U. S. Protests Attack On Ship

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16. (AP)—The United States is protesting to the Chinese Communist Government against a Chinese warship's firing on an American merchant vessel.

Secretary of State Acheson told a news conference today that an immediate protest is being made against this endangering of American lives.

Acheson also declared that Chinese Communist treatment of American Consul Gen. Angus Ward at Mukden presently removes any possibility of considering recognition of the Chinese Communist Government.

He said some progress is being made in efforts to obtain the release of two ECA officials held by the Communist regime in northern Korea.

Russia in response to an American request is taking up the matter with the Korean Communist authorities, Acheson said.

Acheson discussed the Far East situation after first summarizing his meeting in Paris last week with the British and French foreign ministers and his subsequent trip to Germany.

While declining to go into any detail on the Paris big three conference, Acheson emphasized that complete agreement was reached on German problems. He said he was greatly impressed by the progress which western Germany is making in its political reconstruction.

The Far Eastern issues dominated the questions and answers which followed his prepared statements.

PARTIAL REPORTS MADE

Chest Collections Now Total $14,000

Community Chest totals jumped a thousand dollars the past 24 hours to pass the $14,000 mark.

While encouraging, the increase did not represent a pace which must be achieved and maintained if the goal of reaching the Chest objective of $37,000 by Thanksgiving is satisfied.

Only three workers from the general canvass, which started Monday, had made partial reports, which accounted for the bulk of the increase.

Chest headquarters was seeking to contact workers, urging prompt contacts of those to whom they are to carry the Chest appeal.

In the main, gifts have been on a par with last year. However, there have been instances of receipts which led Chest officials to believe that donors did not realize that the Chest covers six agencies—that it is a six-in-one campaign.

The Day's Pay division added another 100 per cent in the Big Spring Herald.

Booths will be operated at downtown points during the weekend, it was announced.

At Hemphill-Wells, workers will be Mrs. J. D. Jones, and Mrs. Don Williams on Friday; Mrs. Joe Pickle and Mrs. A. V. Karcher Saturday.

At J. C. Penny Co. workers will be Mrs. Alton Underwood, Mrs. Joe Neely and Mrs. James Edward (North Ward P-TA) on Friday; and the Central Ward P-TA, plus Mrs. Ola Mae Edwards, Mrs. James Little, Mrs. Allen Hamilton and Roy Reeder on Saturday. At the First National Bank will be Mrs. Ray Clark, Mrs. Jeff Hanna on Friday; Mrs. H. F. Jarratt and Mrs. W. J. Garrett on Saturday.

At the State National bank will be Mrs. J. C. Pickle and Mrs. Robert Stripling on Friday and Mrs. Dee Davis and Mrs. Douglass Orme on Saturday.

BIG PARADE, TREASURE HUNT SLATED

City To Welcome Santa Dec. 2

Santa Claus will be welcomed to Big Spring on Dec. 2.

He will arrive simultaneously with the official opening of the Yule season here on that date, it has been announced. The occasion will be marked with a big Christmas parade and treasure hunt through downtown streets with Santa in person riding aboard one of the floats.

There'll be hundreds of pounds of candy—about 10,000 pieces—for the kiddies, and scores of gifts to be distributed in the treasure hunt. Walter L. Phillips, chairman of the chamber of commerce's Christmas program committee, said St. Nick will distribute the candy along the parade route, starting at 5 p. m.

The treasure hunt will be held at 6 p. m. Plans for the program officially opening the Christmas season went ahead at a meeting of Phillips' committee last night. A large float is being prepared to carry Santa and his helpers in the parade. A dozen business firms have signified that they will enter floats, while at least three and possibly six area bands will be on hand.

J. W. King, Big Spring high school band director, informed the group that Coahoma, Big Spring high, and Big Spring junior high bands will definitely march in the parade. Stanton, Colorado City and Lorraine are also expected to send high school musical groups.

Christmas window displays will be unveiled for the treasure hunt immediately following the parade by 22 local stores. Others are expected to enter the program, H. J. Morrison, assistant manager of the chamber of commerce, said.

After winding through downtown streets, the parade will be concluded when Santa Claus arrives at the giant Christmas tree being decorated on the courthouse lawn.

