SUGGESTION TO FARM MOTHERS—
BABIES DESERVE AND REQUIRE CAREFUL FEEDING AS CALVES
If American farmers paid as much attention to their babies as they do to their animals the child nutrition problem would be partly solved, according to Dr. Walter H. Ramsey, writing in Mother and Child, the official organ of the American Child Health association which, with Herbert Hoover as president, has been formed for the protection and promotion of child health work in America.

LONGHORN GIRLS LEARNING TO BE EXPERT SHOTS

Planning Competitive Rifle Match Against Men of University.

Special to the Times.

AUSTIN, Texas, April 27.—Plans for a competition shooting match between the men's Longhorn Rifle club and the Girls' Rifle club of the University of Texas to be held in May are being made by officials of the two organizations, according to Harold H. Wellborn of Henderson, president of the men's rifle club.

Neither the boys nor the girls have been able to secure much practice for the last two months due to extensive repair and construction work being done on the Camp Mabry range. The range equipment has now been put in first class condition and during the last two weeks several have availed themselves of the opportunity to practice shooting. In addition to repairs on the old ranges, a new 1,000 yard range has been built. The new range is said to be one of the finest 1,000 yard ranges in the state.

The Girls' Rifle club, which was organized for the first time this season at the University, has for a coach Mrs. Grace McCellan of Austin, champion pistol shot of Texas. The University is the first college in the Southwest to make rifle shooting a regular sport for girls. At the practice meets, the girls have been making some good records, and are expected to make a good showing in the competitive match.

PREMIER POINCARE SEES SOMETHING TO SMILE AT

By Associated Press

PARIS, April 27.—Premier Poincare the other day saw himself as others see him; and he smiled one of his rare smiles. Nine years of war and of a peace much like war have emphasized his seriousness. The premier was a guest at a large private dinner, which was followed, as is the custom here by an entertainment. At the entertainment Delphin, a dwarf familiar to the Parisian theatregoers, daringly impersonated M. Poincare. The little fellow did it so admirably and with such good humor that the head of the government laughed as he seldom does, and then quite astonished his diminutive double by the warmth of his congratulations.

AMERICAN MOVING PICTURE FILMS POPULAR IN FRANCE

By Associated Press

PARIS, April 27.—American moving picture films formed nearly nine-tenths of the total mileage thrown upon French screens during the month of March. Statistics just published show that out of close to seven miles of films—102,880 meters—only 14,350 meters were French. The other 88,830 meters—excepting a few thousand meters—were American.

French habits appear still to have much liking for the wild west, broncho-busting, gun play films, many of which were taken years ago and for which the European market remains very good.

League of Texas Municipalities Will Meet Soon

Annual Convention Speakers Include Many of Distinction.

AUSTIN, April 27.—Frank M. Stewart, executive secretary of the League of Texas Municipalities, has just announced a tentative program for the annual convention of the league to be held at Bryan, May 9 and 10. Speakers so far for the convention include newspapermen, capitalists, and specialists in city government.

Lutcher Stark of Orange, has been secured to deliver an address on "The Relation of Municipalities to Public Parks and Playgrounds." Tom Piny, editor of the Dallas Journal and associate editor of the Dallas News, will speak on "Constitutional Handicaps of Texas Cities," pointing out the limitations which still restrain the freedom of action of the cities after the passage of the home rule amendment.

Fort Worth Mayor to Talk Mayor E. R. Cockrell of Fort Worth, president of the league has chosen "Community Building" as the subject for his presidential address. M. E. Tracey, of the Houston Chronicle, is on the program for an address on "The Necessity for City Planning." Representative Lee Rountree of Bryan, editor of the Bryan Eagle, will speak on "The Conservation and Reclamation Movement and Its Relation to the Cities."

O. F. Holcombe, mayor of Houston, will deliver an address on "A Sound Policy for Municipal Bonding." S. E. Eberstadt, secretary of the chamber of commerce of Bryan, has agreed to explain Bryan's building association plan, and styles his address "Building and Loan Associations for City Development." Roy Miller of Houston, will speak on "The Relation of Ports and Waterways to the Prosperity of Texas Cities." C. W. Arlt of Austin will speak on "Oil as a Means for the Production of Gas for Municipalities."

