GERMAN MAY BE SUCCESSOR TO POPE BENEDICT

Campaign Started to Break Chain of Italian Rulers of Vatican.

ROME, Jan. 25.—Efforts to choose a pope from outside the Italian cardinals has been put under way in a formal campaign, the Popolo Romano stated today. The paper brings forward prominently the possibility that a German may be chosen to succeed the late Benedict XV.

The Popolo Romano article roused particular interest because the same paper had previously denied all reports that any campaign to choose other than an Italian for the vatican were being made.

Cardinal Merry Del Val, papal secretary of state under Pius X, is directing a campaign to break the tradition of choosing an Italian. Merry Del Val is a Spaniard, and is one of the candidates for the papacy. The cardinal is being assisted, the paper says, by the Jesuit order, which kept in the background during Benedict's time because of the latter's conciliatory policy. The Jesuit General Lochowky, it is stated, is canvassing all cardinals as they arrive in Rome for the late pope's funeral, which the sacred college announced would be tomorrow at 3:30 p. m., and for the meeting of the sacred college to select a new pope. This has been set for Feb. 2.

HALF-MILLION PAY RESPECTS.

ROME, Jan. 25.—The funeral of Pope Benedict will be held at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, it was announced at the vatican today.

Pilgrims today continued to arrive from all parts of Italy, standing in the open air before St. Peter's, in the hope of getting a glimpse of the body.

More than half a million persons have filed past the catafalque in the two days on which the body has been exposed.

G. O. P. LEADERS DISCUSS TARIFF AND VETS' BONUS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—Assurance that the permanent tariff bill would be reported to the senate early in February was given Republican leaders in the house today by senate Republican leaders at a conference between the two.

Agreement was reached at the conference that a proposed soldiers' bonus bill should originate in the house. House leaders said the measure would be drafted immediately by the ways and means committee and probably would be reported in two weeks. It will be the subject of a conference of Republican congressmen.

WACO, Jan. 25.—Brakeman Higgins of the Cotton Belt, 40 years old, who fell yesterday from the ice-covered top of a railroad tank car at Aleman, Hamilton county, died here today. His skull was fractured in the fall.

BIG INTERESTS TO FIGHT FARM RELIEF PLANS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—Powerful forces were at work today to prevent the agricultural conference from going on record in favor of Henry Ford's Muscle Shoals offer; the St. Lawrence river canalization project, and the farm bloc.

Fertilizer and other big interests are opposing Ford; New York, New England and other Atlantic coast states are fighting the St. Lawrence project, and administration leaders are laboring against the farm bloc.

Leaders in the conference are confident of incorporating indorsements of these three issues in the program for agricultural relief.

COMMITTEES AT WORK ON VARIOUS PROBLEMS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—Participating in the economic rehabilitation of Europe, extension of credit to foreign powers through the federal reserve system, and perfection of the co-operative marketing idea were among the remedies for the existing agricultural depression recommended today by speakers before the national agricultural conference. The speakers were unanimous in the opinion that the marketing policy should govern production.

Recommendation for repeal of the commonly known guaranty clause of the transportation act to the state railroad commissions was voted by a subcommittee on railway transportation of the general transportation committee of the conference.

Recommendation for the construction of the St. Lawrence-Great Lakes waterway project was voted by the subcommittee on waterways transportation under the general transportation committee.

The resolution under discussion was referred to a drafting committee with a view, it was understood, of consolidating it with other agreements thus far reached on wireless communication in the Far East.

51 MORE SAW THEIR DUTY, 'AND DONE IT'

Ranger Now Has 769 Voters; That Many More Have Only 5 Days.

Poll tax payments reached a total of 703 at the office of the deputy collector in the Chamber of Commerce this morning after a record-breaking day yesterday, when fifty-one receipts were issued. The number of exemption certificates issued increased to sixty-four. The number of qualified voters in Ranger now stands at 769 plus whatever number of receipts and exemption certificates that may have been issued at Eastland to Ranger citizens.

There are large numbers of persons in the city who have not reached their majority but who will be able to vote in the primary this summer without paying their poll taxes, it is pointed out. They are urged to secure exemption certificates before the expiration of the time limit at midnight, Jan. 31. All persons becoming 21 between Jan. 1, 1921 and Nov. 1, 1922, are entitled to exemption certificates, it is explained, and will be entitled to vote in the primary. Exemption certificates are also issued to all persons becoming 61 since Jan. 1, 1921.

TAX PAYMENTS TO BE URGED THROUGH SCHOOL CHILDREN

Patrons of the city schools are urged to pay their city and school taxes before the expiration of the time limit on Feb. 1, in letters that are being circulated among the school children by the Rotary club and Chamber of Commerce. The urgent need for tax payments by the city and school districts is pointed out in the letters, which are addressed to the "fathers and mothers" of Ranger.

It is pointed out that Ranger, in spite of many disadvantages has built up a splendid corps of teachers, have erected modern school buildings and is only waiting for the improvement of the bond market to sell bonds for another ward and high school.

"In order to keep teachers they must be paid, and we urgently request that you pay your city and school taxes by Feb. 1," the communication states. "Our school tax rate is but 50 cents on the $100 valuation, while every other large town in the oil fields is collecting a $1 rate."

Parents are also urged to pay their poll taxes and they are reminded that a branch office has been established at the Chamber of Commerce here for their convenience.

TWO UNMASKED MEN ROB OKLAHOMA BANK

TAHLEQUAH, Okla., Jan. 25.—The Farmers State bank at Park Hill near here, was held up by two unmasked men and robbed this morning of several hundred dollars. The robbers escaped after forcing Cashier L. Ballenger to accompany them to their horses in the rear of the bank building.

The First National bank of Hurlbert, this county, was held up and robbed of $2,800 last Friday by three men.