Nat Shick, committeeman in charge of tree decorations, said that 1,500 lights would be turned on with Santa's arrival. City officials have promised that Christmas tree lights would be up by that time. Individual store operators are being asked to decorate store fronts in keeping with the season. The Christmas program committee voted last night to invite members of the Big Spring Garden club to sponsor outside decorations in the residential sections.

Prizes totalling $150 will be given for best entries in the Christmas parade. The best float entered by a school or club group will receive a $50 award. Second prize will be $20.

The best school float will win $25, and second, $15. The best walking parade unit is to receive a $25 prize, and second place in that class will be $15. Treasure hunt prizes will be given by most Big Spring stores to holders of winning tickets in the treasure hunt.

City Legionnaires Being Polled On HCJC Bond Issue

Members of the Howard County American Legion Post are being polled for their support for the forthcoming bond issue to construct a permanent home for Howard County Junior College.

Post Commander Frank Hardesty has written all members, asking an expression on the issue.

County voters will go to the polls on Tuesday of next week—November 22—to determine authorization of $350,000 in bonds.

Hardesty's letter to Legionnaires points out that 250 veterans are attending HCJC—and that its facilities offer a prime opportunity to all veterans in the area wanting further education. His letter further asserts:

"The upkeep of the present building is about $20,000, when it should be about $9,000. Furthermore, because of the fact that the old war-time fixtures and buildings are depreciating even more, and cost of upkeep is rising even higher.

"Voting the bond issue will not raise taxes above permissible rate which has been voted by the people to be not more than 50 cents.

"We want a permanent school for the veterans and the children of our veterans."

Mr. Truman's action was announced by John Taylor Egan, commissioner of the Public Housing Administration.

WELCOME MAT OUT FOR IRANIAN SHAH

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16. (AP)—The United States rolled out the official carpet in a 'big way today for the arrival of the youthful Shah of Iran on a month-long state visit.

A personal greeting from President Truman at the airport, and a crowded round of ceremonies, dinners, and a tour of the Pacific Coast were on the program. They were intended to impress the 30-year-old ruler with American friendliness for his middle eastern country.

As a special gesture, Mr. Truman's plane, the Independence, was sent to his capital, Tehran, to bring him here. Secretary of State Acheson hurried back from a trip to Paris and Berlin for the occasion.

Iran is a barrier to Russian expansion southward. Some high level conferences are expected with the shah over his reported desire for an increase in the American military and economic help which already is being supplied to his country.

What may be of wider general appeal is that the shah is dark and handsome, lively, athletic, a wealthy eastern potentate who is

Miners, Under Lewis, Have Made Major Gains In Past 22 Years

By NORMAN WALKER
AP STAFF
WASHINGTON, Nov. 16. — John L. Lewis and his coal miners have been responsible for about a fourth of all the strike idleness in the nation for the past 22 years.

But the government figures which show this also demonstrate that Union Leader Lewis has won a series of major gains for the miners — gains which helped other labor unions win concessions too. Idleness caused by all the strikes in the country for the past 22 years, figures available at the Labor Department show, have meant loss of about 465 million man-days of work.

WHEN DRUNKS GET TOGETHER

DETROIT, Nov. 16. (AP) — Robert Brown, 32, showed up at police station and said: "I'm drunk. Lock me up. I don't want to take any chances driving my car."

Sgt. Maurice La Lond obliged. Soon there were loud screams from the cell block. Police found Brown bouncing Arthur Trola, 34, a barber, off the cell bars. Sgt. La Long got this explanation from Brown: Brown's wife had told him Trola had made passes at her. In an angry mood, Brown went hunting for Trola. He heard that Trola had been locked up for drinking. So Brown had himself locked up by feigning drunkenness so he could get at Trola. Police threw Brown out of jail after taking down his complaint against Trola.

UP TO GOOD STAND Rye, Vetch Improve Soil Of Haney Farm

R. E. Haney has 16 acres of Abruzzi rye and hairy vetch up to a good stand on his farm in the R-Bar soil conservation group. Haney reported last week. Haney planted the rye and vetch for a cover and soil building crop October 28. He inoculated the vetch seed to insure good growth and nitrogen production by the soil building legume.

