Davis, McLennan county tax collector. This action upheld the decision of the Third Court of Civil Appeals which declared the law constitutional.

RECORD MADE IN AIR MESSAGES FROM A PLANE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—What is believed to have been a record for the transmission of wireless messages from an airplane in flight to a land station was reported today by the army air service. During the maneuvers of the Thirty-seventh Infantry at Fort McIntosh signals sent from a plane were recorded at Del Rio, Texas, 175 miles distant. An altitude of 300 feet was maintained during the test and the messages were received without a break, although the operator stated that they became faint at times.

Still Is Seized Near Waco; 1 Man Is Under Arrest

WACO, Jan. 28.—The sheriff's department and the local police arrested a whiskey still in Bosque Cedars here last night and seized a wagon load of paraphernalia. One man was arrested but his companion escaped.

RESIGNATION CHIEF PARRISH IS SUGGESTED

Chief of Police Byron B. Parrish appeared before a full meeting of the board of commissioners in the city offices Tuesday afternoon and was called on to explain open gambling in Ranger. "Gambling houses are running again and for the past week have been running without restriction of any kind. The houses are open, in spite of assertions made when they were closed recently and without any apparent effort on the part of the chief of police to stop them," said Mayor M. H. Hagaman. "If the chief, the city manager, or police commissioner can give any answer, we'd like to know. "If anyone doubts the conditions, we have the testimony. The proof is at hand."

In responding, Chief Parrish admitted that gambling houses had opened last week and said that he had knowledge of one open Thursday and learned of two Saturday. He said that he had closed them Sunday night. He said that he had lacked co-operation from the commissioners, and that the open cabaret had complicated his problem. "Close the cabarets and I'll close gambling," he offered.

His explanation failed to satisfy Commissioners M. R. Newham and T. F. Deffebach, who directed a few questions in regard to the chief's knowledge of the open houses. "I suggest that you resign," said Mr. Newham. "It's come to a condition where you will either have to quit or we will. The decent citizens say that can't stay in the town."

Chief Parrish responded that he was right, that he was able to close the gambling houses and that in thirty days he would prove it to the commissioners. The suggested resignation was put in the form of a motion, but before action was taken, Chief Parrish was excused and the matter was discussed by Mayor M. H. Hagaman and Commissioners R. M. Davenport, A. Davenport, Newham and Deffebach. They agreed that the explanation of open gambling, running as one commissioner described it, "as it did in Mexico," was not satisfactory, but the advisability of leaving the police department without a head also was considered. "It is getting so rotten, so vile, so stinking in Ranger that I would be ashamed to have a friend visit the city and know that I was one of the commissioners," said another of the body. Further discussion of the question was postponed at 7 p. m. until this afternoon.

The trial of the five Socialist members of the New York state assembly has brought much legal talent to Albany. The Socialists have employed five prominent attorneys to plead their case, three of whom—Seymour Stedman, Morris Hillquit and Gilbert Roe—are shown in the above layout. Charles Evans Hughes, former governor and supreme court justice, headed a committee of five appointed by the New York Bar association which offered legal services in connection with the hearing against the five suspended Socialist assemblymen. And then

Mr. Hughes, Louis Marshall and Joseph M. Proskauer, with two other committee members, left the chamber. Chairman Louis M. Martin of the assembly judiciary committee refused to allow them to submit a brief in the case, arguing that to do so would set a precedent allowing innumerable organizations to take part in the hearing.

PIPE UNLOADED FOR EXTENSION OF GAS SUPPLY

Three car loads of pipe have been received by the Sammons Oil corporation and are being unloaded today, according to J. B. Owens, superintendent of the gas department. The pipe, with seven other cars, now in transit, will be used to tie in the supply from the Cue gassers, four miles west, to the Ranger supply. These wells are reported making 45,000,000 and 40,000,000 cubic feet of gas. The connection cannot be made short of six weeks of working weather, according to Mr. Owens. Present gas supply in cold weather runs only a million feet, to the city's need of 1,750,000 feet.

Mrs. Susan M. Dorsey. After canvassing the entire country for a successor to Dr. Albert Shiels, superintendent of the city schools, the Los Angeles board of education selected a woman for the office, which carries a salary of $8,000 per annum. The choice fell to Mrs. Susan M. Dorsey, formerly acting principal of the Los Angeles high school. Mrs. Dorsey is the first woman to be in charge of the schools of Los Angeles, which city is credited with spending more per capita for public education than any other city in the country.

ITALY'S OFFER TURNED DOWN BY JUGO-SLAVS

PARIS, Jan. 28.—The Jugo-Slav reply to the allied ultimatum regarding the Adriatic question, received here today, amounts to a virtual refusal of the compromise offered by the Italians. The reply, it is believed, suggests a new basis of compromise along the lines of President Wilson's proposal.