FREEZE IS BUST

DALLAS, Jan. 25.—North Texas started to thaw out today. The sheet of ice which blanketed the north section from Texarkana to Amarillo, was melting before a steadily rising thermometer. Damage to livestock in the western sections was not believed to be great.

Temperatures in North Texas varied from 15 to 25 degrees above zero. Denison reported snow yesterday, the first of the season.

Most sections reported that rain was needed and would prove of much value to farmers and livestock men. Steadily rising temperatures is the weather bureau prediction.

COLD SNAP DESTROYS CALIFORNIA VEGETABLES

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 25.—Crops of peas, tomatoes, squash, cucumbers and peppers in the Imperial Valley are believed to be a loss as a result of the present cold snap, according to a telegram to the state division of markets today from J. E. O'Neill of Calipatria, president of the Imperial Valley Vegetable and Melon Growers' association.

NOTED PASTOR VERY ILL. DALLAS, Jan. 25.—Dr. John E. Slayter, pastor of the Dallas Christian church, and widely known in Texas as Masonic circles, is critically ill at his home here. He has been in poor health several months.

BAND TO BE RICH IN SAXOPHONE TOOTERS, BUT 'POP' ISN'T WORRIED

The Ranger band will impart melody through thirty-six saxophones and sixteen other instruments, Pop Endicott, leader and instructor of the new band, announced this morning. No objection has been raised by Pop to the partiality to saxophones by Ranger musicians, as he believes that bandmen can play better music with the instruments of their choice. Although the technical balance of the band is destroyed by the numerous jazz horns, the band music can be so transposed as to remedy this fault, the instructor states.

A meeting of the band probably will be held Monday night, at which time the organization will be completed and arrangements made for the first band practice. All interested are invited to attend the meeting whether they are musicians or just want to be. If there are any more saxophone tooters in the city, they can come to the meeting too, Pop says.

The Elks' saxophone band which is to become a part of the Ranger band made its first public appearance at the Majestic theatre last night under the tutelage of Pop, and acquitted itself creditably, the leader said. Only one member of the Elks' band is an experienced man, it is stated, and one has had only a few days' practice. The band is composed of Messrs. C. C. Craig, Aubrey Jameson, A. A. Monsey, Neal and White.

HIGH CLASS MUSICAL PROGRAM OFFERED TONIGHT AT MAJESTIC

"The personality program" of the Chicago Ladies Sextette, the second of the lyceum numbers arranged for by the Chamber of Commerce and the 1920 club, will be presented tonight at the Majestic theatre. Personality is said to be an attribute of each member of the sextette which is classed as a "distinctive organization."

The program combines instrumental art with pleasing and well trained voices. Violins, cello, double bass and piano are the orchestral instruments used by the sextette, and the mixture of instrumental and vocal music in which popular songs, classic string quartettes and arias are intermixed with old-time favorites, is said to have delighted audiences in other cities. Readings and impersonations vary the program.

Tickets for the concert are on sale at the Chamber of Commerce and through members of the 1920 club.

The Lieurence Symphonic orchestra, the last of the lyceum numbers to be brought here this season, will be presented on Jan. 31, it is announced.

COX TO ASSUME LEADERSHIP OF PARTY AT JACKSON DAY BANQUET

DAYTON, Ohio, Jan. 25.—James M. Cox, defeated Democratic candidate for president, indicated clearly today he will assume active leadership of the party, after breaking his silence at the Jackson Day banquet here tonight.

Cox also intimated that he might be a candidate for the presidential nomination in 1924.

He announced he would take "very great interest in public affairs from now on," and would make speeches throughout the East during the coming campaign.

Will Break Silence.

Cox's speech tonight will deal with national and international issues, marking his first public entrance into affairs since his defeat a year ago. The speech is expected to sound the keynote of the party for the coming congressional campaign and the presidential election.

"I probably have established a record for silence on public questions," Cox declared, "but I assure you I shall not remain silent from now on. I intend to make many speeches throughout the country, especially in Massachusetts, where one Henry Cabot Lodge is up for re-election.

"I am greatly interested in the Ohio situation, and want to see senator Pomerene, and a strong Democratic state ticket elected," Cox said.

Scorching Comparisons Promised.

Cox declared his intention of visiting Europe next spring, to make an extensive political and economic survey. He will leave here early in May. "Since the election, I have been paying strict attention to my newspaper and farm," Cox explained.

Persons close to Cox who aided him in preparing his speech for tonight, declared "it will take the lid off."

They promised startling comparisons between business conditions under the Wilson and Harding administrations, blaming present depression on failure of the administration to follow Democratic policies. He will present his views on the arms conference in detail.

WITH FIVE LYNCHERS CONVICTED, OKLAHOMA CITY PROBES BURNING

OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 25.—Authorities today planned to further question five negroes held in connection with the death Sunday morning of Willis and Mercy Hall, negroes, who were burned to death in their home here.

Roosevelt Pepper, son of Mrs. Hall, and "Minus" Maples, another negro, have told conflicting stories regarding the fire, authorities say. The other three negroes held were neighbors of the Halls, and are said to be members of the butcher workers' union.

Charles McCloud, special prosecutor for Governor Robertson, stated he was convinced the negroes were murdered before their home was set on fire.

Another Lyncher Sought.

While search was being pursued in Arkansas today for John Yearta, striking plant worker, who is wanted here for alleged complicity in the lynching of Jake Brooks, negro packing employe the night of Jan. 14, two other men under arrest in connection with the affair were scheduled for arraignment in justice court to answer charges of murder, and still another, who was apprehended in Texas, was to enter his plea in district court, and tell his story of the lynching.

Yesterday five men, one of whom is the brother of Yearta, pleaded guilty to charges of murder growing out of the lynching, and were sentenced to life imprisonment in the state penitentiary, setting a record in Oklahoma courts, according to officials of the attorney general's department, of expedition in such cases.