Haney, who is a cooperater with the Martin-Howard Soil Conservation District, had 6 acres of rye mixed with clover for a soil improving crop last year. The rye and clover improved the soil by adding organic matter and nitrogen. Haney said he noticed that the soil soaked up rainfall better than land that had no cover crop. Haney is using soil building cover crops as a part of his coordinated soil and water conservation program in cooperation with the district.

Varied Court Rulings Are Handed Down On Vexed Labor Questions

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., Nov. 16. (AP) — State Supreme Court Justice John J. Alexander barred officers of the 13,000-member local at General Electric's Schenectady plant from using union funds for political or propaganda purposes. Union spending was limited to $3,500 weekly. The temporary injunction had been sought by the union president and other right wing leaders.

Jersey City, N. J. — Federal Judge Guy L. Fike refused a temporary injunction which would have prevented rightists from seceding from Local 456 at the Westinghouse elevator division plant here. He obtained a promise from right wingers, however, that no transfer of the local's funds will take place until both sides submit briefs within two weeks.

Yonkers, N. Y. — A group of seven members sued in the state supreme court to block Local 543's switch to the CIO. They asked a restraining order to prevent local officers from using union funds "for the purposes of a rival organization." A hearing will be held tomorrow. The 1,800-member local voted Nov. 3 to leave the UE and now holds a CIO charter.

Edwin Schwarz planted 40 acres of Abruzzi rye and hairy vetch this fall for cover and soil building crop on his irrigated farm east of Big Spring.

Other district cooperators who have winter cover crops of rye include Walter Robinson and Henry Derrick in the Midway soil conservation group and Roy Bates who farms 5 miles west of Big Spring.

Claude Collins, Jr., rancher co-operator with the district, improved the condition of the range cover this year on the Fourth Ranch southeast of Forsan. Buffalo grass made a solid turf in the draws. Side oats grama and black grama are spreading over the range and little bluestem is showing up on the rocky hills. Collins deferred 9,384 acres of the Douthart ranch last spring.

T. L. Griffin has started construction of spreader dams on his ranch roads in the Creek soil conservation ranch group eight miles northwest of Vincent. Griffin said last week. He is taking water out of the ranch roads and spreading it on grass to keep his roads from washing and increase the growth of his grass.

some 400 council seats and rightists claimed a 4-1 sweep. Some members identified with the left were named conciliators although a left wing spokesman a few days ago claimed the election was not legal since the local seceded from the UE last Sunday. The left wing held its own election after the balloting and elected a slate of top officers, including president. Left wing officers voted to sign non-Communist affidavits.

Newark, N. J. — The CIO claims a majority in New Jersey and District 4—which includes Metropolitan New York—as a result of four New Jersey voting tonight to join the IUE.

Hoboken, N. J. — Keufel and Esser Co. signed a contract today recognizing Local 427, CIO-IUE, as bargaining agent for its employees. This is the third New Jersey firm and the fifth in District 4 to sign with the new union.

FALSI' TRADE IS IMPERILED

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 16. (AP) — The nation's multi-million dollar "falsie" business is periled by plastic surgery. Dr. H. Otto Barnes, Los Angeles plastic surgeon, told the convention of the Pan American Medical Women's Alliance Monday, that an operation can increase a woman's bust measurements. The operation, which removes the need for falsies, requires a small incision and rearrangement of tissues.

Muskrat Season Gets Underway

ORANGE, Nov. 16. (AP) — Thousands of trappers have begun harvesting the multi-million dollar muskrat crop on the gulf coast. But they know it will be a poor season. Sam Barton, one of the area's largest fur buyers, blames the 1948 drought and Russian competition.

As he set up his headquarters here for his 18th season, Barton said last year's extremely dry weather heavily damaged breeding places and food supply. "To make matters worse," the buyer declared, "The Russian government was permitted to dump 3 million muskrat pelts on the market after last season on a 'name-your-own-price basis.' Prices are down from 1947's $1.80 average to $1 per pelt. He estimated the yield for this season will be about the same as last season's 6 million pelts, compared with 8,029,000 in 1946 and 1947.

