MUSIC REGARDED A SAVING POWER FOR THE NATION

National President of Federated Music Clubs Stresses Harmony.

WICHITA FALLS, May 4.—The opening address of the state convention of Texas Federation of Music Clubs was delivered Wednesday night at the First Baptist church by Mrs. John F. Lyons of Fort Worth, president of the National Federation of Music Clubs. Mrs. Lyons was one of the founders of the Texas Federation of Music Clubs, and for many years secretary of the national organization before being elected to the presidency, which position she has filled most ably. Her subject was "Making America Musical," and she declared that music is a power that will do more for national and world peace than politics can ever accomplish.

Music is Stabilizer.
"We are living in a speed-mad age that is fast carrying America to her doom. In this age of reaction against all ethical rules of life we are in need of a strong stabilizer that will keep the youth of the nation as well as the older people from racing on to a swift end. The stabilizer that will tend to balance the lives of a war-torn people and steady the social unrest in America is music. I believe that the spirit of music alone can bring this country back to peaceful normalcy."

"It is the object of music clubs the nation over to cure music illiteracy," said Mrs. Lyons. "The clubs are not fads or fancies—music has come to stay in America and the clubs are the forerunners of what will follow later. America is not yet a musical nation, for the greater part of the people never are privileged to hear musicians of note or to become acquainted with music. Music is being realized as a civic asset and its purpose is not selfish for those who are members of the clubs."

"Less than 25 per cent of all American children have musical training," the speaker said. "This is a condition that must be remedied. The three ways in which the clubs are doing this are: First, by making music a power in the public schools; second, by organizing junior clubs; and third, by putting music in reach of the industrial classes."

Must Train Children.
"When plans for making America musical were first laid we planned to educate the grown people. We found that we began at the wrong end. We have come to realize that we must train the children if we are to give music its place here. Music, therefore, should be the basis of education and an established lesson in all schools. The fundamental purpose of education is to learn to make the most of this life, prepare for the next, and music alone can give one the life lesson."

"Music will stop war," said Mrs. Lyons. "I do not mean that singing will stop fighting, but I do believe that music in song and in the souls of people is the only power that will stop strife. Statesmen may frame leagues and sign treaties, but until they learn to feel music within them there will be no peace."

Musical Numbers.
Proceeding and following Mrs. Lyons' lecture musical numbers were given by members of the Wichita Falls Music Club. The Choral club sang several selections that met with favor, while the Ensemble Players of the Music Club were applauded strongly following their violin selections.

The morning session, which opened the convention, was presided over by the state president, Mrs. James Hambrick of Tyler, and the meeting was featured with addresses of welcome, greetings and reports from the various officers and a splendid program by the Fine Arts club of the high school.

An address on "Musical Education in Public Schools, Colleges and Universities of Texas" by Dr. Frank L. Reed, Austin, president of the Texas Music Teachers' association, and professor of music, University of Texas was a feature of the afternoon session at 3:30 o'clock after which at 4:30 a twilight organ recital was given by Hugh McAmis, second grand prix d'orgue; fellow of the American Guild of Organists; organist and choirmaster, Beck Memorial church, New York City.

Thursday evening a program was given by Texas artists at the church.

Need Army Flyers Feel Concerned by Technical Ruling?

WASHINGTON, May 4.—The headquarters of the American Aeronautical society announced today that because of a technicality it could not fully recognize the record of the non-stop, transcontinental flight of Lieutenants Oakley Kelly and John A. MacReady, between Mitchell field, New York, and San Diego.

It was explained that the regulations of the association require that in official tests the plane must return to its original base.

SAME SORT OF FOLKS IN WORLD AS YEARS AGO

President of Baylor Says Present Attitude Toward Life More Wholesome.

By RICHARD S. FREEMAN, United Press Staff Correspondent.

DALLAS, May 4.—The youth of today is no worse than the youth of two decades ago.

The same sort of people make up the world. Churches may vary; teachings, preaching and the attitude toward life may change; truth, never. The present generation of youth is substantially the same as the past.

"This is the opinion vouchsafed in an interview by Dr. S. P. Brooks, who has presided over Baylor university at Waco, Texas, for the past 21 years.

"The use of rouge, lipstick and other modern accessories to a woman's make-up should certainly cause no great uproar or belief that the university girl is headed toward destruction," declared Dr. Brooks.

"I have heard charges that university students are bad and unwholesome. These allegations are based upon the changes in styles and customs, surely. Some people say that life or human nature is unchangeable; I would not go that far.

"I would say that styles and customs enter into the activities of life. Life, if it varies, does so by such a slow process that no radical change, or, in fact no change could be noted in 20 years.

"According to my honest opinion, nowhere can be found a cleaner, more wholesome line of thought or attitude toward life than in the present day university life. And university life of today is to university life of yesterday as life today is to the life of yesterday.

"From my observations, compared with the past, the attitude toward life is substantially the same. It simply manifests itself in different ways."

CHILD CARRIED AWAY BY AIRPLANE IS CLAIM

MEXICO CITY, May 4.—Charles R. Parmalee of Los Angeles, said to be implicated in the kidnaping of his infant son, Charles, from a children's home at Tacubaya, a suburb of this city, has been granted immunity from prosecution for 72 hours so that he may appear in court and defend the suit against him.

The hiding place of the child, who is said to have been taken to Guatemala by airplane, has not been revealed.

The child had been placed in the home until court proceedings between Parmalee and his former wife, Esther Black Parmalee, for possession of the child, had been decided.