AUSTIN, Jan. 25.—D. A. Crisp, San Antonio candy maker, convicted of aggravated assault by kissing a Miss Gravel of San Antonio without her consent, and fined $25 and sentenced to thirty days in jail, is to have another trial. STATE BOARD GIVES COUNTY $15,000 MORE

Co-Operation of Civic Bodies Sought in Telegram From Judge Starnes.

An additional $15,000 toward the construction of the Bankhead highway through Eastland county has been obtained by Judge Starnes, he announced this morning in a telegram to the Times. The telegram did not state whether the state authorities have approved the contract, but opposition to it is not probable. An appeal for co-operation of the people of the county also is made in the judge's message, which follows:

"Austin, Texas, Jan. 25.—Ranger Daily Times, Ranger, Texas: I got $15,000 more for Eastland county. This makes a total of $418,000.

Asks C. of C. Committee.

"Ask through your paper for me what those who are fighting me have done or gotten for Eastland county. If the people of the county will attend to and stop those who are fighting the roads, I can get more money for Eastland county. There are several things to be done to get this additional money and I will have to have the help of the people. If you think well of it, suggest that all the Chambers of Commerce in the county appoint a committee to work with us and watch us get results.

"Let us all work to build up and not to tear down to make Eastland county a banner county and not one that is a by-word in the financial world. Will you be so good as to give at least the substance of this to Cisco and Eastland?"

"C. R. STARNES."

CONGRESSMEN WARM UP OVER LYNCHING BILL

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—Declaring it was "high time" for the federal government to attempt to stop mob violence, Representative Mondell of Wyoming, Republican leader, declared today during a debate in the house on the Dyer anti-lynching bill, that if lynching were permitted to go unchecked, it would "break down and destroy law and order and civilization."

"It is anarchy in its most abhorrent and degrading form," Mr. Mondell asserted. "It does not mete out justice, and does not deter from crime. If we are not willing to attempt to do this," Mr. Mondell continued, "then we must convict ourselves of indifference to those crimes and their consequences, or lacking in courage necessary to take drastic and unusual action to meet frightful and intolerable conditions."

Replying to Mr. Mondell, Representative Sumner, Texas, Democrat, declared proponents of the Dyer bill were quoting misleading statistics as to the lynchings in the South. "Tuskgee institute—and that is where you are getting your information—sent out a statement that last year only one man was lynched in the North," asserted Mr. Sumner. "Why, in one Minnesota city alone, three negroes were lynched by a mob."

A ROAD OBSTRUCTION.

Weatherford has a speed cop. And through this speed cop Weatherford is attracting attention throughout West Texas and perhaps in other sections. Certainly he is known in Ranger—so well known that if all the anathemas heaped upon his head were approximately 2x3x4 inches in size, the pile of Irish confections would far surpass the Egyptian pyramids.

To hear Rangerites tell it, this bird thinks the Bankhead highway was laid out for his own private benefit—all he has to do is to collect, and he does it so efficiently and so relentlessly that the Parker county metropolis is acquiring a reputation as a civic outcast.

Speeding is against the law, certainly. But in general the speed laws are taken with a grain of salt and motorists are allowed the maximum speed consistent with traffic safety. This is true because the limitations are admittedly archaic. But in Weatherford territory, that's different! Those who will not tire of crawling along are tempted to do so. 'Tis said this guardian of the laws has a series of disguises and that one of his favorite games is to drive a decrepit flivver up behind some six, eight or twelve-cylinder beauty, loudly honking for gangway. What red-blooded man will fail to "step on'er" when such a challenge comes? None. What red-blooded man fails to pay a fine for doing so? None, so accounts run. Whether the officer in pursuit of victims would resort to gunplay is unknown, possibly he would.

Now this is not as it should be, whether or not the motorist is guilty of a technical infraction of the law. Speeding fines should be inflicted where a motorist's fast driving endangers others, but it is nonsense to hale them into court for making time over a clear road, when perhaps the nearest car is a mile in front.

It is one instance of the many which shows the injustice of the fee system of paying officers. For it makes law enforcement look like petty grafting.

Weatherford should stop this practice, for its continuance casts Weatherford outside the league of civilized cities. And if Weatherford only knew it, its business houses pay the fines, because motorists are rapidly coming to the point where they will buy nothing there if the purchase can be avoided.

It should not permit its highways to be somebody's oil well.

GAS DRIVES OUT SMALL PER CENT OF OIL STORES

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—Large quantities of oil, estimated from 60 to 80 per cent of the original reservoirs, are left underground in the United States when wells are abandoned because no means have been determined whereby it is possible to recover more than a small percentage of the oil, according to A. W. Ambrose, chief petroleum technologist of the bureau of mines. This failure to effect a greater recovery of the underground oil is due to the exhaustion of the subterranean gas flow, says Mr. Ambrose.

The manner in which gas serves as an explosive medium was recently shown by an experiment at the petroleum experiment station of the bureau of mines. A steel container about three feet long and three inches in diameter was filled with sand which was then thoroughly saturated with oil. The amount of oil introduced was known by weight and measurement. After the sand had been saturated, gas was forced into the container under a pressure of 200 pounds to the square inch. Then a valve at one end was opened and the gas allowed to escape, bringing with it about 18 per cent of the oil put into the container.

In other experiments the amount of oil recovered varied from 15 to 25 per cent, depending on the pressure and other conditions.

COULDN'T STAY AWAY

Joe Mannicchia, one of Chief Murphy's veteran smoke eaters, who resigned from the fire department several days ago, returned to Ranger yesterday and hired himself back to the city. Mannicchia resigned to return to Dallas but after arriving there and getting his fill of fatted calf at the Mannicchia home, decided that life was too dull in Dallas for an ex-Ranger fireman, and headed the prow of his Ford back to this city.