City Engineering Officials Attend Plainview Meeting

Four representatives of the Big Spring engineering department were in Plainview yesterday where they were to attend the regional water and sewer works meeting today.

E. L. Killingsworth, city engineer, headed the Big Spring delegation and was scheduled for an address in the opening ceremonies in the morning, responding to the welcome extended visitors by Mayor Winfield Holbrook of Plainview. Municipal water and sewer systems personnel from all over West Texas were expected to attend the regional meeting.

Lee Nuckler, superintendent of the Big Spring water distribution system, W. T. Mearns, water works foreman, G. L. Bell, operator at the local sewage treatment plant, and J. J. Willingham, operator at the water treatment plant here, attended the meeting.

The morning program was to include addresses by Congressman George Mahon and E. J. Umbenhauer, president of the Texas Water and Sewer Works Association. V. M. Ehlers, director of sanitary engineering for the state health department, was to speak on water conservation during the noon luncheon.

Demonstrations of the actual operations involved in the maintenance of water and sewer systems were slated for the afternoon session. Teams from Lubbock, Pampa, Lamesa, Matador, Amarillo, Friona and Plainview were to do the exhibition work.

The regional meeting was sponsored by the Caprock, Canadian, Greenbelt, Panhandle and Permian Basin associations. Big Spring is a member of the latter organization. FAMED GEM THIEF SEES THE 'OUTSIDE'

MINEOLA, N. Y., Nov. 16 (AP)—Jewel thief Arthur Barry found the outside world a strange place after 17 years in prison.

But he got only a fleeting glimpse of the "outside" yesterday before he disappeared behind bars again—this time in the Nassau County jail here.

On the long auto ride from Attica State Prison near Buffalo to Long Island, the college-educated master burglar of society folk saw many things of interest and a few genuine wonders.

One of the latter was television. At his request, county deputies stopped at a roadhouse so Barry could see a video show, something that was only a prediction in 1932.

That was the year Barry was recaptured after three years of liberty gained in a break at Auburn Prison.

Women's skirts in 1932 were shorter than today's fading new look. Barry, now 59, was very interested.

Police rate him one of the great jewel thieves of all time. His loot is estimated between $4 million and $10 million. The law got back only about $50,000 worth. Where the rest is, or was, nobody knows.

Barry was paroled yesterday from his 32-year sentence—25 years for his thefts and seven more for the prison break. He was met at the prison gate in Attica by the Nassau officers, who re-arrested him on bench warrants 22 years old.

They charge him with first degree assault, robbery and burglary in the $100,000 jewel burglary in the home of Financier Jesse L. Livermore in 1927.

The victim, the judge and the prosecutor of that day all are dead now, and Barry hopes that time has wrecked the state's case. He will be arraigned on the old charges today or tomorrow.

Money Order Sales Are Hiked Here

Sale of money orders is up almost 50 percent this fall over a like period in 1948. Postmaster Nat Shick has announced.

Much of the gain can be attributed to the cotton harvest. Cotton pickers, many of them aliens from Mexico, exchange their money for the certificates once they are paid.

A total of 10,145 money orders were issued for the period from Sept. 1 through Nov. 12, included in that group were 209 foreign orders issued for money going out of the country. Sale of the foreign forms is up several hundred percent, Shick noted.

City C-C Manager Speaks At Vincent

J. H. Greene, manager of the local chamber of commerce, spoke to vocational agriculture students in an informal lecture at the Vincent VA class meeting Monday night.

"Organization on the Farm" was Greene's subject. Eighteen agriculture students made up the Vincent class. Approximately 30 members of the five vocational agriculture classes in Howard county are to meet together for a field day trip Nov. 23. Fred Elliott, coordinator of veterans training in the county, said.

DALLAS, Nov. 16 (AP)—Dallas postmen are putting the bite on the city council for an ordinance to protect them against dogs. They say the dogs have been putting the bite on them.

A delegation of mail carriers, accompanied by Postmaster J. Howard Payne appeared before the council yesterday. The postmen want the council to require that dogs be fenced or leashed.