A number of other speakers will be secured before the convention, according to Mr. Stewart, and a complete program will be sent to the officials of member cities within a few days.

Paved Street Much Needed In Front of New High School

Superintendent E. O. McNew of the Ranger public schools, Thursday, said the protracted rains are making the street in front of Ranger's new quarter of million high school building almost impassable.

"The street ought to be paved so that people can reach the school easily," he said. "The new building is an object of beauty and it would be to the interests of the city to have a good street to show the building to visitors."

Workmen are now staking the ground and excavating for the foundation of the new sidewalks to flank the school grounds on Marston and Pine streets. Three hundred feet of cement sidewalk on Marston and 190 feet on Pine will be laid. There will also be walks laid for the three building entrances. The main entrance on Marston street will have a 12-foot walk.

Work on the grading of the terraces has also started.

PLANS DRAWN FOR NEW SCHOOLHOUSE AT MERRIMAN

Plans are being drawn for the proposed new Merriman school. J. R. Slaughter of Dallas is the architect. It is said that the board of trustees has not decided when construction work will be started. Neither has it been definitely decided as to what the construction costs will be.

Approximately $20,000 is being considered as the figure that may build the kind of building desired for the school children of Merriman district.

Keeping Credit Good

Merchant Expresses His View of Reasonable Accomodation In Business, Both for Convenience of Customer and Dealer, but Chiefly for Former.

A merchant of Ranger said: "As you all know, nearly every merchant in every line of business is compelled to do a certain amount of credit business. Why? Because a vast number either ask or expect the merchant to extend to them that courtesy and convenience and that is oftentimes a request made through necessity."

"The merchant grants the request in just as many instances as is possible, knowing at the time that he must rely upon his judgment as to the financial and moral risk. And in the end it is "billed down" to the moral risk. Of course they take into consideration the question: Can he pay? But it is not so vital as the question: Will he pay?"

"The merchant's risks along the line are many. He deals with wholesale houses and jobbers who either demand cash for their merchandise or sell it to him on seven to 15 days time. And understand, he must pay when his bill falls due. If he hasn't the money, he must get out and collect just as much as possible—then go to the bank and make notes for the balance. Please remember that when the bank accepts his note, they know that the merchant has sufficient property to cover the amount plus court costs: for when they demand their money, they get it. So, the point is this: When your account is due and the merchant presents same, and he certainly has a right to, his reason in 95 per cent of the cases is that he needs the money to meet his obligations, and if he doesn't meet his obligations his creditors will close his doors and take his property to satisfy their claim."

"Just remember that when you go to a bank to borrow money, you are absolutely required to give collateral. That when you buy an automobile on time, you are required to make a substantial initial payment and then give an iron-clad mortgage to insure payment of the balance. That when you deal with any of the public utilities, you are required to make a deposit on your meters, etc., and then when you do not meet these accounts on time, your service is discontinued and your deposit is forfeited.

"But your butcher, your grocer, your dry goods man, who have furnished you with the absolute necessities of life must accept your promise to pay with no collateral—just your promise as a man.

"If you owe a merchant and cannot pay him, don't go spend your cash with another. Spend it with him—he is entitled to it. He is entitled to the profit derived therefrom for he is helping you to bear your burdens and is paying interest on the money you owe him.

"If you owe a merchant and he presents you with a statement when it is due, do not become offended, as I have seen lots of people do. He has the right to ask for the money—he needs it. He is not doubting you by this act, he is trying to raise money to meet his obligations.

"If you are the kind that becomes offended when a bill is presented, you should be at his place of business on the morning that the account falls due and pay.

"Another thing, when you step to the telephone and place an order with your grocer, you want those articles in time to prepare them for your next meal. And when a merchant presents you with a statement of your account, he wants the money in order that he may meet his obligation. Please bear these facts in mind and be as prompt and considerate in your returns as the merchant was in his furnishing you."

