TORNADO WRECKS BEAUMONT BUILDINGS

PIONEER FIELD NOW WATCHING BRYSON LEASE

Well There, Three Miles South of Production, Is Nearing Pay Depth.

About fifteen wells are now being drilled in the Pioneer field, six of which are located in the townsite on blocks of pooled lots, according to Jack Jarvis, formerly of Ranger, who is interested in the hotel business there. Since the Lucky Thirteen was brought in, interest of the oil men in the Pioneer field has centered around the well being drilled on the Bryson lease, three miles south of the Eakin well, which if brought in will prove up big acreage between production, he states.

Two of the wells now drilling are owned by the States Oil company. The Humble company has three drilling wells offsetting the King well on the south and east. Two wells are being drilled by George Beggs of Fort Worth, one of them on the Dodson lease. A half dozen other drilling wells are located in the townsite and another on the school grounds.

Four hotels, four tent houses and an eating house are now in operation. Unemployed workmen are warned to still stay away from Pioneer by Mr. Jarvis, who explained that there is not sufficient work to take care of the influx of men seeking jobs in the new field.

"Inspired by many friends from all parts of the state urging my entrance into the present campaign which private affairs prevent, I wish to say that I shall respond to their desire by being a candidate for governor of the great state of Texas two years hence."

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—The wrecking of the commercial seaplane Miss Miami off the Florida coast with the loss of five passengers, was said tonight by Rear Admiral Moffett, chief of the naval air service, to support the contention of army and navy air service officials that every airplane should be required by law to be equipped with radio communication instruments.

The Miss Miami disaster, he said, was additional proof, if any were needed, of the urgent need of the passage of the bill now before congress, creating a bureau of aeronautics in the department of commerce, for the regulation of commercial aviation.

GIRL HOBOS CAUGHT RIDING THE RODS TOWARD CALIFORNIA

Two Wichita Falls girls, who claimed to be "beating their way to California," were taken into custody last night by Sergeant Jim Daniels and Constable Faircloth, in company with four male companions. All but two of the party were from Wichita Falls. The girls, who gave their ages as 18 and 19 and claimed to have been employed as telephone operator and cashier, respectively, in their home town, told the officers that they were going to marry two of the boys. The entire party, according to their story, were put off of a Texas & Pacific train at Wiles Saturday night and walked into Ranger. Their presence here became known to the officers when complaints were received from North Austin street residents, that hoboes were occupying a vacant house in the neighborhood.

Both girls wore trousers over their skirts while "riding the bumpers." They have promised the officers that they will return to their homes if released. The sextet is being held for investigation by the police.

NEARBY VILLAGE IS BLOWN AWAY; SEVERAL DYING

Norvill-Wilder Building Collapses; Wreckage Strews Streets; Cars Stopped.

BEAUMONT, March 25.—A small tornado passed through Beaumont at 5:15 this evening, leveling a number of buildings and seriously damaging some business houses. So far as can be determined, no one was killed within the city limits but six seriously injured are at the hospital. The extent of their injuries have not been determined. Two are suffering from broken legs and one from a fractured skull. Three are negroes.

Word from Fannett, a village on the Gulf & Interstate railroad, fifteen miles from Beaumont, between here and Galveston, is reported destroyed. A man arriving from there shortly after 6 o'clock reported one death there. The victim is the father of Chief of Police Ben Johnson of this city.

The twister passed through Beaumont making its exit to the east into Orange county. Just what farmhouses were struck has not been determined, but an undertaking establishment has been notified to send an ambulance there to bring the injured to a hospital here.

Norvill-Wilder Hit.

The Norvill-Wilder Hardware company's building was wrecked and the front walls collapsed. The J. M. Gordon Wholesale Grain company warehouse was unroofed and one brick wall collapsed, burying a large automobile underneath it.

At the corner of Park and Bowie streets a number of shacks occupied by negroes were demolished. As a result Park street is a pile of wreckage for three or four blocks. It was at this point the six persons were hurt. A barbecue stand collapsed, but everyone escaped except one negro employed in the establishment, who was felled by flying brick just as he was fleeing from the front door.

12 KINDS OF MONEY, 5 PRODUCTS, SENT BY RUSS TO PAY SMALL BILL

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—Striking evidence of the chaotic and almost impossible conditions under which business now is being conducted in Russia appears in a letter received here by a diplomatic officer from a representative in Constantinople of one of the largest English wholesale companies doing business in the Levant.

Among the statements made are these:

"We are trying to do business with the soviets. Our last venture was to send goods to Rostov and we received in part payment:

"American paper dollars, American gold (a small amount), American checks (Near East Express and others), American exchange (bankers), English notes and checks, Turkish gold, checks and paper notes, French notes and checks and Russian gold rubles.

"Of the checks, not one was over 40 pounds sterling and there were five different currencies and about as many different rates of exchange. We also had given to us wool, guts, horsehair, pigs' bristles and cement; and after these were sold we credited them with the difference.

"It is a hopeless task.

"Our salesmen estimate that before next harvest 20,000,000 people will have died for want of nutrition. I think it will ultimately end in some sort of seacoast control of some districts by corporations interested and protected by their own troops or employed troops, preferably Russians.

Exchange at Tiflis has gone beyond repair—it is now about 2,500,000 to a pound sterling. It will eventually have to be sold as waste paper and weighed as such."

By Associated Press.

HOUSTON, March 25.—A temporary injunction of nationwide importance restraining negro Shriners, so-called, throughout the United States from wearing the Shrine emblem and from using names particular to the Shrine was granted Saturday by Judge Ewing Boyd in the Fifty-fifth district court.