FIREMEN TO COMPETE FOR HANDSOME TROPHY

SAN ANGELO, May 4.—A handsome trophy will be awarded the team winning the championship in the water fight events at the fifth annual convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce here on the afternoon of May 23. The winning team may hold the trophy until contested for at the next convention of the organization.

The water fights are open to teams of firemen from towns affiliated with the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. All contestants are required to register at convention headquarters. Chief Parker of the San Angelo fire department has charge of the fights.

APPROPRIATION BILLS PASSING VERY SLOWLY

Lawmakers Seem as Reluctant to Act on Them as on Tax Measures.

AUSTIN, May 4.—With not one of the appropriation bills passed, and only 10 days remaining of the present session, a third session of the Thirty-eighth legislature appears inevitable, unless the present procedure is speeded up.

The judiciary appropriation bill will be the only measure passed, according to present indications. That measure is now in free conference.

The best chance of the appropriation bills to pass the legislature is for the house to substitute for its bills and without consideration appropriation bills already passed in the senate. This is unlikely, according to a member of the house appropriation committee.

The senate has succeeded in passing four appropriation bills, the eleemosynary, educational, judiciary and departmental bills, but this will count for naught if the house does not take action on them.

Night sessions would help the situation, but these have seldom been a success in the past, because it has been next to impossible to get a quorum.

Radio Appeals Aid In Rescuing Boy From Kidnappers

SCHNECTADY, N. Y., May 4.—Wireless appeals broadcast over the country aided in the recovery of Cerner Alexanderson, the 6-year-old son of the chief engineer of the Radio Corporation of America, kidnaped from his home here last Monday.

Description of the child, stories of the abduction, appeals by the parents and offers of reward were broadcast by the family, which bore up bravely in the knowledge that invisible waves were reaching far and wide in the search for the child. Radio fans in 48 states and in Canada heard the calls for the child and gave their aid in the search for the little boy lured from his home by promise of a rabbit.

Ferd Jarvis, a boatman at Syracuse, who had heard a description of the missing boy over the radio, recognized him as one he had seen with a man there and notified the police. Within a few hours a happy child was piping over the telephone to his relieved parents.

"I'm alright, I'm alright, and you ought to see my doggie."

The boy is said to have been kidnaped by two men who have fled to Canada. They promised him a bunny, he said, but gave him a dog instead. He had not been ill-treated, he said.

BURKETT HAS HOPES OF ENACTING COURT BILL

AUSTIN, May 4.—An effort to bring up the senate bill which proposes establishment of the Eleventh court of civil appeals at Eastland will be made although Lieutenant Governor Davidson has ruled the measure does not come under the governor's call, Senator Burkett, Eastland county, author of the measure, said today.

The Burkett bill was one of the nine measures ruled out of order by the president of the senate. Burkett said that no question has been raised on the senate floor regarding his bill and until such is done he is of the opinion that the measure is still subject to action.

The bill has not been reported out of the committee. On other measures held not admissible, the committees have taken no action and it is understood that they will not be reported out.

'HENPECKED CLUB'

Yorkshire Organization, Claiming Adam as Founder, Has Its Annual Outing.

By Associated Press
YORKSHIRE, May 4.—The members of the famous Yorkshire organization known as the "Henpecked club" had their "once a year outing" recently.

To an isolated hamlet, miles to the west of Halifax, the president of the club invited his "fellow bondsmen of the scrubbing brush and pail" to gather, and as every member was loyal to his pledge of secrecy, the "henpecked" were not disturbed by the "henpeckers."

The club is counted as the oldest in existence, Adam being claimed as the first member. Every year new members are enrolled, but applicants have to pass a severe test providing absolute proof that on every day in the year except the day of their outing they are "slaves of the apron strings and domestic drudgery."

Teepee Gasser In Pioneer Field To Be Given Shot

Drillers expect to have the J. J. Hand, account No. 2 well of the Texas Pacific Coal & Oil company shot some time today, it was said.

The Ranger offices of the company said that the well is still making an enormous showing of gas, probably 12,000,000 cubic feet. It has not been drilled any deeper since it began making this gas. It is now 1,957 feet. The well is 12 miles north of Ranger.

The company's well at Stop No. 3, Pioneer, which came in more than two weeks ago is standing up well, a company official said. The daily production is around 125 barrels.

The robberies were staged simultaneously.

HOUSE ADVANCES EQUALIZATION TAX MEASURE

Quo Warranto Bill Killed in Senate Along With Chiropractic Bill.

AUSTIN, May 4.—Without discussion the Lackey tax equalization bill was engrossed by the house today by a 66 to 41 vote. An amendment to the bill provides that the state tax board shall not raise the level of property in the state above the present values.

Speaker Seafiler today asked the house to speed up work, pointing out the shortness of the present session.

The Burkett bill creating a court of civil appeals at Eastland was passed by the senate today without a record vote.

The McMillin chiropractic bill, seeking to establish a chiropractic licensing board in Texas, was on the recommendation of the public health commission reported unfavorably by a unanimous vote.

Final defeat of the Patterson quo warranto bill, which would remove public officials from office for failing to enforce the laws was made in the senate, when the committee by a vote of nine to one adopted an unfavorable report.

The senate had on its calendar for today, the primary election and motor vehicle common carriers' bills for consideration.

LAW PROPOSED TO KEEP MILK FREE OF ANY FALSE CONTENT

AUSTIN, May 4.—Introduction of the bill which seeks to prohibit the sale of milk which has been treated so as to show a greater amount of cream than it actually contains, resulted from reports that one dairy in each of the larger cities of the state has obtained the right to use the process, according to Representative D. S. Davenport, of San Antonio, author of the measure.