Oil Allowable Cut To Affect State Revenue

AUSTIN, Nov. 16 (AP)—Texas' declining revenues will really hit the state in January as a result of the drastic cut in crude oil production ordered for December.

State revenue from taxes on crude oil production will drop roughly $719,400 a month because of the 218,337-barrel slash in the daily permissible flow fixed by the Railroad Commission yesterday.

That is the off-the-cuff estimate of officials in the state comptroller's office. They would not concede that the railroad commission's action may mean considerably less revenue for Texas than the comptroller has estimated for the current fiscal year.

Apparently the comptroller's office feels — or hopes — that the cutback in Texas oil production will be only temporary, that production will be increased in January and succeeding months.

Last month a state fiscal expert expressed pleasure at 137,000-barrel increase in the November allowable. But he warned then that oil production would have to go higher if the comptroller's estimate of revenue for the biennium was to be realized.

He said production would have to reach 2,400,000 barrels daily by next September and maintain that average the second fiscal year (Sept. 1, 1955-Aug. 31, 1951) to help bring the state an anticipated $7 million for general spending purposes.

North Koreans Hold Two Yanks As Hostages

SEOUL, Nov. 16 (AP)—North Korean Communists indicated today two Americans they seized with an American ship last September are being held as hostages to force United States recognition of Red North Korea.

A radio broadcast from Pyongyang, North Korean capital, reported the safety of Capt. Alfred T. Meschter and Chief Engineer Albert E. Willis, advisers to the South Korean crew of the Cargo Ship Kimball R. Smith.

Then the broadcast, in the form of a press interview with North Korean Home Affairs Minister Pak Il Woo, quoted him as saying in response to a question on how he was going to handle the case from now on:

"In event that the American government raises the question, the two Americans may be handed over to representatives appointed by the American Government under provisions of the latest international law."

The United States, he added, "has not asked our government about it."

The U. S., which does not recognize the North Korean Red regime, had made two requests to Russia for aid in locating the two Americans. Acting Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko replied Oct. 14 it was a matter for the North Korean Government, which the Russians recognize.

Meschter, 28, of Kinderhook, N. Y., and Willis, 40, of Brooklyn, N. Y., disappeared after the Kimball Smith sailed Sept. 20 from Pusan for Kunsan. Both are ports in South Korea.

The North Korean radio reported later the Korean crew had taken over the ship and sailed it to Chinnampo, a port near Pyongyang. Officials of the South Korean Republic, which the U. S. recognizes, and American authorities here tried to learn the whereabouts of Meschter and Willis. Reports were so conflicting the U. S. Embassy withheld all publicity.

The Kimball Smith was one of seven cargo vessels loaned to the South Korean government for coastwise transport. As advisers to the Korean crew, Meschter and Willis carried diplomatic passports as officials of the Economic Cooperation Administration.

Make This Home Recipe To Take Off Ugly Fat

It's simple. It's amazing, how quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Barrestrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take two tablespoons twice a day. That's all there is to it.

If the very first bottle doesn't show the results, keep on to lose bulky fat and help you slender, more graceful curves. If you double pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back.

Follow the easy way endorsed by many who have tried this plan and help bring back slender curves and graceful slenderness. Note how quickly bulk disappears—how much better you feel. More alive, youthful appearing and active.

10 pounds lost in 10 days

Mrs. M. C. Britton, 284 W. Wildwood, San Antonio, Texas, writes as follows: "I am a faithful user of Barrestrate. I had distasteful work without your product and needed to lose 10 pounds, so started using Barrestrate and my worry was over for I lost the 10 pounds in 10 days. I now weigh 133 pounds. Midland Civic Leader Is Speaker For Teachers Banquet On Tuesday

Because of the extreme changes in our world and our local situations, "I feel like we are beginners," said Delbert Downing, Midland Chamber of Commerce manager, as he addressed the public relations banquet sponsored by the Classroom Teachers at the Settles hotel Tuesday evening. Special guests for the banquet were Business and Professional Women's Club members, school officials and other interested persons.

Downing stated that he wondered if parents and teachers of today will be able to begin again and catch up with the world as quickly as they should. He said that teachers are working under new rules and a new program under the Gilmer-Aiken plan and that teachers and laymen alike throughout the world are awakening to something entirely new.