WINDOWS SMASHED

Along Pearl and Orleans streets, the main business thoroughfare, scores of plate glass windows were demolished and many shoppers were cut by flying glass.

The Terrell rice mill also reports damage but not of a serious nature. Phone service was demoralized making the gathering of exact information very difficult. Rumors of large death lists, however, have proven untrue. The cyclone came in the midst of a heavy rainstorm. Rain began falling this morning at 10 o'clock and there has been almost a continuous downpour throughout the day. It is estimated the rainfall will run four or five inches within that time.

Street Cars Stopped.

Street car service was suspended on account of leveled trolley wires but will be resumed within a few hours.

A messenger arriving from Fannett asked that every ambulance in the city and a number of doctors go to that town.

An unidentified white man picked up in the Fannett road, fifteen miles from this city, is dying at the hospital here.

Salvina Tarhan, a negro woman taken from the debris at Park and Bowie streets here, also is reported dying.

JUROR WALKS ALL NIGHT IN RAIN TO BE ON TIME FOR OPENING OF COURT

CARMEL, N. Y., March 25.—Pillow, retired expert accountant, walked all night through the rain from his home near Garrison, on the Hudson to Carmel, a distance of twenty miles, to attend supreme court here as a trial juror.

His journey across the mountains was through a wooded section of ten miles where there are no houses. Believing it to be the duty of all jurymen to arrive at court on time, he left his home at 9 p. m. and, with two lanterns, started for the county seat. The heavy rainstorm put out his lanterns and after being puzzled several times at crossroads he reached the courthouse shortly before 5 o'clock. Being unacquainted with the county seat, he called out on the village street for information, and a woman popped out her head and informed him that there was a hotel near the station. Locating the hotel, he was unable to wake the manager, but, finding a public telephone on the porch, he called the manager and was taken in. His clothing was wet and he was suffering with a cold when he answered his name in court.

OMAHA, Neb., March 25.—Twenty-four hours in a cell took all the joy out of the soulmate honeymoon of Mrs. Thelma Slimmers, 21 years old, pretty wife of a Volga, S. D. farmer, and Carl Tolliver, wealthy farmer of Brookings, S. D. Although Mrs. Slimmers and Tolliver rode from the city jail to the union station together in a police automobile, they apparently did not recognize each other en route. NEW YORK, March 25.—Black gloves, somber funeral countenances and bleak, mournful undertakers' parlors will be discarded by New York undertakers, if suggestions made Tuesday at the convention of the Associated Undertakers of Greater New York are adopted.

WOULD PINCH PARENTS WHEN KIDS STAY OUT

Criminal Habits Are Formed in Short Pants Stage, Declares Oles.

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, March 25.—"Keep the kids off the street after 8 o'clock," Mayor George L. Oles advised parents today. "I don't believe in arresting kids for violating the curfew, but the parents. The time to nip outcroppings of criminalism and bad citizenship is in the short-trousers stage."

"I was going to say the short-skirt stage, too, but I remember now that many women of advanced years wear skirts as short as the 10-year-olds. The way parents permit their children to roam at night is nothing short of scandalous. Any pleasant night I see hundreds of children cavorting in the streets, licking up bad ideas and learning to talk bad language."

"When I was a boy parents knew where their children were every night and every hour of the night. We went to bed at a decent hour and if we went wrong in later life it was our fault, not the fault of our parents."

Street Play Ruins.
"Nowadays all is changed, the streets have become a training ground for jazz, drunkenness, immorality of all kinds and disregard for domestic virtues. I know we cannot reform the world at once, but I do know that we can do our bit toward making the next generation better than the present one."

"If the parents will not do it the city will put the boys and girls to bed at the proper time. If one patrol isn't enough we will have council buy several more. The job is worth the money, and when we take these kids home and find the parents skylarking away from home, we will use the patrol wagon to bring them in, too. And we will put them in the lock-up and keep them there till morning."

"Fathers and mothers who have so little regard for their children that they let them run the streets after dark are far more guilty than the children."

"I honestly believe that most of the so-called vices of today can be traced to lax control of children by parents twenty years ago. We all have to go back to the code of morals of forty years ago to unlearn many of the things that have become popular since and which are filling our police stations and other divorce courts."

TYPISTS' DOLLING UP COSTS UNCLE SAMMIE SIX MILLIONS A YEAR

WASHINGTON, March 25.—Uncle Sam's stenographers lose $6,000,000 worth of the government's time each year rouging their cheeks and lips. There are 40,000 girls on the government payroll as typists and stenographers. They receive $1,200 a year and upwards.

Efficiency experts of the treasury report the girls spend at least one hour daily with their cosmetics during office hours.

The "dolling up" results in a loss of about 155,000,000 hours of actual working time.

COAST 'HE FLAPPERS' POWDER FACE, ALSO PENCIL EYEBROWS

SACRAMENTO, Cal., March 25.—Enter the he flapper, announced by Job Wood, deputy state director of education, here Wednesday. In describing the male counterpart of the flapper, Wood said:

"The he flapper should rightly be termed the flipper. He is found of late in our colleges, high schools and in the ballroom and the dancing academy."

"Here is my description of the he flapper, or flipper:

"Hair parted in the middle and slicked down at the sides, thinned eyebrows, penciled; powdered face, low starched collar with lavender tie, perfumed silk handkerchief in upper coat pocket, tight fitting light suit, giving so-called 'willow' figure effect; swaggar stick and gloves. To this description one should add a supercilious smirk and identification is comparatively easy."

BARRAGE OF PIES ROUTS HIJACKERS

CHICAGO, March 25.—A sudden barrage of blueberry pies surprised and routed two robbers who attempted to hold up William Philiponis in his restaurant today. The robbers fled, leaving behind $350.