'RANGER IS BETTER THAN MEXIA,' BOB TAYLOR SOLEMNLY AFFIRMS

"Ranger is a better business town than Mexia and 100 per cent better than any other town of its size in the state. I hold up my right hand and swear this ain't no bull." This overture accompanied Bob Taylor's entrance into Ranger yesterday after a thirty-day stay in Mexia and a short tour of inspection over other towns in this section.

To prove his assertion wasn't bull, the Ranger champion walked around town and secured more contracts for signs and sign paintings than he did during the whole month in Mexia.

EXTENSION OF STREET LIGHTS CAN'T BE MADE

The city cannot at this time comply with a petition of residents in the southeast section for street lights, it was decided yesterday afternoon at the meeting of the city commission. Every effort is being made at this time to cut down the expenses of the city in order to meet obligations falling due, and the belief was expressed by the commissioners that it would not be to the best interests of the city to add any additional expense at this time.

It was also pointed out that the residents of the southeast section are in no worse position than those of other sections, as at the present time the city maintains no street lights except in the business section. If street lights were installed in the southeast section, then other sections would have a right to demand the Increase in Weight!

MILLIONS of people all over the United States and Canada have not only been relieved of the most obstinate forms of dyspepsia and indigestion by the Tanlac Treatment after other remedies have failed, but many of them have reported a remarkable and rapid increase in weight and a return to normal health and strength by its use.

Although Tanlac's claims for supremacy are abundantly supported by the world's leading authorities, it is the people themselves who have really made Tanlac what it is. Millions upon millions have used it with the most gratifying results and have told other millions what it has done for them.

That is THE REASON WHY Tanlac has become the real sensation of the drug trade in the United States and Canada, and that is also THE REASON WHY it is having the largest sale of any medicine of its kind in the world today.

Tanlac is sold in Ranger by Phillips Bros. and in Eastland by the Palace Drug Store.—Advertisement.

HUMPHREYS STARTS DRILL IN KAUFMAN

TERRELL, Jan. 25.—Humphreys-Barrows No. 1, S. P. Heath survey, located thirteen miles northeast of Terrell, was spudded in Tuesday afternoon without ceremony. This marks the beginning of the first of six test wells to be drilled by the Humphreys interests in this county. Other wells to be started within the next few days include the Ables No. 1, Cartwright survey, one mile north of Elmo; Clarinda No. 1, Gonzales survey, College Mound; Bishop No. 1, King survey, near Chief.

FINDS STOLEN CAR WHEN MOTOR STALLS NEAR HOME

CHICAGO, Jan. 25.—Oscar A. Knudson noticed a passing motorist in distress near his home, and hastened to help him in his efforts to repair an engine which had stalled. After conversing for a few minutes, a great light suddenly dawned on Knudson and a moment later, when a policeman passed, Knudson had the motorist arrested. Today the car the motorist was trying to fix was in Knudson's garage. It was his own car, which had been stolen.

SUIT IS FILED TO REMOVE GRAYSON COUNTY ATTORNEY

SHERMAN, Jan. 25.—Ben F. Gafford, former county attorney of Grayson county, representing forty-eight citizens, one of whom is a county commissioner Tuesday afternoon filed a petition in the Fifty-ninth district court asking for the removal of County Attorney Hubert Bookout. It is asserted in the petition that Mr. Bookout collected fees to which he is not entitled. Charges of incompetence also are made. Mr. Bookout was recently indicted by a Grayson county grand jury on two counts, charging him "with collecting fees in justice courts to which he was not entitled." Bond was set in these cases, which he readily gave. A child of two and one-half years should have sufficient teeth to masticate solid food, say many doctors.

WOMEN PLAY IMPORTANT PART IN TURF RACING

Mrs. C. C. Rumsey

The turf season, now well under way in southern cities, has introduced many women as owners of high-bred horses. Since the early '80s, when the famous "Jersey Lily" Langtry owned, raced and bred a string of thoroughbreds, there has always been a number of the gentler sex directly interested in the "Sport of Kings." Among the prominent New York women who are active at the various tracks are: Mrs. Payne Whitney, Mrs. E. B. Cassatt, Mrs. George W. Loft and Mrs. Robert L. Gerry. Mrs. C. C. Rumsey hails from Idaho.

OIL CITY STORE MOVED BY HAND AWAY FROM FIRE

OIL CITY, Texas, Jan. 25.—Volunteer firemen picked up a building occupied by a grocery and moved it to a place of safety when the store was threatened by fire spreading from the Oil City bakery, which was destroyed here. The bakery plant was owned by Sam Rumbach and in recovering some of their personal belongings, Rumbach received burns, but not of a serious nature. The loss was $1,000 with no insurance. Eggs found in the trunk of a large elm while being cut into planks are estimated to have been laying there about a century.

WOMAN'S BODY DRAGGED TWO MILES UNDER TRUCK

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—Brooklyn police were called on to establish the identity of an elderly woman, who was killed by a motor truck, which dragged her body two miles before the accident became known. Abraham Cohen, of Brooklyn, and Frank Jaccarino, of Coney Island, owner and driver of the truck, respectively, said they were unaware of having struck the woman until a Coney Island garage man called attention to the bulky object under the machine. Retracing the truck's route motorcycle police found a woman's pocketbook containing $2.70 and two sets of false teeth. AT HOME—MR. AND MRS. BILL HART.—William S. Hart, western movie "bad man" being "tamed" by his new "leading lady" the former Miss Winifred Westover of San Francisco. After a courtship extending over two years the couple were secretly married in Los Angeles. The photo shows Bill serving his wife at their wedding breakfast.

