Two U. S. Aviators Held by Mexicans

UNDER MILITARY GUARD, ARE BEING ESCORTED TO MONTEREY; IS SURPRISE

By The Associated Press.

LAREDO, Texas, Jan. 31.—Lieutenants E. S. Davis and G. E. Grimes, United States army aviators who made a forced landing near Guerrero, Mexico, Wednesday, because of an exhausted supply of gasoline, tonight are on their way to Monterey, Mexico, under military escort. They are due to reach Nuevo Laredo, opposite this city, about midnight tonight, and tomorrow morning will take the train for Monterey, where they are to be examined by Mexican military authorities "as to their reason for landing on Mexican soil."

Disruption of plans for the return of Grimes and Davis to American soil came suddenly late today in an order from Governor Gonzalez of the state of Nuevo Laredo ordering their removal from jurisdiction of civil authorities who had prepared to permit the aviators to return to the United States.

Randolph Robertson, American consul at Nuevo Laredo, who sent word of Gonzalez' action in a telephone message from Guerrero, said he was accompanying the flyers to Nuevo Laredo. The party is traveling by automobile on the Mexico side of the border under escort of a number of Carranza officers, he said. Consul Robertson, who went to Guerrero Thursday to aid the return of the aviators, gave no further details concerning Governor Gonzalez' order beyond the statement that Davis and Grimes were to be interrogated by General Francisco Murguia of the Carranza army.

ACTION IS A SURPRISE.

BROWNSVILLE, Texas, Jan. 31.—The fact that Major General Murguia, commander of Mexican military forces in the northern zone, has taken entirely out of the hands of General Zuazua, military commander in Tamaulipas, the situation relative to Lieutenants Davis and Grimes, and has ordered the two men taken to Monterey for military examination, proved a surprise to United States army officers here, coming when they thought the return of the two officers to American soil was all but actually accomplished. General Murguia, according to information here, was at Piedras Negras, opposite Eagle Pass, today and it was from there, it is assumed, that he ordered Davis and Grimes taken to Monterey. The only information received at Fort Brown today was from Major General Zuazua and Major Florenz, the latter of Matamoros, who went to Guerrero Friday morning, presumably to facilitate the departure of the two Americans. General Zuazua's message came at 3 o'clock this afternoon and was delivered to Captain W. D. Bradford, assistant district adjutant at Fort Brown. It was to the effect that all matters were satisfactory and that the return of the two men was imminent and indicated that Zuazua knew nothing of the order of Murguia.

PEACE NAVY OF U. S. ANNOUNCED AT WASHINGTON

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—Approximately 900 war ships, including sixteen dreadnaughts, thirteen pre-dreadnaughts, eight armored cruisers and seventeen light cruisers will be the peace time strength of the American navy after next July 1, the house naval committee was told today by Rear Admiral Taylor, chief of the bureau of construction and repairs. This will be three times the number in commission when the United States declared war on Germany, but the comparative tonnage will only be about one and one-half times as great.

MUST HAVE BIG NAVY.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—The United States must have a navy equal to that of any other power, and it may cost a billion dollars a year to maintain it, said Franklin D. Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the navy, at a meeting of the Brooklyn chamber of commerce today.

Many Sinn Fein Leaders Are Under Arrest at Dublin

By Associated Press.

DUBLIN, Jan. 31.—Many Sinn Fein leaders were arrested in a big roundup here early today. They were taken to an irregular detention station.

T-P CROSSING FOR BANKHEAD ROAD TALKED

Either an underpass at Barber street or an overhead crossing at the south end of the city, is entirely feasible, according to the judgment of Chief Engineer Mitchell of the Texas & Pacific railroad, Commissioner Burke of the land department and Mr. McIlhenn, discussing with City Engineer Barlow, as to the possible routing of the Bankhead highway through Ranger.

Possible costs, which probably will be divided three ways between the city, county and the railroad company, were considered, but not determined definitely. Representatives of the Chamber of Commerce good roads committee will be in session with Judge Starnes and Engineers Eccles and Ehrenberg of the county highway department, as to the routing of the road south from Ranger to Desdemona. The survey has not yet been completed, but impartial engineering opinion holds that the ridge route will be preferred and will be shown to be the logical route by the survey.

300 Russ Troops Revolt but Later Make Surrender

By Associated Press.

VLADIVOSTOCK, Jan. 31.—Three hundred Russian government troops revolted here Sunday, arresting their officers, and refused to take orders from the government authorities. It was not until Monday morning that the men were forced to surrender. No one was killed.

The Situation

The Times retract no statement it has made. The Times' stand on the question of open gambling, and the assertions of conditions as they have existed, will remain unchanged.

It has asked the questions that law-abiding citizens have been asking, that members of the commission have been asking and it offered the use of its columns for any fair reply.

The Times will enter into no personal controversy, characterized by attacks frowned upon by every decent resident and as damaging to the city as constructive criticism is helpful.

Open gambling has been stopped. The evils attendant upon it are mitigated. If the present condition is maintained, the improvement will increase.

In regard to the investigation of the police department by the city commission, the Times is willing, because it feels that the citizens of Ranger are willing, to await the mature decision of the mayor and city commissioners.

TURKEY GETS READY FOR A WAR REPORT

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Jan. 31.—The Turkish minister of war, according to reports from Constantinople, has secretly ordered the printing as quickly as possible of 10,000 copies of a proclamation for the general mobilization of the Turkish forces, says a dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company from Athens, dated January 29.

The report says the order shows that the war ministry contemplates mobilizing in Anatolia, preparatory to an attack on the Greeks and other allied troops there.

ANOTHER SIEGE OF DEBATE DUE ON PEACE PACT

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—A possible foundation for another session of senate debate on the peace treaty was laid today by Democratic leaders as a sequel to the collapse yesterday of bi-partisan informal negotiations for a compromise on reservations. Notice was served by Senator Walsh of Montana, one of the democratic members of the disbanded bi-partisan committee that on Tuesday, February 10, a motion would be made to resume consideration of the treaty in the open senate. He spoke for the democratic senate leader, Senator Hitechock of Nebraska, who was absent.

The announcement developed no debate. A little later, however, the senate was given concrete reminder of the amount of oratory it already had expended on the treaty. Senator Smoot, republican of Utah, exhibited a 3,000-page volume containing 7,300,000 words on the subject, spoken in the senate last fall.

Poland Takes Steps to Stop the Bolsheviki

By Associated Press.

WARSAW, Friday, Jan. 30.—The Polish army's class of 1901 has been called to the colors. A report from Warsaw published in Copenhagen Jan. 25 stated that the Polish cabinet had signed a mobilization order taking this action because of the Bolshevik advance.

FLU EPIDEMIC CONTINUES TO RAGE OVER U. S.

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Jan. 31.—Influenza and pneumonia claimed the heaviest toll of the present epidemic during the past twenty-four hours. Two hundred and seven deaths, 122 from influenza and eighty-five from pneumonia, was reported to Health Commissioner Robertson. New cases of both diseases continued to show a marked decrease. From more than 1,000 cases yesterday, influenza fell to 866 reported victims today, hardly a third of the daily toll reached a week ago. New cases of pneumonia today numbered 352.

1,543 CASES AT DALLAS. DALLAS, Jan. 31.—New cases of influenza reported in Dallas this week totaled 1,543 up to noon today, with twenty-one deaths. Today 225 cases were reported up to noon as against yesterday's total of 305.

1,000 CASES AT MIAMI, TEX. AUSTIN, Jan. 31.—Influenza epidemics at McKinney and Miami were reported to the state health department today. The mayor of Miami reported 1,000 cases, while the number at McKinney was not given. A total of 1,179 new cases of influenza in the state were reported since yesterday.

DEATHS INCREASE IN N. Y. NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—Deaths from influenza continued to increase today while there was a decided drop in the number of new cases reported to the health department. There were 123 deaths, an increase of four over yesterday's record figures in the present epidemic. While the number of new cases totaled 4,895, this was a decrease of 637 over those of the previous day. There were 137 deaths and 811 new cases of pneumonia, decreases of six and forty, respectively, from yesterday's figures.

NO MORE FLU ADS. WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—Appropriation of $2,800 to pay for advertisements in newspapers during the influenza epidemic last year was eliminated from the second deficiency bill today on a point of order by Representative Blanton, democrat, Texas. Another provision of the bill prohibits the public health service from paying for future advertisements.

DECREASE AT ST. LOUIS. ST. LOUIS, Jan. 31.—For the first time since the disease was pronounced an epidemic, January 19, the number of new cases of influenza reported today fell below the number reported on the preceding day. New cases numbered 528.