$7 BILL WAS ISSUED BY CONTINENTAL CONGRESS
ATLANTA, Ga., March 25.—Doubtless few people ever heard of a $7 bill. Certain it is that few ever saw one, but such a bill is being exhibited by J. W. Sewer, a printer, who has had it in his possession forty years. The bill was issued by the Continental congress in 1778, three years before the articles of confederation were ratified.

Michigan Students Seek 'Unkissed Man' Who Objects to Campus 'Snuggle-Pupping'

ANN ARBOR, Mich., March 25.—Students at the University of Michigan are waging an intensive "gum-shoe" campaign in an effort to locate one of their number, who in a letter in the Michigan Daily, the student publication, over the signature, "The Man Who Has Never Been Kissed," severely criticizes the "promiscuous loving" in which he declares the male students and co-eds indulge. Male students are vowing vengeance on the writer.

The writer says the protest is the result of an editorial appearing in the daily which he construes as condoning so-called "snuggle-pupping."

Taking the publication to task for not "striking a well-needed blow at an immoral practice that is disgustingly and shamelessly evident on our campus," the "man who has never been kissed" asserts also that "almost every place where co-eds are housed on the campus has become an established retreat for 'petting.'"

Joseph A. Bursley, dean of men, doubts the widespread existence of such practices as those of which the writer complains, "explaining while there might be some instances in such a large student body, 'the hope of this university lies in the large number of right-minded men and women who are disgusted with such vulgar practices and heartily and actively disprove them.'"

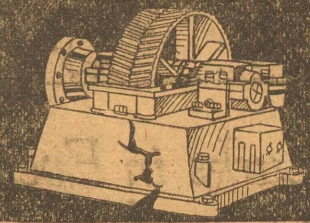

WOMAN'S RIGHTS BILL KILLED IN MISSISSIPPI

JACKSON, Miss., March 25.—By a vote of 21 to 16 the Mississippi senate indefinitely postponed consideration of the so-called woman's bill of rights. It was predicted by members that the bill would not come up again this session. The bill, introduced by Senator Roberts and said to have the approval of the National Woman's party, sought to give women of this state "all the rights, privileges and immunity granted by law to men."

BRIGHT PUPIL PUT GLUE IN TEACHER'S OVERSHOES

MONUMENT, Col., March 25.—Expelled from school because of unruliness, Joe Sloan, 16, is the center of a controversy raging at Monument, where S. H. Stannaford, teacher at the Consolidated school, is under arrest charged with inflicting bodily injury on the lad who caused more of a commotion at school than even Mary's little lamb.

Stannaford will be given a hearing on the charge preferred by the boy's mother, Mrs. F. D. Sloan.

Sloan, called by school officials much worse than Peck's bad boy, lost favor with his teachers for such little tricks as putting glue in teacher's overshoes, garlic on the radiator and plaster of paris in the keyholes, it is said.

Stannaford remonstrated and the two finally clashed in physical battle. The lad, large for his age, got the worst of the two-round fight and his mother took the cause when Joe returned home with a black eye and a split lip.

DIVORCES HUSBAND SO HE MAY WED ANOTHER

DENVER, March 25.—Mrs. Grace Jarrett Stoffel obtained a divorce from her husband, George Stoffel, proprietor of a garage, to permit her husband to marry another woman, Miss Nellie Phillips. The divorce decree, when made permanent after six months, will allow Stoffel to give his name to Miss Phillips and their two children.

Last August it was publicly disclosed that Stoffel maintained two homes when Miss Phillips complained to the county court that Mrs. Stoffel was seeking to gain possession of the two children and thus would deprive her of her "own flesh and blood." Phillips was acknowledged as the father of the children.

AMERICAN CAPITAL TO BUILD RAILROADS IN ASIATIC TURKEY

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 25.—

A conventionalized figure of a young American has been proposed for adoption as a sort of patron saint for the new Armenian nation. The original suggestion to this effect was made in a prose-poem written by the celebrated Armenian writer, Sebah Stepanian, and published in the Armenian weekly, Shavige.

Copied and embossed and framed in scores of Armenian communities throughout the Near East, his picturesquely phrased composition reads in part:

"The Patron Saint of Armenia today is an energetic, athletic young person. He is rich, not only in purse but also in heart. He is our American uncle; his star is the emblem of his generous gifts. "Thus there has been another star added to the starry flag of our American uncle, the Star of Armenia. We have bound ourselves as a nation to America, we have become in spirit an Asiatic state of the great United States of America."

GIRLS, KISSED, IMMUNE; 51 OTHERS CATCH FLU

ALBANY, N. Y., March 25.—How an 11-year-old boy, suffering from influenza, infected forty of fifty-one guests at a rural "sociable" in a sparsely settled district on Long Island was recounted today in an official statement from the state health department. An unaccountable feature of the case, the report said, was the fact that six girls who attended were among the eleven not infected, although, said the report, "kissing games were played, and these girls were centers of attraction."

KLAN AND ANTI-KLAN.

There is such a thing as coincidence. Saturday there was one in the Times.

On the heels of an editorial written Friday night, came a letter. The editorial expressed the belief that many readers regard all news stories as propaganda. The letter confirmed that belief, for it said, "A question exists in our minds whether or not your staff or editor is a klan sympathizer, on account of the front-page publicity you have given all klan doings."

And yet, if the klan would speak, it probably would question whether or not the Times editor is opposed to the klan, for all that "front-page publicity" could hardly be regarded as favorable. Under those circumstances, it is perhaps idle to repeat that the Times publishes "doings" because they interest people, and not because it is for or against the doers.