He expressed concern over the new pastimes of youngsters of our nation such as the game called "chicken." Explaining the new pastime as a reckless speed game played with cars driven without the use of hands, he said that his greatest concern was not that his youngsters would have the courage to start such a game, but that they might not have the courage to withdraw from the game. He told the teachers that they were facing a group of students who felt they knew something of every experience except death.

Downing said that he felt life had become rather cheap and it was the duty of adults to help the "kids" to understand that life is a pretty valuable thing.

Downing discussed, at some length, a conversation which he had recently with a man who served on the committee which selected the spot where the first atomic bomb would be dropped.

During the conversation, he said he asked the man just how much further advanced are the college freshmen of today than those of the days immediately following World War I. He stated that the man replied that he couldn't answer that question, but that civilization had advanced more from 1930 to 1949 than it had from the beginning of time until 1930. He quoted Henry Ford as saying, some ten years ago, that from now on, civilization will make more progress every ten years than it had made in all of the years preceding. Downing said that to individuals that statement meant that in 1950, we will have progressed further from 1950 than we progressed in the years preceding 1950. He described such predictions as the idea that a man will be able to fly from Houston to Washington, D. C. in five minutes, that weather will be made to order and that air conditioned cities will be common. Downing declared, "I can't understand it. But I can't doubt it." He said that in 1955, one of our great scientists presented an equation which was thought was the answer to what forms matter. Downing said that in 40 years of education and work, the world had found the answer and that America, but not American, brains had found the answer. He called attention to the many different races who were represented in the group which worked on the problem.

With the many mental cases which are in the world today, Downing said that he wondered if such progress would be helpful if teachers and laymen were going to be able to fashion a successful mode of living and teaching.

Turning his remarks to the teachers, he told them that they were making more money than they had ever made in the past and that he thought they were doing a better job. But that the general public did not always realize they were doing a better job and that it was the teacher's responsibility to let them know, said the speaker. He praised the banquet program and the idea behind it. The civic leader said that it would be a marvelous thing if teachers could conduct schools in one corner of the town without the influence of the economic world which surrounds them. He added that since this is impossible, that understanding between parents and teacher is necessary. To understand it is to love, respect and appreciate, said Downing. "The strongest force in the world," said Downing, "is the desire of parents to give their children a better chance than they had themselves." This is one of the main problems, which teachers must face, he said.

In conclusion, Downing said that civilization is not changed by speeches, books or sermons, but by the decision of men and women to change their course of action, how ever slight the change, to a better way. He said that one step, however small, can change the conditions in the nation, the school and the home. Using a water lily as an example, he stated that white souls fall not from heaven, they rise from the mud of the earth.

Mrs. A. C. Kloven presided during the program and introduced the speaker. After the invocation was given by W. J. Arnett, Mary Jane Hamilton, accompanied by Mrs. Bill Griese, led group singing. Mrs. Griese and Mrs. H. C. Willoughby played a piano number, "Country Garden."

Table decorations carried out the Thanksgiving theme. Miniature turkeys and pilgrims centered the tables. Pyracantha, ivy and chrysanthemums formed the floral arrangement. The speaker's table was decorated in the same manner with the addition of tall, green tapers.

RIBBON RAMBLINGS By Mildred Young

Most people of our town have either made their Thanksgiving plans or they're in the making. You'll probably notice signs in the grocery store such as "Buy Your Turkey Now." Such slogans mean that Mr. Turkey has already met or is about to meet his doom, and that Thanksgiving is upon us.

President Truman's Thanksgiving proclamation this year is the 87th since the founding of the United States. The Continental Congress started the custom in 1777, but after Madison it languished and for 47 years it was not celebrated.

The Puritans observed Thanksgiving as a substitute for Christmas. Their momentary period of peace and prosperity in 1621 made the holiday a natural one for them.

George Washington proclaimed two Thanksgivings, in 1789 and in 1795. John Adams set aside days in 1789 and 1793. Thomas Jefferson did not believe in Thanksgiving, but James Madison believed to such an extent he had two in one year—on January 12 and April 13, 1815.