BAR PUBLIC FUNERALS. CHICAGO, Jan. 31.—Public funerals were placed under the ban today by the health authorities because of the increased number of deaths from influenza and pneumonia. The restrictions prohibit more than ten persons from attending funerals and bar the attendance of children. New cases of influenza today numbered 1,015.

All standard brands are advertised, guaranteeing to the public full value.

DEADLOCK ON OIL BILL HAS BEEN BROKEN

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 31.—The deadlock on the oil land leasing bill which has been in conference for three months was broken today when a compromise agreement on the so-called remedial provision of the oil section was reached by the conferees. While this virtually amounts to a final agreement on the bill, minor questions involving royalties derived from producing oil wells remain to be settled next week. Under the compromise, transfer of surplus oil lands after Oct. 26, last, by persons holding more than 3,200 acres, the maximum allowed under the bill, would be declared void. The provision is designed to prevent the juggling of land and keep oil interests from maintaining control over greater areas than the measure permits.

Senator Smoot, republican, Utah, said tonight that the conferees left to himself and Representative Emmett of Oregon, chairman of the house managers, determination of royalty distribution provision. They hope to reach a final agreement Monday.

Government Has Lost $594,200,000 On Ry. Operation

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—Operation of the railroads' Pullman lines, express companies and waterways unfilled under federal control has cost the nation approximately $700,000,000 since they were taken over two years ago, according to official calculations. Figures made public by the railroad administration tonight revealed a net loss of $594,200,000 from railroad operation alone in the two year period. Statistics gathered from official sources as to operation of the Pullman lines, waterways and express companies while operated by the government shows the addition of $100,000 to the transportation costs.

Nomination of Houston as Treas. Sec. Is Confirmed

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—The nomination of David F. Houston, now secretary of agriculture, to be secretary of the treasury and E. T. Meredith of Des Moines, Iowa, to be secretary of agriculture were confirmed unanimously today by the senate.

U. S. Officials Not Affected by Mex. Passport Ban

By Associated Press.

BROWNSVILLE, Jan. 31.—American officials are not affected by the recent order issued from Mexico City that passports be denied persons who "slandered the Mexican government." In testifying for the United States senate subcommittee investigating the Mexican situation, E. C. Reynolds, immigration inspector in charge of this port of entry, made this announcement today after a conference between American and Mexican officials at which the passport order was construed as "not affecting officials who were working together to promote and maintain friendly relations between the countries."

It was stated yesterday that the sheriff and his chief deputy had been notified that their permits to visit Matamoros, the Mexican town opposite this site here, had been revoked and this led to today's conference. RED CROSS CHAPTER TO MEET MONDAY AT 2 P. M. The local chapter of the American Red Cross will meet today afternoon at 2 o'clock in the social service room of the Marston building. All members are urged to attend.

COMMISSIONERS TO HEAR TESTIMONY AT MEETING IN RANGER FEBRUARY 6

Special to The Times.

EASTLAND, Jan. 31.—Condemnation proceedings to secure a grade crossing at Ranger were filed today by the Wichita Falls, Ranger & Fort Worth railroad, represented by Paul J. Neff, general manager, against the Texas & Pacific railroad, in the district court. Three commissioners, Ralph G. Stockman, G. A. Clements and Dr. J. A. Shackelford, were appointed to hear the testimony and assess the damages, if any, in the office of Mayor M. H. Hagaman, in the Marston building, at 10 a. m. Friday, Feb. 6.

The suit arises from the inability of the railroad companies to agree as to the crossing of the new oil field railroad on the Texas & Pacific tracks a mile above the station at Ranger.

The Texas & Pacific has contended that the Wichita Falls, Ranger & Fort Worth railroad should put in an overhead or an underneath crossing. The additional expense, officials of the Wichita Falls, Ranger & Fort Worth state, would be in the neighborhood of $500,000, because of the grading for considerable distance on either side that an elevation or depression of the tracks would entail.

The new railroad would not be able to operate its yards, they state, nor serve the industries of Ranger without a grade crossing. The crossing suggested by the Texas & Pacific would require an additional six months' time for the new road to be in operation, with resultant discomfort to the immense oil and other interests of the Ranger field.

Walker D. Hines, director general of the United States railroad administration, and Judge Rufus E. Foster, United States district judge in the United States court, Western district of Louisiana, in whose court the receivership of the Texas & Pacific is pending, have given their consent to the filing of the condemnation proceedings as set forth in the petition of the Wichita Falls, Ranger & Fort Worth railroad.

The grade approaching the Texas & Pacific right of way from both directions had been completed to the edge of the T. & P. property and it is a matter of a few days work to complete the grading and track laying when the crossing controversy is settled.

VOTING DRIVE SENDS TOTALS ABOVE 2,000

Paid poll taxes for the city will run better than 2,000, according to incomplete figures in the office of Tax Collector Ringold Saturday, and the total voting strength, with the service men, will be between 3,500 and 4,000. Members of the poll tax committee of the Chamber of Commerce, who were responsible for the fine showing of the closing days of the month, stated that about every other man can be voted as a former service man.

To aid in the drive, E. K. Maher, chairman of the committee, called upon L. A. Marek, Leon D. Brooks and W. P. Curtis for four-minute talks at local theatres. These were made Friday and Saturday afternoon and evening, at the Lone Star, the Opera House, the Liberty and the Hippodrome.

Fail to Agree on Labor Rates in Railroad Bill

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—While some progress on the railroad bill was made today by the senate and house conferees, they again failed to reach a final agreement on the labor rate making sections. These will be taken up again Monday.

Chairman Cummins of the senate managers announced after today's session that the conferees tentatively had agreed on a compromise provision by which final decision on all wage questions would be made by a separate tribunal when the bi-partisan wage board proposed by the bill failed to agree. Either the interstate commerce commission or a special board to be appointed by the president has been suggested as the tribunal but no final conclusion has been reached.

Senator Cummins announced that the conferees had agreed on the general principles that there should be definite percentage of returns for the railroads. The amount the percentage remains to be on. To keep in touch with opinion read the Daily Times Watch.

SENATE SCORED FOR ITS WASTE OF WHITE PAPER

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 31.—The waste of white paper by government departments came in for another attack in the senate. Senator Smoot, republican, Utah, opened the discussion and to prove that the senate's skirts weren't quite clear, he brought into the chamber a volume the size of a bushel basket with the explanation that it was a compilation of the speeches already made in the senate on the peace treaty and printed in the Congressional Record.

The book, said Senator Smoot, contained more than 7,800,000 words. He added that he had started to compile also the separate articles relating to the treaty which had been inserted in the Record but had given up because he found such a collection could not be brought together in "any reasonable number of books."

Senator Smoot attacked government departments for what he characterized as a "wicked" waste of paper. Senator Sherman, republican, Illinois, said departmental mail had become a pest, even to country newspaper editors.

Japan Invites China to Confer Over Shantung

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—The Japanese embassy here was informed officially today that the Japanese government has invited China to enter upon negotiations for the return of German rights in Shantung and that while some of the other elements in China had opposed the acceptance of the invitation on the ground that China was not yet a member of the League of Nations, it was believed the Chinese were inclined to accept the invitation.

CITY SCHOOLS NOW SHOWING 2,200 PUPILS

Attendance at the city schools is now well above 2,200. An additional room has been secured at the central school by removing a partition between two small office rooms and will be occupied by the fourth grade.

An additional teacher is needed for this grade. The position has been offered to Miss Marie Pearson, but it is not known whether she will accept or not.

Superintendent McDonald has improved the fine organization built up by the late Superintendent H. A. W. by the addition of teachers and equipment. Under his most capable management, the schools are doing splendid work. Teachers report good interest shown by pupils in all grades, and the number of pupils promoted at mid-term was unusually large.

With the completion of the fine new edifices under construction in Young and Cooper additions and at Tiffin, Ranger will be second to no city in Texas for school buildings and equipment, and it already has a teaching force which would be a credit to any city.

New Food Relief Loans to Europe By U. S. Opposed

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—In voting today to recommend new government loans of $50,000,000 to European countries for food reliefs, the house ways and means committee, including its republican members, went counter to majority views of the republican legislative hearings committee. While there was no indication that this disagreement on the program would result in an open fight, cloak-room discussion strongly forecast opposition to any loan when the measure reached the house floor.

Technically, the committee agreement was a unanimous vote of nineteen of its twenty-four members. Six democratic members joined the majority after failing to get a larger fund, but reserved the right to seek an increase when the bill comes up in the house, probably early next week. Their efforts to make the amount $125,000,000, as proposed by the treasurer, $100,000,000 or $75,000,000 were defeated in order.

MORTUARY

MRS. J. T. MYNIER.
Mrs. J. T. Mynier, of this city, died last night about 8 o'clock. She is survived by her husband, who is night manager for the Western Union here, and a baby.