The Times has not heretofore expressed an opinion on the Ku Klux Klan, "one way of the other. It desires, in contending or condemning any organization or condition, to be fairly sure that it is right. Under these conditions, this could not be done. The klan announced a policy of aiding law enforcement, which was to be commended; but its secrecy and mysticism made it possible that its methods might be put to bad uses.

This latter has happened in some places, whether or not the klan is responsible, which it in the main denies. Nevertheless, the wave of gang tyranny which is now sweeping over the state and the klan rose simultaneously, and it seems reasonable that the klan is at least morally responsible, through power of suggestion if nothing else.

But now the deft of the anti-Ku Klux Klan, delivered locally, makes an opinion desirable, and here it is:

The Times stands for law enforcement—enforced by the officers of the law. It believes that all good citizens should aid the officers, but that crime should be punished by the latter, through due process of law. It believes an invisible government has at least shown itself susceptible to abuse. And it believes the punishment of any man, without trial, by any self-appointed executioners, is something that a free country cannot long endure. The law covers every phase of human misconduct. If a man violates the laws habitually,
he can some time be caught in the act. Then he should be tried and punished. But he should not be punished on heresay, and by men who in punishing him, break the law themselves.

So much for the klan. That goes for the anti-klan as well.

As to the latter—if there is such an organization and its principles and intentions are such as laid down in the letter published Saturday—then we must say in all frankness that it is guilty of a highly intemperate and inflammatory utterance.

"Many will fall if the klan parades," the letter says. That's ridiculous. Texas noy no other state is going to permit one group of men to declare and wage armed conflict on another group. That's fratricidal war; nothing less.

Lawlessness can never be checked
by lawlessness. If the klan is guilty of whippings, tar parties and other outrages, then it is lawless and is adding to the lawless spirit of others, and the individuals concerned should be punished. If the anti-klan shoots on masked parades, it is acting in a lawless way, whether or not that parade is illegal. We need no such foolishness as that. Let the officers stop these gang assaults and punish those guilty of them. And if the victim is guilty of something, let him be punished also, in an orderly manner. And if any anti-klanmen take a notion to use gunpowder in stopping a parade, they should be punished for it, for they are overstepping the authority of a citizen.

enough. Our morals are no worse;

DAME FORTUNE SMILES ON YOUTH "FLAT BROKE"

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo., March 25.—Behind the bars with a charge of larceny facing him and declaring he was "flat broke," Curtis Adams was at the point of desperation. Just as he was thinking that "there's no use," a stranger walked to the door of his cell.

"Curt, your uncle died some time ago and we've been trying to find you. He left you a farm valued at $5,000," said the stranger.

NEW YORK MAYOR TO DRAW $25,000 SALARY

NEW YORK, March 25.—Mayor Hylan has signed a legislative bill increasing his salary from $15,000 to $25,000 a year. The same increase from $15,000 was provided for Controller Craig, while the salary of the president of the board of aldermen was boosted from $7,500 to $15,000 a year. The bill will now go to Governor Miller and if it is signed by him it will become effective immediately.

AND SO THEY PARTED.

She flushed embarrassedly as she caught sight of him at a party.
"Harold Moonleigh!" she murred.
"Poor fellow! How broken up he was over my refusal of him."
Moonleigh wrinkled his forehead
as he caught her looking at him.
"Now where's the devil have I seen that woman before?" he asked himself irritably.—American Legion Weekly.

Grandfather Collapses After Killing
'Little Gypsy' With Pistol While Playing

NEW YORK, March 25.—Six-year-old Emma Bauer was dressed up like a gypsy to "surprise grandpa" when he came home from work.

As she heard his footsteps in the hall, she scrambled under the dining room table while daddy, grandma and Uncle Richard sat watching for the nightly game to be enacted.

"Where's my little sweetheart?"
inquired Grandpa Ernest Fuchs, as he entered the dining room.

"You'll have to mind her," smiled
Grandma Fuchs.

A giggle gave grandpa the clew and he started toward the table, but drew back in mock alarm as the "gypsy" emerged.

To make the play more exciting, he seized a pistol from the sideboard drawer and pointed it at Emma. There was an explosion and she fell with a bullet through her heart.

Ambulance surgeons found the old man sitting in a daze, with the limp form of the little "gypsy" in his arms.
She had died instantly, they said.

BULLETS EXTRACTED IN COURTROOM TO PROVE SELF-DEFENSE CLAIM

MILLEN, Ga., March 25.—A surgical operation performed in open court upon Sydney Rowe and Roscoe Chance, two of the five men charged with the murder of Watson Allen, last Christmas, was the feature of the trial here of R. H. Chance, Roscoe Chance's father.

Using drugs to deaden the pain,
the surgeon extracted several shots to hear out the contention of the defense that they were fired by Allen, who then was killed in self-defense.
Roscoe Chance's body was bared to show the jury wounds in his left arm, left side and left thigh. He was driving a car containing the five men which, it is alleged was fired upon when in the vicinity of the Allen home.

ICEBERGS IMPERIL LINERS.

BOSTON, Mass., March 25.—Icebergs have drifted farther south this year than they had last year at this date, and are nearer the path of transatlantic travel. Hydrographic office reports today showed that bergs had been sighted 300 miles southeast of Cape Race and 860 miles east of Boston. They are within fifty miles of the west-bound trans-atlantic shipping lane.

AUSTRIAN GIRLS STUNG
IN PICKING HUSBANDS
BY AMERICAN AD ROUTE

By Associated Press.

VIENNA, March 25.—Vienna girls are being warned not to be misled by marriage advertisements from America. Half a dozen alleged cases of deception that are cited by Der Morgan, which asserts that they are "but a few out of hundreds" in which Austrian women have gone to America to marry.