MIGHTY CROWDS PACK SUBWAYS IN NEW YORK

'Sard' e' Life Led by Playgoers Is Described as Alarming by Engineer.

NEW YORK, April 27.—The 'Sardine' life led by playgoers who nightly struggle their way in crowded subways to the Great White Way is graphically described and characterized as 'almost alarming' in a report issued by Nelson P. Lewis, formerly chief engineer of the city board of estimate and apportionment, recently retained to study the problem.

When smiling Broadway managers hang out the 'standing room only' sign, as they frequently are doing nowadays, it means not even standing room in the subways, the report discloses, with sometimes as many as 900 passengers over a capacity load trying to get on every train leaving through each of the five tunnels that lead away from Times Square.

City Fails to Limit Halls. Failure of the city to limit the number of public halls in any given area, as is done in London and other old world cities, is blamed by the report for the condition.

'Between Thirty-eighth and Fifty-first streets and between Sixth and Eighth avenues,' says the report, 'there are no less than 78 theatres. Their combined seating capacity is 95,000. Forty-four of them, with a capacity of 56,000, are within a circle having a radius of 1,000 feet from the center of Broadway and Forty-second street.'

'Assume for a moment that of these 56,000 amusement seekers, 35,000 come from the Times Square station between 8 and 8:30. From this station Interborough and Brooklyn Rapid Transit trains run both north and south, while a shuttle train runs to the Grand Central station and the east side Interborough line. If these 35,000 people were equally distributed between these five routes, it would mean that 7,000 people would have to be accommodated by each. Now if two-thirds of this total arrived between 8 and 8:15 and one-third between 8:15 and 8:30, it would mean that 4,700 people would arrive from each of these five directions in the latter quarter of an hour.

Describes Train Conditions. 'The performances are over very nearly the same time, and the period during which the crowds wish to reach the subway trains is considerably shorter. Let us assume, however, that they will be obliged to occupy the same half hour in dispersing. A 10-car train, loaded to capacity, holds about 1,300, while with all the standing room occupied to the limit of decency, it will hold 1,000. If, then, such 10-car trains left in each of these five directions every three minutes, it would mean that 940 passengers would try to crowd into these trains without regard to the number already on them.'

NEGRO HIGHWAYMEN REPORTED OPERATING ON EASTLAND HILL

A white man, who failed to give his name, told Chief Davenport he had been robbed of $60 in cash by four negroes in a Ford car last night on Eastland hill. He was walking on the road when the car containing the negroes drove up. One of the men commanded the stranger to hold up his hands while the others went through his pockets. Chief Davenport said the victim of the robbers lived out of town. The stranger said he was held up about 9 o'clock.

ONE SIN MAY MAR HISTORY OF NATION, EVANGELIST SAYS

'One single act may make or mar the history of man, a nation—yea, the world,' said Evangelist Phillips in his Wednesday night sermon on 'Sin and Its Cure.'

Weather conditions for the past three days have mitigated against the success of the Church of Christ revival. Yet a good crowd heard him last night in a masterful discourse on the awfulness of sin in its various aspects and its direful consequences to men, churches and nations.

The lesson to the children was especially impressive, both to the young and old. Subject for children's service tonight will be 'Watches,' beginning at 7:45. Preaching at 8 o'clock. Subject, 'Paul's Estate and How He Disposed of It.'

Between 35 and 40 Ranger Odd Fellows drove to Cisco in cars.

LANDIS OPPOSES GAMBLING AS IN BASEBALL POOLS

DIVERS LOOKING FOR GOLD ALONG FLOOR OF OCEAN

LONDON, April 27.—Armed with large knives with which to fight off the attacks of dogfish, a corps of deep sea divers is working at the bottom of the sea off Lough Swilly in an effort to recover the three and a half millions in gold lost when the Laurentic was torpedoed during the war. Part of the treasure has already been salvaged.