FROZEN FOUNTAINS IN PARIS.—A frost of nine degrees recorded in Paris recently was the most severe thus far this season, and the famous fountain in Place de La Concorde showed signs of freezing except in a few patches where the water was running. The picture shows the icicles on the statues of the fountain, which presented a beautiful effect upon the weak rays of the sun.

BURIAL GROUND FOR ANIMALS.—At Hartsdale, New York, in costly graves "de luxe" lie three thousand animals—dogs, cats, parrots, canaries, horses, monkeys, a hen—yes, and even a lion! A list of the ploholders reads like an extract from the Blue Book or the Social Register.

GOOD HAI—BUT NOT FOR THE SUBWAY.—Miss Julia Faye as she appeared at a recent costume ball. She is wearing the authentic costume of a wife of the Prince of Siam.

THE ORIGINAL POGO DANCERS.—These stilt dancers are adepts at the art they have chosen as a livelihood. If Florenz Ziegfeld could induce them to come over from that "dear France" they might startle the "tired business men" even more than the young women who have adopted the "Pogo sticks" for their hop, skips and jumps.

PENNSYLVANIA BEAUTY TO ACT AS MASCOT FOR INVADING FOOTBALL TEAM

Miss Estelle Taylor, reputed to be the most beautiful girl in the state of Pennsylvania, has been appointed mascot of the Washington and Jefferson college football team, which will meet the University of California pigskin chasers at Pasadena. LATEST IN TOY NOVELTIES.—Gone are the toys of yesteryear. Warships, cannon, guns and tin soldiers are conspicuous by their absence this yuletide season. Even Toyland is pervaded by the atmosphere of Peace and Disarmament. The playthings of the children of to-day take the form of animals, musical instruments, performing dolls and the like, with an occasional armored mail truck thrown in bidding the bandits beware.

FOR THE OUTDOOR GIRL.—This stunning camel's hair scarf is of yellow with bars of black. It is ideal with any sports or street costume.

BABY BUDDHAS BEDECK BAZAAR.—Baby Buddhas, as well as the grownups of San Francisco's Chinatown, took part in the recent festivities at the Chinese Mission Home. Oriental costumes were worn by all and some of the American-born Chinese kiddies thought they were at a masquerade.

WILD CAT FOR LUCK.—Down in Wall street the brokers are just as superstitious as the folks in the back woods. They believe in signs and have mascots and other good luck bringers. Part of the young lady's job, shown in the above photograph, is to bring the South American jaguar over to the ticker every morning for luck.

THURSDAY
Mrs. Frank Rarey entertains the Wednesday Bridge club at the Gholson in the afternoon.

Knights of Columbus gives ball in the evening at the Gholson.

THAT K. OF C. DANCE.
Plans for the Knights of Columbus dance Thursday night are moving right along. Reports from the committee selling tickets are very encouraging, and it looks as though the K. C.'s are going to stage one of the most elaborate affairs ever witnessed in Ranger.

The floor of the Gholson ballroom has been especially prepared for the occasion and its surface is as smooth as ice. The decorating committee is going to have something new and smart in the way of decoration schemes. And if anyone can believe Sam Wasaff, the entertainment committee has something entirely out of the usual up its sleeve. Sam himself is going to be dolled up like a Yiddish kid and render "At the Horse Races" and "Abie Mine Boy Don't Make Me Mad Now."

It is said by those who have heard these renditions that Wasaff is a born comedian and should have been an actor instead of a lawyer. The music promises to be the best, so with all these committees working in harmony to make this ball the most noteworthy event of the season, it seems certain that everybody that goes will come away feeling that the Knights of Columbus left nothing undone for the pleasure of their guests.

There will be cards for those who do not dance—both 500 and bridge—and there will be refreshments and reception and floor committees to see that everyone has a good time.

Ranger society folks haven't danced since Friday night. That's a long time between dances, so this one coming tomorrow night will be a most welcome one, an oasis as it were, in a danceless week. It is reported that the crowd will gather about 8:30 and dancing and cards will begin at 9 o'clock promptly, so don't delay the game by coming late. Everybody is going to be present—you'll be lonesome if you stay at home.

REST YOU FORGET.
This is just a reminder to those who might be a little forgetful that the Chicago Ladies' Sextette is here tonight. This entertainment has been brought to Ranger through the efforts of the Chamber of Commerce and the 1920 club, at no small expense and it is hoped that a large audience will greet these entertainers. One needs a change of diet in entertainment as well as in food and this program promises to be a radical change—in fact it is not probable that such talent as will appear on this program has ever been heard or seen in Ranger. One should welcome the opportunity to attend this, and forget that the weather is bad and brave its discomforts in order to enjoy an evening of rare culture, as well as to show our appreciation of the efforts of those who have brought these clever entertainers to our city.

20TH CENTURY BRIDGE CLUB TO MEET
Mrs. Saunders Greag of 425 Elm street, will be hostess to the Twentieth Century Bridge club Friday afternoon at 2:30 p. m.

BAKE SALE.
The women of the Christian church will hold a bake sale Saturday, the 28th, at the Phillips drug store. They will offer for sale home-made pies, cakes, bread and candies. This sale will continue throughout the day and will solve what to have for Sunday's dinner for those who take advantage of it.

FIVE MEN ARE RESCUED AT SEA IN OPEN BOAT
BOSTON, Jan. 25.—The rescue of five men at sea from an open boat of St. Johns, N. F., who had been exposed for several days and nights after abandoning the British schooner Eileen Lake, was announced by the Belgian steamship Persier in radiograms received here. The cook of the schooner lost his life in the experience, dying the second night that the crew spent in their little boat.

The Persier said the Eileen Lake was abandoned on Jan. 19 on St. Pierre shoals.