That was the last Thanksgiving until Abraham Lincoln, in response to a urging by the editor of Goddard's Ladies' Book, named April 13, 1863 as Thanksgiving Day, exactly 47 years later.

Thanksgiving in 1862 was in April and in 1863 it was in August. In 1864, Lincoln put it on the spot Thursday in November, the spot it still occupies. (And to think what a fuss we made when someone tried to change that day, just look at all the times it has been changed.)

Johnson changed the date, but Grant, in 1870, renewed it and it has been the same every year since, except in 1939, the year of the slogan, "Do your Christmas shopping early, tomorrow may be Christmas."

In case you don't remember, Roosevelt moved it up a week for economic reasons. Public pressure brought it back to its traditional, they thought, position.

Besides the 96 regular Thanksgivings in America's history, there have been six special ones for victory in war and other reasons.

Pool Extension In Scurry County Is Completed

S. B. Roberts, et al No. 1 Burt H. Lewis, a two mile northeast extension to southwestern Scurry's diamond M pool, has been completed. It was rated at 610.32 barrels per day on the basis of flowing 152.43 barrels in six hours. Gas oil ratio was 800-1 and flowing pressure was 250 pounds. Gravity of oil was 42.1.

The pay was coming from open hole from 5,841-5,861 feet, treated first with 1,000 gallons and then with 2,000 gallons of acid. Location is 2 1/4 miles west of the Kelly pool and is 467 feet from the southwest corner of the southeast quarter of section 246-87.

Cities Service has staked two locations near its two mile north extension for the Diamond M pool. R. Y. Oil No. 1 J. H. Taylor, a north stepout to the Sharon Ridge pool in southwestern Scurry, was pulling 7-inch casing from 2,425 feet to deepen. It will be carried from 3,216 feet in lower Permian to 7,000 feet to test the Canyon said to have a working interest zone. Rou Harris of Dallas was in the 640-acre lease. Location of the venture is 2,310 feet from the south and east lines of section 133-87.

In eastern Howard county, Southern Minerals & Forest No. 1 R. V. Guthrie, two miles northwest of Coahoma, progressed to 5,142 feet in lime. It is in the C SE SW section 26-31-1n, T&P.

James Roosevelt Seeks California Governorship

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 16 (AP)—James Roosevelt is a candidate for the nomination for governor of California.

The eldest son of the late President, in a blast at the present "nonpartisan" administration of Gov. Earl Warren, however, announced last night that he will seek both the Democratic and Republican nominations in the primaries next June.

Gov. Warren, who has not yet announced whether he will seek reelection next year, was chosen for a second term in 1946 by winning both the Republican and Democratic nominations in the primaries.

Civil Rights Bills To Get Priority

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16 (AP)—President Truman's civil rights proposals were pushed to the forefront of administration "must" measures today behind his fighting slogan of "no retreat and no retirement."

The President served notice last night in his second civil rights speech in five days—that he is enlisted in a finish fight against "racial and religious discrimination."

With southern Democrats up in arms against his call for anti-lynching, anti-poll tax and other anti-discrimination measures which cost him four Dixie states in last November's presidential election, Mr. Truman threw out this blunt challenge: "We are going to continue to advance in our program of bringing equal rights and equal opportunities to all citizens. In that great cause there is no retreat and no retirement."

Mr. Truman spoke at the fourteenth annual meeting of the National Council of Negro Women and lavished praise on the record of Mrs. Mary McLeod Bethune, 74-year-old Negro educator and retiring president of that organization.

The President renewed his civil rights campaign Friday at a luncheon of the national conference of Christians and Jews. The Negro vote is expected to play an important part in next year's 1950 congressional elections. Mr. Truman plans to stump the country to aid the candidates of those he calls "liberals."

Paving Contract In Borden County Is Let Tuesday

Contract for construction of 2.48 miles of new pavement in southern Borden county has been let to Ernest Lloyd of Fort Worth. The state highway commission announced Tuesday that Lloyd's bid of $49,947 has been accepted.

Plans call for grading, structures, flexible base, and single asphalt penetration pavement on the stretch beginning 10 miles south of Gall and extending southward beyond the bridge over the Colorado River.

