RATS ATTACK LITTLE BOY AFTER HE IS PUT

the youngster on one side of his nose and underneath his upper lip and chin. The boy's nose was bitten in several places. Blood streaming down the youngster's throat caused his folks when they reached his side to first think his throat had been slashed in some unknown manner. But a sound of scampering feeet through a stairway suggested an attack of rats.

The young boy, Nolen, with his brother, Alvin, a carrier for the Times, went to bed shortly after 10:30 .800 o'clock. The Campbells had been to .750 a sanitarium to visit a sick friend.

"We heard a noise like that of rats .500 on the stairway about 11 o'clock," .500 said Mrs. Campbell this morning. .333 "We were afterwards sorry we didn't made us almost sick. He seemed to be choking and couldn't say a word. His first words were to ask 'What were them things, mama?' We bathed the cuts in carbolic water and I put him to bed with us."

Alvin said he heard his brother scream, but did not hear the noise made by the rats. Mr. Campbell works at the Prairie Oil & Gas company.

This is the day of better homes, better clothing, better babies, better health, better business. Compare any phase of our life with that of years ago and you will find that it is better.

And advertising is the instrument that makes most of these better things possible.

Advertising is the news of all the looms, all the furnaces, all the laboratories, all the shops, all the stores that are working, planning and building for you.