One case described is that of a daughter of a "high official" who answered an advertisement in a Vienna paper stating that an engi-ner in Chicago desired to wed a pretty, educated Viennese. In German the word engineer always means a professional title and is never applied to mechanics.

When she arrived she found the man was a metal worker. He soon lost his job and the girl's parents had to sacrifice even their household goods to send her money to return.

Another instance is recited in which the advertisement contained the phrase "An American (dark) wishes to marry, etc." The prospective groom was a negro.

Usually, says the paper, the advertisements describe the man as earning so many million crowns a month which the woman finds to mean virtually in American standards.

USED BEDROOM AS HER PRISON FOR 38 YEARS

Quarrel With Relative Led to Self-Imposed Isolation; Can't Walk Now.

TIPTON, Iowa, March 25.—Piqued because of a quarrel with her father-in-law, Mrs. Alec Wickham of this place, went to bed—and stayed there for nearly forty years. Her father-in-law now is dead, but she will be compelled to pass the remainder of her life in bed, for her limbs are crippled from lack of use and she is paralyzed from the waist down. Thirty-eight years ago Mrs. Wickham laid down the knife with which she was cutting meat for breakfast in the kitchen of her farm home near Tipton. She walked into the bedroom—a well woman—and got into bed.

WELL BAKED MOUSE FOUND IN LOAF OF BREAD, WOMAN SAYS

NEW YORK, March 25.—A loaf of bread is not a fit coffin for a mouse, in the opinion of Mrs. Mary G. Engel of Brooklyn. Mrs. Engel says she bought a loaf of widely known brand of bread in a Brooklyn grocery. Cutting from one end, the Engles ate nearly half the loaf at a noon-day meal. On the evening of the same day, Mrs. Engel began to slice the remaining part of the loaf and discovered a slightly baked and thoroughly dead mouse encased in the bread. She fainted, according to her statement in her suit for $5,000 damages against the baking firm of Cushman Sons, Inc., of Brooklyn.

CLUBS NOW TRUMPS IN CHICAGO LOCKUP

CHICAGO, March 25.—"You bet your life it's true!" This was the declaration of Captain Wesley Westbrook, newly appointed warden of the Cook county jail, when asked about the report that prisoners had been beaten with clubs. The story was made public when Joseph Saunders, a guard, announced his resignation because he would not work in "that slaughter house" any longer. "Saunders quit because he lost his nerve in a pinch," declared the warden. "We're running a jail here and have a gang of tough citizens in there. Soft words don't go with them. Clubs speak a language that they can understand. And, believe me, we didn't just shake those clubs. We hit the prisoners with them. And what's more, I'll use shotguns the next time they try to spring a mutiny!"

SUPREME COURT MAY RULE ON LENGTH OF SCHOOLGIRLS' SKIRTS

LAWRENCE, Kan., March 25.—It may require the supreme court of Kansas to determine whether the skirts of Alice Hansen and Maude Buchanan, students at the Vinland rural high school, extended three inches below their knees and whether it was any of the Vinland school board's business anyhow. Judge Hugh Means, the jurist who a few weeks ago ruled that Alice and Maude could go back to school without lengthening their skirts, temporarily sustained a demurrer to his jurisdiction. E. T. Riling, attorney for Alice's father, announced that an appeal would be taken to the supreme court following the demurrer action. The dresses questioned by the school board were made by the girls' mothers, farmers' wives. Alice and Maude are 15 years of age.

TWO BANKERS KILLED IN AUTO CRASH WHILE TRAILING BURGLARS

DOBBS FERRY, N. Y., March 25.—Their attempts to rid Westchester county of burglars cost the lives of Henry Graves III, and Henry Wilson Jr., young bankers. Duncan Graves, a brother of Henry, was injured and is being treated at home. The Graves brothers and Wilson, who recently were sworn in as special deputy sheriffs, were on patrol duty when their car crashed into a tree. Duncan Graves, who was driving at a terrific rate of speed swerved aside to avoid collision with another car on the Sawmill river road, two miles north of Eastview. The three young men volunteered for duty as vigilantes after Henry Graves' suburban house was burglarized recently and valuables worth $25,000 taken.

NEW YORK, March 25.—The country needs a little more "Come on, let's go" spirit and a little less "Thou shalt not," Will Hays, new commander in chief of the motion picture industry and former postmaster general, said in summing up the business situation. "There are tremendous problems ahead of us," he said in an address, "but there is impending the greatest revival in history."

Burial of Sisters Held Up Two Years As Doctor Has Attachment on Coffin

DENVER, March 25.—Burial of two sisters held up for two years because the coffins were attached to a physician—shipment of the bodies forbidden by court order as a result of the suit brought by a Denver doctor after parents of the girls had made all preliminary arrangements—This unprecedented aftermath of the influenza epidemic that swept Denver together with the rest of the country early in 1920 was revealed Monday when it was learned that the bodies of the two girls still are held at the Yeager mortuary. The parents have returned to their home in South Dakota and when the funerals will be held still is undetermined. The coffins, which cost the parents $250 each, remain at the mortuary, where they were ordered to be kept following attachment proceedings in the justice court. The sisters were Ida M. Iverson, 17 years old, who died Jan. 24, 1920, and Agnes Iverson, whose death occurred March 2, 1920. Both died of influenza. Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Iverson, had been in Denver only a short time. The suit was brought by Dr. R. R. Blair, who attended Ida Iverson, the first girl to die. He brought action in Justice Henry Bray's court for $127.75. An attachment was issued and applied against the coffins.