Young and Old Want to Marry Pretty Mayoress Who Fights Bootleggers

FAIRPORT, Ohio, Jan. 25.—Miss Amy Kankonen, pretty 25-year-old mayor of Fairport, whose brief term in office has been marked by a drive against bootleggers, with the young executive, a physician, devoting her knowledge of chemistry to occasional analyses of confiscated liquor revealed today that she had been bombarded with a veritable deluge of proposals of marriage from all parts of the United States.

From an enormous pile of letters that Mayor Kankonen called "spoon missives," the following were selected as typical:

"An unusual fondness for pretty women," was the way one applicant from Minnesota explained the cosmic urge that prompted him to place his heart and hand at the disposal of the "right smart looker" from Fairport and he naively adds, "that Ma always warned me my hankerin' after pretty women would be the plumb ruination of me, but I'm going to take one more chance."

Photographs accompany many of the offers.

This was the case with the letter of an aged farmer from Kansas, who writes that he owns 10,000 acres, and though he has a barrel or two of hard cider in the cellar, if he's accepted he'll "get rid of the stuff at the wedding."

His offer ends with the statement that he will celebrate his seventieth birthday soon, and that to "marry the youngest mayor in the country is the climax" of his ambitions.

"The best saxophone player in Bird Center" offers his heart and hand and "nine growing children," but yearns for some one who can "make good apple pie, save money" and love him.

One man offers to give up his pay envelope "every Saturday night, not scrap about it, either," while from Missouri is a business-like proposal, accompanied by an affidavit that the sender is "not married at present, but has good prospects."

"I have a good position," writes a Cleveland man, "but I would prefer to be married. As to looks, well, the girls all call me 'Sugar.' I have wonderful taste in neckties, but not a taste of liquor has ever passed my lips. As to tobacco—I detest the horrid stuff."

Johnny Big Beak, who says he is a Carlisle graduate, and writes from an Indian reservation in Arapahoe, Wyo., first mentions that he draws $100,000 a year in oil royalties, and adds that he would like to correspond—"object, matrimony."

A rich "Uncle Bim," who says he has a seat on the New York stock exchange, a Fifth avenue residence and one at Oyster Bay, asserts he has tired of society's butterflies and longs for a "real, true, unspoiled girl of a simple, chaste, Diana type of beauty," to grace his home.

"The funniest offer," Mayor Kankonen says, "is from a man in Cuba, who writes broken English." Translatable fragments tell of Cupid's darts:

"My mucho excellenz and beautiful senorita," he wrote, "Lon Luis Muchac, how Manuel De Zamore think you are sweet like a potato."

He goes on to state that, while

Cuba is slightly moist, his preference is for dryness, and that he is Honorary President of a temperance association.

In honor of Fairport's dry mayoress the senior states that he, with the backing of all Cuban dries, plans to start a movement to name one street in every Cuban city "The Amy K."

DOUGHBOY WINS BRIDE BY FINDING HUSBANDS FOR HER TWO SISTERS

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 25.—When Annetti Morandi, twenty-two, from Naples, received a proposal of marriage from Sergeant Joseph Foster, late veteran of the A. E. F., but now on recruiting duty in Pittsburgh, she wrote she would be happy to marry her dear American friend, whom she had met during the war but she had two sisters, Julia, nineteen, and Francisca, seventeen, whom she could not leave alone in Naples.

The sergeant had solved knottier problems during the war and since he was in the recruiting service he decided it was up to him to recruit husbands for his girl's sisters.

His brother was the first recruit. To him he sang the praises of Julia. Since this brother, Henry, had been a sailor during the war, the romance of the thing appealed to him. When Julia had been written to and had accepted the proposal of Henry the question came up of how to secure a husband for Francisca. He knew the Morandi girls were peaches and de-was going to New York. She owes me 200 kronen. I would like if you would go to New York and see the police and have them find her. You can get the 200 kronen and send the money to me. If she will not pay you send me her name so I can get it."

Stein knows something of foreign exchange rates. He figures 200 Hungarian kronen would be worth 17 cents. Interest for ten years at 4 per cent would bring it up to 23 cents.

He denied himself the outing which a search of the United States would involve and mailed Gabor a check for 23 cents. He also inclosed a statement which called for $50 car fare to New York, $50 expenses while there and a fee of $100. If Gabor should wish to pay the bill he would have to dig up 240,000 kronen.

In normal times twenty out of each one hundred persons engaged in gainful occupations in the United States are women.

HUNGARIAN COLLECTS DEBT; ALSO GETS BILL

HAMMOND, Ind., Jan. 25.—A. M. Stein, of Gary, attorney, received a letter recently from Gabor Toth, of Hungary, instructing him to collect money which, he said, was due to him from a woman who came to the United States ten years ago.

"I think her name was Davis," wrote the Hungarian. "She said she

OLD CANADIAN SLAVE LAWS MAY SAVE FUGITIVE

Extradition of North Carolina Negro on Riot Charge Is Strongly Contested.

TORONTO, Jan. 25.—Time-allowed documents of "slave-trade" days were being thumb-ed industriously today by Canadian officials in their search for a precedent in international law upon which to decide the case of Matthew Bullock, American negro, whose deportation on a charge of having incited a riot is demanded by North Carolina authorities.

In delving into the ancient court records, the Canadian barristers have found at least one historical near-parallel to the Bullock case, that of an American negro slave, one Anderson, whose extradition was demanded in 1862 on the ground that he had slain his master, an Ohioan named Digges.

Bullock's case is being pleaded by Canadian members of his race and by public officials, who demand that the negro receive every advantage of the immigration laws and international courts in order that Canada may continue his haven from North Carolina authorities.

Anderson's case was pleaded by Abraham Lincoln, then president of the United States, and by British abolitionists, who based their defense of the negro on the ground that "no slave can remain such when he touches British soil."

In 1862 American authorities demanded Anderson's extradition on the ground that he escaped from bondage in Ohio and, when about to be recaptured, had murdered his master, Digges.