Caught in Belt at Planing Mill, Gets Leg Broken

B. H. Williams, who with Mr. Moore, of Moore & Co., contractors, owns a planing mill just back of the Burton-Lingo lumber yard, suffered a badly fractured leg in an accident at noon yesterday. Mr. Williams was shifting a running belt from one wheel to another with his foot, as he had been in the habit of doing. The belt caught in his overshoe and jerked his leg into the axle which supported the wheels on which the belt ran, breaking his leg at the ankle and again just below the knee.

LABOR SHORTAGE FEARED NOW BY FRENCH FARMERS

PARIS, Jan. 28.—Repatriation of German prisoners may bring about a critical situation in the labor market in some parts of France, according to an Amiens dispatch. Work of restoration in the devastated districts will be retarded, it is said, and farmers who have been employing large numbers of Germans fear that they will be unable to sow a large acreage this spring.

ALBANY, Jan. 28.—Denial that socialists had pledged their support to Ludvig Martens, Russian soviet ambassador to the United States, or had endorsed his plans for the establishment in America of a soviet system of government, was made today by the counsel of the defense at the trial before the assembly judiciary committee of the five suspended socialist assemblymen, charged with disloyalty.

"Too Many Wives" Pleases Audience Last Night.

Here is a company which has been very successful this season wherever they have been and among their many tabloids which have helped them to success is "Too Many Wives."

For sheer absurdity of situation and intriguing acting on the part of Roy Hughes, sparkling wit and humor, "Too Many Wives" has anything previously backed off the map.

This hilarious one-act comedy farce with its intrinsic punch and humor is not without merit on the part of the rest of the cast. At times, however, the company was overtaken with their funny situations, much to the amusement of the audience.

Roy Hughes, taking the part of a Mr. Brown, had secretly married against the wishes of the "old man" whose part is taken by Tomey Speck, girl friend of the newlyweds makes them a visit, followed by another friend of the family (Walter Deering). This at once leads to complications which really develop fully on the arrival of Mr. Brown's old man soon after.

The most amusing part of the plot arises when our friend Brown puts all his married troubles, including his wife and the visiting young lady on the shoulders of his friend who makes a mess of things in general. The old man orders his son to leave the place. Whereupon the propaganda shimmers with mirth, the drama kicks the chandler and the audience wallows deeply in its own jizzboes.

One might hesitate to say just what kind of a light-face comedian Roy Hughes is because for the most part he makes it so hot and airy that the crowd bears not the house with their laughter. Tomey Speck makes an excellent hard-boiled old man, but it is advisable not to take him too seriously off the stage. Miss Recca Hughes, soubrette, has a teasing way about her that helps her singing numbers wonderfully, while Maude Miller, who is singing "Blues" "Blues to 'Mad'" in a long and incidentally almost stopped the show several times.

The bill tonight is "Checkers," taken from the famous play by the same name. Mr. Wehle says that it is the best bill they have.

OPERAHOUSE.

Now They Have the Mountain Fever. Members of the Universal company who filmed "The Brute Breaker," now showing at the Operahouse, are considering wearing feathers in their hats and yodeling around as if they were Alpine guides of long service. They just ate up mountain stuff when the company had to climb Mount Shasta for several scenes for the picture.

Lynn F. Reynolds, who directed the production, used to live in Denver and is used to mountains. Frank Mayo, starring in the photoplay, has spent most of his stage life in London and can navigate fog better than mountain clouds.

Kathryn Adams, playing the leading feminine role, used to be a musical comedy star and said she never knew that mountains are as steep as they are painted.

While the members of the company labored toward the clouds on a rope chain, the heavy camera equipment was hauled up on the backs of burros or "mountain canaries."

LONE STAR.

"Fair and Warmer," on Screen Coming, May Allison's First Screen Classics Version of Farce.

Coming today to the Lone Star theatre is May Allison in one of her new Screen Classics, Inc. specials, "Fair and Warmer," the Selwyn and Co. success, by Avoy Howwood. The picture is an adaptation of one of the most successful farces ever presented on the American stage. Its run in New York for two years, and elsewhere for fully as long, and its extended vogue in London pronounce it that.

The advent of Miss Allison, easily one of the most captivating of motion picture comedienne, in a new picture is even more than a celebrated picture as "Fair and Warmer" those who follow the screen here will be given an exceptional treat.

