was hit by a foul tip on his right ear, necessitating a serious operation. Hank must be about 65 years of age, but he appeared to have good eyesight and excellent judgment last season.

Hank O'Day will be missed. He is a grand old character.

Debs, Socialist leader recently freed from the Atlanta penitentiary by President Harding, is suffering from heart trouble and will not be able to make his intended speaking tour of the country until his condition improves, it was said here by Otto Branstritter, national executive secretary of the Socialist party.

SPORTS

MAXWELL SAYS AGGIES PLAYED
BETTER BALL THAN HARVARD

BOSTON, Jan. 6.—Robert W. Maxwell of Philadelphia, who referred the Harvard-Centre game last fall and umpired the Centre-Texas A. &amp; M. game Monday is quite emphatic in his statements that the Texans played by far better and harder football than did Harvard against the Centre team last October, according to advice received here. Harvard, however, does not take very kindly to Maxwell's opinion as is only natural.

Athletic authorities at Harvard point to the fact that James "Red" Roberts, all-American end and Centre's 1922 captain-elect, injured a knee in the opening period and never was at top form.

"Thereafter the Danville collegians lost 50 per cent of their efficiency when Roberts was hurt," declared Coach Fisher at Harvard today. "Any one who saw the Harvard-Centre game realizes this fact which accounts for the difference between victory and defeat as far as Centre is concerned," he added.

Outplayed Harvard.

"Texas played far better and harder football than Harvard did against Centre," insists Maxwell. "That is my honest belief and while I realize that there will be men who will fail to agree with me, my observations of both games warrants such an opinion.

"The Texas Aggies went in 1 to 4 choices and the Centre rooters expected about a 40 to 0 victory and the Texans won.

"Why? Because they played football, real football, far better football than Harvard did and they surely deserve every bit of credit that it is possible to give them. Personally I think that the injury to Roberts had but little to do with the outcome.

"Bo McMillin's playing his last game for Centre, was not by any means his usual brilliant self and the fact that he had been married at Fort Worth in the forenoon unconsciously caused him to carefully avoid any injury.

Marriage III Advised.

"His marriage, I believe, taking place at the time it did, was ill advised and had considerable to do with his playing even though he did not realize it himself.

"In any event the downfall of the Kentucky tourists will be vividly recalled next October and they are assured of a hot reception when Harvard tries to turn the tables. There will be no McMillin at the helm of the Centre eleven, but the fact remains that only Harvard and Georgia Tech, in 1920 and Texas A. &amp; M. in 1922 have defeated Centre since Charlie Moran took up the coaching reins at Danville back in 1917.

"In the face of returns it is apparent that Centre slowly but surely will fade out of the football picture. The Centre game has done a tremendous amount of good for football in Texas, a fact which will be greatly appreciated in the coming years.

"Centre, however, has one chance of redeeming Monday's defeat by vanquishing Harvard on Oct. 21, one week before Dartmouth sweeps down for its first stadium appearance in a decade. That game alone will tell whether Centre's prestige will be re-established."

URBANA, Ill., Jan. 6.—Fifteen of the sixteen greatest butterfat producing cows in the world—every one of them a super-cow—are to be found in the United States, reports Prof. W. W. ## CELLARWARD.

Tonight when Elks, Shriners, Masons and others of the elite push the elevator buttons at the Ghoson, they will say "Basement, please," and almost as soon as the words are uttered, they will descend into a veritable paradise, which is unusual in descensions—for using a slang phrase, "they will get an eye full." I got a peek last night and it is worth the price of admission alone, just to see what a wonderful place this is and to realize that Ranger has another asset—for a ball room in an environment like this is an asset—and it's hinted that oftentimes, when it is not acting in the capacity of a ball room, it will be used for other social affairs. It will at least be of great service to us when we are hosts to conventions or other notable events. What has heretofore been a solitary empty room, throbbing only to the echo of the feet of passersby on the sidewalk above, will tonight for the first time hearken to the lilt of music, the rustle of women's gowns, the laughter of men and women, boys and girls, for this opening promises to be the beginning of many social affairs housed within its four walls, and we know that no matter how deadly quiet it has been before, the Shrine club "hop" will surely wake it up.