MAE MURRAY AIMS AT SHAKESPEARE

"After I finish my present series of Tiffany productions for Metro, I am going to return to the speaking stage, and work for a time in both pictures and on the stage." Mae Murray, star of "Peacock Alley," the first of her productions for Metro, presented by Robert Z. Leonard at the Liberty theatre, in making this announcement, indicated a new step in her career, which was started in 1908, when she was 15, as a chorus girl in the Ziegfeld Follies. Her dancing skill made her a Follies star. In 1915 she went into motion pictures with "To Have and to Hold." "They were surprised that I could realize the romantic and poetic role of Lady Joselyn," said Miss Murray. "That was because I had made my reputation primarily as a dancer. But I have always had ambitions for the nobler sort of artistic expressions, and, to express myself fully, I need the medium of the speaking stage."

FATHER ACQUITTED AFTER SLAYING SON 'TO SAVE HIS SOUL'

CHICAGO, March 25.—Acquittal was the verdict here in the second trial of Frank Piano, Sr., hard working head of a large family, who killed his son "to save his soul." The boy was slain in a street battle with his father two years ago, when he refused to quit evil associates and returned to his home. "It was better that I should kill him and save his soul than that the state should hang him after he had been steeped in crime beyond redemption," the father said after the shooting. At a previous trial the jury adjudged Piano insane. At the second trial, it decided that he was insane at the time of the shooting but had since regained his sanity.

Ah, It's Cigarettes That Gives Us That Craving for Liquor

CHICAGO, March 25.—The week beginning April 23 has been designated as "National Anti-Cigarette Week" by the National Anti-Cigarette League, according to an announcement made today by Miss Lucy Page Gaston, superintendent of the league. In her announcement, Miss Gaston says: "We cannot hope that prohibition of liquor will be a success until the cigarette is eliminated, because cigarette smoking creates a craving which only alcohol can satisfy. Home brew and cigarettes are twin evils, neither of which is likely to be abolished successfully while the other remains with us. The National Anti-Cigarette League stands for the complete extermination of the cigarette through education, law enforcement and prohibition legislation, but we are not seeking to prohibit the sale or use of tobacco in other forms except to and by minors. The astounding increase in cigarette smoking by women and girls is cause for genuine alarm owing to the fact that this habit strikes directly at the fountain of life thereby imperiling the virility and strength of future generations."

Baby Frozen to Death in Mother's Arms During All-Night Trip Thru Snowstorm

JONES-COX COMPLETE NEW MORTUARY PARLOR

A modern mortuary or undertaking establishment has been opened by the Jones-Cox company in the building adjoining the Jones-Cox Hardware store on Main street, with B. F. Adair, licensed embalmer, in charge.

The combination reception room and chapel has been attractively furnished with wicker furnishings for funeral services and other purposes and adjoining it is the display room with the line of coffins and dry goods. The walls of the establishment have been decorated in a soft gray tone to match the window draperies.

The ambulance garage is located in the rear and arrangements have been made to answer ambulance or emergency calls at all hours.

CHICAGO, March 25.—Through the night, Mrs. George Wagner sat in a curtained touring car, a precious bundle pressed to her breast.

In the bundle was her baby, George Jr., aged three months.

The middle west's spring sleet and snowstorm beat down on the machine as it groped its way over ice covered roads from South Bend, Ind., to South Chicago. The family had been visiting in South Bend.

At times the mother pressed her little one closer as the cold wind whistled through the curtains. Occasionally she kissed the tiny bundle. When the trip ended at 8 o'clock, the Wagner home was reached at last.

The mother, removing the blankets from around the little form, was startled to find the infant cold and stiffening.

Baby George was dead.

PLAYER HIT BY BALL DIES AFTER MAKING SCORE

BILOXI, Miss., March 25.—After having been struck a terrific blow on the head by a thrown ball in a game here, Peter Lamarque, 22 years old and married, continued to run the bases, scoring a run before he fell unconscious, dying afterwards from hemorrhage of the brain.

FERRIS, Texas, March 25.—Mrs. Joe Coleman and her infant narrowly escaped death when she fainted in her burning home here. The mother and child were rescued from the flames by her husband and others. According to the story told by Mrs. Coleman she fainted when an oil stove exploded, causing the fire.

BRITISH TOLD TO USE CLOUDS AS A CLOTHING

LONDON, March 25.—Come, let us doff our clothing and dance in the sun!

If the efforts of Arthur Allbrook, of Lower Sydenham, are successful, there soon will be formed a "society for the practice of sun and air bathing to the accompaniment of suitable sports and exercises in the neighborhood of London."

Sun bathing has become almost the fashion in Germany. The virtues of playing hop-Scotch, or pat-ball, or all-round-the-mulberry-bush, "mit noddings on," have been proved beyond dispute, it is said, and there even are groups of sun worshippers who hold that mankind would do well to discard clothes altogether and go back to the custom of bare skins.

It would, they assert, make the world a much healthier and more idyllic place. No one would catch cold, there would be no complaints about short skirts and the average ugliness of man and woman without clothes would shiver society into a state of irreproachable modesty.

Mr. Allbrook instanced the sun cure for tuberculosis, now well established in Switzerland and similar experiments that are being made in this country. If sun curing is good enough for invalids, he asked, why not for all?

"Several persons are willing to join in a sun and air bathing society," added Mr. Allbrook. "They include two clergymen, two physicians and school teachers."

COLD RUSH IN FULL SWING.
WILLIAMS LAKE, B. C., March 25.—Attracted by the lure of gold, scores of newcomers are staking claims in the Cedar Creek and Queen districts, coming in over trails still covered with snow. Since the discovery of gold on Cedar Creek last year all ground within ten miles of discovery has been staked.

WHAT KINDA CELLAR?
NEW YORK, March 25.—A suite, with shower bath, is being fitted in the basement of the city hall for Mayor John F. Hylan, with a private stairway leading to his official quarters on the floor above. Political opponents of the mayor referred to the new suite as a "cyclone cellar."