The story concerns the tribulations of two young married couples. In one case the young wife complains that her husband, Billy, is so perfect that he is dull; and in the other case the young husband, though he adores his wife, employs just the tactics Billy should take advantage of—he goes out of his way to keep his wife guessing. And when circumstances cast together Billy and the apparently neglected Blannv, the result is one of the most absurdly funny series of situations ever contrived, even by Mr. Howwood, who is admittedly the premier farce writer today in America.

The screen production has been done elaborately and in some ways the original play has been given additional punch through employment of means at the command of the screen producer but impossible on the stage. The entire production was done under the personal supervision of Maxwell Karger, director general of Screen Classics, and the exceptionally able cast selected by him. Thus such well known artists as Paul Trenton, Eugene Palette, Christine Mayo, William Bucklew and Effie Conlev, Henry Otto directed the production which was adapted from the stage success by June Mathis and A. P. Younger.

Dignity of Court Upset by a Rat

EL PASO, Jan. 28.—The dignity of Judge N. D. Howe, in the thirty-fourth district court, was upset and a trial temporarily halted recently by a rat. The rodent was captured after a mad scramble, adjudged guilty of contempt of court and punishment fixed at death. Execution followed immediately.

The defendants were on trial, being charged with conspiracy to swindle. Attorney for the defense was about to exhibit to the jury two boxes of merchandise involved in the case.

"If your honor please," said the lawyer, "we would like to introduce as evidence in this case the contents."

Here counsel opened one of the boxes and a large rat jumped out. Recce was automatically in effect.

Judge Howe descended from the bench, his gavel making a suitable weapon for the attack. Attorneys on both sides, the defendants, court reporter, attendants and spectators joined the court in pursuit of the unsubdued visitor. Only the jurymen retained their seats, and they lost their composure.

After a five-minute heated chase under benches and around desks, Mr. Rodent was cornered. The court was asked for instructions, the death sentence carried out, the trial of the swindle case proceeded.

Stamford Census About Completed

Special to The Times. STAMFORD, Texas, Jan. 28.—The census enumeration for the city of Stamford is about completed, with the exception of a number of Mexican resident families, according to L. H. Terry, census enumerator for Stamford. Mr. Terry has not enumerated the Mexican residents because of the fact that an interpreter is necessary and he has not been able to secure one for several days.

When the official figures are released, a good showing will be made. All residents of Stamford have been glad to co-operate with the enumerator to see that no one is missed.

The Chamber of Commerce is endeavoring to engage enumerators for four precincts of Jones county. One of these positions is apparently filled and no effort will be spared to secure the other three.

THREE YOUNG MEN TAR AND FEATHER TOWN BELLE

International News Service.

LONDON, Jan. 28.—The strange case of three young men, mounted by jealousy, who masked and veiled themselves as women so as to better be able to tar and feather Miss Lizzie Moran, nineteen and pretty, was revealed at the Ulster Assizes court, Belfast.

Evidence showed that Miss Moran was walking with Michael Enry one evening when the attackers appeared. Enry fled. The girl was gagged and tar and feathers poured over her clothing.

James Brennan and John Cronome were each sentenced to three months' hard labor, but the third man was released.

Texans Control Burk-Divide Oil Holdings Now

Special to The Times.

WICHITA FALLS, Jan. 28.—Within half an hour after the state of Texas assumed control of the Burk-Divide Oil Company's holdings in the Red River district, the ownership of which has been under dispute for months past, three oil derricks were being erected under the direction of Frank Brown, a Texas claimant for a portion of the disputed territory.

A deputy sheriff, armed with a writ of injunction from a Texas court and accompanied by Adjutant General Jope and five Texas Rangers, proceeded to the properties of the Burk-Divide Oil Company in the Red River district where the court injunction preventing further operations by the Burk-Divide company in the disputed territory was served. The injunction also prevented further interference by the Oklahoma authorities with the Texas claimants operating in the district.

Neither the officers of the Burk-Divide nor the members of the Oklahoma constabulary under command of Deputy Sheriff Lee Carter of Tillman county protested against the action of the Texas court. According to Adjutant General Jope, the Oklahoma authorities signified their intention of making no further effort to gain possession of the land, other than through the courts. Receiver Marsh, appointed by the Oklahoma court for the disputed territory, declared that there would be no armed opposition to Texas' possession of the territory until the courts decide the rightful ownership.

Signs reading "This is Oklahoma property; keep off," which had spotted the district since the arrival of the Oklahoma constabulary a week ago, were removed by the Rangers and in their stead were placed the signs reading "This is Texas territory; keep off."

According to information received here, Deputy Sheriff Carter, who has been at the scene for the past week, said upon being served with the injunction: "We will retire. This ceases to be a dispute between two counties, and the county of Tillman will not oppose the claims of the State of Texas at this time."