The body is being held at the parlor of the Milford Undertaking company pending completion of funeral arrangements.

MRS. MARY MELTON.
Mrs. Mary Melton, wife of J. R. Melton, living twelve miles south of town, died of pneumonia today. She is survived by her husband and four children, Oscar Melton, Mrs. Lillian Walker, Mrs. Norma Pilgram and Alonzo Melton. She was 60 years of age.

Funeral services will be held at Alameda cemetery at 3 o'clock this afternoon, Rev. Potter officiating.

Says Army Bill Would Make Pres. Wilson Dictator

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—The army re-organization bill with its compulsory military training provision, reported by the senate military committee, not only will cost the tax payers more than one billion dollars, but will result in militarism "run mad," said the minority report by Senator McKellar, democrat, Tennessee.

The report is concurred in by Senator Sheppard of Texas, who said that the measure "would perpetuate the President's war powers and make him virtually a dictator in peace times."

"Some Women Train for Man-Hunt; Others Hunt Instinctively as Wolf"

International News Service.
LONDON—Marriage is not essential to feminine happiness, but if a woman intends to marry—or obtain a divorce—she should give to the subject the same careful study that preparation for a career as teacher, stenographer or nurse would entail.

This is the firm belief of Miss Louise Connolly, educational expert of Newark, N. J., who recently has given several lectures in New York under the serial title of "Fireside Conference on Life, Love and Literature." Miss Connolly, although free from any matrimonial bonds, has become through prolonged study an authority on problems and methods of mating.

Although regarding marriage as hardly necessary, Miss Connolly bows to the existence of fact by asserting that "life for most women is a man-hunt." Some women, she asserts, hunt instinctively—oh a wolf stalks its prey. When the instinctive woman finds the man she wants, Miss Connolly says, "she envelops him, digests him and marries him and the male never knows how it happened." Other women, not blessed with the "hunting instinct," must use artifice to achieve matrimony and to these Miss Connolly gives advice.

"For the first time in the history of woman," says Miss Connolly, "she is able to play a part in the choosing of her mate. Today she is on the road to economic independence. She knows that if she does not marry she will be able to provide for herself. This is better than a loveless marriage.

"You might say this was a subject about which I knew nothing," she added, her brown eyes twinkling, "but I am not so sure about that. They say nobody loves a fat man. I don't know about that, but I do know that all the world seems to tell their confidences to a stout woman like myself. I may not be so awfully wise, but for years and years people have been coming to me and telling me these things. I've been teaching for more than thirty years and in that time there has been an endless chain. Mothers of pupils would come to me and tell me their troubles with their husbands and husbands would come and tell me their troubles with their wives. Then the pupils would come to me and I would see the effect of their parents' troubles on them. And sometimes the grandchildren would come and I could trace it all clear down to them as well."

As further proof of her qualifications Miss Connolly pointed to a stack of books which she has studied. Among them were "Love and Ethics" by Ellen Key, Robert Horton's "The Art of Living Together," "I care and the Soul Makers," by Mary Austin; "Marriage and Divorce," by Lolla

Adler; Cicely Hamilton's "Marriage as a Trade," and a host of others. Through her experience and her research, Miss Connolly has developed quite definite ideas about marriage, but she admits that she has come to no positive conclusion as to divorce.

"I must admit I have always had very strict ideas about these subjects," she said, "and yet I know that it is easy for the person who never wore tight shoes to tell the person who has what to do."

For the young miss who wears a black court plaster beauty patch under the left eye and just can't quite make either that eye or its mate behave when prepossessing young men are in the vicinity, Miss Connolly has considerable sympathy.

"She doesn't necessarily mean any harm in flirting," she said, "Nor does it mean she is trying to marry the young man with whom she is trying to flirt. All she wants is a pleasant time and she doesn't mean any harm by it."

Platonic friendship is a perfectly natural and possible thing, Miss Connolly asserts.

Miss Connolly said that some women know instinctively when they see the man they want to marry. Such women are rare, however, she adds. Too much novel reading has in part destroyed woman's natural instinct in regard to her mate. Some women really are incapable of telling which man they really love, according to Miss Connolly.

Not only the reading of too many novels, but the drama has done much to change the attitude of the woman to-day on love and marriage, Miss Connolly believes.

"When a man proposes to her," she said, "the girl is thinking all the time of what would be her answer if they were in a play. She doesn't want to fall down on her part. The same is also true of the man. Well, that is part of the price we pay for being so civilized, I suppose."

Miss Connolly has still one further piece of advice to give to the fair sex, who would know all there is to know on "Mating or Getting Away With Him."

"Don't let him know that you want to marry him," she warns you. "If he finds that out he will probably be scared to death."

METICULOUS LOGIC.
The ball had gone over the railings, as balls will in suburban gardens, and a small but unabashed batsman appeared at the front door to ask for it.

"Then appeared an irate father: 'How dare you show yourself at my house? How dare you ask for your ball? Do you know you nearly killed one of my children with it?'"

"Put you've got ten children," said the logical lad, "and I've only got one baseball."—Pittsburg Chronicle Telegraph.

Shabbily Dressed Negro Had $5,285

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 31.—While in search of hold-up men, four patrolmen, armed with riot guns, ordered a shabbily-dressed negro to halt. The negro ran, but was caught. In searching him, one of the patrolmen found a small bundle wrapped in an old sock in one of his pockets. It contained $5,285 in bills.

"A real held-up man," the policeman soliloquized.

The negro gave his name as Albert Page, 33 years old.

"I work for a tailor shop near the Rasbach hotel," the negro explained. "I have been saving this money going eight or nine years. Yesterday I decided to change banks and drew out the money and didn't have time to put it in my new bank."

"How did you manage to save up that much money?" Captain Anderson asked.

"Oh," the negro explained, "that was easy. You see, I take suits to per-

MISS WEBSTER'S RISE FROM SERVANT GIRL TO MOVIE STAR

International News Service.
LONDON—From servant girl to movie star is the short step which has just been taken by Miss Emily Webster.

As late as the recent peace conference she was placidly helping the British delegation in Paris, but she nursed an ambition which she'd had ever, since her family prevented her joining "The Broken Heart" stock show back in Burton-on-Trent years ago.

In London she had been mascot to a company of the service corps. An officer of the corps, on demobilization, blossomed forth as a movie magnate and Emily got her chance.

And now some say she'll be the Mary Pickford of London.

BRUNETTES HAVE SHADE ON BLONDES IN BRAIN TESTS

International News Service.
LONDON—Despite columns of printed matter from interested or biased readers, neither the Daily Mail nor the London Daily Express has been able to determine the momentous question whether dark girls—the girls with dark hair and eyes are more brainy than fair ones.

Charles Garvice, the novelist, after delivering himself of this opinion, took shelter.

"Most of my heroines are dark. I think dark girls are quicker in the long run. That does not mean the brunette will always beat the blonde in the long run. Her greater quickness may cause her to jump at wrong conclusions, which her cooler fair sister may avoid. I think a fair girl is able to sustain a note—play a part longer and better than a dark one."

THIS IS THE VOICE OF THE FATHERS; THIS IS THE CREED OF THEIR SONS.

(Ft. Worth Record.)

Government was instituted for the protection of the weak against the rapacity of the powerful; for equal rights for all; for civil and religious liberty; for unrestricted franchise and an honest expression of the voter at the ballot box; for equal rights for all and special privileges for none.

"Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty." Eternal vigilance is likewise the price of preparedness in order that the great and the small, the rich and the poor, the man of millions and the man of a few dollars shall be given a fair deal, which only means that which is legitimate or lawful.

Petroleum riches (discovered since 1917) have placed Texas in the eye of the world. There are gigantic interests in the petroleum industry the world over, and the statesmen as well as the captains of industry of the foremost nations recognize the importance of petroleum as a driving power for the ships of the seven seas, the motor vehicles of the world, the engines which pull the trains across continents, the tractors which bid fair to revolutionize farming and all the engines or implements that the inventive genius of the age has placed in the hands of man for his convenience, his comfort, his commerce and the development of his country.

Private monopoly, Colossus-like Titans of finance or trade, should not be permitted to place the petroleum industry of Texas, or America, in the hands of a limited or favored few. The Record sounded a warning in an editorial relative to the importance of the Burburnett field and the secret as well as insidious propaganda which is being conducted in the press of the East to drive away investors and deaden the energies of independent producers or prospectors who have made the Wichita fields the envy of the powerful and, perhaps the unscrupulous.

These same tactics or methods, underhanded and underground, subtle in attack and destructive in effect, are being employed by the same agencies or interests to cause investors, smart operators, daring prospectors and those who are classified as without the pale of Mammon's holy inner circle, to distrust the productivity of the Ranger field, the Eastland field, the Desdemona field, in fact, all the territory included in what is known as the Ranger territory.