The cream and butter fat is extracted from the milk, treated and then remixed, Davenport said it was reported to him. The result is that the cream line is much larger and customers are urged to purchase the milk for that reason.

The Davenport bill specifically prohibits the sale or offering for sale under penalty of milk which has been thus treated. A similar bill was offered in the senate by Senator Ridgeway of San Antonio but was ruled out of order and under the governor's call by Lieutenant Governor Davidson.

TEXAS PIONEER FREIGHTERS PLAN TO HOLD REUNION

SAN ANTONIO, May 4.—The days of the old West when long trains of white-topped wagons drawn by slow-moving oxen crept along the plains of West Texas and stout hearted pioneers braved the dangers of Indians, cattle rustlers and "bad men" to establish homes in the new territory, will be reflected in the fourth annual meeting of Pioneer Freighters which will be held here for three days beginning May 18.

Real, grisley old pioneers, men who piloted the white-capped caravans, some of those who drove lumbering oxen over hundreds of miles of uninhabited territory, old stage drivers and pony mail riders, all will gather to swap yarns of the West that has gone. Each one will strive to outdo the other in his tales of holdups, Indian massacres, stampedes and the other handicaps that went to make the old West so interesting to read about.

The Pioneer Freighters were organized March 11, 1920, with 11 members. Since then, however, the membership has grown until now nearly 100 names are included in the list.

The Pioneers have invited members of the Grand Army of the Republic and of the Confederate Veterans to attend the meeting, participate in the entertainment and live again for three days the life of a pioneer.

CONTRACT FOR TEXT-BOOKS MAY NOT BE VALID

Joint Legislative Committee Suggests That State Determine Question.

AUSTIN, May 4.—In making its report to the legislature, the joint committee appointed at the regular session of the Thirty-eighth legislature to investigate the text-book awards made last December, today recommended that state officials whose duty it was to pay out monies for fulfillment of the contract be authorized to withhold any payment until the validity of the action of the text-book commission was established.

They also recommended that the attorney general be requested to notify the legislature at once if he would bring suit testing the validity of the contract.

The committee reported they found a number of discrepancies in the action of the commission in organizing and in executing their express duty under the law governing the powers of the commission. It was found they did not as a commission execute the bonds of the book companies in their bidding and that the chairman of the commission did not execute his bond properly.

Suggests American Unable to Keep French Ships From Bringing Liquor Here.

PARIS, France, May 4.—Premier Poincaire of France is of the opinion that the United States supreme court ruling prohibiting foreign vessels from carrying liquor into American waters is an interference with international traffic and that it will be impossible for France to comply with it, according to a semi-official statement today.

Strawn Golfers Coming Sunday To Play Golfers Here

S. H. Rhett, secretary of the Ranger Country club, has written for the names of the golfers who will come here Sunday afternoon from Strawn, representing the country club of that locality.

If the Strawn club sends 12 men here, the Ranger club officials wish to make certain there are 12 of their men present on the greens for the test of strength. If one side has more players present than the other, it is fairly certain the side with the most players will send their best golfers into the fray. Dr. C. C. Craig, chairman of the tournament committee, said he wishes to guard against an occurrence of this kind both at home and abroad, in which Ranger would be bested because of a lack of players.

The Sunday match will start at 1 o'clock.

DRY AGENTS STRETCH "STOP" SIGN ACROSS ROAD

HOUSTON, May 4.—When tourists returning from Galveston or other bayshore points see a big white sign stretched across the road they had better stop. This is the warning of prohibition officers here who have concealed a novel method of stopping automobiles suspected of carrying liquor.

The pro agents have a huge sign reading "Federal Prohibition Officers" which is stretched across the road as the suspected liquor car approaches.

To run over the sign, constitutes a violation of federal law, according to the officers.

So far no resistance has been encountered and excellent results in the form of arrests and bottled refreshments have been obtained.

The Rotarians appointed J. T. Gullahorn chairman of their baseball committee, and he has been working to put a team in the field.

HIS DEATH STIRS ENTIRE NATION

Martin Tabert.

The death of Martin Tabert, a Munich, N. D., youth, in a Florida lumber camp, has stirred the entire nation. Tabert was arrested for stealing a ride on a train and sentenced to six months imprisonment. His parents sent the money to pay his fine, but it was returned and the boy returned to a lumber company; then he became ill. He could not work as fast as the other prisoners, and he was lashed. Convicts say he died of the whipping, and Whipping Boss Higginbotham has been indicted for his murder. The legislature of North Dakota took up the case, with the result that Florida will probably abolish flogging and the leasing of prisoners to corporations.

Another Fond Tradition Blasted "Pocahontas" Only a Nickname

NEW YORK, May 4.—What was the name of the Indian princess of early colonial days who saved Captain John Smith from execution? "Pocahontas," would be the answer from almost every American school child versed in American history.

And "wrong" would be the retort of E. H. Leech, of Greenwich, Conn., who has started a movement to have history textbooks altered in their stories of America's most famous native princess.

Stirred by recent reports of a search in London for the Indian princess' grave for the purpose of having her body brought home after nearly three centuries, Mr. Leech made a study of old historical sources and says he has found that "Pocahontas" was merely the nickname or "little name" coined by her father, in a moment of tenderness. It means "little tomboy." The princess' real name, Mr. Leech declares, was "Matoaka."

Of more than a dozen prominent educators whom Mr. Leech wrote concerning his discovery, it was news to all save one, he said. The one was Harris Hart, superintendent of public instruction of the state of Virginia, who wrote Mr. Leech that Pocahontas had been recognized by her real name of "Matoaka" in her native state, although most folk even there clung to the diminutive "Pocahontas."