ANTIGONISH 'GHOST' LAYER NOW SEEKS SPOOK IN HIS OWN HOME

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, March 25.—Dr. Walter Franklin Prince, layer of the "ghost of Antigonish," on his return to New York has taken up the trail of a "personal spook" which has made its appearance in the life of himself and his wife.

He related how his wife, looking into a crystal shortly before he started for Antigonish, described the scenes he would meet at the end of his journey and small stoop, the barn behind the house, the pile of boulders—all of which he found as she had seen them.

He told also of another occasion when his wife said she saw an apparition beside him. Silent and half amused at her description of its movements, Dr. Prince said he suddenly felt the famous "wind touch" on the first finger of his left hand, and as a shiver went through him, his wife said:

"It has just stretched out a finger and touched you."

Rappings have been heard frequently in his house, Dr. Prince said, but only when his wife was there.

"The spirit, if such it be," he added, "was a considerable one. It never bothered me on nights before I was scheduled to make a speech. Other persons, psychically endowed, have heard these rappings in my office where I have some times heard them myself. My wife has extraordinary psychic powers and is continually seeking things in the crystal. I have been making a thorough study of her case and will shortly present my findings to the Society of Psychical Research."

HEROIC PRIEST GIVES OWN LIFE TO SAVE TOWN

ROME, March 25.—A telegram from Ancona says that during a storm there was a short circuit in the wires carrying a high voltage current through the village of Pozzoli. The village was threatened with fire.

While the peasants and carabinieri stood helplessly watching the blinding flashes and sparks and wondering what to do, the parish priest rushed upon the wires and tore them apart with his hands.

He saved the village, but was instantly killed.

SOCIETY AND ACTIVITIES OF WOMEN

The Kisses of Spring

A strip of blue sky, an April shower, a pear tree in full bloom, two love birds building a nest, boys flying kites, a man taking home a rake and a hoe—all are mute suggestions of the season that stands on tip-toe waiting to be ushered in.
It may have been any one of these things that suggested a breakfast discussion that took place recently, or it may have been Elsie Robinson's article under the head of "Listen World," in which she discussed the question of "Shall she kiss him goodnight when he takes her home?" Regardless of what set the conversation in motion, a very animated discussion resulted, in which the man said she should. He held it in his opinion that a kiss from a girl was simply a reward to a man who had the audacity to ask for one; however, he felt with Browning that "All were for me in the kiss of one girl" and that a man simply did not get any pleasure out of a kiss unless he loved her.
While kissing is a very popular sport and has an open season all the year round, 365 days out of the year, and nights, too, still the woman insisted that it was a bad habit, and one not to be encouraged, no matter what sort of spark was responsible for its beginning. The third party to the discussion admitted that while she thought it was naughty, still 'twas nice and that life without a certain amount of them would be like a year without its spring.
Miss Robinson says that kisses are largely a matter of voltage and that any old flashlight will tell the story of pressure applied too often. This argument was agreed to and approved of but it is doubtful if any of these in the discussion will profit by any of the points brought out, either pro or con, for after all it's spring, and since the poet long ago said, "In the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love," we naturally expect to turn that way and can't blame the sweet young things if they feel the call of a porch swing, a moonlight view, or the pain of parting.
Spring is also announcing itself in color motif for parties, spring clothes and in a few weeks parties will be as thick as wild flowers on our Texas prairies, however, until after Easter things promise to be rather quiet, and since they are for lack of an inspiration the editor is compelled to hurl such as the above from the "cynic's seat."
"The Womanless Wedding" and the benefit ball, one given for the Red Cross Shop and the other for the baseball fund, promise to be the main social events of the week.

FOR MRS. COUFFIELD.
One of the prettiest affairs of the week was a birthday dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Bishop Friday evening at their home on Young street, in honor of Mrs. Bishop's sister, Mrs. Minnie Couffield. The house was decorated with ferns and flowers; a color scheme of pink and green being carried out. The dining table looked like a miniature flower garden. Pink streamers from the chandelier carried dainty place cards to the plates. An elaborate eight-course dinner was served and with the last course came the birthday shower and a wonderful cake, aglow with burning candles.
After dinner 500 was played and lovely prizes were awarded to Mrs. B. V. Bollinger and Mrs. M. O. Burt, low score. P. F. Davis made high score for gentlemen and Mr. Bollinger low score. At midnight a tempting

FRIDAY BRIDGE CLUB MEETS.
Miss Douschka Bobo very charmingly entertained the members of the Friday Bridge club this week at the Bobo home. Mrs. C. N. Ochiltree made high score and received as a prize a blue bulb bowl. Mrs. Josephine Endicott won the consolation, a fancy bowl. Mmes. Ochiltree and Endicott are new members of this club and this was the first time they had played with the club, so the fact of their carrying off the honors both high and low, was rather a coincidence.
Miss Bobo served sandwiches, cake, a fancy pudding and coffee to the following ladies: Mmes. C. N. Ochiltree, Josephine Endicott, M. O. Burt, P. F. Davis, J. B. Haden, F. E. Langston, John Moyer, Ira Nourse, J. A. Martin, Harold Whitbeck, Harry Reid, S. W. Bobo. The next meeting will be with Mrs. P. F. Davis.

