

ANOTHER GIRL MAKES CHARGES AGAINST 'TEX'

NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—An entirely new case against George L. Rickard the famous "Tex," known the world over as a fight promoter, is being presented to the New York grand jury, separate from but very similar to the assault charges which have been pending for more than two weeks in a magistrate's court involving a 15-year-old school girl. The evidence laid before the grand jury by Ferdinand Pecora, chief assistant district attorney, concerns allegations that Rickard was indiscreet with another school girl, age 13, Anna Schoenfeld.

In the original prosecution of Rickard the complaining witness is Alice Ruck, 15, whose story is supported by two other younger children. The Ruck case is to be heard Saturday night in the night court and on that occasion the court probably will determine whether there is sufficient evidence to hold Rickard to the grand jury for further inquiry in this matter. Pecora presented to the grand jury the statement of Anna Schoenfeld and also introduced Nellie Gasco, age 17, as a corroborating witness. This young woman disappeared recently and was found in Wappingers Falls, N. Y., in company with Nathan Podd, ex-prize fighter and professional strikebreaker, posing as Podd's niece. Podd is held in $10,000 bail on charge of giving a bribe to a witness in a pending criminal action.

The district attorney also brought in Herman Voch, janitor of an apartment house in the tenderloin district in which the children said they were assaulted by Rickard.

Rickard has withdrawn from active direction of prize fights at Madison Square Garden since the charges were first made public and has made no statement except that the charges are to him amazing as they are false. The fights are being carried on by the Madison Square Garden Sporting club, John Ringling, the circus owner, is a financial partner of Rickard in the garden enterprises and, in company with Billy Gibson, manager of Lightweight Champion Benny Leonard, and other sporting men, has evinced a belief in Rickard's innocence.

Podd was indicted late Thursday on a charge of kidnapping growing out of the disappearance of the Gasco girl for several days. He is a friend of the Gasco family and the kidnapping charge apparently is but a technical one.

ARGENTINE PRESIDENT WOULD RETAIN POWER BY POSTPONING ELECTION

By Associated Press.

BUENOS AIRES, Feb. 10.—Charges that President Irigoyen is planning to keep himself in power by postponing the national elections, which would otherwise be held on April 2, are made by leaders of the opposition parties. There is a constitutional prohibition against a president succeeding himself in office but President Irigoyen's opponents allege that he intends to evade it by delaying the election by some manufactured excuse.

They see proof of their charge in the fact that the radical party which now controls the government has failed to announce a date for its convention to nominate a presidential candidate. They openly say that the radical party plans to continue the delay and that no candidate will be nominated.

GRADERS AT WORK ON SOUTH AUSTIN STREET

Four blocks on South Austin street are being graded and otherwise improved and will be opened to traffic some time next week. When this work is completed Austin street will run into the Blackwell road and traffic will not have to detour to get into Cooper addition. A steam grader as well as road drags are at work. A ditch that now runs across the road will be filled with dirt and a substantial culvert will span it. The city is having the work done.

LAWYER WINS LIQUOR DEBATE WITH PREACHER

IRON MOUNTAIN, Mich., Feb. 10.—Martin S. McDonough, Iron River attorney, who is a candidate for congressman on the Republican ticket from the Twelfth district, obtained his second victory today over Rev. Carl Rosander, Swedish Lutheran minister, in their series of debates on changing the Volstead law to permit the sale of beer and wine under government control.

McDonough won the first debate here, 502 to 66, and the second at Crystal Falls, 336 to 216.

McDonough said he favored beer and wine instead of moonshine flooding the country under the Volstead law, which he declared has not been enforced and never can be enforced, because the people are not behind it and will not be as long as beer and wine are denied them.

Rev. Rosander said the sale of beer and wine would make saloons of private homes and that children would be exposed to liquor more than ever. He charged McDonough with having supported the law evaders in the famous "rum rebellion" in Iron county a year ago.

LOST A PEACOCK?

A large peacock proudly strutted down Marston street for about two blocks yesterday afternoon, then changed its course and walked down Mesquite street to the delight of the kids and the surprise of the older people. Many did not know what it was at first and cries of "Look at the eagle!" "What kind of a bird is it?" could be heard. The amusement stopped when a small dog put it to flight and it took refuge under a vacant house. As yet the owner of the fowl has not been found.

A can of Calumet Baking Powder will make more pies, cakes, biscuits, muffins, etc. than a can of most other brands.

It lasts longer—goes farther because it contains more than the ordinary leavening strength—therefore you use less.

When a recipe calls for two teaspoons of baking powder, use two level teaspoons of Calumet, the results will always be the same—perfectly raised bakings—remember this when you buy baking powder and don't forget that Calumet is the economic buy because it goes farther.

A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 oz. Some baking powders come in 12 oz. instead of 16 oz. cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.