BOLSHEVISM IS NOTHING LESS THAN MURDER

By Associated Press

DALLAS, Jan. 28.—Bolshevism as practiced in Russia today is not a political movement, but is a tyranny of blood and murder worse than anything recorded in history, according to Major George W. Simmons of St. Louis, in an address here before the Texas Hardware Dealers' association. He spent several months in Siberia in charge of the work there of the American Red Cross.

"Unless America is thoroughly awakened to the perils of bolshevism and to the part Germany is still playing in an effort to wrest victory from defeat by grasping the trade of the world through industrial disturbances, Major Simmons said this country may soon be torn by conditions similar to those in Russia.

"Many good Americans in this country today are not alive to the connection between the agitation in America and the bolshevist movement in Russia, just as I was unaware of the true conditions until I returned from that country," Major Simmons continued. "The declarations I heard on every hand of what the bolshevik intended to do in this country I dismissed lightly. But when I returned and saw these very things being carried on in this country, I asked myself how long the American people would permit such conditions to continue.

"I am convinced that once the American people are thoroughly awake to the real significance of the fact that Germany has not changed and that she will use every means within her power to turn defeat into victory through economic disturbances and agitation—not forgetting that Germany sent Lenin into Russia to bring about conditions that exist today—it will mean the death knell to bolshevism in this country. Many have dismissed the matter with a shrug and the expressed belief that 'America can never go wrong.' I believe that, too, but America must be awake or she may go wrong."

Much anti-American propaganda is constantly spread abroad in Siberia, Major Simmons declared, "paid for and fostered by those who are interested in keeping the pot boiling in that country." The remedy for agitation in this country, he said, is Americanism.

"The one thing to do," he added, "is to think Americanism, practice Americanism and talk Americanism at every place and all the time. Whether it is the brakeman on the train or a fellow passenger, try to impress upon him how important it is that we all not only think Americanism, but that we talk it, that we act it and, most of all, let it be known in no uncertain way that no man can represent his community in legislative bodies—whether municipal, state or national—unless he is absolutely 100 per cent American in thought, word and deed; and stands for all the American people, rich and poor, employer and employe."

Famous Players-Lasky Corporation. This is an unusually strong story filled with love, intrigue, smugglers, bull fighters and other elements that tend to make it one of extreme interest to the average motion picture theatre-goer.

EAST SIDE

Few if any stage production in the annals of theatrical history have become better known to the American public than has this great melodrama, which made its appearance in 1880. In presenting "The Still Alarm" as a photoplay, all of the picturesque charm and romance of the original story has been carefully adhered to and the thrilling fire scenes have been depicted in a manner which was utterly impossible on the stage of the articulate drama.

Get Talks of "Experience" Former Impresario of Russian Ballet in Town for New Play Here.

Morris Gest, one of the youngest producing managers in America and a member of the theatrical firm of F. Ray Comstock and Morris Gest, producers of "Experience," arrived here yesterday in connection with the forthcoming production of its play at the Liberty theatre tomorrow.

Mr. Gest is a Russian and among his achievements was his importation several years ago of an Imperial Russian Ballet which toured this country with such amazing success. Several seasons ago, Mr. Gest struck it rich when he and his associates produced "Experience," which was one of the most phenomenal hits of many years and is now in its sixth season. Mr. Gest came to this city in order to make sure that everything was all right for the local performance.

"I firmly believe that 'Experience' could be played in a tent and draw just as big crowds," said Mr. Gest yesterday. "I have managed many unusual attractions, but 'Experience' surprises even me. I have never known of a theatrical piece of property which has the drawing power of this play. It seems as though every one in creation wants to see it. The only play within my memory which had a similar appeal was 'The Wanderer,' our production, yet that was a religious play, and 'Experience' is not. There is some undercurrent of sympathetic interest which attracts interest and people rush to see 'Experience.' One reason is that ministers and clergymen have endorsed it so enthusiastically. This draws the religious element and brings the appeal home to all who keep in close touch with the church. Then there is the great mass of theatregoers who know that the play depicts the shady side of life in portraying the temptations confronting Youth, and these people doubtless go to look at the temptations so that they will be warned how to avoid them. Lastly are the curiosity-seekers—the people to whom the play is just a little bit gay because of the presence of Intoxication and Passion in the cast, and to whom the cocaine scene in the last act is a bit of realism. The great strength of the play as an element of good is lost upon the curiosity seekers, but they turn out in great numbers to see the play."

OPEN GAMBLING

Indications of the sort of city the majority of reputable citizens want Ranger to be were given at the investigation of open gambling started at the meeting of the board of commissioners Tuesday. Regardless of the steps necessary to make the city habitable for their wives and children, to put it on a par with other cities of its size in Texas, they are determined that those steps shall be taken. They are sick of the regime that has made Ranger "notorious," in the mayor's words, as a town of which any man would think twice before bringing his family.