Heavy weather has torn the Laurentic to pieces and strewn the gold along the ocean floor. The task of the divers is made especially difficult because of the great depth of the water in which they are obliged to work, and the strongest of them are frequently overcome. The wreck is well covered with sand, which must be removed by steam suction pumps operated from the salvage vessel.

MOST DIRECT ROUTE SHIPMENTS TO STOP

WASHINGTON, April 27.—Railroads are no longer required by the Interstate Commerce commission to route shipments over the most direct lines from the point of origin to destination. Such order was the only remnant of the emergency measures taken during the coal and rail strikes of 1922 during a transportation tie-up.

TOURISTS CROWD CAIRO HOTELS

ALEXANDRIA, Egypt, April 27.—The presence of hundreds of American tourists in Cairo has caused a congestion in the hotels.

Rooms usually occupied by a single person have two or three persons in them. In some cases bath rooms are being utilized as bed rooms. Rooms are so scarce that tourists who are accustomed to the best are willing to put up with anything. Not since before the war have Cairo hotels been so over-crowded.

SPECIALISTS! THEY ARE FOUND EVEN AMONG CROOKS

DALLAS, April 27.—Specialists This word does not refer only to the ones who have tread the straight and narrow path but to the lowest criminals, according to Detective Chief Charles Gunning.

'A pickpocket with well trained fingers wouldn't think of holding up anyone,' Gunning stated. 'nor would he prow a house. He is a specialist in the art of gentle touch and won't vary a bit.'

'Then take the hi-jacker. The man who takes a pistol, steps out in the dark, shoves it under somebody's nose and takes their money, is a 'rude worker. His nerve usually is brimmed with either dope or booze. 30th of these are highly necessary to the ordinary run of stick-up men. The hi-jacker would not think of trying to forge or raise a piece of paper money. He's too high strung. It takes a criminal with intelligence and steady nerves, to alter a check or currency.'

The automobile thief who specializes on Ford's won't look at another car, Gunning declares.

'It's all in a day's work. We have to specialize to beat the crook and must have men who are much smarter than they are. Otherwise—we would have to stay at home with the doors locked,' agreed Police Chief Louis Brown.

WILL SAIL OVER PACIFIC IN A HOME-MADE SUB

SAN PEDRO, Cal., April 26.—William Roland, 42, carpenter and fisherman, plans to depart soon for Madagascar, on the east coast of Africa, in a 30-foot wooden submarine he has built, the 'Roland Neptune.'

Roland built his craft on Mormon Island, in the inner harbor, during the past two years. The peculiar vessel is only seven feet deep, and has a one-cylinder motorcycle engine to furnish power, with sails for auxiliary power.

Roland plans to catch fish through a hatch in the bottom of the boat. In case the craft capsizes, the navigator will escape through the hatch in the bottom, and then utilize a collapsible liferaft which he will carry, lashed to the deck.

The sail can be taken down like a periscope when he wants to submerge. As soon as he finishes a few more details, Roland plans to take a tank of gasoline, water, beans and sea biscuit, and start for Madagascar. He is 42, and has been a sailor all his life, and feels confident that he can make the trip.

AMARILLO.—Mrs. Lois White Henderson, librarian of the Potter county free library, states that new fiction has been received and catalogued and circulated so rapidly that twenty new books makes no show. The shelves are always empty and requests waiting for these books as soon as it is known that they are in circulation. Mrs. Henderson states that requests often come in from adjoining counties for service.

AUSTIN.—Sweet corn shippings are expected to get under way from the Wharton district in a few days, state marketing bureau reports declare. Considerable sweet corn planting is reported in Travis county. Approximately 60 cars of the product rolled to market from the Austin district last season and the crop proved profitable to growers, it is stated.

HELPOGG'S CORNFLAKES HELP START DAY RIGHT, RENEW THE STRENGTH

Did you ever start the day with Kellogg's Cornflakes, that dainty breakfast food that gives just the right zest to a morning meal? Perhaps not, but you may have come home hungry some noon after hours of shopping, and had that tired feeling banished in a few moments by a tempting dish of the famous Kellogg's tasty cornflakes, with milk to complete the nourishment.

