RANGER COUNCIL K. OF C. IS HOST FOR BANQUETERS

Visiting Clergy and Many Other Guests Make Occasion
Notable and Enjoyable.

The fourth annual banquet of the Ranger council of the Knights of Columbus, served in the Gholsion hotel, was attended by upwards of 300 guests, which included visiting clergy from Dallas and Fort Worth, visiting knights from a number of West Texas cities, many Protestant friends in Ranger, and virtually every member of the Ranger Council Knights of Columbus.

It was a delightful occasion, enlivened by the sparkling wit of the speakers and by the repartee between them and the toastmaster, Edwin R. Maher. For upwards of two hours the speakers held the attention of the banqueters.

The banquet hall was attractively decorated. The K. of C. emblem, anchor and cross emblazoned on canvas, draped by an American flag, was conspicuous back of the speakers' place. At each table were small American flags and K. of C. emblems, and each table was lighted by candles. The lighting arrangement at the speakers' table was especially beautiful, resembling red roses in full bloom.

Plea to Americans.

An impassioned plea that Americans get back to the religious loyalty of our forefathers, both Catholic and Protestants, featured the address of the Very Rev. Dr. W. P. Barr, president of Dallas university. He said that religious loyalty is the only thing that will save the American republic in the face of perils now menacing the constitution.

The three things which Dr. Barr said threaten the safety of the republic are legalized divorce, disrespect for laws and socialism.

Mayor R. H. Hodges in a brief talk welcomed the candidates for the initiation ceremonies of the K. of C., many coming from Eastland, Cisco and Breckenridge, and visitors from Dallas, Fort Worth, Abilene, Big Springs and San Angelo.

Edwin R. Maher, toastmaster, said that he was prompted to have Mayor Hodges welcome the visitors because he "is our own Bob Hodges and we love him."

An original piece of poetry, or "verse" as the speaker preferred to call it, was read by the Rev. Louis J. Harrington of Dallas, past state chaplain. He said the verse described the typical K. of C.—"just a true American and an ordinary, Catholic gentleman."

Gus Coleman, president of the Rotary club, taking as his subject the Rotarian motto, "He profits most who serves best," praised the loyalty of two members of the K. of C. to his club. "If there has ever been two loyal friends of mine in the Rotary club," he said, "it has been Ed Maher and Bill MacDonald." He said it was none of a Rotarian's business whether a man was a Catholic, Protestant, Filipino or a Chinaman.

Loyalty.

Dr. Barr, who called himself a Texan by adoption, said he was dumfounded to find out Ranger was a progressive, little metropolis. "Bricks and pavements don't make a city," he said, "so I wanted to see what is the caliber of the people. I met various men and women of your community during the day and I now feel that you have a sure-enough city." He said in part:

"You, who are of our faith, know that it is a part of us to be loyal. We Catholics are taught to be loyal to our God and to our country.

"I love my country. I love my country next to my God. I am not that type of patriot who believes in boasting that we have the greatest country and shutting our eyes to dangers confront us.

"I will take the liberty to point out some of the dangers to our constitution. The first is the loss of respect for the law. Every thinking man admits that there is a growing disrespect for the law. Is life respected? Every time the clock goes around the face, there is a life snuffed out unlawfully. What is done to compensate this outrage against human life? Not one murderer in 10 pays the penalty. If something is not done to vindicate the taking of there is a growing disrespect for the human life soon, we might as well write the valedictory of the constitutions."

The second great danger, the speaker said, is the disregard for the "sa-

Panhandle No. 2 In Shallow Field Touches Oil Sand

Panhandle well No. 2 in the shallow fields, six miles south of Ranger, came in this morning but because of a lack of gas pressure, the well will have to be swabbed. At the office of the owners it was said that it would be a day or two before it will be opened. The operators said after seeing the oil pouring over the top of the hole that it has the appearance of being good for 200 barrels daily.

No. 2 is an offset to the Gray-Hightower tract which showed 425 barrels, flush production, when it first came through. It is now producing 350 barrels.

This makes four producers in the Panhandle shallow fields, south of Ranger.

The Panhandle has a showing of oil at 1200 feet in its No. 3 on the Brasher tract, one-half mile southwest of the Gray-Hightower. Drillers have been successful in casing off the salt water it is reported.

Mr. Seward is also working to have profiles of all the city's streets and alleys. He was out Monday morning gathering figures.

Large crowds are attending the revival services at the Central Baptist church. There were 317 at the Bible school and the church was crowded at both morning and evening services.