Commissioners Newham and Deffenbach voiced the shame they feel as representatives of the city administration in their investigation of the conditions obtaining.

It has come to be so widely known and flagrant, in the matter of open gambling and other abuses, that the city commissioners are accused of accepting graft money," said Commissioner Deffenbach. "Temporary measures will not suffice to answer these accusations, spoken and implied.

"It won't do to close gambling for a day, a few days, as has been done, and then throw it wide open again, and in the same places."

"Ranger is so rotten, so vile, so stinking that we should be ashamed to be in the position of representing it," stated Commissioner Newham.

A. Davenport, police commissioner, without making any defense for Chief of Police Parrish, agreed that the cabarets, against which the chief protested, were bad and that they should be closed. In this, he had the approval of Commissioner R. M. Davenport.

Commissioners Newham and Deffenbach, although of one mind on the cabarets, held that the question under consideration was gambling and didn't propose that the issue be sidetracked.

In connection with the investigation, this comment from a West Texas paper is interesting: "Ranger is a young town, but its business men display that spirit of enthusiasm and co-operation which builds big cities."

Interesting also is the fact that the commissioners leading the fight for a cleaner city were members of the delegation from which the West Texas editor got his impression of the spirit of Ranger.

LABOR AND RADICALISM.

(From the Missouri Mule, Organ of Kansas City, Mo., Labor.)

While fair minded employers recognize the fact that fair wages must be paid, they will no longer stand for unreasonable demands. They will no longer stand for violation of contracts entered into in good faith by employer and employe, and they will not stand for unreasonable agitation.

The great progress which labor has made under the direction of the leaders in the American Federation of Labor is in danger, owing to the action of unscrupulous, radical agitators. These radicals have talked much about a coming revolution. The "revolution" is here, but it is the employer, conservative unorganized labor represented by the American Federation of Labor, and the public who have revolted.

The radical element has been allowed to go too far, but it is not too late to save that which is just and fair. Throw the red, radical element out of your union, and the same applies to the red radical and un-American element in the employers' association.

Radical and un-American impostors, both amongst the employers and the workers, must be thrown out. Clean houses on both sides and keep them clean. If you get rid of the radical agitators and their followers in your union, and the conservative element among the employing class in industry, we will rapidly secure a lasting industrial peace.

If such steps are not taken, industry knows a way out. It is determined. It is ready to shut down. It is through dealing with radicals on both sides, which shows bolshevism on one side and czarism on the other.

Industry is not only ready and willing to shut down, but is prepared to remain shut down for three months, six months or longer. This is not good news, but it is nevertheless true, and the selfish radical, always a big talker but a bad manager, who cares not for you or your family, is to blame.

Gone are the days when a man could sleep on the job. Gone are the days when a man could waste his employer's time agitating or listening to agitators. Those days the red radical, by his insane demands and constant agitation has killed.

An honest day's work for honest wages, and honest wages for an honest day's work, is the just and fair solution toward industrial peace.

"RUM-HOUND SPECIAL" LATEST TO JUAREZ

By Associated Press

EL PASO, Jan. 28.—A trip on the "Rum-hound Special" is diverging if not adventurous in these days of "drought" in the United States.

It is the last Juarez-El Paso street car on which one-day pass visitors to the Mexican "oasis" opposite this city may return to the American side. It is scheduled to arrive at the international bridge at 8:45 o'clock each night. Visitors to Juarez who do not hold night passes and miss the car are compelled to spend the night in the Mexican city and, on the following day, find themselves in difficulties explaining the "why's and wherefore's" to both American and Mexican immigration officials.

On the "Rum-hound Special" it is to be found every class and degree of "jag" from the loud talker to the imbibor of the "cup that cheers" who starts the trip by trying to pick a quarrel with a neighbor passenger, only to offer a tearful apology, and, finally, to drop asleep with his head on his neighbor's shoulder.

The car is in the custody of A. C.

Letcher—the conductor who always smiles. His job is to take care of irresponsible among his passengers, and to see that no harm befalls them. Immigration officials say the manner in which he lands his charges safely on the Texas side is little short of miraculous.

Conductor Letcher believes his duties can best be accomplished by "kidding" his boisterous passengers, and it is said he has never found it necessary to resort to strong-arm methods.

He does not lack the size, strength or courage. By smiling and never permitting his own feelings to become ruffled, the conductor usually keeps his "over-burdened" charges in good humor, prevents fights and, above all, sees that they do not become involved with the Mexican bridge officials.