Among the authorities Mr. Leech cites is a document written in the script of William Strachey, secretary of the Virginia colony, who arrived with Lord Delaware in 1610. He wrote:

"Pocahontas, of Matoaka, the daughter of Powhattan, is married to a discrete English gentleman, Master Rolfe, after she had renounced idolatry and been baptized."

Strachey added that Pocahontas was the "little name" given to children in accordance with an old Indian custom, although she was called Ma-

Cole went to the office of Justice J. N. McFatter, pleaded guilty to an affray, and paid a fine of $12.95 for his part in the affray.

Mr. Leech also cited the inscription on a painting by Simon de Passe, done shortly after she had made her triumphal entry into England in 1616 as John Rolfe's wife. The inscription reads:

"Matoaka, alias Rebecca (her baptismal name), daughter of the powerful prince Powhattan, Emperor of the Virginias."

POLICE CHIEF HAS NO PATH OF ROSES OR BED OF EASE FOR HIS DUTIES ARE MANY AND VARIED

How would you like to be a representative of the Travelers' aid, juvenile officer, a harmonizer in domestic relations, chief of police, arbitrator of quarrels and everything else that most everybody else hasn't a hankering to be?

"Not afraid to tackle anything," says one man, self-confident and buoyant.

"Suppose," one can hear Chief O. V. Davenport saying, "that he sit in for one day."

And taking a page from the diary of Ranger's chief of police, it would read something like this:

Enters a woman, inquiring for the police chief. "May I see you privately, Mr. Davenport?"

"Yes, ma'am," the chief replies.

Then she unfolds the old, old story of the man, who said he would be her protector for life, but alas, his memory is short. This particular woman had two children, and they needed food, clothing and they were in school, but their normal life was being interfered with. The father was untrue to his promises. The money that rightfully belonged to his own children, his wife, was being squandered for a woman that meant nothing to him.

The woman begs that something be done. What can the state do? "Vag" him. Ah, yes, but the fine only takes away money that rightfully belongs to his children. If he is blind to reasoning, he will regularly have a "vag" charge against him. The chief concludes with the promise to attempt to reach the man's better side.

Mother Appeals.
The chief saunters easily up Austin street. Along comes a mother. She knows him.

"I wish you'd talk to my little girl," says the mother with a catch in her voice. "She runs off to town, won't say where she has been—and I'm afraid."

Yes, the chief had seen this girl on the street. Perhaps he had wondered at the parents' indifference, neglect.

The best thing to do, the chief thinks as he turns it over in his mind, is to watch for her when she gets downtown and take her to her mother's home and have "it out" with mother and daughter. And he does. The girl—and this one is only 13 years of age—turns her head, for the chief talked plain on the evil consequences of bad company.

Finally, Ranger's police head reaches the Texas & Pacific railroad station. He looks over the incoming crowd of train passengers. "Ranger has a gate that is spelled g-a-i-t," Mayor Hodges told the Austin lawmakers at the Saturday luncheon. The chief, too, believes the city has speed, but the word, gate, in carrying out his duties has a double meaning—"welcome to the desirable citizen, but 'beat it,' Mr. Good-for-Nothing."

So, he must needs give everyone a "onceover" as the familiar phrase has it. And this calls for tact, discrimination. Dope peddlers must be singled out from the crowd; swindlers must be given the "gate."

Sick Youth Helped.

Two youths get off a night train. They hail from Ohio. California is their goal. But the youngest is deathly sick. Canned goods, exposure of something is overcoming his resistance. And between them, there is exactly $1.21. Loyal to his pal, the oldest one says the money is for his sick comrade. The chief takes the sick boy to the city physician. He must rest here for several days. He lacks nourishment, the physician concludes. Down into his pocket the chief reaches, that the pinch for necessities won't start the youths on a road of crime.

And the day seldom ends without a dispute in some part of the city between neighbor and neighbor. Maybe it's over chickens, or the trespassing of children, or misunderstanding, or just a little "back fence gossip." To the chief, the person with a "grievance" looks for redress. "Seems to me," mused the reporter, "keeping order and peace in this or any town is a side issue or what a sideshow is to a circus tent, compared with being an arbitrator of a neighborhood quarrel, a juvenile officer and all the rest of Ranger's chief of police "unofficial titles."

BIBLE THOUGHT HOW TO CONQUER AN ENEMY—When a man's ways please the Lord, he maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him.—Proverbs 16:7.

FEMALE OF THE SPECIES. "For the female of the species is more deadly than the male." Rudyard Kipling sounded a great truth when he wrote that line. It has been proved in many instances, not only when defense of the young is required but equally in defense of the home and the community. Arouse the women of a community, of a state, of a nation to action and they will get results.

The women of the country have inaugurated a boycott against the rising prices of sugar. They will use as little sugar as may be possible until the profiteers and speculators are driven from the market places. Commenting on this the New York World says:

"The people of the United States learned a great deal during the war about voluntary rationing in the use of the necessities of life. After the war, in self-defense but without organization, they carried through a very effective buyers' strike. During the last three months they have had every provocation, because of the outrageous way in which the price of sugar has been manipulated, to reopen the war on profiteering.

"The public has patiently waited for the administration to do something more than make promises. It has watched Mr. Harding cautiously walking around the sugar question and trusting to the tariff commission to provide him with a pretext for not reducing the Fordney-McCumber tariff rate on sugar. It has been entertained by the spectacle of Attorney General Daugherty's applying for another of his famous injunctions. And the price of sugar has steadily mounted.