Tuesday County Judge J. E. Brown said that the commissioners court had received notice of approval from the state highway department on construction of two miles and a fraction additional miles and a fraction additional miles and the Snyder highway. This would put the Gall road pavement to the county line. Only a five-mile gap in southern Borden would remain to be topped before Howard and Borden county seats were connected by all weather road.

The notice from the highway department also approved a two-mile connecting link between the Coahoma-Vincent road pavement and the Snyder highway.

New Trappist Monastery Is Opened Today

MONCK'S CORNER, S. C., Nov. 16 (AP)—The abbey of the immaculate Heart of Mary, the nation's newest trappist monastery was an actuality today as 28 monks finished their first 18-hour day here in prayer and work.

Their monastery until recently was a low country plantation, an oak-fringed retreat overlooking the quiet waters of the Cooper River near here. It was conveyed to the trappists a few weeks ago by Henry R. Luce, publisher of Time, Life and Fortune Magazines.

Work already has started on a new chapel, which will be in complete conformity with the architectural design of the nearby buildings.

The monks arrived by bus yesterday from the "Mother House" at Gethsemane, Ky., and yesterday was their first full day at Monk's, but there was little deviation from their normal routine. They were up at 2 o'clock this morning and worked and prayed until 8 o'clock last night.

Arranging a temporary chapel got first priority on their labors and by 10 o'clock in the morning everything was in readiness for their first hour-long morning service. Eating arrangements came second, but the modest noon meal of soup and vegetables was on time.

From the expressions of the trappist priests and lay brothers it appeared they were more than pleased to sit down for a meal in a sunlit room. To avail themselves of one of the low country's most restful and beautiful sights, they have only to turn their heads and glance through the big picture window in their dining room.

"If this place doesn't lift a man to God, then he's hopeless, because nothing will," said the superior, Father Anthony.

HOTEL MANAGER HELD Fast Police Work Saves Abducted Tot

DETROIT, Nov. 16 (AP)—Police raced their cars up and down the streets of east side Detroit last night and rescued 3-year-old Karen Kuechenmeister from an abductor.

An hour later a suspect was arrested.

Only "the grace of God and efficient police work" saved seven-year-old Karen, said Chief Asst. Prosecutor Ralph Garber. The girl was unharmed.

Garber said sex was the motive of the intruder who snatched the blonde, blue-eyed child from the living room of her home on fashionable Alter Road.

Police arrested William B. Mabrey, 35, manager of a small hotel and father of a three-month-old daughter.

He was seized after he had reported his car was stolen.

Garber said Mabrey would be charged "at least with kidnapping." The assistant prosecutor at that time had not yet taken a statement from Mabrey.

However, Police Lt. Tom Pickering of the special investigation squad said Mabrey admitted taking Karen from her home when "forced" to do so by "two men with guns."

Karen, daughter of Karl M. Kuechenmeister, a hardware salesman, was snatched from playmates at her home about 7 p.m.

The abductor, with Karen in his arms, fled to his parked car as Kuechenmeister gave vain pursuit. Given an almost instantaneous alarm, police in 18 scout cars picked up the chase. At speeds of 80

Murder Charges To Be Filed In Wife-Poisoning

HAMILTON, Nov. 16 (AP)—Dist. Atty. L. Brann said he would file charges of murder today against a 63-year-old Hico carpenter who signed a statement admitting he poisoned his wife.

He named the man as J. M. Horsley, who had been working recently on a project in Odessa. The wife, Lela Horsley, about 45, died Monday afternoon in a Hico hospital. She had fallen suddenly ill last Wednesday.

Sheriff N. Y. Terral said Horsley was arrested about 3 o'clock yesterday morning after a Hico physician had made an autopsy. The sheriff said the doctor gave the cause of death as bichloride of mercury poisoning.

Brann said the carpenter told him in a signed statement he poisoned his wife's coffee Wednesday morning with medicine given him for external treatment of a hand injury.

Horsley said he had quarreled with his wife. It was his second wife and the wrinkled, elderly carpenter said she "hated" his children by a previous marriage.

In his statement he said he was in an insane asylum from June until October of 1934 and returned a few months later, staying until he was released in August, 1935.