BARNES POST AMERICAN LEGION MEETS THURSDAY AT TABERNACLE

Thursday night the Barnes post of the American Legion No. 69 will meet in the Baptist tabernacle to elect permanent officers. The post has been completely organized and chartered and has a nucleus in which promises great things for the local organization. Up to date fifty-four members have renewed their memberships and 187 ex-service men have paid up their memberships for 1919.

The Barnes post of the American Legion, No. 69, was first organized in Ranger last July, 1919. Forty-eight were enrolled at the first meeting. Temporary officers which were elected at this meeting are: George Hemmington, post commander; L. S. Black, adjutant; R. H. Hansford, financial officer, and William Skinner, vice commander. These temporary officers have served the local post faithfully and have done their utmost to build up the Ranger post. At present the post has $1,000 in its treasury.

Barnes Post has one woman member, Miss Bowen, who was a Red Cross nurse in the United States Nursing Corps. At present she is employed by the Sinclair Oil company.

The local organization has been handicapped by poor and inadequate quarters. The Salvation Army is trying to arrange to erect a new hall which they will jointly occupy with the American Legion.

Mr. Hansford makes this earnest request: "Let's make the Barnes post second to none in the state, and let's do it now. We can do it with 5,000 ex-service men to draw from. Twenty-five hundred is a small number for our membership to reach by the date of the next national convention. Let's make the Barnes post the biggest thing in Texas."

Any ex-service men desiring membership are requested to apply to R. H. Hansford at Brown's shoe hospital, 214 Pine street.

The state department has authorized the organization of a unit of the woman's auxiliary of the American Legion. Application to be executed by the Auxiliary has been received by R. H. Hansford in a letter from Charles W. Scruggs, state adjutant. Mrs. R. H. Hansford is acting temporary post commander and will receive all applications for membership.

The membership in this auxiliary will be limited to the mothers, wives, daughters and sisters of the members of the American Legion, and to mothers, wives, daughters and sisters of all men who were in the military or naval service of the United States.

West Texas News

STAMFORD, Jan. 28.—Rejuvenation of the poultry industry in West Texas is assured through the co-operative campaign of the state department of Agriculture and the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. Poultry clubs are now being organized in every part of the west. Special prizes are being offered by the commercial organization. In view of the stimulation of poultry interest word has been received by the publicity department of the organization that an unusually large number of poultry shows will be held in West Texas this summer and fall, many of them out-viewing anything hitherto attempted. In order that the various poultry shows may not conflict in dates, the West Texas Chamber of Commerce requests that all towns contemplating such affairs communicate with the Stamford headquarters in order that the dates for these occasions may be successive rather than duplicative.

Tell them you saw their ad in the Daily Times—it will help them as well as your newspaper.

Enormous resources and scrupulous care have produced in Goodyear Tires for small cars a high relative value not exceeded even in the famous Goodyear Cords on the world's highest-priced automobiles.

In addition to its larger sizes, Goodyear manufactures an average of 20,000 small car tires a day in the world's largest tire factory devoted solely to the 30x3, 30x3 1/2, and 31x4-inch sizes.

Last year more small cars using these sizes were factory-equipped with Goodyear Tires than with any other kind.

Their extreme worth is available for your Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell, or other small car, at the nearest Goodyear Service Station. Go there for these tires and Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes.

New York Minister Rewrites Decalogue So Commandments Comply With Custom

International News Service.
NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—Gold-pursuing New Yorkers have departed so far from the commandments promulgated by the Scriptures that a new decalogue is necessary for them, in the opinion of Rev. John R. Stratton, of the Colvay Baptist church. Dr. Stratton suggests the erection of an "Altar of Mammon" at Broad and Wall streets and offers the following "ten commandments" for the children of New York:

"1—Thou shalt have no other gods before me, for I have brought them out from the Egypt of poverty and want. I am a jealous god and I demand the first and best of your devotion and effort.

"2—Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image of any, ether god, but my image only shalt thou put upon all thy coins and stamp upon thy heart.

"3—Thou shalt take the name of all other gods in vain, but my name shalt thou hallow, for I will not hold him guiltless that taketh my name in vain.

"4—Remember the Sabbath Day as another chance to increase thy dividends or to rest and refresh thyself with worldly pleasures, that thou mayest the better serve me the other six days of the week.

"5—Dishonor thy father and thy mother, by disobeying their moral precepts, and follow me, for thy days will be short in the land which I give thee; therefore, eat, drink and be merry, for tomorrow you die.

"6—Thou shalt not kill, nor direct or common war, because thereby thou wouldst be cast into prison and could not worship and serve me, but with war and machines of commercial greed thou shalt slay to thy heart's content.