"Forewarned is to be forearmed." Texans emancipated themselves and won their own independence when they threw off the yoke of Santa Anna and won their liberty with their swords. There has never been an hour or a day or a year since the passing of the men who made the first constitution of Texas that Texans have not arisen equal to any emergency or any crisis that confronted them and enacted regulatory laws for the protection of the rights of the people of the commonwealth, the protection of legitimate investors and investments, the protection of life and property to better resist the encroachments of the scheming few determined upon monopolistic control of the treasures of the earth, the products of the soil, the halls of legislation, the judiciary of the state or the ballots of the people.

Texas is the same today as it was when Richard Coke hurled from the places they had usurped renegades and carpetbaggers and the ignorant hordes recently emancipated from chattel bondage.

Texas is the same today as when James Stephen Hogg and his followers drove from power the champions of vested rights, corporate interests and their brainy lawyers and insolent lobbyists who had attempted to control legislation for their own enrichment at the expense of the wealth producing and tax paying people.

There is to be a free field and a fair fight in Texas. There is to be the protecting arm of the law, thrown about all investors, all interests, that are legitimate and have a scrupulous regard for the rights of their fellows and the statutes of the commonwealth.

Collis P. Huntington, in the zenith of his power, attempted to rule Texas from his offices in New York, Washington and California.

He threw the gauntlet into the teeth of the people and the people accepted the brazen challenge, and asserted their manhood without delay.

What happened is ancient history. Collis P. Huntington lost.

He had ruled California, Arizona, New Mexico, Louisiana and his influence was far-reaching in the commonwealths of Tennessee and Kentucky and other American states.

He reckoned without his host when he invaded the imperial state whose shrines are Goliad and the Alamo and San Jacinto. A Waterloo met his cohorts face to face in the city of Austin where the lawmakers of the state wrote into the archives of the state a third declaration of Texas independence.

President Homer P. Brelsford of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, in his Abilene speech, predicted that in the not distant future the petroleum production of the West Texas fields would be so immense that it would stagger the minds of the people.

This claim includes the Burburnett, the Stephens county and other fields, but the distributors of poison are busy in the East, the propagandists or publicity agents of the all powerful are busy, and Texans, native or adopted, newcomers or old settlers are reminded that preparedness is the thing and whenever it becomes necessary protection must be given to all alike.

The "sinister forces" appear to have a well defined and adroitly directed plan of campaign. They are dropping their poison ivy items of publicity to the effect that the Ranger and contiguous fields are nearing exhaustion; that they have no future; that their productivity is but short lived; that it will be perilous or inviting disaster for eastern capitalists to make investments and while doing their utmost to keep outside money away as well as alarm those who have already invested, they are making their preparations to gather in all prospects or prospective fields of production or development and thereby reap a golden harvest for themselves.

These are some of the signs of the times and men whose investments are jeopardized should not be blinded as to the real situation or fail to face the true facts. Neither should they permit themselves to be caught unawares or unprepared by the entrenched yet invisible forces behind the menacing program.

This is the law of the fathers. This is the creed of the commonwealth.

This is the shibboleth of the living present as well as the historic past.

The Sunday Times' comic section is on a par with that of the metropolitan dailies. Look for it next Sunday.

Picked Force Is Sent Out to Wage War on Yaquis

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—A picked force of military police has been sent from Mexico City to Sonora in a campaign against the Yaqui Indians, according to advices received here today.

The Yaquis, who went on the war-path some months ago after General Calles, former governor of Sonora, had announced his failure to pacify them and declared that the only solution of the problem was the extermination of the tribe, have raided many towns and villages in Sonora and terrorized the country generally.

COUPLE FOUND AWAITING CALL TO "HEAVEN"

WATERBURY, Conn., Jan. 31.—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Overbury of Woodbury, laboring under the hallucination that they were to be "called to heaven" were discovered by the authorities of that town on the verge of starvation. They had been without food and heat for some days and were in a critical condition physically when found locked in their house awaiting the call to the other world. They had given most of their money and furniture to their neighbors, so certain were they that they were to be "transplanted."

The couple came to Woodbury from New York a few years ago and purchased Charles Peck's large farm. Their home was handsomely furnished. Mr. Overbury is a prosperous farmer, while Mrs. Overbury conducts a tea room which is popular with the traveling public.

Some days ago they told neighbors they had only seven days more to live that they were to be taken up to heaven. So firm had this conviction taken hold of them that on Sunday, last, they began to give away checks to neighbors in amounts ranging from $50 to $100. Without exception, these checks were accepted by those to whom they were presented, and in some cases the recipients made haste in cashing them. The deluded couple also moved their household effects out of doors and told neighbors to help themselves. Nearly all of their clothing went the same way.

Miss Jessie Wells, a neighbor, showed concern and got into communication with Miss Underwood in New York, sister of Mrs. Overbury, who appealed to the Woodbury authorities to investigate. A. E. Knox and Selectman Curtis and Cowles went to the Overbury home and sought entrance, which was refused.

The Overburys were without fuel, food or suitable clothing, but said they desired to be left alone, as they expected to depart for heaven that night. Miss Wells again communicated with relatives of the couple in New York, who phoned Selectman Curtis, giving him authority to take charge of the case. After Judge Tomlinson had issued proper papers, Selectman Curtis and Constable W. S. Atwood went back to the house and broke in. The couple were taken to the town farm, where all was done to make them comfortable. Relatives are expected to arrive from New York soon. It was said in Woodbury that most of those who received gifts from the Overburys had signified their intention of making restitution.

MARDI GRAS WILL BE OBSERVED IN GALVESTON

By Associated Press
GALVESTON, Jan. 31.—Mardi Gras will be celebrated in much of the old style form in Galveston this year. Plans for the celebration, which is to be held Feb. 15-17, have been well in hand for some time and contemplate turning the city over to those who are disposed to make merry.

One of the big events of the forthcoming celebration will be the annual illuminated parade given under the auspices of the K. K. K., a local secret society which arranges most of the events of the Mardi Gras season. The parade is to be given on the night of Feb. 16.

The following afternoon will be devoted to an outdoor masquerade party for children and the festivities will close with the annual masquerade ball of the K. K. K.

HEALTH AUTHORITIES WARN THE PUBLIC TO BEWARE OF EPIDEMIC

Reports Show That Influenza Epidemic Is Gaining Headway in Many Sections of the Country.

LAST YEAR'S RECORD BROKEN IN CHICAGO

Persons Weak and Run-Down Are Easy Victims; Fortify Against Attack by Taking New Bilary Antiseptic Tablets.

According to late press reports issued by state and city health authorities, influenza is again becoming epidemic in many sections, and much alarm is now felt that it may become general over the entire country.

The disease has made its greatest progress in Chicago and vicinity, where thousands of new cases are reported daily. Recently 2,514 cases were reported in Chicago in one day, breaking last year's record when the epidemic was at its height. Reports from other sections are also alarming, and the disease is gaining headway in some sections of Oklahoma, Texas, the Middle West, and on the Pacific Coast. It has also appeared in other communities, although it has not yet reached the epidemic stage.

Owing to the lateness of the season it is not thought possible that the disease can become the great and terrifying scourge that it was last year, when it swept the entire country and claimed its victims by the hundreds of thousands. The danger is too great, however, to take any chances, and everything possible should be done to ward it off.

Medical authorities agree that people who are weak and run down are the earliest victims of influenza. If you find yourself tired (and nervous), weak and losing flesh, or if you are in a generally run-down condition or catch cold easily, this warning should be heeded promptly. You are really in danger if exposed to the disease, because it is generally believed to be contagious, and you are apt to fall on easy victim if you come in contact with the germs.

People who are well and strong are not likely to contract the disease because they are able to throw it off. The common sense way to keep from taking it is to fortify the system against attack by building up the constitution, in other words, begin immediately to build up your powers of resistance.

To accomplish this it has been demonstrated that nothing on earth will strengthen you and build you up like Orgatone five grain tablets known to scientists as a solvent of cholesterol and bilary antiseptic. These tablets contain the very best elements needed to start a healthy flow of bile and build up your system and give you fighting strength to ward off the influenza germ.

First of all these new tablets begin their work by creating a good healthy appetite for wholesome food, and assists every organ of the body to perform its natural function, thus helping to build up health and strength in a natural way. Do not get the idea that these tablets are a common patent medicine, they are a true bilary disinfectant, producing an abundant flow of limpid bile.

It is also important that the everyday rules of hygiene be observed, that is, sleep in well ventilated rooms, get plenty of fresh air and exercise, and keep away from crowds.

Orgatone five-grain tablets are dispensed in Ranger by the Ranger Drug Company.