When the negro was caught in Canada, the fugitive slave law still was in effect, but the ashes of the British abolitionist agitation still were hot and sentiment in favor of the negro's claim to Canada as a haven of refuge was strong.

Bullock was arrested at Hamilton, Ont. Alleged by American officials to have crossed the border in March, 1921, to evade trial, he has been examined by the immigration officer at Hamilton and ordered to be deported, but has appealed to the minister of immigration.

Meantime the negro population of Toronto is demanding that Bullock be allowed to remain in Canada, and former Mayor Church of Toronto, has wired Premier William L. M. King not to allow the negro to be "rail-roaded" out of the country without a fair trial.

SPEEDOMETER KING'S DAUGHTER IS VICTOR IN FIGHT FOR FORTUNE

RIVERHEAD, N. Y., Jan. 25.—Mrs. Robert B. Honeyman Jr., 20 years old, daughter of the late John K. Stewart, wealthy speedometer manufacturer, won her right to have revoked the letters of guardianship held by Martin Taylor, of New York, and Leander H. LaChance, of Chicago.

The court ruled that it was unnecessary to consider charges of mismanagement which Mrs. Honeyman had filed against her former guardians. Stewart died in June, 1916, at his country home, near Huntington, I. I., leaving an estate valued at more than $6,000,000. In the course of the litigation it was brought out that, born Terence O'Brien, he had changed his name on rising to power in the financial world.

FARMER AND HIS MOTHER DIE WHEN LOG CABIN BURNS

WAUKESHA, Wis., Jan. 25.—Neighbors who fought vainly against flames that razed the log cabin farm homestead of Joseph Schreihans, south of Tese Corners, today found the charred bodies of the farmer and his mother, Mrs. Mary Schreihans, 84 years old, in the ruins.

The body of the man, who was 50 years old, was lying in such a position as to indicate that he had attempted to carry his mother to safety, but had perished in the flames a few feet from the cabin door.

FLYING FISH CAUGHT BY SHIP'S CAT (SAYS PURSER)

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—Believe this and the purser of the steamship Philadelphia will tell you another one. He knows a lot of 'em.

According to Woods James, the purser, Mary Jane, the gray kitten officiating as ship's cat of the Philadelphia on the South American run, has become proficient at catching fish on the fly.

"Mary Jane caught twenty-seven this trip," said James. "She picks out a porthole near the water-line and watches there. When a fish flies past within her reach, she reaches out, and flip! Mister Fish lands all spraddled out on the deck."

The purser is a young man of exemplary habits.

Secretary Weeks is soon to make known his decision regarding the action that will be taken with regard to the property.

"Provisional President of Africa" Arrested for Swindling Negroes

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—Marcus Garvey's heralded plans for the colonization of Africa by means of a half-dozen stock selling corporations have caused his arrest on charges of using the mails to defraud.

This provides a climax to a bizarre career that lifted the negro from obscurity to mellifluous titles, hero worship and wealth. "Provisional president of the Republic of Africa," guiding spirit of the Black Star line and other organizations, he was hailed in Harlem as a wizard.

Specifically Garvey is accused, as president of the Black Star line, of advertising and selling passage to Africa on a mythical vessel and that he used the mails to defraud in disposing of stock in the Black Star line.

Four months of investigation—prompted by antagonistic members of his race—led to the arrest. For Garvey's plans reached out to embrace 4,000,000 of his people and triple that in dollars that would build up an industrial empire of negroes.

Some comprehension of the extent of his plans can be obtained from this: The Black Star line alone is capitalized at $10,000,000. The Universal Negro Improvement association is credited with 4,000,000 members. Each member pays 35 cents a month, 10 cents of which goes to the home office, the rest for expenses of the branch headquarters. At the last convention a special levy of $1 was placed on each member—a total of $4,000,000—making the financial possibilities rosy upon paper at least.

Star Pecan Cracker in Nut Factory Asks Relief From Peanutter's Preaching

CHICAGO, Jan. 25.—When a man is engaged in the delicate task of cracking pecans his working hours are too precious for interruption by a mere amateur who is merely shelling peanuts. This explanation was made to Judge Jacob Lawrence in the Chicago avenue court, by Samuel Daniels, star cracker in a "nut factory" at Erie and Wells streets. Daniels was the complaining witness appearing against Joseph Moses. Daniels told the judge that Moses preached so much that he couldn't keep his mind on the pecans.

"This fellow don't work, he just preaches," Daniels declared. "His name is just right, and he is right at home with the nuts, too. I told him I'd crack him if he didn't stop preaching, but he followed me home and tried to convert me."

"Don't you believe in the Bible?" Judge Lawrence asked Daniels. "Yes, sure. But in the factory I gotta keep my mind on pecans all the time."

"Well, Moses, a nut factory isn't a church you know," said the judge. "You should get a pulpit. It has come to pass that you are fined $10 and costs."

NEFF REVOKES PARDON OF ERATH COUNTY MAN

AUSTIN, Jan. 25.—Governor Neff announced late Tuesday that he had canceled the conditional pardon granted Thanksgiving day to D. L. Frazier, who had been sent to the penitentiary from Erath county on conviction of murder.

"Conduct unbecoming a good citizen," was the reason assigned by the governor for cancellation of the pardon. Frazier is now in jail at Stephenville, awaiting return to state prison.

In this connection the governor added that he was keeping "fab" on those prisoners to whom conditional pardons have been granted, and those who do not comport themselves as good citizens will in every instance be returned to the penitentiary and their pardons revoked.

The Frazier pardon was the first granted by Governor Neff that he has canceled.

COLLEGE FRANK ENDS LIFE OF BOY STUDENT

UTICA, N. Y., Jan. 25.—As a result of a prank, William Duncan Saunders, 15, a freshman at Hamilton college, and son of A. P. Saunders, dean of the college, is dead.