"7—Thou mayest commit adultery if thou art not found out, but thou shalt glid thy vices and practise them in secret, through the scientific devices that I will furnish and money I will give thee, and I will see that no harm befalls thee or thine house.

"8—Thou shalt not steal directly, but by rebates, profiteering and high financing thou shalt help thyself to the spoils of the poor.

"9—Thou mayest bear false witness against thy neighbor, when thereby thy dividends are increased and that thy worship to me is rendered more bountiful.

"10—Thou shalt covet all thy neighbor's hat, his house, his wife, his best business manager, his ox, his ass, his railroads, his stocks and bonds, his sugar and his coal—yea, all that he hath; thou shalt strive in season and out of season to drive him out of business and to kill him with competition and take unto thyself all that is thy neighbor's."

Practically All Cash Is Removed From State Treas.

By Associated Press.
AUSTIN, Jan. 28.—The new depository law has removed practically all the cash from the state treasury, the vaults of which in other days held as high as $5,000,000 in currency and specie at one time; but the doors of the treasury are still carefully locked and a watchman still sleeps inside the steel cage, for practically $30,000,000 worth of bonds remain to be guarded. Most of the bonds are registered in such a manner that only the state can realize upon them.

Insurance companies have deposited with the state treasurer $3,582,851 worth of bonds as a guaranty fund for their policies. About 90 per cent of these are Liberty bonds.

The permanent school fund has an assortment of United States state county, district and municipal bonds worth $24,793,471 in the state treasury.

Foreign corporations have deposited $1,422,000 worth of Liberty bonds as securities required under the law.

The guaranty fund of state banks has reached the total of $466,658.

"SPOOK" WITH AN APPETITE PUZZLES PROVIDENCE POLICE

International News Service.
PROVIDENCE, R. I., Jan. 28.—The police are trying to solve what is known as "the Pond street mystery." Twice daily, at 9 a. m. and at noon, a voice in the cellar of a dwelling house on that street cries: "Take me out of here; give me something to eat; I'm starving." This cry is followed by moanings lasting several hours. The police have explored the cellar but have failed to discover the cause of the "manifestations." Curious people have been attracted to the place and at times there are thirty or forty people in line waiting to get near the cellar to hear the "spook with an appetite beg for food."

PRODUCTION OF NEW SOLVENT OF CHOLESTERIN CURTAILED—Druggist Demands Almost Deplete Reserve Stocks—Orgatone Five Grain Tablets Almost Off the Market—People Asked to Help

SUCH INSISTENT DEMANDS FOR THE NEW ORGATONE FIVE-GRAIN TABLETS ARE POURING INTO THE HARRY KESSINGER COMPANY, WHO ARE DISTRIBUTORS FOR THIS SPLENDID BILARY ANTISEPTIC, THAT IT IS VERY DOUBTFUL THAT THEY WILL BE ABLE TO FILL ALL ORDERS, UNLESS THEY FOLLOW A PROPOSED PLAN TO LIMIT THE SHIPMENTS IN SIZE. IN FACT, IT IS SERIOUSLY CONSIDERED THAT IN THE VERY NEAR FUTURE DRUGGISTS WILL BE REQUESTED NOT TO SELL ORGATONE TABLETS TO ANY ONE WHO HAS NOT AN IMMEDIATE USE FOR THEM.

Many people appreciating the coming shortage have been buying in advance of their actual needs, which now means that there are hundreds of persons who might be benefited but who are unable to buy the tablets because the druggists are practically sold out.

This is becoming a serious proposition. The people in danger of dysentery and diarrhoea are the ones who should be able to buy Orgatone five grain tablets. The manufacturers are doing their part, but unable to cope with the demand on account of the shortage of the high class materials that go into the tablets. Won't you do your share, and if you have a bottle of these tablets, and your neighbor who has symptoms of diarrhoea and cannot procure them from his or her druggist divide with them so they, too, may get the benefit of this wonderful intestinal and biliary antiseptic?

It is persons who are suffering from lowered vitality, who are weak and run-down and who have not strength enough to throw it off are the immediate victims. Persons who have improper digestion who are suffering from catarrhal troubles of the mucous membrane are specially susceptible.

If you are suffering from any of these symptoms, nothing on earth will clean the intestinal tract like Orgatone five grain tablets which are a true chologogue and a biliary disinfectant, because they directly stimulate the hepatic cells, producing an abundant flow of limpid bile. It is also important that every day rules of hygiene be observed; that is great care should be taken in diet and it is recognized as an extra precaution to "Boil your drinking water."

The following druggists still have a supply of these tablets on hand: Ranger Drug Company.