Remember, I made this statement after handling nearly a half million cases of eczema and devoting 12 years of my life to its treatment. I don't care what all you have used nor how many doctors have told you that you could not be cured, all I ask is just a chance to prove my claims. If you write me TODAY, I will send you a Free Trial of mild, soothing, guaranteed treatment that will surely convince you as it has me. If you are disgusted and discouraged, I dare you to give me a chance to prove my claims. H. W. DAWSON SENTENCED TO THREE YEARS

Special to The Times.

EASTLAND, Jan. 31.—The jury that held in charge the fate of H. W. Dawson assessed his punishment at three years confinement in the state penitentiary. The defendant was twenty-six years of age and married. He was charged in two counts in the indictment, one alleging that on September 26, 1919, he stole fourteen joints of 6-8-inch casing of the value of $600 from Frank Champion and the other count charging that the defendant, aided, abetted and assisted his brother, McLemore Dawson, in stealing such casing.

The defense, at the conclusion of testimony by the state, rested its case also, declining to offer any proof whatever, and went to the jury on the evidence offered by the state. The verdict of the jury was, therefore, no surprise to those who heard the case. A strong fight was made by the defense attorney on the premise that the defendant acted his part in the transaction innocently and that he was the victim of circumstances brought about by others.

Among the evidence presented by the state was an alleged confession made by the defendant before the grand jury in which he admitted going upon the Barnes lease with his wagon and team and hauling off the pipe alleged to have been stolen. But in this confession he said that he was instructed to go get the casing by Ike Barris and Sam Figenholt, who are also charged with receiving casing.

The state showed that, although the defendant claimed in his written confession that he was engaged at $14 a day, he had within a period of only a few days received checks amounting to approximately $5,000. The defense alleged that all sums drawn with the checks over and above defendant's daily wages were returned to Ike Barris and Sam Figenholt, who were operating under the firm name of the Ranger Pipe and Supply company.

The defendant's attorneys have filed a formal motion for a new trial. The bail bond of Sam Figenholt, charged with receiving stolen casing—one of the alleged "pipe stealing cases"—was forfeited because of failure to answer and judgment nisi was entered against him and his sureties, W. J. Mays and J. D. Hollingsworth, for the sum of $2,000. Forfeitures on other bonds would have been taken had it been possible to find the bonds. A search was made for them in the clerk's office, but they were not to be found. The bonds were in the hands of the sheriff when originally taken and his office stated that the bonds had been returned to the clerk's office.

The case of M. E. Woods and many others set for trial this week were continued because of the absence of many state witnesses.

The seven civil cases set for this week were continued because the parties were not ready for trial.

The petit jury for the week was excused Thursday at noon.

Winnetta Francis Byrd, of Ranger, was granted a divorce on the ground of cruel treatment.

Texas Studio Among State's Finest Shops

Robert M. Irwin, who has given Ranger's progress and the Ranger oil fields more photographic publicity than any other one man, is associated with M. E. Branscomb in a photographic and art studio, the Texas Art Studio, in the Marston building, 326 Main street, that takes a place with the best shops of its sort in the state.

Mr. Irwin has been in Ranger a year and is well known for his work in the Hippodrome studio, of which he was proprietor. The new quarters are commodious in size, 21x37 feet, with a reception and art room, 21x30 feet, equipped with show cases and a full stock of kodaks and kodak supplies. The studio is well appointed and the balance of the ample quarters is taken with dark rooms and finishing rooms.

The Texas Art studio is fitted with the best of modern photographic equipment and will handle exclusive portrait work as well as commercial photography, field work and kodak finishing. The art department will handle picture framing, as well.

Business College Will Open Monday at 320 So. Marston

The Southern Business Institute, a fully equipped business college conducted by J. W. A. Cox, will open Monday at 321 South Marston street, the building formerly used by the public library. Full courses will be given in stenography, bookkeeping, typewriting, and the literary work necessary for a person who desires to be a competent office employe or private secretary.

Mr. Cox came to Ranger from Greenville and later will move his family here.

Arrangements can be made at the Southern Business Institute for scholarships on any part of the course and information will be furnished at the Chamber of Commerce. The institute will be open from 8:30 a. m. to 10 p. m. and courses can be taken after regular business hours if desired.

The Chamber of Commerce endorses the new institute.

CASKEY SUES B. E. MOORE ON HOTEL TITLE

Suit was filed today in the district court by J. W. Caskey and wife against B. E. Moore, attorney, and others, relative to the property known as the Caskey hotel. The petition alleges that the plaintiffs responded confidence in Moore as their attorney to represent them in effecting certain transactions relative to loans on the hotel property and that Mr. Moore is now claiming the hotel, property and rents as his individual property to the damage of plaintiffs in the sum of $20,000.

On the petition of the plaintiffs, the district court has appointed Howard Gholson as receiver of the hotel and other leases connected with the hotel, the receiver's bond to be $10,000.

Oak Park Addition Has New Apartment Open for Occupancy

The Greenwood apartment house, in Hodges' Oak Park addition, is now ready for occupancy, under the management of Miss N. E. Wood.

The structure contains thirty apartments of three rooms each, modernly furnished and equipped with all conveniences.

The Greenwood apartment house is the first establishment of its kind built here. It was secured through the efforts of Kerley & Van Winkle, live wire agents for Hodges' Oak Park. Its close-in location and convenient arrangement will recommend it to persons seeking quarters near the business section of town.

Other apartment houses of brick or frame construction, are in prospect for Hodges' Oak Park. The natural beauty of the tract, its nearness to the center of town, and the fine drainage have caused it to be built up at a rapid rate since it was placed on the market last fall. Many fine homes have been built and others are under construction.

Griffith—was to establish a medium through which to convey bigger and finer photoplays to the motion picture public.

Under this plan three pictures have already been released—two by Douglas Fairbanks and one by D. W. Griffith. Now comes Mary Pickford with "Pollyanna," her first "Big Four" offering, and the fourth film to be handled by the United Artists since the organization's birth, which will be shown at the Lamb theatre today.

Because this is her first production under the new arrangement of individual release, every effort has been put forth by Miss Pickford to make "Pollyanna" a bigger and better picture than anything she has ever done before.

Work was begun by the little star on September 15 and the production was not complete until the middle of December. Neither expense nor time was spared in the attempt to make "Pollyanna" one hundred per cent perfect.

In order that a real New England village might be photographed, Director Powell took the entire company two hundred miles from Los Angeles to Independence, a town a mile high in the Sierra Nevada mountains and the only typical New England hamlet in the West which had never before.

LIBERTY THEATRE

"Pettigrew's Girl," New Clayton Film
In her latest Paramount picture, "Pettigrew's Girl," Ethel Clayton adds another splendid characterization to her list of virile portrayals. This new Paramount star is probably one of the most versatile actresses on the screen. She is not limited in her scope, it seems, but can handle with ease any part from that of a girl detective (in "The Mystery Girl") to that of the chorus girl in "Pettigrew's Girl," which will be shown at the Liberty theatre next Thursday.

Monte Blue has his best opportunity as leading man in this picture, and he more than gets away with the role. His interpretation of the lonely soldier is most artistic, and one doesn't have to be a sentimentalist to be really moved by Pettigrew as he is played by Mr. Blue.

HIPPODROME.

Commencing next Monday, Harry Feldman's Yankee Doodle Girls, who played two weeks here recently in the city, are going to play a return date at this theatre. This company, who broke all records here and are one of the very best musical tabloids in this part of the country, have some very clever artists with them; namely, Agnes Geary, the little girl with the pep, who heads this clever organization and is in a class by herself as a blues singer. She will render all the late numbers besides introducing a brand new blue song entitled "I'm a Discontented Mammy," written by the clever black-face comedian of this company, Pete Pate.

The two black-face comedians who are the leading fun makers are a regular Matt and Jeff combination and no two comedians who have ever been seen in this city are in their class. Woodley and Crandall, a classy, clever vaudeville couple direct from the Keith circuit, are one of the big features and they will on Monday present one of their strongest specialties.

Pearl King, the girl with the big voice, is one of the leading features and will be heard in new numbers and seen in new gowns.

Billy Farrell, the eccentric rube comedian, will offer one of his famous song and dance specialties in which he has been appearing in all the leading vaudeville theatres throughout the eastern circuits.

Lew Jacobs, the dancing beau brummel, is another of the features carried by this talented company.

The chorus, than which there is no classier, is composed of the very pick of musical comedy and will offer new and novel numbers. The costuming and stage setting are in a class by themselves.

Program will be changed daily.

Do you want to see a fight that passes anything in its intensity that has ever been staged—a fight that will make you grip the edge of the seat in tense excitement? Then don't fail to see this.