The Sunday School partitions have been removed, enlarging the seating capacity and all available space was occupied last night to hear Dr. G. O. Key, who is assisting the Rev. A. L. Leake. There were two additions to the church.

Mr. Key emphasized the place and power of prayer as of first importance in the quest of souls. He spoke of the hindrances to effectual praying, the reasonableness of prayer, and the necessity of praying in the name of Christ. "If ye ask anything

Ranger School Board Organizes, Reelects Officers and Also Reelects E. O. McNew, School Superintendent

The new school board of the Ranger independent school district was organized this morning. V. V. Cooper was re-elected president of the board and M. H. Hagaman was chosen secretary.

Passing over the applications of candidates for the superintendency of the Ranger public schools, including one from Oklahoma, the board re-elected E. O. McNew, superintendent of schools for the past three years, for a term of two years at the same salary of $3,500.

The motion that Mr. McNew be re-elected for two years was offered by H. E. Clewell, following the expression of individual opinions on the office by all of the members present. Mr. Hagaman was the only member not present.

Mr. McNew, who was acting as secretary, retired from the room when the question of a choice of superintendent came up. He later returned when the board had disposed of the matter and was informed of his election.

In his speech of acceptance he said that he could be more efficient if he had two years to plan on than one. He said he did not feel that the two-year term was binding if at any time there was dissatisfaction with his services. "If ever there comes a time that the majority is against me," he said, "I'll give the board my resignation." Mrs. C. E. Maddocks, re-elected to

Girl Declares She Loves Her Foster Mother the Best

CHICAGO, April 30.—Beatrice Nuttall, 12 years of age, whose real and foster mothers have created a strange emotional problem by asking a court to decide her custody, today declared she will flee if awarded to the mother who gave her birth. The child, after establishing a friendship between the two women, pleaded to live with Mrs. James Nuttall, the foster parent, who had kept her since she was a week old.

Mrs. Charles Morris, the real mother, started court action for Beatrice after a 12-year search through several states for her. She claimed that Beatrice was taken from her and given in adoption by relatives, who feared disgrace because the child was born out of wedlock.

Mrs. Morris later married Clayton Clanger, whom she says is father of the child, and he has been subpoenaed to testify when the case is heard before two superior court judges tomorrow.

SUPREME COURT UPHOLDS 3-MILE LIMIT RULING

Holds, However, Prohibition Law Cannot Be Enforced Outside That Limit.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—The United States supreme court today decided that neither American nor foreign ships can legally bring liquor inside the three-mile limit of American territorial waters, but outside that limit, both American and foreign ships are no longer subject to American prohibition laws.

The court decision knocked out in part the ruling of Attorney General Daugherty, which held that the government had power to prohibit American ships anywhere on the seas from carrying liquor and that it also could prohibit foreign ships bringing it within the three-mile limit.

As to American ships, the Daugherty ruling was reversed; and as to foreign ships it was upheld.

The decision was read by Justice Van Deventer.

Justices McReynolds and Sutherland dissented.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—The ruling of Attorney General Daugherty against the serving of liquor on American ships on the high seas was overturned by the supreme court today.

The court held that the ban prohibiting both American and foreign ships from bringing whisky in bond to American shores to be legal and enforceable.

The court held that ships can not be legally prevented from selling beverages while outside of American waters, reversing a decision of Justice Hand of New York.

Within the three-mile limit ships cannot sell beverages, sustaining the position made by Judge Hand on that point, his decision declaring it illegal for American ships to bring in whisky in bond.

TWO CARS GO INTO DITCH HEAD-FIRST WHEN COLLIDING ON HIGHWAY

An attempt of a driver of a Ford coupe to pass a touring car of the same manufacture Sunday afternoon, several miles east of Ranger on the Bankhead highway, resulted in the two cars being put out of commission. Minor hurts were sustained by occupants of both cars.

The coupe was occupied by two young women, said to live in Caddo. They refused to give their names. One of the occupants went to the Clinical hospital for a dressing of her cuts but did not give her name.

Both cars were coming towards Ranger. Both of them dropped into a six-foot ditch, going in headfirst and both were badly damaged.

ered ties of the strong unit of the republic—the family. The family is the foundation stone of the republic. Family ties.

He predicted that unless drastic measures are taken to uproot the divorce evil the republic would be decadent within three generations.