"But now that the women are taking the matter in hand, something may be done. For the American housewife, when she sets out to regulate her domestic expenditures and rebuke profiteering, is a very practical person. She simply quits buying and cuts down the regular allowance for articles of food that are unreasonably priced. She is not interested, like an Old Guard politician, in trying to prove how high tariff makes and does not make prices higher. She goes on strike.

"It has been done before, and if American women undertake to do it again they will furnish a demonstration of the power they wield. A consumers' strike was not any part of the program of the administration, but it is likely to accomplish what Mr. Harding lacked the courage to attempt."

The former kaiser objects seriously to members of his family discussing his personal affairs. Perhaps their remarks have been too personal.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Lord Cecil failed to convince Borah of the advantages of the League of Nations, but both at the outset knew he would.—Indianapolis Star.

March broke all records for manufacture of automobiles and all of them seem to be out on the roads already.—Pittsburgh Gazette-Times.

Brass Helmet of Explorer Magellan, 400 Years Old, Found in Philippines

AN American army officer, Major H. D. Selton, has just purchased from a Moro chieftain the brass helmet worn by the explorer Magellan in 1521 when he was killed in the Philippines after realizing only a part of his ambition to be the first to encircle the globe. The helmet has been handed down from generation to generation in the families of the Moro chieftains, and its authenticity is vouched for by priests in the Ilijan and Parang districts.

Ringold, urges that Ranger be represented at the annual state firemen's convention at San Marcos, May 8, 9 and 10, in the person of the city's fire marshal. Ranger has no specially designated man as fire marshal, although the duties of this office have, in the past, been taken care of by the Ranger fire chief. "If he has served your city well," Mr. Tilley wrote, "in the way of removing hazards and otherwise keeping insurance rates reduced to a minimum, he has performed a service worthy of consideration."

ELEPHANTS STAGE DUEL TO THE DEATH

TEN AMERICAN GOLFERS INVADE GREAT BRITAIN

By HENRY L. FARRELL, United Press Sports Editor.

NEW YORK, May 4.—Ten of America's good amateur golfers are now in England preparing to go after the Walker international cup and the British amateur title. Chances are very good for an American victory in both events.

Joe Kirkwood the Australian star, says that one of the 10 should win the amateur title, and he looks upon Jess Sweetser, the Yale star and American champion as the probable winner. Kirkwood established himself as a good picker last year when he said that Walter Hagen would win the British open title.

If Sweetser or one of his teammates should come out first in the tournament it would mean the passing from the Britishers of the last important title that has been saved from the invading sport army of Uncle Sam. Since 1904, when W. J. Travis won the championship, the Britishers have always produced some home-talent capable of beating the best in this country.

Jack Hutchison and Walter Hagen put the American pro game in the ascendancy in 1921 and 1922 when they won the British open championship, and with Hagen and Gene Sarazen leading the American invasion this year it seems almost certain that another American victory will result.

Babe Ruth, in the opinion of Irish Meusel, the hard-hitting Giant outfielder, will hit 60 homers this season. The Giant star also ventures the prediction that his brother, Bob, the Yankee outfielder, will smack out about 40. Bob, the older brother says, has cut out his foolishness and will step out this year like the good ball player that he has always given promise of becoming. It has been common belief ever since Bob came up to the big league that he would become a great star just as soon as he made up his mind to do it.

BIG SPRING—A long distance weed cutting contest is to be staged in Big Spring. The contest will serve to beautify the city and also as an endurance contest. Rules similar to those governing marathon dancing will be adopted, according to those sponsoring the affair. The contest will be open to men, women and children and suitable prizes will be awarded. Other Texas towns will be challenged for the record in weed-cutting.

American Red Cross Starts Campaign to Diminish Water Tragedies in U. S.

© International News Reel
Miss Sophie Bush, 16, of Dubuque, Ia., who recently hung up a record of swimming 12 miles in the Mississippi. She is one of 6,000 women members of the Red Cross Life-Saving Corps.

Upper—The crack Jacksonville, Fla., Red Cross Life-Saving Corps which has many rescues to its credit. Center (standing) is Commodore W. E. Longfellow, national field agent of the corps.

Lower—Red Cross Life-Saving experts at Long Pond, Plymouth, Mass., giving instruction in modern methods of resuscitation of persons rescued from the water.

WITH the swimming and boating season already starting up in some sections of the country, the American Red Cross, through its Life-Saving Corps, is inaugurating an intensive campaign to lower the appalling loss of life in the United States through drowning. Statistics it has compiled show that in 1921, 6,489 men, women and children died in the waters of the United States through accidents, while during the last ten years the total of such deaths has reached almost 60,000.

The means by which the Red Cross will carry on its fight against water accidents will be extension of the Life-Saving instruction it provides through its own experts or fosters through community Life-Saving campaigns. Already 439 Red Cross Chapters in continental United States are providing Life-Saving instruction, and it is purposed to greatly increase the number.

In particular will the Red Cross strive to reach the children. Of the more than 27,000 certificated Life-Savers enrolled in the Red Cross Life-Saving Corps, 10,000 are Juniors and a quota of 21,000 additional Junior Life-Savers has been set.

In addition to instruction provided through its Chapters, the Red Cross will conduct two large Life-Saving Institutes for the instruction of those in charge of boys' and girls' summer camps and others. These institutes will be held at Long Pond, Plymouth, Mass., and Lake Geneva, Wis., not far from Chicago.

In a message to the Chapters, Judge John Barton Payne, Chairman of the American Red Cross, says:

"Too many preventable drownings occur annually. The total of 58,429 during the ten years ended with 1921 is appalling. The Red Cross is exercising one of its charter functions along lines of intense practicality in the campaign of Life-Saving which it has inaugurated, and I invoke the hearty aid of Chapter workers in carrying it to a successful conclusion."