Can you imagine a man and wife shipwrecked and without food or water for days, aimlessly drifting in a boat without oars or any means of navigation, at the last moment sighting a German submarine, which comes up along side and takes the woman and leaves the man adrift? Can you imagine the vengeance which this man bore in his heart against the sub commander after this terrible incident?

After three months the same submarine is fired upon by an American vessel. The German captain is captured and in a drunken state tells the tale of the woman he had picked up at sea and of her horrible death through ill-treatment—BUT, he did not know it was HER HUSBAND to whom he was telling this gruesome story. THEN, the question, What happened "BEHIND THE DOOR"?

Folks, this is one of the pictures off the regular beaten path and one which will linger in your memory for months to come! See it!

QUEEN.

Delightful Role for Barrymore in "The Man From Mexico."

One of the most successful farces on the stage a decade or more ago was "The Man From Mexico," written by H. A. Du Souchet. This was pictured by Paramount with John Barrymore, the famous comedian, as star, and it will be the attraction at the Queen theatre next Wednesday.

In this photoplay Mr. Barrymore finds himself in continuous trouble from which he consistently extricates himself in a highly amusing manner.

It is in this type of play that John Barrymore excels. With his exuberant humorous facial expressions, his ludicrous gestures and his general method of portraying facial tribulations and sorrows, he finds himself admirably suited in a character such as that of Fitzew in "The Man From Mexico."

OPERA HOUSE.

Old Time Crime "Avenge" by Death.

Mystery, love and intrigue in aristocratic London society, and Oriental vengeance, are the elements which make "The Illustrious Prince," a photoplay based on the story by E. Phillips Oppenheim and starring Sessue Hayakawa, Nipponese star, one of the most sensational and fascinating productions ever filmed.

The picture was made by Howarth, under the direction of William Worthington, and is released as a Superior Picture by Robertson-Cole.

When Count De La Mar, cosmopolitan and unscrupulous adventurer, played the love game with the beautiful Duchess of Devenham, he did not dream that death's sinister shadow fell across his marriage path.

The Prince Maiyo had warned him that he would pay the penalty, but he could not know that the Japanese nobleman was the son of the man he, De La Mar, had driven to hara-kiri. Nor did he know that the prince had sworn to kill the man who had brought dishonor to his family name. In the middle of the night, when London was in the grip of a dense and chilling fog, the adventure had gone to keep his rendezvous with the duchess who had promised to cope with him.

LONE STAR.

Coming to the Lone Star Wednesday and Thursday "12:10." Melodramatic interest runs high in this feature which coveys much of its artistic appeal to the skillful directorial hand of Herbert Brenon and adds lustre to the established reputation of that gentleman as a master of his craft. It is beautifully photographed, ably presented by a strong cast and gives every indication of proving a popular program attraction.

The picture made its debut at the Capitol theatre, New York and met with an extremely favorable reception. Marie Doro's slender grace and exquisitely expressive features invest the heroine role with irresistible charm. She is equally fascinating whether garbed in the humble attire of the unfortunate sculptor's child or attired as befits the ward of the wealthy Lord Chatterton, and few indeed are the actresses of mature years who can interpret the naive grief and joy of juvenile life with such natural and telling effect. The story strikes an original note not only by virtue of the curious twist given its plot in the unexpected return to this earthly sphere of Marie's benefactor, but also because of the fact that the affection existing between the heroine and her adored granddaddy figures as the principal theme, a rather unusual departure from the outlining of lovers' passion, the time-honored pivot upon which film romance swines. The hero in this instance is of little consequence, venerable Lord Chatterton sharing the honors with the star. The white-haired old robben is impersonated by Hen Webster, who plays the part with a fine, subtle understanding of its dramatic value, and James Carew gives an excellent performance as the whole-souled villain, Newton. Pierre Mallard is immensely effective in the role of Marie's father in the early stages of the play.

The production was filmed abroad and offers a number of attractive panoramic views in the first reel, including glimpses of the Latin Quarter and the river Seine. "12:10," Wednesday and Thursday.

obtainable to insure perfection in motion pictures, Myron Selznick, president of Selznick Pictures, announces a strong addition to his scenario staff in Charles Belmont Davis, well known author, traveler and contributor to the stage.

Mr. Davis is a brother of the late Richard Harding Davis, America's most famous journalist and writer of romances, and is the son of L. Clarke Davis, former editor of the Philadelphia Public Ledger, and Rebecca Harding Davis, herself a writer of note.

Besides a number of novels to his credit, Mr. Davis has been a contributor to the leading magazines, his stories of the stage having been especially widely read. Among his best known tales are "The Borderland of Society," "The Stage Door," "The Lodger Overhead," "Tales of the Town," and "In Another Moment."

As United States consul at Florence, Italy, and in travels that followed, Mr. Davis had a fine chance to gather material, and made the best of it. His name will soon be on the screen as the author of Selznick Super-features.

be taught the game that she may be his companion, but is curtly told that "chess requires brains."

Major John Heritage, enacted by Henry Mortimer, is home on leave from the war. He renews his old acquaintance with Lady Miriam, introducing a new and striking element into the action. When Sir Robert's jealous suspicion is aroused, there is a poignant scene in which the suffering of the neglected wife is pictured with splendid effect.

Dorothy Dalton Rises to Fine Emotional Heights in "His Wife's Friend."

Dorothy Dalton plays the role of the unhappy Lady Miriam Grimwood with natural effect, rising at times to genuine heights of emotional acting. Her husband is Sir Robert, played by Warren Cook. He is moody, self-centered, cold and morbid. He pays less attention to his beautiful wife than he does to a sniffling kitten, which under the skillful art of Director Joseph DeGrasse is seen scampering away with a vindictive flourish of its tail.

as the lonely woman seeks to caress it.

The morbid scene of the House of Grimwood has one diversion—chess—and it is from one of the pieces of the game that the novel has taken its name, "The White Rock." This chessman, which is missing after the disappearance of Sir Robert under singularly mysterious circumstances, is found at the scene of a struggle, and seems to point an accusing finger at Major Heritage, his wife's friend, played by Henry Mortimer. The atmosphere of the sombre and title," said Will M. Ritchey, Paramount scenario expert, in a talk on the subject the other day. "While my functions have little to do with this phase of play making, I am in a position to observe the effects of clever titles on the commercial success of films. Producers have been criticized in some instances for modernizing the names of old plays and books when translated to the screen, and the strictures have not always been just. "It must be remembered that, however much we may decry commercialism in artistic endeavor as an ideal, motion pictures draw their life-blood from the box office. To make them attractive to box office patrons they must be given names intelligible to present-day psychology. If an original title is changed, it is usually done to excite curiosity or better convey an idea of the subject matter—certainly not a blameworthy purpose if there is more meaning for this generation in the altered name.

Must Meet Public Comprehension.
 "In scenario writing we must often change the local motives of characters to bring them within the comprehension of our generation. Our audiences are composed of young and old, and enjoy only characters and situations they can understand out of their own experiences or observations. It is for these reasons that titles that would mean nothing to the public are given a modern twist. In the case of classics (which seldom enter into the matter) it might be deemed a pious obligation, but with average books and plays the studio name may conceivably be better and more meaningful than the one selected by the author or publisher.

"In the case of stage plays, such changes are of common occurrence. There have been instances of names of plays being changed two or three times in the course of rehearsals, so that the phrase has become proverbial: 'Plays are not written; they are re-written.'

"Lurid extremes, however, are inexcusable. To give a play a name that bears no relation to the subject treated, simply because it will round up curiosity mongers, carries its own condemnation. But to make a change with discretion, for the reasons first given, it is good business and harms nobody."

HARRY T. MOREY
VITAGRAPH STAR

Something like ten years ago, before he became a Vitagraph star, Harry T. Morey was described in a book on the American stage as a "robust" actor. He was the only "robust" man mentioned in the book and thought the distinction rather a doubtful honor. Now, however, he has reason to think differently. There are many "robust" actors before the camera, but he has the satisfaction of knowing that he was the original. Mr. Morey's fine physique, moreover, has stood him in good stead in the silent drama. He has been able to play all sorts of roles, from policeman to crook, from society man to lumberjack, and look the part. Just recently he appeared as Wilbur Emerson in the late Charles Klein's "The Gamblers," a man who dominates his associates in financial affairs and who would have appeared ridiculous if played by a slight or undersized man. Mr. Morey recently celebrated his tenth year under the Vitagraph banner.

A point to think of is that most any fellow can put 2 per cent of his gross sales in newspaper advertising and reap a 33 1-3 per cent increase. Let a Daily Times representative show you how to do this intelligently.