As the time for Sunday's chapel service approached, one of the students entered Saunders' room and routed him from bed by tilting his mattress. The boy, who was the youngest student in the college, fell on the floor and his head struck the wall.

After Saunders had suffered a severe attack of nausea the college physician said that the fall had fractured the lad's skull. Young Saunders died on the way to Faxton hospital.

BROOKLYN BUYS CRANE FROM CINCINNATI REDS

By United Press. NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—Charley Ebbets, president of the Brooklyn Dodgers, has wired from Miami, Fla., the news that he has purchased Sam Crane, the Reds' second shortstop, for $7,500. Crane is a notoriously weak hitter with an average of only .232 in 215 times at bat in seventy-three games last season, but he is a very reliable short fielder and the Dodgers have need of him.

BAVARIANS HOOT PLAY WITH AMERICAN NAMES

By Associated Press. BERLIN, Jan. 25.—Munich theatre-goers are still touchy on the subject of America, it appears from an incident just reported here. The Neue Berliner Zeitung tells how an audience in the Bavarian capital fairly raised the roof in objecting to the American background and American names being used in a new theatrical production. They hooted and hissed and stamped, and finally the performance was brought to a stop.

The authorities, when the manager was brought before them, forbade him from producing the play unless the scenes were placed in some other country than the United States. The versatile producer readily complied and laid his scenes in the Caucasus. The name of one character was changed from "Smith" to "Smirski" and that of "Gladys Chicago, dollar princess" to "Marsha Petrograd, millionaire's daughter."

BOXER KILLED WHEN HEAD STRIKES CANVAS

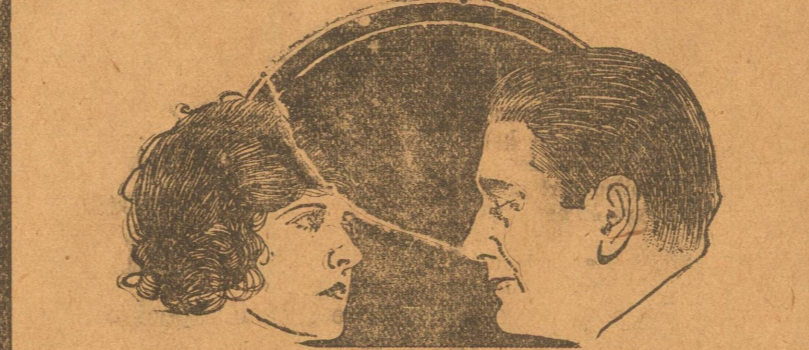

BOSTON, Jan. 25.—Ambrose J. Melanson, former national amateur boxing champion at 135 pounds, whose skull was fractured Monday night in a professional bout with Joseph St. Hilaire of Somersworth, N. H., died in a hospital here Tuesday without regaining consciousness. St. Hilaire was detained by the police pending investigation.

Melanson, who was called to the ring when another boxer failed to qualify, was felled in the fourth round of a scheduled eight-round preliminary bout. Regaining his feet he was knocked down again with a right hand blow to the jaw. In falling, his head struck the canvas. He was examined before the bout by the club physician and was declared in condition to compete. He was 25 years old and married and had been boxing for five years.

SEA TURNS RED AS SWORDFISH FIGHT WHALES

LONDON, Jan. 25.—That the monsters of the deep fight in groups as well as engage in personal encounters is testified to by Capt. G. Evered Poole, a commissioner in the Gold Coast colony, who writes the following to his brother:

"Between Sierra Leone and Sekondi we steamed through, for over an hour, a blood red sea, and saw some hundreds of whales dead or dying on the surface of the water. Some were just able to move slowly along; few, if any, could move quickly. There must have been a sanguinary battle, supposed to have been put up by swordfish. It was a most appalling sight, and the extent of the bloody expanse must have represented the death of many more whales than were visible. No one on our ship had ever seen or even heard of anything approaching such a spectacle before."

"THE KENTUCKIANS"

CHANGE OF HEART COMES TO OHIO TOWNS BEST BOOTLEGGERS

MAYSVILLE, Ky., Jan. 25.—Rev. Thomas Carr of Kentucky, has been conducting a series of meetings at Germany, a small settlement in Monroe township, Ohio, seven miles east of Manchester.

A ripple was caused, it was learned today, when a prominent convert took the platform and said:

"If any one will come to my home at an early hour tomorrow morning I will give away a first-class still and complete outfit for making moonshine. Come early, or the infernal thing will be scrapped."

"Furthermore, if you will tell my Monroe township clients of this fact it will save them a long trip over the hill."

"Never again will a still be operated by me."

Four other men made public confessions of having made and sold wet goods. One man said that he had used only the best ingredients obtainable, and that he had not sold to minors—in fact, did not have to, as voters took his output as fast as it was made.

Four stills have been scrapped, one bootlegger has taken off his boots and nothing is lacking in the confessions except a list of "steadies" from Monroe and Manchester townships.

HUGE PROFITS MADE ON ELECTRIC LIGHT BULBS, PROBE SHOWS

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—Testimony that profits on electric light bulbs ranged in instances from 200 to 300 per cent, was given at the Lockwood committee's investigation of the General Electric company's alleged monopoly of the business.

This was the figure Thomas Spina, manager of the Continental Lamp company, testified, at which the company's list price compelled dealers to sell its lights above the manufacturing cost of independent concerns.

Other testimony indicated that from 1915 to 1922 when there was a shortage of lamps, the company restricted the output of factories which were licensed under patents to make lamps.

Spina testified that the resale price had been fixed by the General Electric company, citing one instance of a bulb, costing 40 cents to make, having been sold to the consumer for $1.60.