METHODISTS IN SUNDAY SCHOOLS TOTAL 4,918,194

CHICAGO, May 4.—There was 4,918,194 Methodist Episcopal Sunday school members enrolled in 36,181 Sunday schools of that denomination during 1922, according to a report of the Methodist Episcopal Sunday School Board just made public here. More than 400,000 officers and teachers were engaged in the work among this army of pupils.

Last year these Sunday schools contributed $1,772,121 to the missionary work of the church, the report states. This was 88 per cent of the total $2,000,000 asked of them.

The board, however, considers the record in evangelism the really remarkable part of the report, inasmuch as 187,254 Sunday school pupils joined the church during the year. This number is 69,247 greater than the entire net increase in church membership reported in the Methodist year book, the report says. "Without these accessions," it continues, "the church would have suffered a considerable loss in membership."

Last year 1,577 new teacher training classes were established with a membership of 18,422 in correspondence courses and 6,613 examinations were given, the report continues. During the year 228 institutes or group meetings were held, carrying training to 12,905 attendees. This department of teacher training reports that during last year 36,969 students were receiving training of some sort.

The report concludes: "Believing that the Sunday session of the church school alone does not avail to provide adequate religious education for American youth, the Board of Sunday Schools is aggressively entering the field of week-day religious education. Last year 136 daily vacation schools with an enrollment of 41,490 and 46 week-day schools of religion with an enrollment of 2,551 were established."

GRAND JURY TO PROBE INTO DEATH OF STUDENT

CHICAGO, Ill., May 4.—A grand jury investigation into the death of Leighton Mount, Northwestern university freshman whose skeleton was found in a Lake Michigan pier, was practically assured today. The university trustees adopted a resolution joining J. L. Mounts, father of the boy alleged to have been slain in a hazing episode, in demanding such a probe.

Legislators See Another Session Looming Just Ahead

AUSTIN, May 4.—The third week of the special session of the legislature finds few of the important measures finally enacted. Of all the appropriation and revenue measures which have been introduced, only one, the judiciary appropriation bill, has passed both houses of the legislature.

The House of representatives have progressed considerably on enactment of revenue and law enforcement measures while the Senate has spent its time dealing with appropriation bills. Two general appropriation bills—educational and judiciary—have been placed on final passage in the senate. The educational measure will be up for consideration this week in the house. The eleemosynary and departmental bills are on the senate calendar today.

Accomplishments of the house during the two weeks include passage of the following measures: Paterson quo warranto bill, Coffee gross oil production tax bill, Bell liquor bill making possession of intoxicating liquor prima facie evidence of guilt, Patman intangible assets tax bill, Smith inheritance tax bill, Abney hotel bill and Bonham delinquent land tax bill.

With the session under constitutional limitation half over Tuesday, several members today expressed opinions that a third special session will be necessary to carry out the governor's revenue and law enforcement program.

This will go far toward determining the length of the legislative work. The senate is expected to dispose of the remaining two general appropriation bills early this week and then will begin on revenue and law enforcement measures. Of outstanding importance will be the Patterson quo warranto bill, and Coffee oil production tax measure, both of which are on the senate calendar for consideration. The Bell liquor bill is also on the calendar.

PRESBYTERIAN GENERAL ASSEMBLY TO MEET

The general assembly of the Presbyterian church of America will meet in Indianapolis, May 17 to May 24. Dr. Harry Laity Bowlby, head of the Lord's Day Alliance will make his final report as secretary of the Presbyterian Permanent committee of Sabbath observance, this committee having been merged with the board of education. Dr. Bowlby, a native of Asbury, N. J., has been threatened with death because of his efforts at Sunday enforcement. One of the distinguished commissioners to the assembly is Dr. John Willis Baer, a financier of Pasadena, Cal., formerly of Boston, who is the only layman who ever held the office of moderator in the church. For the first time since he became general secretary of the Presbyterian New Era movement, Dr. William Hiram Foulkes, of New York, is commissioner and as such is said to be slated for moderator. Mrs. Charles K. Roys, of China, will report on the women's boards of the church. Dr. Charles Scanlon, general secretary of the Presbyterian board of temperance and moral welfare, will urge censorship of motion pictures. Dr. William P. Schell, home secretary for the board, will report on work in Africa, India, China, Japan and Korea. Dr. John M. Gaston, of Pittsburgh, general secretary of the board of freedmen, will tell of his work for educating negroes. Dr. Harold M. Robinson, general secretary of the board of publication and Sabbath school work, will make his annual report. Dr. William F. Weir, of Chicago, will make his report as general secretary of the permanent committee of men's work. Dr. John A. Marquis, general secretary, will report for the board of home missions.

Adobe Again Coming Into Popular Use for Walls of Dwelling Houses

EL PASO, May 4.—Many residents of this state are wondering whether King Tutankhamen may not have lived in structures made of adobe, the material so familiar to those who live in this part of the country. The style of architecture has changed much but a large number of residents have found what they believe the material itself to be the same.

According to historical facts brought to light on the subject, the Israelites were among the earliest users of adobe. Some historians however claim that adobe was first chopped out of the baked ooze of the Euphrates River, 10,000 years ago.

Adobe was used in building the tower of Babel, the Chinese Wall, the Mount of Cholula in the state of Puebla, Mexico, and in thousands of other buildings, temples and cities which have long ago passed beyond recognition.

The Babylonians, Assyrians and Egyptians, historians say, were the first to adopt the adobe as building material for houses in preference to caves. Since then, these chroniclers say, adobe has been used by various civilizations wherever the earth was suitable for its manufacture.