Grown folks need it as much as the children do, and the tired business man will find it refreshing for luncheon, as well as a fine starter for the day. If you do not know what Kellogg's cornflakes is, you have one of the most delightful discoveries of the age to make. Just ask your grocer. He knows and will be glad to help you find this delicious and nourishing food which is welcomed eagerly in all houses where it is known, and will soon be a friend in those homes where it has yet to be tried.

If your grocer fails to have Kellogg's products phone 224, Ranger Daily Times, and they will be glad to tell you where to buy it.

The picture collection of the Houston public library, it is announced, now contains several thousand pictures. New additions are made daily. The collection has been useful, according to Miss Emma Lee, children's librarian, to school teachers and students as well as to Houston business men planning advertisements.

HOW TO LIVE 100 YEARS

Happiness in Every Song.

"Sing a song every day and you will live one hundred years or more," says Florence Macbeth, prima donna of the Chicago Opera Company. She does and intends to keep on past the century mark. "Nobody needs a vocal teacher for this, just sing, on key or off key, a layan or a comic, sotto voce or aloud, and you'll be surprised at how happy it will make you. And happiness is the real key to longevity." Miss Macbeth is forming a league called the "Sing a Song a Day" League.

The Shettles collection of church history, recently purchased for the Southern Methodist University of Dallas, contains approximately 5,000 volumes, including Wesley pamphlets, Southern and Southwestern history and biographies of Americans. It is stated that the collection contains many publications of the Eighteenth century and some even rarer works of the Nineteenth century.

SMALLER HORSE-POWER LIGHT CARS BECOMING POPULAR IN ENGLAND

LONDON, April 27.—Every tenth person in the United States owns an automobile, according to British statistics. American manufacturers produce in a single month more than the total number of cars now in the whole of Great Britain, which is 314,769. In 1922 America turned out nearly 3,000,000 cars. Britain's output was less than 40,000.

American automobile owners in 1922 used 32,000,000 tires and 34,000,000 inner tubes. The total number of employees in the British car industry is less than 100,000, which is insignificant when compared with any one of the prominent American factories. In Great Britain there is only one automobile to every 152 of population.

British manufacturers are discarding the heavier motors for lighter and more flexible designs. They have found that the modern 10 or 12 horse-power light car performs better than the heavy 20 or 30 horse-power car of a few years ago. The lighter cars have remarkable power of acceleration, flexibility, and smoothness of running, due to their high-speed engine.

As the cost of licenses in Britain is based upon the horsepower of the motor, it is important to confine the size of the motor to reasonable limits, especially for the man of moderate means.

Of the four tennis matches played between Susanne Lenglen and Molla Mallory, Lenglen won three, and Mallory one.

A Beautiful Complexion of Satin-Like Texture

The incomparable beauty of thousands of women—that smooth, satin-like skin texture so much admired—is the result of Nadinola Cream, which has proved itself for a quarter of a century, the standard bleaching and beautifying cream.

Scientists long ago discovered and combined in Nadinola Cream, elements which bleach the skin and remove tan, freckles, pimples and other discolorations. Of its own peculiar virtues, it aids the skin of impurities and leaves it smooth and beautiful. The 50c. package will remove mild cases, the $1.00 size more stubborn cases.

Directions and guarantee in each package, at your toilet counter.

IT HAS BEEN PRONOUNCED O. K. BY THE GREAT CROWDS THAT HAVE PACKED EVERY AISLE IN THE STORE SINCE THE OPENING DAY OF THE GREATEST SALE EVER CONDUCTED BY J. M. WHITE & CO.

We wish to thank the people of Eastland County for their liberal patronage and the kind words that they have spoken in behalf of this great Move 'Em Out Sale. While we realize the savings are great but without the support and good will of the people any sale will fall flat. When we put on a sale we are going to give the people something for their money. We want them to speak well of us. We also want them to come again. That's the only sane way to conduct a business successfully. When we promise to do something, we are going to do it if we have to take the roof off. That's all.