The password is "Basement please;" the time, 8:30; the place, the Ghoson hotel.

BENEFIT BRIDGE PARTY TOMORROW

Reports from the various members on the ticket selling committee for the benefit bridge party to be given tomorrow afternoon at the Ghoson, are very encouraging and this will undoubtedly be one of the largest card parties ever held in Ranger. Tickets can be had from any of the committee and are also on sale at Crawford's Pharmacy.

The party will begin promptly at 2 o'clock, so if you haven't yet secured your ticket you'd better get busy.

The first two or three meant nothing in her young life.

Then she began to observe them.

Then she began to celebrate them.

Then she not only celebrated them, but advertised them.

Then she decided that it would be wiser just to observe them.

Finally she denied them.

However, there are always a few kind friends to remind her of them and to keep the score for her.—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

FEMININE MYSTERY IS THE BUNK, WOMAN'S MIND IS SHALLOW, SAYS MAN WHO'S SUPPOSED TO KNOW
By International News Service
BY LEO T. HEATLEY.

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—There are no wild women; "feminine mystery" is the bunk; Mrs. Grundy was a bachelorette; a woman's best career is a man; Eve wore a fig leaf for vanity, not modesty; every wife is an open book to her husband; woman is a natural law breaker; the feminine mind is shallow.

The above, let us hasten to explain are not necessarily our views, but the expressed opinions of W. L. George, English novelist and expert on feminism, who has arrived here to tour the country giving lectures on "Woman's Intelligence—if Any."

"I don't believe there is such a thing as a wild woman," he said, "but if there is you can cure her by giving her a chance to become more wild."

Mr. George made it appear that man's traditional notion of woman's mystery and woman's notion of man's obviousness are equally fallacious.

"There is only the mystery of man kind," he said. "We are all mysterious."

The reporters of both sexes were cheered by this impartial decision. Mr. George then delivered this warning to some women:

"Their husbands know perfectly well what they're up to, what intrigues are being plotted, but the husbands don't let on because they have something else to do. Women do not realize the place that other things hold in a man's mind. It is true a woman can hold up against a man's career, but, as a rule, not long, because after he has the woman he doesn't want her so much, but after he has a career he wants more and more career. He is so eaten up by the career he hasn't the mental energy to worry about the woman's mind, or to discuss things that interest him."

Men are supposed to have no mystery. That's because we are supposed to talk about such dull things as business, railroad speed, the number of bootleggers caught per week per square mile, and so on. Moreover, man's way with a maid is supposed to be a very simple thing. He's supposed to go like a caveman with a club and run off with her."

Holland has three women members of parliament, one in the first chamber and two in the second chamber.

'MILK WAGONS' DELIVER BOOZE IN PITTSBURGH
By International News Service

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 6.—Federal prohibition agents in Pittsburgh have to step awful lively to keep up with the pace set by illicit whisky traffickers. The bootlegging gentrified devise new means and methods of distribution every few days and usually keep about a lap ahead of Uncle Sam's men.

Milk bottles, painted white, are being used to distribute whisky over regular routes in the Pittsburgh district. This camouflage for the illegal liquor traffic was uncovered by prohibition enforcement agents a day or two ago.

Much whisky is being moved over Allegheny county roads, dry agents declare. It was said at prohibition headquarters that 100,000 cases of liquor had been secured through legal channels and hidden away for months during the time permits were handed out right and left. Most of this whisky is cached in barns and other buildings and the reserve supply is drawn on as requirements demand. These caches cannot be raided because the prohibition agents lack evidence of illegal transportation or sales upon which to secure search warrants.