T. O. M. CLUB WITH MISS WEST.
Members of the T. O. M. club look forward to the coming of Friday night with pleasure, as each meeting of the club seems to be a little more enthusiastic than the last one. Friday night Miss Evelyn West was the hostess and sprung several surprises on her guests. Among these was the entrance of a fortune teller, a woman of mystery, who told some wonderful fortunes that match the rose-hued dreams of girlhood. Mrs. John Moyer read for them, and there was music and dancing. The house was decorated in pink and green, the club colors. Refreshments of gelatine, whipped cream, cake and candy and punch were served.
Those present were: Misses Oreta Smith, Eleanor Alworth, Maurine Bowman, Thelma Collins, Clara and Nannie Haden, Esther Yonker, Rose McEver, Azaline Cox, Phyllis Williams.

LON DAVENPORT TO BE 'BRIDE' AT WOMANLESS WEDDING THURSDAY

A wedding always brings a rain and there hasn't been a big wedding in Ranger for as many months as it hasn't rained, so now that it has rained the promoters of the Womanless Wedding have applied for rain insurance that evening, so in case they are rained out, they will get their money's worth anyway. Everybody ought to come as a thanks offering for the rain, and if you haven't smiled since the dry weather set in, you will surely have smiles, and smiles, coming to you Thursday night. The bride will have a real veil, yards and yards long, and there will be real ushers with white gloves and six vampish bridesmaids smiling under picture hats. Most every man makes a fool of himself sometime in life but very few of them ever wear skirts—but this bridal party will wear all the fixings of real debutantes in bridal array. There will be the chimes of a real wedding bell—in fact nothing has been left undone to make this a howling success. Pirates in Truck Overhaul Flivver of Newly Weds

Following an exciting chase over the city last night in which the hero's flivver was finally out-manuevered, Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Smith, a bride and groom of a few minutes, were captured by a truck load of friends and made to desert their love canoe for crowded berths on the deck of the truck. With signs announcing their newly married state, the couple were taken for a voyage over the city and elsewhere, exactly where, the truck crew would not say.

Both of the young people are in the employ of the telephone company here and will make their future home in Ranger. They eluded their friends last night and succeeded in having the marriage ceremony quietly performed by the Rev. M. F. Drury, pastor of the East Ranger Baptist church, at his home. Friends, however, picked up the trail of the couple shortly after they had left the home of the minister and continued in pursuit until they were captured.

The Audubon society of Ranger, organized by boys of the city on March 11, will meet next Friday at the home of Mrs. T. L. Lauderdale at a special call meeting, it was announced last night by Raymond Taylor, secretary of the organization. Arrangements will be made at the meeting for the picnic of the society to be held Saturday at Leon lake. The organization is at present composed of twenty-one boys, who meet every Saturday to study bird life.

ALL COMFORTS OF HOME

HENDERSON, Ky., March 25.—Burglars who entered the home of Mrs. M. J. Hartfield helped themselves to rare old wines, it was reported to police today. A burglar insurance policy found by the intruders as they ransacked the house was tacked to the wall. Mrs. Hartfield and her daughters are visiting in New York and the loss cannot be estimated until they return.

COUPLE SAY CABARET MEN BEAT AND ROBBED THEM

ATLANTIC CITY, March 25.—Because they refused to pay a cabaret bill which they declared excessive, Mr. and Mrs. William Kepner, of Ardmore, Pa., say they were beaten, robbed and held prisoners in a cabaret. They are socially prominent in Philadelphia. The complaint resulted in the arrest of Howard Stark, manager of Paul's cafe, formerly the Moulin Rouge, at New York avenue and the Boardwalk; Charles De Hart, a musician there, and Charles Phillips, an entertainer.

PALMER LEASES MAJESTIC; WILL RUN VAUDEVILLE

The Majestic theatre has been leased from the owners by W. B. Palmer, proprietor of the Liberty theatre. The present lease of Charles Moore will terminate on April 1, after which time the new owner will continue the vaudeville and motion picture program. The present plans of the new management contemplate bringing a vaudeville troupe of twenty-two persons here Monday week.

"They've kept me so busy saluting that I haven't had time to do anything else," the mayor said.

ALL TANKS FILLED IN PIONEER FIELD

All tanks and ponds in the vicinity of Pioneer, Cross Plains and Rising Star were filled by the heavy downpour which fell in that section last night, according to Charles Terrell, petroleum engineer, who returned today from the Pioneer field. The Pennant Oil company, which is planning extensive development in the Pioneer field, has reported that they have enough water to last all summer. Approximately three inches are reported to have fallen.

CANADA PLANS TOUR FOR FLOATING TRADE EXPEDITION

HALIFAX, N. S., March 25.—It is suggested here that the Canadian government fit out one of its steamers as a floating exhibition of Canadian products and send it on a voyage to the principal trading ports of the world.

Such a floating exhibition, it is pointed out, to be fitted into the plans of the Canadian Manufacturers' association to run a special train bearing exhibits of Canadian products through France.

Spring Modes

As displayed by Ranger's Foremost Department Store

BECAUSE outdoor sports are given an ever-increasing importance among women of fashion—and one motors and lunches, dances and dines between sports, as it were—the new fashions reflect the sports motif in larger proportion than ever before. This sports theme lends a delightful spiciness to the mode, apparent in all things wearable, which gives to the Spring Apparel Exposition an unwonted thrill, intriguing one mightily with its spirited aspect.

Wraps and Capes Are Clever

Any number of clever things are being done to the smart Wraps and Capes. By a baffling genius a big silk collar becomes a sleeve; some of the models have novelty silk lining matching the frocks underneath; chin collars are given long flowing ends; simulated sleeves appear unexpectedly and the graceful fullness of the circular shape is the veil. New shipment just received.

Spring Suits Speak a New Language

Very new is the smart little jacket with its flare over the hips, its snug shoulders and sleeves quite loose from the elbow. To be consistent there must be a new hint of fullness in the skirt as well.

Many favored models, however, show the jaunty short box coats, so versatile in its wearableness. In all the prices are