This county has a number of adobe homes that are worth $20,000 apiece. These however are not solid adobe, but adobe was used for walls. Brick and concrete were also used but the thick adobe walls are preferred because they resist heat and cold. There are many $10,000 and $5,000 adobe homes and of course hundreds upon hundreds of little homes made of adobe almost entirely. Some old churches of this section built entirely of adobe some 200 years ago, are still standing.

While there are a dozen adobe manufacturers here, where the earth is suitable for its construction, yet in numerous instances men have been found to buy a lot and make their own adobe from the earth on their own ground.

SUMMER CALLS FOR AMPLE SUPPLY OF SODA POP

Rangerites will consume close to 500,000 bottles of pop this year, if last year's figures can be used as a basis in this sort of estimation.

Eighteen thousand cases of soda water were sold last year by the Orth Bottling works, now owned and operated by the Texas Coca-Cola Bottling works, according to Andrew Orth, former owner, who is removing to his native state, Ohio, about May 14. There are 24 bottles to the case, which therefore makes 432,000 bottles. Mr. Orth said there were some shipments of bottled soda from outside points last summer in addition, although of a small volume.

The late spring and consequent shortening of the hot season will materially cut down the consumption of pop this year. The earlier the warm weather comes, the better the sales. Soda water sales often show life as early as February and March, according to Mr. Orth's experience here the last four years.

Kellogg's Bran May Be Served In Many Delicious Ways

Some say there is "nothing new under the sun," but the Kellogg Toasted Corn Flake Company is here with recipes to prove that there is no truth in this old adage. Some like to eat bran, as prepared by the Kellogg Company, with their breakfast food. For those who prefer it cooked in various delicious recipes here are several to try:

Bran Porridge.

Bring to a boil 1 cup of milk and 1 cup of water, add 1-2 teaspoonful of salt; 1-4 cup of oatmeal (rolled or other cereal) 1-4 cup of bran. Place in double boiler and boil for 1-2 hour. Serve with sugar and milk or sugar and butter. All water may be used if desired.

Bran Cuddle Cakes.

1 cup Kellogg's Bran, 1 cup flour, 1 tablespoon sugar, 1-2 tablespoon butter, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1 cup milk, 1 egg. Mix dry materials, adding egg slightly beaten and milk and butter. Beat thoroughly and bake on a hot griddle. Serve with butter and syrup. This will make 20 cakes.

Bran Doughnuts.

1-2 cups Kellogg's Bran, 1-2 cups flour, 1 tablespoon butter or lard, 1 egg, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 1-4 cup sugar, 1-2 cup milk, 1 teaspoon salt. Cream butter and sugar. Add egg well beaten. Mix and sift dry ingredients and add to the first mixture. Roll on a floured board. Cut with a doughnut cutter. Fry in very hot deep fat.

Bran Cookies.

1 cup Kellogg's Bran, 1 cup white flour, 1-2 cup graham flour, 2 tablespoons butter or lard, 1 egg, 1 cup sugar, 1-4 cup molasses, 1-2 cup milk. If your grocer does not handle the Kellogg products call the Ranger Daily Times and they will tell you where they may be obtained.

POLICE KEPT BUSY DURING LATTER PART OF APRIL

Fifty-six men and women were booked on various charges at the Ranger police station for the latter half of April. Only a few persons contested the charges in open court. The remaining cases were disposed of by paying the customary fine assessed for the particular complaint.

Vagrancy was the most common complaint, 16 being booked on this charge. Fourteen were alleged to have been gambling, 10 fighting, four drunk, and one driving his car recklessly on the highway. Several persons were held for investigation. One defendant paid a fine of $11.70 for using abusive language.

WIFE-BEATER FINED AND TOLD TO LEAVE RANGER

Brito Reese entered a plea of guilty on a charge of beating his wife with a board, Friday morning, and besides being fined $15.70, was told to leave Ranger and never come back.

Reese was arrested yesterday afternoon following a complaint of a neighbor. Officers Jim Daniels and Jim Ingram who made the arrest, found large welts on the woman's left arm.

The Out Door Art Department of the Woman's Club of Mayfield, Kentucky is arousing the interest and cooperation of civic clubs and other local organizations and planning cooperative planting in their community.

CASOLINE TAX ACT TO BE AMENDED SO AS TO REMEDY DEFECTS

AUSTIN, May 4.—The one-cent gasoline tax bill which has been offered by Representative Cowan of Harris county, as a substitute for the recently enacted gasoline tax bill meets with the approval of many gasoline and oil companies and state officials, according to the author of the measure. The new Cowan bill was offered as a result of the ruling of the attorney general that both wholesalers and retailers are subject to the tax under the terms of the present law. This would result, it is said, in a one-cent tax being placed on a single gallon of gasoline as many as four times in some instances. Under the new bill, the tax will apply to those "refining, compounding, manufacturing, blending or preparing gasoline or its substitutes" for sale. This limits the tax to refiners and importers. The measure is expected to meet with little opposition in the present session.

TERRAPIN WANDERS TO AND FRO UNTIL AUTO STOPS IT

DALLAS, May 4.—A land terrapin, after forty-eight years of wanderings was returned home for the last time recently—dead. While a resident of Ironton, Missouri, back in 1875, A. W. Russell caught the terrapin and after carving his name and the date on its shell released the animal. Three years ago, the terrapin was returned to Russell, now a resident of Dallas. It was then set free in Russell's greenhouse and orchard from which it often escaped always bearing north apparently attempting to work its way back to its old haunts in Missouri. The terrapin escaped for its last time recently when it wandered out into the street. A loud crash. A neighbor of Russell's rushed to the front just in time to see the automobile vassing. In the middle of the street the terrapin lay, its shell smashed to bits. The only piece of any size left was one bearing the carved inscription "1875."