LAMB THEATER TO BE OPENED IN CITY TODAY

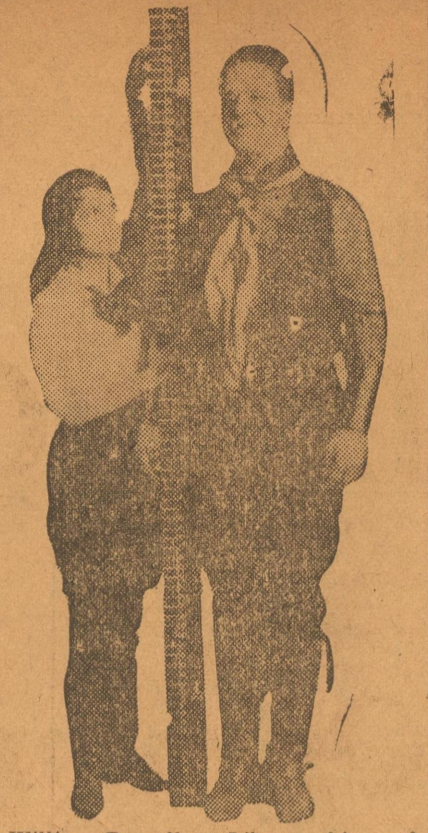

The opening of the new Lamb Theatre today marks another notch in Ranger's rapid growth. The new theatre now completed is one of the finest in the state and does Ranger and vicinity a great credit. It has the latest and most up-to-date equipment that money can buy, including a $3,000 pipe organ of the photoplayer type. The lighting and decorating is excellent. And with the contracts that have been signed for pictures, Ranger is provided with one of the best houses in the country.

The theatre itself was built in record time, with every modern convenience installed. The decorating, done by the Alamo Decorating company of this city, is beautiful and very artistic both inside the house and out. The lighting is another feature of this place. The ventilation system is modern with two huge fans at the rear of the house blowing out the impure air. The building is heated throughout with steam heat. The pipe organ was installed Friday night by Henry Nye of Dallas and is one of the best in the country. It has a wonderful tone, with many added features especially made for this house. The volume of the organ fills the building. In installing this photoplayer, the management did not overlook the fact that good music should be provided to accompany the pictures. The organ is being played by two of the best pipe organ artists in the country, Mr. Lang and Mr. Cummings, who will give concerts daily before each show.

As to contracts signed for pictures coming for the next three months, the very latest released pictures have been secured. It surely seems that the management had given plenty of thought to the wants of Ranger when booking the big pictures. Besides this fact, Ranger is to be one of the key cities of the country in releasing a Pathe News Weekly. That means that the same day the Pathe News is released in New York and other large cities of the country, it will be released here.

The opening picture today is Mary Pickford in her own production of "Pollanna." In addition to this the management has obtained from Chatfield's Flower shop several thousand cut flowers, to be given each lady attending the opening performance.

STAR IN COMING PHOTOPLAY.

Helen Eddy, one of Universal's most attractive and capable leading women, is the featured player in "The Trembling Hour," a mystery photodrama which is coming to the Opera-house Tuesday and Wednesday. In this production she is seen as Margy Webb, a gracious and gentle young hostess whose uncle turns over his vast California mansion and estate to help a hero recover from shell-shock. Kenneth Harlan is seen as Captain Ralph Dunstan, an ex-convict, who an aggravated form of shell-shock. As Margy Webb, Miss Eddy shows a wholesome contrast by her soothing ways to the madcap nerve-racking antics of other house guests at the millionaire's home. Instinctively, the captain turns to her.

The action in "The Trembling Hour" gains momentum when the invalid guest is involved in a murder and resorts to a clever trick to expose the real culprits. George Seigmann directed the picture from a story by Kenneth B. Clarke.

The sale of state lands on Jan. 1 drew 2,370 bids, which have just been tabulated, and awards under the bids will begin soon. However, it is estimated that not more than 300 sales will result, as many of the bids were duplicates. In one instance, there were 150 bids for a single 160-acre tract in Wilbarger county. The highest offer on this was $5 an acre.

Approximately 60 per cent of the property stolen in Austin during 1919 was recovered, according to the annual report from the detective department. Total value of property stolen was $15,290, of which $9,038 was recovered.

ALICE JOYCE
VITAGRAPH STAR

Many of the greatest men and women of the stage have had their names associated with one certain play. Joseph Jefferson is always thought of in connection with "Rip Van Winkle"; Clara Morris and Kate Claxton with "The Two Orphans"; James O'Neill with "The Count of Monte Cristo"; Maud Adams with "Peter Pan"; David Warfield with "The Music Master," and so on throughout the list. This does not mean that the players were not equally successful in other roles, but that certain of their characteristics became indelibly fixed in the minds of their auditors.

Alice Joyce seems destined to have the same distinction. The Vitagraph star has had success after success, but like all other motion picture stars she has been without a role that stood out separate and distinct from the rest. In "The Vengeance of Durand," adapted from Rex Beach's powerful story adapted by Mr. and Mrs. George Randolph Chester, she has the best role in her notable career. Playing a double role, that of Marion Durand and later her daughter, Beatrice Durand. Miss Joyce rises to her greatest histrionic heights, and in the future the name of Miss Joyce and "The Vengeance of Durand" will always go together.

SHOULD A YOUNG MAN MARRY ON $100 A MONTH?

By Associated Press

HOUSTON, Jan. 31.—Widely divergent opinions were submitted here in answer to the question, propounded by the Young Men's Christian Association, whether a young man ought safely to marry in 1920 on an income of $100 a month. Prizes of $15 each were offered for the best affirmative and best negative reply.

"Can a young man marry in 1920 on an income of $100 a month?" "Yes," wrote Mrs. Fred M. Altgelt, prize winner number one, "a thrifty couple of good health and habit and free from debt, may do so without fear of the future."

"No," Samuel DeWitt Ruthven, the other prize winner, replied. "Married life on $100 a month is conducive to race suicide, malnutrition, divorce—and to little else."

Mrs. Altgelt based her view, she said, on the supposition that the young couple was mature enough to distinguish essentials from "frills and fads and fol-de-rols of living." With a knowledge of proper balancing and preparation of a meal, plain sewing and financial system of apportioning household funds, she believed the girl could manage her department of the partnership nicely and aid her husband to success.

In addition, Mrs. Altgelt said, the woman should take advantage of scores of good magazines containing articles on the devices and experiences of practical housekeepers which would simplify her search for time, labor and money-making economies.

"There is often a decided leakage of funds under the head of operating expenses, which include wages, fuel, light, insurance, repairs, and so forth," continued Mrs. Altgelt's answer. "Here the husband with his broader business experience should help in arranging the income satisfactorily. It is an individual matter and no hard and fast rules may be laid down for every couple, but by studying their own special needs and formulating plans to live within their income they will evolve a scheme of comfortable living and a savings account."

"It is an every day matter to find couples living comfortably and happily on $100 per month. With the examples of other couples to follow, why need any young man hesitate to make the plunge?"

On the other hand Mr. Ruthven suggests that the prospective groom should hesitate considerably before taking the "plunge."

"The young man who ventures to marry in these days of high cost of living on an income of $100 a month," he wrote, "is as foolhardy as a man who would venture to cross the Atlantic in a skiff with one oar. He might make it across but the margin of safety is too small to make it a fair chance. Of course, if he has substantial savings, a benevolent parent to call back on, or the prospective wife is willing to help bear the financial burden, the case is somewhat altered."

Mr. Ruthven said it is possible for a couple to find a room and two meals a day for $30 a month each—"that's $60 of the man's $100," he may be able to get a cheap lunch down town for 25 cents, "say $6.25 a month." The wife, he said, would get something at the corner grocery "or go without lunch. Our $100 hubby must have shirts and collars laundered—$2 per month. Wife will wash out her and hubby's underclothes and socks in the washbowl and sneak in electric iron to press them. That leaves about $30 a month to pay for fare, movies, haircuts, clothes, savings, tobacco, face powder, doctor bills and higher life generally."

After a few months of boarding, said Mr. Ruthven, "our young people may try light housekeeping. Rooms will cost not less than $75 a month; grocery bills $35 or more. In addition they will find themselves facing as bills, water bills, ice bills, electric bills and bills for extra things they need about the house, not to mention clothing again. By this time the bride's trousseau will have begun to wear out, and, if the normal course of events obtains, clothes for a third person will be urgently needed. Should a young man marry on $100 a month? Emphatically, no!"

And so the Y. M. C. A. invites the matrimonially inclined to take their choice.

Fifty choice lots all 50x130, good building lots and are bargains either for home building or for speculation, go in this sale at only $200 on terms of $20 down and balance $15 monthly. Fifty good lots and great bargains, and the chance of a lifetime for the homeseeker, or for the speculator that wants to make a quick piece of money, at only $100 each in this sale, and only $10 down and $10 monthly.