The third danger, which he said strikes at the very principles of the constitution, is socialism. Stripped of its "sugar coating," he said that it "would be a religious prosecution that would make the worship of God impossible; a revolution that would overturn the republic; a program that would destroy the family."

Call for Patriots. John W. Philp, postmaster of Dallas, introduced by Toastmaster Maher as that "other Republican of Texas besides Ranger's own postmaster, J. W. Dreinhofer," said there was never a time in the nation's history as the present when "real patriots" are needed.

He denounced the communist propaganda in the United States and called upon his hearers to organize individually to combat the revolutionary slogans of the I. W. W.'s.

"There is growing in this country today propaganda that if allowed to continue will destroy the nation," he said. As proof of his statement he

Mr. Philp said he had one test to make when anyone told a story about his neighbor or country. "As an American, as a Catholic and as a native of Texas, I ask only one test: Know what you believe is true before you believe it or repeat it."

Raymond Teal entertained the banqueters in his inimitable way with Southern dialect stories. He was roundly applauded.

George T. Burgess, past state deputy, K. of C., brought the program to a close with a toast to womanhood.

Toastmaster Maher, who announced after nearly all the speakers had paid their respect to his ability as a toastmaster, that he was singing his own swan song as such, thanked Arthur G. Jury, who managed the banquet, and W. N. McDonald, grand knight of the Ranger Council, for their assistance.

PLAYS OF 1920 CLUB WILL BE GIVEN TONIGHT.

Considerable interest is being found in the program of plays which the 1920 club will present tonight at the high school auditorium.

The allegory "Will-o-the-Wisp," which is to follow it is a fantastic thing very cleverly given by Mrs. Harry Reed, Miss Ruth Hagaman, Miss Emily Dreinhofer and Miss Rosalie Jameson.

For good measure, the program will also contain that ever interesting bit of human character study, "The Family Photograph Album," in which about 40 of the leading citizens of Ranger and their children will be seen as relatives and friends of "the family" found in the old album.

TUESDAY EVENTS.

Group 2 of 1920 club gives theatre party at 5 o'clock at Lamb theatre.

Meeting of Child Welfare officers and committee chairman, at 3 o'clock at home of Mrs. John Thurman.

THEATRE PARTY FOR 1920 CLUB MEMBERS.

Group 2 of the 1920 club will entertain other members of the club with a theatre party Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Lamb theatre.

All who expect to attend are asked to be at the theatre at the appointed hour. Individual members will be called by telephone, but in case the message does not reach them they are asked to consider this notice an invitation.

Q. E. T. CLUB GIVES EVENING ENTERTAINMENT.

Members of the Q. E. T. club entertained Friday evening for their husbands at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Rhodes.

The club colors of pink and green were used in decoration and a delicious salad course was served. High score prize for men, a gold knife and chain, went to H. T. Brashier.

The gentlemen's booby prize went to Clyde Spaulding. High score for ladies, a silver vanity bag, went to Mrs. Bunkley. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Thorp, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Brashier, Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Brashier, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Spaulding, Mrs. Bunkley, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes.

Letters competing for the prizes offered by the Ranger Daily Times in connection with a special page advertising business interest in Ranger have been flooding into the Times office for the last several weeks. The judges today announce the prize winners as follows:

Miss Audrey Meister, first prize, $20.
Lynton Raymond Taylor Jr., second prize, $10.

Werna Patton, third prize, $5.
Nora Eadicott, fourth prize, $3.
The next six contestants, each of which will receive $2, are: Ila Welch, Josephina Stallings, Ernest Shelton, Evelyn Health, Frances Fouke, Lucile Hair.

Three other papers submitted received special mention by the judges and the Times will award each a prize of $1. These contestants are: Murkle Mills, Alphonso Jones and Murrell Victor Perrine.

As each essay or letter was received by the Times it was numbered and the name of the writer placed in an envelope similarly numbered and then sealed. This list was kept in the office, so that none might know until after the awards were made who had written the letters. When the letters were received back from the judges each list was identified by its number.

The committee of judges to whom the letters were submitted to determine their relative merit included: Prof. H. D. Wood, principal Ranger High school; Miss Myrtle Chaney, teacher in the Young school, and Miss Fanny Shipp, teacher in the Central ward school.

All of the letters receiving awards show merit, some, naturally, more than others, and all indicate thought and labor expended in the writing. The publication of these letters, which will be begun in a few days, will give the people of Ranger an opportunity to judge for themselves. Prize winners are asked to call at the Times office any time after Wednesday to receive checks for the prizes.