Great Demand For Fordson Tractors In Two Big Fields

Both agriculture and industry are making increasing demands for the Fordson tractor. While the use of the Fordson as a farm implement is extending in every agricultural section of the country as farmers come to realize the advantages and economy of power farming, a most noticeable feature of the sales is the growing use of this sturdy and dependable power plant in industrial and commercial activities. Contractors and builders are everywhere adapting the Fordson to meet their needs for power, either movable or stationary, and road engineers throughout the country are specifying its use with highway construction machinery. To meet this growing demand for Fordson tractors, production is now at capacity and for the first three months of the year reached a total of 27,087, as compared with 8,340 for the same period a year ago.

BURTON-LINGO GROUNDS ARE BEING IMPROVED

All of the buildings and fences of the Burton-Lingo Lumber company, 124 Walnut street, are being painted. A yellow color is being applied by the painters with a red trimming. A row of 15 locust trees put out on North Rusk street in the plot of ground between the sidewalk and street pavement by the company three years ago is now beginning to be conspicuous. The trees have now reached an average height of 12 feet. The Ranger manager of the company, R. S. Balch, said today that the row of trees did not have to be watered more than a half dozen times last summer. Of the entire 15 trees, only two have been backwards. Mr. Balch thinks a plant disease has attacked them. The strong winds have made it necessary to erect short posts for support of some of the less hardy trees.

Those present were, Meses. Lawrence Gunn, L. C. Morris, T. A. Watt, John Hobgood, Clarence Plummer, E. J. Greer, and E. Markland. The next meeting will be with Mrs. H. T. Carpenter.

1920 CLUB WILL HAVE PICNIC IN TWO WEEKS.

Following the program of the 1920 club Thursday afternoon, which was on the education of girls and women, a business meeting was held at which it was decided to have the annual picnic immediately after the next meeting which will be the final session of the year.

The committee on arrangements for the picnic includes Meses. Stubblebine, Dodson, Thurman, L. R. Taylor, Taggart, C. O. Terrell, Vandervoort, C. D. Woods, White, Logsdon, R. H. Hodges, Marston, and Miss Groves.

Mrs. C. O. Terrell, chairman of the vacant lot contest, reported fine progress and the closing of the contest on July first. The garden contest of which Mrs. R. H. Hodges is chairman, is also coming to a close and awards will be made before the end of school. The judges will be R. H. Bush, county agricultural agent, Mayor Hodges, and Mrs. M. H. Hagaman.

All those having books on this year's course which belong to the University library are asked to return them at once to Mrs. O. L. Phillips, as the university is calling for them. A prompt attention to this matter will be a great favor to the chairman and to the library extension department of the university.

Year book committees announced for the next year are: Social, Meses. A. L. Duffer, John Thurman and G. H. Bohning; club Extension, Meses. G. D. Chastain, J. M. Dodson, Rex Outlaw; 1920 club medal, Meses. C. D. Woods, G. K. Taggart, and M. R. Newnam; Membership, Meses. L. A. Vandervoort, J. M. Gholson and O. L. Phillips; Federation Club Counselor, Mrs. A. L. Duffer.

The report of Mrs. C. D. Woods, delegate to the Sixth district convention at Midland was full of valuable recommendations among which were, a county federation for better co-operation; a Sixth district state tax committee, and the setting out of trees on highways and in cities and towns. The sum of money raised last year to send Mrs. Minnie Fisher Cunningham, president of the Sixth district, to the General Federation Convention at Chautauqua, was not used, as Mrs. Cunningham could not go, so has been set aside by the district as a student loan fund. The sixth district has pledged $2,000 during the next two years toward the endowment fund of the General Federation.

The keynote of the club work has been educational, a striking feature of the district convention being the presentation of a prize to the woman who was the best dressed at the least cost.

Boys outnumbered the girls more than two to one, according to birth records filed with Miss E. Lindsey at the Ranger city offices during April. There were 13 boys and five girls born, according to the certificates filed by Ranger physicians. This is a total of 18 births.

This figure does not represent the full total of births, Miss Lindsey said. Some physicians do not record births promptly.

CUERO.—The second unit of the dam over the Guadalupe River here has been completed by the Texas Central Power company. Power is transmitted from this plant to neighboring cities. This is one of the company's big generating stations.

Steady nerves depend on the condition of your Blood

YOU know that! You also know that your loved ones' sympathy and comfort will not correct the cause. Neither can impoverished blood rebuild the body. But you can remedy this condition by restoring your blood to its normal state. Remember, your blood flows through your body—when you are awake and when you are asleep. It's the great body agent which makes life. And when there's life—there's happiness. Stronger and more useful nerves depend on blood-power.

THE WORLD'S GREATEST BAKING POWDER

Saturday Specials

- There is no such thing in the ice business.
- Our service must be right every day and our price must always be fair.
- YOU WOULDN'T BELIEVE IT, BUT—
- We make many deliveries upon which we lose money, not one or two, but many.
- We deliver ice more than eight months out of twelve when we lack a whole lot of breaking even on it.
- The cost of ice to you does not go up in the off-season like the prices of any staple food article, and a "corner" on ice is never heard of.
- We are always glad to serve you, and "with a smile" always. It is our job to serve you ice when you need it. We have a wagon in your neighborhood every day, AND WE DON'T MEAN MAY-BE!
- Hang out the old ice card or call us up and let's get acquainted.