Lackland addition has grown more in the past six months and is growing faster today with more new homes in actual construction than any addition to Ranger. Lackland addition is in the industrial part of Ranger and lot investments will always be good.

Call at Lackland addition home office on Lackland Ave. and Tiffin highway and let us show you these lot discharged soldiers who will be eligible to vote here without paying poll tax. Bad weather and impassable roads have also kept the voters away from the collector's office, he adds.

CHILLICOTHE, Jan. 31.—Embargo on the Wichita Valley and Fort Worth and Denver railroads will not be lifted until the present congestion is relieved, says a telegram to the traffic department of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, from W. T. Lyler, director, division of operation, U. S. railway administration, Washington, D. C.

Ed P. Byars, traffic manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, believes the situation can be speedily relieved by refusal of the Denver to handle through freight until the local situation has been relieved. Through traffic is alleged as a cause of the present serious congestion on the Missouri, Kansas & Texas from Waco to Stamford and Rotan.

Big Demand in San Saba Field for Drill Contracts

Special to The Times.
RICHLAND SPRINGS, Texas, Jan. 30.—An increased demand for drilling contracts in the San Saba field has resulted from the recent announcement that this county would pay a $20,000 bonus for the first 300-barrel well completed in the field.
While no noticeable advance in the price being paid for leases has yet occurred, there is a clamor for good acreage in this neighborhood. Numerous offers have been received during the past week from drilling companies wanting to put down deep tests in payment for acreage. One party left here this week after blocking out a large tract. A location has been made, it was learned, but will not be announced until later.

"GO WEST, YOUNG WOMAN, GO WEST," SAY THESE TWO SCHOOLGIRLS WHO TRIED IT and Linda Schroeder, both of New York City, and both real farmerettes. When the call came for three girls to go out to the far agricultural west to start the first farmerette unit in Nebraska these were the first to volunteer. They spent over three months on a huge 4,000 acre farm, plowing, harrowing, pitching hay, mowing, and driving binders. They spent at least ten hours on the field and took entire care of their horses. Despite the hard work the girls are longing for the freedom of the plains and they can scarcely wait until the summer comes when they will return to the ranch.

In East Northfield, Mass., two young schoolgirls are trying hard to master mathematics, languages and economics and a few other academic subjects, but all of the time their minds are centered on a large sunny ranch in Nebraska. The girls are struggling valiantly with examinations so that they will be ready as soon as the year is up to go out to Horsehoe ranch, for either one would be heartbroken if compelled to stay in the east and attend summer school.

STEPS TAKEN TO FORM BASEBALL LEAGUE HERE

A very enthusiastic meeting was held here Friday for the purpose of organizing a professional baseball league in Ranger. Several of Ranger's most prominent business men were present.
The organization will probably be known as the West Texas League. It will be composed of the following cities: Abilene, Eastland, Ranger, and Mineral Wells. At the last moment they may decide to include the cities of Cisco and Sweetwater. It is expected that Walter Morris, president of the Texas league, will be present at the next meeting Friday, February 6, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, at the Ranger Chamber of Commerce. This meeting will be for the purpose of effecting the permanent organization of this league. Mr. Morris promises to give the meeting the benefit of his long experience and knowledge of professional baseball.
Those present at the meeting Friday afternoon were W. T. Wheeler, of West Texas, who is acting as organization manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce; S. D. Hunter, ranchman and oil man, who is representing Abilene; Dr. R. H. Hodges, president of the Ranger Chamber of Commerce; P. Learned and George Hemmingson, and W. H. McCullough, Formerly Chief Justice Court of Civil Appeals, Amarillo, Texas, offers his services as Consulting and Advisory Counsel. Office at present in First National Bank P. O. EXPRESS AGENT VOICES HOPE FOR NEW BLDG.

Hope for an adequate and convenient building to house the business of the American Railway Express company, and assurance of a city delivery system for the company as soon as streets in this city become passable, was voiced today by Agent Steffens of the express company.

"We did plan to establish a city delivery system the first of this year," stated Mr. Steffens, "but the condition of the streets was so bad that we decided to wait until weather conditions improve and streets are in better shape. As soon as is feasible, we will put in a delivery system here."

"I am not in a position to say positively when we will get into a new building, but it is possible and even probable that we will secure better quarters within sixty days."

In spite of the handicap of limited space, Mr. Steffens and his corps of assistants have disposed of the enormous Christmas rush of parcels without the necessity of recommending another embargo. The company now accepts all express shipments except less-carload lots of household furniture and office fixtures.

Explorer Trying to Get Back to U. S.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 31.—Joseph F. Bernard, explorer and former resident of Los Angeles, is returning from the North American channel, according to word just received here, after an unsuccessful effort for three years to force his way from the Pacific to the Atlantic ocean, north of the American continent.

Bernard has twice defied the ice fields in a ten-ton schooner, the Teddy Bear, accompanied by only one man. On his first trip in 1908 he went to the Siberian coast and was absent for nearly five years. His assistant died on this voyage and the explorer sailed his boat to the ice fields alone.

In 1915 he again sailed north in the Teddy Bear, this time in the hope of drifting from the Pacific to the Atlantic. Recently David H. Hurley, a friend of Bernard here, received word that the Teddy Bear had been sighted by natives near Banksland and that Bernard was once again headed south, apparently unable to negotiate the passage between the two oceans.

Griffin Defeats "Zulu Kid" in 12 Rounds at Ft. Worth

Special to The Times. FORT WORTH, Jan. 31.—Dick Griffin administered a severe beating to "Zulu Kid" of Brooklyn, New York, in twelve rounds here. Griffin won before a packed house at the Panther City Athletic club.

Brief Texas Notes

AUSTIN, Jan. 31.—Pledges of cooperation in the organization of Keep Fit clubs in Texas high schools for the purpose of educating boys and girls to the dangers and causes of venereal diseases were made by representatives of the Y. M. C. A., the Texas Mothers' Congress and Parent-Teachers' association, the extension services of the University of Texas and the Agricultural and Mechanical college, the state board of education, the state board of health, and organizations of Boy-Scouts. These pledges were made at a two-day conference upon the subject which recently closed here. Several negro educators participated in the conference and proposed to direct the work among their race.

Immediate arrangements were made by the bureau of venereal diseases of the state health department to begin organization of the clubs, in separate divisions, for boys and girls, in the high schools of the state.

The conference also recommended that the "Keeping Fit" exhibit of the state health department, which consists of posters, motion pictures and slides, be displayed so as to reach pupils of every high school in the state.

A new low record for bankrupt petitions in the Austin district was set in 1919, according to the federal district clerk, whose records show only thirteen petitions filed.

The nearest approach to this record was in 1918, when sixteen petitions came in. Indications are that 1920 will not show such good conditions, as three petitions have already come to the clerk.

R. F. Thomson of El Paso, speaker of the last house of representatives, has announced that he will open his active campaign for nomination as Democratic candidate for governor about the middle of February.

Approximately 1,200 requisitions for text-books are being held up because trustees have not filed the bonds required by the free text-book law, according to information from the state department of education, and books will not be forwarded until the bonds are provided.

Robert Blunt, a negro who is serving a life term in the penitentiary, will have won his freedom by his bravery on the fields of France, if recommendations by the board of pardon advisers are carried out by Governor Hobby.

Blunt was sent to the penitentiary in 1907 for the murder of another negro in Liberty county. In 1915 he escaped and when the United States declared war on Germany he joined the army and was sent overseas. He was in several battles and was wounded three times, one eye being shot out. After being cited for bravery he was discharged because of disabilities and returned to Texas where he was recognized and sent back to the penitentiary.

Blunt's application for pardon is signed by the district judge who tried him and the district attorney who tried the case. Four of the jurors also signed the application. Other jurors could not be located. The board has recommended that the governor grant the pardon, and the governor has never rejected a recommendation by the present board.

INTRODUCING—

Our New Styles in Frocks for Spring

Dainty, adorable and delight ful are the styles which fashion has decreed for ladies' wear this spring—and none more beautiful than the designs in Dresses, now on view at our store.

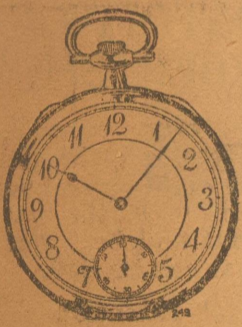

Exquisite frocks in georgette and taffetas suitable for afternoon or evening wear. With the profusion of puffs and taffetas and pleatings that make the new designs so popular this spring.

Among the noticeable new features are the one-sided skirt elaborations; the short sleeves, the Bolero effects, the shortened skirt lengths, and the new expanded hip line. Lace beaded materials form the trimming.