PROPERTY TAX PAYERS ACTIVE IN FINAL DAYS

Property tax owners are coming in with their payments in the few remaining days before the ten per cent delinquent penalty is added, according to reports of City Tax Collector Ringold, and of the total $115,000 which is due the city, over $90,000 has been paid.

This week is the last in which to pay the original tax assessment without the penalty, which goes into effect January 31. Although the showing of the department is good, it is hoped to make it better in the days remaining.

LONDON MOTHERS WOULD USE FLAT IRONS RATHER THAN GIVE UP BABIES

LONDON.—Mothers of the East End, London, would greet Hubert Barnett, of San Francisco, who wants to sell his unborn baby, with flat-irons. Such is the testimony they give to reporters who have been seeking opinions on the Californian's offer.

"If my husband wanted me to part with the dear little baby I'm expecting I would chase him out of the house with a flatiron," said a Haggerston woman, mother of nine.

"I would sooner part with my husband if he asked me to sell one of my babies," was the verdict of another.

"As for not being able to afford a third baby, that is all rubbish. More babies are being born, and thrive, too, in the slums than in other places where people are better off."

"The husband who would want to sell his baby is a sneak and a coward."

"Babies make up for a husband's deficiencies," said Mrs. Mary Thomas, of Mansfield street. "They do not drink beer and they do not swear, and they're always loyal to the woman they belong to."

"You can depend on a baby being true to you, although it seems there is a father who is not prepared to be true to his own child. I think I would know how to deal with him, and so would many other English mothers."

PAVING STARTS ON PORTION OF SOUTH AUSTIN

Concrete pouring was started on South Austin street this morning by the General Construction company. A half block on Austin, extending from Pine to the alley between Pine and Main, will be paved in a few days, if weather permits. The other half block will not be paved at present, owing to obstructions in the street.

Cutters are being laid on the block on Rusk, extending north from Main. Brick and other materials are on hand and the street is in readiness for paving.

On Rusk street south of Main water and gas mains have been reset and most of the grading work finished.

The completion of these two blocks and a half will finish the concrete of the General Construction company in this city.

The McKenzie Construction company, which took a contract several months ago to pave more than fifty blocks, has not placed a brick. The company has partially graded six or eight blocks and done a good deal of work on a cut at the corner of Marston and Walnut streets. Inability to secure material is given as the reason for the delay of the company in starting actual paving operations.

Transportation Is Big Problem of Ranger Fields

The problem of transportation in the oil fields has been the most difficult of the many problems confronting operators since the field opened. Everything from ox wagons to tractors has been employed in hauling supplies, with varying degrees of success.

Large companies are turning more and more to the caterpillar tractor as the surest and most economical method of transportation. Several large companies now use "tractor trains," operating out of Ranger toward Desdemona, Caddo, Breckenridge and other places.

The main advantage of the tractor is its ability to negotiate any kind of road. It is possible to determine within a few minutes of when a tractor will reach a certain place with its load of casing. It is a simple process of multiplying so many miles by a number of hours.

When good roads are built over the oil fields, the tractor will doubtless give place to the truck. In the meantime it is "carrying on."

Well, Here's to a Gay Night and Sweet Breath And Drink Hearty

In the police court today a sleepy-eyed and sadly bedraggled man was led before the court after a night's repose in the city jail. He was charged—in this dry age—with drunkenness. Upon being questioned as to what he had had to drink that would intoxicate him, he confessed that he did not know what it was. The sergeant testified that judging from the sickening aroma of Lilac de France which was on the man's breath when he put him to bed last night he had drunk hair tonic.

BLACK-DRAUGHT CLEANS THE LIVER

Enthusiastic Texan Tells of Bad Fix He Was In and How He Got Out by Using Black-Draught Liver Medicine.

Holland, Texas.—Mr. J. N. Messer, who lives a short distance from here out in the country, says: "Black-Draught is without doubt the best liver medicine made. I do not hesitate to say it will do all it is recommended to do and more.

I am strong and healthy, but we all need a little active medicine once in a while, and Black-Draught is good enough for me. It does the work well and cleans the liver, carrying away bile, the easiest of any purgative I have ever seen.

Once, some years ago, I had slow fever and my stomach was in a bad fix, and Black-Draught gave me relief and helped me a wonderful sight. It cured me of indigestion, and the bad feeling after eating. I keep it for my family, they use it and have for years, and too, it saves doctor bills and is not expensive.

A stitch in time saves nine, and most sickness is caused by a bad liver. A few doses of Black-Draught fixes that, and I don't see why people don't use it, and they would see as I have what a help it would be."

Ask your druggist for Theodor's Black-Draught.—Advertisement.
